Care Agency Reopens

Home Care Assistance President Ryan Waddell (center with scissors) celebrates the company's reopening with Carmichael Chamber of Commerce supporters.

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - A family business – whose business is family – is celebrating a grand reopening and an eight-year anniversary in Carmichael.

In 2014, founders Dave and Debbie Waddell started Home Care Assistance in Roseville. Its mission was to provide at-home aid for seniors. With son Ryan at the helm, the company now operates from the Bel Air Shopping center on Fair Oaks Boulevard.

“A retail shopping center allows us to be a community resource,” says Waddell. “People can drop by and ask questions without an appointment; we’ll talk to anyone who comes in.”

Father of four Waddell was raised by parents with hands-on elder care commitment. “My dad grew up looking after his grandmother,” he explains. “Seeing how important these relationships were, I was motivated to care for my own grandparents. I learned to love helping people. Even if someone is not going to be a client, I enjoy giving my time to help steer them in the right direction.”

His company employs 75 caregivers. Professionally trained, they serve 50 or more seniors with weekly visits. “They are out-going; they’re creative in finding ways to engage seniors,” says the boss. “They’ll go above and beyond to help people remain in their own homes.”

Staff duties range from meal preparation, light housekeeping, laundry and medication reminders. “They’ll take people grocery shopping and to the pharmacy,” says Waddell. “They’ll drive them to their hairdresser, a movie and the casino – to Disneyland, if they want. We ask people about their goals for staying at home; then help customize a plan to achieve those goals.”

Cognitive exercises are part of staff visits. “Keep aging minds sharp helps delay decline,” says Waddell. “We treasure every client. We work to find creative ways to keep them healthy and happy in the place they love – their home.”

Prepare for Spring Cleanup on the American River Parkway!

ARPF News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Volunteers will take to the American River Parkway (Parkway) on April 15, 2023 from 9 a.m. to noon to remove trash and debris as part of the American River Parkway Foundation’s (Parkway Foundation) annual Spring Clean-Up. This year, there are nine (9) locations along the Parkway for the event.

“The high-water levels we experienced earlier this year have spread trash into areas of the American River Parkway where it doesn’t normally accumulate, increasing the impact it can have on the environment and our waterways,” said Dianna Poggetto, the Parkway Foundation’s Executive Director. “Spring Clean-Up will be a great opportunity for the whole community to come out and show their love for our urban jewel and help in its conservation.”

Spring Clean-Up is the Parkway Foundation’s second largest annual clean-up and draws hundreds of volunteers from the Sacramento community. It’s a family-friendly event with opportunities for groups and individuals of all ages and sizes. This is also a great way to spend a Saturday morning making an impact on the community, team building and earning community service hours.

Spring Clean-Up is weather and water level dependent and will only be held if conditions are safe for volunteers. If the event is cancelled, those that have registered will be notified at least 24 hours in advance.

The 9 locations along the American River Parkway are: Discovery Park, Northgate Access*, Cal Expo-Ethan Way*, Howe Avenue*, Watt Avenue, River Bend Park, Upper Sunrise Recreation Area, Gold Country Boulevard, On-Water.

The American River Parkway Foundation (Parkway Foundation) is the only nonprofit organization focused on active conservation of all 23 miles of the American River Parkway (Parkway). Through managing programs like volunteer clean-ups, infrastructure improvements, trail maintenance, fire mitigation and education, the Parkway Foundation leads and inspires the community to conserve and nurture the Parkway as a unique, accessible resource for everyone to enjoy. Button Up for the Bazaar

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - For the first time since the pandemic, the Californian Button Society brings its potpourri expo back to Carmichael on March 11.

West Coast dealers will demonstrate that many antiques can slip easily through buttonholes.

Enthusiasts might snag a Civil War uniform fastener for $50. Those who crave exquisite 18th century pieces should be prepared to unbutton the billfold.

