RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - There was no shortage of giggles, green grass or sunshine Saturday when Kids Day in the Park returned to Hagan Community Park for a 33rd year, organized by the Cordova Community Council.

Picture-perfect weather provided the optimum backdrop for a record turnout of more than 6,000 for the train-themed "All Aboard" event – and train rides were abundant. Presented by the

City of Rancho Cordova News Release

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - The City of Rancho Cordova's Public Works team has been busy swinging for the fences!

In partnership with the Folsom Cordova Unified School District, Cordova Recreation and Park District and Rancho Cordova Little League, the city recently completed renovations to the little league fields at Cordova Lane Center and Ahlstrom Park, just in time for the beginning of the season. Renovations include field repairs, new pitching mounds, fencing, signs, artificial turf, bleachers and more.

"We are very excited to see these renovations come to life for the community, and we look forward to an exciting season. Thank you to our project partners for making this possible," said Kristine Courdy, Senior Civil Engineer for the City of Rancho Cordova.

This month, construction on the White Rock Road Phase One project will also begin. The project is one of three phases of an innovative effort to improve roadway safety and support the economic growth of the community and throughout the greater region. This project will renovate White Rock Road from Sunrise Boulevard to Fitzgerald Road, and project upgrades will include a rehabilitated roadway, a new traffic signal at Gold Valley Drive, bike lanes, median enhancements and storm drain upgrades. The project is expected to be completed in Summer 2023.

Non-profit HomeShare American River Celebrates Dozens of Happy Housemates

HomeShare American River News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - In July 2021, inter-faith non-profit Placer People of Faith Together (ppoft.org) launched a powerful, versatile tool to unlock both rental income and naturally-affordable housing throughout the Greater Sacramento live-work area. More than 50 such non-profit supported homesharing programs have been valuably serving their communities throughout the US, some for as long as 50 years. But there was no such service in our region until PPOFT decided to start HomeShare American River.

Almost two years later, non-profit housemate-matching and -support service HomeShare American River (HSAR) has matched up dozens of happy housemates across the region into safe, fair, valuable, and durable arrangements. HSAR makes matches in homes (whether owned or rented) located within an hour's drive of Roseville, including Nevada City, Placerville, Lodi, Dixon, Yuba City, and Marysville. HSAR provides help for potential “Hosts” and “Guests” throughout the entire arrangement: screening, matchmaking (including facilitating exchanges of household services for lowered rent), and active support/trouble-shooting. And while Hosts set the rents they charge, HSAR doesn't charge them or their Guests anything for its service, including the background checks. Instead, HSAR is entirely funded by the Agency on Aging/Area 4 and a generous private donor, meaning that HSAR is beholden to neither Host nor Guest... just to its social mission to serve both of them equally for as long as they live together.

(PAID CONTENT)

Since launching, HSAR has made 24 matches from Nevada City to Elk Grove. Matched Hosts and Guests vary widely in age (22-84), rents paid ($550-900, including utilities), income, and walks of life, but all have the most important thing in common: they make “great neighbors down the hall” to each other. And that also means HSAR has effectively created many new units of housing, without hammering a single nail!

As Executive Director and Co-Founder Justin Ellerby says, “Two things tell me that this service can make a dent in a lot of big problems. One: The gratitude and relief I hear from our happily-matched clients. Two: Almost everyone I tell about this service reacts with almost the exact same words: ‘This is SO needed!’”

Potential Hosts and Guests can learn more about HSAR at homeshareamericanriver.org/apply or by calling (916) 360-0074. Partners and supporters will find much more information at homeshareamericanriver.org/collaborate. ★

Make a difference in the life of an international exchange student!

ACIE Special News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Have you ever felt like the world needs more understanding, peace, and connection? Open your heart and your home to an exchange student! American Councils is a non-profit public diplomacy organization funded (in part) by the US Department of State. They are searching for loving host families for the 2023-24 high school academic year.

