Kiwanians Hail the Chiefs

Carmichael Kiwanians last week marked a 60th club anniversary at La Sierra Community Center. Past presidents joined President-Elect Jenny Hawley (center). Hawley will assume leadership in October.

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Growing from a few old boys to a volunteer army, Carmichael Kiwanis Club is a major community force. With ice cream and much back-slapping, members last week marked the non-profit's diamond anniversary at La Sierra Community Center.

Fifteen men founded the group in 1962; now 83 members meet regularly. Their efforts have channeled hundreds of thousands of dollars to community support. The Kiwanians also volunteer almost 10,000 service hours per year. Causes such as the Koobs Nature Area, food closets, tree-planting, children's health, education, American River Parkway and Carmichael Parks Foundation have benefitted.

"It's hard to imagine our community without this organization," County Supervisor Rich Desmond told fellow Kiwanians: "You make Carmichael and its greater area a better place. It's an honor to be your County Supervisor but it's my privilege to be a member of this Club."

Third oldest in California, the Carmichael division met at a restaurant called Sambo's (now Burger King) on Fair Oaks Blvd. The guys sold cotton candy at July 4 parades and were happy to make $50. In decades that followed, annual crab feasts and Taste of Carmichael galas inspired huge community fundraising. "The COVID situation set us back," concedes membership co-chair Len Ohlendorf. "But we're still here and we're still growing."

The club's biggest game-changer was admitting women in 1987. Diehards lamented the innovation - one member wore his badge upturned in protest. The first woman inductee, senior care manager Kathy Spake, became the club's first female president. "She was in a man's world, and she handled herself without drama," remembers veteran member Ron Greenwood. "The guys quickly accepted her; that was an accomplishment in itself. Kathy was made of the right stuff."

Emancipation helped the non-profit on all levels. "Without that, there would be no Kiwanis today," considers Len Ohlendorf. "Women presidents led us through the pandemic; our secretary and treasurer are female and (college professor) Jenny Hawley will be 2023 president. Our committees are mostly led by women. We're fortunate to have them."

With the club's mission to help children, a jewel in its crown is co-sponsoring the Kiwanis Family House. Located near U.C. Davis Medical Center, the facility keeps kin united when children are hospitalized. "We're all family oriented," says committee chair Ivory Rubin. "We're proud the Family House offers refuge for people in crisis. Knowing such a haven exists makes us feel Kiwanis is making a difference in the world."

The Kiwanis Club meets weekly at Carmichael Park Club. For information, email lenohlendorf@gmail.com ★

Ranadivé Set to Buy River Cats

By Shaun Holkko, sports editor

WEST SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - In 2013, Vivek Ranadivé purchased the Sacramento Kings. Now nearly a decade later, he is nearing a deal to acquire another Sacramento-based professional sports franchise.

It was first reported by The Sacramento Bee on July 26, that Ranadivé and a group of investors have been negotiating a deal with the Savage family dating back to last year, in the ballpark of $100 million. However, it was reported by Sportico on August 18 that the actual sale price may be closer to $90 million.

Even at a lesser price than what was initially reported, the cost for Ranadivé and his group would be a record for the selling price of a Minor League Baseball (MiLB) team and its corresponding stadium. According to Ballpark Digest, most MiLB teams have an estimated value of around $40-50 million.

The Savage family has owned the River Cats and its ballpark since the franchise's inception in 2000.

Ranadivé made the following statement back in 2015 when he invested in Sacramento Republic FC, a USL Championship team, a league that is one tier below Major League Soccer.

"This is another major step in revitalizing downtown and making the entire Sacramento region an even better place to work, live and play," Ranadivé said. "We're committed to our vision of making Sacramento the world class city its citizens deserve."

With the purchase of the River Cats and potential looming purchase of Sac Republic, Ranadivé may be positioning himself to stand alongside other sports owners of multiple teams like Stan Kroenke, Joel Glazer and Shahid Khan. ★

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Sixty-five years after John Barrett Middle School first opened its gates, the San Juan Unified School District facility last week celebrated a whole-campus renovation. The $45 million price tag was funded by voter-approved bonds.

With paint barely dry, staff, students and VIPs lined up for a ribbon cutting. The ceremony marked the end of three semesters of what Principal Amy Alexander-Carter called "controlled chaos."

