Koobs Reserve Reopens Gates

by Susan Maxwell Skinner

Koobs Nature Area last weekend celebrated a first open day in more than two years. Exuding optimism of early spring, trees were in leaf; red bud bushes in blossom and birds busy nesting. Children gamboled. Parents and strollers circled trails on the fouracre reserve.

Part of the old La Sierra High School, the fenced habitat is a little-known Carmichael treasure on Engle Road. The property was acquired in the 1960s, through school and community fundraising. It is named for La Sierra science teacher and activist Earl (Ranger Jack) Koobs. In years since the school shuttered, volunteers have continued upkeep. Local school kids visited on field trips and first-Saturday open days gave access to the public.

During the long COVID hiatus, maintenance work continued and scaled-down Memorial and Veterans Day events raised flags. In tune with County guidelines, open days were put on hold. Gates reopened last Saturday to nearly 90 kids and 70 parents. "It was a cold day, so we back into the community with outdoor activities that feel safe. We have a different theme each open day, as seasons change. Once families discover us, they tend to come back, month after month."

Owned by San Juan School District, the Koobs property is protected from development as long as its environmental educational function continues. "Having the community here to learn is the reason the Nature Area exists," notes Volunteer Linda Rose Jones. It's a valuable outdoor classroom where students can experience the natural environment."

Resident wildlife is part of a diverse eco-system, that includes insects, reptiles, small mammals and a bat nursery. A bird sanctuary, Koobs provides nesting and hunting oases for hawks, wood ducks, hummingbirds, western blue birds and woodpeckers. Egrets and herons visit a small pond. In damp niches, a wide variety of lichen and fungi thrive.

A children's scavenger hunt inventoried plants and critters during last Saturday's open day. Girl Scouts sold cookies. Sun dials, paper snowflakes and seed bombs were crafted at workstations. Parents enjoyed relaxing hours in the fresh air-punctuated by birdsong and the whoops of happy kids.

Koobs Nature Area supporters include Carmichael Kiwanis Club, La Sierra Alumni, California Montessori Project School, Carmichael Recreation and Park District, the San Juan School District, La Sierra High School alumni, volunteer gardening groups and Boy and Girl Scout Troops. Open days run from 10 am to 2 pm on first Saturdays every month. For information go to Koobs Nature Area's Facebook page.

Microbusiness Grant Program to Make Big Local Impact

By Allison Harris, Sacramento County

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG)

Sacramento County encourages microbusinesses in the county that have been adversely affected by the pandemic to apply to receive relief grants of $2,500. The new Microbusiness Grant Program is funded by the State of California's Office of the Small Business Advocate (CalOSBA) and administered by Sacramento County. These new microbusiness grants do not need to be repaid, and the application period will be open April 1-29, 2022.

Often operating as solopreneurs, freelancers and small business owners, a microbusiness typically receives less than $50,000 in revenue annually and has fewer than five fulltime employees. Examples of microbusinesses include hair and make-up stylists, interior design professionals, graphic designers, caterers, photographers and event planners. To be eligible, applicants also need to have experienced a 10 percent or greater reduction in revenue in the 2019 to 2020 tax years. A complete list of grant eligibility requirements is available on the Sac4Micro website.

"Sacramento County has more than 52,000 business establishments," said Troy Givans, Director of Sacramento County Office of Economic Development. "Of those businesses, the microbusiness sector makes up approximately 67 percent countywide. The pandemic has been especially hard on our small business community, in particular, our minority-owned businesses. The County is excited to partner with CalOSBA to offer another resource to help the microbusinesses access funding to recover."

Additionally, Sacramento County is partnering with the California Capital Financial Development Corporation, California Hispanic Chambers of Commerce, Sacramento Asian Pacific Chamber of Commerce, Sacramento Black Chamber of Commerce, Sacramento Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, Sacramento Metro Chamber and the Slavic Chamber of Commerce to provide in-language assistance and expand the program's reach into underserved communities.

Shelter Dog Goes from Rescued to Rescuer

By Allison Harris, Sacramento County

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - Sacramento County's Bradshaw Animal Shelter intakes thousands of pets in the community each year. Most of these pets are reunited with their owners or are able to find loving forever homes to be adopted into. However, some shelter pets have a difficult time finding a normal adoptive home which is where the shelter's foster and rescue program comes in. The foster and rescue program works with local foster and rescue providers in the community to help shelter pets that need a little extra assistance on the way to their happy ending.

