Evie's Garden

By Seti Long

LIVE OAK, CA (MPG) - Ten-year-old Evelyn "Evie" Bowden from Live Oak has received one of the highest honors a Girl Scout Junior can achieve – a Bronze Award. The scout won the award for her hard work in a project that created a wildlife garden for animals being displaced by the Live Oak Hwy 99 widening project.

Bronze Award Projects seek to fill needs within communities by which scouts can help leave a lasting positive impact. Evie hoped that her garden would not just become a wildlife haven but invite the public to enjoy a little one-on-one time with nature. She says, "With increased construction, we want to be sure our wildlife friends have places to rest and find haven," so she designed her garden around bird, butterfly and bee attracting plants. Evie also took into account sustainability, choosing plants that were drought tolerant and perennial.

She was granted a home for her garden at Live Oak Middle School's campus. After knocking on many doors seeking sponsorship, she found a willing partner in Lowes of Yuba City. She drafted a proposal for her plan, outlining her needs to Lowes, which they approved and awarded her with generous donations of plants and materials.

The project itself took over a year from conception to completion and over 20 hours of labor and detailed planning. Evie shares that there were many "bumps" along the way to creating her community wildlife garden, including a lot of "no's" when searching for sponsorship and support. She shares that she refused to allow herself to get discouraged by that or any of the other hurdles she encountered - including plants arriving too early, delays due to the sprinkler system breaking and more.

She says, "I learned some valuable lessons... It's okay when people tell you NO. You shouldn't let it discourage you because someone else is excited about your project and can't wait to tell you YES!" and "It's okay to ask for help, especially with big projects like this where I didn't have a lot of knowledge about where to get started or how long it would take."

Typically, Evie would be honored at a special ceremony where she would receive a certificate, badge and pin for winning the Bronze Award and her huge accomplishment. Due to COVID-19, that will not happen as award ceremonies are cancelled. We wanted to make sure this amazing young woman is recognized for her hard work. Congratulations on your award Evie! ★

Gridley City Council Hears Community Concerns

By Seti Long

GRIDLEY, CA (MPG) - Last week Gridley City Council finished up a series of 4 public meetings wherein they took a close look at the 2020-2021 budget for city departments, including the general fund and enterprise funds, heard reports from department directors and City Administrator Paul Eckert.

Meeting agendas and detailed reports presented to council were posted online at the City's website, in an ongoing effort to maintain transparency for the public, but the Gridley community found some of the proposed rate increases and new fees problematic.

Among the chief concerns of the community were increases to water and sewer rates, along with rate increases for the Feather Flyer and new fees for leaving garbage cans out in public streets for excessive periods or yard sale signs not being removed. Most public outcry centered around the lower income residents' strained financial states due to the COVID-19 crisis and how increased fees would further jeopardize their personal economic recovery.

Among the suggested rate increases were sewer base rates for single family residential homes set at $41.76, electric base rates at $17.70 (up from $15.00) and water base rates up to 1 meter at $29.49 (up from $24.49) with a commodity charge of $1.32. Council reviewed information compiled by Eckert, comparing neighboring municipalities' rates for the same services, including rates from Live Oak, Oroville, Chico. Eckert assured council and community members in attendance that even with these new increases, Gridley's rates would remain some of the lowest in the state.

Council took the time to hear concerns of Gridley residents who spoke at the meeting, along with written submissions, reminding the public that General Fund could not be used towards enterprise funds (sewer, electric, water) and that a lack of increase in charges (some service rates have not been raised in years) could jeopardize the city's chances at much needed grant moneys crucial for future projects. Rate increases, especially in the sewer rates and water, would provide for financial stability for those funds in case of disaster, need of emergency repair, and large projects to maintain functionality such as

Fire Officials Urge Extreme Caution as Fireworks Go On Sale

CAL FIRE/Butte County Press Release

BUTTE COUNTY, CA (MPG)

-With the Independence Day holiday rapidly approaching, CAL FIRE/Butte County Fire Department is reminding all Butte County residents and visitors to do their part to prevent fires caused by illegal fireworks or the misuse of "Safe and Sane" fireworks. On Sunday, June 28 "safe and sane" fireworks will go on sale in the city limits of Oroville and Gridley, as well as approximately 300 other communities throughout California. Although fireworks are a symbolic display of patriotism during this time of celebration, they can be dangerous when handled incorrectly or are used in the wrong environment.

