City of Rancho Cordova News Release

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Exciting things are happening at our Rancho Cordova schools!

At George Washington Carver High School, four seniors, Bernie, Arana, Jaiden and Bella made it into the top ten at a Caring for Our Watersheds contest. They placed ninth out of 350 teams from throughout Northern California for their proposal about using sustainable materials to make resin art. The contest challenges high school students to research their local watershed, identify an environmental concern and come up with a realistic solution.

Students at George Washington Carver also won first place at a MESA (Mathematics, Engineering, and Science Achievement) contest for their wind-powered vehicle.

At Williamson Elementary School, a Bookworm Vending Machine recently inched its way into the school's multipurpose room. Students receive golden tokens for positive behavior and consistent attendance and exchange them for books, which are viewable through the machine's glass display case.

The Bookworm Vending Machine was supported by the City of Rancho Cordova's Community Enhancement & Investment Fund, Kiwanis Club of Rancho Cordova, the Folsom Cordova Unified School District and the UPS Store #1614 in Gold River/Toys for Tots Literacy Program.

"We are very proud of our Rancho Cordova youth and congratulate them on their innovation and hard work," said Mayor Donald Terry. "It's inspiring to see our students being recognized for their academic achievements."

Board of Supervisors Pass Homeless Action Plan

By Janna Haynes,
Sacramento County

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - On Tuesday, June 14, the Sacramento County Board of Supervisors approved the Local Homeless Action Plan, which was created by the County of Sacramento, the City of Sacramento and Sacramento Steps Forward – the lead agency for the local Continuum of Care (CoC).

Background on State funding for homeless response – On July 19, 2021, the Governor signed Assembly Bill 140 (Chapter 111, Statutes of 2021), which allocated $2 billion over two years in Homeless, Housing, Assistance And Prevention (HHAP) Round 3 (HHAP-3) and HHAP Round 4 (HHAP-4) grant funding. In HHAP-3, Sacramento County is eligible for $7,768,228 in funding.

As a condition of receiving HHAP-3 funding, jurisdictions and CoCs must develop and formally approve a Local Homeless Action Plan (LHAP) that reflects strategies to address State developed Outcome Goals. Sacramento County worked collaboratively with the CoC and the City of Sacramento to develop the Action Plan. This plan reflects strategies that align with best practices to prevent and end homelessness, and are intended to help address gaps in the local homelessness system of care over time.

In addition to ensuring that Sacramento County can draw down these critical State funds, the LHAP also serves as a strategic framework for future investments and reflects best practices in preventing and ending homelessness. Guided by a local gaps analysis that quantified the estimated needs in prevention, sheltering and housing, the LHAP is oriented around five broad strategies:

Build and scale a countywide Coordinated Access System; Ensure sheltering programs are focused on re-housing; Increase permanent housing opportunities; Expand prevention and diversion resources; Invest in community capacity building and training.

The LHAP also stresses the need to identify and mitigate racial disparities within the homelessness programs and system. While persons identifying as Black only represent 11% of the population in our CoC's geographic area, they represent

Opportunity Awaits to 'Join the CHP 1,000'

CHP News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The California Highway Patrol (CHP) is embarking on a multiyear recruiting campaign to fill 1,000 vacant officer positions by hiring qualified individuals from California's diverse communities.

The "Join the CHP 1,000" campaign is the Department's attempt to appeal to a wide array of prospective applicants who may not be aware of the life-changing opportunity that awaits with a career with the CHP.

"To meet the increasing demand for our services throughout the state, over the next few years our law enforcement family will be growing exponentially," said CHP Commissioner Amanda Ray. "We are excited to welcome new members to the team so that the CHP can continue to provide the level of service the public has come to expect."

To qualify as a CHP cadet, applicants must be a United States citizen or a permanent resident who has applied for citizenship, be between the ages of 20 and 35, possess a high school diploma or equivalent, be able to pass a physical abilities test and written exam, and complete a thorough background check with no felony convictions on record.

"It requires a special kind of character and special brand of bravery to be a California Highway Patrol Officer," said Governor Gavin Newsom. "Our entire way of life – our freedoms, our peace, our pursuit of happiness – depends on those fearless, faithful few determined to protect it. I look forward to welcoming the next set of officers committing to serve California."