All American Councils students are recipients of merit-based scholarships. Selection is based on English language proficiency, academics, teacher recommendations, leadership qualities, maturity, and adaptability. On program, students develop global leadership skills and understanding of civic responsibility, diversity, and cross-cultural competency.

Who are these students? Fayzali, 17, is from a small town in Tajikistan. He is fascinated with all things cars, especially sports cars! He has even designed his own car brand and recently worked as a part-time mechanic. Fayzali's other hobbies include soccer and basketball, mixed martial arts, reading, and learning new languages. He hopes for a future career in the aviation industry. An only child, Fayzali happily does household chores to support his mom and extended family. He is eager to share his Tajik culture: “a sunny country with friendly and kind people on the other side of the earth!”

Ilyass, 15, is from Morocco. He describes himself as “sociable and energetic and the type of person that can make you laugh when you're sad.” He adores time with family: “My parents encourage me and give me all the love I need. We sometimes go to the movies, picnics, walks, or watch soccer together.”

At home, Ilyass is responsible for his pet cat Blanche. He is passionate about track and field, particularly discus and javelin. He has a dream “to represent [his] country” in international sporting events one day! When he is not training or competing, he reads self-help books and volunteers. Ilyass is excited to experience new activities and appreciates that a host family would “make [him] a part of their household” and hopes to cook their traditional Moroccan dishes! A common misconception is that a student needs a traditional family experience with customary holidays and foods. The rich diversity of our country is for many students, uniquely American! Anyone who has a desire to open their home could be a potential host, including military families, retirees, single parents, and LGBT+. Please contact Megan Timmens: call/text 202-375-0777 or email mtimmens@gmail.com. Website: <https://inbound.americancouncils.org/mission>. Please note the deadline to enroll in SJUSD is May 15. ★

A Great Day to be a Kid!

Kids learn to use tools as a great way to get both working and having fun.

There was no shortage of colors and variety of activities during Kids Day at the Park on April 29, 2023.

There was “no kid left behind” during Kids Day at the Park this past Saturday, April 29, as a record turnout of more than 6,000 attendees “grazed” Hagan Community Park in Rancho Cordova, Calif.

A Million Dreams” anniversary later this summer, sponsored “Dream it, Build it,” where children transformed everyday items to build creations inspired by their own imaginations.

“I really enjoyed taking the photos this year,” said Rick Sloan, who is also a board member for the CRPD. “There seemed to be more of everything – more activities, more booths and more kids.”

While Kids Day is all about fun, children’s health is a primary objective. Organizers work with health providers from Sacramento County and the Folsom Cordova Unified School District to present free hearing, vision and school readiness screenings to help get kids off to a healthy start. Parents can get tips on how to prepare their children for school, how to obtain mental health resources and how to access a wide range of public and private services for their kids. The event also marked the Sacramento County kick-off for National Children’s Mental Health Awareness Day.

“Kids Day has been a favorite for more than three decades,” said Shelly Blanchard, executive director of the Cordova Community Council. “I’d challenge anyone to watch our young guests at Kids Day and not smile – it’s just not possible.”

City of Rancho Cordova News Release

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - The Boys and Girls Club of Greater Sacramento, Rancho Cordova Police Activities League (PAL) and the youth in our community have been busy since the opening day of the Rancho Cordova Youth Center (RCYC). At RCYC, teens and adolescents have participated in arts and crafts programs, boxing and martial arts classes, and even attended a family movie night where they shared pizza and snacks.

“We are so inspired by the feedback we have received about the opening of RCYC and thank our program partners, Rancho Cordova PAL and the Boys and Girls Club of Greater Sacramento, for their partnership,” said Megan Siren, Assistant to the City Manager. “We look forward to providing services in the summer and continuing to build relationships within our community.”

Most recently, the city’s Public Works team helped complete the installation of a monument sign in front of the center, featuring the RCYC logo.

Center of Praise Ministries, a multi-ethnic church, donated the building and land to the city specifically for a youth center. In January 2020, the city held a ribbon cutting to celebrate the generous donation and to pledge its support for the development and oversight of the Youth Center.