Classes continued through construction. "Our biggest challenge was having only one hallway for 700 students to walk through," explained the Principal. "The kids were crunched together, trying to get to classes - they were always stressed and anxious about being late."

"Another issue was the noise. But our contractors worked with us; they tried to keep jackhammering down during classes. The atmosphere is completely different, now. It's peaceful and the kids have room to roam. They're happy and excited - you can see it their faces."

Named for a pioneer farmer and Carmichael leader, the 22-acre campus was once part of a farm John Barrett's ancestors established in the 1860s. Their 480-acre holding bordered Carmichael Colony north of Lincoln Avenue. Almost a century later, the school was built during San Juan School District's push to educate growing numbers of children during baby-boom years. By 2020, the facility was deemed outdated; its massive renovation began in spring last year.

Improvements include new classrooms, a science wing, a media center, administrative offices and

Chief Gets Soaked at ALS Association Fundraiser

By Patrick Larenas

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The Greater Sacramento Chapter of ALS (Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis) Association recently partnered with Sacramento Downtown Commons (DOC) at 405 K Street, Sacramento for its inaugural CEO Soak to raise funds for those suffering from what's commonly known as Lou Gehrig's Disease.

On August 12, CEOs from the region participated in ALS Association's ice bucket soaking to donate a total of $15,265 for the association's efforts in providing funds in a three-pronged approach against the disease, including patient care, public policy, and global research.

Senior Vice President of Territory Management for the ALS Association, Amy Sugimoto, stated, "Our programs and services allow for people across the 24 counties we serve to have access to support group meetings, durable medical equipment such as wheelchairs and ramps, speech communication devices, and so much more."

Patrick Dunlap, Managing Director in the Western Region, said, "Eight years ago, millions of people dumped buckets of ice water on their heads for the ALS Ice Bucket Challenge; this global social media sensation shined a much-needed light on an underfunded and misunderstood disease."

"Basically, this was the first year for Sacramento and the west," said Dunlap, to participate in the CEO Soak to help raise vital funds for the

New ACT Against Hate Alliance to Focus on Hate Crime Epidemic

ACT Against Hate Alliance News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The rise in hate crimes has impacted communities throughout the United States creating mistrust and anger from targeted groups. The tie between these crimes and the Covid pandemic is a clear one, with economic peril resulting in even more of a divide between various ethnic groups.

"We have all expressed horror at what is going on - which has become almost a daily occurrence in this country," stated Bob Huff, former minority leader of the California Senate and the sponsor of multiple pieces of legislation in support of underrepresented communities.

"It is time that we pull together our enormous resources and talent to start identifying solutions. Talk without action is not advancing change and change is desperately needed," Huff said.

Senator Huff and his wife, Mei Mei Ho Huff, consultants in government affairs, community/media relations, and business development, have established a new initiative called the ACT Against Hate Alliance (AAHA) to identify the roots of hate crimes and then to identify solutions. In 2022-2023, AAHA will provide innovative programming that brings key stakeholders together to discuss the most pressing issues surrounding hate crime and each aspect of the program to focus on solutions. During his time in California government, Bob Huff was known as a coalition builder whose expertise enabled him to get many important pieces of key legislation passed.

"We committed to taking new action when members of our Asian community reached out to us to ask for help, commenting on the increase in hate crimes—often violent—against Asians in our community and across the nation," said Mei Mei Huff, a well-known leader in California's Asian community for over two decades.

"We see these same problems targeting other groups," said Mei Mei Huff, "and we cannot stand by and relegate the responsibility to someone else hoping they will find solutions. We have the experience and the commitment, and with AAHA, we are focused on finding the solutions we so desperately need."

The inaugural program for ACT Against Hate Alliance was held at the California State Capitol on August 17, 2022, with government leaders speaking on the importance of this new initiative in bringing together leaders from all sectors around a solutions-focused agenda.

Other AAHA programs and events throughout the year will be a mix of remote and in-person activities. All programs will be open to members of government, NGOs, media, academic institutions, and community organizations, as well as to members of the public.

Seed funding for media programming is provided by a grant from the California State Library.

audience. "Our students are excited that everything's been designed with their best interests in mind.

"We're not a hidden gem anymore. Here's to watching Barrett Middle School, as it continues to shine on."