A career with the CHP includes paid training. Cadets earn a salary of $5,563 each month throughout their 26 weeks at the CHP Academy in West Sacramento. After graduation, new officers are assigned to communities throughout California and can expect to earn more than $100,000 in their first year with the Department.

"Anyone who may be wondering if they have what it takes to become a CHP officer, let me be the first to tell you that you do," added Commissioner Ray. "If you are compassionate, driven to serve, and have a desire to learn, the CHP provides some of the best law enforcement training in the world and we will do all we can to ensure your success."

Joining the CHP family is an opportunity to be the change and make a difference in the community and the lives of those you serve. For more information about the "Join the CHP 1,000" or to apply, visit www.chpcareers.com or call the statewide Recruitment Unit at (916) 843-4300 today.

3 CHP Officers Honored for Heroic Actions

CHP News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Three California Highway Patrol (CHP) officers received the Public Safety Officer Medal of Valor during a ceremony hosted by the U.S. Department of Justice on May 16 in Washington, D.C.

The award presented to CHP Officers Ryan Smith, Vince Mendoza and retired CHP Officer Robert Paul is considered the highest national award for valor by a public safety officer.

“Our entire way of life – our freedoms, our peace, our pursuit of happiness – depends on the rule of law and those fearless, faithful few willing to stand watch,” said Governor Gavin Newsom. “I applaud the bravery and selflessness of these California Highway Patrol officers as they are recognized nationally for their heroism. They exemplify California values and represent the very best of our state’s law enforcement.”

On August 12, 2019, Officer Paul was assisting CHP Officer Andre Moye Jr. with an enforcement stop and vehicle impound near Interstate 215 in Riverside when the suspect suddenly retrieved a rifle from his car and opened fire without warning. Officer Moye was struck and killed, and Officer Paul immediately drew his weapon and engaged the suspect before radioing “Officer down.” Additional Riverside Area CHP units immediately responded along with units from the Riverside Police Department and Riverside County Sheriff’s Department.

Officer Paul was shot multiple times in his legs and, despite the life-threatening injuries, held off the suspect until backup arrived.

Officer Smith arrived after several minutes, and his patrol vehicle immediately took rounds from the suspect. Officer Smith exited his vehicle and returned fire and pulled Officer Paul to safety as he was wounded in both legs. Officer Mendoza then arrived and shot at the suspect with a rifle, drawing fire away from Officers Smith and Paul. With the assistance of allied agencies, the gun battle continued for more than 12 minutes until the suspect was fatally shot.

“The actions of these men that day were noble, courageous, and crucial to getting another officer to safety,” said CHP Commissioner Amanda Ray. “I am incredibly proud of these officers for their teamwork and the numerous acts of bravery which took place during this horrific incident.

While we tragically lost one of our own that day, countless other lives were saved because of their heroism.”

Sworn to serve and protect the people of California, CHP officers vow to “assist those in peril or distress, and, if necessary, lay down their [my] life rather than swerve from the path of duty.”

The mission of the CHP is to provide the highest level of Safety, Service, and Security. ★

CHP Graduates Pave the Way for Future Applicants

CHP News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The California Highway Patrol’s (CHP) 128 newest officers graduated from the CHP Academy in West Sacramento on Friday, June 10 after completing 27 weeks of training.

Cadets crossed the stage to receive their badge and assignment at one of the CHP’s 103 Area offices throughout the state, as family and friends packed the gymnasium in support of the new officers.

“Completing Academy training is a tremendous achievement,” said CHP Commissioner Amanda Ray. “These women and men are not just starting a new job, they are embarking on a lifelong career that requires extreme dedication and a passion for service.”

At the CHP Academy, cadet training starts with nobility in policing, leadership, professionalism and ethics, and cultural diversity. Cadets receive instruction on mental illness response and crisis intervention techniques. The training covers vehicle patrol, crash investigation, first aid, and the apprehension of suspected violators, including drivers under the influence of alcohol or drugs. The cadets receive training in traffic control, report writing, recovery of stolen vehicles, assisting the motoring public, issuing citations, emergency scene management, and knowledge of the California vehicle code, penal code, and health and safety code.

