Baking from the Heart

With rousing support from the community, BJ Yu, owner, cuts the ribbon at the grand opening event.

Story and photos
by Paul Scholl

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Koreana Plaza International Market held a grand opening event for their newly expanded bakery on March 3, 2023. The first 100 guests from the community received a free wonderful baked item as a gift for showing up to support them.

Lead baker for the new bakery is "Shay" (Scheherezad Abdullah Alanazi). During the ribbon-cutting ceremony she explained to those in attendance how she and the staff pride themselves daily on "baking everything from the heart."

From tasting the samples at this event, she is 100 percent correct. Comments from attendees included everything from "fantastic" to "absolutely delicious".

Local dignitaries Linda Budge, Mayor of Rancho Cordova and Diann Rogers, Executive Director of the Chamber of Commerce, each spoke briefly about the importance of KP Market to the community and how it enriches Rancho Cordova.

During his presentation at the ceremony, owner BJ Yu had grateful praise for Jungmin Cho, Office Director, for all of his hard work of making the development and expansion of the bakery a success.

The current bakery was an expansion from the previous bakery in the same spot within KP International. The expansion allowed the baking team to really show more of a broad selection and showcase more of their baking "artistry".

KP International first opened in Rancho Cordova in December of 2003. It expanded to 90,000 square feet in 2012. And it is the store that just keeps on giving. With a grocery selection that represents over 65 countries, it now also offers their top-notch bakery.

KP Bakery's future plans include people being able to pre-order baked goods, such as cakes for events, birthdays or office parties, or perhaps even some

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - As United Way California Capital Region celebrates its 100th anniversary this year, the local nonprofit working to end poverty through education has announced a new goal to raise $3 million to help 10,000 kids excel in school by 2025.

"This is such an important year as we celebrate 100 years working together with this community to end poverty for local families," said Dr. Dawnté Early, president and CEO, United Way California Capital Region. "We have learned so much over the past 100 years, and now we are ready to enter our next century with a bold new goal. We know education is a proven ladder out of poverty, and we know school is square one for reaching families in need. With kids coming out of Covid even more behind in school, we have doubled down on our commitment to raise the resources necessary for our region's children to excel in school and thrive as adults."

Focusing on schools through its Square One approach, United Way California Capital Region offers a wide array of programming and services to ensure children and their families have the resources they need to succeed in school and in adulthood. From a regional reading tutoring program and school-readiness services for incoming kindergartners to an income program for foster youth, guaranteed income for families, free tax preparation services and more, United Way has created a holistic approach that starts in schools. United Way's work centers families in their children's academic achievement by helping children excel in school, investing in families, and strengthening schools with resources to address

Sac County Ends COVID-19 Public Health Emergency

SacCounty News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - On February 28th, 2023, the Sacramento County Board of Supervisors voted to end the local COVID-19 State of Emergency and Public Health Emergency. The ending of the emergency declaration does not rescind or impact Health Officer Orders or California Department of Public Health (CDPH) Orders governing mask usage in certain settings.

Sacramento County Public Health identified the first case of COVID-19 in Sacramento County three years ago this month. Since then, there have been over 368,000 reported cases of COVID-19 and over 3,700 residents of Sacramento County have died from COVID-19. COVID-19 will not go away on February 28 and residents are urged to continue to take steps to prevent the spread of respiratory illnesses. This includes staying up-to-date on COVID-19 vaccinations, testing for COVID-19 if you have symptoms, and asking your healthcare provider about treatments if you test positive for COVID-19. Vulnerable people, including those who are at greater risk for severe illness, should consider wearing a mask in indoor public places.

Some of the changes residents may notice when the emergencies end and in the coming months:

Dashboard

The Sacramento County Public Health COVID-19 dashboard will no longer be updated after March 1. After this date, please use the California Department of Public Health (CDPH) "Tracking COVID-19 in California" dashboard to access the latest data.

Public Meetings

Meetings governed by the Brown Act, such as City Councils, Board of Supervisors, School Boards, and their affiliated advisory bodies will need to return to in-person meetings if they have not already done so.

Testing Sites

Some underutilized State-funded testing sites will wind down operations in the coming months. CDPH has indicated testing sites will remain open as long as funding is available and they are being utilized. No closure dates have been set.

The federal COVID-19 emergency will remain in place until May 11, at which point residents can expect additional changes, including how costs associated with COVID-19 testing, treatment, and vaccination may be covered.

Please note that the following are not tied to emergency declarations and are not directly affected when the emergencies terminate:

Cal/OSHA COVID-19 Non-Emergency Regulations; Emergency Use Authorizations (EUs) for vaccinations; and Investigational New Drug applications (INDs).

Sacramento County Public Health will continue to monitor COVID-19 as we do with other infectious diseases. ★

Nottoli Place Shelter Opening for Older Adults

To be eligible for Nottoli Place, Sacramento County individuals of +60 years of age must be involved with Adult Protective Services. Photo courtesy of SacCounty

ROSEMONT, CA (MPG)

A new 15-bed facility for adults aged 60+ will be opening soon in Sacramento County. Nottoli Place, named after retired Sacramento County District 5 Supervisor Don Nottoli, will house older adults who are eligible for Sacramento County's Adult Protective Services (APS) and experiencing homelessness or housing instability.

"It's a high compliment and a true honor to have a safe harbor such as this bear my name," said Nottoli at the soft opening for the facility.

The shelter has 15 rooms. Some rooms will allow double occupancy for spouses or caretakers.

Several community members showed up for the soft opening of Nottoli Place on Thursday, February 23. During the ceremony, Sacramento County District 5 Supervisor Pat Hume highlighted how important it is for the county to have facilities like Nottoli Place.

"The reality is there are people who live good lives who have had bad things happen to them and it is important that society steps up to protect them. Through no fault of their own, whether they are victims of abuse or neglect or being taken advantage of, this is a place for them to come and feel restored, to alter their faith and their hope. And they can have a safe, healthy environment to get back on their feet," said Sacramento County District 5 Supervisor Pat Hume.