Foster care providers provide temporary care outside of the shelter to animals such as those too young for adoption, needing to recover from an illness or injury, for behavior modification, or just because they need a break from the stresses of shelter life. Rescue group partners are also a huge help as they pull shelter animals who otherwise have a difficult time being adopted due to age, medical condition or the need for behavioral modification that cannot be resolved in a foster home.

Shelter dog Dora, who arrived as a stray in 2016, was having a difficult time finding a forever home.

Shelter dog Dora now serves in the National Disaster Search Dog Foundation (NDSDF). Photo credit: National Disaster Search Dog Foundation

Fortunately, shelter staff was so impressed by her high-toy drive that they contacted the National Disaster Search Dog Foundation (NDSDF). The NDSDF is an organization based in Santa Paula, California that strengthens disaster response across America by rescuing and recruiting dogs and partnering them with firefighters and other first responders to find people buried alive in the wreckage of disasters. They have been a long-time rescue partner of the Sacramento County's Bradshaw Animal Shelter.

"Groups such as NDSDF give dogs that have no chance of placement in a normal pet home an opportunity for a great outcome and a chance to truly thrive in the world," said Shasta Stratton-Quirk, who works on the shelter's foster and rescue team. "Because some dogs are not able to be adopted out through normal routes, it is the job of the foster and rescue team to find an outlet and partnering them with where they can reach their firefighters and other first true potential.

Dora's natural abilities made it clear that the NDSDF made the right choice in bringing her on the team. Six years later, the rescue partner is happy to report Dora is working diligently with the San Diego Fire Department and California Task Force 8 alongside her handler, Joe Zakar, and has truly gone from rescued to rescuer.

Sacramento County News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) -

For more than 30 years, thousands of lives have been touched by Sacramento County's Gifts from the Heart program, an annual holiday gift-giving initiative that runs from October until mid-December and serves those within the Child Protective Services and Senior and Adult Services divisions of the Sacramento County Department of Child, Family and Adult Services.

In 2021, the program provided gifts to more than 2,500 youth, adults and seniors at an estimated cash value of $152,040.

They got Nerf balls, art supplies, scented candles, Disney princess toys, basketballs, Bluetooth speakers and more! The youngest recipient, Karl, age 1, received finger puppets, wooden puzzles, and a Lego train. The oldest, Quang, age 91, received queen bedsheets, postage stamps and a gift card to Wal-Mart.

Best of all, these foster youth, disabled adults and homebound seniors got a reminder over the winter holidays that they were not forgotten.

More than 80 individuals and corporate sponsors from businesses, government agencies, service groups and families donate gifts that allow the program to continue.

A team of 57 volunteers managed the pick-up, distribution, and delivery of gifts from community and private sponsors. The volunteers, many of whom return year after year, spend three weeks in the warehouse organizing toys and gifts. In 2021, volunteers logged in almost 10,000 hours.

Donations come in other forms, too. Jackson Properties donated warehouse space; and Sourdough & Co., Roma 2 Pizza, Pizza Guys and Subway provided lunches to hungry volunteers.

"This was our second year of taking precautions due to COVID-19, but we didn't let it stop us," said Tonja Edelman, Volunteer and Student Intern Services Coordinator. "We required volunteers to be fully vaccinated and we wore masks, and we got it done. We are so thankful for our volunteers and for the contributions from local community partners that make the program possible."

The total cash value of the program – volunteers, donations, gifts - is estimated to be $476,612.

And the look on gift recipients' faces? Priceless.

Gifts from the Heart welcomes everyone who is interested in participating by sponsoring gifts, becoming a community partner and volunteering time during the season. All donations are tax deductible. To learn more email Tonja Edelman or call her at 916-875-2027. ★ graduate transfer from the University of the Pacific, there has been little doubt that Tillman is the most valuable Hornet. Now 28 games later, Tillman has been acknowledged by the rest of the conference as the Big Sky Most Valuable Player.