Snipped from long-ago rotted garments, many are thumb-nail masterpieces. “We often look at old buttons and imagine the stories they could tell,” says Button Club treasurer Susan Rhoades. “They were traded, stolen and inherited. Lives were lost in making them; pearl dust and mercury (for gold plating) killed many. You learn so much about history, art and manufacturing from buttons. They reflect the culture of fashion and the art that celebrates it.”

Rancho Cordova button collector Barbara Alfidi (right) and Dawn Healy were among enthusiasts at the 2019 Button Bazaar in Carmichael.

Historically, no material has been too grand for button artisans. In Versailles, the court of Louis XIV cinched bodices with diamonds.

Register for Elder Abuse Awareness Roadshow

Sac County News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The McGeorge School of Law is hosting a series of events to make seniors aware of the dangers of financial abuse. The school's Elder & Health Law Clinic partnered with Capital Stage for the interactive theater event. The group put together several skits explaining the warning signs of financial abuse to seniors. The "No." Is A Complete Sentence Elder Abuse Awareness Roadshow gives the public a chance to learn how someone might try to scam them and how they can avoid financial harm. The McGeorge School of Law's Elder & Health Law Clinic often works with Sacramento County's Senior and Adult Services to provide legal guidance to seniors.

"Our event is an interactive know your rights presentation where actors from the Capital Stage perform several skits taken from real-life elder financial abuse cases that our legal clinic has litigated," said staff attorney Lacey Mickleburgh.

During the presentations, actors play out different scenarios. In one skit, a son asks his dad to sign over power of attorney. Later, the dad realizes the son took out his entire savings. The skit is meant to teach older adults that sometimes even those close to them might not have the best intentions.

Once the first act of the performance is finished, the performers ask the audience for feedback. The advice from the audience is then applied to the skit and the financial abuse is avoided.

"There are so many cases that come through our door where our older adults have been influenced to make a decision that ended in financial abuse," said Mickleburgh.

The Elder & Health Law Clinic wanted to stop that financial abuse before it occurs. The skits illustrate the questions older adults must ask before signing documents or making agreements. When they know what to ask and what to look out for, they can better protect themselves.

There are two upcoming performances at the following locations:

March 28, 2023, at 3 p.m., at ACC Senior Services (7334 Park City Dr., Sacramento, CA 95831)

May 12, 2023, at 10 a.m., at Sacramento State (6000 J Street., Sacramento, CA 95819)

You can register for the event on February 9 by clicking this link <https://www.cop.church/event/11094816-2023-02-09-elder-abuse-roadshow/>.

If you or someone you know has been the victim of elder financial abuse, contact law enforcement and Sacramento County Adult Protective Services.

With Public Input, SAFE Grants $5,000 to Help Curb Homelessness

SAFE Credit Union News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - On Jan. 30, 2023, SAFE Credit Union awarded Sacramento Cottage Housing Inc. a $5,000 grant to fund new educational courses for its formerly homeless clients to learn important life and financial skills.

The grant was awarded through the credit union's Community Sustainability Grant Program, which provides funds to Sacramento region non-profits with programs that support education, healthcare, and veterans. To engage the community and our members in our corporate giving initiatives, SAFE invited the community in December to determine the two grant recipients offering education programs that address inequities. Voters chose Sacramento Cottage Housing Inc. and the Construction Industry Education Foundation to each receive $5,000 grants.

"The grant that SAFE is giving is such a gift and blessing for Cottage Housing," says Sacramento Cottage Housing Program Director Cynthia Hunt. "It is another tool that we can use to engage our residents on an every-day basis to address the causal factors that led to their homelessness so we can watch them bloom like the flowers in our garden."

into independence and self-sufficiency. They provide shelter, security and programs to families and individuals to help them focus on personal and professional development to gain confidence. At the heart of their program are two communities: Serna Village in North Highlands and Quinn Cottages near downtown Sacramento.

Part of their program includes Life Skill Development classes that provide applicable lessons on parenting, healthy eating, budgeting, and employment skills. SAFE's grant will go to create a new course on independent living skills and a second course of the residents' choosing.

The courses are designed in part to provide knowledge and skills needed for the residents to move forward on a more solid financial footing.

