Cordova Wins Fourth Straight League Championship

By Rick Sloan

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - In another thrilling repeat, the Cordova girls' varsity softball team successfully defended their Greater Sacramento League (GSL) title for the fourth straight time finishing the season 9-1. The Lancers were 17-5 overall capping what definitely was one of the most exciting and productive seasons in a while. Head Coach Kim Little said, "This year's team is to be celebrated and remembered for all of the big wins and moving further than any of the previous teams of the decade. Back to back to back to back GSL Champions!" One of those big wins was a 2-0 victory against Sac-Joaquin Section 5th ranked Vista Del Lago. Cordova was ranked 41 at the time. Cordova is currently ranked 34. All season long the Lady Lancers played with heart and passion compiling individual stats that lit up the GSL leader board. Three Lancers finished in the top ten for batting average. Leading the league was Cordova's senior center fielder Eden Leiana Hobart with a .585 average. Senior shortstop Mariah Hopkins finished in 3rd place with a .547 average and freshman Selena Reyes finished in 6th place with a .500 batting average.

In the home run category, Mariah Hopkins finished the season at the top with 15 round trippers, which included a two-run homer in the first round of the Sac-Joaquin Division 2 playoff game against Laguna Creek. Cordova beat the Laguna Creek Cardinals by a score of 6-2 behind a stellar pitching performance by senior Cassy Seifert and some timely RBI singles by sophomore Niyah Brown and Hobart. Seifert had 18 strikeouts and gave up only one hit in the bottom of the seventh.

Food Locker Director Discusses Outlook and Upcoming Projects at Luncheon

By Patrick Larenas

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Carrie Johnson, Rancho Cordova Food Locker executive director, discussed the challenges faced by the food security non-profit at this month's Chamber of Commerce luncheon on May 19, 2023. Johnson stepped into the Catholic charity organization leadership about a year ago. Having previously worked for companies such as Dignity Foundation, Safe Credit Union and Eskaton, among others, has well prepared her for the post-pandemic task.

She reported seeing a dramatic increase in walk-ins in the last 12 months, with over 1000 first-time visitors in just the past 4 months. Johnson said the locker works closely to verify its statistics with the countywide database provided by the regional Sacramento Food Bank.

"In the past year, the food locker has gone from serving 270 families a week to serving 660 a week," Johnson stated, noting that this "remarkable change witnessed has been largely due to inflation and the housing situation in the region."

She asked the listeners to make a mental note of whom they thought benefited from the locker's efforts.

The main groups benefiting from the locker's shelves, she said, were children, struggling families, parents with jobs who can't make it to the end of the month, seniors who have to make tough financial decisions often jeopardizing their health conditions, refugees from the current war in Ukraine and those experiencing homelessness.

The locker has seen a 49 percent increase in the number of children, many of which don't get a normal meal outside of what

Help Stop Financial Abuse of Older Americans

Sacramento County News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - May is Older Americans Month. Established in 1963, Older Americans Month is meant to raise awareness about stereotypes of older adults and the issues they face. To learn more about Older Americans Month, visit the Older Americans Month webpage.

In honor of Older Americans Month, challenge ageist stereotypes of growing older by celebrating the age, wisdom and experience of older friends, neighbors and family members. Look out for vulnerable older people and talk to them about financial wellness. Financial abuse awareness is critical for older adults who are targeted by scammers specifically because of their age. In Sacramento County and all over the United States, older adults fall victim to financial abuse or scams.

Financial abuse can include someone stealing money or credit cards. It can also occur when an older adult is forced to sign a document related to finances or property. If you or someone you know has experienced elder financial abuse, contact law enforcement and Sacramento County Adult Protective Services. Any member of the public, including an older or dependent adult seeking help, or family members and friends, can make a report to Sacramento County's Adult Protective Services (APS) at (916) 874-9377. When crimes do occur, Sacramento County's District Attorney works closely with victim advocates to provide confidential support and assistance.

"Our victim advocates provide crisis counseling, assistance with emergency protective orders, advocacy and support through the court process, assistance in applying for victim compensation, and referrals to community programs and resources. Our office is also very active in educating seniors and the general public about the types of elder and dependent adult abuse, how to recognize signs of abuse, how to prevent it from happening, and how to report it when it does occur," said Assistant Chief Deputy District Attorney Dawn Bladet.

