RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - The MACC is one of the hosts for the 56th National Council on Education for the Ceramic Arts (NCECA) show, Fertile Ground. Their 2022 annual convention will be held in Sacramento. The show contains three exhibits showcasing 36 nationwide artists. There are a total of 56 host locations and 86 exhibits around the greater Sacramento area.

The MACC is on the collector's tour. "They rent . . . a motor coach, and they bring collectors from all over the United States, museum experts, acquisitions people from universities and different things," said Cheryl Gleason, MACC Event Coordinator/Curator. "We're going to provide lunch for them out on the patio and they get an hour to look at the art as well. We really lucked out, and we're making a huge splash for Rancho Cordova with this show."

The three exhibits included in the show are "Beneath the Surface: Origin Stories," "Womxn of Alfred," which features artwork from Alfred University in New York, and The Archie Bray, a residency program in Helena, Montana. The show is curated by Nancy Servis, an NCECA board member who for 10 years ran the Pence Gallery in Davis.

Earlier, Gleason had received a call from a representative asking if she knew about NCECA. "What's NCECA?" Gleason said. She was asked to call Ray Gonzales, Sacramento 2022 Onsite Liaison, received paperwork and met the submission deadline, which was the next day, to be a host gallery. Gleason received two visits from NCECA people during which they inspected and learned about the MACC from top to bottom. "Then you wait to see if you've been selected," Gleason said. "And we were selected. Not only were we selected, we got three of the top shows."

Microbusiness Grant Program to Make Big Local Impact

By Allison Harris, Sacramento County

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Sacramento County encourages microbusinesses in the county that have been adversely affected by the pandemic to apply to receive relief grants of $2,500. The new Microbusiness Grant Program is funded by the State of California's Office of the Small Business Advocate (CalOSBA) and administered by Sacramento County. These new micro-business grants do not need to be repaid, and the application period will be open April 1-29, 2022.

Often operating as solopreneurs, freelancers and small business owners, a microbusiness typically receives less than $50,000 in revenue annually and has fewer than five full-time employees. Examples of microbusinesses include hair and make-up stylists, interior design professionals, graphic designers, caterers, photographers and event planners. To be eligible, applicants also need to have experienced a 10 percent or greater reduction in revenue in the 2019 to 2020 tax years. A complete list of grant eligibility requirements is available on the Sac4Micro website.

"Sacramento County has more than 52,000 business establishments," said Troy Givans, Director of Sacramento County Office of Economic Development. "Of those businesses, the microbusiness sector makes up approximately 67 percent countywide. The pandemic has been especially hard on our small business community, in particular, our minority-owned businesses. The County is excited to partner with CalOSBA to offer another resource to help the microbusinesses access funding to recover."

Additionally, Sacramento County is partnering with the California Capital Financial Development Corporation, California Hispanic Chambers of Commerce, Sacramento Asian Pacific Chamber of Commerce, Sacramento Black Chamber of Commerce, Sacramento Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, Sacramento Metro Chamber and the Slavic Chamber of Commerce to provide in-language assistance and expand the program's reach into underserved communities.

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - Sacramento County's Bradshaw Animal Shelter intakes thousands of pets in the community each year. Most of these pets are reunited with their owners or are able to find loving forever homes to be adopted into. However, some shelter pets have a difficult time finding a normal adoptive home which is where the shelter's foster and rescue program comes in. The foster and rescue program works with local foster and rescue providers in the community to help shelter pets that need a little extra assistance on the way to their happy ending. Foster care providers provide temporary care outside of the shelter to animals such as those too young for adoption, needing to recover from an illness or injury, for behavior modification, or just because they need a break from the stresses of shelter life. Rescue group partners are also a huge help as they pull shelter animals who otherwise have a difficult time being adopted due to age, medical condition or the need for behavioral modification that cannot be resolved in a foster home.

Shelter dog Dora, who arrived as a stray in 2016, was having a difficult time finding a forever home.

Shelter dog Dora now serves in the National Disaster Search Dog Foundation (NDSDF). Photo credit: National Disaster Search Dog Foundation

Fortunately, shelter staff was so impressed by her high-toy drive that they contacted the National Disaster Search Dog Foundation (NDSDF). The

NDSDF is an organization based in Santa Paula, California that strengthens disaster response across America by rescuing and recruiting dogs and partnering them with firefighters and other first responders to find people buried alive in the wreckage of disasters. They have been a long-time rescue partner of the Sacramento County's Bradshaw Animal Shelter.