Sacramento County, like many other counties in California, has seen an increase in older adults facing housing insecurity and homelessness for the first time due to a destabilizing event or because they are the victims of abuse or neglect. Nottoli Place is meant to provide a safe space for older adults until they are able to find more permanent housing.

"By adding this place that will be a place of comfort and warmth and welcoming we'll be able to address some of that need in our community and for that, I am very thankful," added Nottoli.

To be eligible for Nottoli Place, adults must be involved with Adult Protective Services and be able to live independently or have a care provider to assist them. Applicants must live in Sacramento County.

On-site services will be provided by Volunteers of America, including 24-hour staffing and availability 24 hours per day/seven days a week, daily meals, and laundry services.

Additionally, case management services will be provided with linkages to resources, including longer-term housing. There are rules people must abide by when staying at Nottoli Place. No alcohol or illegal drugs are allowed. Weapons are also forbidden. There is also a pet policy. One animal is allowed per guest. The pet must be vaccinated, and vaccination records are needed upon registration.

For questions about APS eligibility or to report abuse or neglect, call the APS hotline at (916) 874-9377. To learn more about Sacramento County APS, visit defas.sacounty.gov/Pages/Home.aspx. ★

DAR Essay Winners Advance to State Competition

By Thomas J. Sullivan

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Two of four local essay winners in the annual Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) American History middle and high school-age student essay contest were each given a $200 prize as they advanced from local district to statewide competition.

Each winner read their essay to DAR District II representatives where they were judged on content and their verbal presentation skills, said Kimm Richwine, DAR state District II American History Essay Chair. "These are some exceptional students, and we are very proud to recognize their achievements," she said.

Their prizes along with celebratory ice cream sundaes were presented and enjoyed at Leatherby's Ice Cream parlor in Citrus Heights on Sunday, Feb. 19th.

The annual DAR student essay contest was restructured last year splitting middle school students in grades 5-8 and high school in grades 9-12 into two differently themed contests, Richwine said.

The high school DAR essay contest invites students in grades 9-12 to submit an essay between 800 and 1,200 words, selecting a figure from the era of the American Revolution and discussing how he or she influenced the course of the American Revolution and what their contribution was to the founding of a new nation.

Shanya Sobhi, an 11th grade student at Cordova High School, chose Alexander Hamilton for her essay, which was entitled, "Hamilton's Legacy."

On January 17th, Sobhi, learned she had won the 2022 Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) General John A. Sutter Citrus Heights Chapter annual "Patriots of the American Revolution" scholastic essay contest, qualifying her to compete in district competition.

She was recognized by Sue Frost, who served as chair of the American History Committee for the General John A. Sutter Chapter of the DAR, and member of the Sacramento County Board of Supervisors at its January 17th monthly chapter meeting in Citrus Heights.

Members of her family, including her father Hassan, brother Bahand, sister Sata and mom, LeeLav were there as Shanya read her winning essay in district competition.

Essay contestants in grades 5-8 were asked to imagine themselves as a delegate from one of the 13 original colonies to the 1775-1776 Second Continental Congress.

The Second Continental Congress met inside Independence Hall beginning in May 1775, just a month after shots had been fired at Lexington and Concord in Massachusetts, as the Congress was preparing for war.

Pratheer Guru Prasama, grade 5, a student at Gold Ridge Elementary School in Folsom, and sponsored by the Charlotte Parkhurst DAR chapter, also in Folsom, selected Rhode Island which sent eight delegates to the Second Continental Congress.

His essay, themed "small but mighty" recognized Rhode Island as one of the first and most enthusiastic colonies to resist British rule, having been the first to call for a continental congress in 1774 and the first, in 1776, to eliminate an oath of allegiance to the British crown that had been required of colonial officials.

Prasama was surprised to learn that the reporter who was then interviewing him about his winning essay was a journalism graduate of the University of Rhode Island and a former state resident.

"I learned quite a lot about the history of Rhode Island and hope to visit there with my family one day," he said between bites of his ice cream sundae.

Additional winners, Madeline Yrigollen who attends Glen Edwards Middle School in Lincoln and Hayden Chua who attends Marina Middle School in El Dorado Hills were unable to be present to receive their DAR District II essay awards. ★

California Farm Bureau Reacts to Groundwater Decisions

California Farm Bureau Press Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - California Farm Bureau President Jamie Johansson responded to the California Department of Water Resources announcement on sustainability plans for the state's groundwater basins.

The agency recommended approval of plans for six California groundwater sub-basins. It declared six other plans to be "inadequate," which will result in a review by the State Water Resources Control Board.

"This action will trigger a process before the water board that will afford local agencies additional opportunities to address identified problems, regain control of their basins and, hopefully, avoid formal probationary status or the imposition of eventual state interim plans," Johansson said.

"Passage of the Sustainable Groundwater Management Act in the 2014 drought year was a seismic shift in California water," he said. "It was never going to be easy to transition on a timeline of just 20 years to eliminate an estimated 2.5 million acre-feet of overdraft a year in our most impacted areas of the state. Historic droughts in recent years have also shown us that we can't simply continue as we have been, and that California must also invest in a more resilient, 21st-century water system."

Johansson added, "California Farm Bureau will work with state and local agencies, our county Farm Bureaus and our agricultural groundwater users on workable solutions to sustain healthy aquifers. Our groundwater supplies are critical for California farmers, including vegetable, fruit, nut, and dairy producers who account for much of America's food supply. It is important that California carefully consider solutions that protect both our aquifers and our food production."