The 5'9 guard from Lincoln High School in Stockton is the first player in program history to earn the award. Tillman is a bucket getter. Regardless of if she's scoring herself or finding an open teammate, the numbers don't lie. The graduate transfer led the Big Sky in points (20.3 PPG) and assists (6.2 APG) this season.

Tillman ranks 17th nationally in points per game and 10th in assists per game. She is also one of only two NCAA Division I women's basketball players to average at least 18 points and six assists per game along with University of Iowa star Caitlin Clark who ranks first nationally in points and assists per game.

Natabou made quite the impression in her first season playing Division I, unanimously being named the Big Sky Newcomer of the Year. The 6'5 sophomore is the second player in school history to win the award, alongside Kim Sheehy in 2004-05.

She led the conference in rebounding (11.1 RPG) and field goal percentage (.639) while being sixth in scoring (14.6 PPG). However, that's not all. Nationally, Natabou ranks 18th in total rebounds per game, 10th in offensive rebounds (4.3 ORPG) and fourth in field goal percentage.

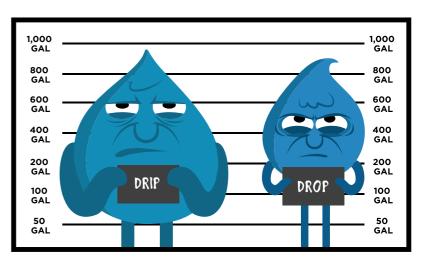

The individual awards for Tillman and Natabou continued with the All-Big Sky Conference selections. Tillman was unanimously selected to the first team and Natabou was chosen to the second team.

The Hornets (14-15, 10-10 Big Sky), led by Tillman and Natabou, began the Big Sky Tournament as the seventh seed on March 7 against Weber State (10-19, 6-14). The winner of the tournament receives an automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament.

Feinstein Now Must Decide Bera Supports Ukrainian President Whether to Retire Volodymyr Zelensky

By Dan Walters CALMatters.org

Whither Dianne Feinstein? California's senior U.S. senator, a California political fixture for more than a half-century, was facing a turning point even before her husband, financier and philanthropist Richard Blum, died on Sunday of cancer.

The Senate's oldest member at 88 and the state's longest serving senator has clearly fallen out of favor with voters, even her fellow Democrats.

A new poll by UC-Berkeley's Institute of Governmental Studies found that after years of steadily eroding popularity, just 30% of the state's registered voters now approve of her, including just 45% of Democrats. Meanwhile, 49% said they disapproved.

"The five-term senator now receives more negative than positive job ratings from strong liberals, women, voters of color, younger voters, as well as voters in Los Angeles County or the San Francisco Bay Area," the poll noted.

Feinstein has been a senator for nearly 30 years, following two decades of public service in San Francisco, including a stint as mayor. She was once one of the state's most popular politicians due to her centrist, pragmatic approach, for California's interest husband's death. There's groups with issues in now a strong probability Washington.

However, political polarization has left her drifting in political no-man's land. reflexively despised by Republicans because she's a Democrat and increasingly alienated from a leftward-drifting Democratic

As Donald Trump's presidency widened the ideological divide, Feinstein' centrism, particularly her willingness to cross the Senate aisle and do business with Republicans, made her a pariah to the Berniecrat wing of her party. Four years ago, as she was seeking another Senate term, the state party endorsed rival Kevin de León.

Feinstein easily defeated de León in 2018 but her popularity continued its downward course, not only because she's out of step with her party but due to her age and media reports that she may be suffering the cognition effects of old age. She must now – and soon – decide whether to seek still another term in Feinstein has said she's running again, but she would say that under any circumstances because that's what politicians do. Were she to announce retirement, her clout in the Senate, which already has waned somewhat, would vanish and there would be a feeding frenzy among California's ambitious Democratic politicians.

a 50-50 bet that Feinstein years, spending all but a few in 2024 even before the California newspapers.

and was the go-to person devastating poll and her she won't run, approaching near-certainty.

As that probability sinks in, those ambitious politicians will be maneuvering to become her successor and all eyes will be on Gov. Gavin Newsom.

Newsom won't have any trouble winning re-election this year, barring some cataclysmic x-factor, but what then?