San Juan Unified has construction in progress at two other sites. A campus modernization is under way at Earl LeGette Elementary School (Fair Oaks). Story and photo by Susan Maxwell Skinner

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Baby boomers were out in gray-haired force to catch Ticket to Ride Electric – a Beatles cover band – in Carmichael Park last weekend. The concert was the second-to-last performance of the concert season sponsored by Carmichael Recreation and Park District.

In 100 degrees-plus, the fab-five musicians kept fans dancing to Lennon-McCartney hits for more than two hours.

The tribute band formed seven years ago. Leader and bass player Matt Udall is a Sacramento attorney. Unlike some tribute groups, its musicians don't feel the need to resemble Liverpool's most famous sons. "We have the Sgt. Pepper coats because people love those colorful uniforms from the Beatles' Sergeant Pepper period," explains Udall. "But we don't want to wear cheesy wigs, we just want to be ourselves – being out there playing music that makes people so happy."

Free CRPD concerts conclude this Saturday with a 6:30 pm performance by the 11-piece rock band On Air. The group will also play for Mission Oaks Park District on September 25. The performance is at Gibbons Park, 4701 Gibbons Drive (Carmichael). Downbeat is 5 pm. ★

Federal Jury Finds Sacramento Man Guilty of Sex Trafficking

U.S. Attorney's Office News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - After a six-day trial, a federal jury found Antonio Deshawn Long-Andrews, 28, of Sacramento, guilty of sex trafficking by force, fraud, or coercion, U.S. Attorney Phillip A. Talbert announced.

According to court documents and evidence presented at trial, between August 2017 and Dec. 5, 2018, Long targeted a young woman using force, threats of force, and coercion to cause her to perform commercial sex acts for his financial benefit. Long's commercial sex operation occurred on the streets and inside motel rooms in Northern and Southern California cities, including Sacramento, Oakland, San Jose, Santa Ana, and Orange.

According to evidence presented at trial, on Sept. 28, 2018, as part of his sex trafficking operation, Long repeatedly punched the victim inside his car in the parking lot of a motel. During the attack, the victim tried to exit the car, but an associate of Long kept her inside the car while Long continued to beat her. An eyewitness saw the attack, and the motel's security camera recorded the victim being dragged under Long's car. Although the victim was injured and had two black eyes, a week later, Long continued to engage her in commercial sex acts for his benefit.

During recorded calls from the Sacramento County Jail, Long maintained control over the victim, conveying that she was expected to earn money for him by selling her body to strangers. After Long's release from the Sacramento County Jail, Long continued his exploitation of the victim from late November 2018 until his arrest on Dec. 5, 2018.

This case is the product of an investigation by the Sacramento Police Department, the California Department of Justice, and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The California Highway Patrol, the Sacramento Sheriff's Department, and the Sacramento County District Attorney's Office assisted in the investigation. Assistant U.S. Attorneys Jason Hitt, Christina McCall, and Nirav Desai are prosecuting the case.

Long is scheduled to be sentenced by U.S. District Judge John A. Mendez on Oct. 18, 2022. Long faces a minimum sentence of 15 years in prison and a maximum statutory penalty of life in prison, and a maximum fine of $250,000. The sentence, however, will be determined at the discretion of the court after consideration of any applicable statutory factors and the Federal Sentencing Guidelines. ★

Outman has Historic Major League Debut with Dodgers

Sac State Athletics News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Just one day removed from getting the call that he was going to “The Show,” former Sacramento State outfielder James Outman made sure that his Major League Baseball debut was not only memorable, but historic.

Starting in right field and batting ninth for the Los Angeles Dodgers in the final game of a four-game series with the Colorado Rockies, Outman homered in his first career at-bat and finished a triple short of the cycle, adding three RBI in his new club's 7-3 victory on July 31.

In the process, he became the only player in Dodgers franchise history to finish his Major League debut with a home run, three hits, three RBI, and a pair of runs scored, while becoming the eighth player in franchise history – and the fourth since the club relocated to Los Angeles, joining Keibert Ruiz in 2020, Garey Ingram in 1994, and Jose Offerman in 1990 – to homer in his first career at-bat.

“It was a dream come true,” Outman said in the Dodgers’ post-game interview. “It’s something that I’ve been envisioning since I was eight years old. I’m kind of still processing everything, but it’s been awesome so far.”

“As soon as I took the swing (on the home run) I blacked out. I was just telling myself before the at-bat to relax because I knew I was going to have a lot of nerves, so I just wanted to relax and let what I’ve been doing for 20 years take over.”

