One Small Step – One Small Miracle

Bald eaglet "Miracle" launches into flight over the American River.

Story and photos by Susan Maxwell Skinner

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Few experiences could be more life-affirming than seeing birds in debut flight. When those creatures happen to be two bald eaglets (fledging auspiciously close to July 4), gasps and tears are among observer reactions.

Among very few of their species in Sacramento County, a mated eagle couple is now completing a fourth breeding season on the American River. Having recorded each of those seasons, I note the 2020 nursery unique for surprise and heartbreak.

In spring, observers were astonished to find three chicks in the eagle nursery. In previous broods, the parents reliably raised only two babies. Judging by its size, the unexpected baby probably hatched 10 days after the alpha we called Courage; and perhaps a week after middle sibling Hope. We named the surprise baby Miracle. "It'll be a miracle if he survives," predicted a riverside wit. But the smallest eaglet escaped bullying often suffered by raptor runts. His parents favored him with plenty to eat. A feisty, competitive personality quickly developed.

The family dynamic was disrupted when alpha Courage fell from the nest before he was old enough to fly. Though the parents fed him on the ground, coyote and bobcats must also provide for their own babies. One day the fallen eaglet simply disappeared. Crisis support arrived in the form of an eagle helper that has assisted the family in previous summers. The parents absented themselves as the babysitter we call "Hunter" dutifully mentored, fed and suffered the remaining two eaglets' ingratitude. Mama and Papa took compassionate leave from months of exhausting hunting and childcare.

Explore Parks and Have Fun with Agents of Discovery

By Ken Casparis, Sacramento County

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - This July, Agents of Discovery, an interactive, augmented reality game is coming to two Sacramento County Regional Parks, Gibson Ranch Regional Park and River Bend Park.

Sacramento County's Department of Regional Parks, in partnership with California Parks and Recreation Society and as part of the Parks Make Life Better campaign, is bringing this app to park visitors, free of charge, from July 1 - 31. While in participating parks, users will be encouraged to explore new areas to find "challenges" that will... well, challenge their knowledge of the parks!

"Our staff has been working hard to set up challenges to make this experience as fun and educational for visitors as possible," said Liz Bellas, Director of Regional Parks. "Agents of Discovery will help teach people of all ages about our local parks and open spaces while demonstrating the benefits of parks and recreation."

If you've ever played games like Pokémon GO or Harry Potter Wizards Unite, you're likely familiar with augmented reality. This technology combines visuals and audio from the game with the user's actual environment in real-time.

When users enter the active park area, they will begin receiving tips through the app that will help them find and complete the challenges.

Agents of Discovery Tips and Disclaimers:

While Agents of Discovery is best downloaded and played using WiFi, it is also accessible using cellular data; Under "Missions" search for the park you plan on visiting, either "River Bend Park" or "Gibson Ranch Regional Park" and download mission prior to visiting; Make sure GPS is enabled; Be aware and cautious of possible traffic, other people, and obstacles that may be in your way when playing Agents of Discovery. Be sure to look around and be safe when playing; Create an account in order to save your progress; Agents of Discovery is fun for all ages. Children should get parental permission before downloading this app; Parks are open from sunrise to sunset;

Please practice social distancing while outdoors:

Maintain at least six-foot social distancing from individuals who are not part of the same household or living unit; Frequently wash

Golden State Killer Pleads Guilty

DeAngelo is Sentenced to Life Without Parole

Source: Orange County District Attorney's Office

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - According to a press release issued by the Office of Orange County District Attorney Todd Spitzer:

Joseph James DeAngelo Jr., 74, pleaded guilty to 13 felony counts of first-degree murder and 13 felony counts of kidnapping to commit robbery during a 13-year multicounty crime spree that terrorized much of California during the 1970s and 1980s. DeAngelo was identified through Investigative Genetic Genealogy (IGG) in 2018, more than three decades after he raped and murdered his last victim in 1986.

DeAngelo also admitted to 161 uncharged crimes related to 61 uncharged victims, including attempted murder, kidnapping to commit robbery, rape, robbery, first-degree burglary, false imprisonment and criminal threats. The uncharged crimes occurred in Alameda, Sacramento, San Joaquin, Santa Clara, Stanislaus, Tulare and Yolo counties.

The decision by prosecutors to accept DeAngelo's offer to plead guilty to the 26 charged crimes and admit the uncharged crimes was made in consultation with the victims and their family members. The totality of the circumstances, including the age of the victims, the age of witnesses and the death of other key witnesses, and the age of the defendant, were taken into consideration.

This six-county joint prosecution resulted in a guilty plea of:

13 counts of first-degree murder with special circumstances allegations of multiple murders and murder during the commission of rape, robbery, and burglary.

13 felony counts of kidnapping to commit robbery with sentencing enhancements for personal use of a firearm and personal use of a knife during the commission of the offenses.

DeAngelo also admitted to the uncharged crimes of:

Attempted murder, kidnapping to commit robbery, rape, robbery, first-degree burglary, false imprisonment and criminal threats.

DeAngelo's crime spree began in 1975 when he was working as a police officer with the Exeter Police Department. The crimes, which continued long after he was fired from the Auburn Police Department in 1979, escalated from peeping through windows to stalking to rape and serial murder.

The hearing was relocated to the Sacramento State Ballroom to accommodate the large number of victims and their family members in attendance and to ensure social distancing in light of the current COVID-19 pandemic.

"The investigation, identification and prosecution of the East Area Rapist/Golden State Killer has been a long journey for justice - a journey marked by passion, persistence and sheer determination," said Sacramento County District Attorney Anne Marie Schubert. "Through the revolutionary tool of Investigative Genetic Genealogy, this serial rapist and murderer was not only identified and brought to justice but will spend the rest of his life in prison. It is my sincere hope that today brings healing to victims, their families and communities harmed by the atrocious crimes committed by Joseph DeAngelo."