The California Farm Bureau works to protect family farms and ranches on behalf of nearly 29,000 members statewide and as part of a nationwide network of 5.3 million Farm Bureau members. ★

And Another Thing

President Herbert Hoover Signed a Congressional Order into Law making "The Star-Spangled Banner" America's National Anthem

By Bob McGarvey

Time is going on very quickly, and things like "Kids Day in the Park," the "International Festival," "Mothers Day," and "Memorial Day" will be here and gone. However, since none of those things have happened yet, I believe it is time to work harder on "Memorial Day." This year we will have the ceremonies for both "Memorial Day" and "Veterans Day." I know that with the weather hitting like it is, I may have to have the celebrations of Veterans inside the theater again. I have been asked about having those days in front of the Mather Hospital again like it was for years, but we will have to see it the weather hits us again.

The joint meeting between the City Council and the Planning Commissioners was very eye opening as it covered some of the laws which were passed by our state legislators and signed by the Governor. The Legislature has passed quite a few laws which are supposed to address our state housing crisis. Some of those laws have changed and limited local government's control on what can or cannot be done. Something which was discussed was, "Affordable Housing 101, Housing that is required to be rented/sold at affordable prices to households with incomes of no greater than certain levels."

Some of the information which was discussed was above moderate income, moderate income, low income, and very low income. An example of Sacramento County, for a family of four, the median income is $102,200.00. There were too many figures discussed at the meeting to place them all in my column, but you can find the meeting on our cities website and learn much more about some of the laws whose goals are to help more people get a roof over their family's heads.

Another thing... well there are many other things on our calendars, but today (March 3, 2023) is "Star Spangled Banner Day." According to the encyclopedia, "Finally, on March 3, 1931, President Herbert Hoover signed a congressional order into law making "The Star-Spangled Banner America's national anthem. National Anthem Day falls on March 3 annually commemorating the signing of the law." All you have to do is look at a calendar to find some of the holidays etc which are enjoyed. I know that Francis Scott Key wrote the song because he was inspired by the broad stripes and bright stars on the huge flag over Fort McHenry.

We receive "The Saturday Evening Post" in the mail, and in the March/April issue are a couple of articles which are really interesting. One of them is "On A Wing And a Prayer." In another the activist, Doris Mager, wrote "Helped Bring the Bald Eagle Back from Extinction." That was a great article about the Bald Eagle and how many dedicated people saved it from disappearing.

Another article was titled "Get it in Writing." Anna Quindel is a novelist who wrote/spoke about how anyone can write, and in her opinion everyone should. She wrote that it doesn't matter if what you write is big or small, or maybe people will ask "Where do you get your ideas?" The writer of the article said, "When you write, you connect with yourself, past, present, and future. Writing can make memory concrete, and memory is such a hard thing to hold on to, like a Jell-O mold, all wiggly but with solid bits embedded clearly." It is helpful to get new ideas when you write. I like a new way of writing because it is so much better than saying the same thing over and over and over. Does that count as repeating?

From Bob McGarvey, God bless, and see you next time. ★

Transparency on Local Ballot Measures Faces New Threat

By Dan Walters, CALMatters.org

During every California election cycle, dozens of ballot measures to raise taxes or issue bonds appear on local ballots.

Long-standing state law requires that the ballot include a statement, no longer than 75 words, summarizing what each measure would do. For many years, sponsors would use their 75 words to extol the virtues of their measures, often concealing their true financial impacts.

In 2015, a Republican assemblyman from Big Bear, Jay Obernolte, carried a bill aimed at making the ballot summaries less slanted and more factual, and then-Gov. Jerry Brown signed it. Assembly Bill 809 required tax increase measures, including bonds, proposed via initiative to tell voters how much money they would raise (if approved) and how long the new taxes would remain in effect.

Two years later, Obernolte introduced Assembly Bill 195, which extended the disclosure requirement to tax and bond measures proposed by cities, counties, school districts and other local entities. It also added another requirement, that the 75-word explanation of measures be a "true and impartial synopsis" of the proposal "in language that is neither argumentative nor likely to create prejudice for or against the measure."

The latter was clearly aimed at stopping ballot measure sponsors from using the 75-word summaries to campaign for their passage, and Brown embraced that reform by signing AB 195.

Not surprisingly, local government officials and their allies didn't like it, fearing that having to explain the financial consequences of their proposals and abstain from language advocating their passage would make voters less likely to vote "yes" in the adjacent boxes. They complained that meeting all of the requirements in 75 words was impossible and found an ally in Scott Wiener, a Democratic state senator from San Francisco.

Just before the Legislature adjourned its 2019 session, Wiener used the so-called gut-and-amend maneuver to propose legislation that would repeal much of what Obernolte, who is now a congressman, had wrought. It would have allowed sponsors of tax and bond measures to skip including financial impacts in the 75-word statements and, instead, essentially allow them to tell voters, "See voter guide for tax rate information."

While voter guides are useful for engaged voters, it's fair to say that many, if not most, don't read them. They instead rely on the ballot language itself when making their decisions. Wiener won legislative approval of Senate Bill 268, but Gov. Gavin Newsom vetoed it, declaring accurately, "I am concerned that this bill as crafted will reduce transparency for local tax and bond measures."

We're now poised to do it all over again because Wiener is back with an almost identical measure, Senate Bill 532, claiming it would "improve voter transparency into the financial implications of ballot measures."

However, it would have the opposite effect, as Newsom concluded.

Obernolte's requirements are "well intentioned," Wiener said in a statement, but "present massive - and at times insurmountable - challenges to transit agencies, school districts, cities, counties, hospitals, libraries, and other public entities that are legally required to rely on ballot measures to raise critical funds, especially for infrastructure projects."

The 75-word requirements are particularly difficult for complex, multi-tiered tax and bond proposals, Wiener said, leaving "little to no room to explain how the new taxes or bonds will actually be spent to benefit the local community."

Clearly, Wiener wants to make it easier to pass tax and bond measures by allowing their sponsors to once again use the 75-word summary for advocacy, rather than a "true and impartial synopsis."

They should make their case in campaigns, not use the ballot itself for propaganda.

