Story and photos by Susan Maxwell Skinner

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) -In league with Fish and Wildlife Department officers, nature activists have launched a campaign against poaching American River Parkway deer. Although all wildlife is protected and weapons are forbidden in the 26-mile sanctuary, the winter deer breeding season is game-on for illegal hunters.

Deer thrive in concentration in preserves; males live longer and become trophy specimens. When breeding urges divert them, bucks with big racks are unwary targets. The rutting season is now in full swing and though it's hard to prove illegal hunting is increasing, nature-lovers are appalled that it happens at all. Note: The parkway's large homeless population is not held to blame. Villains carry high-tech weapons and cruise quietly into deer territory by night.

"Poachers are opporinists," explains California Department Fish and Wildlife Department Lieutenant Alan Gregory. "Our Parkway provides opportunity. It's accessible from so many points by foot and vehicle. Some hunters kill for the antlers-that's an ego thing-some want meat. Either way, poaching is unacceptable."

nature lover Tim McGinn. A retired builder, McGinn has organized volunteers to post signs, distribute fliers and alert trail users to watch for illegal activity. Hearing gunshots; seeing wounded animals-all Continued on page 3

Vaccine Ambassador Program Launched

Sacramento County Public Health Press Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, (MPG) - Sacramento County Public Health, in partnership with Sierra Health Foundation and Community Based Organization partners (also known as Sac Collab) has launched a community Vaccine Ambassador Program to help communities increase vaccine confidence and increase vaccination rates.

The Vaccine Ambassador Program seeks to address the conditions that affect the health, well-being, and quality of life of under-resourced communities for an equitable and healthier Sacramento. As trusted messengers in their communities, the Ambassadors provide culturally relevant COVID-19 vaccine outreach, communication, information, and community events to support these efforts. Ambassadors are people who live in the communities that they serve and who provide peer support and can share real-world experience and personal reasons for getting the vaccine to inform others.

First formed in June 2020 as a countywide initiative, the Sac Collab supports neighborhoods that data indicates are experiencing the most devastating consequences of COVID-19. The Sac Collab created an infrastructure designed to invest in localized capacity building by training and hiring community members through our partnerships with community-based organizations. Through Sac Collab, we have provided Community Case Investigators, Contract Tracers, Resource Coordinators, Business Navigators, and most recently, Vaccine Ambassadors to support Sacramento County residents. Each partnering organization has a unique historical and cultural knowledge of the community it serves, allowing them to meaningfully connect with and provide support to fellow residents impacted by COVID-19.

Community Based Organizations, Faith-Based Organizations and other agencies can request Vaccine Ambassadors for events and activities such as vaccine clinics, health fairs, family events, holiday events, food distribution, etc.

Council Admits Mistake Concerning Resident E-mails

New Mayor and Vice Mayor Sworn in at Council Meeting

By Chris Ching

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG)

- Whatever the name the new civic center ends up being called-Mills Crossing Civic Center, Mills Station Civic Center, Mills Civic Center 2: Electric Boogaloo-it continues to be one of the city's hot buttons.

Actually, the subject itself has many hot buttons as was demonstrated at the December 20 City Council Meeting.

The most incendiary was fallout from the previous meeting where Councilmembers said unsigned, form letter style emails were sent to them from residents unhappy with the civic center proposal as it currently stands.

This, however, was shown to be not true by residents who appeared before the Council on December 20.

"I have to apologize to the public and the members of the public who are in the audience tonight," stated Councilmember David Sander although he did feel the sender's personal email was not readily apparent.

Other concerns brought up by residents were not enough civic center specific meetings held by the Council with the public (although a meeting with Council Member Sander was acknowledged), demand for proof that resident ideas like a bowling alley and movie theatre were not financially viable, a condescending tone by Council, a disinterest in any solutions not made by the Council or city staff, and even down to the changing of the name of the project in meeting documents and it's placement on the meeting agenda document.