"As we move into dryer, warmer months, wildfire activity is quickly picking up," said Chief Thom Porter, CAL FIRE Director.

"Residents need to understand the dangers associated with the use of illegal fireworks or misuse of legal fireworks. In California, we have zero tolerance for the use of and sale of illegal fireworks. Any person who causes a fire can be held liable for the cost of expression and associative property damage. Often these costs are in the hundreds of thousands and sometimes millions of dollars."

There are also legal ramifications when it comes to certain types of fireworks. Possession or transportation of illegal fireworks such as skyrockets, bottle rockets, Roman candles, aerial shells, firecrackers and other types that explode, go into the air, or move on the ground in an uncontrollable manner can lead to a possible fine of up to $50,000 as well as prison time or jail for up to one year. Even safe and sane fireworks taken into a city or county where they are banned are considered illegal.

"With more families and friends spending time together at home during the holiday, we want to remind everyone the only "Safe and Sane" fireworks are allowed in California and make sure to check your local laws regarding their use," said Mike Richwine, State Fire Marshal. "Only use legal fireworks and only in a safe manner. Use of illegal fireworks or use of any fireworks in an unsafe manner will quickly ruin a celebration and you could be fined and charged for resulting damages."

"Safe and Sane" fireworks are allowed for use in within the city limits of Oroville and Gridley; However, they are not approved anywhere else in Butte County. Before purchasing these types of fireworks, be sure to check your local ordinances and follow the instructions to avoid accidents and injuries.

Fireworks Guidelines:
(1) First check that the fireworks are allowed in the area of use; (2) Make sure the firework has the State Fire Marshal "Safe and Sane" seal; (3) Counterfeit labels do exist, only make purchases from trustworthy vendors; (4) Purchase only from legitimate organizations authorized to sell within California; (5) Have a bucket of water, sand or garden hose available at firing site; (6) Read all instructions before use; (7) Never alter, modify or enhance fireworks – use only in the manner intended; (8) Make sure fireworks have proper clearance from flammable materials including dry grass and brush

Radio store. Dr. Mark Lundberg, county health officer, lunched Wednesday at ABC Chinese restaurant with Memorial Hospital Administrator Chuck Norton, Chief of Police Jack Storne, former Health Officer and Director Dr. Chet Ward, and the Gridley Herald Publisher. We talked about a lot of things relative to Gridley. Rabies and skunks and quarantines was one of them. Cat control was another, Norton briefed Mark on the operation of Memorial Hospital, the expanded services, and the competition that could hurt the hospital. Mark knows a lot about Gridley having grown up in Richvale and shopped in Gridley over the years. Gridley has a new mini Wells Fargo bank located inside Safeway. This week Wells Fargo reveals plans to build more mini banks inside Safeway stores in California. The upstairs plumbing in City hall leaked Wednesday night. Actually, it flooded the upstairs and dripped down into the Finance Office doing considerable damage. The carpeting and walls were minor items compared to the three computers that got soaked. The police discovered the deluge and called the fire department, who turned off the water at about 3 am. The interior of the building is scheduled for renovation when the new police building next door is completed. The flood started the work earlier than planned. It being a slow day, television reporters showed up at city hall yesterday morning to cover "the big flush." The planning commission couldn't muster a quorum Tuesday night. The agenda has been extended to June 24. Emergency 911 was out of order in Butte County for a short time yesterday. The telephone company restored the emergency network before panic settled in. We recommend a vote for the proposal to unify Gridley high School and Gridley Elementary Districts. It will make for more efficient management. Manzanita School District is not involved, it remains an independent district. Unification makes possible one board of trustees, one budget, one planning process from kindergarten to the fourth year of high school. The approval of the unification requires a simple majority of those casting votes. The annual Butte County Farm Bureau family summer barbeque will be held next Wednesday in Expo Hall on the Butte County Fairgrounds in Gridley. The party starts with a social hour at 5:30. The cattlemen will be serving a beef meal at 6:30. Tickets will be available at the door for $10 for adults and $6 for children 6-12. Under that age are free. This is a fundraiser. There will be raffles for $5,000 worth of merchandise.