"I think financial freedom for our participants is giving them all the tools they need so they can live a life where they won't have debt, can make purchases and know how they're spending their money," Hunt says. "And to be able to do the things they want and to teach those tools to their children."

The grant to Cottage Housing was one of eight totaling $95,000 awarded to nonprofits from SAFE in 2022.

"Our Community Sustainability Grant Program provides funding to programs that seek to make our communities economically stronger by giving people the tools and resources they need to live fulfilling, healthy lives," says SAFE Community Impact Manager Amanda Merz. "Cottage Housing is providing essential work to address the causal roots of homelessness in our community through programs that truly work. SAFE is honored to help fund new courses that will directly help residents gain the confidence and knowledge they need to lead lives full of promise and hope."

Sacramento Gym Helps Fund Lifesaving Efforts of Local Dog Rescue

ANDdesign News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - HIIT X Fitness is excited to officially bring back their charity workout event that will help fund the lifesaving efforts of local dog rescue NorCal Bully Breed Rescue (NorCal BBR). HIIT X Fitness partners with a local charity annually in an effort to give back to the community it serves and NorCal BBR is its partner in 2023.

"Everyone needs a little inspiration and a fantastic workout in their life, and I plan to deliver that. I'm excited to give everyone who joins us the best work out of their life and introduce them to Bubbles, one of NorCal BBR's rescue dogs," said Mike Ortega, owner of HIIT X Fitness. "Bubbles' story is gut-wrenching but her recovery is inspiring," added Ortega.

Sacramento Sheriff's found Bubbles, the rescue dog, abandoned with life-threatening injuries, tied to a pole at an intersection. Local shelters did not have the resources to care for Bubbles, so she was put into the hands of volunteers at NorCal Bully Breed Rescue. She was taken for medical care and according to the veterinarian her deep lacerations and overall condition was most likely from spending a lifetime in a hard crate with no bedding, only released to breed.

"Sheriff's don't know how long Bubbles was left out there but her wounds were deep and she had been bred many times. She ultimately had her front leg amputated - a $3,900 surgery," said Leslie Bird, Co-Founder and Executive Director of NorCal Bully Breed Rescue. "This is exactly why we're here, to help the dogs who would otherwise be considered unadoptable or unable to receive treatment, and it's only possible with foster homes and donations," Bird added.

"Bubbles didn't know how to be a dog when I first met her. She didn't know creature comforts like blankets, toys or love, but now she is almost fully recovered and loves jumping up on the couch and snuggling," said Marylin Hermit NorCal Bully Breed Rescue volunteer and Bubble's foster mom.

On Feb. 25, HIIT X Fitness will offer a high intensity interval training workout in exchange for a $35 donation. Gym members and non-members are welcome.

There will be a class offered every 10 minutes and 100 percent of funds raised will be donated to NorCal Bully Breed Rescue.

Bubbles and other adoptable dogs will be present at the event from 9 a.m. - 11 a.m., and volunteers will be available to answer questions about the adoption application process.

HIIT X Fitness - HIIT X Fitness is a high-intensity interval training facility, with the best in equipment and technology. We strive to build a community where support and respect are our first priority. We pride ourselves on making working out convenient—a new class starts every 10 minutes making it easy to get a workout in on your schedule. NorCal Bully Breed Rescue - NorCal Bully Breed Rescue is a foster-based rescue organization located in Sacramento, CA. We specialize in helping dogs who would otherwise be considered "unadoptable" due to major medical injury, pregnancy, or who are fearful of shelter type environments. Our dogs live in loving foster homes, which provide the love, patience and understanding required to allow rescues to shine and show their full potential. Our ability to save these dogs is based entirely on foster homes and donations. For more information and to donate visit us at norcalbullybreedrescue.org ★

Caltrans, OTS Unveil New Student Named Work Zone Safety Mascot

Caltrans News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) and the California Office of Traffic Safety (OTS) unveiled on February 6, 2023, Safety Sam as their new safety cone mascot. The name was selected in a statewide student contest and is part of the campaign to expand public safety awareness to protect highway workers throughout the state.

