WW II Ace Promoted to General

Travis Air Force Base staff join celebrations for Bud Anderson's promotion.

MCCLELLAN, CA (MPG) - Culminating a legendary aviation career, WW II pilot Bud Anderson last week achieved the honorary rank of Brigadier General. America's only surviving Triple Ace will be 101 years old next month.

No less than Air Force

Newly-promoted Brigadier General Bud Anderson gets a salute from seven-year-old fan Caden Mara at the Aerospace Museum of California.

Chief of Staff General Charles Q. Brown Jr. pinned Anderson's new insignia. The four-star General stopped at Aerospace Museum of California (McClellan) en route to unveiling the new B-21 nuclear stealth bomber in Southern California. Both events, said General Brown, were equally historic.

Feeding and Caring for Unhoused Pets

The unhoused community seeks out the company of pets just as much as residents in the community. Photo courtesy of Sacramento County

Sacramento County
News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - Goldie was very wary of the team from the Bradshaw Animal Shelter as they walked into her encampment. Tethered to a makeshift pole with two ropes tied together, she stood and barked, tail tucked under her body as she shook – unsure of the situation. But as soon as the top popped on a can of wet dog food and it was offered to her, she immediately came forward to taste the special treat.

Goldie is a tan pit bull mix, living with her unhoused owner on a corner lot off Orange Ave. She looks healthy and happy – glad to be with her owner and certainly not underfed but weighing in at nearly 60 lbs, all dog owners know, it can be expensive to feed large dogs.

Goldie's owner is so grateful for the large bag of dog food left for both Goldie and his brother's dog who he is caring for. He asks Animal Control Officer Jessica Solano for advice on how to introduce the dogs to each other, so they can cohabitate peacefully. After providing several suggestions for successful introductions, Officer Solano promises to return the next day with a basket muzzle, to allow the dogs to safely meet, and hopefully become friends.

Before heading out for this effort, Officer Solano emptied out the Pet Pantry at the shelter, a stockpile of donations for pets in need – typically donated by the residents of Sacramento County. Some treats, bones and toys – in addition to food. In order to fill up the truck with enough food to feed unhoused pets, Officer Solano grabbed several bags of food from the shelter's food supply.

Officer Solano locates another dog, a Belgian Malinois puppy, a dozen yards away, tied to a leash that is staked into the ground. These types of tethers are common to see for pets in the unhoused community, often due to the lack of stable alternatives. His owner isn't in the encampment, but the pup bounds right up to Officer Solano and allows her to check him for fleas. She makes a mental note to bring back flea treatment when she returns the next day. After giving the pup

Lights on for Christmas

Everlynn (4) and dad Levi Ferrer rejoiced in faux snow blasts as Christmas lights illuminated Carmichael Park last week.

by Susan Maxwell

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - A window of clear sky on a rainy day blessed the 20th annual Christmas tree lighting ceremony in Carmichael Park last week.

Leading a community count-down, Park District board chair Joyce Carroll flipped a switch and ignited thousands of fairy lights on the 50ft park Christmas tree and surrounding illuminations. Flurries of faux snow were unleashed.

The 60-strong River City Concert band from Rancho Cordova led Christmas songs. Joined by Disney heroine Elsa from "Frozen," Santa Claus indulged hundreds of children. His elves distributed more than 500 illuminated glow wands. Believers were further rewarded by crafting opportunities.

More than 1500 visitors celebrated the winter festival as trees and inflatables glowed. Food trucks fed the multitudes. The Christmas decorations may be viewed on the park's Fair Oaks Boulevard frontage every night until the New Year.

Sponsors included Carmichael Kiwanis Club, Buck Family Automotive and Carmichael Parks Foundation. ★

'There is No Gift Without a Giver'

Story and photos by Shaun Holkko, assistant editor

ROSEVILLE, CA (MPG) - Each holiday season, consumers shop for the best gifts to give their loved ones for Christmas. Now this year, there is a new and easy way to give to those who are less fortunate: the "Light the World" Giving Machine.

The Giving Machine is sponsored by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints (LDS Church) and is located at the Westfield Galleria at Roseville. Organizers for the machine held a grand opening ribbon cutting ceremony at the mall on Wednesday, November 30.

"The machines don't do the giving, they are simply the facilitators for your giving," said Jay Pimentel, LDS Church area communication director and the ceremony's host. "These machines are set up here, and we set them up a few days ago to make sure they were up and running and working, and just in those few days there have already been 1,579 donations with people just walking by."