The CHP’s newest officers join the ranks of the more than 6,700 uniformed personnel serving in communities throughout the state.

A new cadet class is scheduled to begin training at the CHP Academy on June 20. Another class of more than 100 cadets is expected to complete training and graduate in early August.

On Thursday, the CHP launched a multiyear recruiting campaign to fill 1,000 vacant officer positions by hiring qualified individuals from diverse communities. For more information about the “Join the CHP 1,000” campaign, or to apply, visit <https://recruitment.chp.ca.gov/> or call the state-wide Recruitment Unit at (916) 843-4300.

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Rich Desmond was elected in November 2020 as Sacramento County Supervisor for District 3. After redistricting, which occurs every 10 years after census data comes out, District 3 now covers an area of Rancho Cordova east of Sunrise Boulevard. Desmond spoke at the Rancho Cordova Luncheon on Friday, June 17, to talk about his District and his work.

District 3 covers a diverse area with about 314,000 people, 285,000 of whom live in urban, unincorporated areas, that include Gold River, Fair Oaks, Carmichael, Arden Arcade, Foothill Farms, and part of North Highlands. "Arden-Arcade alone is 100,000 people," Desmond said. "It's great that you have so many advocates for this community, whereas these unincorporated communities have one elected official to represent them. . . really I like being the champion of a lot of these communities in District 3."

Desmond touched on a few of the biggest issues - COVID 19, homelessness, the condition of roadways, economic development in Sacramento County - but focused on homelessness since it is the most important and pressing issue that we're facing today, he said. "It is something that probably takes up, I would say, 60% of our time on the Board," Desmond said, "probably 90% of my time, including when I wake up at 2:00, 3:00 in the morning thinking about this." Desmond looks at the crisis in terms of four C's: Coordination, Capacity, Consequences, and Compassion. Coordination: "This is not a problem that is limited to one city or one county. It crosses jurisdictional boundaries, and we need to be coordinating our effort." Capacity: "It doesn't do any good if we have all the coordination in the world, if we don't have someplace to send people." Consequences: "I'm not talking about consequences that criminalize homelessness or demonize everybody who's homeless. But if an encampment is interfering with a small business and that's causing a problem in the community, or someone is committing a crime, then we have to hold people accountable for their actions." Compassion: "The folks out there living on the street, they have a story to tell, and when you talk to them and you get to know the story, it should affect how you want to approach this problem."

The question arose of the safety of the American River Parkway, and difficulties because of the many encampments that have arisen there. Desmond said that the County Rangers have a role throughout the 26 miles of Parkway, but each individual jurisdiction in terms of fire and police departments have jurisdiction in terms of public safety roles. "In terms of establishing an ordinance that would protect the Parkway," Desmond said, "that falls to the County because of its primary County jurisdiction."

Desmond also points out the decision in 2018 in the case of Martin v. City of Boise, that ruled that prohibiting sleeping or camping of homeless individuals on public property is unconstitutional when those individuals do not have a meaningful alternative, such as shelter space or a legal place to camp. "We need to identify alternatives," Desmond said. He pointed out the discussion of an ordinance that would restrict encampments in certain sensitive infrastructure areas, which would give a legal high ground, but also moral high ground to take more proactive action to move these encampments off the Parkway. . . . That is a major concern to all of us in the County."

Rich Desmond is a fifth generation native of Sacramento County, a lifelong resident of Carmichael. He joined the California Highway Patrol in 1995, served as a patrol officer in Los Angeles and Sacramento and was promoted through a variety of field and administrative positions. "As a prior law enforcement guy here, law enforcement is something that's very important to me," Desmond said. He served as temporary chief sergeant-at-arms at the State Assembly. He served as the legislative liaison for the Highway Patrol for four years at the State Capitol, which he said is, "Unfortunately where I befriended a few legislators who talked me into (running for District 3 Supervisor)."

