Women's Pro Tennis to Grace Gold River

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG)

- Some of the world's most promising women tennis players will descend on the Gold River Racquet Club to battle for $50,000 in prize money and valuable ranking points at the 5th Annual FSP Gold River Women's Challenger/USTA tournament from July 17 through July 24.

The tournament, part of the USTA Pro Circuit, is the only $50,000 event scheduled for the Sacramento region in 2016. It's expected to attract players ranked between 100 and 600 in the world from 8 to 9 different countries.

USTA Pro Circuit tournaments are a series of entry-level professional tournaments offering prize money from $10,000 to $100,000. Challenger-level events are stepping stones to WTA Tour events and Grand Slam tournaments like Wimbledon and the U.S. Open. Each year, more than half the players in the U.S. Open Women's draw have either played or are currently playing on the USTA Pro Circuit.

For the third year, the tournament is will be part of the US Open Wild Card Series. The American player with the best performance over the course of three consecutive tournaments will receive a Wild Card entry into the Main Draw of the US Open in New York at the end of August. FSP Gold River Women's Challenger is the 2nd tournament in this series with Stockton, CA and Lexington, KY being the others.

Sacramento-based FSP (Freight Solutions Provider) has again

signed on as the tournament headline sponsor. Founded by Lielanie Steers in 1989, FSP is the nation's largest female minority-owned freight forwarder in the United States. An award-winning company that embraces the diverse talents, backgrounds, cultures, and lifestyles of its employees, FSP is consistently recognized as one of the top employers in the Sacramento Metropolitan Area.

All proceeds from the tournament will be donated to the Sacramento Regional Tennis Foundation, which promotes the sport of tennis among youth in the Sacramento region. Programs are held after school and during school hours. The Foundation provides all of the necessary equipment and leadership. The tournament also supports Faces of Tomorrow and St. John's Program for Real Change with special evenings for each of these charities.

The FSP Gold River USTA $50,000 Women's Challenger features a singles main draw of 32 players and a doubles main draw of 16 teams. Main draw play begins Tuesday, July 19, and concludes with the final matches on Sunday, July 24. The qualifying tournament begins Sunday, July 17.

Anhelina Kalinina (above). Brooke Auston (left). For the third year, the tournament is will be part of the US Open Wild Card Series.

Matches will be scheduled throughout the day and evening during the tournament. General admission for spectators is free during qualifying rounds and all main draw day sessions. Admission is $10 per person for evening sessions Thursday – Sunday. Tickets are available at www.goldriverchallenger.com and Gold River Racquet Club during the event.. Gold River Racquet Club is located at 2201 Gold Rush Drive, Gold River.

Raley's Donates Thousands of Kitchen Utensils to Local Charities

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Raley's Family of Fine Stores, in partnership with Bradshaw International, has donated over $80,000 worth of kitchen utensils to various organizations within the community.

In January, Raley's underwent a chain wide conversion from Chef Style brand kitchen gadgets to Good Cook kitchen utensils. The distributor, Bradshaw International donated the remaining Chef Style products, which amounted to over 20,000 individual items, ranging from rolling pins and can openers to paring knives and meat thermometers. This donation is meant to teach kids to cook, help families in need and assist in healthy eating preparation.

"Bradshaw International is pleased to have participated with Raley's in such a worthy cause," said Brice Striggow, Western Regional Sales Manager for Bradshaw International. "Donations like kitchenware products go a long way toward supporting the basic essentials of everyday life and inspiring others to cook.

We are thrilled to be able to keep this support local, donating through organizations that do a monumental job helping those in need every day."

"Partners like Bradshaw International share our vision to support our local communities," said Becca Whitman, Raley's Community Relations Manager. "Their support allows us to bring a great benefit to those organizations serving our communities. These utensils will be helping kids learn to cook and providing comfort to local families."

Recipients included the Food Literacy Center, which teaches low-income elementary school aged children cooking and nutrition to improve their health, environment and economy. "We're excited to help our kids create new memories with our new kitchen equipment," said Amber Stott, Founder, Food Literacy Center. "These are the kinds of tools that allow us to help kids create fond memories--while enjoying the healthy bounty this region has to offer!"

