Jesuit Wins Robotics Championship

By Patrick Larenas

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Jesuit High School students this summer took top honors at an international collegiate-level robotics competition in Longmont, Colorado.

For a third consecutive year, the all-boys Catholic school team 'Rovotics' dominated the high-tech competition's Explorer class. At the same time, teen engineers from sister high school St. Francis (Sacramento) topped the event's Ranger division.

The 2023 Marine Advanced Technology Education (MATE) championship included underwater designs entered by student teams from 12 countries. The event aims to further climate change understanding, implementing solutions through science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM).

The Jesuit boys worked to develop 'Tardigrade,' a Remotely Operated Vehicle (ROV) that executed specific underwater tasks following the mission specs sent out by MATE. Evaluated in an Olympic-sized pool beside other teams, their robot scored highest overall points.

Rovotics CEO Timothy Monroe attributed the triumph to team organization. "It's rare that you find a group of people that work together as well as we do," he considered. "Combined with expertise and the help of our coaches, we were able to perform exceptionally well."

"This year, Jesuit's approach was to focus on sharing knowledge and lessons learned over the years with the broader robotics community," he added.

Jesuit's participation in the competition serves to inspire younger students not only towards high-tech career fields but also provides them an opportunity to market their ideas in the fast-paced world of commerce. ★

Ride with The Bike Patrol

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - Four opportunities to ride with a Bike Patroller have been announced by the American River Bike Patrol. The get-acquainted rides are part of the patrol's current membership drive and are open to cyclists 18 and over.

Ride-alongs, led by bike patrollers, will take place on Aug. 5, 12, 19 and Sept. 9, starting at 9 a.m. "If you like helping others and can ride a bike, these get-acquainted rides provide opportunities to hear, see and experience what bike patrollers do," said Recruiting Adviser Tim Viall.

"We're doing this now, as our final first aid class of the year occurs on Sept. 30 in Sacramento. That will be the last chance to become a bike patroller, this year," said Viall.

The Bike Patrol is an all-volunteer unit that provides safety patrols on over 69 miles of bike trails beside the American River and on the El Dorado Trail. "We help trail users stay safe and provide emergency bike repairs and first aid," said Viall.

The Aug. 5 ride-along will start from El Manto Access park on the American River Parkway in Rancho Cordova. The Aug. 12 and 19 ride-alongs will start from the Streg Volunteer Center at William Pond Recreation Area in Carmichael. And, the Sept. 9 ride-along will start from Black Miner's Bar at Folsom Lake State Recreation Area in Folsom.

To reserve a place at the presentation and 30-minute ride-along, email tviall@msn.com or call 209-969-3875. Participants must bring a bike to ride.

Bags of Swag at Midas Giveaway

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - A back-to-school giveaway dispensed more than 250 backpacks and scores of pencils, pens, erasers, calculators, thumb drives and note pads to local students, courtesy of the Carmichael Midas auto shop last weekend.

"Kids and parents were lining up even before we began the giveaway," reported Midas store owner Kurt Swanson. "We felt great being able to support the community in this way. School supplies are a major expense for families." The businessman also sprang for shave ice treats for more than 800 Saturday visitors.

Swanson's volunteer team was joined by 2022 Golden Gloves champion Lorenzo Powell (20), who stuffed satchels with supplies and posed for selfies with fans. "I love doing this," enthused Powell, who is scheduled to turn pro later this year. "I hope meeting me and seeing of the kids I shook hands with today will end up a world champion."

Congressman Ami Bera Has Been Busy

Bera's Office Recovers More than $16 Million in Federal Benefits for Sacramento County Constituents

Office of Congressman
Ami Bera, MD

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - U.S. Representative Ami Bera, M.D. (CA-06) announced on July 10, 2023, that his office has now surpassed $16 million in casework dollars successfully returned to constituents in Sacramento County.

Since taking office in 2013, Bera's office has resolved more than 26,000 cases for constituents and returned over $16.2 million dollars. These casework dollars are secured by helping retrieve constituents' backlogged veteran's benefits, stalled tax refunds, Social Security and Medicare issues, and more.

