

TEA FOR TWO

With “A British Tradition Now in America” as their slogan, Two English Ladies believe the desire for the traditional afternoon cream tea lingers on only to be satisfied on visits back to the “Old Country.” Equipped with old and traditional British recipes, English owners Pat and Claire bring you the original taste of Old England. With a passion for the “genuine,” all their products are made to those original and traditional British recipes without any artificial additives, coloring, preservatives or flavoring. Their products are made fresh weekly with only the purest ingredients.

Enjoy the Store Redding sells Two English Ladies’ dry ingredients for shortbread and scones and of course, tea bags. The store carries traditional and lavender shortbread mixes, lavender English scone mix, Irish Breakfast tea and Buckingham Palace Garden Party tea as well as ready-to-eat original and lavender shortbread cookies. The store typically sells lemon, lime and orange curd and apple cinnamon curd seasonally, with samples located in the refrigerator in the front of the store. Enjoy the Store also sells Two English Ladies’ vinaigrettes, including zesty lemon, lime coconut and orange ginger.