These kitchen gadgets were also shared with the Sacramento Food Bank, as well as Rosemont, Grant and Luther Burbank High Schools through the GEO Academy, whose mission is to teach youth how to create healthy and sustainable communities.

Donations will also be used for the various Salvation Army social services programs in Sacramento County, including the E. Claire Raley Transitional Living Center. "This is an amazing donation Source: Raley's ★

CA Assembly Releases Mandatory Interlock Evaluation

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - On June 28, 2016 the California State Assembly Committee on Business and Professions released an evaluation of Senate Bill 1046, which would mandate ignition interlock devices (IID) for all DUI offenders in California. Their evaluation included a recently released report from the California Department of Motor Vehicles which DID NOT recommend expanding the program statewide, due to the many limitation of ignition interlock mandates for first-time offenders.

In light of the DMV's report, the American Beverage Institute's Managing Director, Sarah Longwell, released the following statement:

"The California Assembly should reject SB 1046 in light of the DMV's new report showing that mandatory ignition interlocks for first-time offenders resulted in a higher crash risk among the pilot program's participants. If the CA DMV cannot recommend expanding the pilot statewide, then the Assembly should take their recommendations for further study seriously before spending millions of dollars on a program that had mixed results at best."

Key findings of the DMV and Assembly Committee reports can be found below.

California Department of Motor Vehicles said in its report on June 17, 2016 titled Specific Deterrent Evaluation of the Ignition Interlock Pilot Program in California:

- "Individuals obtaining an IID-restricted license had a higher increase in crashes, including fatal/injury crashes, compared to DUI offenders whose licenses remained suspended or revoked."
- The AB 91 program is not associated with an increase or decrease in the odds or hazards of a subsequent DUI conviction over the 12-month time period
- The AB 91 program is not associated with a reduction or increase in the odds or hazards of a subsequent DUI incident over the 12-month time period.
- First offenders in non-pilot counties have a 6.1% lower hazards or odds of a subsequent crash relative to those in the pilot counties over the 12-month time period.

"If the IID installation as part of the AB 91 program provisions for a restricted/reinstated driver license is shown to be associated with a negative traffic safety impact (i.e., increased crashes and/or increased convictions), there would be no empirical justification for continuing the AB 91 pilot program or for expanding it more broadly."

The California State Assembly Committee on Business and Professions said in today's Evaluation of S.B. 1046:

"Thus far DMV has not concluded that such a blanket approach is more effective than current law in 54 counties."

Estimates of the fiscal effect of expanding AB91 under SB 1046 to be between $1.6 and $ 1.7 million.

Gas Stations Begin Showing Drivers Hidden Gas Tax

After Legislature Rejects Transparency, Gas Stations Begin Voluntarily Disclosing

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG)

- The California Independent Oil Marketers Association announced that they would begin to voluntarily disclose the costs of the state's Cap and Trade program on a gallon of gas, rebuking the legislature's failure to provide transparency for California drivers. After the legislature refused to disclose the costs Cap and Trade places on a gallon of gas in California, gas stations throughout the state will display custom-made notices that inform drivers that gasoline and diesel prices include a hidden gas tax of about 10 cents to comply with the program's requirements.

"Californians are paying collectively $2 billion per year in higher gas prices because of the Cap and Trade Program according to well-founded and publically-available estimates," said Jay McKeeman of CIOMA, a trade organization for gasoline retailers and wholesalers. "We want to be transparent with our customers about the components of the price they are paying. That's why we are fulfilling this responsibility for our members and the general public."

In 2015, California became the first state in the country to require gasoline and diesel fuel suppliers to pay into Cap and Trade Program which has now generated billions of dollars in revenue for the state. Unlike other taxes and fees, there is currently no disclosure of these added costs.

"When government is collecting a tax worth billions of dollars, it has a fundamental duty to disclose it to consumers," said Assemblyman Tom Lackey (R-Palmdale). "While the Legislature may not value transparency, I am thankful gas station owners are willing to provide it absent a state mandate to do so."

