Effie Yeaw Gets New CEO

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - The Effie Yeaw Nature Center has begun a new year with a new executive officer. Kent Anderson (39) will lead staff and volunteers at the beloved Ancil Hoffman Park facility.

Anderson comes to Carmichael from a similar job on the Putah Creek Council – an organization with stewardship of more than 70 miles of waterways in several Northern California counties. The Roseville-Resource Management degree at Chico State University.

"My association with Effie Yeaw here for a program on bugs. I rememthe talk, the lights came on. We suddenly saw hundreds of nocturnal insects that had been attracted to the screen. The naturalist identified the bugs and carefully passed some of them around. For a kid, being able to touch and feel the creatures was the big takeaway. This is typical of how we like to educate at Effie Yeaw. It's all about the people who've come to learn. We'd rather be guides on the side than sages on stage." The naturalist likens Effie Yeaw's 17 staff and 235 volunteers to a big family. "People here make you feel welraised executive earned his Natural come," he says. "It's obvious they love the work they do. They're amazing as individuals and as a team."

More than 100-thousand visitors began as a child," he recalls. "I came per year attend Nature Center programs and explore trails that traverse ber how the presenter really got the its preserve. Though the non-profit nature Center at www.sacnaturecenaudience participating. At end of lost public funding nine years ago, operations continue thanks to community support, under the American River Natural History Association's administration.

The new executive looks forward to 2020 fundraisers: two Bird and Breakfast programs are scheduled for March 28 and April 4; the annual spring gala and art auction will raise paddles on June 13; the fall NatureFest open day (October 11) will enable much animal and human interaction.

Upcoming center improvements include the construction of a new education area and outdoor aviaries. "It's an exciting time for people to reengage with Effie Yeaw," considers Anderson. "And it's an exciting time for me to join the team."

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - We are less than a month away from the March 3 Presidential Primary and ballots are officially in the mail. All registered voters in Sacramento County will receive a Vote-By-Mail ballot. More about the Voter's Choice Act (VCA)

Sacramento County is one of the original five counties in California that implemented the Voter's Choice Act in 2018, expanding voting opportunities for all residents. Voter Registration and Elections saw positive results in the primary and general election in 2018 and looks forward to improved ease and access for voters as we enter the 2020 Election cycle. As a reminder, here are the changes the VCA allows:

Choose how, when and where you want to vote:

By Mail: All registered voters will receive a ballot in the mail. Place the voted ballot inside the envelope provided, sign the envelope and return – your postage is paid!

Vote Center: With the passage of the California Voter's Choice Act, traditional polling places have been replaced with Vote Centers that are open for up to 11 days, including Election Day. This means voters can choose when, where and how they want to vote - at ANY Vote Center in the County. Avoid the lines, vote early!

An Epic Love Story

Clark and Carolyn have been Married for 76 Years

By Stephanie Jamison, Aegis of Carmichael

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) -Allow me to begin this story by mentioning what an integral role Clark and Carolyn play in our close knit Carmichael community. Individually, they are humble, kind and instantaneously likeable by all who meet them. And if you ever have the privilege of seeing them walk into a room to greet each other: Their eyes light up and they reach for each other as if they have been apart ages, promptly followed by "sweet nothings". It truly melts even the strongest of hearts each and every time it is witnessed. It is clear these two are the dearest of friends, still delighting in the company of one another. I often tell them that their story would rival any Hollywood movie. These two have that rare, true love that inspires us all, and together, this is

Celebrating Special Needs Kids Through Sports

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The Playmakers Organization - a local non-profit that coaches character through sports - is hosting a series of basketball game events for special needs kids in the Sacramento Region.

The next game will be held on Saturday, February 29 from 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM at Oak Hills Church (1100 Blue Ravine Rd. in Folsom). Oak Hills Church is a vital Playmakers partner, and Playmakers Board member Jerry Viers said having that location provided for the event is "priceless."