B-Line Implements Guidance for Use of Face Coverings

By Jim Peplow,
Butte Regional Transit

BUTTE COUNTY, CA (MPG) - In compliance with the California Department of Public Health's Guidance for the Use of Face Coverings (issued June 18, 2020) Butte Regional Transit (B-Line) began implementation of the sections related public transit on Wednesday, June 24.

The document mandates that face coverings must be worn when people are "waiting for or riding on Public Transportation or Paratransit." The guidance also states that a face covering must be worn while "driving or operating any Public Transportation or Paratransit vehicle when passengers are present."

For the past two months the B-Line drivers have already been following that second recommendation by wearing a mask while operating the vehicles while passengers were on board.

Beginning on Wednesday, June 24, passengers are required to wear a face mask while riding in any B-Line vehicle. If the passenger does not have their own face covering, the driver will offer them a face mask (while the supply lasts). If the passenger refuses to wear a face covering while riding, they will be denied service. Understand this is not a B-Line directive, but a mandate from the State. Please do not take any frustration out on the driver, they are just following the State order. ★

Cal Water awarded the $10,000 to the Butte County Fire Department as part of their Firefighter Grant Program, for the purchase of a hydraulic extrication ram, extension, charger, and batteries from Holmatro, one of the world's leading innovators of hydraulic equipment.

"We are grateful to Cal Water for this generous grant to our department," said John Messina, Interim Fire Chief, "This new addition to our toolbox will make a real difference in saving lives in our community."

Governor and Dems Ignore Millions in Budget Deal

By Nghia Nguyen,
Office of Senator
Jim Nielsen

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The Legislature sent the Governor a budget that increases billions of dollars in taxes, prevents funding for charter schools and jeopardizes public safety. This deal was cobbled together with little public input or an agreement that lacked transparency. Senator Jim Nielsen (R-Tehama), Vice Chair of the Senate Budget

Committee, issued the following statement:

"I do appreciate the pro Tem, the Speaker and the Governor for their continued support in Paradise to fund the promised $7.3 Million to the Paradise Irrigation District. This money will help bring clean water to survivors of the Camp Fire.

“It is, however, disappointing that this budget came together without public discussion or representation. Citing concerns with Covid-19, the conference committee

– a forum for bipartisan discussions – was scrapped.

"There is no excuse for the denial of public input and lack of transparency. By cutting out the minority party, the Governor and Democratic lawmakers have denied millions of Californians the opportunity for their voices to be heard through their representatives in discussions and negotiations.

“Californians deserve to have a voice in their government.” ★

Missing Gridley Man's Body Recovered

Robert Voss

By Seti Long

GRIDLEY, CA (MPG) - A sunny afternoon at the Thermalito Forebay Aquatic Center turned grim when lifeguards at the recreation area notified children and families playing in the water that they would need to get out and return to the beach— something was wrong.

It was just after 4:45 pm that officials notified patrons that water access was officially closed due to the discovery of a body floating in close proximity to the beach at the picnic area located off of the Garden Drive access point. Units from Butte County Sheriff's Office, Gridley Police Department and California State Parks responded to the scene, converging on a group of people standing near the shore on the north side of the Aquatic Center.