"Especially with the summer driving season upon us, taxpayers deserve to have complete transparency regarding how much they pay at the pump," said David Wolfe, Legislative Director for Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Association. "We appreciate the private sector industry solution to a problem that government failed to address."

Assemblyman Lackey and CIOMA brought forward Assembly Bill 2066 earlier this year. After passing its first committee with strong support, the bill was quietly killed without a vote.

Recalls Made on Protein Drinks from Sacramento Facility

Special Health Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG)

- Out of an abundance of caution and with an emphasis on its customers' wellness and safety, HP Hood LLC is voluntarily recalling certain code dates of protein drinks from its Sacramento, CA, facility, due to the potential for premature product spoilage.

HP Hood is voluntarily recalling specific products after identifying a possible packaging defect that may result in product spoilage during transport and handling. Consumers may notice that, in some cases, the packaging is bloated and product inside may have an off taste or odor. Consumers should not use the product, since it does not meet its high quality standards.

The recalled products are limited to plastic bottles of 14 oz. and 10 oz. MUSCLE MILK® Genuine, MUSCLE MILK® Pro Series, MUSCLE MILK® 100 Calorie, with Best By dates of November 21, 2016 through May 23, 2017, with an "HS" in the code date. This recall applies only to the products listed below. The Best By and code dates are printed on the top of the lid of single serve bottles.

No confirmed reports have been received of any consumer illness nor injuries to date.

If a consumer has any of the MUSCLE MILK® products listed, they should return it to the store where they were purchased for an exchange, or call Customer Relations at 1-877-446-7635 Monday – Thursday 7:45 AM – 4:00 PM CST or Friday 7:45 AM – 2:45 PM CST. ★

Messiah Lutheran Church Invites Families To Egypt:

Joseph's Journey From Prison To Palace, Our Vacation Bible School Program For July 2016

CITRUS HEIGHTS, CA (MPG) - A summer family event called Egypt will be hosted at Messiah Lutheran Church from July 18th-22nd, 2016. Families step back in time at Egypt, exploring the life of Joseph from his time in prison to his time in the palace. Kindergarten age through adults will participate as they meet Joseph and hear his own stories, sing some catchy songs, play teamwork-building games, enjoy some snacks, and watch for God-Sightings as we learn to look for evidence of God all around us every day. Each day concludes at Celebration—a time of upbeat worship that gets everyone involved.

Everyone will have the opportunity to join nearly a million participants in Operation Kid-to-Kid—a project to help fund basic home repairs through the non-profit association Group Cares. With this service opportunity, families' donations will change the lives of other families right here in the United States by helping provide them with a safe place to live. We will also have the opportunity to share in support of Lutheran Hour's efforts to begin broadcasting in Egypt today with the Word of God.

Our VBS program, Egypt: Joseph's Journey from Prison to Palace, will run from 9:00 am. to 11 a.m. each day. For more information, call Messiah Lutheran Church @ (916) 725-4550.

Roberta MacGlashan Retiring from Public Service

By Elise Spleiss

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - Citrus Heights resident and member of the Sacramento Board of Supervisors for 12 years, Roberta MacGlashan, will be passing on the baton for District Four at the end of 2016. MacGlashan was elected to the original Citrus Heights City Council in 1996. She served two terms, including two one-year terms as Mayor in 1999 and 2002. Prior to that, she was the last President of the Citrus Heights Incorporation Project (“CHIP”), following Bill Van Duker and Doug Ose in that position.

In 2004, MacGlashan was elected to the Sacramento County Board of Supervisors, representing the Fourth District. She was re-elected in 2008 and 2012. Following redistricting in 2011, the Fourth District now includes the cities of Citrus Heights and Folsom, and the unincorporated communities of Antelope, Gold River, Orangevale, Rancho Murieta, Rio Linda and Elverta. MacGlashan has decided to retire from public service at the end of her current term on January 2, 2017.

Highlights of MacGlashan’s public service include the selection of the current Citrus Heights City Manager, Henry Tingle; the current City Attorney, Ruthann Ziegler; and working with the other four original City Councilmembers to establish the foundation for the success of the City of Citrus Heights. While on the Board of Supervisors, MacGlashan has been an advocate for public safety, working to maintain and enhance the services provided by the Sheriff’s Department, the District Attorney’s Office, and the Probation Department. She also led the effort to ban marijuana cultivation in the unincorporated area. Other highlights include the opening of “new” Terminal B at the Airport. She estimates that in the last 12 years she has hosted over 500 community meetings throughout the district.

