New River Projects Aid Fish

Story and photos by Susan Maxwell Skinner

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Beginning next month, parts of the American River will change to benefit salmon and steelhead migration.

Sacramento Water Forum programs will add nearly 42,000 cubic yards of gravel to Lower Sailor Bar and Nimbus Basin. The projects – continuing habitat restoration undertaken by the agency since 2008 – are geared to improve breeding opportunity for diminished chinook salmon and steelhead populations.

Man-made river alterations have threatened these species since gold rush excavations. More recently, Folsom and Nimbus dams blocked spawning paths; dams also barred natural gravel movement to lower river reaches.

“Some salmon and steelhead return to their home water and can’t find a place to spawn,” explained Water Forum Habitat Manager Erica Bishop. “Though the Nimbus Hatchery has a role in juvenile fish production, the Water Forum’s focus is to help salmonids complete life cycles naturally.

“Steelhead and salmon once had 200 miles of the American River watershed for spawning as they returned from the ocean,” Bishop noted. “We’ve limited this to about 12 miles. Fish can’t build nests among boulders. They need moveable gravel to make their redds (nests). The lower American River is gravel starved. We need to do everything we can to allow these fish to maintain their species.”

Lower Sailor Bar work begins August 1; the Nimbus Basin project starts August 27. In preparation, tons of Lake Natoma stones have been graded to suitable size. This gravel will be trucked to Nimbus and Sailor Bar for redistribution.

Habitat restoration includes nursery inlets to accommodate growing juvenile fish before their migration to the Pacific Ocean. Planting of native vegetation around inlets will engineer shade and bring insects to feed small fry.

State Fair and Food Festival a Huge Success

Opening weekend at the 2022 California State Fair was a splendid demonstration of cuisine and delicacies at the Food Festival. Photo courtesy of the California State Fair

California State Fair News Release

CAL EXPO, CA (MPG) - Opening weekend of the CA State Fair & Food Festival was a roaring success, drawing tens of thousands of visitors after a two-year pandemic pause. Fairgoers of all ages enjoyed rides and games, food and drink, live music, livestock, exhibits, and more.

“We’re very excited that the opening weekend was so well received by our guests, who helped celebrate California with an exciting, successful, and safe start,” said Rick Pickering, Cal Expo General Manager and CEO.

The exciting shrills coming from the rides and the positive buzz from first-ever California Cannabis Exhibit, were among the main attractions on opening weekend. As of Sunday afternoon 8,225, unlimited ride wristbands have been sold; 14,000 fast passes sold; over 10,000 ride tickets were sold. Amongst all the thrilling rides, the White-Water Flume ride was the most popular with over 8,500 riders, understandably considering the hot temperatures.

Country Fair Cinnamon Rolls wins back-to-back Best of Show in the Food Festival Completion, this time with its Cinnamon Toast Caramel Roll. Other big winners are first-time vendors at the CA State Fair & Food Festival, Bula Pies Fiji for its Chicken Curry hand pie, and Cakes by Jeff won awards for two of his delicious, sweet treats. Soul on a Roll and Wing Mahal also won ribbons.

The clear bag policy that we’ve implemented - similar to Golden 1, River Cats & Sac Republic, helped eager fairgoers get through the gates quickly and safely so they could start enjoying the fun.

“On Thursday, we honor our military, veterans and first responders for Appreciation day,” said Pickering. “I want to thank all of our law enforcement officers and security team, who are doing an exceptional job helping to keep the state fair the safest place families can be this summer”.

The CA State Fair & Food Festival runs daily through Sunday, July 31st at Cal Expo. You can also check out all the attractions online at CalExpostatefair.com or download the CA State Fair app to help map out each visit to this year’s fair. ★

Skinner Band’s Last Stand

By Susan Maxwell Skinner

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Sacramento’s long-serving John Skinner Band last week presented a farewell performance as part of the Carmichael Park concert series. John Skinner’s wife, singer Susan Maxwell Skinner, reports on the final gig:

We set up in 106 degrees. By 6:30 pm, 100 degrees heralded our downbeat. The Skinner band was hot to trot!

On stage and off, emotions ran high. Some fans had danced to the band for all of its forty years. Long-time dancer Pat Z’berg showed up on her walking frame. I remember Pat cutting a rug at the Radisson with a dancing machine called a Nancy. Like the Radisson, Danny’s long gone. But plenty of kids showed up, too. We’ve always had an eclectic audience.