"This is not the Council I elected," said one frustrated resident.

On a happier note, the night also featured the swearing-in of new Mayor Donald Terry and Vice Mayor Linda Budge. Facilities Services Manager Todd Humphrey was also recognized for his

DAR Press Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - On December 21, 2021, the Sacramento Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR), presented 4Paws2Freedom with a donation to acquire shelter and rescue dogs to train as service dogs for Sacramento area veterans experiencing PTSD. This gift is the second of three to the Sacramento region, celebrating the Chapter's centennial anniversary. The first gift funded two Sacramento City College nursing scholarships.

Sacramento-area veterans disabled by PTSD are eligible to apply to participate in 4Paws2Freedom's program which, if accepted, includes free training with a matched dog.

"The Sacramento Chapter is delighted to help local veterans achieve greater independence and healing through being matched and trained with a service dog. Service to Veterans is a significant component of how DAR expresses Patriotism -for us a non-political action word and one DAR's three, overarching pillars," said Janet Fulton, Sacramento Chapter DAR Regent. "Most of us have immediate family members who served and some of us are ourselves veterans."

CHP Valley Division Cracks Down on Highway Violence

California Highway Patrol Press Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The California Highway Patrol's (CHP) Valley Division Investigative Services Unit (ISU) has made seven arrests related to eight incidents occurring from November 2, 2021, to December 5, 2021. These incidents have involved road rage, as well as other criminal activity within Sacramento and San Joaquin counties.

These incidents resulted in five gunshot victims, one of which was paralyzed, and another tragically lost their life. Investigators do not believe any of the shootings are related and have determined three of the shootings to be the result of road rage incidents and two incidents were related to criminal drug activity. The remaining shootings are currently under investigation from engaging in road rage type incidents, which includes verbal, visual, and/or physical confrontations. Never get involved or engage with an aggressive driver, and if you feel you are a victim of highway violence, or observe someone being actively aggressive on the road, immediately call 9-1-1 and provide as much information as possible.

Members of our communities often witness incidents of highway violence, and CHP investigators are asking witnesses to report any unsafe or unusual behaviors they observe. Investigators have determined that even in broad daylight on freeways, uninvolved civilians may witness a crime in progress and may be able to provide valuable information to help with the investigation.

Anyone with information regarding any of these incidents is asked to please contact the CHP Valley Division Investigative Services Unit at (916) 731-6400. ★

SacTax President W. Bruce Lee Wins a Third Term

Sacramento Taxpayers Association Press Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - At their December meeting, the Board of Directors of the Sacramento Taxpayers Association (SacTax) unanimously voted to elect W. Bruce Lee as President for a third term. Last year Bruce valiantly led SacTax to defeat measures to increase taxes that would have contributed to the taxpayers' burden as California faces some of the highest taxes in the nation. Sacramento County's Measure A – a half cent, 40-year sales tax increase; the City of Citrus Height's Measure M – the one-cent sales tax increase with no sunset provision; state Proposition 15 – the split roll property tax; and Sacramento County's COVID-19 health ordinance which would have fined businesses up to $10,000 per incident were all defeated or withdrawn, marking huge wins for SacTax.

Also, earlier this year, Bruce received the prestigious Howard Jarvis 2020 Tax Fighter of the Year award, which honors an individual or group that demonstrates a dedication to protecting California taxpayers. "Bruce is leading by example and helping taxpayers realize their voices and participation can make a difference and I'm so proud to be partnered with him," said SacTax Executive Director, Jack Frost.

During his career, Bruce has twice held elected office as Mayor of Loomis, California and has served as a fiscal advisor at the local, state, and federal levels of government. He currently authors bi-weekly articles titled "We the Government" which is locally syndicated by the Messenger Publishing Group. Bruce is an international speaker and educator on good government, and through his involvement with SacTax, Bruce continuously strives to promote fair and efficient governance.

should be reported, says McGinn. Daylight stalkers—especially off-trail—might not be nature fans. Some return after dark with night-vision goggles, guns or silent cross bows. "Don't confront suspicious people," McGinn warns. "Get license plates, get descriptions. Report what you see."