"I am proud of the work my office has done to assist the residents of Sacramento County," said Representative Ami Bera. "These casework funds represent real help for our community, whether it's resolving issues with federal agencies, securing benefits owed to individuals, or providing support during challenging times. My office remains committed to serving the people of Sacramento County and we will continue to advocate for their needs, fight for their rights, and provide assistance wherever possible."

Constituents in need of assistance are encouraged to visit Bera's website: bera.house.gov/casework or contact his office at (916) 635-0505.

Small Business Chief, Bera, Highlight Impact of Investing in America Agenda

EXCERPTED FROM USSBA RELEASE

On Thursday, July 6, U.S. Small Business Administrator Isabella Casillas Guzman joined Congressman Ami Bera (CA-6) in Sacramento, California to visit with local small business owners, as part of the Biden-Harris Investing in America Tour. The stop highlighted how the Investing in America

Agenda is creating jobs, rebuilding America's infrastructure, and boosting American manufacturing while also helping to lower costs and create opportunity for small business owners.

Guzman and Bera began the day with a round table discussion featuring local entrepreneurs and nonprofit leaders, hosted by The Impact Foundry, a Sacramento-based organization that has provided strategic guidance to California nonprofits since 1989. Administrator Guzman shared how the SBA, as part of the Biden Investing in America Agenda, is committed to making it easier for nonprofits to help their communities by expanding access to capital for historically underserved entrepreneurs. Participants discussed how the SBA and the Biden-Harris Administration can continue to support the nonprofit sector by helping connect nonprofits with the resources they need to thrive.

In the afternoon, the two visited Sacramento small businesses: Tecma, Inc., a second generation-owned aerospace parts manufacturer, and La Mini Birriera, a new mother and daughter-owned restaurant in the Natomas area. In touring these small businesses and listening to the stories of their respective owners, they saw firsthand the spectrum of successful small businesses driving Sacramento's economy.

The U.S. Small Business Administration helps power the American dream of business ownership. As the only go-to resource and voice for small businesses backed by the strength of the federal government, the SBA empowers entrepreneurs and small business owners with the resources and support they need to start, grow or expand their businesses, or recover from a declared disaster. It delivers services through an extensive network of SBA field offices and partnerships with public and private organizations. To learn more, visit www.sba.gov.

Representative Bera also made a recent stop in North Highlands to address local constituents at the monthly "Lunch Bunch" gathering at Pancake Palace, held each first Thursday at 11:30 at 6225 Watt Avenue.

Bera had flown overnight from Washington D.C. for many local meetings during the day, with this stop being his first. He answered many questions from the locals in attendance, who didn't hold back with their many questions about the problems facing our nation. He stayed and took even more questions at the luncheon concluded before leaving for his next event. ★

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - California Capital Airshow (CCA), presented by Sacramento County in partnership with the City of Rancho Cordova, is seeking interested community members who would like to bring the annual Airshow to life September 23-24, 2023.

More than 1,000 community members make up the corps of volunteers each year, who assist in creating an unforgettable experience for event attendees and exhibitors. Volunteers will be fed and provided with water throughout the day, in addition to receiving a commemorative 'Airshow Crew' t-shirt, the chance to make some new friends and the CCA's deepest gratitude for supporting this nonprofit event.

The annual Volunteer Rally for 2023 was held at the Rancho Cordova City Hall on Wednesday, July 19. The rally, which served as the official kick-off to volunteer planning and coordination for the Airshow, provided interested community members with the opportunity to learn more about the event, but the CCA is still in need of many more volunteers to fill their ranks for the weekend show.

"Airshow volunteers play a vital role in supporting CCA's mission to inspire young people using the power and magic of flight," says Darcy Brewer, Executive Director of California Capital Airshow. "They build a great deal of community around this, all while experiencing the behind-the-scenes excitement of producing a massive event."

Volunteers are brought together by their passion for aviation, community and friendship. The Airshow is looking for adults, age 18 and older, to volunteer their time on Saturday, September 23 and Sunday, September 24, 2023.

School of Rock Musicians perform for Carmichael Chamber of Commerce members during a "Salute to the Arts" luncheon program.

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Music, magic and visual arts were the focus of a recent Carmichael Chamber of Commerce program.