"Groups such as NDSDF give dogs that have no chance of placement in a normal pet home an opportunity for a great outcome and a chance to truly thrive in the world," said Shasta Stratton-Quirk, who works on the shelter's foster and rescue team. "Because some dogs are not able to be adopted out through normal routes, it is the job of the foster and rescue team to find an outlet where they can reach their true potential.

Dora's natural abilities made it clear that the NDSDF made the right choice in bringing her on the team. Six years later, the rescue partner is happy to report Dora is working diligently with the San Diego Fire Department and California Task Force 8 alongside her handler, Joe Zakar, and has truly gone from rescued to rescuer.

Gifts from the Heart Brings Joy to Thousands

Sacramento County News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - For more than 30 years, thousands of lives have been touched by Sacramento County's Gifts from the Heart program, an annual holiday gift-giving initiative that runs from October until mid-December and serves those within the Child Protective Services and Senior and Adult Services divisions of the Sacramento County Department of Child, Family and Adult Services.

In 2021, the program provided gifts to more than 2,500 youth, adults and seniors at an estimated cash value of $152,040.

They got Nerf balls, art supplies, scented candles, Disney princess toys, basketballs, Bluetooth speakers and more! The youngest recipient, Karl, age 1, received finger puppets, wooden puzzles, and a Lego train. The oldest, Quang, age 91, received queen bedsheets, postage stamps and a gift card to Wal-Mart.

Best of all, these foster youth, disabled adults and homebound seniors got a reminder over the winter holidays that they were not forgotten.

More than 80 individuals and corporate sponsors from businesses, government agencies, service groups and families donate gifts that allow the program to continue.

A team of 57 volunteers managed the pick-up, distribution, and delivery of gifts from community and private sponsors. The volunteers, many of whom return year after year, spend three weeks in the warehouse organizing toys and gifts. In 2021, volunteers logged in almost 10,000 hours.

Donations come in other forms, too. Jackson Properties donated warehouse space; and Sourdough & Co., Roma 2 Pizza, Pizza Guys and Subway provided lunches to hungry volunteers.

"This was our second year of taking precautions due to COVID-19, but we didn't let it stop us," said Tonja Edelman, Volunteer and Student Intern Services Coordinator. "We required volunteers to be fully vaccinated and we wore masks, and we got it done. We are so thankful for our volunteers and for the contributions from local community partners that make the program possible."

The total cash value of the program - volunteers, donations, gifts - is estimated to be $476,612.

And the look on gift recipients' faces? Priceless.

Gifts from the Heart welcomes everyone who is interested in participating by sponsoring gifts, becoming a community partner and volunteering time during the season. All donations are tax deductible. To learn more email Tonja Edelman or call her at 916-875-2027. ★

Shooter Kills Four Inside Church then Shoots Himself

By Sergeant Rod Grassmann, Sacramento County Sheriff's Department

ARDEN/ARCADE, CA (MPG) - At approximately 5:07 p.m. on Monday, February 28, 2022, the Sacramento County Sheriff's Office Communications Center received a call from an employee of a church, located on the 2000 block of Wyda Way, stating a man with a gun was shooting inside the church. The caller had been upstairs inside the church when he heard shots fired. He then exited the sanctuary and called the Sheriff's Office. The first deputy arrived at the church at 5:09 p.m. with multiple units following. Deputies did not hear the sounds of shooting when they arrived but treated the scene as an Active Shooter Situation and immediately entered the building and began searching rooms.

Deputies located two adults and three juveniles inside building. Deputies triaged each subject, rendering aid before all five were pronounced deceased at the scene. The victims were a 59-year-old male chaperone to the three female juveniles ages 9, 10 and 13. The shooter, 39-year-old father of the children, then turned the firearm on himself.

Seventy personnel responded from the Sacramento Sheriff's Office to the call as well as numerous regional law enforcement agencies. The Sheriff's Office is grateful to the community and our allied partners for their assistance. Investigators were on scene throughout the night collecting physical evidence, canvassing for witnesses and surveillance video.

The identity of the victims and shooter in this case will be released by the Sacramento County Coroner's Office.

Detectives are asking anyone with information relating to this incident, to please contact the Sheriff's Office at (916) 874-5115 or Sacramento Valley Crime Stoppers at (916) 443-HELP. Tip information may also be left anonymously at www.sacsheriff.com or by calling (916) 874-TIPS (8477). ★

Swing for a Cause

Cordova Community Council News Release

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - A golf tournament which raised $300,000 in five years for Rancho Cordova charities before being derailed by COVID-19 makes a comeback this April.

The Rancho Cordova Community Golf Classic, the only golf tournament which focuses on Rancho Cordova charitable causes, will tee off at the Woodcreek Golf Club on Saturday, April 30, with a mighty goal: to raise $100,000 for local causes ranging from emergency food response to mentoring programs at Cordova High School.