Well over a thousand people saw our finale. As early as two hours before kick-off, some claimed what little park shade was available. Fans greeted us with laughter and tears. We delivered rock, swing and Latin; even a couple of line dances. As evening wore on, scores of stalwarts filled the floor.

Everything has its season. John Skinner made it clear he expected his namesake band to shutter after his death. We honored our remaining contracts and COVID took care of the rest. John got his wish. But his band had one more show in it. Carmichael Park was the perfect setting. We’d played every concert season there for more than 40 years.

Band alumni stood up for one last blow. John’s talented daughter Kathryn joined me in song. Loyal band retainers were: Mark Stivers (piano), Dan Kassis (drums), Tom Hannickel (bass), Doug Pauly (guitar), Kurt Pearsall (trumpet), Brandon Matthew (trombone) and Roger Gosline on sax. Ron Davis operated sound. I thank them all.

Ancient Near Eastern History Featured at State Fair

By Elise Spleiss

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - A new face at the Sacramento State Fair this year at the Valley Sculpture Artists (VSA) booth is Raad Alnahat, an immigrant from Iraq who will be filling the VSA demonstration spot Chris Thompson held at the fair for many years.

Alnahat has many credentials and will be demonstrating his unique process of combining sculpture and ceramics to construct large figures during the two weeks of the fair. He will show his particular process for how he constructs larger format forms. His work reflects his culture, featuring works from biblical days. After Israel, Iraq has the most biblical history of any country in the world.

One of Alnahat's pieces is a six-foot tall, 250-pound statue of the last great king of Assyria. King Ashurbanipal of the Neo-Assyrian Empire reigned for 38 years from 669 BC to his death in 631 BC in Nineveh. The four intricate sections of his piece include the head, a lion and an engraved tablet with writing in four languages.

Alnahat studied in Iraq, receiving his Certificate of Fine Arts in Baghdad in 1985, specializing in sculpture. He has taught painting, ceramics, and calligraphy for over 10 years and participated in many galleries and exhibits in Iraq, including his own personal exhibit 1987. He shared in an email that he had to leave Nineveh, Iraq in 2008 because of the war. He traveled to Turkey and lived there for two years showing his work in numerous galleries as well as teaching calligraphy.

"I came to the United States in 2010 with my family and began studying all forms of art to improve myself, but I mostly enjoyed ceramics because it relates closely to my style. I studied at American River College and one of my large sculptures stands in their Art department today. Through my work in ceramics, I was able to combine ceramics with sculpture. My work is mostly influenced from our history in Iraq such as the Babylonian empire, Assyrian empire, etc." Alnahat will be demonstrating his unique style daily at the VSA booth from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. ★

ARC News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - American River College (ARC) theatre students won big this spring at the Kennedy Center American College Theater Festival regional and national events. The Kennedy Center events are among the most prestigious and competitive for theatre students across the U.S.

At the regional event ARC's Doshima Iyorlu won the coveted Irene Ryan Acting and the Musical Theatre Initiative awards and Alexandria Wilson was awarded the Irene Ryan Best Partner Award. Then, at the national festival Doshima received the National Summer Intensive Scholarship, which will fund her tuition, travel, and housing for the Dell'Arte International School of Physical Theatre Summer Intensive program. In addition, Alexandria received the national Kingsley Colton Award for Outstanding Partner.

Doshima's dual achievements at the regional event are the first time an ARC student has won both awards. Alexandria's national award is also the first time an ARC student has received that recognition.

"We are so thrilled for Doshima and Alexandria and immensely proud of their amazing work. Both of these competitions see hundreds of participants annually, so it is amazing to see our student artists recognized for their work and craft," said ARC President Melanie Dixon.

CA Assembly Requests Action by the Governor to Protect the Trucking Industry

Assembly Republicans News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - On Tuesday, July 5, Assembly Republicans sent a letter to Governor Gavin Newsom, urging him to delay implementation of AB 5 or exempt independent truckers entirely from its employee reclassification (ABC) test. The Supreme Court declined to hear a case on June 30th that would have challenged the new law, now putting AB 5 on the fast-track for going into effect in California.

"California's and the nation's economy in part depends on our ability to move products through our ports. The employment standards that AB 5 sets for independent truckers puts more undue stress on our economy and will increase shipping costs, driving inflation even higher. We are trying to prevent our already strained supply chain from getting worse, and if there are cuts to the trucking workforce, this will hurt both businesses and consumers."

-Assembly Republican Leader James Gallagher

The letter calls on Governor Newsom to use his executive powers to either delay application of AB 5 or exempt the trucking industry altogether from the ABC test, which determines whether a worker is an employee or an independent contractor. By not taking action, the Governor would be eliminating 20 percent of California's vital supply chain workforce.