Dan Walters has been a journalist for nearly 60 years, spending all but a few of those years working for California newspapers. ★

America's Wars, Who Are the Winners?

By Dr. Glenn Mollette

America was involved in Vietnam for 20 years. Our presence started small but by 1965 had significantly escalated. 3.1 million troops saw combat and at least 58,300 were killed. We spent over $120 billion from 1965 to 1973 which led to an oil crisis and rampant inflation. Are you better off today because America fought in Vietnam? Are you safer?

America spent over $2 trillion fighting in Iraq and Afghanistan. Then, we hurried and pulled out of Afghanistan leaving hundreds of millions of dollars in vehicles, buildings, bases, and weapons to be used by the Taliban. The country is now in shambles. Girls are not allowed to go to school beyond the sixth grade. Women are treated horribly by the Taliban. What did we do to help Afghanistan? Are they better off now? Are we better off for our 13 years in that country?

We invaded Iraq. We lost over 15,000 active service members and contractors in Iraq and Afghanistan. Take a look at Iraq and Afghanistan today. What did we accomplish?

We approved $113 billion in aid to Ukraine in 2022 alone. Most Americans do not want Russia to succeed in conquering Ukraine. Efforts to help Ukraine have been supported by most Americans. How far do we go? How much can we afford? How long are we able to keep this up? Does this become another Afghanistan? American troops are not there, yet. When will this happen?

When do we start fighting in Taiwan? China wants to control Taiwan. Taiwan is rich in resources and technology. Like Russia wanting Ukraine because of its proximity and resources, China figures it just makes sense for them to control neighboring Taiwan.

China is reportedly on the verge, if not already sending military arms to Russia. As America depletes our own defense stockpile of missiles, tanks and more, China knows we will have less to send to Taiwan. We have recently sent 200 soldiers to Taiwan and more will be going. It is scary to ponder how many more will be going in the next year or two.

In the middle of all this, who is really profiting from America's forever wars? The Military Industrial Complex will continue to make hundreds of millions of dollars with no end in sight. Manufacturers of mass weapons used in war have no end to their financial gains. Politicians who own stock in these massive companies only stand to get richer and richer. How many thousands of shares of stock in these companies do our long-term Senators and Representatives own? Stopping or slowing our military aggressions around the globe would mean their stock would go down and their massive financial fortunes would be diminished.

Politicians should not be allowed to buy stock while in office. Before running for a political office, they should be required to cash their stock out, so they are not financially persuaded to promote the success of certain industries.

We don't want Ukraine to fall to Russia or Taiwan to China. However, what will our country have left to fight with after we have spent billions of dollars defending them? If your livelihood comes from investments in the massive military weapon sales industries, then you are probably spending most of your time counting your money. ★

YK Chalamcherla Launches 2024 Campaign for Assembly District 7

From the Office of YK Chalamcherla

FOLSOM, CA (MPG) - On Sunday, March 5th, Folsom Vice-Mayor YK Chalamcherla kicked off his bid to run for State Assembly District 7 in 2024. YK is a highly respected City Councilmember in Folsom and received the most votes of any city council candidate when he was elected. YK's campaign has already received endorsements from community leaders Barbara O'Connor, Folsom Cordova Unified School Board Member Chris Clark, API community leader CC Yin, National Director of National American Indian Veterans Frank Ramirez, Persian Community Leader Moe Gholshani, Elk Grove School Board Member Sean Yang, and Indian-American community leader Bhaskar Vempati.* Over 75 supporters joined YK to celebrate his kick-off exactly one year to the day of the March 5, 2024 Primary.

YK has demonstrated strong fiscal credentials and experience balancing a government budget and maintaining a surplus each year he has served. He believes the spending of our tax dollars should be scrutinized and expenditures held to the highest standards. In Folsom, he spearheaded the revamping of the City's contract procurement process. The new process improves standards for awarding bids and saves taxpayer dollars.

"It is the duty of the Legislature to conduct oversight on how our hard-earned money is spent. Right now, we can do more," said YK. "As an Assemblymember, I will be a strong proponent for conducting more oversight and increasing transparency for how tax dollars are used."

YK is also focused on delivering solutions to the most pressing issues our community faces – confronting the homelessness crisis, creating jobs and growing the economy, and addressing climate change.

Regarding the increasingly difficult homelessness crisis, YK has a strong record of bringing local government and nonprofits to the table to make meaningful changes in the City of Folsom. "We need to start looking at results driven solutions so that the dollars we dedicate to this community are efficiently and effectively put to use," said YK.

When he was elected to the Folsom City Council in November 2020, YK had already been in public service for 20 years. Prior to his election, he served as a Folsom Parks & Recreations Commissioner, an Arts and Cultural commissioner, a County-level board member for the American River Parkway Advisory Board, and as a Folsom Community Service Day Steering Committee member. In 2023, his peers on the City Council selected him to serve as the Vice-Mayor of the City.

In 2019, YK launched a Folsom-based IT firm. For more than ten years, he has partnered with the State to hold jobs awareness workshops, share public-sector job opportunities, and help others navigate the job application process. He has successfully helped hundreds of local residents find jobs.

YK believes in building community through service and leading by example. As an active volunteer in the region, YK earned the tagline "YK is always in the community" thanks to his avid volunteerism. He has a vested interest in kids, and spent over a decade with Folsom schools' PTA/PTSO boards, the HART of Folsom, Friends of Folsom, Friends of Folsom Parkways, and Powerhouse Ministries. He was named the "2022 Volunteer of the Year" by the Folsom Chamber of Commerce. YK is also a regional leader in APAPA, Asian Pacific Islander American Public Affairs Association, and has mentored countless high schoolers, offering internships and volunteer opportunities throughout the community.

Learn more about YK's background at www.YKforAssembly.com.