Joseph DeAngelo will be

Women's Empowerment Receives $10K from SMUD

By Kristin Thébaud, Thébaud Communications

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Women's Empowerment recently received $10,000 from SMUD's Sustainable Communities initiative to provide workforce development skills, paid job training and housing search assistance for women experiencing homelessness.

"We are grateful to SMUD for recognizing that communities are only sustainable when women and their families have a safe home and a stable income," said Lisa Culp, executive director, Women's Empowerment. "SMUD's generous donation will help us ensure women and their children have homes and jobs, especially during this pandemic."

Women's Empowerment was featured on NBC's The TODAY Show in 2015 for offering the most comprehensive job-readiness program in the Sacramento area designed specifically for women who are homeless and their children. The award-winning organization has graduated 1,681 homeless women and their 3,792 children. Last year, 70 percent of graduates found homes in the midst of the housing crisis, and 79 percent secured jobs or enrolled in school or training. The program combines self-esteem courses, job training, health classes, support services and paid job training to help homeless women across diverse ages, races and cultures. Women's Empowerment is funded through private donations from the community and grants. To donate: Womens-Empowerment.org.

"Our goal is to enhance the lives of those living in our community, and our Sustainable Communities Initiative focuses on those with the greatest need," said Shiloh Costello, SMUD manager of Sustainable Communities. "We are proud to help an organization that directly impacts hundreds of women and families in our area as they work to become self-sufficient."

SMUD's Sustainable Communities Initiative aligns with SMUD's core purpose and vision to enhance the quality of life for all customers through innovative energy solutions. The program helps bring environmental equity and economic vitality to communities in SMUD's service area, with special attention given to historically underserved neighborhoods. # Protesters Topple Statues of St. Serra

Catholic League Press Release

NEW YORK, NY (MPG) - Catholic League president Bill Donohue comments on protesters who destroyed statues of Saint Junipero Serra:

Smashing statues of American icons is all the rage among urban barbarians. Ignorant of history, they are destroying statues of those who were among the most enlightened persons of their time. This includes Father Junipero Serra. The 18th century missionary fought hard for the rights of Indians, and was rightfully canonized by Pope Francis in 2015.

A statue of Saint Serra was toppled in San Francisco's Golden Gate Park on June 19, and the next day another statue of the legendary priest was torn down at Placita Olvera in Los Angeles. Archbishop José Gomez of Los Angeles, who is also president of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, singled out Saint Serra for his compassion and his effort to establish rights for Indians and women.

In 2015, I published a booklet, "The Noble Legacy of Father Serra," that detailed his many accomplishments. In light of the attacks on him, it is worth recalling some of his heroics.

Serra got along well with the Indians. His goal, and that of the Franciscan missionaries whom he led, was not to conquer the Indians - it was to make them good Christians. The missionaries granted the Indians rights and respected their human dignity, quite unlike the condition of black slaves. The Indians appreciated their efforts, drawing a distinction between the missionaries and the Spanish crown: the former treated the natives with justice; the latter did not. The civil authorities were the problem, not the priests.

Contrary to the conventional wisdom, the missionaries did not eradicate Indian culture. Indeed, they learned the native language of the Indians and employed Indians as teachers. Some cultural modification was inevitable, given that the missionaries taught the Indians how to be masons, carpenters, blacksmiths, and painters. The Indians were also taught how to sell and buy animals, and were allowed to keep their bounty. Women were taught spinning, knitting, and sewing.

Archbishop Gomez is right to point out that Serra fought for the rights of women, as well. It was the missionaries who sought to protect Indian women from the Spanish colonizers. The Friars segregated the population on the basis of sex and age, hoping to safeguard the young girls and women from being sexually exploited. When such offenses occurred, Serra and his fellow priests quickly condemned them.

A total of 21 missions were established by the Franciscans, nine of them under the tenure of Serra; he personally founded six missions. He baptized more than 6,000 Indians, and confirmed over 5,000; some 100,000 were baptized overall during the mission period.

If the truth were told about Saint Serra, he would be heralded as a friend of the Indians, not as their enemy. But truth matters little to those whose hearts are full of hatred and whose minds are closed to reality. ★

VA NorCal Health Offers 'On-Demand' COVID-19 Testing

By Will Martin, VA Northern California Health Care System

MATHER, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento VA Medical Center (VAMC) will offer drive-up, elective COVID-19 testing to Veterans registered as VA patients from 9 a.m. - noon each Tuesday and Thursday in Mather beginning June 23. Other VA Northern California Health Care System sites are also offering COVID-19 tests to Veterans and VA NorCal employees inside their clinics, with plans to establish drive-up testing at some sites in the near future.

"An effective response to the COVID-19 pandemic in built on consistent testing," said VA NorCal Director David Stockwell. "By offering accessible testing to our patients, we're ensuring the Veteran community is at the forefront of coronavirus care in Northern California."

VA NorCal medical personnel will conduct the tests using oropharyngeal swabs with results usually available in a few days.

Northern California Veterans should contact their local VA NorCal clinic for details or to register as a VA patient. To schedule a health care appointment during the COVID-19 pandemic, Veterans should contact the VA NorCal Call Center at 1-800-382-VETS (8387).

Follow signs to testing site near Emergency Department. Location is 10535 Hospital Way, Mather, CA 95655 ★

In their absence, second eaglet Hope reached 12 weeks old and was poised for flight. Her debut promised a much-needed lift for her kin and for fans who had taken the family to their hearts. Hope did not disappoint. On summer solstice, she scrambled from the nest to a favorite branch. Here she spread massive wings and claimed her sky. An ungainly series of flaps got her 50 yards to an adjacent pine.