Led by founders Julie Hagan-Belka, Ronnie Belka, Melody Granger-Mayer and Conrade Mayer, the Rancho Cordova Community Golf Classic 2022 will benefit Mentors at Cordova High School (MACH), Easter Seals of Superior California, Rancho Cordova Food Locker, Rancho Cordova Police Activities League, the Cordova Community Council and the Rancho Cordova Rotary Home Town Hero program.

"These charities are focused on making Rancho Cordova the incredible hometown that it is," said Julie Hagan-Belka, who along with her husband Ronnie and the Mayer's launched this tournament in 2016. "The culture of Rancho Cordova has always included taking care of our own. This tournament helps get us there."

The Rancho Cordova Community Golf Classic benefits multiple local charities at one time. Photo: Cordova Community Council

The Rancho Cordova Community Golf Classic is also the only vehicle to benefit multiple local charities at one time, co-founder Melody Granger-Mayer said.

"Where else can you boost a half-dozen Rancho Cordova charities while playing a round of golf with a bunch of great people? There's nothing else like it in our city," she said.

Beneficiaries are a "who's who" of local charities.

The Rancho Cordova Food Locker has been serving the hungry in the community since 1987. With a mission to "Fight Hunger. Feed Hope," the Food Locker provides food assistance to 5,000 people a month and special meals for holidays like Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Cordova Lancers, Leaders & Legends (CL3) is an inclusive mentoring organization that helps at-risk and under-performing high school students in Rancho Cordova through the Mentors at Cordova High (MACH) program.

Rancho Cordova PAL builds relationships between RCPD and youth through a variety of programs. The motto of the Rancho Cordova Police Activities League (PAL) is "Every Kid Needs a PAL," and this program shows how true that is.

The Cordova Community Council Foundation has been enriching the lives of Rancho Cordovans since 1959, bringing quality community events, art and music experiences, and youth sports improvements to every corner of the community.

Rotary Charitable Foundation supports the community through the "Hometown Hero" grant, which allows individuals and organizations to improve a school, a park or playground or other project which lifts the community.

Easter Seals provides services, education, outreach and advocacy so that people living with autism and other disabilities can live, learn, work and play in the community. Easter Seals Superior California has used proceeds to expand workforce development services for clients.

"If you want to support these outstanding Rancho Cordova service organizations, a fun day of golf with a lofty purpose is just the very best way to do it," said Hagan-Belka.

Golfers, sponsors and volunteers are now being registered for the tournament. To get more information, sign up to golf, be a sponsor or volunteer to make it all happen, visit cordovacouncil.org/community-golf-classic. ★

Defendant Sentenced for Hate Crimes in Carmichael

Sacramento County District Attorney's Office

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The Honorable William Lebov sentenced Nicholas Sherman to 180 days county jail and two years formal probation after Sherman pled to a felony count of desecrating a religious symbol on the property of the Shalom Le Israel synagogue in Carmichael. Sherman also pled to a misdemeanor count of terrorism by symbol for placing flyers with a Nazi swastika on the Deterding Elementary School grounds. A specific condition of Sherman's probation is he cannot possess Aryan Nations propaganda in a way to disseminate it to the public and is also on Search and Seizure including all electronic devices. On October 4, 2021, Sherman left zip lock bags containing Aryan Nations flyers on home doorsteps in Carmichael and on the grounds of an elementary school. Many of the flyers had a hand drawn swastika on the back or a printed swastika on the front. Sherman was captured on video surveillance systems and his prints were found on the zip lock bags. On October 20, 2021, Sherman taped paper to the menorah and metal fence at a synagogue with anti-Jewish wording and photos of Hitler. This case was investigated by the Sheriff's Bias Crimes Unit and prosecuted by the District Attorney's Hate Crimes Unit. ★

Copart to Pay $800,000 for Hazardous Waste Settlement

Sacramento County District Attorney

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - Sacramento County District Attorney Anne Marie Schubert announced that the Sacramento County District Attorney's Office, joined the Contra Costa County District Attorney's Office and 15 other California District Attorneys and City Attorneys, in a settlement with Copart for injunctive relief, civil penalties, and enforcement costs totaling $800,000. After an investigation into the waste management practices of Copart, the prosecuting offices filed a civil complaint alleging Copart disposed of hazardous waste items into the trash. The items disposed of consisted of used office supplies, and items removed from vehicles being prepared for sale such as personal items, small electronics, personal care, automotive, and other consumer products. These practices ultimately lead to hazardous waste being improperly transported to and disposed of in municipal landfills instead of authorized hazardous waste disposal facilities. When contacted by prosecutors, Copart was cooperative with the investigation. Copart facilities have prepared and implemented new policies and procedures and enhanced their existing training programs designed to properly manage and dispose of all items that are regulated as hazardous waste. The judgment agreed to by the parties provides for $650,000 in civil penalties, $150,000 in costs of enforcement and a permanent injunction prohibiting Copart from violating hazardous waste laws and requiring Copart to implement compliance assurance measures. ★