Unbeknownst to many of the park's visitors, the area was the sight of an active search investigation for a missing Gridley man, Robert Voss. Gridley Police Department issued a missing persons alert for Voss, who had been missing since Thursday, June 25th, 2020. According to his family, Voss had last been seen at 7:30 in the morning, had missed a work meeting and attempts to reach him via cell phone were unsuccessful. Voss's vehicle was discovered later that day unattended at the Forebay Aquatic Center, where a pay-stub for a day-pass put the time of his arrival between 7:30 and 8:00 am.

California State Parks and Recreation established a Command Center at the Aquatic Center and along with the man's family, had been actively searching the area via foot, air and by boat. According to Lieutenant Quihuiz, Gridley PD was notified that a body had potentially been sighted in the water at approximately 2:50 pm on the afternoon of Sunday, June 29th. Officer Jared Cooley responded to the Aquatic Center and spoke with Voss's son, who had spotted the body with binoculars from the shore. Reportedly, after failed attempts to retrieve his father's body by himself, Voss's son notified State Park officials and Sheriff's Department, so authorities stepped in to handle the recovery.

In a heartbreaking scene, Voss's family could be seen standing ashore as State Park officials recovered the body from the water. Officials were as discrete as possible, sheltering the body from the view of the many visitors that packed the picnic and recreation area. Family at the scene positively identified the deceased as that of 68-year old Robert Voss.

As of now, the investigation is still open and waiting for a cause of death ruling, which Gridley Police Department anticipates soon from Butte County Sheriff's Office. ★

Many Benefits to Budgeting

Dear Dave,

Some friends recently introduced me to your ideas for handling money. I've got to admit a lot of it makes sense, but I'm not sure why you're so adamant about budgeting. Can't you get a good idea of your finances by checking your accounts and balances online regularly?

—Parker

Dear Parker,

This is a great topic, especially for those who are new to the idea of getting serious about their finances and gaining control of their money. A lot of folks wonder why I'm so intense about budgeting on paper, on purpose, every month. Part of the reason is they don't understand all the benefits – financial and otherwise – that come with giving every dollar a name.

The financial benefit is a no-brainer, so it's the perfect place to start. I've been teaching people to live on a budget for many years. The reason? It never fails. People who make, and live by, a zero-based budget every month are much more likely to win with money over time. It's not always easy when you're first getting started, but it's worth it.

There's also an emotional benefit to consider. I can't think of many things more stressful than running out of money before the end of the month. If you don't keep a detailed accounting of every dollar that comes in, and where it goes, you're inviting an incredible amount of fear and uncertainty into your life.

Another benefit is where relationships are concerned. Money problems and fights over money are the leading causes of divorce in America. I've seen how proper budgeting principles can bring a sense of healing, hope, and restoration to families. During budget meetings, couples learn to talk to each other like never before. They open up, share their dreams and fears, learn how to draw boundaries, and plan for the future. And this benefit isn't just for the married crowd. Folks who are single can develop more personal discipline, and find accountability, that has an impact on their relationships, too.

It's tempting to think the idea of "on paper, on purpose" is nothing but a catchphrase. But it's so much more. Budgeting is absolutely the key to gaining control of your finances!

Golden State Killer Pleads Guilty

DeAngelo is Sentenced to Life Without Parole

Joseph James DeAngelo Jr.,

Source: Orange County District Attorney's Office

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - According to a press release issued by the Office of Orange County District Attorney Todd Spitzer:

Joseph James DeAngelo Jr., 74, pleaded guilty to 13 felony counts of first-degree murder and 13 felony counts of kidnapping to commit robbery during a 13-year multicounty crime spree that terrorized much of California during the 1970s and 1980s. DeAngelo was identified through Investigative Genetic Genealogy (IGG) in 2018, more than three decades after he raped and murdered his last victim in 1986.