Huntington Christian School (Huntington Beach) student Miller Ruiz's winning name was selected from nearly 2,000 entries submitted by K-12 students across the state. In recognition of his winning suggestion, Miller will receive a laptop, a $500 gift card, a $500 gift card for their teacher's classroom, T-shirts, and a visit from Safety Sam. The mascot will educate Californians on the importance of moving over a lane or slowing down when they see his orange friends and highway workers.

"Caltrans makes safety priority number one, and safety cones are critical to let drivers know when and where highway workers are on the road," said Caltrans Director Tony Tavares. "Including young people in our safety awareness campaigns helps us raise the awareness of both the next generation and current drivers, and we're excited to make Safety Sam the face of the important work being done to keep our highway workers and the traveling public safe."

"Educating the public on safe driving behaviors is key to helping save lives on our roadways," said OTS Director Barbara Rooney. "Safety Sam engages the public in a fun and interactive way while serving as an important reminder to be attentive when approaching work zones."

In 2020, nearly 7,000 work-zone crashes occurred on California roadways, resulting in more than 3,000 injuries and nearly 100 fatalities. Nationally, drivers and passengers account for 85% of people killed in work zones.

California's "Move Over" law requires all drivers to move over a lane if safe to do so, or if unable to do so safely, slow down when they see amber flashing lights on Caltrans vehicles, law enforcement, and other emergency vehicles and tow trucks. Failure to obey the "Move Over" law can result in fines up to $1,000, plus points on your driving record.

The statewide contest ran from Nov. 21, 2022, through Jan. 20, 2023. Safety Sam will be used by Caltrans Districts for community outreach and engagement efforts. The mascot's image will also be used in materials aiming to inform the public about the importance of the "Move Over" law and work zone safety.

With safety as its top priority, Caltrans is using the Safe System approach to achieve its goal of reducing to zero the number of fatalities and serious injuries on state highways by 2050. This approach builds on its ongoing work to improve safety throughout its network and on all transportation projects the department funds or oversees, which includes "complete street" features that provide safe and accessible options for people walking, biking and taking transit.

All contest prizes provided courtesy of iHeart Media. For more information on Caltrans and OTS initiatives, visit BeWorkZoneAlert.com and GoSafelyCA.org. ★

Housing Duel Between State and Local Governments Intensifies

By Dan Walters, CALMatters.org

The long-simmering duel between California's state and local governments over housing is entering a new and more confrontational phase.

Local governments in the San Francisco Bay Area had until Jan. 31 to submit plans for meeting their state-imposed quotas for facilitating housing construction, and many of them missed it. They were supposed to identify enough land for the required number of housing units and the steps they were taking to make development feasible.

While declaring state, regional and local housing needs has been underway for decades, until recently there was virtually no backlash for failure. However, the most recent version, aimed at adding 2.5 million housing units by 2030, a million of them affordable to low-income families, is different.

The state Department of Housing and Community Development has embraced more critical oversight of the plans submitted by city and county officials, rejected those it deemed insufficient and threatened penalties for noncompliance, such as a loss of state housing funds.

The official pressure is clearly aimed at blunting the ability of local not-in-my-backyard (NIMBY) activists to persuade local officials to resist the state quotas and/or impose conditions on housing projects that would make them unfeasible.

That syndrome is most evident in the Bay Area's many small enclaves of wealthy families living in multi-million-dollar homes. Simply put, their residents don't want to have their neighborhoods' bucolic ambience altered by apartment houses for what Victorian novelist and playwright Edward Bulwer-Lytton described as "the great unwashed" — ordinary folk lacking upper-class education and wealth.

On Jan. 31, the last day possible, the city council of the tiny, very wealthy San Francisco Peninsula community of Atherton adopted — with obvious reluctance — a plan for 348 new housing units. It acted over the objections of many high-income NIMBYs, including Golden State Warriors star Steph Curry and venture capitalist Marc Andreessen. Whether the plan will pass state muster is still uncertain.

Across the bay in Orinda, another upscale community in Contra Costa County, city officials were on the verge of adopting their 1,359-unit plan when it was revealed that one of the parcels it designated for housing was just one foot wide.