Feinstein Now Must Decide Whether to Retire

By Dan Walters
CALMatters.org

Whither Dianne Feinstein? California's senior U.S. senator, a California political fixture for more than a half-century, was facing a turning point even before her husband, financier and philanthropist Richard Blum, died on Sunday of cancer.

The Senate's oldest member at 88 and the state's longest serving senator has clearly fallen out of favor with voters, even her fellow Democrats.

A new poll by UC-Berkeley's Institute of Governmental Studies found that after years of steadily eroding popularity, just 30% of the state's registered voters now approve of her, including just 45% of Democrats. Meanwhile, 49% said they disapproved.

"The five-term senator now receives more negative than positive job ratings from strong liberals, women, voters of color, younger voters, as well as voters in Los Angeles County or the San Francisco Bay Area," the poll noted.

Feinstein has been a senator for nearly 30 years, following two decades of public service in San Francisco, including a stint as mayor. She was once one of the state's most popular politicians due to her centrist, pragmatic approach, and was the go-to person for California's interest groups with issues in Washington.

However, political polarization has left her drifting in political no-man's land, reflexively despised by Republicans because she's a Democrat and increasingly alienated from a leftward-drifting Democratic Party.

As Donald Trump's presidency widened the ideological divide, Feinstein's centrism, particularly her willingness to cross the Senate aisle and do business with Republicans, made her a pariah to the Berniecrat wing of her party. Four years ago, as she was seeking another Senate term, the state party endorsed rival Kevin de León.

Feinstein easily defeated de León in 2018 but her popularity continued its downward course, not only because she's out of step with her party but due to her age and media reports that she may be suffering the cognition effects of old age. She must now – and soon – decide whether to seek still another term in 2024.

Feinstein has said she's running again, but she would say that under any circumstances because that's what politicians do. Were she to announce retirement, her clout in the Senate, which already has waned somewhat, would vanish and there would be a feeding frenzy among California's ambitious Democratic politicians.

That said, it was at least a 50-50 bet that Feinstein wouldn't seek another term in 2024 even before the devastating poll and her husband's death. There's now a strong probability she won't run, approaching near-certainty.

As that probability sinks in, those ambitious politicians will be maneuvering to become her successor and all eyes will be on Gov. Gavin Newsom.

Newsom won't have any trouble winning re-election this year, barring some cataclysmic x-factor, but what then?

Had Trump won a second term in 2020, the door would have been open for Newsom to make a run for the White House in 2024. But with Joe Biden's victory – and more pointedly, Californian Kamala Harris' elevation from the Senate into the vice presidency – a 2024 presidential run by Newsom seems highly unlikely.

Newsom wears ambition on his sleeve and if he wants to extend his political career, the next logical move would be into the Senate, and there's no better springboard than a landslide re-election as governor this year.

Newsom is certainly not the only California politician who might want to succeed Feinstein. There are probably several dozen Democratic members of Congress who see a senator staring back when they look in the mirror, plus some other statewide officials and big city mayors.

It all hinges on whether Feinstein is ready for a well-earned political retirement.

Dan Walters has been a journalist for nearly 60 years, spending all but a few of those years working for California newspapers. ★

By Bob McGarvey

Some of the news we are hearing makes me think about history repeating itself. Learn from history we are told, or history will repeat itself. History repeats itself in families and in clothes. How often does history repeat itself with conflicts and war? Today, war is between Russia and Ukraine. Russia's leader, Vladimir Putin, is similar to other 'leaders' in history who have no problem killing the people of other countries.

The United Soviet Socialist Republic, or the USSR of the past, seems to be what Russian President Vladimir Putin is trying to create again. Some of the other Baltic countries who used to be part of the USSR are worried about their future right now. I hope that the Russia will not attack the NATO countries. I have always been interested in what happens in that part of the world. Government was my major in college, and the governments of other countries still hold my interest today. I hope that the talking between Russia and Ukraine will stop the war sooner rather than later. Hundreds of Russian soldiers have been killed, and two thousand Ukraine civilians have been killed, at least that is what we have been told by the press. The press like CNN hasn't been able to confirm those figures, but they have come from the Ukraine's State Emergency Service. As long as the war goes on, those numbers will continue to increase.

