Local Retail Property Sells for $11 Million

Story by Shaunna Boyd

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) -Real estate investment group CBRE recently announced the $11 million sale of a retail property in Carmichael, CA.

The Carmichael Center is located at 7223, 7225, and 7241 Fair Oaks Blvd. The three tenants are wellestablished businesses that have long-term leases at the property: Big Lots, Smart and Final, and Wells Fargo.

CBRE facilitated the sale by representing the owner, 99 Palms, LLC, a joint venture between three private investors/developers based in Southern California. That group had owned the property for approximately six years. CBRE senior vice president Patrick Wade said 99 Palms, LLC chose to sell at this time "so the investors could trade into separate properties."

The Carmichael Center is located on a corner lot that is centrally located and in a high-traffic area, making the property a desirable investment opportunity. Interest in the property was primarily from developers in Southern California. Because property values are so much higher in Southern California, each investment dollar can go much further in a more affordable area — such as in the Sacramento region. Wade said that there were multiple offers on the property; many groups were "attracted to the investment because it offered higher yields than typically seen in coastal and Bay Area/ SoCal investments."

CBRE helped select the buyer - Diamond Developers, LLC, a group of private investors in Southern California. Wade said that the group stood out as a potential buyer because "they had a shorter due diligence period than the other offers on the property and had capital readily available on hand."

"They placed longterm debt," said Wade, so Diamond Developers, LLC plans to hold the investment property long term. ★

By Traci Rockefeller Cusack, T-Rock Communications

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) -

Arden Hills, Sacramento's world-class Athletic & Social Club, has named World Champion and Olympic Gold Medalist Jeff Float as Head Otters Recreation Coach for its swim program. Float began swimming at Arden Hills at age seven when he was coached by the legendary Sherm Chavoor, who was then training Olympic greats Mark Spitz, Debbie Meyer, Mike Burton and others.

Float went on to swim competitively at Jesuit High School and University of Southern California (USC), coming home to Sacramento as often as possible to work with Coach Sherm. While 90 percent deaf in one ear and 65 percent in the other, Float channeled his considerable energy, focus, and determination on hard work in the pool and competitive racing. Ultimately, his passion for the sport allowed him to travel the world and earn countless prestigious accolades: an Olympic Gold Medal, Deaf Olympian of the Century, Congressional Gold Medal of Honor, etc. After making the USA Swimming Team in 1980, politics intervened, and the Games were boycotted. Four years later, at the site of the Olympics in LA and the swimming venue at USC, Jeff was honored as peer-elected Team Captain. Touched out for the bronze by one-tenth of a second in the individual 200-meter freestyle, the next day was the 4x200-meter free relay,

Faith as a Foundation

Higher Power Offers Faith-Based Recovery Program

Story by Shaunna Boyd

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Every Friday evening Higher Power Ministry holds faith-based recovery celebrations where Christian bands from a variety of genres perform. Music such as blues, country, and rock and roll are an essential component of the ministry. Lead Director of Recovery John Heath said, "The bands are central to Higher Power. We want to reach people where they are. ... The music feeds their spirits."

"God did something amazing," said Heath. "He opened the doors to some amazing top bands to play at Higher Power in the Sacramento area" — The Frank Aldrich Band, Sons of the Golden State, Salvation Army Band, Skuirrel, Machaira Band, Rhythm and Praise, Crimson Blues, The Lost and The Found, John Voelz Band, Reid Bartlett Band, Son House Band, Lisa Daggs, Marc Cooper, Andrew Marshall, Aaron Gayden, and Tom Schrader.

The bands don't sound like the typical Christian music one might expect, but the spiritual message emerges through the lyrics. James Croci of Rhythm and Praise said, "People need support – a place that gives them hope, help, and healing." Croci believes that the "Spirit of God gives them the strength to overcome."

On Friday, January 17, Crimson Blues performed at Higher Power's celebration. After the concert, Heath welcomed everyone and explained that the purpose of the Higher Power Ministry is to be "a refuge from the storm" and "a place we can take off our masks." He said, "We're here to walk alongside vou."

Each week, a speaker talks to the group about their recovery from addiction such as drugs, alcohol, gambling, food addictions, sexual addictions, workaholics, co-dependency, and self-harm. Higher Power Theresa Nored was the featured speaker, and she has been clean for 24 years. She shared her story and her struggles with the group. "The details of the story don't matter," she said. "God brought redemption into my life." She said, "You have to get through the mess to reach the message."