New River Projects Aid Fish

Chinook returning to the lower American River are challenged to find spawning space.

In a larger 2021 project, 16,000 cubic yards of gravel were bulldozed into shallows near Ancil Hoffman Park. Working against the clock, the project restored habitat for the fall salmon migration. Soon after, steelhead spawned in the same gravel beds.

“We have a narrow work window, as specified by the Endangered Species Act,” Bishop said. “Our work is targeted over time frames least likely to affect migrating fish.”

Project success is evident. 2019 restoration above Sailor Bar resulted in 1,000 new chinook nests. The augmented Ancil Hoffman site last winter housed 30% of all American River steelhead spawning.

“Results are immediate,” Bishop noted. “We see salmon beginning to spawn as we finish our projects. We know our restored habitats work.

“Although the ongoing drought can make river conditions challenging for fish, our projects focus on long-term improvement of river health.”

Habitat restorations have been completed at River Bend Park, Sacramento Bar and in stretches of the American River along Sunrise Road. Lower Sailor Bar and Nimbus projects will wrap by early October. Though staging areas will be fenced during construction, river access and rafter use will not be restricted. In-river work will pause to enable weekend and Labor Day recreation.

Water forum projects are supported by the Bureau of Reclamation, CA Prop 68 funding, Sacramento City and County and signatory water agencies.

Sacramento County Approves Second ‘Safe Stay’ Site

By Janna Haynes, Sacramento County

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento County Board of Supervisors approved Sacramento County’s second proposed “Safe Stay Community” for persons experiencing homelessness. The second community will open at 7001 East Parkway in part of the parking lot of the current County Department of Health Services building. The site will house up to 45 Pallet sleeping cabins – both single and double occupancy, bathrooms, and communal gathering spaces. At any point in time, it can shelter up to 55 people.

The first location, at 8144 Florin Road (near Power Inn) was approved on June 8 by the Board and will have 100 sleeping shelters that can accommodate up to 125 at any given time. Both locations will be operated by an experienced provider that will handle on-site staff and manage neighbor relations and the day to day needs of the community.

These communities are built as a safer and more sanitary environment and offer critical services oriented towards exiting to permanent housing. Each site will include 24/7 security, case management services, on-site power, sanitation and food services. The County will develop good neighbor policies for the operator and occupants as well as create an oversight committee made up of County staff, community members and those with lived experience to help further guide progress in the County response.

“I am thrilled to have a second location approved and ready to build in District 2,” said District 2 Supervisor Patrick Kennedy. “The need in our area is great. These new Safe Stay Communities will go a long way to help those in South Sacramento experiencing homelessness with stable shelter, drug and alcohol services, mental health services, job training, and a connection to other vital services that will lead to a healthy lifestyle and self-sufficiency while providing relief to the businesses and residents in the community that have experienced the impacts of homelessness.”

Guests for every Safe Stay Community will be brought in from the immediate neighborhood, not only providing direct relief to the community, but providing local and dignified shelter in an area the guest is familiar with.

The East Parkway location will likely move on a parallel timeline as the Florin and Power Inn location and will hopefully welcome guests early next year.

While homelessness can be successfully addressed by providing stable, affordable housing, combined with appropriate support services, this approach can take many years. Safe Stay Communities provide immediate safe and hygienic locations for persons experiencing homelessness to live and access services. The communities also provide a consistent location for service providers and outreach workers to engage on a more regular basis with occupants.

Additionally, some of the broader community benefits anticipated by having this safe space community include a reduction in trash and debris, the mitigation of environmental and health hazards, and the ability to restore land previously occupied by unsanctioned encampments to its intended use.

For more information on Safe Stay Communities, read our “Safe Stay Community FAQs.”

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA COUNTY OF SACRAMENTO ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE CHANGE OF NAME
#34-2022

Dave Ramsey Says

doing so well. How do you feel about this?

– Marie

Dear Marie,

Okay, so you have two car payments hanging over your heads, plus a bunch of credit card debt, and your husband wants to throw saving for toys and vacations into the mix? I'm sure he's a good guy, and he has obviously been on-board with your financial overhaul so far, but I wouldn't recommend doing this.

The reason people are successful following my plan is because I teach common sense methods, wrapped up in unbridled, scorched-earth intensity. There's a process here. There's an idea combined with passion. And when you plug into it full force, you're going to move in a positive direction so quickly it'll make your head spin.