If you are unsure of a situation involving an elder or dependent adult, but have a feeling something might be wrong, APS workers can investigate

Ranger Adopts Pup Following a Traffic Stop

Sacramento County News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento County Regional Parks Rangers are the law enforcement division of Regional Parks, and while their days are typically spent engaging with parkway visitors and patrolling our parks to keep them safe, every once in a while, something weird happens. This isn't a story about everyday Ranger operations, this is a heart-warming story about how one of our Rangers became a dog dad following a routine traffic stop.

While on patrol at Watt River Access on April 8, two Rangers, Matsui and Brennan, conducted what they thought would be a standard traffic stop. Upon stopping the vehicle, they discovered that an individual inside had an outstanding warrant for his arrest.

While being placed into custody, Rangers learned that the individual had a Rottweiler mix puppy that he rescued from an abusive owner. The individual told Rangers Matsui and Brennan that he wanted them to adopt the puppy because he wanted to make sure the puppy would have a good and loving home.

"Having an individual I'm taking into custody ask me to adopt his dog was a first for me," said Ranger Brennan. "This puppy stole my heart right away and I knew that I could give him a good home, but I also knew that I couldn't just take him home."

The Rangers took the puppy to Bradshaw Animal Shelter where he received a thorough evaluation. Once he was checked out and cleared, he was fostered out to Ranger Brennan, who ultimately adopted him. This puppy, now named Roman, lives with Ranger Brennan and his family.

"Ranger Matsui and I are pretty good friends," said Ranger Brennan. "I knew he had a Rottweiler pup at home, and now when we hang out outside of work, our pups can hang out together too."

Animal foster care providers help the Bradshaw Animal Shelter save lives. With the shelter continuously at capacity, fostering a pet creates kennel space for incoming animals in need while giving pets a cozy environment to relax in while they wait for their forever homes.

The time commitment for fostering a pet can range from a few weeks to a few months depending on the animal's individual needs. If you happen to fall in love with your pet, you can always choose to adopt them, just like Ranger Brennan did! (RBI's), Cordova had six players finish in the top 10 of league competition. On top of the leader board was Hopkins with 42, Brown was 2nd with 30 and sophomore Alyssa Soliven was 3rd with 22. Senior Julia DeMuth, Hobart and sophomore Adriana Arana were tied for 6th with 16 each.

On top of the leader board for stolen bases was Hopkins with 21 stolen bags, closely followed in 2nd by Hobart with 20. Freshman Jasmine Ferrall was 4th in league with 10 stolen bases, while DeMuth and Brown were 6th with 7.

In the pitching department Seifert led the way with 13 wins, 205 strikeouts and an earned run average of 2.17. Hobart was 2nd with 3 wins and Reyes had 1 victory.

Cordova also had 4 players in the top ten for on base percentage. Hopkins was 1st with an average of .658, Reyes was 4th with .513, Hobart was 6th with .603 and sophomore Briel Brookins finished 9th with .556.

There were 6 players in the top ten in the slugging percentage. Hopkins was 1st with 1.509, Hobart was 4th with .908, Brown was 5th with .831, DeMuth was 6th with .683, Reyes was 9th with .625 and Seifert was 10th with .622.

With so many players finishing in the top 10 in so many different categories you really get a sense of how much each game was a team effort. All season long the team played hard with each player contributing to a very successful season.

The season came to an end in the second round of the playoffs as the Lancers lost to the number one seeded Vacaville Bulldogs by a score of 2-0. "In my opinion, we could have gone even further in the playoffs, but we just couldn't get that timely hit against Vacaville. I'm going to miss this group as the seniors move on and I move on", said Assistant Coach Mark Beamish. ★

New Wave of Demands Add Pressure to California's Budget Squeeze

By Dan Walters, CALMatters.org

One could call it the “big squeeze.”

It's the ever-increasing conflict between the state government's current and projected tax revenues, which are drifting downwards, and the demands for billions of additional dollars for vital services, such as health care, homelessness and mass transit.

In January, when Gov. Gavin Newsom unveiled his initial budget for the 2023-24 fiscal year that begins July 1, he projected a $22.5 billion deficit – just a few months after boasting the state had a $97 billion surplus. This month, in a revised budget, he said the deficit had grown to $31.5 billion.