She explained that the program is for "people who want a better way of life." She also spoke about the importance of removing the stigma surrounding addiction so that people aren't afraid to seek the help they need.

Tony T. is a member of Higher Power, and he has been sober for 34 years. He said, "A lot of people have addictions. They're dying in their homes. ... This is something really needed in this community."

people get what they need to survive."

Richard Mireles was released from prison 10 months ago after serving for 21 years. He brought his drug and alcohol addiction with him to prison: "I thought I would die in there." While serving his time in prison, Mireles got sober and turned his life around – even earning a degree in social and behavioral science and pursuing an MBA. He attributes his recovery to God, with "Him as my rock, my foundation."

Mireles said some of the hardest moments of his recovery were after his release from prison while transitioning back into society. He said that God "gave me a will to not go backwards." He now does a lot of advocacy work and encourages others to work toward recovery: "This is a source of staying sober – giving back. The true way to freedom is giving yourself up to service."

Higher Power has a strong spiritual support system: An Elder Board comprised of two recovery pastors – each with 30 years of sobriety – who give spiritual advice and guidance. Heath said that Pastor Gary Freitas from Manteca and Pastor Dale Marsh from Oroville provide "spiritual direction, protection, and correction in the ministry."

Pastor Freitas said, "There's a real need for this, so we support him 100 percent." He said that people are "searching for a higher power. They're searching for a relationship that means something – to fill that void, that emptiness."

Higher Power also helped start the Sacramento 12 Step Christian Recovery Network. Heath explained that the mission is to create "a community of believers under one banner whose primary purpose is to help other Christ-centered recovery ministries through support and fellowship." The network of recovery programs throughout the region are creating a website to collect all the recovery resources in one place. Anyone who is suffering can find services to help, such as addiction recovery programs, homeless shelters, food banks, safe houses for women, help for trafficking victims, etc. Heath said, "We're doing something that's never been done – to put all the faith-based meetings in one place to help

Pastor Marsh said, "For Higher Power and for us, it's really important to be part of the local recovery community. There's a huge value participating in the network."

Higher Power recovery celebrations are held each Friday at 7:00 PM at 755 Oak Avenue Parkway in Folsom where they serve free dinner, dessert, coffee, and other refreshments. Higher

Power is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization; donation checks can be written to Higher Power

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - The Carmichael ciently coordinated and consistent enough to Chamber of Commerce hosted a forum for candidates running for Sacramento County's 3rd District Supervisor on Tuesday, January 28. The forum was led and moderated by Paul Scholl, publisher of the Carmichael Times and Kathleen Pexa of Farmers Insurance. The candidates spoke about the pressing concerns the next District Supervisor will have to tackle at the Board of Supervisors.

The candidates attending the forum were Tiffany Mock, business administrator; Gregg Fishman, SMUD board member; Rich Desmond, retired CHP chief; and Matthew Ceccato, District Director for the Office of Congressman Ami Bera. Candidate Catrayel Wood could not attend the forum.

Scholl asked the candidates to speak about three important matters concerning the district: the rising homelessness crisis, the condition of roads and the length of time for small business to get licenses and permits.

Advancing very humane perspectives, there was wide agreement among the candidates on many issues, including that the County had been focusing on other priorities.

"There is a bureaucratic and organizational challenge to get the distinct agencies suffimake large changes and provide a more customer oriented approach," said Desmond.

Ceccato spoke for a "comprehensive homeless plan that will support those with mental health problems in getting their dignity back and earning their own paychecks in the many jobs California has to offer."

Mock made a point saying, "Much of the money spent on the homeless is being spent incarcerating people with mental health problems and waste clean-up that can be done otherwise."

Fishman noted, "The District's lack of incorporation presents both a structural, economic element that needs more money and a cultural problem that needs a more common sense approach."

Scholl thanked the participants and said, 'We are very lucky to have such high quality candidates."

Republican Senator Jim Nielsen Issues Statement on Governor's Spending Plan

By Nghia Nguyen

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) -Governor Gavin Newsom unveiled his $222-billion budget proposal, an increase of 2.3 percent from last year. This plan sets a record for high spending. Senator Jim Nielsen (R-Tehama), Vice Chair of the Senate Budget & Fiscal Review Committee, issued the following statement:

"Governor Newsom presented a thoughtful budget to the Legislature.