Lieutenant Alan Gregory watches for slow-moving vehicles on park roads at night. Poachers sometimes shine flashlights into brush from cars. A stunned deer enables an easy kill.

Carcasses are usually hauled off to remove evidence. "I've come across sites with blood and signs of dragging," says Tim McGinn. "I've also found crossbow bolts (arrows) on the ground."

Fair Oaks-based rescuer Ben Nuckolls runs a volunteer operation saving injured wildlife. Recent rescues include a buck, a doe and a turkey—all found wounded by pistol crossbow darts. Rancho Cordova walker Diane Hill discovered the first casualty. "He was one of a deer family I know from my walks," she says. "I've watched him grow up. I called my husband in tears. To me, people who hurt animals have a special place in hell."

Notes Ben Nuckolls: "Pistol crossbows are small and easily concealed. A poacher was obviously at work." He applauds efforts of Tim McGinn's volunteers. "Public awareness is important," he says. "Park rangers can't be everywhere. Citizens can help protect wildlife."

For people like McGinn, the loss of herd leaders is an ongoing tragedy. "Poachers are killing off a fantastic gene pool," he predicts. "I notice bucks are getting smaller. That's another reason I'm desperate to stop the hunting. I looked for a favorite male several years ago. He was a monster, with multiple antler points. I smelled his musky scent in a brushy area—so strong I knew something was wrong. Bucks emit their scent in distress. I found pools of blood, deer hair and boot tracks all around. My heart sunk; I knew I'd never see him again. I'll never forget my lonely feeling.

"That guy was aware of his power but, he was noble and gentle. He had no interest in hurting anyone. I get to know the big males and they know me. I realize when they're gone. I notice fewer mature bucks this season. Yes, old guys can get edged out of herds; they also die naturally. But how come it's always those with trophy class racks that disappear? When they come together in the rut, they're sitting ducks."

McGinn hopes his awareness campaign will result in arrests. "A poacher has a criminal mind," he says. "On our Parkway, animals have no idea what hunting is. And they're up against criminals who'll go to any extent to kill them. It's not a fair contest."

The public is warned against confronting poachers. To report suspicious activity, call (888) 334-2258. ★

The Council also reviewed a series of Municipal Code Amendments including those regarding brewery and distillery tasting rooms, commercial real estate signs and electric vehicle charging stations. For the latter, Vice Mayor Linda Budge championed an amendment requiring new gas stations to feature the new tool. She was outvoted by the rest of the Council who wanted to see instead how the market reacts before forcing businesses to include them.

The Council did decide to go forward with an amendment to allow for breweries and distilleries to not be hampered by how much space they have to allocate to tasting as these businesses have moved outside to serve customers during the pandemic.

They also agreed to proposed amendments to allow commercial real estate signs to only be up during the period a property is being sold or leased and then 30 days afterward. The hope is that the blight of unneeded signs still currently up will be curtailed.

During Council Reports, members detailed the various meetings and events they had attended since the last meeting with a particular spotlight on the city's holiday events.

Young Lady Lancers Give It Their All

Story and photos by Rick Sloan

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - "Being great is playing with heart over skills," says Cordova Girls Basketball Head Varsity Coach Kimberly Little. With this quote in mind, this girls basketball team just might be the greatest I've seen in years. These girls give every ounce of effort and more into the four eight-minute periods of every game they play. They might be down by double digits, but their game attitude never falters. They stay focused and driven to do the best they can with whatever talent they can mustard.