As worrisome as those numbers appear, they might be a best case scenario, according to the Legislature's budget analyst, Gabe Petek.

“Based on our assessment, there is a roughly two thirds chance revenues will come in below May Revision estimates,” Petek said. “As such, while we consider the May revision revenues plausible, adopting them would present considerable downside risk.”

Moreover, Petek said that using the Newsom administration's own projections and assumptions, “the budget condition would worsen in future years” with annual operating deficits of around $15 billion in the following two years, and hinted that the real shortfalls in the final years of Newsom's governorship could be larger.

These estimates of a chronic and perhaps widening gap between income and outgo also assume that the state's economy won't be clobbered by recession.

Many economists believe that the Federal Reserve System's increasing interest rates, meant to slow the economy and battle inflation, could trigger a recession within the next year. If it occurred, Newsom's budget says, “revenues could decrease by $40 billion in 2023-24 alone, largely driven by losses in personal income tax,” adding that “revenue declines relative to the May Revision forecast could reach an additional $100 billion through 2026-27.”

While the state has amassed more than $30 billion in reserves to cushion the impact of recession, an even moderate economic downturn would quickly consume them, drowning the budget in red ink as the Great Recession did.

To summarize: California's budget faces several years, at least, of budget difficulty. But the demand side of the fiscal ledger is not shrinking.

After the January budget was released, advocates for programs, particularly health care and social services, cranked up pressure on legislators to protect their slices of the pie. That pressure is even more intense with the May revision's deficit increase.

They have been joined by three other major stakeholders seeking multi-billion-dollar increases in state aid: hospitals, transit systems and cities on the front lines of the state's worst-in-the-nation homelessness crisis.

Hospital and transit system officials say they have been unable to fully recover from the impacts of COVID-19 on their patronage and finances and may be forced to shut down or at least reduce services. Mayors of the state's largest cities say they need an additional $2 billion per year to maintain ongoing efforts to house those on the streets.

None of the three fared well in the May revision. Newsom offered just a $150 million loan fund to hospitals, didn't include any extra money for local homelessness efforts, and only said he would be willing to discuss transit's self-proclaimed “fiscal cliff.”

There's little question that advocates for existing and new state financing would prefer that Newsom and the Legislature tap into reserves and/or raise taxes to satisfy their demands. In fact, the state Senate's budget framework proposes a hike in corporate income taxes, although Newsom has rejected it.

Were California's budget squeeze to continue or grow tighter, as seems likely, the remainder of Newsom's governorship would be dominated by the difficult task of resolving it.

A Lot of Red Flags Here

Dear Dave,

I live in Dallas, Texas, and I'm wondering if I should sell my condo in order to pay off debt. I owe $120,000 on it, and it's worth around $260,000. Plus, the homeowners association fee used to be $450 a month and has gone up $100 each year for the last two years, so now we're paying $650. No one has ever told us why the fee went up so much. There haven't been any major improvements to the complex in the last five years, so I don't know what to think. Can you give me some advice??

– Zack

Dear Zack,

As a homeowner, I'd want some answers by the end of day as to why the HOA fees are so high. I mean, for a $260,000 condo, the fee you mentioned is ridiculous unless the building owners are doing a major renovation, like replacing the parking lot or updating the community's clubhouse. Even then, that's crazy! On top of all that, it devalues your condo. Nobody wants to buy a $260,000 condo with a $650 HOA fee every month, especially when the fee has gone up that much for no apparent reason.

Dave Ramsey Says

There's always the possibility the company is building up a war chest for improvements in the next year or so. But you have a right to know exactly where the money you pay in HOA fees is going. Ask to see a copy of their financials, and if they won't do that—or explain why the fee is so high and where the money's going—you need to sell the place because it's being poorly managed.

You're got to get an explanation. You're owed one. And, if you try to sell the place, you're going to have to tell prospective buyers why the HOA fee is so high. Maybe there's a good reason for it buried somewhere. But without knowing more, as a buyer, there's no way I'd take this thing off your hands.