Viers has been a Playmakers volunteer for two years now, and he has watched his daughter Clarissa thrive in the Playmakers programs. Viers recently joined the Playmakers Board and is organizing the upcoming basketball game. He's excited to be "in

"Seeing where Playmakers is going with special needs kids really hits home for me," said Viers. "I was disabled at the age of 14, and I never had these types of opportunities." Viers believes that all kids deserve to fully participate in activities they enjoy, which is why he is such a strong supporter of The Playmakers Organization. "I'm in awe," he said. "Seeing the kids running, playing, and participating in sports makes me so proud." Viers is very grateful to be working with Playmakers to make a difference in the lives of so many kids.

Playmakers teaches kids the value of working together as part of a team while challenging themselves to do their best. These games give special needs kids a sense of confidence and inclusion. Every player is encouraged and celebrated

The players will be split into multiple teams that will participate in a tournament-style game. Folsom High School football players will work with the teams, assisting and supporting the kids throughout the game.

The event is open to the public and everyone is welcome to attend. The event will also feature a catered lunch donated by Chick-fil-A of Folsom. Registration for the event is open now. To sign up a special needs child to participate in the game, email viers_jerry@yahoo.com.

Playmakers sponsors for this event are Oak Hills Church, Chick-fil-A of Folsom, and Bayside Church of Citrus Heights. For more information about the programs offered by The Playmakers Organization, visit www. ThePlaymakers.org.

Rep. Bera Health Care Bills Endorsed by New Democrat Coalition

By Travis Horne

WASHINGTON, D.C. (MPG) - The New Democrat Coalition (NDC), the largest ideological House Caucus, endorsed two pieces of health care legislation introduced by Rep. Ami Bera, M.D. The two bills, the Pathway to Universal Coverage Act and the Easy Enrollment Act, give states the tools they need to boost coverage and simplify enrollment.

NDC Chair Derek Kilmer (WA-06) commented on the endorsement: "The American people deserve solutions that make real progress to improve our health care system, lower costs of care, and achieve affordable, universal coverage. Rep. Bera's bills do just that – they present common-sense and innovative solutions to improving health care coverage for Americans. The NDC is proud to endorse his legislation."

The NDC endorsed bills include:

H.R. 2061 – Pathway to Universal Coverage Act, which would authorize grants to states to experiment with ways to increase enrollment in their health insurance markets, with a particular focus on experimenting with auto-enrollment for those individuals who qualify for $0 premium health plans, but are currently uninsured.

H.R. 4336 - Easy Enrollment Act, which would align open enrollment periods for Exchange plans with the deadline for filing Federal income tax returns when individuals have more up-to-date financial information and may be receiving a tax refund.

"As a doctor, I know that health care is extremely personal and oftentimes very stressful," said Rep. Bera. "Too many hardworking families have been left behind by premiums they can't afford. The Pathway to Universal Coverage Act and the Easy Enrollment Act are two sensible steps we can take right now to expand affordable coverage to millions of Americans. I'm pleased that my legislation was endorsed by the New Democrat Coalition."

The New Democrat Coalition is made up of 103 forward-thinking Democrats who are committed to pro-economic growth, proinnovation, and fiscally responsible policies. New Democrats are a solutions-oriented coalition seeking to bridge the gap between left and right by challenging outmoded partisan approaches to governing. New Democrats believe the challenges ahead are too great for Members of Congress to refuse to cooperate purely out of partisanship.

Rep. Bera has been a member of the New Democrat Coalition since 2013 and currently serves as a leadership member.

SacRT Expands Microtransit Service to Six Additional Communities

On-Demand Shuttle Service is Now Available in Nine Areas. Photo Courtesy SacRT

By Jessica Gonzalez, Sacramento Regional Transit

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento Regional Transit District (SacRT) has expanded its popular ondemand microtransit service to six new communities and has a new app for all SmaRT Ride users. The expansion of this service makes SacRT the largest microtransit provider in the country with 42 shuttles.

We have seen great success with our other SmaRT Ride zones and we are excited to be able to provide this innovative mobility option to more communities," said SacRT General Manager/ CEO Henry Li. "This expansion is a huge milestone for SacRT as we continue to explore new transit options and improve access and mobility for our riders."

Similar to other ride-hailing services, SmaRT Ride relies on a smartphone app to schedule customized trips. The app, called SacRT SmaRT Ride, is powered by Via, the world's leading provider and developer of on-demand mobility solutions. Via's advanced algorithms enable multiple riders to seamlessly share the vehicle in an efficient manner.