Mom Love

Do we really understand MOM LOVE? We expect it and it's given freely because a real mom wants the best for her kidlets. There is sacrifice to make us happy...no new dress, instead a new toy. There is joy in her face when we achieve something new, no matter how small. She gives us tender loving care when we don't feel well, and sheds tears when she can't make us feel better. Of course there is so much more than we know she does because she hides some of the pain when we become belligerent or uncaring. Why? Because she IS MOM! So, on this Mother's Day just let her know you care for all she has done. I don't mean you have to buy expensive gifts and flowers and dinners. It can be as simple as a card that promises her some task you can do for her. Pick some flowers from your garden and arrange them in a simple vase. I think she would appreciate the effort instead of having a professional do it for you.

"Getting old is not for wimps." So very true! If your mom is still with you, give her a big hug and tell her how much she means to you.

Memorializing moms dates back a long way. The ancient Greeks honored Rhea, mother of the gods, on a special day. The Romans honored Cybele, their mother of the Roman gods. Christians name the fourth Sunday of Lent as a day to honor Mary, the mother of Jesus. By the 19th century, the English transformed that day into Mothering Sunday and declared it a holiday for the servants to visit their mothers with freshly baked cakes in hand.

For the Mother's Day that we celebrate, we have to credit Julia Ward Howe with first suggesting a day to honor American mothers and celebrate peace in 1872. She is known for writing the words to "Battle Hymn of the Republic" and organizing Mother's day meetings in Boston. Then in 1907 Anna Jarvis urged her mother's church in West Virginia to remember her mother on the second Sunday in May, which was the second anniversary of her mother's death. But she didn't stop there. She began lobbying local and national politicians to formalize the day. She met with Presidents Taft and Roosevelt and finally in 1913, the House of Representatives adopted the resolution to wear white carnations in honor of mothers on the second Sunday in May. President Wilson made it official in 1914.

My mom passed away quite some time ago, but I do remember a few things that still resonate for me on Mother's Day. I can still hear her laughter, a laughter that came from her soul. You could pick out here joy in any crowd and it was infectious. And as she got older I remember the many times she said to me, "Getting old is not for wimps." So very true! If your mom is still with you, give her a big hug and tell her how much she means to you. Three simple words will make her day complete and it doesn't cost a thing. Just tell her "I love you mom." It will mean more than any fancy gift! ★

Dave Ramsey Says

Just Pile Up Money, And Go Do It

Dear Dave,

I plan to buy another investment property with cash in the next year or two. Currently, I have $83,000 sitting in a high-yield savings account at 4% interest. My goal is to save another $50,000 to $70,000 in the upcoming months. Right now, 4% is good, but I want to make sure I'm maximizing my returns. Should I be doing something else with the money?

– Brett

Dear Brett,

I like the way you're doing things. Right now, you're simply parking the money short term for a purchase a few months down the road. If you invest it, you might make a little more, but you're taking more risk too. If I'm you, I'm parking the cash.

Here's the deal: The money you'll have to purchase another property won't come from a return on the investment. It'll come from you putting money in the account. The investment isn't the secret sauce in this scenario — you are. If you invested the money and made 10% rather than 4% over two months, let's say, that amounts to about a 3% difference. That's nothing in your case. You're not within a couple thousand dollars of doing a deal at the moment. Your deal is a $150,000 deal. Your return on investment isn't going to make this happen, or keep it from happening. See what I'm saying?

Just keep doing what you've been doing and park the money. That's what I'd do. People who are math nerds, like us, always look for things to fix an investment. But sometimes the thing that fixes the investment is you. You are the one doing the investing. You are the one putting money in the account. So, in this case, don't try to fix it. Just pile up money and go do it.

Great question, Brett!

