Youth Center Going Strong

CITRUS HEIGHTS, CA (MPG) - Entering the world of a vibrant community youth center mid-afternoon can be a wake-up call to a visitor not used to the controlled chaos created by 45 students (many siblings), from first grade through high school as three shifts begin arriving for their weekday after-school routine.

This scenario repeats itself five days a week at the Sayonara Youth Center in Citrus Heights. Students from neighborhood schools begin to filter into the Center about 2:40. By 4:00 most have arrived. After the dust of the influx of new arrivals has settled, they enjoyed a quick meal.

On this day, McDonald's delivered 50 hamburgers and French fries to the Center. At 4:15 second helpings are up for grabs.

Following the meal, students are free to work or play inside, or outside at the park and state-of-the-art playground next to the Center. There is plenty of supervision by staff and 15 volunteers, along with Director Julie Habeeb and two part time paid assistants, Blair and Zach.

We know education is a proven ladder out of poverty, and we know school is square one for reaching families in need. The new 14,200-square-foot store, which was formerly home to Beverly Fabrics, fills a prime anchor location in the neighborhood retail center located on the border of Citrus Heights and Fair Oaks, near the corner of Madison Avenue and Fair Oaks Boulevard in Citrus Heights. The site had been vacant for more than six years.

Continued from page 1 Sayonara Center features three large open areas adjoining the kitchen, used for various activities including games and hanging out with friends. Three small, enclosed rooms for crafts, studying, homework and tutoring, and a quiet room open into the common area make for a comfortable, "at-home" feeling. Whether in a high energy or quiet area, this is indeed a student's "home away from home."

Older students have table games, couches, and a very large, donated television to enjoy their sports. Sports and outings in the community are also enjoyed.

For future cooks, Mary Bishop, a retired home economics teacher from Granite Oaks Middle School in Rocklin conducts a hands-on cooking class for four different young chefs-to-be twice a month. Participants learn the basics of baking from reading labels, nutrition, measuring ingredients, mixing and pouring those ingredients, and getting them ready for the oven. On this day they made banana muffins after grinding their own wheat flour. Special treats are created for holidays.

Connection, in partnership with the City of Citrus Heights opened the original Sayonara Community Center in two adjoined apartments on the ground floor of a four-plex across from the present location.

As center director since 2012, Habeeb began volunteering at the Center with her church while in high school in 2008. After a three-year absence she returned and was hired as staff.

The mission of the Center is to "develop character, confidence, responsibility and faith in the lives of young people and their families through educational, social, physical and spiritual programs."

This goal is truly what this program is all about.

Staff has provided a simple added incentive to their kids to do their best. Throughout their day they can earn tickets to choose a reward from a glass cabinet next to a sign reminding them "matter, are loved, have a voice, are valued and respected." They earn small toys, stickers and snacks.

One anonymous comment on Sayonara's Facebook page reads, "It takes a village to raise these kids and the center is the majority of these children's village." Hundreds of children are now on their way to a successful life due to their work.

California Farm Bureau Reacts to Groundwater Decisions

California Farm Bureau Press Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - California Farm Bureau President Jamie Johansson responded to the California Department of Water Resources announcement on sustainability plans for the state's groundwater basins.

The agency recommended approval of plans for six California groundwater sub-basins. It declared six other plans to be "inadequate," which will result in a review by the State Water Resources Control Board.

"This action will trigger a process before the water board that will afford local agencies additional opportunities to address identified problems, regain control of their basins and, hopefully, avoid formal probationary status or the imposition of eventual state interim plans," Johansson said.

"Passage of the Sustainable Groundwater Management Act in the 2014 drought year was a seismic shift in California water," he said. "It was never going to be easy to transition on a timeline of just 20 years to eliminate an estimated 2.5 million acre-feet of overdraft a year in our most impacted areas of the state. Historic droughts in recent years have also shown us that we can't simply continue as we have been, and that California must also invest in a more resilient, 21st-century water system."

Johansson added, "California Farm Bureau will work with state and local agencies, our county Farm Bureaus and our agricultural groundwater users on workable solutions to sustain healthy aquifers. Our groundwater supplies are critical for California farmers, including vegetable, fruit, nut, and dairy producers who account for much of America's food supply. It is important that California carefully consider solutions that protect both our aquifers and our food production."