"We are thrilled to partner with our innovative friends at SacRT to bring Via's technology to Sacramento," said Daniel Ramot, co-founder and CEO of Via. "The all-new SmaRT Ride service is now the largest on-demand microtranit an excellent example of how public transportation and technology can work together to make a city smarter." The service relies on small, neighborhood-friendly shuttle buses to easily maneuver on residential streets, and they conveniently accommodate people with disabilities.

The new service areas include: Arden, Carmichael, Downtown-Midtown-East Sacramento, Folsom, Gerber-Calvine, North Sacramento.

The new service zones offer cornerto-corner service where passengers are picked up and dropped off at the nearest corner or "virtual bus stop," which is usually within a block or two of their pickup or drop-off location, ensuring pickups and drop-offs are as efficient as

Riders in the previously launched services zones in Citrus Heights-Antelope-Orangevale, Franklin-South Sacramento, and Rancho Cordova will continue to use curb-to-curb service where passengers are picked up and dropped off at the address they indicated when scheduling the ride.

All SmaRT Ride users will need to download the new SacRT SmaRT Ride app. The new app is available to download for free on the App Store or Google Play. Simply search for "SacRT SmaRT Ride."

Following a SmaRT Ride request, the app provides passengers a text with an estimated pick-up time, allows passenget an alert when their ride is about to SmaRT Ride customers will also be able to request rides by calling 916-556-0100 or by going online to ondemand.

The cost to ride is only $2.50 per trip, $1.25 for those eligible for discount fare (seniors and persons with disabilities) or free for youth with the RydeFreeRT sticker or pass. Riders can also use their SacRT monthly pass. Groups of five of more are free; all riders must travel in a group of five or more from the same pick-up location to the same destination.

"SacRT is truly embracing the future of mobility by providing a more comfortable, convenient, and affordable way to move around their community," said Sacramento Board Chair and SacRT Board Chair Patrick Kennedy.

The new SmaRT Ride service is provided through Measure A funding. SacRT was awarded with a $12 million grant by the Sacramento Transportation Authority to help expand microtransit into new communities throughout the region.

"The STA is committed to improving transportation options in Sacramento County. We are pleased to see SacRT's commitment to enhancing public transit and access for residents. We believe that SmaRT Ride does this by providing convenient transportation that is also affordable," said STA Chair Darren

As part of the SmaRT Ride expansion, SacRT also rolled out six electric SmaRT Ride shuttles in the Downtown-Midtown-East Sacramento service area. In the next six months, three additional electric SmaRT Ride shuttles will be operating in the Franklin-South Sacramento zone. Those three shuttles are being provided by Electrify America.

SmaRT Ride has been in operation since February 2018, when it rolled out as a pilot service in Citrus Heights. To date, SacRT has provided more than 160,000 SmaRT Ride trips.

More information on the service, including maps of the service areas and hours of operation, is available at SacRT.

They made it through WWII and took turns supporting each other through college, career and raising a family. Together, that was their stronghold, sharing the same morals and goal: to raise a good family.

When asked what Carolyn thought was Clark's most endearing quality, the one that she loves him the most for, even after all these years, she said it was the simple fact that he is a great man, a wonderful husband and father. Often being the one to get up in the middle of their night to soothe their daughter Susie when she was a fussy newborn; She fondly recalls seeing him dancing with her in the middle of the night as he calmed her woes.

When prompted for advice on how to maintain a happy marriage that surpasses the test of time, Carolyn mentioned the importance of mutual respect, making your family your priority, and not going to bed angry. When asked what family tradition she thought was most important, she stated the importance of having quality family meals not only with immediate family, but extended family as well.

We couldn't agree more. We adore you, Clark and Carolyn! Happy Valentine's Day.

Dave Ramsey Says

I would've signed you up for. Your house payments, or rent, should be no more than 25 percent of your monthly take home pay. But your house payment isn't what's holding you two back. What's holding you two back is the fact that you haven't been willing to tighten up the finances in a home. No, I wouldn't refinance. You're fairly close where the mortgage payments are concerned, so I think you can make it through this by looking at ways to increase your income and selling stuff you don't need to build an emergency fund. You two have been smarter than some, but you're really going to have to buckle down and rearrange your priorities to make this happen!