The schemes to evade state quotas have largely been uncovered by pro-housing groups, which tip off local news media, and the publicity then forces officials to backtrack. However, the "yes-in-my-backyard" (YIMBY) groups don't just blow whistles. Last week, a few days after the Jan. 31 deadline passed, a coalition filed lawsuits against 12 local governments that had failed to meet it.

"There's no excuse for these cities to be in violation of state law," Sonja Trauss, executive director of one group, YIMBY Law, said. "Cities have had years to plan for this. They've also received resources and feedback from us, our volunteer watchdogs, and HCD. These cities are trying to push the responsibility onto other communities and avoid having to welcome new neighbors. It's time for them to be held accountable."

The suits mirror those filed by housing advocates in Southern California when cities in that region missed their deadline last fall.

One goal of the Bay Area actions is to establish that the targeted communities are subject to one of the many new pro-housing laws, dubbed "builder's remedy." It exempts low- and moderate-income housing projects from local design control if the local governing body doesn't have an approved housing plan.

Whether the pressure on local communities actually results in 2.5 million units is very questionable. That would require more than a doubling of current housing construction and other factors, such as interest rates, material costs and the supply of construction labor, tend to discourage construction.

Dan Walters has been a journalist for nearly 60 years, spending all but a few of those years working for California newspapers. ★

Exhibition Examines WWII Japanese American Incarceration Camps

MACC News Release

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - The Mills Station Arts & Culture Center (the MACC) announces the opening of the Smithsonian traveling exhibition "Righting a Wrong: Japanese Americans and World War II" February 2, 2023. The exhibition examines the complicated history and impact of Executive Order 9066 that led to the incarceration of Japanese Americans following the attack on Pearl Harbor. "Righting a Wrong" will remain on view through March 25, 2023. The exhibition will continue touring museums and other cultural organizations through the US.

Embracing themes that are as relevant today as they were 75 years ago, "Righting a Wrong" looks at immigration, prejudice, civil rights, heroism, and what it means to be an American. The exhibition explores the complex history through historical images, personal stories and objects from those incarcerated at the camps. A duffle bag used by the Imada family when they were relocated to the Gila River camp in Arizona reflects the restrictions to bring only what they could carry. Takeo Shirasawa's 1943 high school diploma from the Poston camp in Arizona exemplifies the experience of thousands of other teens who had to complete their high school education in camps.

Following the attack on Pearl Harbor by Japan on Dec. 7, 1941, President Franklin Roosevelt signed Executive Order 9066 which sent 75,000 Americans of Japanese ancestry and 45,000 Japanese nationals to incarceration camps. Ten large, barbed wire-enclosed incarceration camps and dozens of other installations were scattered west of the Mississippi, far from their homes from March 1942 to March 1946. Young and old lived crowded together in the hastily built camps, endured poor living conditions, and were under the constant watch of military guards for two and a half years. Meanwhile, brave Japanese American men risked their lives fighting for the United States.

In addition to the RAW exhibit we have the 48-star flag signed by Japanese Internment survivors started by Johnny Gogo. Local internment survivor Kiyoko Sato has lent the flag for view to the MACC for the duration of the Exhibit.

"Righting a Wrong: Japanese Americans and World War II" was developed by the National Museum of American History and adapted for travel by the Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition Service. The national tour received Federal support from the Asian Pacific American Initiatives Pool, administered by the Smithsonian Asian Pacific American Center, the Terasaki Family Foundation, and C. L. Ehn & Ginger Lew.

The exhibition is based on the exhibit of the same name on presented on Feb. 17, 2017, through March 6, 2019 at the National Museum of American History in Washington, DC.

SITES has been sharing the wealth of Smithsonian collections and research programs with millions of people outside Washington, D.C., for more than 70 years. SMUD's Shine Invests $513,000 into Local Projects

SMUD News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Entering its sixth year, SMUD's annual Shine program announced that it will fund 22 nonprofit organizations with $513,000 to launch community-focused projects. The energy efficiency and safety upgrades along business corridors, youth entrepreneur development and job readiness programs, habitat restoration, neighborhood revitalization, training for under-resourced community members who aspire to start businesses and other initiatives will contribute to SMUD's 2030 Zero Carbon Plan and focus on clean energy solutions.