DeAngelo also admitted to 161 uncharged crimes related to 61 uncharged victims, including attempted murder, kidnapping to commit robbery, rape, robbery, first-degree burglary, false imprisonment and criminal threats. The uncharged crimes occurred in Alameda, Sacramento, San Joaquin, Santa Clara, Stanislaus, Tulare and Yolo counties.

The decision by prosecutors to accept DeAngelo's offer to plead guilty to the 26 charged crimes and admit the uncharged crimes was made in consultation with the victims and their family members. The totality of the circumstances, including the age of the victims, the age of witnesses and the death of other key witnesses, and the age of the defendant, were taken into consideration.

This six-county joint prosecution resulted in a guilty plea of:

13 counts of first-degree murder with special circumstances allegations of multiple murders and murder during the commission of rape, robbery, and burglary.

13 felony counts of kidnapping to commit robbery with sentencing enhancements for personal use of a firearm and personal use of a knife during the commission of the offenses.

DeAngelo also admitted to the uncharged crimes of:

Attempted murder, kidnapping to commit robbery, rape, robbery, first-degree burglary, false imprisonment and criminal threats.

DeAngelo's crime spree began in 1975 when he was working as a police officer with the Exeter Police Department. The crimes, which continued long after he was fired from the Auburn Police Department in 1979, escalated from peeping through windows to stalking to rape and serial murder.

The hearing was relocated to the Sacramento State Ballroom to accommodate the large number of victims and their family members in attendance and to ensure social distancing in light of the current COVID-19 pandemic.

"The investigation, identification and prosecution of the East Area Rapist/Golden State Killer has been a long journey for justice – a journey marked by passion, persistence and sheer determination," said Sacramento County District Attorney Anne Marie Schubert. "Through the revolutionary tool of Investigative Genetic Genealogy, this serial rapist and murderer was not only identified and brought to justice but will spend the rest of his life in prison. It is my sincere hope that today brings healing to victims, their families and communities harmed by the atrocious crimes committed by Joseph DeAngelo."

Joseph DeAngelo will be sentenced to life in state prison without the possibility of parole. The sentence will run consecutive and concurrent to his sentence for the first-degree murders to which he has pled. His sentencing hearing will commence on August 17, 2020. Victims will be given the opportunity to deliver victim impact statements prior to DeAngelo's sentencing on August 21, 2020. The sentencing hearing location will be announced at a later date.

His crimes earned him the nicknames of the Visalia Ransacker, the East Area Rapist, the Original Night Stalker, and the Golden State Killer. It was not until April 2018 that Sacramento authorities announced that Investigative Genetic Genealogy had identified DeAngelo as the person responsible. ★

Thoughts to Ponder

by Kathy Neal

Can you imagine what God is thinking and saying when He looks down on His beautifully created and sees His human creations killing – robbing – beating – destroying the world around them?

Once before He did when He decided to wipe man off the face of the earth when they became so evil that God felt He had to start over. One family, of eight people, found favor from God so that they escaped damnation by water. A farmer in a desert area, was told to build a huge boat. He was to save part of God's creation by loading them on an ark for 40 days while the others floated away on the rush of water.

Man was deemed so evil that God had to clean the slate and redo button. Well, look at us now! We shoot people for the shoes they wear. We kill and bury children we no longer want. Businesses are burned to the ground just because. Women and young children are sold into sexual slavery. Old people are pushed aside and left to fend for themselves. Families are torn apart by drugs and alcohol abuse.

Young people search identity as they are exposed to falsehoods that deviate from the rules of nature. If it feels good, do it! No matter who it hurts. Say bad things on social media in order to harm others, but don't worry it won't come back on you. So, what if a 10-year-old commits suicide, he just couldn't handle it. Too, bad.

We were never meant to kill, destroy, and mangle others. That came because of the darkness of sin like hatred, anger, greed, lust, envy, and just plain meanness. We are not born knowing all this. We learn it.

Our world today is coming to a crossroads. I firmly believe when God has had enough of all this mess, He'll call an end or a redo just as he did with Noah.