Before setting a course for the home tree, the debutante gave a “here I come” squeal. She flew with greater confidence to achieve a high limb. Though Hunter had just delivered a trout, she ignored his celebratory offering and chose flight over food. Off she winged to partly loop the river and descend on a new branch. Thence she sped to a new tree, then another. Alone for the first time in his life, sibling Miracle was beyond consolation. He screamed and screamed. An hour passed before Hope made a clumsy, talons-splayed touch-down in the nest. Hers was a text-book fledge that would have made absent Mama proud.

By last week, brother Miracle had also reached fly-by date and was jumping aggressively on branches outside the nest. Mama and Papa returned, bearing fish and a small rodent as gifts. Unplacated, their runt screamed from noon till sunset, seemingly demanding maternal permission to fly. Perhaps fearing an evening fledge and the risk another of baby on the ground,

Above: The female bald eagle hatched three babies in this spring. Two survived to fly in June. Right: Mama bald eagle supplies a really big catch for her eaglets.

Mama endured his awful cacophony and kept the wannabe pilot under her yellow thumb. By dawn, the reunited family and faithful Hunter watched Miracle’s brave first step into the abyss.

His 250-yard flight achieved a leafy bluff oak. Then he ventured a longer spin to a low, rotted stump. Papa and sister Hope perched encouragingly in a nearby pine. On an aborted relaunch, they saw him plummet over the bluff. Human observers groaned at the memory of Courage’s ill-fated fall, but rookie Miracle did not tumble far.

His eager little face soon reappeared and he regained his stump. His next flit – to a mockingbird nesting tree – brought on fierce harassment by its tiny occupants. Off he flew to join sibling Hope on a more hospitable pine. Though the older fledgling tried to bully him into takeoff, the new aviator stood firm.

When Miracle swooped to his next destination, his talons grabbed flimsy pine needles. This common rookie error flopped him upside-down and bat-like till he lost hold and fell to a solid branch. Here he quickly perceived a second error: he was back in the mockingbird tree and under renewed attack. Fleeing over the river, he soon returned to claim familiar cliff pines.

All morning and afternoon of a triple-digit day continued his thrilling adventure. Miracle’s fledge was a roller coaster of takeoffs, landings, a trapeze act, a tumbling turn and battles with wee birds.

A fish dinner with the family would later crown his debut.

Days before a July 4 historically curtailed by COVID restrictions, the safe launching of new national bird generation came as a balm to nature lovers. May the spirit of Courage – Hope and Miracle’s lost brother – forever be the wind beneath their wings.

COVID-19 Temporary Outdoor Dining Permit

Overview

Due to social distancing requirements of the Governor's executive order, the County understands that some restaurant establishments will seek alternatives to their existing indoor and outdoor configurations by extending operations to new outdoor areas including walkways, parking lots, landscaping or other required open space areas. On May 19, 2020, the Sacramento County Board of Supervisors Adopted a Resolution (Resolution No. 2020-0309) finding an Overriding Public Interest to allow the Planning Director to issue temporary permits to restaurants to allow for temporary outdoor dining areas.

Purpose of the Temporary Outdoor Dining Permit:

- Allow businesses and shopping centers to meet requirements for social distancing while facilitating restaurant establishments to resume operations.
- Prevent conflicts with other adjacent businesses or residential uses and ensure outdoor dining area will not significantly interfere with pedestrian or vehicular traffic or otherwise constitute a health and safety risk.
- Provide flexible outdoor operations allowances where they may not be otherwise permitted by County Code.

Expiration

Upon approval, the initial permit is good for a maximum of 90 days and so long as the emergency order is in effect. The permit may be extended upon request so long as the emergency order is still in effect and no complaints regarding violations of the permit conditions have been reported.

Fee

The application and permit is free of charge. County costs are being reimbursed through COVID-19 Recovery Funds.

Procedures

The initial Annual Percentage Rate (APR) is currently 4.25% for a new Home Equity Line of Credit (HELOC), and is fixed for the first 5 years of the loan which is called the draw period. After the initial 5 year period, the APR can change once based on the value of an Index and Margin. The Index is the weekly average yield on U.S. Treasury Securities adjusted to a constant maturity of 10 years and the margin is 3.50%. The current APR for the repayment period is 4.25%. The maximum APR that can apply any time during your HELOC is 10%. A qualifying transaction consists of the following conditions: (1) the initial APR assumes a maximum HELOC of $100,000, and a total maximum Loan-to-Value (LTV) of 70% including the new HELOC and any existing 1st Deed of Trust loan on your residence; (2) your residence securing the HELOC must be a single-family home that you occupy as your primary residence; (3) if the 1st Deed of Trust loan is with a lender other than El Dorado Savings Bank, that loan may not exceed $200,000 and may not be a revolving line of credit. Additional property restrictions and requirements apply. All loans are subject to a current appraisal. Property insurance is required and flood insurance may be required. Rates, APR, terms and conditions are subject to change without notice. Other conditions apply. A $25 early closure fee will be assessed if the line of credit is closed within three years from the date of opening. An annual fee of $75 will be assessed on the first anniversary of the HELOC and annually thereafter during the draw period. Ask for a copy of our "Fixed Rate Home Equity Line of Credit Disclosure Notice" for additional important information. Other HELOC loans are available under different terms.

What the Coronavirus Did to the National Debt, Your Bill Exceeds $37,726

Commentary by Harold Pease Ph.D.

In March Congress added $2.3 trillion to the national debt with the stimulus package. Most were jubilant to receive a stimulus check. But what does this mean? Just to pay this back today would cost each taxpayer $18,863 (compare U.S. Debt Clocks Nov. 2019 with April 2020).