The 7th Assembly District is seen as the most competitive Assembly seat in the entire state. It includes the cities of Citrus Heights, Folsom, and Rancho Cordova, and the unincorporated communities of Carmichael, Fair Oaks, Foothill Farms, Gold River, Mather, McClellan Park, North Highlands, Orangevale, and Rosemont.

Big Companies' Latest Attack on The Little Guy

By Paul Michel

Imagine inventing something, patenting it, building a successful company around it, and then seeing a much larger rival steal your idea.

For too many inventors and entrepreneurs, that's not a hypothetical. It's a nightmare they have lived through.

Instead of responsibly buying out smaller inventors or licensing their patents, some large companies find it more economical to simply copy the underlying technologies and fend off patent infringement claims in court by expanding and extending costly litigation, a bully tactic designed to overwhelm and outlast less well-funded innovators.

Wealthy companies use the Patent Trial and Appeal Board, an administrative law body that hears challenges within the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, to aid and abet their infringement. Ever since PTAB was created in 2011, these behemoths have filed repeat challenges at PTAB, asking the board to invalidate as improperly granted the very patents they are accused of or judged as willfully infringing.

These companies have the resources to scour the world for any invention with similarity to the patent under review and then argue before the PTAB that the patent in question is overly broad, indistinct, and should never have been issued.

That can be all they need to get a trial and possibly prevail. According to one analysis, around one-third of patents challenged on petition at PTAB are found totally or partially invalid. Of those petitions going to final result at trial, two-thirds are.

PTAB challenges are concentrated among a surprisingly small number of giant companies. The top 10 PTAB petitioners which include Samsung, Apple, Intel, and Google are responsible for nearly a quarter of all petitions.

To curb this abuse, in 2020, the USPTO put in place a procedure for determining whether a PTAB review should go forward. The so-called Fintiv factors allow PTAB judges to decline to review a patent when the same patent is already subject to a challenge in federal district court and is approaching earlier resolution there. The Fintiv factors worked to deter many redundant requests for review.

Unfortunately, the USPTO Director Katherine Vidal issued new guidance last year that severely restricted PTAB's ability to apply the Fintiv factors. The new rules prohibit PTAB from letting the Fintiv factors prevent them from hearing patent validity challenges that are otherwise "compelling."

Unsurprisingly, PTAB has accepted significantly more patent challenges since Director Vidal's new guidance took effect. In other words, PTAB is increasingly being forced to duplicate the work of the courts.

So it comes as no shock these same corporate giants are now pushing hard to permanently eliminate PTAB's Fintiv authority to decline a review. They're lobbying Washington lawmakers to legislatively repeal Fintiv, claiming that the repeal will help small businesses fend off baseless infringement lawsuits from "patent trolls" that allege infringement and go to court, in the hopes of getting a quick settlement to go away.

This argument is a red herring. It's these big corporations filing the bulk of challenges at PTAB, not small companies seeking relief from abusive suits by trolls.

Restoring the ability of huge companies to efficiently infringe upon smaller ones by forcing owners needlessly to defend their patents simultaneously in the PTAB and in court and win in both would be a perversion of justice.

Paul Michel served on the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit from 1988 to his retirement in 2010, and as its chief judge from 2004 to 2010. He currently serves on the board of the Council for Innovation Promotion. ★ increased poverty and deep roots of racial inequality.

"We know a quality education helps children develop social, emotional and cognitive skills that lay the foundation for a more fulfilling and stable life," Early said. You can defeat a problem or be defeated by one. You can suffer a defeat, pick yourself up and become stronger, or give up. Defeat impacts people differently depending on their attitude toward it.

Defeat can propel one to achieve success or it can be an excuse for failure. Defeat can be no more than a minor annoyance or it can be a life-changing event. As with many things, defeat is what you make it.

Defeat can be an invaluable tool to identify areas that need improvement. Strengthening weaknesses is essential to improving your ability to overcome adversity. In order to avoid repeating a mistake, you have to identify its cause. Defeat will do this.

Defeat plays a key role in success yet its power is misunderstood. Do you defeat problems or does adversity defeat you? Defeat is the springboard that can propel a person to attain their goals. Defeat is a seed to be cultivated by definiteness of purpose.

Granted, no one wants to be defeated. Defeat is commonly associated with failure. Defeat carries with it the potential for ridicule and scorn. Fear of defeat limits people, preventing them from achieving their potential.

Defeat is never failure unless you give up. Your mental attitude is what whips you. Defeat is like water. You need a certain amount to stay alive. Too much or too little can have deleterious effects.

Experiencing a setback doesn't mean you are defeated. Only the act of giving up causes you to be defeated. Just get up one more time than you are knocked down and you will keep moving forward.

Fear of defeat causes paralysis that prevents you from taking steps to achieve a goal. If you never even begin a journey your chances of completing it are zero. Once you start, each step brings you closer to your destination.

You can trip and fall many times and still complete your journey as long as your get up each time. But if you fall and decide not to get up, you are defeated and will not reach your destination.

With the right mental attitude, defeat can be transformed from adversary to ally. Defeat serves to identify weaknesses that can be corrected. This is the only way you grow stronger. As you get better and improve, your areas of weakness will change.

Everyone experiences defeat. A novice may be tripped up by the most basic challenges. A seasoned expert will stumble on more complex issues. For example, consider a downhill ski racer. When a person is first learning how to ski, he will start on the smallest hills.

He will fall during the most basic maneuvers. Techniques that an expert will execute without any effort appear beyond the beginner's reach. If a beginner is afraid of falling, he will never attempt any technique that will lead to his improvement.

As a skier improves, he will master increasingly difficult terrain. To become a top competitor, a skier must continually push himself. Both the novice and the expert skier will fall. But the expert will fall in response to much more difficult challenges.

Any skier who is afraid of falling, will never improve. This doesn't mean being reckless and taking stupid risks. It would be lunacy for someone to attempt an expert slope the first day they are on skies. Conversely, the person who is afraid is unwilling to fall at all and will never put on a pair of skies.