Desmond graduated from Jesuit High School where he participated in football and rugby. He earned a Bachelor of Arts in English from Santa Clara University, where he played football for a very short time, but continued with rugby until his junior year. Rich and his wife Lisa have five children ranging in age from 13 to 22. ★

CalCap Arts Foundation Hosts First Documentary Film Festival

CalCap Arts Foundation News Release

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG)

- Rancho Cordova's inaugural three-day California Capital Documentary Film Festival took place June 10th-12th. In total, 48 documentary features and shorts were screened in a varied lineup with attending filmmakers conducting Q&A sessions after their screenings. Three of the major sponsors were Comstock's Magazine, SMUD and the City of Rancho Cordova.

Presented by the California Capital Arts Foundation the festival got off to a slow start but picked up as the weekend progressed. The film festival, which was postponed from October of 2021 due to COVID concerns was a success given that there are still some concerns over COVID safety at public events. Several of the films that played at City Hall Council Chambers were well attended and organizers received positive feedback from attendees.

Charles Lago, one of the festival organizers said, "We are not deterred by the attendance for this documentary festival... as many of the 300 plus people that did attend seemed to really enjoy the lineup of films we presented. We look forward to building this festival to a much larger event year on year which we believe will attract visitors from all over the Sacramento region."

Lago continued, "Our plan is to continue holding monthly screenings of acclaimed documentaries at various locations throughout the year, which we think will create momentum and attract publicity leading to next year's festival."

There were two awards handed out at this year's festival. Each film was judged on its powerful environmental message and impact it has on the earth. The first one was awarded by Comstock's magazine for best environmental document titled "Hell or Clean Water". The other award was handed out by SMUD for best global documentary called "8 Billion Angels."

'Speak on It,' Mike Brown is 'Here to Win'

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Hours after parading through the streets of San Francisco to celebrate the Golden State Warriors' fourth championship in eight years, Mike Brown was formally introduced Tuesday afternoon as the new coach of the Sacramento Kings.

Brown is the 20th head coach in Sacramento franchise history and the 12th since Rick Adelman departed the organization in 2006. Adelman is currently the only Sacramento coach to lead the team to a winning record. The Basketball Hall of Famer had a (.633) regular season winning percentage along with eight playoff appearances in eight years.

"I'm excited about being here," Brown said at his introductory press conference. "The fan base is tremendous. I remember back in the day, them damn cowbells just use to ring in my ear and use to drive me crazy. I hope we get back to that point because now I'd love to hear them cowbells every game."

"I'd be the first one raising the roof and telling everybody to get up and ring those things all day long. The fans, they're extremely passionate, they're knowledgeable and I'm just looking forward to being around them."

Brown has been as an NBA head coach on three separate occasions, with the Los Angeles Lakers (2011-12) and twice with the Cleveland Cavaliers (2005-10 & 13-14). In seven full seasons as the leading man, Brown has led his teams to the playoffs six times, without a single first round elimination. Brown was named the NBA Coach of the Year in 2009 after leading Cleveland to a 66-16 record and a trip to the Eastern Conference Finals.

"We conducted a very robust, thorough, comprehensive process and we wanted to ensure that we found the right coach," said Kings general manager Monte McNair. "We did a lot of research, and it came down to really three key things for us: experience, successful head coaching experience; relationships, the ability to build relationships across the organization; and leadership, as a head coach and leadership for everything that we're trying to do here."

During seven plus seasons as a head coach in the league, Brown has a winning record in both the regular season (.616) and play-offs (.566). The 52-year-old spent the last six seasons as an assistant coach with the Warriors, adding three rings to the one he earned as an assistant with the San Antonio Spurs in 2003.

"We gotta get one for the thumb, I only got four!" Brown said to a media member while pounding the table with a laugh and a smile.

Brown expressed three areas of focus as he enters his new role: 1. An alignment of trusts within the organization. 2. A set of values upheld by leadership. 3. An embracement of your role.

"I was brought here to bring some leadership in a lot of different areas," Brown said. "I've been with a lot of different teams in my 30 years, and I've experienced what I believe is something that can get organizations over the top, not just in one year, but year in and year out, and that's having a winning culture. Every organization out there in my opinion has a soul. A strong soul in my opinion equates to a winning culture."

It's well chronicled that the Kings' active playoff drought is the longest in NBA history at 16 seasons. Some new coaches may try and avoid questions about it, but not Brown.