Cash out my Roth IRA?

Dear Dave, I have around $15,000 in a Roth IRA. I just recently started studying your advice, and I was wondering if it would be a good idea to cash it out and put the money toward debt.

- Sarah

Dear Sarah, I teach people to stop payment isn't exactly what investing temporarily while they attack their debt. So. I wouldn't add anything to it at this point, but the worst thing you could do is cash it out. If you do, taxes and penalties will steal a huge chunk of that cash. The only time I take money out of a retirement account to pay off debt is to avoid bankruptcy or foreclosure.

> Start working the Baby Steps from the beginning. Baby Step 1 is saving up $1,000 for a starter emergency fund. Baby Step 2 is paying off all debts from smallest to largest, except for your home, using the debt snowball method. This will free up a ton of money! Then you're ready for Baby Step 3, which is increasing your beginner emergency fund to a fully-loaded emergency fund of three to six months of expenses.

> Now you're ready for Baby Step 4, which is 15 percent of your income going into retirement!

Local Award Winning Military Author to Discuss Vietnam War Stories

Will present his book Saigon Summer at the Library

By Margaret Snider

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Robert M. Pacholik enlisted in the Army when he was 20 years old and didn't even know where Vietnam was located. After 22 hours in the air from Travis Air Force Base to Vietnam, he landed at 4 a.m. on the third day of the Tet offensive in 1968. "I went to the mess hall to try to get food," Pacholik said, "and these two guys from 9th infantry showed up and said 'Are you Pachookatak or some damn thing?" Pacholik admitted that he was the photographer that had been sent, the two men said, "Good, our guy got killed yesterday, so you're with us." That was his introduction to Vietnam.

Pacholik will appear at the Rancho Cordova Library at 10 a.m., Saturday, February 22, to tell about his experiences and his latest book, Saigon Summer. Since the Vietnam War the author has written three books, two of which are about the war. Pacholik became part of a five man unit whose job was to document their part of the war with still and motion picture cameras. "I trained the unit, we went into action, and we recorded all of the combat actions during the next Robert M. Pacholik, of Carmichael, shows the two medals he won from different organizations for his book Night Flares. Pacholik helped out at Veterans Connect at the Rancho Cordova Library for three years. Next to him, manning the station on this day, is Rell Schwanke, U.S. Army Aviation Retired. two years, in probably 14 major combat units," Pacholik said.

With almost 549,000 men in the country, U.S. Army logistics was delivering 9 million pounds of cargo a month to supply them, but the units were not receiving them. Saigon Summer is an indictment of those who were responsible for running the central core of the Saigon black market. It is also a record of what happened to Pacholik's five man unit when they discovered the truth of the black market and what was happening. Though fictionalized in the sense that names have been changed, Pacholik said, "Every single event that occurs in the book happened to me or one of the five men in the unit."

Pacholik is a journalist and was awarded the bronze medal by Military Writers Society for his book Night Flares. That book also won a silver medal from Independent Publishers. The author will have his books available for sale in his appearance at the library, including Saigon Summer. He has previously helped at Veterans Connect @ the Library in Rancho Cordova from 2016 to 2018. The library is located at 9845 Folsom Blvd. Sacramento, CA 95827. ★

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT BLOCK GRANT (CDBG)
NOTICE OF 30-DAY PUBLIC REVIEW AND COMMENT
PERIOD FOR THE 2020-2024 DRAFT CONSOLIDATED
PLAN AND 2020 ANNUAL ACTION PLAN; AND 15-DAY
PUBLIC REVIEW OF THE DRAFT 2019 CONSOLIDATED
ANNUAL PERFORMANCE AND EVALUATION REPORT
(CAPER)

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a 30-day public review and comment period for the 2020-2024 Draft Consolidated Plan and 2020 Annual Action Plan will commence on February 28, 2020 and will continue until March 28, 2020. The City is estimating that Rancho Cordova will receive approximately $500,000 in CDBG funds for 2020.