Added manager Dave Roberts, “It was really fun to watch. You could just see his joy and a day he’s dreamt about. For it to play out like this, I can only imagine how he’s feeling, how his family is feeling.”

A seventh-round draft pick (No. 224 overall) by the Dodgers in the 2018 June Amateur Draft and the Dodgers’ No. 17 prospect, Outman became the third active Hornet in the Major Leagues, joining Philadelphia's Rhys Hoskins and former Sacramento State teammate Sam Long, who is with San Francisco. He is the ninth Sacramento State baseball player to appear in the Major Leagues and the first since Long made his debut on June 9, 2021, against Texas.

Outman was called up by the Dodgers on July 30 after splitting time between Double-A Tulsa and Triple-A Oklahoma City to start the season. In 90 games between Double-A Tulsa and Triple-A Oklahoma City, Outman hit .279 with a .915 OPS, slugging 21 home runs and driving in 69, while scoring 72 more on his own. In Tulsa, Outman hit .295 with 16 home runs and 45 RBI, collecting a .946 OPS before being promoted to Oklahoma City on June 29, where he has hit five more home runs and driven in 24 in 22 games with a .475 slugging and .340 on-base percentage.

Over 368 career minor league contests, Outman hit .256 with 64 doubles, 18 triples, 69 home runs, and 212 RBI, while posting an .833 OPS.

In his three seasons at Sacramento State, Outman was a two-year starter in the outfield for the Hornets as a sophomore and junior, earning Western Athletic Conference All-Tournament Team and WAC All-Academic Team honors in each of those seasons. He led the league with 11 home runs and ranked second on the team with 40 RBI as a junior in 2018, which followed a sophomore campaign that saw him slug 11 home runs and lead the team with 53 RBI, helping Sacramento State to a conference title and NCAA Regional berth.

Following Sunday's game, Outman and the Dodgers head to San Francisco to take on the Giants – and a possible head-to-head match-up with his former Hornet teammate Long – just 30 minutes away from his hometown of Redwood City, Calif.

Hornets in the Major Leagues (* denotes active Major Leaguers): Ron Stone - Kansas City Athletics (1966), Philadelphia Phillies (1969-72); La Schelle Tarver - Boston Red Sox (1986); Keith Brown - Cincinnati Reds (1988, 1990-92); Erik Bennett - California Angels (1995), Minnesota Twins (1996); Gary Wilson - Pittsburgh Pirates (1995); Roland De La Maza - Kansas City Royals (1997); Rhys Hoskins - Philadelphia Phillies (2017-22) *; Sam Long - San Francisco Giants (2021-22) *; James Outman - Los Angeles Dodgers (2022). * ★

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE
SARAH ELIZABETH LUNA
CASE NO. 34-2022-00320701
To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, and contingent creditors of and persons who may be otherwise interested in the will or estate, or both, of Sarah Elizabeth Luna, deceased.

A Petition for Probate has been filed by Sabrina Russell, in the Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, requesting Sabrina Russell be appointed as personal representatives to administer the estate of the decedent. The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the executor to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the executor will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or have consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A hearing on the petition will be held in this court as follows September 27, 2022, 9:00 a.m. in Dept 129; Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, William R. Ridgeway Family Relations Courthouse, 3341 Power Inn Road, Sacramento, CA 95826. IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. The name, address and telephone number of the Attorney for Petitioner is: Jason L. The petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court. The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the executor to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the executor will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or have consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A hearing on the petition will be held in this court as follows December 7, 2022, 9:00 a.m. in Dept 129; Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, William R. Ridgeway Family Relations Courthouse, 3341 Power Inn Road, Sacramento, CA 95826. This matter is set for a court hearing/appearance using the Zoom Application.

If you do not have compatible technology, then you can attend the hearing using a telephone and calling the designated toll-free telephone conference line.