The California Farm Bureau works to protect family farms and ranches on behalf of nearly 29,000 members statewide and as part of a nationwide network of 5.3 million Farm Bureau members. ★

Giving Golden Retrievers a Second Chance

By Judy Andrews

FAIR OAKS, CA (MPG) - The Fair Oaks Chamber of Commerce recently welcomed a new non-profit member who – you might say – is bringing a lot of “gold” to the community. The organization is NORCAL Golden Retriever Rescue and their mission is to rescue and place adoptable Golden Retrievers into loving homes.

As the privileged pet owner of a 13-year-old rescue, this author was personally thrilled to take on this writing assignment to help bring visibility to the non-profit and to a local Golden lovers group doing good in the community.

The first thing to know about NORCAL Golden Retriever Rescue (NGRR) is they do not have a central facility for sheltering dogs. Instead, they rely on an extensive team of well-networked volunteers to help keep everything running smoothly.

NGRR services Northern California to the Lake Tahoe/Reno region and to Fresno and San Luis Obispo Counties. Skilled volunteers are always wanted to support the organization in a variety of roles – from hands-on operations to professional services.

Fostering is at the heart of this rescue where volunteers open up their homes to surrendered Golden Retrievers needing a safe temporary environment. Upon intake, dogs receive a veterinary exam, vaccinations, and are spayed and neutered if needed. NGRR covers all medical expenses while a dog is in foster care.

The non-profit relies on contributions and their online store (www.ngrr.org) to help defray costs.

For the Love of the Breed

Robin Gostovich is NGRR’s Outreach and Special Events Coordinator for the Sacramento and surrounding areas. “Some 400 dogs a year are given a second chance when they find NORCAL Golden Retriever Rescue,” she reports. “We’re always looking for compassionate dog lovers to help out.”

As a long-time owner of Golden Retrievers and a Fair Oaks resident, Robin got involved with the organization eight years ago when one of her daughters found a dog online. Their new dog, Simon, became the first of many Golden Retrievers the family adopted or fostered through NGRR.

Robin has fostered at least 20 dogs. “It’s not hard to give one up when you know it’s going to the right home. Yeah, you may cry when that time comes, but you do what’s best for the dog. It’s always about the dog!”

She is huge advocate for Golden Retrievers and for NGRR – two topics she loves to talk about. “I just want people to know about this amazing breed and what a great job NGRR does for their dogs.”

now have three Golden Retrievers at home: 12-year old Quincy, 10-year old Donne, and 6-year old Hero. Robin likes to say, “Golden Retrievers are like potato chips, you can’t have just one!”

A Group for Golden Lovers

Community outreach is an important part of what Robin does. “Everyone loves to meet our Golden Retrievers. The dogs open up so many doors leading to people and organizations who look to us for support.”

Robin is also the founder of a Northern California group called Norcal Golden Lovers Sac. “It’s through this group and partnerships that we’re able to give back to the community.”

The group hosts fundraisers and accepts donated pet supplies and food for two local non-profits: Growing Past Today and Jake’s Journey. They also donate dog food to the Orangevale-Fair Oaks Food Bank.

Matt Rise owns LogOff Brewing in Rancho Cordova where Robin often hosts fundraisers and social events through Norcal Golden Lovers Sac. He enjoys supporting their activities by bringing visibility to their causes and has even placed a permanent doggy donation bin inside the brewery.

“At LogOff Brewing we love dogs! It’s satisfying to know how much community good has come out of our partnership with Robin and all the volunteer work she does on behalf of NGRR and Norcal Golden Lovers Sac.”

Matt is hosting Barks and Brews on March 26 from 2-6 p.m. “It’s a fun dog-themed event at the brewery benefiting Front Street Animal Shelter. Come meet the vendors and enjoy live music and food,” he says. “Norcal Golden Lovers Sac will be on-hand to accept donations of bagged dog food, leashes, and dog toys for the non-profits they support.”

Meetups and Playdates

Members of Norcal Golden Lovers Sac also team up for fun events, meetups, and playdates with their Golden Retrievers. Robin spearheads a local social Meetup site of 783 members to help spread good will in the community and have some fun, too! The meetups are open to all Golden Retriever owners.