The event showcased art-related businesses in the community. Sacramento Fine Arts Center was represented by artists David Peterson and Paul Dessau. Photographer Laura Berard displayed images.

In lieu of the Chamber's typical civic speaker – a mini variety show entertained members.

Veteran magician Dale Lorzo and assistant Elaine produced bouquets and magically multiplied dollar bills. Solo entertainer Clemon Charles rocked with guitar and vocals. Duo Del Gomes and Susan Skinner presented jazz standards, accompanied by piano and clarinet.

Students from Carmichael's School of Rock presented a finale of covers ranging from Led Zeppelin to Fleetwood Mac hits.

All artists were Chamber members who offer their skills professionally.

"Featuring our artists like this was a first for us," said Chamber CEO Julie De Prada-Schott. "We love to show that art can be business; and that Carmichael is a vibrant center for creativity and entertainment. Our members loved the program, so we hope to make it an annual event. A community without the arts would be a dull place, indeed."

Find an Advisor with the Heart of a Teacher

Dear Dave,

I'm a widow, and I retired recently. My husband took care of most of our finances. We never had any debt, but after my husband died and I started learning a little bit more about how money works, I'm concerned too much of it may be invested in CDs. The total nest egg is a little over $1.5 million, with $300,000 of that in CDs. There's also a $317,000 annuity, a 403(b) and around $900,000 in IRA mutual funds. I want to learn even more about financial matters, so how do you think I should handle things going forward?

– Naomi

Dear Naomi,

Well, the CDs

Dave Ramsey Says

(Certificates of Deposit) give you stability, if nothing else. They're generally considered a safe, low-risk investment, but they don't really give you the best bang for your bucks. If you've had good luck with a variable annuity, that's fine, too. It sounds like you've also been very fortunate with your mutual fund investing. So, with all this money in different areas, you're definitely diversified.

In my mind, it's just a matter now of wrapping your arms around it all and developing a deeper understanding of things going forward. I'd urge you to find an investment professional in your area with the heart of a teacher. I'm talking about someone who wants to help people, and is interested in more than just making money off fees or commissions.

It sounds like you understand the value of learning about this stuff, and I'm really impressed by that. It's a smart and necessary thing. From here on out, every time you see an investment person—whoever it may be—your goal should be to leave the room smarter, and with more financial understanding, than you had before.

Naomi, I'm truly sorry about your husband. But you two did an amazing job with your finances over the years. You're worth well over $1.5 million, and you have no debt. So, you're basically set for life.

Be wise, and be careful, Naomi. God bless you!

California's 63-Year-Old Higher Education Plan Could Use A Reality Check

By Dan Walters, CALMatters.org

As California's population exploded in the 1950s and 1960s – surpassing New York to become the nation's most populous state in 1962 – its political leaders responded with sweeping plans to satisfy burgeoning demands for public services.

New freeway routes were plotted to carry millions of additional cars. State and local bond issues were drafted to build schools for the baby boom. New dams and canals were designed to increase water supplies. And, a master plan was written to unify California's colleges and universities.

Six decades later, California's population is nearly three times larger, but stalled at just under 40 million and has been declining slowly.

Many of those once-planned freeways never got past the planning stage, public school enrollment is declining, the California Water Plan has mostly been built (but still has a bottleneck in the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta), and the much-vaunted Master Plan for Higher Education remains on the books but never achieved the seamless pathway to low-cost, universal student access it envisioned.

While the demand for higher education is huge, and while the state's economy rests on having a highly trained and educated workforce, the state's three collegiate systems – the University of California, California State University and more than 100 locally managed community colleges – remain more competitive than cooperative.

If anything, friction among the systems has been increasing as they squabble over academic turf and compete for financing in a state budget that struggles to pay for all of its spending.

The 1960-vintage master plan, whose two political fathers were UC's legendary president, Clark Kerr, and then-Gov. Pat Brown, delineated the roles that all three would play.

UC would be the state's premier research institution while providing high-intensity undergraduate and graduate educations, with degrees up to doctorates. CSU would educate teachers, engineers and other professionals and offer both baccalaureate and master's degrees. Community colleges would provide two-year associate degrees, prepare students for transfer to four-year schools and also offer job-oriented, sub-professional training.