In May the Treasury Department announced that it will borrow another $3 trillion this quarter making our total coronavirus indebtedness $5.3 trillion and thus what we owed for the smaller loan more than doubles (Matt Egan, The US is becoming the king of debt. It's a necessary risk, CNN Business). To pay both loans in August would be more than $37,726 per U.S. taxpayer.

Those who pay no federal taxes, which is about 50% of American adults, are not assessed. "The latest spending packages are estimated to be worth about 14% of the country's economy...the national debt soared above 100% of GDP" ("Coronavirus: US to borrow record $3tn as spending soars," BBC News, May 4, 2020).

So what is a trillion dollars? To begin with a trillion is the number one followed by twelve zeros. A trillion dollars is a thousand billion and a billion is a thousand million. These numbers mean very little to the average person. who count their money in tens, twenties and hundreds.

One mathematician gave us a very practical way of evaluating our outstanding debt. One trillion one-dollar bills stacked atop each other (not end to end but flat) would reach nearly 68,000 miles into space a third of the way to the moon (See CNN News Cast, Feb. 4, 2009). If so, the debt thus far incurred by the coronavirus alone, $5.3 trillion, would reach to the moon and two-thirds back to earth.

Senator Mitch McConnell gave another illustration just as awe striking. He calculated that if we spent a million dollars every day since Jesus was born, we still would not have spent a trillion dollars – only three-fourths of a trillion dollars (Ibid).

Who will pay these two coronavirus loans? Since we never liquidate our debt – only increase and pass it on to posterity – our grandchildren yet unborn, will be saddled with this debt plus the interest on it. How can I prophesy with such certainty? The United States has not been free of debt since Warren G. Harding 98 years ago (US Debt by President Who Increased the U.S. Debt the Most? Depends on How You Measure It. By Kimberly Amadeo Updated November 04, 2019)?

Yes the coronavirus is a massive rogue wave that has sunk many businesses in its path but following closely behind it is a tsunami almost six times its size – the national debt – that is and will bring down this country because our children cannot pay it either. Our national debt has soared to $25.5 trillion, and with the newly announce $3 trillion loan to $28.5 trillion. Our debt in one dollar bills laid flat atop each other will now go to the moon and back almost five times.

I ask students, "Who gets to go without so that this debt can be paid?" "Go without!!!!" That is a concept foreign to this generation!! They do not know, and neither do their parents and grandparents who laid it on their backs. When they are told that their share to liquidate this debt is not just $37,726 for a coronavirus, but $205,440 per taxpayer – due immediately, they get angry (see USDebtClock.org). Someone should have told them that government handouts are not free.

The 13th Amendment ending slavery has been rescinded, they are America's new slaves. Bondage was given them before their birth, or while they were in the womb, or before they were old enough to know what it meant to be sold into slavery. The past generation wanted nice costly programs for free and were willing to sell their children to have them. Worse, the older generation is still anxious to incur even more debt on our defenseless children and grandchildren. Are we not the most debt addicted, insensitive generation in U.S. History?

Yes these are hard times and in such adding to a national debt is said to be justified. What isn't justified is that in prosperous times, of which most of the last 70 years have been, we should, and could have, liquidated that debt. Then a $5.3 trillion debt to handle a virus could have been repaid in the next prosperous time or perhaps by the children, but not now. We have squandered our wealth in foreign endless wars, foreign aid and domestic welfare.

I had hoped with the robust Trump economy (the best in several decades) that we could get to paying back the debt. I previously published that we could survive and turn things around if we did three things: made significant cuts in our top 6 major expenditures, did not elect a big spending congress, and did not incur a big funding event. Unfortunately we made no major cuts in spending, maintained a big spending congress, and did incur a big funding event – the coronavirus.

Trump remains our only hope for rebuilding the economy because he already did it once, but chances of removing even the coronavirus portion of the national debt enslaving us is slim.

sentenced to life in state prison without the possibility of parole. The sentence will run consecutive and concurrent to his sentence for the first-degree murders to which he has pled. His sentencing hearing will commence on August 17, 2020. Victims will be given the opportunity to deliver victim impact statements prior to DeAngelo's sentencing on

Joseph James DeAngelo Jr.,

August 21, 2020. The sentencing hearing location will be announced at a later date.

His crimes earned him the nicknames of the Visalia Ransacker, the East Area Rapist, the Original Night Stalker, and the Golden State Killer. It was not until April 2018 that Sacramento authorities announced that Investigative Genetic Genealogy had identified DeAngelo as the person responsible. ★

DEMAND JUSTICE

Victims of sexual abuse by Catholic clergy have rights.

While nothing can undo you or your loved one's pain of abuse, many states are giving victims a short time to recover compensation from their abusers and the institutions that enabled them.

If you or someone you love were sexually assaulted by a priest or clergy member, you no longer need to suffer in silence.

TOGETHER WE CAN HOLD THEM ACCOUNTABLE.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE

ESTATE OF GERALD J. GUGLIELMINA
CASE No. 34-2020-00276307

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, and contingent creditors of and persons who may be otherwise interested in the will or estate, or both of Gerald J. Guglielmina, deceased A Petition for Probate has been filed by Norma Jean Bowman, in the Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, requesting Norma Jean Bowman, be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent. The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the executor to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the executor will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or have consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A hearing on the petition will be held in this court as follows July 23, 2020 9:00 a.m. in Dept 129 at Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento 3341 Power Inn Road Sacramento, CA 95826. IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law. YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. The name, address and telephone number of the petitioner is: Norman Jean Bowman Court, Sacramento, CA 95827, 916-508-7219

The Supreme Court Becomes a Super-Legislature: The Bostock, Altitude, and Harris cases

Commentary by John A. Sparks

The Supreme Court has just rendered historic decisions in three cases concerning Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, which prohibits employment discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Justice Neil Gorsuch and Chief Justice John Roberts joined the liberal wing of the court to produce a surprising 6-3 majority holding that a gay sky-diving instructor (Altitude Express v. Zarda), a gay child-welfare-services-coordinator (Bostock v. Clayton County), and a male funeral employee transgendering to a woman (Harris Funeral Homes v. EEOC), were illegally fired under Title VII.