“These dogs make great ambassadors. We are simply Golden Retrievers doing good in the community while enjoying our pups!”

Zack Bayrouy Named Voice of the River Cats

Sacramento River Cats Communications

WEST SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - After receiving interest from across the country, the Sacramento River Cats, proud Triple-A affiliate of the San Francisco Giants, are thrilled to announce Zack Bayrouy as the new voice of the franchise.

Bayrouy replaces long-time River Cats announcer Johnny Duskow, who accepted a position with the Oakland Athletics in January. The Worcester, Massachusetts native Bayrouy becomes the fourth voice of the River Cats, following Jeff Walker (2000), Duskow (2001-2022), and Spanish-broadcaster Jose Reynoso (2000-2008).

“We received an overwhelming amount of interest in the position and Zack quickly separated himself from the pack with his mixture of on-air talent and multimedia experience,” said Chip Maxson, President and COO of the River Cats. “Johnny Duskow was synonymous with Sacramento sports for over two decades and we feel Zack is the perfect heir to usher the franchise and fans into a new era.”

Although from the east coast, Bayrouy is familiar with Northern California, calling games for the Oakland-affiliated Single-A Stockton Ports for 14 seasons, as well as serving as the play-by-play of University of the Pacific (Stockton) men’s basketball since 2010 (13 seasons). He has spent the last three seasons broadcasting for the PCL-rival Reno Aces (Triple-A affiliate of the Arizona Diamondbacks), which included a 2022 PCL Championship.

“I’m beyond grateful for the opportunity to join the River Cats family and be part of an amazing team,” said Bayrouy. “To have the microphone passed to me from Johnny Duskow is one of the great honors of my life. I know what his voice meant to the fans and what his presence meant to the community, and it’s my privilege to continue to build on that legacy in Sacramento.”

Bayrouy made his Major League debut in Oakland on Sept. 3, 2019, calling the game between the A’s and Los Angeles Angels.

Listen to Bayrouy’s River Cats debut on Opening Day, March 31, at the Salt Lake Bees. Catch his home debut on rivercats.com as the River Cats host the El Paso Chihuahuas for Opening Night on April 5 at 6:45 p.m. (PT). ★

Homey Spaces

Are you happy with your living spaces? What if you could be comfy and bring you joy too? You can. Stacy Garcia shared five tips to get there adding warmth and personality, whether it’s a new space or just some changes, when she was on my Radio Show POPPOFF. She is an internationally renowned designer working on the most luxurious hotels and resorts. So let’s check out those tips.

1. THERE ARE NO RULES. Don’t get stuck worrying about the “right” way to set up your home. Pick a style or aesthetic that appeals to you, or mix and match any elements you love. Please yourself and make sure it reflects the way you live. If you spend a lot of time cooking and love bright colors, use tons of color in your kitchen so you feel happy and harmonized. Plaids, stripes, chevron, herringbone – use whatever makes you feel good and work around those choices to create spaces that shine.

2. CREATE ROOMS THAT ARE FUNCTIONAL. Just because your house has a formal sitting room or a wood-paneled office doesn’t mean you need to use it for those purposes. Think about the things you like to do. Create a yoga room, crafting space, gaming room, reading library, garden room etc. There’s no wrong way to translate your personal interests and design tastes into an interior vibe that feels and functions like your own unique home.

3. EDIT YOUR BELONGINGS. It’s easy to get lost in “stuff.” When trying to make your house feel homey, it’s important to edit and curate your things with a critical eye. You may want to display joyful keepsakes from relatives or souvenirs you purchased on a favorite trip, but items from your past just take up space. Choose only the items that make you happy or are useful in some way and then donate the rest or have a tag sale.

4. DESIGN WITH A SENSE OF PEACE. To make a house feel truly homey, it’s crucial to have a welcoming and peaceful atmosphere. You can always bring peaceful design elements to your home – peaceful doesn’t have to mean neutral everything. Bringing the outdoors in with plants and fresh flowers is a great way to foster a calm and natural feeling and also include beautiful colors in your home. Lighting is also important to consider: ensuring abundant light in your home has a positive impact on emotions and goes a long way to create a peaceful and unique vibe. Using fabrics and textures that are comforting and cozy is another way to boost hominess.