Had Trump won a second term in 2020, the door would have been open for Newsom to make a run for the White House in 2024. But with Joe Biden's victory – and more pointedly, Californian Kamala Harris' elevation from the Senate into the vice presidency a 2024 presidential run by Newsom seems highly unlikely.

Newsom wears ambition on his sleeve and if he wants to extend his political career, the next logical move would be into the Senate, and there's no better springboard than a landslide re-election as governor this Newsom is certainly not the only California politician who might want to succeed Feinstein. There are probably several dozen Democratic members of Congress who see a senator staring back when they look in the mirror, plus some other statewide officials and big city mayors.

It all hinges on whether Feinstein is ready for a wellearned political retirement.

From the Office of Congressman Ami Bera, M.D.

It has been a busy few weeks in Sacramento County and in Washington, DC. That's why I wanted to send you a quick update on how I'm serving you in Congress.

Russian Invasion of Ukraine

I join Americans across the country in expressing outrage and horror at Vladimir Putin's unprovoked and deadly invasion of Ukraine. This invasion is not only an attack on Ukraine's sovereignty and independence, but also an assault on global peace, international law, and the values and freedoms we cherish as Americans.

As the world's longest-standing democracy, the United States must stand up for freedom and democracy worldwide. The Ukrainian people have now lived in a democracy for 30 years and have shown that they will not accept authoritarian leaders who seek to destroy and reverse the important progress they have made.

I was proud to visit Kyiv, Ukraine with a bipartisan Congressional Delegation in February. During my visit, it was clear to me that the people of Ukraine want a future of freedom, sovereignty, and the ability to choose their own path forward. I spoke on the House floor about my visit to Ukraine-I encourage you to listen.

As Chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Subcommittee on Asia, I'm closely following the situation in Ukraine and am receiving regular briefings from U.S. officials.

I fully support the Biden Administration's decision to implement strong and severe sanctions on Russia, including on the country's oligarchs and financial institutions which have already isolated Putin from the world stage. We must also continue to support the Ukrainian people with humanitarian aid and military assistance.

Sacramento County is the proud home to one of the largest populations of Ukrainian Americans in the entire country. My office has been working around the clock to assist Americans trapped in Ukraine.

If you or someone you know needs help leaving Ukraine, or assistance with an immigration application, please email my team. We are here to assist.

Date Night can be Inexpensive and Fun

Dear Dave, trol of our finances by living on a budget. We also have about $18,000 in debt we are trying to pay off. My husband brings home $3,400 a month, and I am currently taking care of our eight-month-old baby. We would like to have a date night once a month, and he thinks we should set aside $200 for this. Under the current circumstances, I feel like this is too much. What do you think?

My advice would be to lower the date night amount to about $50 right now. That's plenty for a reasonable dinner and a babysitter for a couple of hours. You might not have to figure babysitting expenses into the equation at all if you have family or friends nearby.

Going out on a date doesn't have to mean spending a lot of money. Years ago, when my wife and I were broke, we did tons of stuff that didn't

How to Find and Fix the Leaks

SSWD staff

The average American home loses 10,000 gallons of water a year to leaks. Make a difference during Fix a Leak Week (March 14 – 20th) by putting on your Leak Detective hat and finding and fixing the leaks in your home. SSWD has put together a simple checklist to

- 1. Check your toilets for leaks. Toilets account for 95 percent of household leaks and can waste 200 gallons of water a day! Most toilet leaks are caused by a worn toilet flapper, which is a rubber device that holds water in the tank and releases water into the bowl when you flush. Over time, the rubber in the flapper degrades, causing a toilet to leak. SSWD has free toilet leak detection kits available.
- 2.Look for dripping faucets and showerheads, which are often caused by loose connections, or worn-out washers. If you find a leak, turn off water to the problem area, check the connection to see if it is tight, and then examine the washers to see if they are damaged and replace if necessary.

- 3.Inspect the area around your dishwasher or clothes washer for wet or damp spots.
- 4. Walk around your yard and look for sprinklers that are broken, clogged or misdirected. Flag any problems you find and fix within 48 hours.

If you need more help determining if your home might have a leak, contact SSWD at 916.972.7171 and ask about setting up a complimentary leak investigation. SSWD customers may also be eligible for a $500 rebate for repairing