MacGlashan was born and raised in Southern California, and moved to Citrus Heights in 1990 to pursue her career as a planning consultant in the Sacramento area. She and her husband Craig, a retired attorney, have been married for 43 years. She is looking forward to traveling without a set schedule, overseeing some home improvements, and having more time for figure skating, reading for pleasure and volunteering for the California Capital Airshow. She will miss working with all of the wonderful people she has come to know while serving as the Fourth District Supervisor. ★

Dave Says

No more guilt trips!

Dear Dave,
My parents left their six-figure jobs to enter the ministry when I was in high school. That was 10 years ago, and my mom still regularly asks me to share my money with them. I don't mind helping out once in a while, but this has been going on for a long time and I've started feeling bitterness about the requests and their bad financial decisions. My mom also tries to make me feel bad sometimes if I can't afford to give them as much as they want. She constantly references their calling, and that I should want to help with that. How can I stop this pattern?

-Renee
Dear Renee,
This is not a healthy situation for anyone involved. By consistently giving or loaning your parents money, you've lost respect for them in the process. The relationship has become strained, and that's a tough thing for anyone to deal with — especially in a parent-child situation. On top of all that, your mom sounds like a travel agent for guilt trips. It seems like she's working you over while implying it's all really for God. That's toxic.

Going into the ministry is an admirable thing. However, I remember a guy in the Bible named Paul who made tents while he conducted his ministry. I'm paraphrasing, of course, but his line was something like, "If you don't work, you don't eat." He had a job, remember? So, suggesting that someone work outside the ministry while trying to do God's work isn't mean or unfair.

No one should do this to their child, and it's going to be hard to unravel it all and turn it into a respectable situation. I hope everyone will consider sitting down with a mature third party, and developing a situation where you're no longer giving or lending them money.

In the meantime, read a book called Boundaries by Dr. Henry Cloud. After that and some objective intervention, I think this situation will become a lot healthier for everyone.
—Dave

Finding the right motivation

Dear Dave,
My husband and I make $180,000 a year combined, and we have a net worth of about $1.6 million. We've been blessed financially, and lots of times motivated by a survival point of view, but what do you do when you're not motivated by that kind of thing anymore? How do you find and live out God's purpose for your life?

-Lisa
Dear Lisa,
Congratulations on your success! You guys really have been blessed, and it sounds like you've worked hard for your wealth.
If you've ever studied psychology a little bit, you may remember Maslow's hierarchy of needs. Basically, once you get physiological and safety needs met, you feel a need to find other things to motivate you. It sounds like you're a performance-oriented person. So am I. People like us get our relaxation and even fulfillment away from work in different ways than most people.

My suggestion would be to start thinking about ways you can serve and help other people or causes you care about. This could even mean becoming a stay-at-home mom for a while and really pouring into your kids, if you have them. If it's something else, that's okay too. How about this? You've obviously been thinking about this stuff for a while. Take a day all to yourself, away from everything and everybody, and bring along nothing but some food and drink, a bunch of notepads and pencils, and a Bible. Open up your mind and your heart to the things you care about and all the possibilities. You have to have a goal that is worthy in your mind, and you don't have that right now.

I can't tell you what your calling is, Lisa, but I can say this. There's tons of joy and fulfillment to be found when you're working in a way to serve the people and things that matter most in your life!
—Dave

THE NEW FRONTIER

I still can't believe what I saw. While in Orlando a short while ago, I had the opportunity to visit the Kennedy Space Center which is about a 45 minute drive from the mecca of entertainment with make the journey. When you get up close to the 363 foot Apollo Saturn V that carried first the humans to the moon, it makes you feel so very proud. It's even more impressive when you see the actual equipment that got that monster out of our atmosphere. They didn't have the computers we have today. It was done on a wing and a prayer. But they did it. NASA made history and continues to do so.