Don't be afraid of defeat. Utilize it to identify those areas in need of improvement. Defeat is simply a sign that you are on the path to your destination.

Homey Spaces

Are you happy with your living spaces? What if you could be comfy and bring you joy too? You can. Stacy Garcia shared five tips to get there adding warmth and personality, whether it's a new space or just some changes, when she was on my Radio Show POPPOFF. She is an internationally renowned designer working on the most luxurious hotels and resorts. So let's check out those tips.

1. THERE ARE NO RULES. Don't get stuck worrying about the "right" way to set up your home. Pick a style or aesthetic that appeals to you, or mix and match any elements you love. Please yourself and make sure it reflects the way you live. If you spend a lot of time cooking and love bright colors, use tons of color in your kitchen so you feel happy and harmonized. Plaids, stripes, chevron, herringbone – use whatever makes you feel good and work around those choices to create spaces that shine.

2. CREATE ROOMS THAT ARE FUNCTIONAL. Just because your house has a formal sitting room or a wood-paneled office doesn't mean you need to use it for those purposes. Think about the things you like to do. Create a yoga room, crafting space, gaming room, reading library, garden room etc. There's no wrong way to translate your personal interests and design tastes into an interior vibe that feels and functions like your own unique home.

3. EDIT YOUR BELONGINGS. It's easy to get lost in "stuff." When trying to make your house feel homey, it's important to edit and curate your things with a critical eye. You may want to display joyful keepsakes from relatives or souvenirs you purchased on a favorite trip, but items from your past just take up space. Choose only the items that make you happy or are useful in some way and then donate the rest or have a tag sale.

4. DESIGN WITH A SENSE OF PEACE. To make a house feel truly homey, it's crucial to have a welcoming and peaceful atmosphere. You can always bring peaceful design elements to your home – peaceful doesn't have to mean neutral everything. Bringing the outdoors in with plants and fresh flowers is a great way to foster a calm and natural feeling and also include beautiful colors in your home. Lighting is also important to consider: ensuring abundant light in your home has a positive impact on emotions and goes a long way to create a peaceful and unique vibe. Using fabrics and textures that are comforting and cozy is another way to boost hominess.

5. BE PLAYFUL. It's fun to have fun and your home should give off a sense of spirit and joy. With so many serious issues in the world, it's important for your home to be a playful place where you can feel relief from the heaviness of the daily grind. Use your interior spaces as canvases for fun colors, patterns, texture, and artwork that will make you and your guests smile.

Smile with Stacy at www.shopstacygarcia.com and begin your happy home design journey. ★

I Wouldn't Do It That Way

Dear Dave,

I have an uncle who wants to gift some property to one of his sons, myself and my sister. The property is about two-and-a-half acres, and it's probably worth around $125,000. My wife and I are trying to pay off debt in Baby Step 2 of your plan, and we're not sure how we feel about the situation. What do you think?

– Dave

Dear Dave,

If your uncle asked me

Dave Ramsey Says

if he should do this, my answer would be no. The thing is, you've got three different sets of people with different lives and very different situations. Not only that, but these three potential co-owners probably have differing ideas about the land and what should or shouldn't be done with it. To me, the whole thing sounds like a big family fight just waiting to happen.

If I were in his shoes, I'd just sell the property and split the money equally between the three of you. It'd be a lot easier that way, and you'd avoid the chance of hard feelings between you and your relatives down the road. Don't get me wrong, your uncle sounds like a kind and generous man. He's trying to be a blessing to all three of you, but it has a very real possibility of causing unintended problems he may not see coming.

That's the way I'd handle it, Dave. A couple of acres of dirt split between three people isn't worth all the squabbles and bad feelings it could cause.

– Dave

PG&E Urges Customers to See If They Qualify for Federal Program

PG&E News Release

OAKLAND, CA (MPG) - As Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) Action Day in Washington, D.C. occurred on February 16, 2023, Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) urges customers who are struggling to pay energy bills to learn more about the program and see if they qualify.

National Energy and Utility Assistance Coalition (NEUAC) hosted the LIHEAP Action Day. Hundreds of community advocates from throughout the country will travel to Capitol Hill to urge continued, substantive funding for the program, including PG&E and local LIHEAP service providers.

The federally funded program helps low-income households with their energy bills, including those at risk of having service interrupted for non-payment. LIHEAP is overseen by the California Department of Community Services and Development (CSD) and administered by nonprofit agencies that can help financially impacted residents in providing assistance toward their energy bill. Eligibility for the program is determined by income, household size, place of residence, and other factors.

Last year marked the highest amount of bill credits received by PG&E customers – in total, more than $75.4 million. This January, PG&E customers received a total of $8.6 million, with the average bill credit totaling nearly $1,000. Available funds will vary based on customer circumstances and funding availability.

PG&E is not responsible for administering the LIHEAP program. To find the local LIHEAP agency in your area to apply, visit csd.ca.gov/energybills or call (866) 675-6623 for more information.

To take advantage of additional programs, tools and savings opportunities, PG&E recommends customers become more familiar with the following:

Separate from CARE, income-qualified households with three or more persons can apply for the Family Electric Rate Assistance (FERA) Program at pge.com/FERA for an 18% discount on their electric bill;

Relief for Energy Assistance through Community Help (REACH) provides income qualified customers with financial assistance during times of hardship;

Customers on the Medical Baseline program who have special energy needs due to certain qualifying medical conditions can receive a lower rate on monthly energy bills;

Budget Billing averages customers' monthly energy costs to help monthly payment amounts remain more consistent, even if energy use changes significantly from season to season.

