Lowell Humane Society will be hosting an all you can eat spaghetti dinner fundraiser and sauce contest on Saturday, February 17th from 4pm-6pm at the Lowell Senior Center 276 Broadway St in Lowell. The event is an annual celebration to promote spaying and neutering in the community. In addition to a delicious meal, there will be raffles, a bake sale and silent auction available, as well as The Hawkettes, UML's all female a Capella group and the No Bully Zone dancers providing entertainment. The Lowell Humane Society is still accepting entertainment for the event, if you are interested in performing, please contact the shelter.

The annual SPAY-ghetti Dinner is made possible thanks to The Fruit Center Marketplace of Milton, MA; who has donated the food for the evening's festivities for the past four years. The Humane Society is still accepting sponsors for this event to cover additional costs of supplies.

All-you-can-eat spaghetti, garlic bread, salad and drinks will be available. Tickets are $10, kids eat for only $5. This year you also have the opportunity to enter the home made sauce competition.