And Another Thing Learn from History

It seems that over that last few decades, and especially over the last two years, many people have lost how important life is. "Too often we underestimate the power of a touch, a smile, a kind word, a listening ear, as honest compliment, or the smallest act of caring, all of which have the potential to turn a life around." That was said by Leo Buscaglia who was the author of "Living, Loving, & Learning". When we think about what can be done to help others, and how others can help each of us, life can be worth so much more.

It is truly sad when lives are lost in war, suicide, or illness. What I learned when I was growing up was that life is so valuable and precious that it should be more important than anything while we live. I still believe that.

From Bob McGarvey, God bless, and we'll see you next time. ★

CSUS Award Season

rest of the conference as the Big Sky Most Valuable Player.

The 5'9 guard from Lincoln High School in Stockton is the first player in program history to earn the award. Tillman is a bucket getter. Regardless of if she's scoring herself or finding an open teammate, the numbers don't lie. The graduate transfer led the Big Sky in points (20.3 PPG) and assists (6.2 APG) this season.

Tillman ranks 17th nationally in points per game and 10th in assists per game. She is also one of only two NCAA Division I women's basketball players to average at least 18 points and six assists per game along with University of Iowa star Caitlin Clark who ranks first nationally in points and assists per game.

Natabou made quite the impression in her first season playing Division I, unanimously being named the Big Sky

Newcomer of the Year. The 6'5 sophomore is the second player in school history to win the award, alongside Kim Sheehy in 2004-05.

She led the conference in rebounding (11.1 RPG) and field goal percentage (.639) while being sixth in scoring (14.6 PPG). However, that's not all. Nationally, Natabou ranks 18th in total rebounds per game, 10th in offensive rebounds (4.3 ORPG) and fourth in field goal percentage.

The individual awards for Tillman and Natabou continued with the All-Big Sky Conference selections. Tillman was unanimously selected to the first team and Natabou was chosen to the second team.

The Hornets (14-15, 10-10 Big Sky), led by Tillman and Natabou, began the Big Sky Tournament as the seventh seed on March 7 against Weber State (10-19, 6-14). The winner of the tournament receives an automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament. ★

Exhibit in Fertile Ground

Marc Sapoznik, president and CEO of Visit Rancho Cordova California, visited the exhibits during the opening week, accompanied by Anastasia Gaspay, both of Roseville. "Cheryl really has done a phenomenal job with the MACC here, putting different exhibitions in. I can't say enough," Sapoznik said. "These pieces are very evocative and creative and it's always fun to come in here and see the different artworks."

Mike and Allison Rosenberg of Rancho Cordova were also in attendance the first week. Mike is a general education teacher for a charter school in Roseville and Allison is a teacher's aide. "Every time we see there's something new, we like to pop in and check out another new exhibit," Mike said. He likes, "more abstract, outsider art. The weirder the better for me." Allison particularly likes sculptures and loves to see the work created by children.

Garrett Gatewood, Rancho Cordova City councilmember, donated $600 to acquire this Lego artwork created by students of Stephanie Bird at Mills Middle School. He is joined here by Cheryl Gleason of the MACC. "It's an amazing piece of art," Gatewood said. "I love it and I'm a huge fan of Legos." Photo by Margaret Snider

Fertile Ground is at the MACC Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays from March 3 through March 19. Because of the hosting status, there are expanded days and hours the last week of 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Wednesday, March 16, and 1-9 p.m. on Thursday, March 17, with an artist reception from 6-9 p.m. on the 17th. Other than that week, regular hours are 3-8 p.m., Thursdays and Fridays, and 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., Saturdays. Admission is free. The MACC is located at 10191 Mills Station Rd., Rancho Cordova. For more information, call Cheryl Gleason, 916-273-5712, or e-mail cheryl@cordovacouncil.org. ★

The Property Owners of the Elliott Homes, Inc. portion of the RDOSP has engaged Economic & Planning Systems, Inc., to and prepare a report entitled "Rio Del Oro Specific Plan Implementation Plan – Elliott Homes, Inc." (the "EHI Implementation Plan") which ensures that the required facilities will be constructed when needed and that the development within the Elliott Homes portion of the RDOSP shall pay the full costs of infrastructure needed to serve their portion of the Plan Area, except where other funding sources are appropriate and available. As the property owner, EHI has elected not to implement a Special Financing District over their portion of the project to spread the costs of any improvements or facilities not otherwise covered by existing fee programs.
