

St. Charles Catholic School

(929 18th Street, San Diego, CA 92154)

Thank you Banner for Southern Division's Thanksgiving Appreciation Luncheon made by students.

We would also like to thank Southland Plaza Shopping Mall owner, Dr. Kimberly Dickson, M.D. and ER Dr. Matt Dickson, M.D., owners of South Bay Urgent Care, Ed Abraham, owner of Coronado Shell, The Guzman Family, owner of Rz Pure Water 8 Stores, and Otay Mesa-Nestor (OMN) residents Joanne, Amenda and Paul, Connie, Tami, Jose, and Chuck for their donations in helping to make this Appreciation Luncheon a huge success.

For more information, please contact SDPD (Southern Division) Appreciation Luncheon's Community Program Founder and OMN community Resident Rodel at r27rodel@gmail.com.

Picture Numbers Corresponds with Numbers below:

- (Picture 2) - Residents Lisa and George (1st and 2nd from left, Southern Division officers, and Resident Jim (1st from right)
- (Picture 3) - Southland Plaza Shopping Mall owner donated two delicious large half sheet cakes with one being made from cupcakes and the other filled with strawberry jelly. The Shopping Mall with over 35 retail, dining, entertainment stores has been serving the South Bay region since the 1980s.
- (Picture 6) - Dr. Cynthia Tuason, D.D.S. (White coat), owner of professional executive building suites, which includes her practice, donated to the Appreciation Luncheon. She and her staff extends their appreciation to Southern Division officers.
- (Picture 7) - Southern Division's Community Relations Officer Liufau (Blue gloves) is helping to prepare the deep fried turkeys. RSVP beloved member and Resident Pat Justice donated 14 turkeys. She is in picture 5 (third from left).
- (Picture 9) - First shift Southern Division officers are arriving with several other shift's of officers coming shortly.