"SMUD's vision for a clean energy future is about much more than transforming our power plants," said SMUD CEO and General Manager Paul Lau. "The Clean PowerCity movement engages our region's households, businesses and diverse communities. There is space for every community to join us in delivering on our ambitious 2030 Zero Carbon Plan. From clean energy outreach and STEM lessons inside classrooms, to neighborhood revitalization projects, workforce skills for under-resourced communities and new apprentices, SMUD's Shine program harnesses the determination and vision of local nonprofits, regional partners and the communities we serve and supports them in making meaningful change that will benefit the entire region for generations to come."

This year, 218 organizations participated in program education sessions in various languages and 112 of them moved forward and submitted applications in a competitive process. Per Shine requirements, SMUD's investments are matched by the community organizations for optimal impact.

The 22 selected nonprofits include 80 Watt District PBID; 916 Ink; Architects of Hope; Atrium 916; Center for Land-Based Learning; Center of Praise; Downtown Sacramento Partnership; Fitrah; Folsom Economic Development Corporation; HomeAid; Lutheran Social Services; Meristem, Inc.; Midtown Association; National Academic Youth Corps (Sojourner Truth African Heritage Museum); Northern California Valley Sheet Metal Foundation; Oracles of Truth Academy; Project Optimism; Rosemont Community Foundation; Sierra Service Project; Square Root Academy; Sunrise MarketPlace and YMCA of Superior California.

SMUD will take an active role in monitoring performance and progress of each project. SMUD will also support projects during critical junctures of implementation.

Shine awards range from $5,000 to $100,000. Any nonprofit organization within SMUD's service area is eligible to apply. Shine awards are available at three funding levels: Spark (up to $10,000), Amplifier (up to $50,000) and Transformer (up to $100,000).

The SMUD Board of Directors will hold a celebration in April to recognize the nonprofits for all their hard work and determination to improve Sacramento-area communities.

Defendant Sentenced for Sex Trafficking

Sac County DA News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The Honorable Maryanne Gilliard sentenced Justin Starks to 12 years in state prison. On November 3, 2022, a jury convicted Starks of persuading a minor to engage in a commercial sex act, pimping a minor under age 16, and pandering by encouraging a minor under 16 years old. The jury also found true aggravating factors that the victim was particularly vulnerable; that the crime indicated planning, sophistication, and professionalism; and that the trafficker took advantage of a position of trust and confidence.

In September 2021, detectives at the Sacramento Police Department received information that a 15-year-old teenager may be a victim of human trafficking. After talking to the victim's family members and reviewing a significant amount of evidence, detectives identified Justin Starks as her trafficker. Over the course of several weeks, the victim's trafficker took her to areas known for prostitution. She made money from selling sex and turned that money over to her trafficker. ★

How Big is the Burden?

Dear Dave,

My parents are both in their seventies. They have been healthy and active all their lives, but in spite of them both having good jobs they neglected to plan and save for retirement. Is it my responsibility now to provide them with financial help in their old age?

– Reagan

Dear Reagan,

It sounds like you might be a little irritated that your parents haven't been responsible with their money. The way you described the circumstances, it's understandable—to a point. But in my mind, there's a bigger question when it comes to helping your folks. How big is the burden?

Let me ask you a few things. Do you have the money to help? Now, can you provide this help without your own family suffering or going without? If both answers are yes, I think your question may be a little more about your own aggravation with your folks than any ethical or moral obligation.

Dave Ramsey Says

A few years ago I spoke with a guy who was in really good shape financially. He made over $1 million a year, and he had plenty set aside in savings and retirement accounts. His father was in poor health and had never handled his money wisely. The son asked me if he should help out his dad by giving him some money every month.