Coach Little is in her fifth season as Head Varsity Coach of the Lady Lancers and has been an active coach at Cordova since 2012. She is also the girls Varsity Softball Head Coach. Coach Kim says that this year's team is made up of what coaches call Covid-19 Kids. After losing a season due to the pandemic, the makeup of this year's team is primarily freshman, sophomores and juniors with very little experience. The key word she uses is "youthful". Their lone Senior, Team Captain Alexis Cornish who unfortunately suffered a torn ACL earlier in the season and Sophomore Co-Captain Justice Johnson-Patterson are doing their best to give their support and leadership on and off the court. With the absence of one or two truly skilled players, the Lady Lancers have had to "rely on playing as a team and not as individuals," said Coach Little. This works for the most part of bringing the ball successfully down court and into the paint but clearly lacks the experience of finishing the drive with a basket. Although the offensive rebounding is very plentiful, the shot percentage is extremely low.

So, what does this really mean? I'll tell you what it means. It means these kids never give up. They keep trying shot after shot after shot. They run up and down the court with the confidence of a veteran. They go up for rebounds, dive for loose balls and sometime fall hard to the wooden floor, but they keep going and going and going like the Energizer Bunny. Sooner or later their passes will find the open player under the basket and those shots will start finding the net. This is what Coach Little means by playing with heart and by George, these kids have it. Miles and Miles of Heart!

The 2021-22 season home games are January 14th vs. Florin, January 19th vs. West Campus, February 2nd vs. Johnson and February 11th vs. Natomas. Game times vary, so please call the school for actual times. I hope to see you there. Go Big Red! Miles and miles and miles of heart. ★

I am working on this column on January 6, 2022, and, like many people, I am looking back at the terrible event that happened to our country's capital a year ago today. Just about every other country in the world watched the insurrection in Washington D.C. and most of them were shocked along with the citizens of the United States of America who couldn't believe what they were seeing. It was another event which is added to a sad part of our history; December 7, 1941, September 11, 2001, and January 6, 2022, in this one event, the attack wasn't from another country.

President Abraham Lincoln said, "Shall we expect some transatlantic military giant to step the ocean and crush us at a blow? Never! All the armies of Europe, Asia, and Africa combined, with all the treasure of the earth (our own excepted) in their military chest, with a Bonaparte for a commander, could not by

If it every reach us it must spring up amongst us; it cannot come from abroad. If destruction be our lot we must ourselves be its author and finisher. As a nation of freemen, we are going to be ZOOM must live through all time or die by suicide.'

Our nation and its freedoms are too important not to pay attention to what is being done by an elected official and by what their followers are doing. We cannot let our country come to an end like President Lincoln said.

COVID-19 variant news. It is hitting our country again and is putting more and more people in the hospital even faster than it did last year. The news broadcasters said 90 to 95% of the people being admitted to the hospital haven't received the vaccine shots. The number of people who are receiving the COVID-19 variant is affecting businesses and some restaurants of the Sacramento County school districts are watching very closely to possibly having to go back to remote teaching. For now however, their students are going to school as usual. Some things which are also being affected by the most current variant of the COVID-19 are that most meetings meetings.

There are many questions I am asking about how Veterans are being affected by the COVID-19. I am asking in the VA Hospital at Mather, and how our former homeless Veterans who are now living in the Mather Veterans Village are doing. I know that I am going back to the the Folsom Lake College Veterans Success Center on campus is closed like the classes on the college campus. The classes there are being held by distant learning until the spring semester begins. They are watching very closely of course, hoping that the virus will start going down again after January.

Carjacking Investigation Continues

By Sergeant Rod Grassmann, Sacramento County Sheriff's Office

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The following information is based on a preliminary and ongoing investigation, which continues to evolve as investigators interview witnesses, review physical and electronic records, and analyze forensic evidence. The Sheriff's Office understanding of the facts and circumstances may change as additional evidence is collected and analyzed.

On December 24, 2021, at 6:00 P.M., the Sacramento County Sheriff's Office Communications Center received a call from an adult male subject who stated they were the victim of carjacking while leaving work at the 9800 block of Business Park Drive in the City of Rancho Cordova. The caller stated that an armed suspect pointed a gun at him and demanded the keys to his vehicle. The suspect then fled the scene leaving the victim in the parking lot. Rancho Cordova Police Officers responded to the victim's location and were able to track the late model Ford Explorer through GPS to the intersection of Walnut Avenue and El Camino Avenue.