An entertaining part of the ceremony was when Pimentel explained how to use the machine. One member of the audience, dressed in old school clothing to portray fictional character Ebenezer Scrooge, did not understand the purpose of the machine.

Following some explanation from Pimentel and two other old-time characters, Mr. Scrooge became one of the biggest advocates of the giving machine that you could find at the Galleria.

According to Pimentel, in 2021, California's giving machine was in Oakland and raised over $15 million. The LDS Church covers the administrative costs like credit card processing and operating fees. The giving machine in Roseville benefits five non-profit organizations that were represented Wednesday: the

Placer Food Bank, H.A.R.T., Al-Misbaah, Catholic Charities and CSW.

"We are a Feeding America food bank. I know the name doesn't imply that, but we cover Placer, El Dorado and Nevada County," said Dave Martinez, executive director of the Placer Food Bank. "Currently we serve well over 100,000 individuals a month. This giving machine is very important for us this year. We have to deal with fires, snow, plus just how people are impacted day to day with the food cost. It's really hurting our middle class."

Each non-profit spoke about their organization and then selected from the machine an item to be donated to their respective causes. Other dignitaries in attendance included Roseville Mayor Krista Bernasconi, Rocklin Mayor Bill Haldin and Loomis Mayor Jennifer Knisley.

Once an item is selected for donation to the Sacramento Giving Machine, the placard falls to the bottom of the vending machine and creates a pile among the other items that were already donated.

William Jessup University President Dr. John Jackson was one of the last speakers and admitted to being an "absolute Scrooge" and disliking Christmas. Jackson said this was the case because he was young, newly married and "had no money."

"Every year I felt the stress of being able to find gifts at Christmas and every year I found myself in a really bad mood," Jackson recalled. "The worst part about this whole story is during that time I was a pastor, so I was a pastor Scrooge."

"I was supposed to put on a bright shiny face and celebrate Christmas... but I was angry and frustrated because every single Christmas we were young, poor and struggling to buy gifts and that was a frustrating experience."

When did things change? When Jackson and his wife welcomed their first child into the world and he "began to see Christmas through the eyes of awe and wonder." That's when his perspective shifted.

"The truth is, Christmas is really not ultimately only about the gift, it starts with the giver," Jackson explained. "If the heart of the giver is right then the meaning of the gift gets magnified. You're never more like God than when you're giving. There is no gift without a giver."

The Giving Machines will be open at the Galleria until January 2. ★

WW II Ace Promoted to General

stands on are those of gentlemen like Bud Anderson,” he said. “I certainly consider him General officer material.”

More than 200 invited guests applauded the centenarian’s appointment. In addition to Anderson’s star insignia, he now has a gold trimmed standard. “I never expected my own flag,” he marveled. “This blows my mind.”

Auburn resident Anderson started his career at McClellan and became General there 80 years later. He acknowledged modern fighter pilots inhabit different cockpits and a different world. “We flew completely by hand,” he explained. “Today, it’s all automatic stuff. But I’m as proud to wear this uniform today as I ever was. My message for young people is if they have the ambition to be in the Air Force, they should have at it. If you work hard, you can be what you want to be.”

Anderson’s legend includes 116 wartime combat missions. The fighter pilot earned Triple Ace status by shooting down 16 ¼ enemy aircraft. At 22, he was made Major. Later a test pilot, he flew pioneer jet fighter missions and took the controls of more than 130 types of aircraft. Thirty years of Air Force service included duty in post-war Korea, Japan, Southeast Asia and the Pentagon.

Anderson’s decorations include two Legion of Merits, five Distinguished Flying Crosses, the Bronze Star, 16 air medals, France’s Legion d’Honneur and Croix de Guerre awards. Through sheer longevity, the highest-scoring US fighter ace alive is also among few remaining Fighter Aces in the world.

A staunch supporter of the Aerospace Museum, his hangar appearances are supported by hundreds of fans. For his promotion ceremony, Travis Air Force Base supplied a color guard, a brass band and a raft of uniformed personnel. Staffers and civilians joined the veteran in singing the Air Force Song, shared birthday cake and drank his health in bourbon.