We've been warned over and over, year after year, decade, century, millennium forever. We have chosen like the people of Noah's time to believe God would not do such a thing. Thank goodness 8 people did or we wouldn't be here now.

As a, modern day Christian, we need to keep God's Word close and believe in His promises and warnings, as Noah did. He is giving signs daily. ★

Dear Dietitian

Menu

Commentary by Leanne McCrate

Dear Readers:

One day last week, I found myself busy during the lunch hour and didn't stop to eat until around 2 p.m. I went to a fast-food restaurant, ordered a small sandwich, medium fries, and a diet soda. It wasn't until later that I realized the moderate-size meal I had consumed contained nearly 800 calories! Holy mackerel! The fries were delicious, but was it worth it?

By now, you've noticed certain restaurants have added calorie counts to their menu items. Although some restaurants began early, as of May 7, 2018, the FDA required calories to be listed on the menus and menu boards of restaurants that are part of a chain of 20 or more locations. The reasoning behind this is so that consumers can make informed choices.

It is estimated that Americans eat one-third of their meals away from home. While fast food is a convenient and relatively inexpensive option, the calories add up quickly. Instead of getting more for our dollar, we get more around the waistline. Increased calories lead to weight gain, and obesity is one of the leading contributors to diabetes, heart disease, high blood pressure, stroke, and possibly some types of cancer.

Is the implementation of calorie counts making a difference? The studies are mixed, but overall, the answer seems to be, "Definitely maybe." In a study published in the British Medical Journal, more than 242 million food transactions were evaluated over three years. The data was collected in fast-food restaurants in the southern United States. After calorie labeling, a decrease of 60 calories per transaction was observed. However, this was followed by an increase of 0.71 calories per transaction over the next year (1).

Particular subpopulations seem to use the calorie counts more effectively. Women, dietitians, and people of higher income levels made healthier choices. The calorie labeling was more effective when a 2000 calorie-a-day recommendation was also posted.

At first glance, it seems the effect of calorie labeling would be easy to measure. People either ordered items with more calories or less, right? However, measuring the impact on society's health is much more complex. For example, after realizing how many calories they were consuming in fast food, some customers may quit going to those restaurants altogether. While this may be a healthy adjustment, it's difficult to measure its impact on public health.

If you have to eat on the run, and fast food is a convenient option, follow these guidelines so you won't blow your health plan:

1. "Small-size it" instead of super-sizing it. Americans love to get more for their money, but in the case of high calories, maximizing the value of your dollar just doesn't pay off.
2. Skip the fries. If you must have them, order a small size.
3. Consider ordering the kid's meal for about 500 calories. Enjoy the toy.
4. Drink water, unsweetened tea or coffee, or a diet drink. A 20-ounce sugar-sweetened soft drink costs about 250 calories; a 32-ounce provides 385 calories; and a 40-ounce soda pop brings in a whopping 500 calories!
5. Ask for sauces, condiments, and salad dressings on the side. Use moderately.
6. Skip the fast meal altogether, and pack a lunch. Of course, this takes time and planning. A sandwich with lean protein, nuts and fruit, baked chips, and a low-calorie drink is all you need.

The implementation of calorie counts on menus may not solve the obesity problem in America, but it's a step in the right direction. Increased awareness and education are vital keys in making healthier choices.

Until next time, be healthy!

Gridley Thumbs and Roots

By Barbara Ott

Has it been hot enough yet? Yardwork can happen in early mornings and evenings when it is 90. A spritz of bug spray and light weight clothing and all is good...not too much sweating. 95-100 degrees can be somewhat doable, simply more sweating. Once it goes over 100 I know I am a snowflake and the whining begins.

Most plants do not like it above 85 degrees. Ever wonder why when it gets really hot 100 plus, tomatoes don't have as much fruit. It is because they like it medium and will tolerate low 90s but their systems start shutting down. Plants will grow and even produce in the 100s but they will be stressed and are more likely to be invaded by bugs.

