

welcome

In this section, we're taking a look at how Zachary lives. Whether it's a dream home on a hill, or one on wheels, what's most striking in these stories is that the occupants have leaned in to what makes a house a home—for them and no one else. Like people, every home tells a story. Here's hoping the place at the end of your driveway is a sanctuary of peace for you and yours.

Dr. Augustus East
East Meadow

Dr. A.L. East, Sr. was a surgeon during the Civil War and lived in the Plains. Dr. East was born in 1840. He fathered 8 children, 2 of whom became doctors.

Dr. Howard Martin
Fennwood

After acquiring the land from Mrs. Anne N. Fenn, he assembled 11 charter members and Fennwood Hills Country Club opened in 1967.

Dr. Thomas Mills

Mills Pointe

Dr. Thomas Lilley Mills practiced from an office in his home and prescribed medicines for his patients from his yard. This home is located on Old Scenic Highway, across from Plains Presbyterian Church. There was a covered bridge on one side of the home, which had seats used for patients waiting to see the doctor.