They had a launch that very morning, so we took the tour out to the launch pads to see the very buildings where the magic actually happens. It looks so serene

Jon McBride who became an astronaut in 1979. As many astronauts before and after him, these daredevils were pilots. Jon flew 64 combat missions over Southeast Asia. But Jon told me it was always his dream as a young boy to become an astronaut. His dream really did come true in 1984 when he piloted the STS-41- 6 Challenger on an eight-day mission with a crew of seven. Today, Jon is a member of the Kennedy Space Center Astronaut Encounter. Here's a fact that really astounded me. The mission to the moon took 12 days to complete.

Getting up close and personal with the first Space Shuttle Atlantis which was in service for 26 years. It is battered and worn, but still a sight to see. Photo courtesy of May Jane Popp Disney World and Universal mStudios and Sea World to mention just a few. But getting a glimpse of what it's like to go to outer space was not only entertaining but absolutely incredible. When you see a launch of one of the rockets carrying a payload or even a shuttle on TV or even in person at a distance, it is impressive.

But it's nothing like getting up close and personal with the first Space Shuttle Atlantis which was in service for 26 years. It is battered and worn, but still a sight to see. I bet it can still until one of those rockets begins the countdown. They told us that the force generated upon liftoff is like that of an atomic bomb going off. On the roof of the Vehicle Assembly Building, you could put Yankee Stadium and still have one acre for parking? It is mind staggering.

In one of two I-Max Theatres, you can see and feel what it's like to be in space. And you can even meet an astronaut and get their personal story of how they achieved their dream of becoming an astronaut. I had the pleasure of speaking with

The next manned mission planned to Mars will take a round trip of 2 years to complete. But I have no doubt it will happen. But there is no "I" in team which it takes to make it all happen. Jon lives by a three-pronged code. 1) You can't do it alone. 2) Always be professional. 3) Always be truthful. Not a bad code for all to follow.

If you ever have the chance to visit the Kennedy Space Center, do it! It will awaken the drive and skill a nation and its people can achieve when they truly have a dream! ★

Reduced Wait at Sac Airport

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Sacramento International Airport (SMF) and U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) announced that two automated Global Entry kiosks are now available for use in the International Arrivals facility in Terminal B. Global Entry members arriving from international destinations use this technology-driven trusted traveler program that enhances security and expedites passengers through the CBP inspection process, reducing wait times for all arriving passengers. Program participants proceed to Global Entry kiosks, present their machine-readable passport or U.S. permanent resident card, place their fingertips on the scanner for fingerprint verification, and make a customs declaration.

The kiosk issues the traveler a transaction receipt and directs the traveler to baggage claim and the exit.
Global Entry is open to U.S. citizens, nationals, lawful permanent residents, and citizens of certain other countries, including Mexican nationals. As an added benefit, Global Entry members are also eligible to participate in TSA Pre✓™, the Transportation Security Administration's program providing expedited security screening when flying with approved airlines, including Aeroméxico.
"Our International Arrivals facility serves over 500 international arriving passengers a day on Aeroméxico from Mexico City and Guadalajara and Volaris from Guadalajara," said Mark Haneke, Air Service Development Manager for Sacramento International Airport. "As SMF's international passenger activity continues to grow, Global Entry is one solution to expediting travelers through the arrivals process and enhancing their experience as they end their journey in Sacramento."

Travelers must be pre-approved for the Global Entry program and participation is voluntary. Applicants pay a $100 non-refundable application fee and undergo a rigorous background check and interview before enrollment. Upon approval, membership is valid for five years.

Indoor and Outdoor (Don't worry about the heat, we have AC!)

By Marlys Johnsen Norris,
Christian Author

A few weeks ago was the first time I experienced hearing this term and it has been stimulating my spirit ever since. It was used in relation to having this occur when a person invites Jesus Christ into their heart and life. We then, are no longer dead in our sins and trespasses because they are washed in the shed blood of Christ when He died on the cross and purchased eternal life for us. “In Him we have redemption through His blood for the forgiveness of sins according to the richness of His grace.” (Ephesians 1:7) “For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.” (Romans 6:23) There is no forgiveness without the shedding of blood! Jesus gave every ounce of His for you and I.