Because Anderson famously named all his P-51s after the whiskey preferred by fighter buddies, the Aerospace Museum boasts an Old Crow Café. For a promotion surprise, Old Crow manufacturers dispatched a ceremonial barrelhead (bearing the P-51 profile) from Kentucky. As Anderson and General Brown downed shots, the legend warned: “That’s dangerous stuff, sir.”

Top-brass military ceremonies normally involve months of preparation. To promote Bud Anderson before his 101th birthday – and to take advantage of the Chief of Staff’s California visit – Aerospace Museum administrators pushed the event from concept to conclusion in weeks.

“It took Bud three years to become major during the war,” said Museum CEO Tom Jones. “He was promoted to colonel 14 years later. After he retired in 1972, it took 50 more years for him to become a general.

“This was a once-in-a-lifetime event for Bud – and for all of us who were here.” ★

US Air Force Chief of Staff Charles Brown Jr and Aerospace Museum Executive Director Commander Tom Jones (US Navy ret.) join newly-minted Brigadier General Bud Anderson for birthday cake. Anderson turns 101 next month.

Old Crow bourbon manufacturers dispatched a ceremonial barrelhead from Kentucky to celebrate the veteran pilot’s promotion.

US Air Force Chief of Staff Charles Brown Jr. pins Bud Anderson’s epaulet with a Brigadier General star.

Before the promotion ceremony, family friend Amelia Hass provides a last-minute tweak to Bud Anderson’s uniform.

SAFE Awards $20K to Sacramento Food Bank

SAFE Credit Union News Release

FOLSOM, CA (MPG) - SAFE Credit Union is doing its part to help curb childhood hunger by supporting Sacramento Food Bank & Family Service's No Student Left Hungry program as the demand for food assistance climbs in the region.

SAFE is donating $20,000 to the nonprofit's effort to provide food for an average of 4,200 students per month who are living with food insecurity within seven school districts and four colleges throughout Sacramento.

"Due to the pandemic, rising inflation and other factors, the need for food assistance is as great as ever, and we wouldn't be able to meet that surge in demand without the support of big-hearted organizations like SAFE Credit Union," says Sacramento Food Bank & Family Services Director of Programs Karen Strach.

Since March, food bank officials say they have seen a 40 percent increase in the number of people they are serving each month.

"When children experience hunger, they are more likely to get sick and are at higher risks of health conditions like anemia and asthma," Strach says. "They are also more likely to miss school and receive poor grades."

The food bank grant is awarded as part of SAFE's grant program seeking to promote the health of residents in the greater Sacramento region.

step we can take to help in addressing inequities in our communities and help improve the health of individuals and those in our region as a whole," says SAFE Community Impact Manager Amanda Merz.

This grant will help fund grocery distribution to students attending schools in the Center Joint Unified, Elk Grove Unified, Galt Joint Union Elementary, Robla Elementary, Sacramento City Unified, San Juan Unified and Twin Rivers Unified school districts plus Sacramento State, American River College, Cosumnes River College and Sacramento City College. The districts and colleges were determined to each have a high concentration of students in need of supplemental food assistance.

Strach says school-based food distributions remove many barriers to accessing food. "When students get the food they need, they have improved concentration, school performance and mental and physical health. And are more likely to thrive," she says.

A program that has evolved for several years, the No Student Left Hungry program reaches up to 116,000 people per year. According to Feeding America's most recent data from 2020, more than one in six children in Sacramento County live in food insecure households, a rate that is higher than both the state and national averages.

The grant is one of two SAFE Credit Union awarded for the third quarter of 2022 to organizations dedicated to promoting the health of residents in the greater Sacramento region. This month, SAFE is also awarding $5,000 to the Alchemist Community Development Corporation's Community Gardens project.

SAFE annually awards $120,000 in grants in four phases focusing on its three pillars of philanthropy: veterans, healthcare, and education. For more information on SAFE Credit Union's grants program, go to <https://www.safecu.org/community/community-impact/funding>.

Christmas Makes Memories

Christmas has always had a special place in my heart. There was a time that we decorated every room in the house, and yes, including the bathrooms. As we age, however, it doesn't seem like every room needs to be adorned. But some decorations are special, and we try to get them out and share them with friends.

First and foremost is the super duper tree with its twinkling lights and so many memory decorations gathered through the years from family and friends. I love the ones that tell a story. Would you believe a microphone because I do a radio talk show or a glass slipper because I love sparkly shoes, or doggies that reflect our love for our pooches?