"There ain't no elephant in the room, you can speak on it," Brown said. "We're going to embrace that. I'm not coming here to 'have fun and be excited enjoying the area.' I'm coming here to win!" ★

Kings and Queens Rise provides young people opportunities to engage in intercommunity activities, which help prevent and interrupt violence. The program is a caring and safe environment where mentors teach community building and sportsmanship.

"We helped launch the Kings and Queens Rise program based on the idea that we all share a collective responsibility in creating safe and supportive environments for our youth," said Sacramento Kings Chief Operating Officer Matina Kolokotronis. "Kings and Queens Rise is part of the growing network of community-led violence prevention programs throughout Sacramento. CEO of Sierra Health Foundation and The Center, which manages Kings and Queens Rise, Build.Black., the Black Child Legacy Campaign and My Brother's Keeper Sacramento. "We're proud to partner with the Sacramento Kings on these social and development experiences for youth that foster pride in themselves and their communities."

Part of the Sacramento Kings Jr. Kings program, the eight-week basketball season tipped-off on June 25 and will run until August 13. And Another Thing Keep it Safe, Keep it Legal

By Bob McGarvey

I was talking to Mr. Paul Scholl who is the publisher of the Grapevine Independent, and he said it would be very interesting to hear from people who used to deliver the Grapevine. That made me think of our kids who delivered the paper, and we know what they are doing now, but what are you doing now? If you are interested in letting us know, you can send an email, or in the 'snail mail.' Email to me robertjmcgarvey@yahoo.com, or call the newspaper at 916-773-1111.

Two of our children for example delivered the paper, and then after high school they were in the Air Force. Then they went to college using the GI Bill, and have had some very good jobs since. The other two of our kids delivered the paper, and one works at Franchise Tax, and the other drove trucks. I know that there were hundreds of kids over the years who delivered our local paper, and they learned a lot from their first payed jobs. It's a shame that those jobs aren't available any more, but today the extra costs which the paper would have to pay have made that job of the past impossible.

There was an article in last week's paper, "4th of July Reminder: Keep it Safe, Keep it Legal." I haven't seen any of the "Bottle Rockets" and bigger rockets taking off yet illegally, but we have heard some of the loudest fireworks during the last weeks very close to in our neighborhood. Any fireworks which goes up in the sky or explodes is illegal, and the property owner where those fireworks are seen by police or fire department will be legally and financially responsible. If you aren't sure who or how to report, call 3-1-1 to be connected to the right place. There is more information in that article, so if you haven't read it yet please take the time and learn what is going on this year.

Something which happened every third Friday is the Rancho Cordova Luncheon. As was said by the Cordova Community Council on line, "Each month, the Cordova Community Council and Rancho Cordova Chamber of Commerce host a luncheon featuring a newsmaker in the community." In the last luncheon, June 17, 2022 for example, the speaker was Sacramento County District 3 Supervisor Rich Desmond.

The luncheon, held over the last 62 years, has brought speakers and organizations to the residents and businesses owners who wish to learn more about our City. Our luncheon has made connections in Rancho Cordova that helped make our community change from a part of the unincorporated part of the county to the effective and successful municipality today.

I am looking forward to the 1st of July, as well as the 4th of July, because the 1st of July is our 19th birthday as the City of Rancho Cordova. The upcoming election in November will be something to truly celebrate too, because that will be the 20th year since we voted for and became a city. So to everyone in our great city Happy Birthday to Rancho Cordova.

From Bob McGarvey, God bless, and we'll see you next time. ★

Supreme Court Gives Business a 'Tort Wars' Win

By Dan Walters
CALMatters.org

"Tort wars" is the term Capitol insiders apply to the perennial political conflict over the rules governing personal injury lawsuits.

Lawyers who file such suits seek to expand opportunities for litigation, often in concert with other interests, such as unions and environmental activists.

Business and employer groups and their insurers resist such expansion and occasionally propose ways to reduce exposure.

The conflict plays out in the Legislature, in the courts and in ballot measures with countless billions of dollars at stake in outcomes. Earlier this year, a 44-year-long dispute over medical malpractice compensation was resolved in a compromise that averted a ballot measure battle.

However, there are many other fronts in tort wars, including one that resulted in a U.S. Supreme Court ruling last week.