Sheriff's Deputies responded to an apartment complex on the 5100 block of El Camino Avenue and quickly located the unoccupied Ford Explorer in the parking lot. As deputies began to set up a perimeter around the complex, an adult male subject appeared to run from the complex and shot multiple rounds at deputies. Deputies returned fire as the suspect ran westbound of El Camino.

The suspect continued firing rounds as he approached another occupied vehicle and attempted to carjack it in the parking lot of a business located on the 5000 block of El Camino Avenue. The Suspect was hit at least one time with gunfire from responding deputies.

Deputies rendered aid to the suspect until Metro Fire arrived and transported him to a local area hospital where he is listed in critical but stable condition. Upon release from the hospital, the suspect, who is well known to local area and state law enforcement, will be booked into the Sacramento County Main Jail for numerous felony charges. No deputies or civilians sustained any injuries as a result of this incident.

The investigation into the incident will be conducted by the Sheriff's Homicide Bureau and Professional Standards Division, which is standard practice for any officer-involved shooting that occurs in the Sheriff's Office's jurisdiction. Independent review of the officer-involved shooting will be conducted by the Sacramento County District Attorney's Office and the Inspector General. In accordance with the Sheriff's Office's policies and procedures, the deputies involved in the shooting will be placed on paid administrative leave pending the investigation.

The initial carjacking which produced this response, occurred in the City of Rancho Cordova within the County of Sacramento. The officer involved shooting incident occurred within the County of Sacramento, therefore this investigation will be handled by the Sacramento County Sheriff's Office.

The suspect has been tentatively identified as a 44-year-old male from Sacramento County. His name will be released upon confirmation of his identity and booking into the Sacramento County Main Jail.

Detectives are asking anyone with information relating to this incident, to please contact the Sheriff's Office at (916) 874-5115 or Sacramento Valley Crime Stoppers at (916) 443-HELP. Tip information may also be left anonymously at www.sacsheriff.com or by calling (916) 874-TIPS (8477).

Should State Provide Health Care to Everyone?

By Dan Walters CALMatters

On paper, having one state agency as the exclucare for 40 million Californians would seem to make sense, replacing dozens of federal, state and private systems and their often bewildering financial and managerial peculiarities.

Centralized health care seems to work fairly well in other developed countries, such as Canada and the United Kingdom, with per capita costs somewhat lower than those in the United States.

The notion has been kicking around in California political circles for years and at one point, the state Senate passed a single-payer bill, although it stalled in the Assembly for lack of a financing mechanism.

The idea resurfaced last week with the introduction of two measures. One to create the framework for such a system in California, the other to ask voters to levy tens of billions of dollars in new taxes, mostly on affluent taxpayers and businesses, to pay for it.

"There are countless studies that tell us a single-payer healthcare system is the fiscally sound thing to do, the smarter healthcare policy to tive if we care about human advance the two comlife," the proposal's chief author, Assemblyman Ash Kalra, said.

"What we're trying to do is get rid of these doz- whether it's private insurance, whether it's employer, whether it's Medi-Cal – put it into one bucket," the San Jose Democrat added.

Kalra has obtained supsive purveyor of health port from a fairly large group of his legislative colleagues and apparently has conceptual backing from Gov. Gavin Newsom, who pledged to work for a single-payer system during his 2018 campaign.

"Doing nothing is not inaction," Kalra said of promises not kept. "It is, in fact, the cruelest of actions while millions suffer under our watch."

The constitutional amendment needing voter support would impose a new excise tax on businesses equal to 2.3% of any annual gross receipts in excess of $2 million, plus a payroll tax of 1.25% of total annual wages on employers with 50 or more workers, another payroll tax on employers tied to workers earning more than $49,900 a year, and graduated increases in personal income taxes on affluent taxpayers.