The CDBG program provides funding for activities that benefit low-income persons, eliminate slum or blight, or serve an urgent need. Eligible activities include property acquisition, public improvements, housing rehabilitation, economic development, and public services.

As a recipient of CDBG funding, the City has developed a fiveyear Consolidated Plan that outlines the City's priority needs and the subsequent goals to be developed for low-income and special needs residents. The five-year Consolidated Plan is designed to help the city assess the priority needs within the community regarding affordable housing and community development-related projects.

The Consolidated Plan also contains the 2020 Annual Action Plan, which generally describes how the City will utilize program funds for eligible activities during the 2020 fiscal year. The Annual Action Plan can be amended as needed to reallocate funds to housing and community development activities.

2020–2024 Consolidated Plan and 2020 Annual Action Plan documents will be made available to the public for at least 30 days before adoption by the City Council. The documents will be released on February 28, 2020 for public review and comment, and will be available at City Hall and the City's Community Development website at https://www.cityofranchocordova.org/departments/community-development/housing/community-development-block-grant

The purpose of this public review will be to give citizens an opportunity to make their comments known regarding community needs and potential activities to be funded under the CDBG Program. If you would like to contact the City for more information, please call (916) 851-8700. In addition, information is available for review at Rancho Cordova City Hall (2729 Prospect Park Drive, Rancho Cordova, CA 95670) between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. on weekdays.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a 15-day public review and comment period for the 2019 Draft Consolidated Annual Performance and Evaluation Report (CAPER) will commence on February 28, 2020 and will continue until March 13, 2020. The community is invited to review and comment on the Draft 2019 CAPER which reports on the expenditures and accomplishments of the CDBG program over the last fiscal year.

Thank you for your interest in the CDBG program.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF ROY SHELTON GENTRY JR

CASE No. 34-2019-00270449 To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, and contingent creditors of and persons who may be otherwise interested in the will estate, or both of Roy Gentry, Roy S. Gentry, Roy Shelton Gentry, Jr., deceased A Petition for Probate has been filed by Mike Wells, in the Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, requesting Mike Wells, be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent. The petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court. The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the executor to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the executor will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or have consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A hearing on the petition will be held in this court as follows March 5, 2020 9:00 a.m. in Dept 129 at Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento 3341 Power Inn Road Sacramento, CA 95826. IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law. YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. Loving Yourself

It's just around the corner. It's called Valentine's Day and everyone thinks a card, candy, dinner, wine, soft music and you can take it from there. Got to make it perfect for her or him. Are you into all of that and more? I got some good advice from Dr. Michael McGee who has helped hundreds of patients make a difference in their own lives in so many ways including loving yourself. He is author of "The Joy of Recovery" which has garnered many awards for its advice. He told me that love is not a feeling. Love is an attitude of reverence that inspires us to act to nurture life---our lives, the lives of others and all of life. Love is ATTITUDE + ACTION. So you can become a loving person and Dr. McGee says it's a three-part process.

HEAL

Heal your wounds. If you have suffered from trauma or neglect, get therapy. Our woundness poisons our capacity for reverence.

reverence" for yourself Hope, Humility, Integrity, and others through spiritual practices of appreciative attending. These include loving kindness meditation, silent prayer, and other stillness practices. Awaken to your sacred nature and the sacredness of all things.

LOVE

A) Love Yourself. Be your own ideal parent. Treat yourself as your own cherished child. Abstain from addictions and harmful relationships. Take very good care of yourself. Eat healthy, exercise, get adequate sleep, minimize stress, rest, have fun and play.

B) Let Others Love You. Open your heart to safe, healthy, loving people. Have the courage to connect. Let others love you. Learn to love from being with loving others. Let others teach you how to love.

C.) Love Others. Every day, set an intention to love. When you love others, you feel more lovable.

Then he gave me a full list of the love practices: Acceptance, Accountability, Affirmation, Assertiveness, Authenticity, Caution, Collaborations, Compassion, Connection, Consideration, Contentment, Courage, Devotion, Discipline, Empathy, Endurance, Forgiveness, Generosity, Gratitude, Helpfulness, Kindness, Nurturing Patience, Protection, Repair, Respect and Trust. Lots to take in, but Dr. McGee said that, of all these love practices, connection and humility are foundational. The idea is that you can act your way into feeling good by doing good. These practices create a feeling of good doing good ... a virtuous cycle.