I do love my Christmas village, and every year we added new structures from the dynamic lighthouse to the steeples of the beautiful church. Oh, and don't forget the sweet shop, the veterinarian stop, the Bijou, the community theatre and even a department store and more.

Father Christmas is a magnificent feature designed by a dear friend of ours many years ago. She made him from scratch with materials and laces from around the world. She even gave him a heart because she always thought of him as real. She made every created doll with loving care. He stands some three feet tall, a gold and silver wonder with sparkling crystal eyes and natural hair and a crown of gold. A true wonder to see.

Then there's the nativity, all hand-carved from wood from the wise men, Mary and Joseph, a little drummer boy and of course, the baby Jesus. This was a gift from Rick's (my husband's) parents. They brought back the set from Switzerland, their heritage.

I know so many folks don't send cards anymore. I get it. It takes time to write a special note and it's not cheap to send anymore. But I guess I'll always be old school. I love opening the card, reading the message and then hang the cards in our special space so we can enjoy them over and over again. I know it takes time during a busy year, but I bet those we care about appreciate the effort.

And how can we forget the presents under the tree all dressed in festive paper and in colors galore. It really doesn't matter if it's a grand gift or perhaps something special because it's handmade. It's the thought that counts...the thought that someone cared to share a special moment.

It's all so magical as the house becomes a wonderland of loving memories. We keep it til the New Year, and then sadly, tuck it all away til the next Christmas. But the memories won't be tucked away. They will remain with us all year. Then it all begins again to make the love happen. But why wait til the next Christmas. Share that love and make memories all year long.

Wishing you a blessed
MERRY CHRISTMAS and a very HAPPY NEW YEAR!!!

Triple Threat to California's Budget

Commentary
by Jon Coupal

There is near unanimity among economists that the United States will experience a recession in 2023. Last month, the Conference Board predicted a 96 percent likelihood of a recession in the U.S. within the next 12 months due primarily to the Federal Reserve's interest rate hikes.

Relative to other states, California is ill-prepared to weather a recession, especially a severe one. But even without a recession, California's Legislative Analyst predicts a $25 billion shortfall for fiscal 2023-24. The deficit, which the LAO calls a budget "problem," is mainly attributable to revenue estimates that are $41 billion lower than previous budget projections.

Moreover, the LAO acknowledges that programs which include inflation adjustments will make the problem worse: "Our estimate of a $25 billion budget problem understates the actual budget problem in inflation-adjusted terms."

Particularly surprising is that all this bad news from the LAO doesn't even assume that a recession is imminent. "While our lower revenue estimates incorporate the risk of a recession, they do not reflect a recession scenario." If a recession does occur in 2023, the LAO says that revenues could be $30 billion to $50 billion below its initial revenue outlook.

If the legislature took seriously the report from the LAO, it would take immediate action to blunt the damage from the economic downturn predicted for 2023. But that is unlikely because California's political leadership lacks the will to reduce spending as well as the high tax burden which drives that spending. Government spending is California's growth industry, exploding 600% since 1989-90. ($49.1 billion to $303 billion).

California's out of control spending leads to the second reason why an economic downturn will hurt California more than other states: A reduced tax base due to outmigration of businesses and productive taxpaying individuals.

This column has reported numerous times on how California's high taxes, heavy regulations and lack of affordable housing have led to an exodus out of California. The well-known satire site, Babylon Bee, recently featured an image of a high speed train emblazoned with a U-Haul logo with the caption: "U-Haul Builds Bullet Train from California to Texas." Humorous, but capital flight out of California is no laughing matter.

A recent report from the Hoover Institute is downright frightening: "In 2021, California business headquarters left the state at twice their rate in both 2020 and 2019, and at three times their rate in 2018. In the last three years, California lost eleven Fortune 1000 companies, whose exits negatively affect California's economy today. But California also is risking its economic future as much smaller but rapidly growing unique businesses are leaving, taking their innovative ideas with them."

Because California is overly reliant on high-wealth individuals paying the lion's share of income tax revenue, their departure inflicts a disproportionate level of harm to the state budget. As California experienced in the last recession, the drop in revenue from stock options and capital gains exposes California to a vulnerability not shared by other states. But that's not all.