There are a lot of red flags fluttering around the situation, Daniella. Even in a place like Dallas, this HOA fee is about double what it should be for a $260,000 condo. I'm not saying this just because I don't like HOAs, which I don't. And that's mainly because I don't like paying money for something, and then being told by someone else what I can or can't do with it. But you need some answers for your own information, peace of mind and to give potential buyers an honest answer when they ask why the fees are insanely high.

Lose the headache. Sell it.

Remember

We love the parades and picnics, the day off from work and barbecues too. It's Memorial Day and we celebrate. But do we know why we celebrate on this day? It's to honor some very special men and women who are no longer with us. Their sacrifice looms large for what we have today. America is known as the “Land of the Free” and it's all because of those brave men and women. We need to remember all those who died in every war to preserve our freedom. Would you believe even Ancient Greece had a similar day to remember their lost loved ones? In Greece and Rome, they decorated the graves of those who passed on including soldiers.

There have been many stories on how Memorial Day came to pass. Originally, it was a day to honor the soldiers who lost their lives in the Civil War. They originally called it Decoration Day started on May 5th 1868 by General John A. Logan, Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic. Why Decoration Day? Because family members of soldiers who died in the war decorated their graves with flowers. Did you know 620,000 Americans died in the Civil War? Incredible and sad when brothers were against brothers and fathers were fighting sons. In 1967 Congress changed the name to Memorial Day. And after WWII it was changed to honor all soldiers who lost their lives in all wars. In 1971, It was declared a National Holiday.

When I think of all those precious lives lost in so many wars, it humbles me and my heart goes out to all those families who had to grieve for their loss. I know how difficult it can be to say goodbye to a loved one. My husband Rick and I were married a short three months when he boarded the plane on his way to Vietnam. It tore my heart out. So many did not return. I knew some of them. I am grateful that the good Lord blessed me with his return, but that is a time I will never forget! And neither should we...no matter the war. The sacrifice is still real.

So I ask you to REMEMBER and pass that remembrance on to your children and grandchildren. Fly the flag with pride and honor and stay dedicated to what we stand for in our country... freedom! Let go of the discord we are facing on so many levels, and marvel at what the founding fathers created and the lives lost to keep that dream. At 3 PM on Memorial Day, we are all encouraged to take a moment of silence from our activities to reflect about what this day means. Please think of all those men and women who gave their lives so we could celebrate in the land of the free! God Bless them and God Bless America!!! ★

CHP Shifts into Overdrive to Halt Reckless Driving

CHP News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The California Highway Patrol (CHP) is accelerating its efforts to halt illegal street racing and sideshows plaguing the state's roadways and destroying the lives of innocent victims. To increase awareness about the devastation and destruction caused by this illegal and dangerous driving behavior, the CHP unveiled a new multi-media campaign while standing amid a three-dimensional installation featuring an actual crashed vehicle along Melrose Avenue in Los Angeles.

The billboard, a striking visual reminder, is just one of the more than 50 displays being erected throughout the state reminding drivers about illegal street racing and sideshows, “Thrills That Kill.” The public can expect to see the billboard campaign through the summer months in areas of California that have seen a high number of illegal street racing and side show activity. Among the locations: Los Angeles, the Bay Area, and the Central San Joaquin Valley.

Illegal sideshows have been occurring at an alarming rate in California, and they continue to get bigger and more dangerous. In 2021, the CHP responded to more than 7,300 incidents statewide with nearly 123,000 participants. While the number of incidents decreased by approximately 50 percent last year, there is still a significant amount of work to be done to keep California's communities, and those who use our roads, safe.

“Illegal street racing and sideshows put lives at risk, upset the quality of our neighborhoods, cause damage to private and public property, and in some cases, have resulted in the death of innocent people,” CHP Deputy Commissioner Troy Lukkes said. “Through our ongoing efforts we want to send the message throughout California that this dangerous and illegal activity will not be tolerated.”

Over a 5-year period, illegal street racing and sideshow activities have resulted in 264 crashes. Of those incidents attributed to this reckless behavior, 30 crashes were fatal, and 124 others resulted in injuries.

To combat this trend, the CHP has been working with its public safety partners and community-based organizations throughout the state. Together, we are engaging in a strong education and enforcement campaign with the goal of keeping all who use California's roadways safe by encouraging others to make good choices behind the wheel.