Extend your bill due date or make a payment arrangement. Access your online account for details. ★

Bera Announces $11.7 Million in Federal Funding for Sacramento Airport

From the Office of Rep Ami Bera, MD

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - On February 27, 2023, U.S. Representative Ami Bera, M.D. (D-CA) announced that he helped secure $11.7 million in federal funding for the Concourse B expansion project at Sacramento International Airport (SMF). The federal grant, made possible through the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law which Bera championed and voted for in November 2021, will support the design and construction of a new pedestrian walkway connecting SMF's

Concourse B to Terminal B, increasing capacity for passengers and enhancing accessibility for travelers.

"I am proud to secure these crucial funds for Sacramento International Airport," said Representative Ami Bera, who represents California's 6th Congressional district, which includes SMF. "This federal grant will help modernize SMF, helping flyers get to their destinations safely and more efficiently. I'll continue to work with my colleagues in Congress to ensure the Sacramento region receives funding support from the historic Bipartisan Infrastructure Law."

Despite the United States leading in the development of modern aviation, our airport infrastructure remains far behind other countries. According to some rankings, zero U.S. airports are ranked in the top 25 of airports worldwide. The Bera-championed Bipartisan Infrastructure Law invests $25 billion into American airports to reduce congestion, strengthen our supply chains, and help Americans travel more quickly and at lower costs. ★

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF GLORIA GARCIA
CASE NO. 34-2022-00328364
To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, and contingent creditors of and persons who may be otherwise interested in the will or estate, or both, of Gloria Garcia, deceased.

A Petition for Probate has been filed by Yvonne Garcia, in the Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, requesting Yvonne Garcia be appointed as personal representative(s) to administer the estate of the decedent.
The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the executor to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the executor will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or have consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.
A hearing on the petition will be held in this court as follows March 23, 2023, 9:00 a.m. in Dept 129; Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, William R. Ridgeway Family Relations Courthouse, 3341 Power Inn Road, Sacramento, CA 95826.
IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.
YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. # 'The Wall That Heals'

VVMF News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The Wall That Heals

a three-quarter scale replica of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial along with a mobile Education Center, is coming to Citrus Heights, Calif., on March 29 - April 2, 2023 to Rusch Park at 7801 Auburn Boulevard and will be open 24 hours a day and free to the public. The Wall That Heals honors the more than three million Americans who served in the U.S. Armed forces in the Vietnam War and it bears the names of the 58,281 men and women who made the ultimate sacrifice in Vietnam.

"The Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund is pleased to bring The Wall That Heals mobile exhibit to Citrus Heights to allow local veterans and their family members a chance to experience The Wall," said Jim Knotts, president and CEO of VVMF. "Hosting The Wall That Heals provides an opportunity to honor and remember all those who served and sacrificed in the Vietnam War and educate visitors on the continuing impact of the Vietnam War on America."

The Wall That Heals is transported from community to community in a 53-foot trailer. When parked, the trailer opens with exhibits built into its sides, allowing it to serve as a mobile Education Center telling the story of the Vietnam War, The Wall and the divisive era in American history.

The three-quarter scale Wall replica is 375 feet in length and stands 7.5 feet high at its tallest point. Visitors will experience The Wall rising above them as they walk towards the apex, a key feature of the design of The Wall in D.C. Visitors are able to do name rubbings of individual service member's names on The Wall.

displays of Vietnam veterans from the local area honored through VVMF's In Memory program which honors veterans who returned home from Vietnam and later died; video displays that teach about the history and impact of The Wall; educational exhibits told through items representative of those left at The Wall in D.C.; a replica of the In Memory plaque; a map of Vietnam and a chronological overview of the Vietnam War. The exhibits tell the story of the Vietnam War, The Wall and the era surrounding the conflict, and are designed to put American experiences in Vietnam in a historical and cultural context.

The 2023 national The Wall That Heals tour is generously sponsored by USAA. Through a partnership with the Truckload Carriers Association (TCA), the trucking industry, and Blue Beacon, the exhibit is able to travel across the country.

Since its debut in 1996, the exhibit has been on display in more than 700 U.S. communities in addition to an April 1999 tour of the Four Provinces of Ireland and a visit to

Canada in 2005. The Wall That Heals is a program of VVMF, the nonprofit organization that built the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington, D.C. in 1982. The Wall That Heals is the only traveling exhibit affiliated with The Wall in Washington, D.C. and includes the largest Wall replica that travels the country. Two VVMF staff members lead volunteers on site, educate visitors and students, and ensure the reflective atmosphere of The Wall. More information can be found at www.thewallthatheals.org. The Vietnam Veterans

Memorial Fund (VVMF) is the nonprofit organization that built the Vietnam Veterans Memorial (The Wall) in Washington, D.C. in 1982. VVMF continues to lead the way in paying tribute to our nation's Vietnam veterans and their families. VVMF's mission is to honor and preserve the legacy of service in America and educate all generations about the impact of the Vietnam War and era through programs, ceremonies and education materials. # Disabled Person Parking Permits Must Be Renewed

DMV News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The Department of Motor Vehicles highlighted new laws that started in 2023 and one of those require drivers 70 and older to renew their license in person at a DMV office.

In October 2020, Governor Gavin Newsom temporarily waived the California law requiring senior drivers to renew their licenses at a DMV field office and signed AB 174 in September 2021 to allow online or by mail renewals through the end of 2022.

The DMV is sending notices to Californians who have had their permanent Disabled Person Parking Placard for at least six years and asking them to confirm that they are still in need of one.

The DMV will not renew placards for people who do not respond. This renewal requirement is one provision of prior legislation, SB 611, enacted in 2017 to curb fraud and abuse of Disabled Person Parking Placards.

Drivers are now required to change into another available lane, when possible, to pass cyclists, building on the current requirement for drivers to give cyclists at least three feet of space when passing. The law also permits Class 3 e-bike riders to use approved bicycle paths and trails, bikeways, and bicycle lanes. In addition, starting on January 1, 2024, the law allows cyclists to cross an intersection when a walk sign is on.