Estimates of revenues from the new taxes vary but would, it's assumed, top $150 billion a year. Sponsors say the taxes would be offset by eliminating what employers and individuals now pay out of pocket for health care.

Even with overwhelming Democratic majorities in both legislative houses, follow, and a moral impera- it may be difficult to panion measures, since they will face very stiff opposition from private employer groups such as the California Chamber ens of buckets of funding of Commerce and much, if not most, of the current health care industry.

> There are, moreover, some serious practical hurdles. The federal government now pays about half of the state's medical care tab, which approaches a half-trillion dollars a year, through Medicare, Medi-Cal, Obamacare and systems serving federal employees, and civil service and military retirees. The proposal assumes that the feds would, in effect, turn over all of that money, well over $200 billion a year, to the state.

> It also assumes that unions, including those of government workers, would also be willing to throw their health care money into the pot, meaning their often lavish benefits would be equalized with the rest of the state's residents.

> The biggest hurdle, however, may be convincing Californians that a state government riddled with managerial messes such as the Employment Development Department, the Department of Motor Vehicles, the bullet train project and countless failed technology initiatives should be trusted with something as important as medical care.

How Untimely Enrollment in Medicare Part B Can Overwhelm!

Toni:

My husband retired several years ago when he turned 65. He enrolled in Medicare Part A but declined Part B because I put him on my Blue Cross Blue Shield policy provided by my employer. Lately I have read articles concerning failure to enroll in Medicare Part B and the additional cost each year that you delay enrollment.

I have planned to keep my husband on my policy until my retirement in 3 years when I turn 65. The coverage and cost are better than Part B or any additional supplement on the market. I spoke with a representative at the Social Security office and asked if he would be penalized for delaying enrollment in Part B. They said he would not if he provides evidence that he has maintained creditable health insurance.

This information seems counter to what I have been reading or what friends are telling me at church. Help Toni! I am so overwhelmed.

~ Shirley from Dallas, TX

Shirley,

Social Security gave you excellent advice about your husband's Medicare. Many times, in the past, I have written about the famous "Special Enrollment for Employment Information," that needs to have the words "Special Enrollment Period" written at the top in red ink. You will need to have the CMS L564 form signed by your HR department whenever you leave company benefits, to avoid the Medicare Part B penalty.

When enrolling in Medicare Part B, the signed form must be sent by fax or mailed Certified with a return signature card (for your protection) to the local Social Security office. Remember to always make copies of what you send to government agencies.

Shirley, a person must have this form Medicare options.

signed when one is past 65, whether leaving for a new job or simply retiring. This is necessary! The CMS L564 forms from all employment past age 65 must be sent to the Social Security office.

Last week a Toni Says® Medicare column reader visited the Toni Says® office for a Medicare consultation, due to his wife retiring. The husband had already enrolled in Medicare Parts A and B, and they are now experiencing the pain and agony of trying to enroll in a Medicare Supplement/ Medigap as the husband must now answer health questions.

The husband who is 76 with spousal company benefits had enrolled in Medicare Parts A and B in 2015 when he retired. The wife, who qualified for the Medicare Supplement Open Enrollment (6-month enrollment period) because her Medicare Parts A and B are beginning February 2022, did not have to answer one health question because she had filed in December her CMS L564 that the Toni Says® office emailed her. Now she can pick whichever Medicare Supplement plan she desires. I have written about this special 6-month window many times and have stressed the importance of enrolling in Part B at the correct time.

Due to health issues, the husband can only apply for a "guaranteed issue" Medicare Supplement policy because he had been enrolled in Medicare Part B past the 6-month window and has health conditions that keep him from qualifying Period" form called CMS L564, "Request medically. He can only receive a 63-day guaranteed issue period to apply for a Medicare Supplement, instead of 6 months.