Heat damage is subtle. Plants die quickly when they freeze, but when they experience too much heat they can hang on in a sickly manner as flower buds dry up and fall off; leaves droop and are munched by insects; leaves lose their green coloring; and roots stop growing. Plants dying from heat can linger on for years, becoming increasingly stunted and chlorotic, until finally enzymes fail and the plant dies.

The American Horticultural Society (AHS) has developed a tool that can help one choose appropriate plants for our climate. The AHS Plant Heat-Zone Map is based on twenty years of daily high temperatures gathered across the county by the National Climatic Data Center. The color-coded map indicates 12 nationwide zones based on the average number of days annually that an area has temperatures exceeding 86 degrees. Gridley is in Heat Zone 8 (91 to 120 days over 86 degrees). Water your plants well during heat days. Some plants do better when shaded on hot days. Be kind to your plants. ★

Slim Randles' HOME COUNTRY

Slim Randles

When the world is hot and my skin is fried, scratching from the constant dry, let the clouds boil up, boil up high. And then shade the earth with the darkening sky and bring the secrets and the smell of rain. The coolness and the blessed rain, again.

Our land is brown but blessed, stressed in the heat, the shiny heat of day. The slender green of rivers slide along, striving to continue, to feed its own along the banks, the banks where the dust rises. Rises, powdery clomp by clomp as we walk, walk the shady way.

The Coolness and the Blessed Rain, Again

And though the heat, the dryness of heat, pushes down our weary feet, we plod along. Ours is the blessing of challenge, to live, to thrive in the heat. To toil and sweat, to make the cold drink at day's end that much sweeter. Sweeter as it goes down, cooler as it falls, dropping the coolness inside us and forcing us to smile. That summer smile.

When the heat falls hard, on many days, unquenched by the dark of night, we ask, in quiet times, we ask. Bring us the clouds, the black-bellied clouds, the clouds that softly hold the heads of gods in their moistening grasp. The clouds, those big-bellied bustlers that hold the violence, the wind, the flashes, the noise. The clouds we wait for and pray for and look for on the western ridge. Let them come, with their silver tops and their bellies black as night and cool as forgiveness. The summer clouds, the clouds that define our culture, our art, our summer, our hot, heavy summer.

A rain, a storm, a suddenness of life and blast and sweet charity designed to keep us living here, here in the rain, here in the sun, and keep us praying, here in the rain, and looking toward the west for more, always to the west, always looking for more.

Brought to you by millions of American kids who can find good things in almost any crisis. Here's to the longest vacation from school. Yay! ★

Gridley Officer Removes Guns and Drugs Off Gridley Streets

Jeffery Robert Lopez was arrested on multiple charges related to illegal drugs. Photo: GPD/ BINTF

By Seti Long

GRIDLEY, CA (MPG)

-On Wednesday June 24th, Gridley Police Department's Officer Anthony Lara conducted a routine traffic stop that ended up removing a convicted felon carrying illegal drugs and weapons from the streets of Gridley.

At approximately 9:00 am at the Burger King parking lot in Gridley, Officer Lara stopped Jeffery Robert Lopez, 40, for an equipment violation. While speaking with Lopez, Officer Lara became suspicious of Lopez and, based on the information provided by Lopez, deemed it necessary to conduct a search of his vehicle. The search revealed that Lopez was in possession of 135 grams of methamphetamine, 16 grams of cocaine, several pounds of marijuana, two loaded handguns, two illegal knives, metal knuckles and more than $14,000 dollars. Butte Interagency Narcotics Task Force was notified and took over the investigation due to the amount of narcotics found. According to a press release from the agency, BINTF measures a "dose" of methamphetamine/ cocaine at approximately 1/10th of a gram. Going by those measurements, Lopez was reportedly in the possession of 1,351 doses of Methamphetamine and 157 doses of cocaine.