Funding to support the CHP's efforts were made possible by the Governor's approval of a one-time state budget allocation of $5.5 million at the request of California Assemblymember Vince Fong and a former Assemblymember, Sacramento County Sheriff Jim Cooper. The funds are being used to support state and local task forces to end dangerous sideshow activities that have become a major problem in communities throughout the state.

The mission of the CHP is to provide the highest level of Safety, Service, and Security. ★

And Another Thing

Fortunately, Anyone who Needs Help Finds it in our Food Locker

By Bob McGarvey

Carrie Johnson was the speaker today, Friday May 19, at the Cordova Community Luncheon. She shared some great information about our Rancho Cordova Food Locker. There are so many people who are able to get some help when they find that they need help at the end of the month to get the food for their family. With everything going up in cost, especially food, there are many today who find themselves almost at 'the end of their rope'. Fortunately, anyone who needs help finds it in our food locker. President Franklin D. Roosevelt said, "When you reach the end of your rope, tie a knot in it and hold on." There are people in our food locker who help you hold on to your rope.

Speaking about the volunteers who are there, and who help people hold on, Carrie said if any of you wish to become a volunteer they would be very happy to accept whatever time you can offer. Whether it is one hour, or two hours, or whatever time you can offer would be greatly appreciated. A year ago there were over 200 individuals/families a week, today there are over 600 individuals/families a week who receive help.

The volunteer roles are van drivers, computer support, parking lot attendants, grocery hag packer, produce sorter, food sorter, grocery cart loader, or guest greeter. There may be some information in the future about finding a new location for the food locker because it needs more space. We will have to see how that may come out.

Diann Rogers, President & CEO of the Rancho Cordova Chamber of Commerce, which is celebrating its 60th Anniversary, spoke about the up coming EXPO JOB FAIR on June 22, at Rancho Cordova City Hall. She said over 500 visitors attended this event last year with more expected this year. Come by and see some of the businesses there who may be able to give you a chance to find a new job.

Something that I found at the luncheon were two contests coming up this coming fall. First is a "Patriot's Pen Essay Contest" which will open to grades 6-8. The theme is "How Are You Inspired by America?" The Submission Deadline will be October 31st, with $50.00 to $5,000.00 scholarships available.

There is a "Voice Of Democracy Speech Contest" which will open to Grades 9-12. The theme will be "What Are the Greatest Attributes of our Democracy?" The submission deadline for this contest is also October 31, with $100.00 - $35,000.00 scholarships.

"For entry forms, rules and eligibility please visit, <https://www.VFW.org/community/youth-and-education/youth-scholarships>". Those forms are the same for both the Essay and the Speech contests. The questions and digital submissions are svc@vfw10125.org, and the mail-in entries are VFW Post 10125, PO BOX 898, Rancho Cordova, CA 95741.

Everything in my column this time was given to me and everyone else who when to the luncheon. I am passing this information on to my readers because I want you to learn about what is going on in our great city. The Cordova Community Council, the Rancho Cordova Chamber of Commerce, the VFW, and other organizations are available if you need help. That is what Rancho Cordova was and is all about.

From Bob McGarvey, God bless, and see you next time. ★

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Three local community leaders have been honored for their community service by the members of the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) General John A. Sutter Citrus Heights Chapter on Monday, May 15th at their general business meeting for their many volunteer contributions to our local community.

Husband and wife, David and Chris Ishikawa have served with Troop 380 of the Boy Scouts in the Rosemont area for over 30 years. David is a Scoutmaster, and his wife Chris serves on the board. Together they were recognized for helping boys and girls learn the fundamentals of Scouting and leadership skills as they progress towards becoming an Eagle Scout.

Chris also coordinates meetings, Camporees, community service projects and often wears many hats for the Scout troop, including working in fundraising; and evaluating the Troop 380 documentation for verification of Scouts hoping to earn the highest Scouting honor of Eagle Scout.

The couple work with other leaders in the troop, including their son Neil, to teach young men and women much needed survival and leadership skills; and help train the next generation of Scouts.

The troop organizes and participates in service days such as collecting expired Christmas trees, cleaning cemeteries, and many other projects. Together the Ishikawas have taught, mentored and supported members of Troop 380 in participating in multiple community events, camporees and public service events.