You know how I say personal finance is 80% behavior and only 20% head knowledge? It's true. Behaviors have to change. The more dramatically they change, the better the results and the faster you progress. But if you don't plug into it, you'll fall back into the same old things.

It's okay to save up for a trip or buy some fun stuff in the general philosophy of life. But getting out of debt, and having control of your finances should come first. Remember when you were a kid, and you had to finish your dinner or clean up your room before going out to play? That's what I teach. Work first, play later.

Trust me. It'll pay off in the long run!

– Dave

There's a Process here ... and it Works!

Dear Dave,

My husband and I have a beginner emergency fund set aside, and we're working on paying off $30,000 in credit card debt and two cars in Baby Step 2. He would also like us to start putting money aside for a couple of trips and a few other things we have always wanted. This makes me nervous, because we have made so much progress over the last year in getting control of our finances, paying off debt and living on a budget. I understand wanting something to look forward to, but I would hate to see us slow down when we are

In A New Light

Alegría ('joy' in Spanish) first premiered in 1994 and has since become one of the most beloved Cirque du Soleil shows, mesmerizing over 14 million spectators in 255 cities across 40 countries in over 19 years of touring. Its Grammy Award-nominated soundtrack – including the iconic title track 'Alegría' – is still the most purchased and streamed Cirque du Soleil album to date.

In 2019, in celebration of its 25th anniversary, Alegría was restaged under the Big Top in a whole new light, ensuring that all its components – stage direction, music, acrobatics, sets, costumes, lighting, and makeup designs – would be as inspiring for today's audiences as they were at the time of the original creation. Reenergized by a cast of 53 acrobats, clowns, musicians, and singers, Alegría remains timeless and imbued with a joyous magical feeling.

Sac State Baseball Players Now in the Pros

Sacramento State Athletics News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Summer is here and, as the temperatures begin to heat up, so have the performances of Sacramento State baseball alumni at all levels across the country (all stats as of June 15).

Rhys Hoskins

(Philadelphia Phillies - MLB)
Fresh off a 4-for-5 performance against Miami that saw him slug a double, a pair of home runs — the first a three-run shot that tied the game, and the second a solo shot that gave Philadelphia the lead — and drive in six (https://www.mlb.com/phillies/video/rhys-hoskins-two-home-run-game), Hoskins is enjoying a stellar month of June, batting .354 with nine extra base hits and 12 RBI for the Phillies, with hits in 11 of his last 15 games and raising his average 26 points in the process. The six-year Major League veteran is batting .480 and slugging 1.080 over his last seven games and hitting .351 over his last 15 contests. Hoskins' 13 home runs this year are third on the team behind only Kyle Schwarber and Bryce Harper, while his 36 RBI are second behind only Harper.

Sam Long

(San Francisco Giants - MLB)
Following a brief stay at AAA Sacramento, Long has rejoined the San Francisco roster after being recalled on June 7 and has shined in his last three appearances — all in relief — for the big club, allowing just four hits over his last eight scoreless innings, walking a pair and striking out three to lower his ERA to 1.96 in 12 Major League appearances. He surrendered a single hit at Miami in two innings of work in his first game back on June 2, walked only one without allowing a hit in three scoreless innings against Colorado on June 7, and scattered three hits over three innings in a start against the rival Dodgers on June 11. When you include his five appearances for the River Cats before returning to the Bay Area, Long has posted a 2.35 ERA over his last 15.1 innings of work, having not allowed a run since May 10 at El Paso.

Nathan Lukes

(Buffalo Bisons - Toronto Blue Jays AAA)
Now in his third full season at the Triple-A level with the Blue Jays organization, Lukes has blistered the ball through the first 54 games of the season, batting .301 with an .819 OPS for Buffalo in the International League, adding 16 doubles, five home runs, and 26 RBI to his stat line while also swiping 12 bases. Lukes is hitting .324 in the month of June — mere points behind the .325 he hit in April for the Bisons — thanks to hits in nine of his 12 games this month, which included four home runs and 11 RBI in that stretch.

Justin Dillon

(Syracuse Mets - New York Mets AAA)
Before making a trip to the seven-day disabled list on May 31, Dillon has been solid out of the bullpen for Syracuse, posting a 3.45 ERA over 15.2 innings of work in 11 appearances for the Mets' Triple-A squad, striking out 18 and holding opponents to a .254 average. In his last appearance against Rochester, he struck out a season-high four over 1.2 innings of work and posted a 1.86 ERA in six appearances in the month of May, allowing just two earned on eight hits over 9.2 innings of work while striking out 10.