YOU MUST APPEAR by Zoom Application or Telephone using the designated department account referenced below at least 5 minutes before your scheduled hearing date and time, and wait for a court representative to take roll. IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. By: M. Tablas, Deputy Clerk STANDARD FAMILY LAW RESTRAINING ORDERS Starting immediately, you and your spouse or domestic partner are restrained from: 1. removing the minor children of the parties from the state or applying for a new or replacement passport for those minor children without the prior written consent of the other party or an order of the court; 2. cashing, borrowing against, canceling, transferring, disposing of, or changing the beneficiaries of any insurance or other coverage, including life, health, automobile, and disability, held for the benefit of the parties and their minor children; 3. transferring, encumbering, hypothecating, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property, real or personal, whether community, quasi-community, or separate, without the written consent of the other party or an order of the court, except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life; and 4. creating a nonprobate transfer or modifying a nonprobate transfer in a manner that affects the disposition of property subject to the transfer, without the written consent of the other party or an order of the court. Before revocation of a nonprobate transfer can take effect or a right of survivorship to property can be eliminated, notice of the change must be filed and served on the other party.

You must notify each other of any proposed extraordinary expenditures at least five business days prior to incurring these extraordinary expenditures and account to the court for all extraordinary expenditures made after these restraining orders are effective. However, you may use community property, quasi-community property, or your own separate property to pay an attorney to help you or pay court costs.

NOTICE: ACCESS TO AFFORDABLE HEALTH INSURANCE: Do you or someone in your household need affordable health insurance? If so, you should apply for Covered California. Covered California can help reduce the cost you pay towards high quality affordable health care. For more information, visit www.coveredca.com. Or call Covered California at 1-800-300-1506 WARNING: IMPORTANT INFORMATION

California law provides that, for purposes of division of property upon dissolution of a marriage or domestic partnership or upon legal separation, property acquired by the parties during marriage or domestic partnership in joint form is presumed to be community property. If either party to this action should die before the jointly held community property is divided, the language in the deed that characterizes how title is held (i.e., joint tenancy, tenants in common, or community property) will be controlling, and not the community property presumption. You should consult your attorney if you want the community property presumption to be written into the recorded title to the property. Publish: Aug. 26, Sept. 2, 9 & 16, 2022 TYLER 9-16-22 complicated about your situation. In cases like this, you can even set one up online that's perfectly legal in just a few minutes.

If you're older, your kids are grown and your estate is worth $1 million or more, a trust is the way to go. By doing this, you can avoid probate in a way that wills don't allow. Now, if you have a large estate and dependents, having both a will and a trust is a good idea. And you don't have to worry about the two bumping into each other. They're separate legal instruments, and there's generally no conflict between them. If there is a legitimate, legal conflict between them, the trust usually overrides the will.

Simply put, everyone needs a will. But not everyone needs a trust. Trusts can be more than you need, but they can also be a great tool if you have a larger estate. So, if you're in the vast majority of folks who don't need a trust, just get yourself a will. You'll spend a lot less money and feel so much better knowing your stuff will go to the right people—and that your family will be taken care of!

Which is Best?

Dear Dave,

How do you know if a will or a trust is best for you?

— Monica

Dear Monica,

This is a great question, especially since August is National Make-a-Will Month. The first thing you should do is take a serious look at your needs, your wishes and your overall life and financial circumstances.

If you're like the average person with a couple of kids, a home and some savings, a will is all you need. There's no reason to bring lawyers into the mix, unless there's something

Starting immediately, you and your spouse or domestic partner are restrained from:

- removing the minor children of the parties from the state or applying for a new or replacement passport for those minor children without the prior written consent of the other party or an order of the court;
- cashing, borrowing against, canceling, transferring, disposing of, or changing the beneficiaries of any insurance or other coverage, including life, health automobile, and disability, held for the benefit of the parties and their minor children;
- transferring, encumbering, hypothecating, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property, real or personal, whether community, quasi-community, or separate, without the written consent of the other party or an order of the court, except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life; and
- creating a nonprobate transfer or modifying a nonprobate transfer in a manner that affects the disposition of property subject to the transfer, without the written consent of the other party or an order of the court. Before revocation of a nonprobate transfer can take effect or a right of survivorship to property can be eliminated, notice of the change must be filed and served on the other party.

You must notify each other of any proposed extraordinary expenditures at least five business days prior to incurring these extraordinary expenditures and account to the court for all extraordinary expenditures made after these restraining orders are effective. However, you may use community property, quasi-community property, or your own separate property to pay an attorney to help you or pay court costs.

WARNING: IMPORANT INFORMATION

California law provides that, for purposes of division of property upon dissolution of a marriage or domestic partnership or upon legal separation, property acquired by the parties during marriage or domestic partnership in joint form is presumed to be community property. If either party to this action should die before the jointly held community property is divided, the language in the deed that characterizes how title is held (i.e., joint tenancy, tenants in common, or community property) will be controlling, and not the community property presumption. You should consult your attorney if you want the community property presumption to be written into the recorded title to the property.