Mary Anne Povey, a resident of Orangevale, was also recognized for her community service efforts as an active volunteer in the office of the Orangevale Chamber of Commerce and on the Orangevale Community Council.

Povey also uses her skills to promote local business in print and social media. She writes for the Orangevale View community newspaper, and for the Messenger Newspaper Group and helps raise money for Casa Roble High School football programs. Povey was also recognized for her mentorship efforts in connecting local business leaders with high school students to teach young people the importance of giving back to the community. ★

they get at school, and who are living off snacks during the weekends, she said volunteers have observed.

According to Johnson, the Ukrainian refugees' honor makes it very difficult for them to accept free provisions. But she noted that many of them have afterwards become volunteers and employees of the locker as a way to give back to the community and being very grateful for the support.

Many were also surprised when the director said that individuals experiencing homelessness were not visiting the locker in large numbers and only constituted 5 percent of those receiving food supplies.

"We've recognized that people struggle to come to us for food..." she said, "there is just so much stigma to come to the locker."

Johnson said the food locker is currently exploring the possibility of purchasing a truck, funded through a grant, to give the pantry mobility and bring food to community parks and neighborhoods.

Despite the alarming concern over food insecurity, the director added with optimism to the presentation saying, "The good news is that the locker has plenty of food."

She said that thanks to SB1383, a statewide organic waste recycling bill, supermarkets are now able to divert quality food which was previously disposed of, and this has increased supplies. She said the food locker now moves approximately 1.5 million pounds of food on an annual basis with approximately 90 percent being distributed to Rancho Cordova residents with Folsom, Gold River and Fair Oaks being the other recipient communities.

For those wishing to make donations to the food closet, Johnson recommended donating dry pasta, rice, beans and adult diapers; however, the director said most of the food bank's needs are logistic in nature – much like running a supermarket – which includes staffing, volunteering, paying to maintain refrigeration units running, etc.

Another much bigger project, which is in the works on the horizon, is the construction of the new, future Rancho Cordova Food Locker facility, she informed.

"Our current campus is a mixture of odd buildings and structures, built with lots of love over the years. But that may not last too much longer because we've outgrown the aging facility," Johnson said.

"The food locker received a significant grant thanks to the efforts of Ken Cooley in his last year in office," she reported. "This will help build new offices, a break room, a client intake center and eventually create a fresh produce farm for the locker."

Johnson told the Grapevine Independent in a subsequent interview that the Food Locker is currently looking for new property which will be home to the newly constructed facility.

Former Assemblyman Ken Cooley will be announcing the amount provided by the grant for the new construction in the next few weeks, she said.

Help Stop Financial Abuse of Older Americans

and help them figure out the best way to respond. According to Sacramento County's Deputy Director for Senior and Adult Services Melissa Jacobs, 25% of the allegations reported to APS in the last 12 months were related to financial abuse/exploitation.

"Sacramento County Senior & Adult Services is continuing to strengthen our partnership with the local Agency on Aging/Area 4 and other partners to provide additional resources and supports for our community of older adults," said Jacobs.

The older adults in your life likely spent many years working hard, caring for others and contributing to their community. This Older Americans Month, take the time to say thank you and celebrate aging. It is a time for friends and family to reach out to the older people in our lives to let them know how much we love and appreciate them. This Older Americans Month, take the time to visit, chat, share helpful information and resources, and celebrate with the older adults in your life. ★

You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 800-280-2832 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this internet website <http://www.qualityloan.com>, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-22-898813-JB. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the internet website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 800-280-2832, or visit this internet website <http://www.qualityloan.com>, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-22-898813-JB to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. NOTICE TO PROSPECTIVE OWNER-OCCUPANT: Any prospective owner-occupant as defined in Section 2924m of the California Civil Code who is the last and highest bidder at the trustee's sale shall provide the required affidavit or declaration of eligibility to the auctioneer at the trustee's sale or shall have it delivered to QUALITY LOAN SERVICE CORPORATION by 5 p.m. on the next business day following the trustee's sale at the address set forth in the below signature block. This shall be the Purchaser's sole and exclusive remedy. The purchaser shall have no further recourse against the Trustor, the Trustee, the Beneficiary, the Beneficiary's Agent, or the Beneficiary's Attorney.