Spiritual Resurrection

Yes, before we knew anything about the Savior of our souls, God knew all about us and our need to be saved from ourselves. He did create us imperfect because He desired us to seek Him with our heart and soul, then - know Him through His Holy Words in the Bible.

The Father of Glory provided for us that we might enjoy the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him, thereby understand the greatness of God and believe. (Ephesians 1:17)

When God calls us – it is to do great things in His name and He provides His spiritual resurrection power to work within us to accomplish the task. This happens when we do love and know Him with our whole heart and when we realize the calling that is revealed by His Spirit. (I Cor. 9 & 10) Every believer has a different calling to be used to honor and glorify the God of Creation and build the church. (Church-regardless of denomination we are ONE!) Let us never cease to give thanks in our prayers for one another.

Together may we “Sing unto the Lord a NEW SONG; FOR He hath done marvelous things; let all the inhabitants of the world STAND IN AWE OF HIM. . Let them praise Thy great name; for IT IS HOLY. . The Lord is clothed in MAJESTY. . Let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us, and not unto us, O Lord, but unto THY NAME GIVE GLORY.” (from the book of Psalms) May the beauty of God’s songs be forever recorded on the computer of your mind!

By Pastor Ray Dare

God wants to bless you financially. He really does. My goal as your pastor is to help you realize God’s blessings financially. Your attitude towards money and how you manage it determines how much God can bless it. Jesus said, “If you have not been trustworthy in handling worldly wealth, who will trust you with true riches?” Luke 16:11. God uses money to test your character and to determine whether He can trust you with more.

Fortunately God gives us principles to follow for financial blessing. In James 5:3, God warns us about the accumulation of money and/or things, “Your gold and silver are corroded. Their corrosion will testify against you and eat your flesh like fire. You have hoarded wealth in the last days.” James 5:3 NIV God says, “You’re hoarding...” He’s not talking about savings in this verse. There’s a legitimate place for savings. God encourages us to save money. But He’s referring to getting more and more, simply for the sake of getting more. Hoarding, so you can just have it. God says that wealth, money, possessions are not to be hoarded, stockpiled, and collected in piles, just for the sake of

Pastor Ray's Encouraging Words

God's Wealth Circulation

having it. God wants wealth in circulation.

Once in a while you’ll read in the newspaper of an elderly person who died. They were in obvious poverty. When the bed mattress was moved, they found hundreds of thousands of dollars. This isn’t somebody who saved their money but who had hoarded it. Why did they do it? They were afraid of losing it. Money had become an end in itself. Accumulating had become the goal of life. They were so afraid of losing money they wouldn’t spend it.

God says wealth is to be circulated not just accumulated. God circulates wealth. He wants you to tap into His Wealth Circulation. How do you do that? You tap into God’s Wealth Circulation when you give back to Him and give to others. Then He blesses you even more; it comes back to you. You use it to give back to Him, to give to others; then it circulates, it comes back to you.

If giving to God is a chore for you, if it’s a duty, if you do it begrudgingly or fearfully, it just means you don’t understand what giving is all about. You don’t understand WHY God set giving up. You don’t understand the incredible promises that God has offered to those who give. You just don’t understand WHY God wants you to give. God doesn’t want you to give because He needs your money. Why does He want me to be a giver then? It positions you for a blessing. It sets into operation the principle of sowing and reaping, the principle that what you give out, you get back -- “Give and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.” Luke 6:38 NIV Giving is not a debt I owe, it’s a seed I sow. Giving is not an expense, it’s an investment. It’s investing into God’s Wealth Circulation.

Instead of hoarding those things I haven’t used in years, I give it away. Give it away to others. Instead of accumulating money just for time here on this planet, I give it away; I store up treasures in heaven. You become a Conduit, a Funnel for God to pour more blessing into so you can bless others even more, so God can bless you even more.

If you’re not going to give back to God, if you’re just going to accumulate and not circulate then why should God bless you with more? Why should God give you that promotion? Why should He give you that raise? More business? If you’re just going to accumulate it and not circulate it?