5. BE PLAYFUL. It’s fun to have fun and your home should give off a sense of spirit and joy. With so many serious issues in the world, it’s important for your home to be a playful place where you can feel relief from the heaviness of the daily grind. Use your interior spaces as canvases for fun colors, patterns, texture, and artwork that will make you and your guests smile.

Smile with Stacy at www.shopstacygarcia.com and begin your happy home design journey. ★

Social Security Matters

What's the Best Way to Start Receiving My Survivor Benefit?

By Russell Gloor, AMAC Certified Social Security Advisor

Dear Rusty: When one becomes a widow/widower, what is the most efficient way to start receiving the deceased's monthly Social Security. Signed: Still Grieving: There is really only one way to start receiving surviving spouse benefits – you must contact Social Security directly to apply. You can call 1.800.772.1213 or call your local SS field office (find the number at www.ssa.gov/locator) to make an appointment to apply for your survivor benefits. These appointments are normally conducted over the phone, so a personal visit to the Social Security office isn't usually necessary.

The larger question to consider is when you should claim the survivor benefit. Like most other Social Security benefits, your age when you claim determines how much your survivor benefit will be. And a survivor benefit isn't payable in all cases. Consider these points:

- If the surviving spouse is already receiving their own SS retirement benefit and that is more than the deceased spouse was receiving, the surviving spouse continues to receive only their own higher benefit but will get a one-time lump sum death benefit of $255.

- If the surviving spouse's own benefit is less than the deceased was receiving, the surviving spouse's benefit will be based on the higher amount.

- If the surviving spouse has reached their full retirement age (FRA), the survivor's benefit will be 100% of the amount the deceased was receiving. If the widow(er) has not yet reached their FRA when they claim their survivor benefit, the amount will be reduced (by 4.75% for each full year earlier than FRA).

- A survivor benefit reaches maximum at the survivor's FRA. If the surviving spouse hasn't yet reached FRA, they have the option to delay claiming their survivor benefit until it reaches maximum at their FRA. There is one exception to this: if the surviving spouse was already receiving only a spousal benefit from the deceased (and not their own SS retirement benefit), the survivor benefit will be automatically awarded regardless of the survivor's age.

- If the surviving spouse hasn't yet claimed their own SS retirement benefit, they have the option to claim only their survivor benefit first and permit their personal SS retirement benefit to grow (up to age 70). That would be prudent if the survivor's own SS retirement benefit at age 70 will be higher than their maximum survivor benefit at their full retirement age.

- If you haven't yet reached your full retirement age and are still working, Social Security has an earnings test which limits how much you can earn before some benefits are taken away. The limit for 2023 is $21,240 and if that is exceeded, they will take away benefits equal to $1 for every $2 you are over the limit. The earnings test goes away when you reach your FRA.

So, as you can see, there are several things to consider as you decide when to claim your Social Security benefits as a widow or widower. I hope the above information helps you make an informed choice.

Transparency on Local Ballot Measures Faces New Threat

By Dan Walters, CALMatters.org

During every California election cycle, dozens of ballot measures to raise taxes or issue bonds appear on local ballots.

Long-standing state law requires that the ballot include a statement, no longer than 75 words, summarizing what each measure would do. For many years, sponsors would use their 75 words to extol the virtues of their measures, often concealing their true financial impacts.

In 2015, a Republican assemblyman from Big Bear, Jay Obernolte, carried a bill aimed at making the ballot summaries less slanted and more factual, and then Gov. Jerry Brown signed it. Assembly Bill 809 required tax increase measures, including bonds, proposed via initiative to tell voters how much money they would raise (if approved) and how long the new taxes would remain in effect.

Two years later, Obernolte introduced Assembly Bill 195, which extended the disclosure requirement to tax and bond measures proposed by cities, counties, school districts and other local entities. It also added another requirement, that the 75-word explanation of measures be a "true and impartial synopsis" of the proposal "in language that is neither argumentative nor likely to create prejudice for or against the measure."

The latter was clearly aimed at stopping ballot measure sponsors from using the 75-word summaries to campaign for their passage, and Brown embraced that reform by signing AB 195.