Lopez was arrested on multiple charges including possession of a controlled substance with the intent to sell (11351 H&S), transportation of a controlled substance for the purpose of sale (11352 (a) H&S), possession of a controlled substance while armed (11370.1 (A) H&S), possession of a non-narcotic controlled substance for sale (11378 H&S), possession and transportation of methamphetamine (11379 (a) H&S), possession of metal knuckles (21710 pc) and due to his status as a convicted felon, it is illegal for Lopez to be carrying or in possession of firearms.

Lopez was arrested and booked into Butte County Jail. ★

Live Oak City Hall Shut Down by COVID-19

By Seti Long

LIVE OAK, CA (MPG) - Midday on June 24th, just days after reopening to the public, Live Oak's City Hall was closed down by a positive COVID-19 test result.

Live Oak City Hall announced on June 24th, they had closed due to an employee testing positive for the virus, although they were asymptomatic. For the safety of the public and other staffers City Hall will be closed until a deep cleaning could be conducted.

Live Oak City Administrator Aaron Palmer allegedly told the Appeal Democrat that after consulting with officials at the Bi-County Department of Health, he decided to quarantine everyone who had been in contact with the employee and that City Hall would remain closed until after July 6th.

In the meantime, on June 26th, Live Oak shared a message in 3 languages to its residents from Yuba-Sutter Public Health Officer Dr. Phuong Luu that there were an increasing number of COVID-19 cases among families in Live Oak and to remain vigilant about social distancing, to wear facial covering and continue to wash or sanitize their hands regularly. ★

CHEERS & JEERS

By Damian Holbrook

Cheers to Late-Night Hosts

for home-ing their skills. Since the lockdown began, Trevor Noah, Seth Meyers, James Corden and the Jimmys (Kimmel and Fallon) have all been producing shows from their homes that have been timely, creative and, at times, even cozy. But Seth, we need to see more of your dog, Frisbee!

Cheers to Netflix or its garden of mirthly delights. Between The Big Flower Fight, which is like a happier Project Runway for floral sculptures, and Southern-fried soap Sweet Magnolias starring the always wonderful JoAnna Garcia Swisher, the streamer is abloom with reasons to plant yourself in front of the TV.

Jeers to Andy Cohen and Anderson Cooper

for denying us the buddy comedy we deserve. The Bravo guru and CNN anchor (with host Jimmy Kimmel) have been best friends for years, and their hilarious back-and-forth as partners on ABC's Who Wants to Be a Millionaire was enough to convince us that they need to do a gay twist on The Odd Couple as soon as possible.

Jeers to Don't for doing the impossible... giving us too much Ryan Reynolds. The executive producer of ABC's Adam Scott-hosted game show is a social-media scream and total hoot as Deadpool, but his frequent and mostly forced voice-overs during Don't are about as excessive as an overly excitable studio audience. ★

ASK MATT

BY MATT ROUSH TV Guide Senior Critic

Will Another Network Pick Up Cancelled Single Parents?

Question: Is there any word on Single Parents being picked up by another network? The talented adults and kids were so refreshing to watch. It was one of the funniest and well-written comedies on TV. – Marianne

Matt Roush: As is typically (though not always) the case, it seems unlikely this comedy will be shopped around or picked up elsewhere, given that it was an in-house production (since 20th Television and ABC Studios were co-producers, all under the Disney umbrella). I'm not aware of much poaching going on of castoffs this year, which could be a reflection of business being anything but usual these days.

Question: I have just found and binged the two seasons of Titans on DC Universe. I like free trials and figured I'd give it a go! So, since I literally

Matt Roush: From what I can tell, Titans was unable to film the third season (in Canada) before the shutdown, so you're in for a wait. But if this is your sort of thing, you might be interested that another DC Universe series, the sort-of spinoff Doom Patrol, launched its second season on June 25 on DC Universe and HBO Max.