– Dave

And Another Thing Cordova Joe Will Definitely be Missed

By Bob McGarvey

Last week was one of those things which happens in our lives. I was very sad to hear that Joe Lashinsky had died. He was easy to talk to, and always made people smile. Cordova Joe will definitely be missed. I hope his wife Mollie and the rest of his family know how much our community will also miss him.

2023 is moving forward very quickly, and the City of Rancho Cordova is moving forward with great success. The prominent chip manufacturer, Solidigm, gave us such great news when they told us in February of their decision to move its global headquarters into Rancho Cordova. When talking about the 1900 jobs which will be coming into Rancho, our City Manager Micha Runner said, "These are well-paying, high-paying jobs coming to the community. I haven't heard any details yet about their progress, but I will pass on the information when I am told.

Something else which I am looking forward to is the expansion of the Mather Veterans Village in the not too distant future. Our City and the County are still finalizing the needed property transaction. I will see some of the residents and those who are in charge this weekend. I will let you know in the next column what I have learned about the former homeless Veterans who now have a roof over their heads.

I hope that "Kids Day in the Park" is very successful. It will be held on April 29th from 11 am-3 pm, and there will be thousands of kids and parents who will be going. It has been such a wonderful event for many years. It began in White Rock Park, and it had to go to Hagan Park because of its growth. There are many events which the kids enjoy, and their parents will have an opportunity to get information about nurses, dentists, and others who can help them as their children grow.

The Rancho Cordova IFest & Wines of the World are going to be enjoyed on Saturday, May 13, 2023. This International Festival is a free, family-friendly evening in an outdoor setting. The success of this festival celebrates the sounds, dances, and tastes from around the world. It has been successful because of Rancho Cordova's history and the many cultures which are part of our great city.

The Memorial Day Ceremony this year is on Monday, May 29, 2023 and I am very glad that we will be able to honor our Veterans who protected our nation. The ceremonies of Veterans Day and Memorial Day in Rancho Cordova were stopped by COVID-19 like many other parts of our lives. This year Memorial Day will be at the Cordova High School Performing Arts Center. We will honor all Veterans, and the theme is Honoring Vietnam Veterans. The Rancho Cordova River City Concert Band will start music at 9:30 am, and the ceremonies will begin at 10 am.

There are going to be other events during the year like the Friday movies in June; the 20th anniversary of Rancho Cordova Incorporation on July 1; Independence Day on July 4th; and you need to look up some of the others events going on in the City of Rancho Cordova through out the year. We have such a great city.

I just had to add one more thing, the KINGS WON tonight, 118 to 99!!! LIGHT THE BEAM!!!

From Bob McGarvey, God bless, and see you next time. ★

Dinner and Music for Mom, May 14

Special Correspondent

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - More than a year ago, entrepreneur Joe Gilman opened a Folsom Boulevard restaurant with his Thai-born wife as principal chef. Since then, the ARC and CSUS professor – and famed pianist – has seen his business grow from humble beginnings to become one of the hottest music venues in Sacramento.

Foodies and music lovers cram Twin Lotus Thai tables for live shows ranging from jazz to rock and Latin performances. Although jazz is Gilman's forte, he has gone with an eclectic flow. "As long as music's good and people want to hear it, I won't stand in anyone's way," he says.

"Our first year was a wonderful and surprising time. Having diners and musicians supporting us has been exciting for the entire Twin Lotus family."

Tailoring music to auspicious calendar dates is another house policy and for May 14, Twin Lotus Thai offers two sets honoring Mother's Day. Carmichael singer Susan Skinner will front a quartet featuring clarinetist Del Gomes, bass player Shelley Denny and with Gilman himself on piano.

"The 'With Mom in Mind' shows are a celebration of mothers," says Gilman. "There's nothing more special than a mom to inspire music."

With or without mom, anyone can attend. Show seatings are at 5 pm and 7 pm. Owing to restaurant size, reservations are required. In lieu of cover charge, audiences are invited to donate to an "artists fund" box that supports in-house musical programs.