Not surprisingly, local government officials and their allies didn't like it, fearing that having to explain the financial consequences of their proposals and abstain from language advocating their passage would make voters less likely to vote "yes" in the adjacent boxes. They complained that meeting all of the requirements in 75 words was impossible and found an ally in Scott Wiener, a Democratic state senator from San Francisco.

Just before the Legislature adjourned its 2019 session, Wiener used the so-called gut-and-amend maneuver to propose legislation that would repeal much of what Obernolte, who is now a congressman, had wrought. It would have allowed sponsors of tax and bond measures to skip including financial impacts in the 75-word statements and, instead, essentially allow them to tell voters, "See voter guide for tax rate information."

While voter guides are useful for engaged voters, it's fair to say that many, if not most, don't read them. They instead rely on the ballot language itself when making their decisions. Wiener won legislative approval of Senate Bill 268, but Gov. Gavin Newsom vetoed it, declaring accurately, "I am concerned that this bill as crafted will reduce transparency for local tax and bond measures."

We're now poised to do it all over again because Wiener is back with an almost identical measure, Senate Bill 532, claiming it would "improve voter transparency into the financial implications of ballot measures."

However, it would have the opposite effect, as Newsom concluded.

Obernolte's requirements are "well intentioned," Wiener said in a statement, but "present massive – and at times insurmountable – challenges to transit agencies, school districts, cities, counties, hospitals, libraries, and other public entities that are legally required to rely on ballot measures to raise critical funds, especially for infrastructure projects."

The 75-word requirements are particularly difficult for complex, multi-tiered tax and bond proposals, Wiener said, leaving "little to no room to explain how the new taxes or bonds will actually be spent to benefit the local community."

Clearly, Wiener wants to make it easier to pass tax and bond measures by allowing their sponsors to once again use the 75-word summary for advocacy, rather than a "true and impartial synopsis."

They should make their case in campaigns, not use the ballot itself for propaganda.

The initial Annual Percentage Rate (APR) is currently 6.00% for a new Home Equity Line of Credit (HELOC), and is fixed for the first 5 years of the loan which is called the draw period. After the initial 5 year period, the APR can change once based on the value of an Index and Margin. The Index is the weekly average yield on U.S. Treasury Securities adjusted to a constant maturity of 10 years and the margin is 3.50%. The current APR for repayment period is 7.25%. The maximum APR that can apply any time during your HELOC is 12%. A qualifying transaction consists of the following conditions: (1) the initial APR assumes a maximum HELOC of $200,000, and a total maximum Loan-to-Value (LTV) of 70% including the new HELOC and any existing 1st Deed of Trust loan on your residence; (2) your residence securing the HELOC must be a single-family home that you occupy as your primary residence; (3) if the 1st Deed of Trust loan is with a lender other than El Dorado Savings Bank, that loan may not exceed $300,000, have a total maximum Loan to Value (LTV) of 65% and may not be a revolving line of credit. Additional property restrictions and requirements apply. All loans are subject to a current appraisal. Property insurance is required and flood insurance may be required. Rates, APR, terms and conditions are subject to change without notice. Other conditions apply. A $25 early closure fee will be assessed if the line of credit is closed within three years from the date of opening. An annual fee of $85 will be assessed on the first anniversary of the HELOC and annually thereafter during the draw period. Ask for a copy of our "Fixed Rate Home Equity Line of Credit Disclosure Notice" for additional important information. Other HELOC loans are available under different terms.

Nottoli Place Shelter Opening for Older Adults

To be eligible for Nottoli Place, Sacramento County individuals of +60 years of age must be involved with Adult Protective Services. Photo courtesy of SacCounty

SacCounty News Release

ROSEMONT, CA (MPG)

A new 15-bed facility for adults aged 60+ will be opening soon in Sacramento County. Nottoli Place, named after retired Sacramento County District 5 Supervisor Don Nottoli, will house older adults who are eligible for Sacramento County's Adult Protective Services (APS) and experiencing homelessness or housing instability.

"It's a high compliment and a true honor to have a safe harbor such as this bear my name," said Nottoli at the soft opening for the facility.

The shelter has 15 rooms. Some rooms will allow double occupancy for spouses or caretakers.