Governor Gavin Newsom touts California's status as the leader in high tech and venture capital. But other states are cashing in on California's reputation as an anti-business state. According to a Bloomberg report on initial public offerings (IPOs), only nine companies headquartered in California went public during the first three quarters of 2022. More troubling was that California's share of U.S. IPO proceeds fell to 2% through Sept. 30, compared with 39% for 2021.

The final concern for California is the fact that the U.S. House of Representatives, the house of origin for all appropriations, is now under the control of Republicans. For two years, right-leaning states have watched California receive favorable treatment from Washington from everything from High Speed Rail funds and other special projects. (Remember Nancy Pelosi's securing $200 million for a park within walking distance from her home?) The extent to which California received more than its "fair share" of federal assistance is a matter of debate. But the odds of Congress going out of its way to help California with its budget "problem" are now zero.

The only silver lining to this very dark cloud is that a recession may finally force the tax-and-spend politicians in Sacramento to do something they haven't done in decades: Reduce waste and prioritize spending.

Feeding and Caring for Unhoused Pets

a can of wet food as well, the team leaves three large bags of dog food at the encampment.

The next stop is at a nearby library, where Officer Solano spots an unhoused woman with four small dogs in and around a shopping cart, sitting in front of the library using its wifi for her laptop. As she spots the animal control truck coming, she quickly leashes her dogs to the cart with ropes that are nearly threadbare. The fear on her face suggested she thought she'd be cited for having her dogs unleashed. Instead, Officer Solano brings her dog food for her little brood and also leaves new leashes to help keep the dogs safe.

As the team continues to move through the south unincorporated county, they pass a row of cars, trucks and RVs parked on the side of the road with at least one dog crate visible. Officer Solano makes her way vehicle by vehicle, asking if anyone has animals in need of food. Turns out there were two large dogs, a small dog and one cat living in the encampment – all with owners extremely grateful for the food, but more grateful for the fact that they were seen and cared for.

The team's final stop was another RV parked along

South Watt with two dogs chained up outside. Officer Solano grabbed the last of the food in her truck to leave by the RV, but as the team approached the RV, the owner came walking from the opposite direction, having made a quick trip over to the nearest gas station. One of the dogs barked and barked, even as her tail wagged, but the other dog was eager to play and gets pets – even from strangers. As the dog's owner opened the door of the RV, another large dog came running out, ready to jump and lick and play. In addition to food, the team left large bones and harnesses to help control the dogs.

The day was a success – feeding and providing care for a dozen pets. But the need is much larger than that. Hundreds, if not thousands of pets are living with unhoused owners. If you'd like to donate food or resources to help feed unhoused pets, learn more about how to help pets stay with their owners.

Dave Ramsey Says

types of purchases?

– Wendy
Dear Wendy,

I don't know who this "someone" is, but they're a lousy financial advisor. The firm of Someone, They Said, and I Heard? That's a financial planning company you don't want to work with.

A debit card has the exact same protections for fraud that a credit card has. It does come out of your checking account, but the bank has to put it back once you dispute the charge and prove your dispute. It may take a day or two, but they'll get it done.

I've used a debit card for decades, and I haven't owned a credit card since way back in my dumb-with-money days. I've never had any problems using a debit card, and I'm not going to make the mistake of playing around with debt ever again.

I hope you won't either!

– Dave

DWR Awards $5 Million for Delta Communities to Improve Flood Emergency Response

DWR News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG)

The Department of Water Resources (DWR) on November 16 announced awarding $5 million in funding for seven emergency response agencies within the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta to increase their ability to respond to flood emergencies. This funding will help to improve the emergency response efforts for first responders and help these communities prepare for threats of flooding in the Delta, which is increasingly vulnerable to flooding from storm events and sea level rise.

Planning for flood emergencies should be a top priority even though California is in the middle of an extreme drought, with anticipation of a fourth dry year. Recent studies have shown California communities, especially in the Delta region, are at increased risk of flooding events due to climate change.

"DWR works with communities across the state to prevent flooding, but we must also be prepared to respond when flood emergencies put public safety at risk," said Gary Lippner, DWR Deputy Director of Flood Management and Dam Safety. "This funding will help bolster emergency response efforts in flooding events, which may happen at any time."

November 16's grant awards will provide funding to Delta emergency response agencies to develop flood safety plans, conduct training and emergency exercises, create and distribute flood fight materials and invest in communications equipment. Award recipients from the November 16 announcement include: San Joaquin County: $1.6 million; Yolo County: $1.56 million; Bethel Island Municipal Improvement District: $462,000; Bradford Island Reclamation District 2059: $450,000; City of Sacramento: $306,000; Hotchkiss Tract Reclamation District 799: $305,000; City of Isleton: $250,000.