> You must have a current company benefits termination letter to prove to the Medicare Supplement insurance company that you are in a guaranteed issue period. No termination letter? Then you might not qualify and will have a Medicare Advantage Plan or original Medicare Parts A and B as your medical plan without a Medicare Supplement.

> For a Medicare Checkup, contact Toni Says® Medicare team at 832/519-8664 or email info@tonisays.com regarding your

You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this Notice of Sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924a of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 916-939-0772 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this Internet Web site http://www.gualityloan.com. using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the trustee: CA-21-893213-NJ. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the sale, you can call 916-939-0772, or visit this internet website http:// www.qualityloan.com, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-21-893213-NJ to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. The undersigned trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the property address may be obtained by sending a written request to the beneficiary within 10 days of the date of first publication of this Notice of Sale. If the trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the trustee, and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. Bera Seeks Re-election for New 6th Congressional District

From Bera for Congress Press

SACRAMENTO COUNTY.

CA (MPG) - Doctor and Congressman Ami Bera (D-CA) announced he is running for re-election to Congress in the newly drawn 6th Congressional District of California, which lies entirely within Sacramento County and includes most of the district he currently represents.

"My family and I are excited to announce that I am running for re-election to represent California's 6th Congressional District in the U.S. House of Representatives," said Doctor Bera.

Doctor Bera has proudly represented Sacramento County in Congress since 2013. As a first generation American, he attended California's public schools from kindergarten through to medical school. Bera served his community for 21 years as a doctor, as Sacramento County's Chief Medical Officer, and then as a Clinical Professor of Medicine and Dean of Admissions at UC Davis, where he taught the next generation of doctors to care for their patients. Doctor Bera has lived in Sacramento County for over 25 years with his wife Janine, who is also a medical doctor. They are proud parents to their daughter, Sydra.

In Congress, Doctor Bera serves as Chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Subcommittee on Asia, the Pacific, Central Asia, and Nonproliferation, where he regularly works with Members in both parties to strengthen America's security and global leadership. Bera also serves as a senior member of the House Committee on Science, Space, and Technology, where he has been a leader in the U.S. response to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Tips For Safe Home Heating This Winter SMUD News Release a fire unattended. Never use lighter fluid or SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - As overnight temperatures drop into the mid and low 30s, families will continue to use furnaces and heaters to stay warm. To make sure you're heating your home safely, review the following simple tips to stay warm this season.

Test your smoke detectors regularly, and make sure you have at least one carbon monoxide detector in your home. Never use propane heaters, barbecues, hibachis – or any heater with an open flame – indoors. They produce carbon monoxide, a clear, odorless gas that can be fatal to humans and animals.

When using electric space heaters, make sure they are completely unobstructed on all sides, and turn them off when leaving the room. Never use an appliance like a kerosene heater, propane gas grill or heater, stove, oven, or dryer to heat your home.

When using a properly ventilated fireplace: Get your chimney inspected and/or cleaned annually by a professional. Use a glass or metal screen in front of your fireplace to protect against sparks, and make sure your damper is open before lighting. Never leave any other type of accelerant to start your fire. Always keep children and pets away from heat sources. Keep flammable materials such as clothing and blankets away from heat sources.

Cold weather can make it tough for some families to stay warm, so SMUD offers programs to help low-income customers save on their electric bills. Eligible customers can take advantage of SMUD's Energy Assistance Program Rate (EAPR), a discount rate that can save customers money on their bill. EAPR customers may also be eligible for our residential weatherization program. Qualified customers can, at no cost to them, have their homes and apartments weatherized to improve energy efficiency and keep down energy costs. Customers needing help with their bills can also apply for the EnergyHelp program. SMUD is not shutting off power, nor charging late fees during this time. For more information on our assistance programs, visit smud.org/financialassistance.

Additional information on safe home heating and SMUD's EAPR program are available at smud.org/Safety or by calling 1-888-742-7683.