"His proposal to maintain forest management will reduce fuel to help prevent wildfires. Funding to harden homes will help secure houses and potentially save lives.

"I agree with the gally is concerning. This Jim Nielsen not the solution to every problem. Providing shelter is only a small part of the solution to homelessness.

"We must address health care, substance abuse prevention, mental health and job training. It is important to encourage opportunities with benchmarks for success.

"Teens are quickly becoming addicted to nicotine. His support to ban flavored nicotine products will bring much relief to parents, teachers and administrators as they help students kick nicotine

"The use of taxpayer monies to give full health benefits to more adults living in the country ille-

Governor that money is permanent spending is costly and will compete with funding for other critical services when the economy shrinks.

"I caution the Governor and lawmakers to ensure we achieve results for Californians, and not just spend."

Elected to the State Senate in January 2013, Senator Nielsen represents the Fourth Senate District, which includes the counties of Butte, Colusa, Glenn, Placer, Sacramento, Sutter, Tehama and Yuba. Think of it as a safety valve. Sometimes things come up in the course of day-to-day life that are just necessary, unexpected expenses – but not emergencies. Just designate a small amount of cash for it as part of your regular, monthly budget, and stick to that amount!

Dear Dave,

Emergency Fund First, Then Investing

Dear Dave,

Do you think I should stop making contributions to my 401(k) for a year, so I can save up an emergency fund? I'm 28, and debt-free, but I don't have anything saved for emergencies.

- Bryan

Dear Bryan,

If you're debt-free and making decent money at your job, it shouldn't take a whole year to set aside an emergency fund. Just make it a priority in your monthly budget. And yes, my advice to you is temporarily stop making contributions to your 401(k) until you have What really matters is the a fully-funded emergency amount of pocket money fund of three to six months you allow yourself to have. of expenses.

I recommend people stop investing, or wait to start investing, until they are debt-free except for their home and have a fully-funded emergency fund in place. In some cases, depending on how much debt they have, it can take two or three years to do all this. I know that seems like a long time, but in the grand scheme of things it's really not.

If you don't have an emergency fund, but you're contributing to a 401(k), there's a good chance you'll end up cashing out your 401(k) if a large, unexpected expense comes along. Then, when you cash out a 401(k) early, you get hit with a penalty plus your tax rate. That's not a wise plan!

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - Air travel can be stressful for many people – whether it is a fear of flying, delays or just the stress of being away from home, Sacramento International Airport (SMF) is providing a furry and adorable solution.

SMF is one of 58 airports across the country partnering with a therapy dog group in an effort to improve the traveling experience.

SMF's Boarding Area Relaxation Corps (BARC) dogs and their handlers are members of the Sacramento-based nonprofit organization Lend A Heart Animals Assisted Therapy. BARC teams are experienced handlers and their pets who have additional training for this special program.

All BARC dogs wear blue vests that say "Pet Me," an open invitation for travelers to say hello.

For many, hectic travel days are often cured simply by the sight of the friendly-faced, tailwaggers trudging down the concourse.

"Many people either spend a lot of time in airports or are inexperienced or frightened flyers," said Kathy Prendergast, a BARC leader. "These dogs provide such a bright spot for what, in many ways, can be a harried day. You can just feel the strain go away when the dogs are around."

From lowering blood pressure to improving a traveler's moods, recent studies have shown there are many benefits to having a friendly dog to pet at the airport.

Like all BARC teams, Carol Abelson and her dog Woody have seen these benefits up

And while it wouldn't have mattered on the last night, because Holzhauer missed the Shakespeare clue (a really good one) in the second Final Jeopardy, I was floored when he didn't bet it all in the final of the first game, which would

ESKATON

Transforming the Aging Experience

"Without a doubt I believe my mom, who is in memory care, is receiving amazing care. The staff is genuinely concerned about her ... Many of the staff that were there when she arrived had worked there since it opened its doors, and they are still there today. That says a lot to me about how much they enjoy what they do. My mom gave so much to others as a nurse for over 30 years that it's nice to see her now on the receiving end as she is now getting the same kind of care she once gave."