In my mind, there's no question the right answer was yes. And that's what I told him. If you're making millions, but don't want to help out your sick dad, there's something wrong with you. There's something missing inside you that money just won't fix. However, if you and your family are barely getting by—let's say you bring home $3,000 a month—you're not morally required to help a parent who was irresponsible with money their entire life.

I'm not sure what your situation is, Reagan, but I hope you'll look at things with a little grace and reason. It's a tough situation to be in, because it sounds like your heart is being pulled in different directions. My advice, above all else, is to pray about it. And, if you have a spouse, talk to them about everything, and make sure the two of you are in agreement on what should be done before moving forward.

God bless you, friend.

– Dave

Dave Ramsey is an eight-time national best-selling author, personal finance expert and host of "The Ramsey Show," "CBS This Morning," "Today," Fox News, CNN, Fox Business and many more. Since 1992, He also serves as CEO of Ramsey Solutions. ★

Defendant Convicted of Child Molestation, Possession of Child Pornography

Sac County DA News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - Sayed Ali Reza Fatemy was convicted by a jury of six counts of child molestation and one count of aggravated possession of child pornography.

On September 9, 2021, members of the Internet Crimes Against Children Unit within the Sacramento Valley Hi-Tech Crimes Task Force executed a search warrant on Sayed Fatemy's home in Rio Linda. The search warrant was the result of a cyber tip from the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children that someone from inside the home was uploading videos of child pornography to the internet. Officers seized Fatemy's electronic devices and online accounts, which revealed a total of 11,207 images of child pornography in his possession. Some of the videos found were of Fatemy sexually abusing an infant.

Fatemy faces a maximum sentence of 18 years and 8 months in prison. Sentencing is set for February 17, 2023, at 2:30 p.m. in Department 33 before the Honorable Laurel White. ★

Defendant Sentenced to 46-Life for Sexual Assault with Use of Firearm

Sac County DA News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The Honorable James McFetridge sentenced Jorge Enrique Martinez Molina to 46 years to life in state prison. On December 1, 2022, a jury convicted Molina of assault to commit rape with a use of a firearm allegation; forcible sexual penetration with a foreign object; oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace, and fear; and assault with a firearm.

Molina and the victim had ended their relationship. On September 25, 2021, the victim went out with her friends. Molina was texting her demanding to know her location and had used a tracking device to locate her. He then went to the victim's house and waited for her to return home. When the victim returned home, she went to bed. Soon after, she awoke to Molina standing over her in the bedroom pointing a gun at her. At gunpoint, Molina demanded the victim have sex with him. He then sexually assaulted her while their children slept in the next bedroom. The victim fought Molina the entire time and was able to grab a phone to call 911. ★

Defendant Convicted of 27 Child Sexual Assault Charges with Multiple Victims

Sac County DA News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - Howard Loveless pled to 27 child sexual assault charges, including lewd and lascivious touching of a child under 14, lewd and lascivious touching of child with force and annoy or molest of a child. Loveless admitted to enhancements for crimes against more than one victim, substantial sexual conduct and one-strike sentencing. He also admitted to aggravating factors that the crime involved a high degree of cruelty, viciousness, or callousness; the victim was particularly vulnerable; the manner in which the crime was carried out indicates planning and sophistication; and he took advantage of a position of trust or confidence.

On November 7, 2020, Loveless babysat the then 7-year-old victim. Later that evening, the victim told her parents about sexual acts Loveless committed against her. DNA evidence linked Loveless to the sexual assault. During the investigation, Loveless admitted to sexually abusing the victim and admitted to sexually abusing another victim. The second victim confirmed to detectives that Loveless starting abusing her when she was approximately 10 years old to 20 years old. A third victim reported that Loveless also sexually abused her when she was between 4 and 13 years old. She stated that Loveless was violent with her and threatened to hurt her or her family if she told anyone about the abuse. A fourth 9-year-old victim reported that Loveless was inappropriate with her.

Loveless faces a maximum sentence of 424 years to life in state prison. Sentencing is set for March 24, 2023, at 9:00 a.m. in Department 13 before the Honorable Matthew Gary. ★