Don’t miss out on God’s blessing. You can become a Channel, a Vessel that He can circulate His wealth through. When you circulate and not just accumulate, He will trust you with even greater wealth. Make it your goal in life to Circulate, not just Accumulate.

The Squirrel and Birds Controversy

I have learned controversy is what life is really all about. Controversy means there are two sides, one side has no idea what the other side is thinking. Of course, there are those controversies when neither side is actually doing any thinking. That is what is called politics.

Recently. The Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage and I spent a wonderful week’s vacation in Ohio visiting our son and his family.

Early in the morning, I would go to the front porch, sit down with a book and casually enjoy the quietness. One particular morning as I was marinating in the silence, I heard what sounded like an explosion in the tree.

I looked and saw a squirrel racing down the tree followed by two screaming birds. I watched as the squirrel disappeared into some bushes in front of the fence that bordered the property. I could see him standing and staring at the birds who were screaming at him.

He stood like a frozen monument, they finally gave up and flew back up the tree and I saw them go to their nest.

I looked over and saw the squirrel standing there staring up at the tree in the area where the nest was.

I almost went back to my book when I saw out of the corner my eye the squirrel leaping off the fence and racing back up the tree towards the nest.

This went on about six times before I finally realized what was going on.

The birds were up there protecting their eggs, which would soon hatch into little birdies.

The squirrel, on the other hand, saw in that nest up the tree a fresh scrambled egg delicacy. The controversy was between a now pleasure and a future family.

That reminded me of some controversies we have had in the parsonage through the years.

It was the beginning of December and my wife was baking a bunch of cookies she was going to give to certain people for Christmas. I came into the kitchen and discovered to my delight, that there were cookies on the counter but no wife in the kitchen.

I was only going to take one with the belief that she would not miss just one cookie.

That cookie was so delicious, so scrumptious, that I thought it deserved one more cookie for my consumption. After all, she would not miss two cookies.

All I know is, there was squawking and pretty soon she was chasing me not only out of the kitchen but out of the house shouting, “How dare you eat all of those cookies. They’re not for you!”

Controversies are like that. One side believes one way and the other side believes another way and the twain shall never meet. There is the bird’s nest view and there is the fence view. Not to mention, the cookies in the kitchen view.

If my wife did not make the cookies so delicious, I would not be tempted to eat them. In fact, they are so delicious that you cannot just eat one. Or, at least I can’t.

Thinking about that I was reminded what the prophet said, “Can two walk together, except they be agreed?” (Amos 3:3).

I know some controversies cannot be settled, but I think a good relationship deserves coming to some point of agreement.

SB 1146 Turning Christian Colleges Upside Down

Commentary from SaveCalifornia.com

Democrats in control of the California Assembly Judiciary Committee have passed SB 1146 to redefine Christianity at Christian-format colleges by forcing support of the unnatural, unhealthy, unbiblical, and tyrannical homosexual-bisexual-transsexual agenda.

Thursday afternoon, SB 1146 was approved on a party-line vote, with Democrats in favor and Republicans opposed, with the exception of Republican Brian Maienschein of San Diego not voting.

“The First Amendment sets out religious and secular spheres, and we need to keep them separate,” said committee member James Gallagher, a Yuba City Republican. “We don’t want government involved in religion and we don’t want religion controlling government, right? But with this bill, no matter what you do, you’re going to infringe on a religious sphere and have the government deciding what is religious and what is not.”

Another Republican committee member, Donald Wagner of Irvine, said SB 1146 “betrays a fundamental misunderstanding of what faith is.” Wagner said, “Faith is a way of life. Faith comes first,” adding that SB 1146 “derives from a thoroughly flawed perspective” by prohibiting and punishing Christian colleges’ religious principles and practices.

SB 1146 allows students to file lawsuits against their religious-based colleges, challenging the colleges’ right to have Biblical standards on sexuality, gender, and marriage in admissions, housing, employment, student counseling, and outside groups allowed on campus.

For example, the bill forces Christian colleges to allow homosexual and transsexual activists on campus to challenge students’ moral beliefs. SB 1146 would permit homosexual-couple housing and transsexual-policy restrooms on campus, and likely prohibit counseling a student to overcome homosexuality. And SB 1146 would prohibit Christian colleges from firing a professor who becomes a homosexual or transsexual activist, indoctrinating students to support sin.