In 2003, just four days after California voters decided to remove him from office, then-Gov. Gray Davis handed personal injury lawyers and unions a major victory by signing legislation called the Private Attorneys General Act (PAGA). It enabled workers who had disputes with their employers to file class action lawsuits even if they had signed pre-employment agreements to submit such disputes to arbitration.

Advocates said it was needed to protect workers' rights and make up for the state labor department's inability to keep up with disputes over wages and other working conditions. Business and employer groups said it gave greedy lawyers a license to demand big settlements of cases and earn big contingency fees.

Ultimately, business interests spent millions of dollars to qualify a ballot measure that would gut PAGA. The initiative petitions have been submitted for signature-counting, but probably too late for the 2022 ballot. Most likely it will go to voters in 2024.

Meanwhile, a case challenging PAGA's provisions has been winding through state and federal courts and the U.S. Supreme Court last week declared that some important features are void because they conflict with the Federal Arbitration Act, which encourages civil disputes to be arbitrated rather than litigated.

The case involved Viking River Cruises and one of its employees, former sales representative Angie Moriana. Essentially, the Supreme Court declared that California's Supreme Court had erred in a previous PAGA case and state courts had applied that erroneous decision, involving the division of individual and class action complaints, to Moriana's case.

The decision was not unexpected, given the tenor of oral arguments, but surprisingly did not reflect the court's much-discussed 6-3 ideological split. The vote was 8-1 with only the court's most conservative member, Clarence Thomas, fully dissenting, saying state issues should be left to state legislatures and courts.

Predictably, even a Supreme Court decision does not end the battle over PAGA because it was decided on technical legal points rather than the broader issue.

Unions, lawyers and their political allies immediately pledged to write new legislation to get around the Supreme Court decree. Sen. Dave Cortese, a San Jose Democrat who chairs the state Senate's labor committee, said the ruling "has provided a roadmap as to how we can create for employees a new pathway to legal standing as well as safeguard the protections that state law puts in place for our workers."

Because the Supreme Court did not strike down all of PAGA, the business coalition backing the ballot measure, dubbed the California Fair Pay and Employer Accountability Act, pledged to continue its campaign. "Even with the SCOTUS ruling on Viking River Cruises, PAGA will still be an avenue for shakedown claims against businesses where trial attorneys take a huge portion of the recovery, leaving employees with a reduced amount," it said.

Defendant Sentenced for Human Trafficking, Pimping/Pandering

Sac County DA News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The Honorable Ernest Sawtelle sentenced Johnnie Cokley to 55 years and eight months in prison.

On May 11, 2022, a jury convicted Cokley of assault with a deadly weapon, human trafficking, pimping, pandering, kidnapping, two counts of felony evasion and being a felon in possession of ammunition. The jury found true four allegations that Cokley caused great bodily injury. An allegation that Cokley has a prior strike conviction for carjacking was also found true.

On March 22, 2020, a female with a life-threatening stab wound to her stomach appeared at a Sacramento Fire Department firehouse. The victim was transported to a hospital, where she reported to a sheriff's deputy that Johnnie Cokley had stabbed her. The victim later explained that she had been trafficked by Cokley for almost one year and was trying to get away from him when she was stabbed. An arrest warrant was issued for Cokley. On April 9, 2020, detectives attempted to stop Cokley while he was driving his car. Cokley fled and sped through a residential area until he abandoned his car and fled on foot, evading arrest. Deputies located multiple boxes of firearm ammunition in Cokley's car. Two days later, Cokley was located again and fled from deputies by car. Cokley drove erratically onto the freeway before leaving that car in a community center parking lot and fleeing on foot. Cokley was found in a nearby apartment complex and taken into custody.

A lengthy investigation uncovered contacts the victim and Cokley had with law enforcement in California and Phoenix, Arizona from June 2019 to March 2020, all related to prostitution. The Phoenix investigation revealed a surveillance video of Cokley beating the victim to the point of unconsciousness at a convenience store and leaving her there. This investigation helped to establish a timeline of the relationship and Cokley was engaging in a continuing course of pimping, pandering and human trafficking over an extended period of time. The victim testified that Cokley stabbed her and that they had a pimp/prostitute relationship. She also testified that Cokley kidnapped her in a shopping center parking lot in an attempt to get her back under his control.