A complete list of these grants and previous grant awards can be found on the Flood Emergency Response Projects Grants webpage.

Since 2012, DWR has been awarded $50 million in flood emergency response grants to improve local flood emergency response and contribute to increasing public safety. Specifically for the Delta, DWR has awarded $30 million in grant funding over the last 10 years to Delta communities.

DWR is committed to providing hundreds of millions of dollars in grant funding to communities to respond to increases in extreme weather impacts as a result of our changing climate, whether it's flooding or drought. Soon, DWR will announce funding awards totaling $85 million for emergency and long-term water resilience projects through the Small Community Drought Relief program and the Integrated Regional Water Management program. The selected projects will support strategies to improve regional resilience through water quality improvement, increased water supply and upgrades to aging infrastructure.

For communities still in need of assistance, DWR is currently accepting applications for the Urban Community Drought Relief program to support projects that build climate resiliency and emphasize water conservation efforts. ★

Are Debit Cards Safe for Online Purchases?

Dear Dave,

I use a debit card for all my regular, day-to-day purchases. However, I use a credit card for plane tickets, big ticket items, or when I shop online because someone told me it's easier to dispute purchases when they're made with a credit card. Are you putting your checking account at risk by using a debit card for these

Partnership to Accelerate Decarbonization Set for Long-duration Energy

SMUD News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - ESS Inc. (“ESS”) (NYSE:GWH), a leading manufacturer of long-duration iron flow batteries for commercial and utility-scale energy storage applications, and the Sacramento Municipal Utility District (SMUD), the nation’s sixth-largest, community-owned, not-for-profit electric service provider, announced an agreement to provide up to 200 megawatts (MW) / 2 gigawatt-hours (GWh) of ESS’ environmentally safe and sustainable long duration energy storage solutions.

The agreement calls for ESS to deliver a mix of its Energy Warehouse™ and Energy Center™ long-duration energy storage (LDES) solutions for integration with the SMUD electric grid beginning in 2023. SMUD will deploy the LDES systems in support of its 2030 Zero Carbon Plan which aims to reduce thermal generation, maximize local solar generation, provide neighborhood resiliency, and increase social justice and equity. LDES is a key component in SMUD’s decarbonization plan, without compromising reliability or low electricity rates.

“SMUD is striving for a clean energy future that increases grid resiliency, supports under-resourced communities and maximizes local economic development,” said Paul Lau, CEO and general manager of SMUD. “Long-duration battery technologies move SMUD’s 2030 Zero

Carbon Plan forward by expanding our dispatchable renewable energy resources and opening doors to innovation, job training and development opportunities in the green energy sectors.”

As part of this multi-year agreement, ESS intends to set up facilities for battery system assembly, operations and maintenance support and project delivery in Sacramento, creating local, high paying jobs. In addition, SMUD and ESS plan to establish a Center of Excellence to expand the workforce and knowledge base for LDES technology in partnership with higher education institutions. The Center will provide advanced LDES technical training, creating a statewide skilled talent pool to help build and maintain California’s fast-growing long-duration energy storage resources.

“SMUD is a pioneering and progressive public utility that puts its words into meaningful action – in particular its pursuit of a decarbonized grid that will build resiliency, enhance job opportunities, and provide benefits for all customers,” said Eric Dresselhuys, CEO of ESS. “Our agreement will be a critical component of SMUD’s Zero Carbon Plan. We’re pleased to partner with SMUD in realizing their 2030 Plan.”

SMUD’s ambitious goals are ahead of California’s state-wide zero-carbon target of 2045, which is the most advanced in the country. The addition of 200 MW / 2 GWh of storage, when coupled with renewable energy sources, is equivalent to removing 284,000 metric tons of CO2 emissions per year and will provide enough energy to power 60,000 homes for 10 hours.

ESS iron flow technology provides cost-effective long-duration energy storage and is ideal for applications that require from 4-12 hours of flexible energy capacity. ESS systems provide resilient, sustainable energy storage well-suited for multiple use cases including utility-scale renewable energy installations, remote solar + storage microgrids, grid load-shifting and peak shaving, and other ancillary grid services. ESS technology is safe, non-toxic and has a 25-year lifespan without capacity fade. ★

How Did Confidential Gun Permit Data Get Leaked?