The issue of employment protection for gays is the central litigated issue in these cases. However, in order to reach its decision, the majority did considerable harm to one of the most important doctrines of American constitutionalism—the separation of powers. The short and long of it is that the high court converted itself into a super-legislature and in a display of raw “judicial” power inserted “sexual orientation” and “gender identity” into Title VII of the Civil Rights Act. In his dissent, Justice Samuel Alito pointedly observed: “There is only one word for what the Court has done today: legislation.”

On the first page of the Opinion of the Court, written by Justice Gorsuch, there is a foreshadowing of what is to come: “Those who adopted the Civil Rights Act might not have anticipated their work would lead to this particular result.... But the limits of the drafters’ imagination supply no reason to ignore the law’s demands.”

This is a strange and ominous formulation. Justice Gorsuch seems to be saying that those who passed Title VII of the Civil Rights Act had a list of certain kinds of employment discrimination that they made unlawful, but they lacked the foresight and imagination to expand Title VII’s coverage, which the court now in the year 2020 has supplied for them in its decision.

The dissenters (Brett Kavanaugh and Alito) zero in on the majority’s lack of respect for the separation of powers. Justice Kavanaugh says that Title VII clearly prohibits discrimination based on “race, color, religion, sex or national origin.” However, though the question in this case is whether Title VII should be expanded to include “sexual orientation” and “gender identity,” the more important question is “Who decides?”

Kavanaugh says that the Constitution gives a clear answer: “Under the Constitution’s separation of powers, the responsibility to amend Title VII belongs to Congress and the President in the legislative process, not to this Court.”

The history of the Civil Rights Act supports that view. Whenever Congress wanted to add to this list of protections, it did so by passing new legislation! For example, in 1967 it expanded Title VII protections against age discrimination to employees and later discrimination based on disabilities. Since neither of those categories of employment discrimination were in the original 1964 act, they could only be added by legislation, precisely as called for by the Constitution.

Justice Kavanaugh continues by reminding his colleagues that legislators have attempted to add “sexual orientation” and, more recently, “gender identity” to Title VII, but never successfully. In other words, legislative sponsors were never able to garner enough legislative support. This is undeniable proof that the people’s elected representatives have not seen fit to add these categories to the list found in Title VII.

According to Justice Kavanaugh: “In the face of unsuccessful legislative efforts (so far) to prohibit sexual orientation discrimination, judges may not rewrite the law ... may not update the law ... may not predictively amend the law just because it believes that Congress is likely to do it soon anyway.... We are judges, not Members of Congress.”

Why is a preservation of the “separation of powers” so important?

First, the American founders believed that dispersing power prevents the concentration of power in one branch which, if left unchecked, leads to repressive rule. The founders also understood that legislative bodies are better suited to engage in nuanced law-making because they can hold hearings, gather and evaluate a variety of conflicting opinions from the citizenry, provide for proper exceptions and exemptions, and better craft enactments which will provide relief but also protect fundamental rights. The judicial branch has a much more limited set of tools which are only properly used to interpret statutes and settle disputes between litigants. The more a court moves away from those essential but limited set of functions—when it dabbles in policymaking, for instance—the more likely it is to fail.

It is apparent that Justice Gorsuch was well aware that the language of Title VII had not been expanded by Congress. Therefore, he attempted to argue that the phrase discrimination “because of sex” had already included “sexual orientation” or “gender identity” since a person’s sexuality was involved. He labored over many pages in the majority opinion in an effort to incorporate “sexual orientation” and “gender identity” into the phrase “because of sex.” It was a determined effort on his part, but it fails to be convincing for several reasons:

First, it ignores legislative history. Did Congress in 1964 mean to outlaw discrimination based upon sexual orientation and gender identity? Justice Alito does not mince words in answering that question: “It indisputably did not.” Instead, the choice of the phrase “discrimination because of sex” was clearly meant to address an employer refusing to hire an applicant simply because the job-seeker was a woman or man. The concern, at the time, was more commonly for women who had qualifications equal to male applicants but who were passed over because they were women. In short, notes Alito, discrimination because of sex “was a familiar and well-understood concept, and what it meant was equal treatment for men and women.”

The second objection to Gorsuch’s effort to equate “sex” to “sexual orientation” or to “gender identity” is that plainly, over the decades, congressional legislators who sought expanded coverage for “sexual orientation” had themselves viewed the two concepts (sex and sexual orientation) as distinct. The bills they introduced called for the addition of a new term to the statutory list; that is, a different concept, namely “sexual orientation.” Such efforts reveal that the phrase “because of sex” already referred to a certain kind of discrimination and therefore, a new concept, encapsulated in the phrase “sexual orientation,” was needed to accomplish what they sought—namely, protection for homosexuals.

Thirdly, of the 20-plus states that have anti-discrimination laws that proscribe sexual orientation, those states, almost universally at the same time, separately outlaw discrimination “because of sex.” State governments obviously recognized these two concepts as different types of forbidden conduct.

Finally, Justice Kavanaugh points to the findings of the appellate courts on the federal level: “Until the last few years, every U.S. Court of Appeals to address this question concluded that Title VII does not prohibit discrimination because of “sexual orientation.” Plainly and simply, the category had not been added to Title VII’s list of outlawed employer behavior. Though Gorsuch’s efforts convinced some of his judicial colleagues, his reasoning flies in the face of substantial evidence to the contrary. Discrimination “because of sex” that appeared in the 1964 act did not include “sexual orientation” or “gender identity.”