Cokley has prior convictions for vehicle theft, resisting officers, domestic violence and felon in possession of a firearm. ★

On August 24, 2019, Whitaker was driving on North 16th Street by Capitol Casino when the victim, a local homeless man, walked in front of his car. Whitaker stopped and the victim yelled at him. Whitaker then drove around the victim and proceeded to drive around the block. When Whitaker saw the victim standing at the same intersection, he drove right into him. The victim was launched across several lanes of traffic, suffered blunt force trauma and died the next day. Whitaker was arrested a little over a week later after calling to report his license plates were stolen.

Whitaker faces a maximum of sentence of 26 years to life in prison. Sentencing is set for August 5, 2022, in Department 12 before the Honorable Maryanne Gilliard. ★

A family member of the defendants operated a foster care and daycare out of her home. Over a period of years between 2011 - 2013, the defendants molested children who were in the daycare. At the time of the abuse, the defendants were adults and the children were all under the age of 10 years old. Both defendants had previously molested several young girls who were in foster care at the home from 2008-2011, but information about the daycare abuse did not come to light until later disclosures by the children.

Jared Belmares faces a maximum sentence of 40 years in prison. He will be sentenced on July 15, 2022, at 9:00 a.m. in Department 33 before the Honorable Laurel White. ★

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF DELMAR EUGENE LORENZEN
CASE NO. 34-2022-318420

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, and contingent creditors of and persons who may be otherwise interested in the will or estate, or both, of Delmar Eugene Lorenzen, deceased. A Petition for Probate has been filed by Leslie Lorenzen, in the Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, requesting Leslie Lorenzen be appointed as personal representatives to administer the estate of the decedent. The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the executor to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the executor will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or have consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A hearing on the petition will be held in this court as follows July 25, 2022, 9:00 a.m. in Dept 129. IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. The name, address and telephone number of the Petitioner is: Leslie Lorenzen, 9281 Oak Avenue, Orangevale, CA 95662; 916-705-3482

You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 800-280-2832 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this internet website <http://www.qualityloan.com>, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-22-898813-JB. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the internet website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 800-280-2832, or visit this internet website <http://www.qualityloan.com>, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-22-898813-JB to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the property address or other common designation, if any, shown herein. Plastic Tax Initiative Will Devastate Working Families

Commentary from Stop the Tax on Working Families

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - According to a new cost impact study released by the Center for Jobs and the Economy, the average family of four could pay more than $900 extra per year in higher costs under the Tax on Plastic Initiative (Initiative #19-0028A1) that has qualified for the November 2022 ballot.

The analysis estimates the ballot measure's tax on plastic products and complex regulatory requirements will generate nearly $9 billion per year in higher direct and indirect consumer costs – more than double the $5.6 billion currently paid for recycling programs.

“This massive tax increase could not come at a worse time for working families. Record-high inflation and skyrocketing food costs are already causing serious financial hardship for nearly half of California’s households making less than $40,000 per year, according to a recent poll from the Public Policy Institute of California,” said Robert Gutierrez, president of the California Taxpayers Association. “Hardworking Californians can't afford to add another $900 per year to their expenses.”

The cost impact study looks at the job, consumer costs, and business impacts of the Plastics Tax Initiative, which proposes a one-cent tax on single-use plastic packaging and food containers while adding a myriad of new regulatory requirements on plastic products. Despite the measure's significant cost increase, its flawed provisions make it unlikely to achieve the state's current recycling goals.

Some of the report's key findings include: Adds $901 per year in higher costs for consumer goods for the average family of four; Creates nearly $9 billion more per year in total direct and indirect costs, including $4.3 billion in higher taxes – one of the largest state tax increases in recent history on working families; Doubles the $5.6 billion that Californians currently pay for recycling while likely failing to achieve California's recycling diversion goal; Impacts more than 40,000 in-state good-paying, middle-class jobs in the packaging industry that are disproportionately held by Latinos and workers with a high school degree; Dedicates only about 30% of its tax proceeds toward increasing recycling and reducing plastic waste; and Opens consumers to even higher costs in the future by allowing the state to impose new recycling taxes and fees on other materials without a vote of the Legislature.