How Proposed Changes to Ballot Measures Could Affect Election Results

By Dan Walters,
CALMatters.org

When Major League Baseball opened its 2023 season this month, players and managers had to contend with a raft of new rules, including time limits on pitchers and batters and limits on bunting infielders on one side of the diamond.

Whether the new rules speed up the games, as intended, is still uncertain, but it is certain that they will affect outcomes to some unknown extent. Changing the rules of any game changes outcomes, and what's true in sports is also true of politics.

The most obvious example of how changing rules affects outcomes is redistricting – the redrawing of legislative and congressional districts after each decennial census. Republicans hold a majority in Congress largely because GOP-controlled state legislatures redrew congressional districts to give the party more opportunities to win seats. For decades, Democrats have done the same thing when they had the chance.

This year's session of the California Legislature includes three major efforts to change rules governing ballot measures, all of which could affect outcomes.

One of them, Senate Bill 858 – and a companion measure, Senate Constitutional Amendment 3 – is the latest of many attempts to remove the attorney general's authority to write the official titles for statewide ballot measures. Introduced by Sen. Roger Niello, a Republican from the Sacramento suburbs, the two measures would give the task to the Legislature's budget analyst, who already provides the fiscal analysis of proposed measures.

It's a change that should be made because recent attorneys general, all Democrats, have blatantly skewed official titles, with positive slants for liberal measures such as tax increases and negative ones for proposals of conservative groups. Judges have occasionally intervened in extreme cases, but generally defer to the attorney general.

Not surprisingly, those on the left want to maintain the status quo so Niello's two-bill package is likely to join other proposed reforms in the legislative trash pile.

The other two efforts to change the rules governing ballot measures come from Democrats and thus are more likely to be enacted.

One, by Sen. Scott Wiener, a San Francisco Democrat, would as originally introduced and approved by a Senate committee would have undone two genuine ballot measure reforms that the Legislature passed and former Gov. Jerry Brown signed less than a decade ago. They require local tax and bond ballot measures to clearly state their financial impacts in the 75-word summaries that appear on the ballot and prohibit authorities from using summaries to extol the proposals' virtues.

Local government officials hate the reforms because giving voters unvarnished facts might make them less likely to pass such measures. Originally, Wiener's Senate Bill 532 would have shifted the financial data to the voters' pamphlet, thus freeing officials to once again use ballot summaries for propaganda.

Late last week, however, Wiener toned down the measure, retaining the requirement to explain tax consequences in ballot measure summaries, but allowing that information to appear without counting against the 75-word limit on summaries.

Finally, there's Assembly Bill 421, carried by Assemblyman Isaac Bryan, a Democrat from Culver City, at the behest of unions and other liberal organizations.

As the Legislature turned to the left in recent years and enacted many new business regulations, those impacted by the new laws have increasingly turned to the ballot to thwart them. AB 421 is clearly aimed at making it much more difficult – or even impossible – for business groups to overturn laws via ballot measures, either referenda or initiatives, by imposing very tight new rules on qualifying them for the ballot.

AB 421 is likely to win legislative approval, but its ultimate fate is in doubt. Both Gov. Gavin Newsom and his predecessor vetoed similar proposals in the past.

World-Class Canine Athletes to Perform Daily at the Sacramento County Fair

Sacramento County Fair
News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento County Fair is right around the corner and North America's Premier Stunt Dog Show, The Extreme Dogs, returns. Free with Fair admission, guests will be able to watch a unique extreme sports production designed to excite and amaze pet-lovers from all walks of life.

Extreme Dogs tours the nation promoting animal rescue and pet adoption. The wickedly talented canine athletes have captured the hearts of hundreds of thousands coast-to-coast including at CFL, NBA and NFL halftime shows, theme parks, performing arts venues and festivals nationwide.

The show features world champion trainers leading their adopted companions through extreme dog sports such as dock diving, freestyle frisbee disc, flyball racing, high jumping, and dog agility. Featuring multiple breeds and mixes of only dogs who have been rescued or adopted from shelters, fairgoers will not be able to look away!