Demands from students that outstripped supply and budgetary pressures have eroded the demarcation lines. Community colleges have begun offering some limited baccalaureate degrees, encountering stiff opposition from the state university system, while state universities have sought, with some success, to award doctorates, thereby encroaching on UC's jealously guarded turf.

Virtually every legislative session is marked by at least one conflict over competing ambitions of the three levels. One current measure, Assembly Bill 656, which has passed the Assembly and is pending in the Senate, would give CSU broad new authority to award doctorates.

Meanwhile, there has been constant friction over the transfer of credits from one level to another, with community college graduates often frustrated about gaining admission to four-year schools, despite the master plan's promise.

Although there's an official goal of boosting the number of community college students transferring to four-year schools from 89,000 to more than 120,000 by 2022, a year later fewer than 100,000 were making the transition, CalMatters recently reported.

"Of the students enrolled in a community college in California who said they wanted to transfer to a four-year university, an average of 9.9% went on to enroll at a four-year institution in 2021, the most recent data available," reporters Adam Echelman and Erica Yee found.

UC is opposing a measure, Assembly Bill 1749, that would make transfers easier.

These two situations – competition for degree authority and the difficulty community college students face in transferring – indicate once again that the Master Plan for Higher Education is broken. If it's worthwhile having such a plan, it should be worthwhile to make it relevant to 21st-century realities, not 1960s theories.

When Should My Wife Claim Her Social Security Benefits?

By Russell Gloor, AMAC Certified Social Security Advisor

Dear Rusty: My wife turns 65 in November of 2023. She was born on 11/21/1958. I am a year younger with an 8/1/1959 birthdate. I know my wife is not at full retirement age, but the difference in her SS payment is not much and collecting 3 years of the lower amount far exceeds her waiting until age 68. My question is: because half of my SS is more than her SS, if she retires this year, will she still get 50% of my SS when I retire?

Signed: Planning Our Future

Dear Planning: Spouse benefits are one of Social Security's trickiest areas, so you're wise to get answers before either of you claim benefits. The short answer is, "No" - if your wife claims her own benefit this year, she will not get 50% of your benefit when you later claim. Here's how it works:

Born in November 1958, your wife's full retirement age (FRA) is 66 years plus 8 months, which she will attain in July 2025. Born in August 1959, your FRA is 66 years plus 10 months, which you will reach in June 2026.

Your wife will get a "spousal boost" to her personal SS benefit if her FRA entitlement is less than 50% of your FRA entitlement but, if she claims before reaching her FRA, her monthly payment when you claim will be less than 50% of your FRA entitlement (taking her own benefit early affects her total payment amount as your spouse). If, instead, your wife waits until her own FRA to claim her SS retirement benefit, her payment when you later claim will be increased to equal 50% of your FRA entitlement.

I assume your reference to your wife "waiting until age 68" refers to her age when you claim at your FRA, but there is no reason for your wife to wait past her own FRA to claim benefits because her spousal benefit will not be more if she waits longer. So, the question is whether your wife should claim this year and get a reduced payment when you later claim or, instead, wait until her FRA to claim her own benefit and get her maximum benefit later. And that depends on 1) whether your wife is working, and 2) what her life expectancy is:

1. If your wife is working and claims early SS benefits, she will be subject to Social Security's "earnings test" which limits how much she can earn before some benefits are taken away. The earnings limit for 2023 is $21,240 and, if that is exceeded, SS will take away benefits equal to $1 for every $2 she is over the limit. The earnings limit lasts until she reaches her full retirement age.

2. If your wife's life expectancy is long (average for a woman your wife's current age is about 87), then maximizing her monthly benefit by waiting until her FRA to claim is likely her smartest choice.

If your wife's FRA entitlement is less than 50% of your FRA entitlement, waiting until her FRA to claim will result in getting her full personal amount first and then later her maximum entitlement (including her spousal boost). If she claims now, her later payment (which includes her spousal boost) will be less than half of your FRA amount. If your wife's life expectancy is at least average, waiting until her FRA to claim will likely yield the highest cumulative lifetime benefits.