You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 916-939-0772 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this internet website <http://www.qualityloan.com>, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-22-911302-AB. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the internet website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 916-939-0772, or visit this internet website <http://www.qualityloan.com>, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-22-911302-AB to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the property address or other common designation, if any, shown herein. If no street address or other common designation is shown, directions to the location of the property may be obtained by sending a written request to the beneficiary within 10 days of the date of first publication of this Notice of Sale. If the sale is set aside for any reason, including if the Trustee is unable to convey title, the Purchaser at the sale shall be entitled only to a return of the monies paid to the Trustee. This shall be the Purchaser's sole and exclusive remedy. The purchaser shall have no further recourse against the Trustor, the Trustee, the Beneficiary, the Beneficiary's Agent, or the Beneficiary's Attorney. If you have previously been discharged through bankruptcy, you may have been released of personal liability for this loan in which case this notice is intended to exercise the note holders right's against the real property only. Aerospace Museum Feels 'the Need for Speed'

By Ruth N. Morse

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento-area Aerospace Museum of California in McClellan celebrated its first evening Open Cockpit event on Saturday, August 20, 2022. Since it has a "Top Gun" F-14 Tomcat and the movie "Top Gun: Maverick" is out this summer, the museum staff decided to open fourteen of their plane cockpits for viewing on Saturday afternoon.

Traditionally, the Aerospace Museum sponsors Open Cockpits twice a year during the day — once on May 4th for "May the Fourth be with you" and once on Veterans Day on November 11th. These events, which have proven to be popular with attendances up to one thousand, have now been reformatted into Top Gun Open Cockpit.

The event was an enjoyable date for visiting with volunteers, staff and the public about their experiences with the Museum. Karen Jones, Advancement Director at Aerospace Museum of California, oversees its fundraising and pointed out that the Covid experience in the last couple of years was beneficial for the facility. They profited in many ways, reinvented the experience and kept staff busy refurbishing their exhibits, when they could not be open to the public. A new café was opened during this time and a new exhibit built around the Makani, a large energy kite named after the Hawaiian word for wind they received from the manufacturer in 2020.

Aerospace Museum's four-acre property has a unique combination of volunteers and paid staff, which are necessary since the operation does not receive government funding. There are over three hundred volunteers who range in age from students doing community service to retirees with aviation experience.

In addition to those with a love of aviation and serving our country in the military, others manned the Aerospace facility actively promoting the educational emphasis in STEM. These staff and volunteers reach out to the next generation to encourage them to pursue careers and interests in the STEM subjects of Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics. Another event at the museum promoting STEM includes summer camp, a weeklong day event with as many as one hundred children at a time and a total of nine different camps.

Senior volunteer Bob Hiltachk logged more than five hundred hours of volunteer work. He enjoyed showing off the newly refurbished Blue Angel to Tim and Logan Jacobsen visiting from Rancho Cordova. The Blue Angel was recently returned to the museum after four years at the nearby Coast Guard for refurbishment. It looked great indoors with its new blue paint job.

The museum features a gift shop which allows the of purchase items such as the museum mascot, Amelia Bearhart. The bear is often hidden in the museum and becomes part of a scavenger hunt. Amelia Bearhart's Storytime and Crafts will be held from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Museum, Saturday, August 27th. They also had Top Gun items for sale in the shop, and an interesting book about a local triple ace named Colonel Bud Anderson, a centenarian who lives in Auburn and is involved in the museum.

As Karen pointed out, the museum is thriving despite Covid closures over the last couple of years. It appeals to diverse groups of people who enjoy coming together to learn about planes and flying, engineering and history. The Museum even qualifies to be a Smithsonian Institution partner, something only two local museums are qualified for.

Museum normal operating hours are Thursday to Sunday from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Admission is $15 for adults and $10 for seniors, youth, teachers and veterans. An upcoming event is a storytime on Saturday, August 27, 2022.

For more information visit aerospaceca.org or 3200 Freedom Park Drive, McClellan, CA 95652 or call 916-643-3192.

The Museum is forward-looking by encouraging the next generations to participate in aviation history and technology. You can attend and come away with new knowledge after this enjoyable "infotainment" experience! ★