"These dogs are true world-class champions. The Extreme Dogs are going bring such a fun and exciting energy to the Fair, and the fact that all these dogs have been rescued or come from shelters really promotes a positive message to our community," says Matt Cranford, CEO of the Sacramento County Fair.

"We usually look for dogs nobody wants," said dog rescuer and trainer Deirani Collazo. "The annoying, high energy, couch chewing, won't leave me alone dogs and then we just take all that energy and channel it into all these sports. These dogs go from a brutal, homeless life to best canine lives ever since all they do every day is run, jump and swim all day. Plus, have a lot treats.

More than just the entertainment value of the show, attendees also get "people tips" on what to do with their rescue dogs. Trainer Calazzo hopes families attending the Fair take away valuable knowledge. "If people come out and see you can have this kind of relationship and interaction with your dogs, it inspires people to go out and adopt a dog and turn their life around," she adds.

Calazzo and the other trainers mix it up for every show. "We have different dogs doing different behaviors," she says. "We change up the games we're playing and the things that we're showcasing, so you can see two or three shows a day and see something different every time."

If you want to watch how the best of the best do it, this high-energy stunt dog show is one that you can't miss! The Extreme Dogs have multiple performances every day of the Fair and fairgoers can attend as often as they like all included with their daily Fair admission.

Established in 1937, the Sacramento County Fair is dedicated to the safe and fun education of the greater Sacramento community and its youth in agriculture, business, and technology. A value-driven family event, Fair guests enjoy the friendly atmosphere, traditional county fair competitions, agricultural displays, hands-on activities, carnival, specialty food and festival-style entertainment. Close to 10,000 school children take advantage of free educational school tours and over 5,000 compete for awards in the livestock and competitive exhibit programs. The theme of 2023 Fair is: Where Tradition Meets Tomorrow.

Teacher Pension Fund Betrays Its Mission

Commentary
by Ted Gaines

If you think that CalSTRS, the behemoth pension system that supports California's retired teachers, is focused on pensions, you are wrong. The largest teacher-focused pension system in the country is abandoning its core fiduciary role to chase left-wing political goals. Its mission creep will hurt teachers, taxpayers, and students alike.

In April, CalSTRS issued an extraordinary press release stating their priorities for the companies they invest in, including corporate greenhouse gas disclosures. CalSTRS is interested in achieving a "net zero" emissions portfolio. Of course, CalSTRS is also interested in corporate diversity, and states: "CalSTRS will vote against an entire board of directors that does not include at least one woman and against a board's nominating and governance committee if at least 30% of its board members are not women. Furthermore, CalSTRS will vote against the nominating and governance committees of Russell 3000 companies that do not disclose their board members' diversity characteristics."

CalSTRS' Board has morphed into Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez with a $300-billion billy club to swing at businesses that aren't sufficiently Progressive.

If you were scouring the news for a few words about supporting corporate boards trying to grow profits, entering or creating new markets, utilizing innovation, expanding geographically, then CalSTRS is not the investment entity for you.

Who has time for the actual business of business when you can be leading a social revolution?

CalSTRS might want to check out the work of Bjorn Lomborg, who shows that the climate catastrophists claims about global warming deaths, costs, hurricanes, polar bears, forest fires, etc. are routinely contorted to further the policy agenda of the anti-fossil fuel crowd.

They might want to ask teachers if they themselves are willing to pay out of their own pockets for these political goals.

They might want to ask parents if they are willing to take dollars out of their children's classrooms to diversify corporate boards.

Because the problem with CalSTRS lifting its leftist political banner above all others is that the organization has an actual role, which is fiduciary. Its job isn't to be in the political vanguard but to caretake and grow its investments to meet its payout obligations.

CalSTRS pension payments are funded by payments from the state, from teachers and school districts. If investment gains fall short, contributions need to increase.

The system was already facing a serious insolvency threat in 2040, which is a blink of an eye for a pension system. In 2014, the legislature crafted a plan to stave off the problem and mandated increased contributions from all parties.