Several community members showed up for the soft opening of Nottoli Place on Thursday, February 23. During the ceremony, Sacramento County District 5 Supervisor Pat Hume highlighted how important it is for the county to have facilities like Nottoli Place.

"The reality is there are people who live good lives who have had bad things happen to them and it is important that society steps up to protect them. Through no fault of their own, whether they are victims of abuse or neglect or being taken advantage of, this is a place for them to come and feel restored, to alter their faith and their hope. And they can have a safe, healthy environment to get back on their feet," said Sacramento County District 5 Supervisor Pat Hume.

Sacramento County, like many other counties in California, has seen an increase in older adults facing housing insecurity and homelessness for the first time due to a destabilizing event or because they are the victims of abuse or neglect. Nottoli Place is meant to provide a safe space for older adults until they are able to find more permanent housing.

"By adding this place that will be a place of comfort and warmth and welcoming we'll be able to address some of that need in our community and for that, I am very thankful," added Nottoli.

To be eligible for Nottoli Place, adults must be involved with Adult Protective Services and be able to live independently or have a care provider to assist them. Applicants must live in Sacramento County.

On-site services will be provided by Volunteers of America, including 24-hour staffing and availability 24 hours per day/seven days a week, daily meals, and laundry services.

Additionally, case management services will be provided with linkages to resources, including longer-term housing. There are rules people must abide by when staying at Nottoli Place. No alcohol or illegal drugs are allowed. Weapons are also forbidden. There is also a pet policy. One animal is allowed per guest. The pet must be vaccinated, and vaccination records are needed upon registration.

For questions about APS eligibility or to report abuse or neglect, call the APS hotline at (916) 874-9377. To learn more about Sacramento County APS, visit defas.saccounty.gov/Pages/Home.aspx. ★

I Wouldn't Do It That Way

Dear Dave,

I have an uncle who wants to gift some property to one of his sons, myself and my sister. The property is about two-and-a-half acres, and it's probably worth around $125,000. My wife and I are trying to pay off debt in Baby Step 2 of your plan, and we're not sure how we feel about the situation. What do you think?

- Dave

Dear Dave,

If your uncle asked me

Dave Ramsey Says

if he should do this, my answer would be no. The thing is, you've got three different sets of people with different lives and very different situations. Not only that, but these three potential co-owners probably have differing ideas about the land and what should or shouldn't be done with it. To me, the whole thing sounds like a big family fight just waiting to happen.

If I were in his shoes, I'd just sell the property and split the money equally between the three of you. It'd be a lot easier that way, and you'd avoid the chance of hard feelings between you and your relatives down the road. Don't get me wrong, your uncle sounds like a kind and generous man. He's trying to be a blessing to all three of you, but it has a very real possibility of causing unintended problems he may not see coming. That's the way I'd handle it, Dave. A couple of acres of dirt split between three people isn't worth all the squabbles and bad feelings it could cause.

ASK THE DMV

'Tis the season to utilize the DMV's most convenient Online Services!

The DMV knows how busy the holiday season can be. You can renew your vehicle registration, update your address, chat with a DMV virtual assistant, and so much more from the convenience of your phone, computer, or tablet. Check some stress off your list this year by using the DMV's Online Services to take care of your DMV to-do list while you're getting your holiday shopping done.

Q: I saw a DMV kiosk at my local grocery store. Can I use it if I can't make it to a DMV office before the holidays?

A: Yes! If you are unable to make it to the DMV before the holiday season, you can use one of the hundreds of DMV kiosks located throughout the state to help complete your vehicle registration renewal, print registration tags instantly, submit proof of insurance, receive a driver or vehicle record, and more. Some are even open 24/7 and are located throughout communities in local grocery stores, libraries, and other convenient locations. To locate the DMV kiosk nearest to you, visit <https://www.dmv.ca.gov/portal/locations/kiosks>.

Q: I will be moving next year, but I want to get my address updated on my driver's license before the holidays. Can I change my address online?

A: Yes, you can update your new address online as long as you already have a valid California ID and your new residence is in the same state that you currently reside in. Before you begin, make sure you have:

Both your old and new addresses.

If changing the address for your vehicle or vessel, you will also need your most recent registration card and the address where your trailer coach or vessel is located (if applicable).