By Dan Walters, CALMatters.org

California Attorney General Rob Bonta and the state's gun owners were already warring over the state's very tight gun control laws when, on June 23, the U.S. Supreme Court issued a landmark decision that could threaten the constitutionality of at least some of the restrictions.

Gun owner organizations had sued to overturn some of the state's laws, such as a 10-round limit on magazines, and had some success in federal court. The 6-3 June 23 ruling, overturning a New York law restricting concealed carry permits, signaled that other restrictive laws in other states, including California, were in jeopardy.

Bonta quickly said that he wanted the Legislature to keep as many California guns laws on the books as possible. "In the wake of mass shootings in Buffalo and Uvalde, and with gun deaths at an all-time high, ensuring that dangerous individuals are not allowed to carry concealed firearms is more important than ever," he said in a statement.

Four days later, Bonta's Department of Justice unveiled a new website aimed at giving the public access to data about criminal justice, including how many Californians had concealed weapons permits. Very quickly, however, website users, including some in the media, discovered that if they hit the right button, they could access supposedly confidential personal information about gun permit applicants and holders.

As the data breach unfolded, many gun owners saw it as deliberate retaliation by Bonta to spoil their celebration of the Supreme Court decision, even though he shut down the leaky website, issued public apologies, promised an independent investigation of how it happened and even sent letters to permit holders to "offer my sincerest apology..."

While gun owners' reaction was understandable, given the years of political and legal wrangling not only involving Bonta but his predecessors, such as Vice President Kamala Harris, and Gov. Gavin Newsom, the juxtaposition of the Supreme Court decision and the gun permit data leak was probably coincidental.

Last week, Bonta released the 61-page report on the data breach investigation by a prominent law firm, Morrison & Foerster, which concluded that it was caused by the errors of the ill-trained technician who operated the website, compounded by managerial failure to double-check its integrity.

The law firm said, "improper exposure of confidential personal data by DOJ, while unacceptable, was unintentional and not connected to any nefarious purpose. The investigation found that the data exposure was due to a lack of DOJ personnel training, requisite technical expertise, and professional rigor; insufficiently documented and implemented DOJ policies and procedures; and inadequate oversight by certain supervisors."

The detail of what Morrison & Foerster's team discovered is mindboggling. Repeatedly, the technician, identified only as "Data Analyst-1," insisted that the site did not allow users to access the personal data, but after it was initially shut down and then reopened, access continued to data of 190,000-plus Californians.

The report said "confidential personal data was downloaded approximately 2,734 times, in full or in part, across 507 unique IP addresses," adding, "The investigation could not accurately determine the number of public visitors who may have only viewed, but did not download, the underlying dataset."

What occurred on June 27 plays like a broken record. Repeatedly – even chronically – California's state government has attempted to use information technology with poor results.

Systems fail to deliver promised results and/or experience years of delay and immense cost overruns. Just last week, a legislative committee delved into how the secretary of state's office spent tens of millions of dollars to upgrade its site for accessing campaign finance reports and it still has a cranky and unreliable system.

That's the real scandal. Dan Walters has been a journalist for nearly 60 years, spending all but a few of those years working for California newspapers. ★

Pathways Associates News Release

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Everyday life can feel heavy and demanding, but there is a place to lay down your worries and take in some magic.

Salt and Light Gallery is a new space at Milagro Centre in Carmichael. Salt & Light Gallery is a curated space featuring art for your home and office. The work is light and uplifting – lending a sense of hopefulness and calm. It offers a place to rest, look and breathe.

Michelle Andres, a Sacramento area artist and Carmichael resident, was offered the space by local developer, Allan Davis, to show her own work. Noting the need to lift people’s spirits and have positive visual relationships, Andres took the concept to heart and collected a small stable of artists to showcase their work at Milagro calling the project Salt & Light.

Events to showcase the work will soon follow, so keep in contact with the gallery space for updates. You can find them on Instagram or sign up for updates at the website www.saltandlightgallery.art

The space is nestled between the Bella Bru Event Center and Seritella’s Restaurant on the north end of the centre. Milagro offers community staples and areas for gathering, relaxing and dining. Other venues include River City Brewing Company, Mesa Mercado Restaurant, Taiko Sushi, GB Gelato, a lovely coffee niche called Café Madre and more.