But if your wife isn't working full time, by claiming now (vs. at her FRA) she would get her reduced personal benefit for an extra 2 years. If you divide the amount your wife would collect over those two years by the difference between her current benefit amount and her maximum spousal amount (half of your FRA entitlement), you will see how long it would take for your wife to recover those 2 years of benefits. And if her life expectancy is less than that length of time, then claiming earlier is likely the right move.

Pentagon Approves Hazard Pay for U.S. Troops in Ukraine, Paving Way for Possible Expanded Presence

28 July 2023 | There's been more confirmation to emerge concerning the American military presence in Ukraine, and its expanding role in the conflict, bringing NATO dangerously closer into a potential hot war with Russia. "The Pentagon has authorized additional hazard pay for U.S. troops serving in Ukraine, a defense official confirmed Thursday," according to the publication Military Times. "The bonus, known as imminent danger pay, is offered to troops who serve in areas where they could be harmed by hostile fire or mines, insurrection, civil war or terrorism." The statement also interestingly said that qualifying troops in Ukraine will be authorized back pay as far back as April 24, 2022--which strongly suggests a significant U.S. presence inside the war-ravaged country since then, or from the opening months of the conflict.

Biden Cut a Massive Check to Ukraine After Forcing a Family to Pay $60,000 to Move Soldier's Remains

27 July 2023 | In the latest tactic of President [sic] Joe Biden's "put America last" agenda, the administration cut another massive check to Ukraine while families of lost soldiers are being forgotten. This week, the Biden administration approved another 400 million in additional military aid for Ukraine, making it the 43rd time the U.S. has sent weapons from its supply to the foreign country... The aid package includes air defense missiles, armored vehicles, and small drones. It was approved through Presidential Drawdown Authority (PDA), which allows the president to transfer articles and services from U.S. stocks without congressional approval in emergencies. However, several critics question whether the Russia-Ukraine war should still be considered an emergency... This comes as reports reveal a family who lost their daughter in Afghanistan while serving the U.S. was billed $60,000 to move her remains to her final resting place.

Democratic presidential candidate RFK Jr. denied Secret Service protection by Biden administration

28 July 2023 | Robert F. Kennedy Jr. said Friday the Biden administration has denied him as a 2024 presidential candidate Secret Service protection. Since the assassination of my father in 1968, candidates for president are provided Secret Service protection. "But not me," tweeted Kennedy, in a long-shot bid to beat President [sic] Biden in the Democratic primary. "Typical turnaround time for pro forma protection requests from presidential candidates is 14-days," he also said. "After 88-days of no response and after several follow-ups by our campaign, the Biden Administration just denied our request." According to the Secret Service website: federal law authorizes the agency to "provide protection for major presidential and vice presidential candidates."

FBI Told Delaware U.S. Attorney It Had Already Partially Corroborated Biden Bribery Claims, Source Says

24 July 2023 | When the Pittsburgh FBI office briefed the Delaware U.S. attorney's office on evidence implicating Hunter and Joe Biden in a bribery scheme, the agents also told the Delaware team they had already corroborated several aspects of the confidential human source's claims, an individual familiar with the briefing told The Federalist. On Thursday, Sen. Chuck Grassley, R-Iowa, released the FD-1023 summary of a confidential human source's reporting that the Ukrainian oil and gas company Burisma paid Hunter and Joe Biden each 5 million in bribes so the then-Vice President would "protect" Burisma "from all kinds of problems." Those bribes were in addition to the more than 4 million in total paid to Hunter Biden and his business partner Devon Archer for sitting on Burisma's board of directors.

New Zealand's former COVID tyrant Jacinda Ardern appointed to censorship role at Harvard

25 July 2023 | Former Prime Minister of New Zealand Jacinda Ardern has been rewarded with a prestigious fellowship at Harvard University. As the Berkman Klein Center (the Center) at Harvard reports, "The Berkman Klein Center for Internet & Society at Harvard University is thrilled to announce Jacinda Ardern as its first Knight Tech Governance Leadership Fellow." Ardern herself claims she will "address online harms... and violent extremism online..." According to the Center, whose past scholars have worked with Matt Taibbi on The Twitter Files, Ardern will be at the forefront of the fight against a new threat -- "algorithmic harms."