California has seen an explosion of education spending in the past decade. Parents hope and assume that their taxpayer dollars go towards classroom enrichment, student activities, training that increases student performance, and so on. Some of it surely has.

But when investments fall short, school spending will go to backfilling pension obligations. That has also been the case. What good is that increased school spending if it doesn't benefit students?

Women and minorities should, of course, be welcome on every corporate board without a discriminatory roadblock. But their presence should indicate merit, not government fiat or race-and-gender box checking. Diversity itself should not be the goal for corporate governance.

Every single California government activity should not be Progressive activism. CalSTRS should honor the teachers, parents, taxpayers and students who are all affected by its decisions and stick to its fiduciary job. ★

CHP Welcomes Nine New Canine Teams Graduating

CHP News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The California Highway Patrol (CHP) announced on April 28, 2023, the graduation and deployment of nine new canine teams. After months of intensive training, the teams were certified during a ceremony at the Canine Training Facility on the CHP Academy grounds.

"These loyal and brave public servants play a critical role in supporting the mission of the Department," said CHP Commissioner Sean Duryee. "Canines have a keen sense of smell that helps them detect items that a human officer cannot, such as narcotics and explosives. Both the canine and their handler's skills are refined during the hundreds of hours of intense training, ensuring the teams are prepared to serve throughout the state."

The graduates consist of six Patrol and Narcotics Detection Canine teams and three Explosives Detection Canine teams, all of which meet the guidelines set by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training. The newest team members include four Belgian Malinois, two Dutch Shepherds, and three German Shepherd dogs. Once graduated, the CHP will have a total of 51 teams deployed throughout the state.

Each canine's partner, or handler, is an experienced CHP officer with experience ranging from five to 22 years. The officers represent six of the CHP's eight geographic regions, including: Valley, Golden Gate, Southern, Border, Coastal, and Inland Division. Once deployed, the handlers will spend a minimum of eight hours every week completing scenario-based training with their canines to ensure the highest level of peak performance in the field.

The CHP uses canines to perform a variety of tasks, including detecting human scent, contraband, and explosives. The CHP canines are also used to assist allied agencies in apprehending criminals, detecting explosives or drugs, and in locating at-risk missing persons.

The mission of the CHP is to provide the highest level of Safety, Service, and Security. ★

COBRA, Health Insurance, Covered California, Medicare: Researching Plans

By Tim Coughlin

If you've been covered by group health insurance through your employer for a while and now find yourself in need of getting your own health insurance or choosing between COBRA, Covered California, or Medicare, evaluating the numerous options can feel overwhelming.

Determining plan premium costs, Covered California "Premium Assistance" amounts, Medicare costs based on income, plan deductibles, copays, out-of-pocket maximums, and making sure the doctors you want to see accept the plans are essential to making a good decision. Not being familiar with all the rules, enrollment deadlines, provider network, and the pros and cons of each option can result in paying more than you need to or getting coverage that doesn't best meet your needs.

The services of a local insurance agent can help make the process of choosing the right plan easier by saving you a significant amount of time and effort trying to sort out all the options. People new to this process may not know that they don't pay fees for the services of an independent agent. Instead, agents are paid by the insurance companies.

When looking for an agent, you will want to consider what the agent specializes in since insurance agents can represent various kinds of policies as well as how long they have been in the industry. Reading their reviews can help you learn more about their quality of service.

If you work with a "captured" insurance agent who only represents one carrier, you may miss out on more affordable policies or plan options with stronger coverage. By working with an independent insurance agent who represents multiple carriers, you'll be provided with several coverage options to consider. And when you work with your neighborhood insurance agent, you will also benefit from their knowledge of the local market and can count on their services for the years to come.

Tim Coughlin is an award-winning independent agent in Gold River specializing in Medicare and health insurance for over 35 years. He can be reached at (916) 346-4417, by email at tim@summitindins.com, or through the agency website; summitindins.com. (LIC # 0669552)