Stay Comfortable and Save Money

SMUD News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - As the mercury rises in Sacramento, residents are seeking ways to stay comfortable in their homes without breaking their budget. While SMUD customers enjoy some of the lowest rates in California, air conditioning needs can drive customer usage and bills during these hot summer months, so SMUD is offering tips on how to stay comfortable in your home while also saving money.

Summer rates start June 1, but it's easy to keep energy use in check without giving up cooling comfort. One of the easiest ways to save is to pay attention to when you are using energy. Energy rates are cheapest during off-peak hours before 5 p.m. and after 8 p.m. That means customers can save by minimizing energy use during the week between 5 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Another easy step is to prevent your home from heating up, which can reduce immediate cooling costs and help save on long-term costs from wear and tear on cooling equipment. SMUD has also partnered with the Sacramento Tree Foundation to provide free trees to shade and cool your home.

SMUD has more energy-saving solutions on its website and offers additional tips to save:

- In the summer, use fans and close blinds on windows that get direct sun.
- Swap out light bulbs for LEDs.
- Change your air filter and clean your HVAC unit.
- Use a programmable/smart thermostat to help control HVAC use.
- For every 2 degrees that you turn up your thermostat, you can save 5-10 percent on cooling costs.
- Avoid using multiple large appliances at the same time, especially during peak hours.
- On hot days BBQ outside or use small cooking appliances like crock pots and microwaves to help keep your house cool.
- Customers can also get customized tips, manage their bills and set up alerts on the website. ★

Homeless Action Plan Passes

approximately 39% of individuals who are experiencing homelessness and approximately 39% of families with children experiencing homelessness have a Black head of household. Additionally, local data reflecting persons identifying as American Indian/Alaskan Native are not accessing homeless services in proportion to the number of people believed to be experiencing homelessness from that community.

Through the County budget and the American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) funding, the County has made significant investments in programs that align with these strategies. The LHAP will serve as the countywide strategic plan, reflecting the collective efforts of the County, City of Sacramento, the CoC and other collaborative partners.

What happens now?

With this approval, the Department of Human Assistance (DHA) will submit an application for the County allocation of HHAP-3 funding on or before June 30, 2022. Notification of award is expected by Sept. 28, 2022. Efforts under HHAP are intended to be invested in evidence-based solutions that resolve or prevent homelessness and which align with the LHAP. The plan document will be updated over time with measurable action steps as County, CoC, and City investments are made and new projects and programs are implemented, including those funded under HHAP-3.

Track and Field Club Readies for Expansion

Recent upgrades has given Cordova High School one of the best high school track and field facilities in the area.

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - In the latest expansion of the Track and Field facilities at Cordova High School, the City of Rancho Cordova passed a resolution authorizing the City Manager and staff to enter into discussions with the Folsom Cordova Unified School District about the addition of a steeplechase pit and associated equipment. The project is expected to be completed in the fall.

The steeplechase pit will be the first at a high school in the state of California, according to Rancho Cordova Track Club Executive Director Josh Gruver.

“The goal is to get more kids active and learning while they are involved in these incredible events of track and field. Every kid has the potential to perform and succeed here,” Gruver said. “Whether you throw something like a shot, discus, javelin, or hammer; or jump high or long, pole vault, or run distances, sprints, relays or hurdles; there is something here for every kid. And when they do well here, they also improve their outcomes in the classroom and in life.”

Two recent events (The Pacific Association Meet and Golden West) drew more than 3,000 kids combined to Rancho Cordova over two weekends, Gruver said. Cordova High School has also hosted United States Track and Field events.

These improvements and events followed a city investment last year for a rebuilt and enlarged shot put throwing area, and a new hammer & discus throwing cage.

“This is one of the most exciting developments of the last decade, having a local track club to offer these opportunities to our youth,” said Rancho Cordova City Councilmember David Sander. “When you think about this opportunity, combined with a tremendous sports legacy of Cordova High School and the new and soon to be open Rancho Cordova youth center, the future for kids in our community is incredibly bright.”

During his off time from the city council, Sander is a track and field throwing coach at Jesuit High School and the Rancho Cordova Track Club. ★