In summary, the majority’s opinion in this trilogy of cases is a gain for gay rights, but it is most certainly a setback for the separation of powers and for a judiciary dedicated “to interpret statutory terms to mean what they conveyed to reasonable people at the time they were written.”

New California State Press Release

YUBA CITY, CA (MPG) - California Gov. Gavin Newsom responded to a New California State press release regarding illegal borrowing of federal grant monies to fund budget deficits by claiming the right to seize federal grant funds from counties not requiring face masks.

New California State press release issued early on June 24, 2020 highlighted the State of California intending to fund its $85 billion budget shortfall through June 30, 2021 by accessing “Borrowable Resources” of over $59.6 billion, including the over $27 billion in federal health and financial stimulus dollars to address the COVID-19 pandemic.

Later the same day, Gov. Newsom told reporters, the State of California has the sovereign right to indefinitely hold billions of targeted federal grant monies from counties that are not in full compliance with the “new rules and regulations” in his recent COVID-19 Executive Order.

Newsom stated that after doing what he referred to as a “budget deal” with the California Legislature, “We’re going to attach some considerations and consequences” for withholding federal funds from non-compliant counties.

New California believes that such action is a violation of law, and if implemented would set a dangerous U.S. Constitutional precedent that a state governor and legislature can withhold spending federal funds during a crisis to fund its own budget deficit needs.

New California State calls on the United States government to immediately take actions to prevent and protect the public safety by assuring that the State of California is not improperly or illegally using federal funds designated for health and financial stimulus as a source of “Borrowing Resources” to fund California’s $85 billion budget deficits.

New California is a new state in development exercising its Constitutional Right to form from the State of California. The process to form New California is authorized and codified in Article IV Sections 3 & 4 of the United States Constitution. ★

Supervisor Susan Peters Update: Help for Restaurants Coming

Dear Friends,

The Sacramento County Board of Supervisors recently took action to allow for deviations to County Zoning and Development Standards to allow for temporary outdoor dining areas for restaurants due to the COVID-19 pandemic with no cost to restaurants who want to utilize this temporary provision (fees are covered by COVID-19 Recovery Funds program).

Due to social distancing requirements of the Governor’s executive order, Sacramento County understands that some restaurant establishments need alternatives to their existing indoor and outdoor configurations by extending operations to new outdoor areas including sidewalks, parking lots, landscaping or other required open space areas. Accordingly, the Board has authorized the Planning Director to issue temporary permits to restaurants to allow for temporary outdoor dining areas.

Upon approval, the initial permit is good for a maximum of 90 days and so long as the emergency order is in effect. The permit may be extended upon request so long as the emergency order is still in effect and no complaints regarding violations of the permit conditions have been reported.

California Unemployment Insurance Claims Increase by 20 percent

California Center for Jobs and the Economy

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - After a relatively stable level in the prior 4 weeks, total California initial claims (regular UI plus PUA claims by the self-employed) jumped 20% for the week of June 20. As suggested in the separate WARN Act analyses, most layoffs continue to be temporary but an increasing percentage is now shifting to permanent, an indication that the recovery period will face additional difficulties in returning to previous job and employment levels.

Nationally, actual claims (not seasonally adjusted (NSA)) for regular UI were essentially level at 1,457,373, while the seasonally adjusted (SA) level used for trend analysis is being reported as a decrease at 1,480,000. Combined with PUA claims, the national NSA numbers eased 2%. California showed 287,354 initial UI claims (NSA) along with 86,130 initial PUA claims (NSA). As with last week’s employment and job numbers, the initial claims data is another indication that the economic downturn has been more severe in California and continues in many sectors, while the US on average appears to be in the initial stages of a recovery.

Combining both the regular UI and PUA initial claims, California had the highest number of initial claims among the states. Total initial claims for California for the week were 2.0% of the May labor force, moving up to the 8th highest among the states. To date, total initial claims of 6.6 million since the beginning of the state’s shutdown represent over a third of the labor force. This level, however, does not translate directly into the unemployment level. Not all claims are necessarily approved, filers may have secured employment after submitting their claim, and individuals may have filed more than one claim in this period.

Although not included in the table above, claims under the new Pandemic Emergency Unemployment Compensation (PEUC) program continues to show significant numbers. This new category allows an additional 13 weeks of coverage for persons who have exhausted their regular benefits, including eligibility for the additional $600 a week. California claims were at 296,831 or 35% of total claims nationally. Rather than newly unemployed persons, claim rates for this category are an indicator in the growth of long-term unemployment, a major problem during the shallow recovery from the 2008 Recession that had a depressing effect on wage and longer-term employment prospects for the affected workers. ★

Governor and Democrats Ignore Millions of Californians in Budget Deal

By Nghia Nguyen,
Office of Senator
Jim Nielsen

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The Legislature under the Governor a budget that increases billions of dollars in taxes, prevents funding for charter schools and jeopardizes public safety. This deal was cobbled together with little public input – an agreement that lacked transparency. Senator Jim Nielsen (R-Tehama), Vice Chair of the Senate Budget Committee, issued the following statement: “I do appreciate the pro Tem, the Speaker and the Governor for their continued support in Paradise to fund the promised $7.3 Million to the Paradise Irrigation District. This money will help bring clean water to survivors of the Camp Fire.

“It is, however, disappointing that this budget came together without public discussion or representation. Citing concerns with Covid-19, the conference committee – a forum for bipartisan discussions – was scrapped.

“There is no excuse for the denial of public input and lack of transparency. By cutting out the minority party, the Governor and Democratic lawmakers have denied millions of Californians the opportunity for their voices to be heard through their representatives in discussions and negotiations.

“Californians deserve to have a voice in their government.”