mRNA COVID Vaccines May Be Triggering 'Turbo Cancers' in Young People - Experts

28 July 2023 | Experts are seeing a puzzling rise in cancer in people under 50 that appears biologically different from late-onset cancers. While some claim cancer rates have been rising for decades and attribute the increase to sugary drinks, lifestyle, and sleep disruptions, others say mRNA COVID-19 vaccines have caused an emergence of "turbo cancers"--and U.S. regulatory agencies have not addressed the ever-growing problem. Although there is no official medical definition for what doctors are calling "turbo cancers," the term is commonly used to define aggressive, rapid-onset cancers resistant to treatment--primarily in young, healthy individuals following COVID-19 vaccination. These cases often present in a late stage with metastasis and quickly turn fatal. "What's happening is these cancers we're used to seeing, their growth patterns and their behavior are completely out of character... So 'turbo cancer' is something that wasn't there and, all of a sudden, it's everywhere," Dr. Ryan Cole, a pathologist and CEO of Cole Diagnostics, said in an interview on EpochTV's American Thought Leaders. ★

Former Correctional Sergeant Found Guilty of Perjury in Cover-Up of Assault of an Inmate

U.S. Department of Justice News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - On July 17, 2023, a jury found a former California state correctional officer guilty of perjury in connection with a federal grand jury investigation into a conspiracy to cover up an assault of an inmate, U.S. Attorney Phillip A. Talbert announced. Following a three-day trial, Brenda Villa, 32, of North Highlands, was found guilty of one count of perjury.

According to the court records and evidence presented at trial, Villa was a correctional sergeant supervising other officers at California State Prison – Sacramento (also known as New Folsom State Prison or CSP-Sacramento) when correctional officer Arturo Pacheco unlawfully assaulted an inmate under color of law. Following the assault and the inmate's death, the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR) initiated an internal investigation. As the CDCR internal investigation proceeded, a federal grand jury began investigating federal criminal charges in conjunction with the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the U.S.

Attorney's Office.

Villa was called to testify in front of the grand jury about her role and the actions of her fellow officers in covering up the unlawful assault. Villa lied under oath to the federal grand jury investigating the incident.

This case is the product of an investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation with assistance from the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation. Assistant U.S. Attorneys Michael D. Anderson and Rosanne L. Rust are prosecuting the case.

Former correctional officers Arturo Pacheco and Ashley Aurich pleaded guilty and were sentenced to 12½ years and 21 months in prison, respectively.

Villa's sentencing will be scheduled in front of U.S. District Judge William B. Shubb at a future court hearing. The next hearing in the case is on Monday, July 24, 2023. Villa faces a maximum statutory penalty of five years in prison for perjury and a $250,000 fine. The actual sentence, however, will be determined at the discretion of the court after consideration of any applicable statutory factors and the Federal Sentencing Guidelines, which take into account a number of variables. ★

County Recognizes Resource Families at Appreciation Picnic

Sacramento County News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - Sacramento County's Department of Child, Family, and Adult Services (DCFAS) hosted its first post-pandemic Resource Family Appreciation Picnic. The last time the event was held was in 2019. On Saturday, July 22, staff took time out of their weekend to show their support and gratitude to dozens of resource families at the picnic. Over 70 staff members volunteered at the event, which took place at William Land Park.

There were kids' activities, games, and raffles during the picnic. DCFAS provided meal and dessert tickets for food trucks and families were given tickets to the Sacramento Zoo, Funderland, and Fairytale Town. Several community partners also attended the event and provided information and educational materials to families.

Resource Families, also known as foster families, provide loving homes to children who are unable to be safely maintained with their parents. While reunification is always the primary goal, many resource families also provide legal permanency for children when reunification cannot be achieved. Sacramento County recognizes the tremendous contributions of resource families and all the ways they make a difference for the children and families in our communities.

"The impact our Resource Families make on the lives of the children and youth we serve is immeasurable. They are both a safety net and a bridge for healing and are often our greatest facilitators of change. We appreciate our partnership with our Resource Families on behalf of all efforts being made for the kids and families we serve," says Sacramento County's Deputy Director of Child Protective Services Melissa Lloyd.