This law exempts vehicles registered to veterans displaying specialized license plates from paying tolls on roads, bridges, highways, vehicular crossings, or other toll facilities. The exemption applies only to vehicles with license plates that are issued to a disabled veteran, Pearl Harbor survivor, prisoner of war, or to veterans who have received distinctions such as the Purple Heart or the Congressional Medal of Honor. California state courts will stop sending notices to the DMV for license suspensions for failure to appear starting on January 1, 2023, while requiring the DMV to stop suspending licenses for failing to appear starting on January 1, 2027, to allow time to make computer programming changes. ★

Giving Golden Retrievers a Second Chance

By Judy Andrews

FAIR OAKS, CA (MPG) - The Fair Oaks Chamber of Commerce recently welcomed a new non-profit member who – you might say – is bringing a lot of “gold” to the community. The organization is NORCAL Golden Retriever Rescue and their mission is to rescue and place adoptable Golden Retrievers into loving homes.

As the privileged pet owner of a 13-year-old rescue, this author was personally thrilled to take on this writing assignment to help bring visibility to the non-profit and to a local Golden lovers group doing good in the community.

The first thing to know about NORCAL Golden Retriever Rescue (NGRR) is they do not have a central facility for sheltering dogs. Instead, they rely on an extensive team of well-networked volunteers to help keep everything running smoothly.

NGRR services Northern California to the Lake Tahoe/Reno region and to Fresno and San Luis Obispo Counties. Skilled volunteers are always wanted to support the organization in a variety of roles – from hands-on operations to professional services.

Fostering is at the heart of this rescue where volunteers open up their homes to surrendered Golden Retrievers needing a safe temporary environment. Upon intake, dogs receive a veterinary exam, vaccinations, and are spayed and neutered if needed. NGRR covers all medical expenses while a dog is in foster care.

The non-profit relies on contributions and their online store (www.ngrr.org) to help defray costs.

For the Love of the Breed

Robin Gostovich is NGRR’s Outreach and Special Events Coordinator for the Sacramento and surrounding areas. “Some 400 dogs a year are given a second chance when they find NORCAL Golden Retriever Rescue,” she reports. “We’re always looking for compassionate dog lovers to help out.”

As a long-time owner of Golden Retrievers and a Fair Oaks resident, Robin got involved with the organization eight years ago when one of her daughters found a dog online. Their new dog, Simon, became the first of many Golden Retrievers the family adopted or fostered through NGRR.

Robin has fostered at least 20 dogs. “It’s not hard to give one up when you know it’s going to the right home. Yeah, you may cry when that time comes, but you do what’s best for the dog. It’s always about the dog!”

She is a huge advocate for Golden Retrievers and for NGRR – two topics she loves to talk about. “I just want people to know about this amazing breed and what a great job NGRR does for their dogs.”

now have three Golden Retrievers at home: 12-year old Quincy, 10-year old Donne, and 6-year old Hero. Robin likes to say, “Golden Retrievers are like potato chips, you can’t have just one!”

A Group for Golden Lovers

Community outreach is an important part of what Robin does. “Everyone loves to meet our Golden Retrievers. The dogs open up so many doors leading to people and organizations who look to us for support.”

Robin is also the founder of a Northern California group called Norcal Golden Lovers Sac. “It’s through this group and partnerships that we’re able to give back to the community.”

The group hosts fundraisers and accepts donated pet supplies and food for two local non-profits: Growing Past Today and Jake’s Journey. They also donate dog food to the Orangevale-Fair Oaks Food Bank.

Matt Rise owns LogOff Brewing in Rancho Cordova where Robin often hosts fundraisers and social events through Norcal Golden Lovers Sac. He enjoys supporting their activities by bringing visibility to their causes and has even placed a permanent doggy donation bin inside the brewery.

“At LogOff Brewing we love dogs! It’s satisfying to know how much community good has come out of our partnership with Robin and all the volunteer work she does on behalf of NGRR and Norcal Golden Lovers Sac.”

Matt is hosting Barks and Brews on March 26 from 2-6 p.m. “It’s a fun dog-themed event at the brewery benefiting Front Street Animal Shelter. Come meet the vendors and enjoy live music and food,” he says. “Norcal Golden Lovers Sac will be on-hand to accept donations of bagged dog food, leashes, and dog toys for the non-profits they support.”

Meetups and Playdates

Members of Norcal Golden Lovers Sac also team up for fun events, meetups, and playdates with their Golden Retrievers. Robin spearheads a local social Meetup site of 783 members to help spread good will in the community and have some fun, too! The meetups are open to all Golden Retriever owners.

“These dogs make great ambassadors. We are simply Golden Retrievers doing good in the community while enjoying our pups!”

Eggstravaganza Returns to Sacramento Region

Northern California Hosts 31st Annual Decorated Egg Show and Sale

By MPG Staff

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - As the saying goes, "What's that got to do with the price of eggs?" Where art is involved, some eggs become almost "priceless".

It has been a few years, thanks to the chaos of Covid, since the Egg Show and Sale has been able to bring this wonderful art form to the region. This year will be its 31st show and sale.

The City of West Sacramento's Community Center will be the site for the phenomenal show this year.

Diana Macias, Show Director said in her release to the press "We are 'eggcited' to bring our free art exhibit to West Sacramento and offer the community the opportunity to see firsthand artwork created from real eggshells by artists traveling from all over the United States, teaching classes, displaying and selling art and the supplies to create our form of art."

Over the years we have worked with you on several community publications to get the word out to as many communities as possible inviting everyone to come out to the show and learn about this spectacular art form.

Attendees will have the opportunity to learn more about the Shriners Hospital for Children. Shriners volunteers will be at the event and will be available to provide information regarding their organization.

Egg Artists donate artwork that will be raffled with all proceeds benefiting the Shriners Hospital for Children.

This year will also feature a "learning table" for those who would like to learn how to make an egg art project for a nominal fee, also with the proceeds benefitting the Shriners. ★