Elected to the State Senate in January 2013, Senator Nielsen represents the Fourth Senate District, which includes the counties of Butte, Colusa, Glenn, Placer, Sacramento, Sutter, Tehama and Yuba. ## Tax Initiative for Certain Commercial and Industrial Real Property is Withdrawn

Office of California Secretary of State

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Secretary of State Alex Padilla announced that an initiative eligible for the November 3, 2020 General Election ballot has been withdrawn by the proponents.

The Attorney General's official title and summary of the initiative is as follows:

REQUIRES CERTAIN COMMERCIAL AND INDUSTRIAL REAL PROPERTY TO BE TAXED BASED ON FAIR-MARKET VALUE. DEDICATES PORTION OF ANY INCREASED REVENUE TO EDUCATION AND LOCAL SERVICES. INITIATIVE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

Taxes certain commercial and industrial real property based on fair-market value—rather than, under current law, the purchase price with limited inflation. Exempts agricultural property and certain small businesses. Dedicates portion of any increased revenue to local services and to supplement, not replace, state's minimum-funding guarantee to schools. Provides tax exemption for $500,000 worth of tangible personal property used for business and all personal property used for certain small businesses. Summary of estimate by Legislative Analyst and Director of Finance of fiscal impact on state and local government: Net increase in annual property tax revenues of $6.5 billion to $10.5 billion in most years, depending on the strength of real estate markets. After paying for county administrative costs and back-filling state income tax losses related to the measure, the remaining $6 billion to $10 billion would be allocated to schools (40 percent) and other local governments (60 percent). (17-0055).

The measure previously became eligible for the ballot on October 16, 2018, through a random sample verification of signatures.

Pursuant to Elections Code 9604(b), proponents may withdraw an initiative any time before the Secretary of State certifies it as qualified. The 131-day qualification deadline for the November 3, 2020, General Election is June 25.

The proponents of this initiative, Anthony Thiggenn, Helen Hutchison, and Benjamin McBride did not provide any contact information.

Legislative Democrats Pass Legislation to Legitimize Racial Discrimination

By Jacqui Nguyen, California Senate Republicans

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Senate Republican Leader Shannon Grove (R-Bakersfield) and Senator Ling Ling Chang (R-Diamond Bar) released a joint press release denouncing the passage of Assembly Constitutional Amendment (ACA) 5. Legislative Democrats passed ACA 5 and its purpose is to repeal Proposition 209.

"Prop. 209 states that California shall not discriminate against, or grant preferential treatment to, any individual or group on the basis of race, sex, color, ethnicity, or national origin. For Sacramento Democrats to pass legislation that does the exact opposite is appalling," said Senate

Republican Leader Shannon Grove.

"We need to come together as a state and country to stand against racial injustices," said Senator Ling Ling Chang. "But the answer to discrimination is not more discrimination. I support and will continue to support laws protecting minorities and women from discrimination, not encouraging it." ★

Newsom Signs Legislation to Fortify General Election for the COVID-19 Pandemic

Office of California Secretary of State Alex Padilla

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Governor Gavin Newsom has signed AB 860 – authored by Assemblymember Marc Berman with Senator Tom Umberg as a joint author – which codifies that county elections officials must mail a ballot to every registered, active voter ahead of the November 3, 2020 General Election.

"California is moving in a swift, bipartisan manner to fortify our democracy in the face of the COVID-19 pandemic," Secretary of State Alex Padilla said. "Expanding vote-by-mail statewide is a necessity to protect our right to vote and our public health. Voting by mail has worked safely and securely in California for decades. Mailing every voter a ballot for this election is simply common sense."

"A few simple measures in AB 860 will further strengthen and complement the expansion of vote-by-mail. Providing vote-by-mail tracking options to all California voters will improve voter confidence. Allowing lawfully cast vote-by-mail ballots to arrive to elections officials 17 days following the election will protect against any disruptions in the postal service. And affording elections officials more time to process vote-by-mail ballots will help with the efficiency of the vote count process for this unprecedented election."

AB 860 provisions for the November 3, 2020 General Election:

Requires county elections officials to mail every active registered voter a ballot; Requires every county elections officials to adopt a vote-by-mail ballot tracking system. Californians can sign up for the Secretary of State's "Where's My Ballot?" tool to receive automatic updates about the status of their vote-by-mail ballot by text (SMS), voice call, or email. Californians can sign-up at wheresmyballot.sos.ca.gov; Requires that county elections officials process and count ballots that were postmarked on or before Election Day and arrive to elections officials no later than 17 days after Election Day. Under current law, vote-by-mail ballots that arrive more than three days after the election are not counted; Allows county elections officials to begin processing returned vote-by-mail ballots 29 days before Election Day. Under current law, counties can begin processing vote-by-mail ballots 10 business days before an election. Results will still not be released until after all polls close on Election Night. ★

Cause Unknown in Motorcycle Fatal Collision

By A.J. McTaggart, California Highway Patrol

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - On June 21, 2020 at approximately 12:23 am, The California Highway Patrol (CHP) received a call of a collision involving a motorcyclist in the area of I-80 westbound just west of Greenback Lane. CHP officers responded to the collision scene and learned that a 25-year old female out of Sacramento, was riding her 2011 Kawasaki Ninja motorcycle. The female rider was immediately transported to Mercy San Juan Medical Center (MSJMC) for major life-threatening injuries sustained in the collision. At approximately 1:50 am, MSJMC advised CHP units at the scene that the rider had succumbed to her injuries sustained from the collision. It is unknown at this time how many vehicles are involved in the collision and the cause is still under investigation. The #1-4 westbound lanes of I-80 west of Greenback Lane were closed for approximately two hours for investigative measures.