The picnic celebrated current resource families, however, DCFAS also wants to take this opportunity to acknowledge the need for more families to provide this critical service. While there are many homes in the community prepared to care for very young children, the areas of most need are for our adolescent and teen populations, as well as for sibling sets and children with medical needs. The Sacramento County Resource Family Approval (RFA) program offers training, support, and guidance to resource families. Learn more on our Resource Family Website. ★

Caltrans Marks 50th Anniversary

Caltrans News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Fifty years ago this month, the State of California established a new Department of Transportation (Caltrans) to unify a wide range of transportation functions under a single entity. Since July 1973, the department has managed one of the most complex transportation systems in the nation and helped play a vital role in creating the world's fourth largest economy.

Five decades later, Caltrans continues its mission to deliver a best-in-class experience for all Californians, regardless of the mode of travel they choose.

To honor the milestone, Caltrans has released an updated history page on its official website. This new content traces the state's transportation roots from 1895 when the Bureau of Highways was formed and chronicles key developments and noteworthy projects spanning to the present day.

Crowds Max Out Park Concert

By Susan Maxwell Skinner

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Rejoicing in cooler weather, Saturday's Carmichael Park concert audience hit a new record with more than 2000 fans in attendance.

Funk/rock big band Hipper Than Hip was the attraction.

The event kicked the music season back to high gear after triple-digit temperatures postponed a July 15 show and curbed concert attendance the following weekend.

Carmichael native Todd Morgan – with backing group the Emblems – headline this Saturday. Remaining 2023 acts are:

August 12: On Air (classic hits).

August 19: Latin Touch (Latin).

August 26: Dyana and the Cherry Kings (rockabilly).

September 8 (Friday): Wasted Space (rock) 6 pm.

On September 24 (Sunday) Todd Morgan and the Emblems will entertain at Gibbons Park, 4701 Gibbons Drive, Carmichael. Downbeat is 5 pm. ★

California Gets 101 New CHP Officers

CHP News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The newest members of the California Highway Patrol (CHP) were sworn in today during a graduation ceremony at the CHP Academy in West Sacramento. The 101 officers are part of the CHP's multiyear recruiting campaign to fill 1,000 vacant officer positions by hiring qualified individuals from California's diverse communities.

"I want to commend these men and women, not just for the hard work they put in the past several months while training at the Academy, but for their willingness to serve the public," said CHP Commissioner Sean Duryee. "These new officers are valued members of the CHP who are committed to improving safety in California for many years to come."

CHP Cadet Training Class I-23 is one of six cadet classes scheduled to attend the Academy in 2023. After completing 26 weeks of instruction at the CHP's live-in training facility, the newly sworn officers will report to various CHP offices throughout the state.

At the CHP Academy, cadet training starts with nobility in policing, leadership, professionalism and ethics, and cultural diversity. Additionally, cadets receive instruction on mental illness response and crisis intervention techniques. Training also covers vehicle patrol, crash investigation, first aid, and the apprehension of suspected violators, including those who drive under the influence. Cadets also receive training in traffic control, report writing, recovery of stolen vehicles, assisting the motoring public, issuing citations, emergency scene management, and various codes, including the California Vehicle Code, Penal Code, and Health and Safety Code.

The "Join the CHP 1,000" campaign launched in 2022 to appeal to a wide array of prospective applicants who may not be aware of the life-changing opportunities that awaits with a CHP career. Apply today and be one of the 1,000 new CHP officers ready to make a difference.

The mission of the California Highway Patrol is to provide Safety, Service, and Security. ★

Bankruptcy Filings Rise 10 Percent

Report from U.S. Courts.com

Personal and business bankruptcy filings rose 10 percent in the twelve-month period ending June 30, 2023, compared with the previous year.

According to statistics released by the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts, annual bankruptcy filings totaled 418,724 in the year ending June 2023, compared with 380,634 cases in the previous year.

Business filings rose 23.3 percent, from 12,748 to 15,724 in the year ending June 30, 2023. Non-business bankruptcy filings rose 9.5 percent to 403,000, compared with 367,886 in the previous year.

Bankruptcy totals for the previous 12 months are reported four times annually. Filings over any 12-month period have increased only rarely since filings peaked in 2010. Bankruptcies fell sharply after the pandemic began in early 2020, despite some early COVID-related disruptions to the economy.