“SB 1146 is passing because too many colleges and other well-meaning opponents of the bill have made the mistake of lobbying the author, who’s made his tyrannical bill a little less onerous with each amendment, enabling it to advance by sleight of hand,” said Randy Thomasson, president of SaveCalifornia.com, a statewide pro-child, pro-family organization that promotes moral virtues for the common good. “If Christian colleges want SB 1146 defeated, they need to unapologetically mobilize every single supporter to call and demand SB 1146 be defeated. In this election season, they must launch bold religious-freedom campaigns with students in key Assembly districts this summer.”

SB 1146 will next be heard in the Assembly Appropriations Committee in August when the Legislature returns from its month-long recess.

It’s No Scam! State of CA Has Changed Its Electronic Payment Process!

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) -

As of July 1, 2016, the bank that processes electronic fund transfer (EFT) payments for several state agencies has changed from Citibank to Union Bank. This change impacts all California businesses that make electronic payments to the various agencies, including to tax or fee accounts with the State Board of Equalization (BOE).

In addition to the Board of Equalization, the impacted agencies include the Employment Development Department, Franchise Tax Board, Department of Insurance, State Controller’s Office, Department of Health Care Services, State Teachers Retirement System, State Water Resources Control Board, Department of Pesticide Regulation, Department of Industrial Relations, and the Public Utilities Commission.

If you use the BOE’s online payment system to make your payment, no change is required on your part.

However, if you make Automated Clearing House (ACH) Debit payments through the EFT payment processor, visit our new bank and payment processor webpage for instructions. If you pay by ACH Credit, you must notify your financial institution of the new bank information to ensure the correct bank is credited.

ACH Credit transactions with a settlement date on or after July 1, 2016, using incorrect banking information will be returned and may be subject to penalty and interest charges. In addition, any payments that were made to Union Bank prior to July 1, 2016, will also be returned and may be subject to penalty and interest charges.

For more information on EFT payments, visit the BOE’s Frequently Asked Questions webpage. If you have questions about Sales and Use Tax accounts, call our EFT helpline: 1-916-327-4229. For questions about Special Taxes and Fees accounts, call 1-800-400-7115. Additional information is available at www.boe.ca.gov.

Q&A with Buyers & Sellers

This column is here for you as a resource in sorting out buying and selling property. When you ask a question we answer here so everyone benefits. What don't you know about buying and selling property? Let me help.

It's easy, just email your question to us and we share the answer so everyone can learn from it. Email: ellenherrle@hotmail.com or leave a message at 916-761-2108.

Q: Ellen - I am so frustrated - to say the least. For weeks - I have been trying to buy a house I love, but the sellers keep counter-offering my offer. I really want this house, so I keep making counteroffers back. Is there a limit to how many counteroffers buyers or sellers can make? I know it is a seller's market. I think they're hoping a different buyer will come along and make a higher offer. What can I do? Help!

A: I'm sorry for your frustration. It's difficult when you want a house so much but cannot close the deal. Hopefully you're working with a Realtor who can help you handle these negotiations. Unfortunately, there's no legal limit to how many counteroffers buyers and sellers may exchange. In your case, it's possible the sellers are trying to slow down or stall negotiations with you in the hope of a better offer.

Hopefully - you are working with a Realtor who knows how to negotiate and can make sure that you don't overpay for the property. There are ways of giving you the upper hand in getting your offer accepted. Larger deposit, short contingency periods

- good buyer letter and so forth. Good luck with your offer. If it doesn't work out - give me a call. Whether we are working for the buyer or seller, we put forth our 30+ years of experience to get the desired results for our clients. Good luck on your offer. Ellen

For those who get in touch each month you'll also receive one of three pamphlets on buying and selling strategies, and be entered in a random drawing for a dinner for two at one of our great Sacramento or Placer restaurants! Don't spend more than you have too, or sell for less than you deserve by asking the expert first! Call us to help when you decide to buy or sell at 916-761-2108.