Any persons who may have witnessed this collision or who can provide any additional information regarding this collision should call Officer A.J. McTaggart at the North Sacramento Area CHP office at (916)348-2300 by cell phone at (916)798-0975. ★ when the Continental Congress voted in favor of independence. It actually happened on July 2, 1776 when the Declaration of Independence was adopted. But what's a couple of days anyway. And it's been a federal holiday since 1941. So it is that the United States and Great Britain parted ways. Here are a few fun facts connected with that fateful day.

Only John Hancock signed the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776. All the others signed later. The Declaration was signed by 56 men from 13 colonies. The average age of the signers was 45 from the youngest Thomas Lynch from South Carolina at 27 to the oldest Benjamin Franklin from Pennsylvania at 70. One out of eight signers was educated at Harvard...7 total. The only two signers who later became President of the United States were John Adams and Thomas Jefferson. The stars on the original American flag were in a circle so all colonies would appear equal. President John Adams, Thomas Jefferson and James Monroe all died on the fourth.

Adams and Jefferson died on the same day within hours of each other in 1826. Benjamin Franklin proposed the turkey as the national bird, but was overruled by John Adams and Thomas Jefferson who recommended the Bald Eagle. In 1776, there were 2.5 million people living in the new nation. Today the population is near 330 million.

Fireworks are part of the tradition of celebrating this national holiday. And so is barbecue from hot dogs to chicken and ribs. Every 4th of July the Liberty Bell in Philadelphia is tapped (not actually rung) thirteen times in honor of the original thirteen colonies. Traditions place the origins of the song "Yankee Doodle" as a pre-revolutionary War song originally sung by British military officers to mock the disheveled, disorganized colonial "Yankees" with whom they served in the French and Indian war. Its believed the tune comes from the nursery rhyme Lucy Locket. The tune of the National Anthem was originally used by an English drinking song called "To Anacreon in Heaven." The words have nothing to do with consumption of alcohol but the melody of the Francis Key had in mind when he wrote those words did originate decades earlier as the melody for a song praise of wine.

It's always amazing to me how traditions are born and then evolve over the years. This 4th of July will be a more somber and reflective celebration with the covid 19 virus running rampant. I urge you to be vigilant and do what it takes to beat this cruel virus by physical distancing, washing hands as many times as you can, and please wear a mask in public when lots of folks are about. That mask may save your life or the life of someone you care about or even a perfect stranger. It's not fun, but neither is the coronavirus. Enjoy and stay safe.

Cheers to Late-Night Hosts

for home-ing their skills. Since the lockdown began, Trevor Noah, Seth Meyers James Corden and the Jimmys (Kimmel and Fallon) have all been producing shows from their homes that have been timely, creative and, at times, even cozy. But Seth, we need to see more of your dog, Frisbee!

Cheers to Netflix

or its garden of mirthly delights. Between The Big Flower Fight, which is like a happier Project Runway for floral sculptures, and Southern-fried soap Sweet Magnolias starring the always wonderful JoAnna Garcia Swisher, the streamer is abloom with reasons to plant yourself in front of the TV.

Jeers to Andy Cohen and Anderson Cooper

for denying us the buddy comedy we deserve. The Bravo guru and CNN anchor (with host Jimmy Kimmel) have been best friends for years, and their hilarious back-and-forth as partners on ABC's Who Wants to Be a Millionaire was enough to convince us that they need to do a gay twist on The Odd Couple as soon as possible.

Jeers to Don't

for doing the impossible... giving us too much Ryan Reynolds. The executive producer of ABC's Adam Scott-hosted game show is a social-media scream and total hoot as Deadpool, but his frequent and mostly forced voice-overs during Don't are about as excessive as an overly excitable studio audience. ★

Jeers to Don't for doing the impossible ... giving us too much Ryan Reynolds.

Will Another Network Pick Up Cancelled Single Parents?

Question: Is there any word on Single Parents being picked up by another network? The talented adults and kids were so refreshing to watch. It was one of the funniest and well-written comedies on TV. – Marianne

Matt Roush: As is typically (though not always) the case, it seems unlikely this comedy will be shopped around or picked up elsewhere, given that it was an in-house production (since 20th Television and ABC Studios were co-producers, all under the Disney umbrella). I'm not aware of much poaching going on of castoffs this year, which could be a reflection of business being anything but usual these days.

Question: I have just found and binged the two seasons of Titans on DC Universe. I like free trials and figured I'd give it a go! So, since I literally just discovered Titans two days before writing this question, I haven't kept up with its production news during the pandemic. Do you know if they were already filming Season 3? – Beth

Matt Roush: From what I can tell, Titans was unable to film the third season (in Canada) before the shutdown, so you're in for a wait. But if this is your sort of thing, you might be interested that another DC Universe series, the sort-of spinoff Doom Patrol, launched its second season on June 25 on DC Universe and HBO Max.

“Without a doubt I believe my mom, who is in memory care, is receiving amazing care. The staff is genuinely concerned about her ... Many of the staff that were there when she arrived had worked there since it opened its doors, and they are still there today. That says a lot to me about how much they enjoy what they do. My mom gave so much to others as a nurse for over 30 years that it’s nice to see her now on the receiving end as she is now getting the same kind of care she once gave.”

The Exciting New World of Snap On Dentures!

There are millions of people in the US who struggle daily with dentures. A majority suffer from discomfort as a result of loose or ill-fitting dentures. Many prosthetic wearers simply withdraw from any type of social engagement as a result of having to wear their dentures.

Now there is a solution to these issues: Implants with “Snap On” Dentures!

Whether you are new to dentures or have worn them for years, a snap on denture is a great solution to uncomfortable chewing and slippery painful dentures. There are several types of snap on dentures available, including snap on partials. If you already wear a conventional denture or partial denture, we can sometimes use your denture to accommodate the snaps to fit on your new dental implants.

Implants as low as $99.00 per month

If you are interested in learning more about improving your quality of life with an implant retained snap on denture or partial, please contact us for a FREE CONSULTATION today!