A MyDMV account which can be created online.

Once you have all those items handy, you can start the application process to update your address at dmv.ca.gov/online.

Q: What if I have an urgent question regarding DMV services, but I don't have time to make it into an office before the holidays? Do I have any other options?

A: Yes, a DMV virtual assistant is available 24/7 to help guide you and answer any questions about DMV services. Just click or tap the "Ask DMV" button in the bottom right corner of your screen. The DMV site also features a virtual field office allowing users to start transactions and upload any required documents, which are then reviewed by a DMV customer service agent before contacting you to finish the process.

All DMV offices will be closed on Monday, December 26 – Christmas Day (Observed) and Monday, January 2 – New Year's Day (Observed)

For more information or answers to questions not listed here, Please visit www.dmv.ca.gov/online.

New Ace Hardware to Open in Almond Orchard Shopping Center

back of the store, she said.

“We’re excited Ace Hardware will soon be opening in the Almond Orchard Plaza,” said Natalie Hinkel, vice president for commercial services for the property owner, Sacramento-based Ray Stone, Inc. “We’ve been looking a long time to find the right anchor tenant.”

The new Ace Hardware joins a mix of other long-standing community-oriented tenants in the plaza including The Moth

Hole Consignment Store, Pastry Heaven, KORK Sips & Snacks wine bar, the Lil’ School which has over 100 preschool, kindergarten and summer camp attendees at any one given time, Birchfield Jewelers, a Vitalant blood donation Center, Fabian’s Italian Bistro, Lafitte Music School, Del’s Pizza and the El Gallo Mexican Restaurant.

Hinkel said Ray Stone Inc. continues to look to fill four individual commercial spaces in the plaza just adjacent to the new Ace Hardware, which total some 10,000 square feet suited for office or retail use. Lyons Real Estate, which occupied the largest space, vacated the plaza several years ago.

New Ace Hardware franchise owner Jessica Greenfield said she plans to have a soft opening as soon as July.

While Greenfield said she hasn’t run her own store before, she did spend a lot of time at an Ace Hardware store her aunt and uncle owned and operated in Arnold, in Calaveras County.

Because the Almond Orchard Shopping Center straddles the line between Citrus Heights and Fair Oaks, Greenfield said she expects her new store to draw from both areas and elsewhere.

“I wanted something close to home,” she said. “Really for us, the focus is on my son.”

The center’s owner, Sacramento-based Ray Stone Inc., didn’t want to backfill with just any tenant, said CEO Todd Stone in an earlier news interview.

Ace Hardware’s reputation for customer service fits with the kind of feel Ray Stone Inc. wants in its properties, Stone said. “I think we’re a good fit for each other.”

Ace Hardware has more than 5,600 locally owned stores in all 50 states and 65 countries. Its latest third quarter revenues for 2022 were $2.2 billion, up 10 percent from the same quarter in 2021, according to a November 16 news release from the company. ★

Eggstravaganza Returns to Sacramento Region

Northern California Hosts 31st Annual Decorated Egg Show and Sale

By MPG Staff

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - As the saying goes, "What's that got to do with the price of eggs?" Where art is involved, some eggs become almost "priceless".

It has been a few years, thanks to the chaos of Covid, since the Egg Show and Sale has been able to bring this wonderful art form to the region. This year will be its 31st show and sale.

The City of West Sacramento's Community Center will be the site for the phenomenal show this year.

Diana Macias, Show Director said in her release to the press "We are 'eggcited' to bring our free art exhibit to West Sacramento and offer the community the opportunity to see firsthand artwork created from real eggshells by artists traveling from all over the United States, teaching classes, displaying and selling art and the supplies to create our form of art."

Over the years we have worked with you on several community publications to get the word out to as many communities as possible inviting everyone to come out to the show and learn about this spectacular art form.

Attendees will have the opportunity to learn more about the Shriners Hospital for Children. Shriners volunteers will be at the event and will be available to provide information regarding their organization.

Egg Artists donate artwork that will be raffled with all proceeds benefiting the Shriners Hospital for Children.

This year will also feature a "learning table" for those who would like to learn how to make an egg art project for a nominal fee, also with the proceeds benefitting the Shriners. ★