Dr. McGee will join me on Friday Feb 14 (Valentine's Day) on POPPOFF to talk about true love and how it is different from bring "in love." He tells me we can become masters at the art of loving. You can check out his website and his books at www.michaelmcgee.com. And remember LOVE IS NOT A FEELING! LOVE IS AN ATTITUDE!

Here's a final thought from yours truly. How can you expect someone to love you if you don't love yourself? That should give you something to think about before all that other stuff... cards, candy, dinner etc. But got to admit, some flowers WOULD be nice!

Many of the staff that were there when she arrived had worked there since it opened its doors, and they are still there today. That says a lot to me about how much they enjoy what they do. My mom gave so much to others as a nurse for over 30 years that it's nice to see her now on the receiving end as she is now getting the same kind of care she once gave."

Social Security Matters

By Russell Gloor, AMAC Certified Social Security Advisor

Dear Rusty: I have worked my entire life and contributed to Social Security. I have been single my entire life with no children. What happens to all that money I have contributed to Social Security if I die at age 62? Signed: Curious Worker

Dear Curious: From its inception in 1935, Social Security has always been a "pay as you go" program where current workers contribute money from which current beneficiaries are paid. That's the way it has worked since the first Social Security payroll withholding occurred in 1937 and the first Social Security benefit was paid in 1940. And it works the same way today.

Social Security FICA payroll taxes collected from current workers are used to pay all those who are currently receiving benefits. Any excess collected which is not paid out in benefits is deposited into a special Trust Fund and held in reserve for the future. My hope is that understanding this will dispel a far too widely held myth that the money you pay into the Social Security program from your paycheck is deposited into a personal account for you it is not. Rather that money is used to pay benefits to all those who are already collecting Social Security. And the extra money in the Trust Fund is invested in special interest-bearing bonds which contribute further to the Trust Fund's reserves (more about the Trust Fund in a minute).

If you were to pass away at, or before, age 62, all the money you paid into Social Security via FICA payroll taxes will have already been spent to pay benefits to those already collecting Social Security. With no surviving dependents, there are no benefits to be paid from your lifetime work record. True you will have paid a great deal over your working career, but the system is designed so that when you retire your benefits will be paid for by those who are still working and paying into the system. Of course, it's a game of averages and Social Security says health, chances are pretty good you will live beyond age 62. Chances are also pretty good that if you do, you'll get back much more in benefits than you have contributed. In fact, if you start collecting benefits at your full retirement age you will get back benefits at least equal to what you contributed within about 5 years (we've studied this carefully). Which brings us back to the Trust Fund.

The Social Security Trust Fund held about $2.9 trillion in reserves at the end of 2018. But over the years the ratio of workers to beneficiaries has declined from 16.5 to 1 in 1950 to less than 3 to 1 today, so there are far fewer workers paying for beneficiaries who are living much longer. Starting in 2019, Social Security will pay out more in benefits than it received from FICA payroll taxes, which means the excess paid out in benefits will come from the reserves in the Trust Fund. That will continue, according to the most recent Social Security Trustees' Report, until the Trust Fund is depleted in about 2035, at which time Social Security will only be able to pay out about 80% of benefits due - unless Congress acts soon to resolve the issue. And the solutions are well known; what's lacking in Congress is a serious bipartisan effort to fix the problem.

Court Grants Preliminary Injunction for CTA and Independent Truckers

By Bernice Creager, California Trucking Association

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The U.S. Southern District Court granted a preliminary injunction to enjoin enforcement of California's new employment classification test against motor carriers. This classification test was first set forth in the Dynamex Operations West, Inc. v. Superior Court (Dynamex) decision and was subsequently codified by the California Legislature in the form of Assembly Bill 5 (AB 5). The bill was set to take effect on January 1, 2020.

"This ruling is a significant win for California's more than 70,000 independent owner-operators and CTA members who have worked as independent truckers for decades, and who have invested hundreds of thousands of dollars to own their own vehicle and comply with California's strict environmental guidelines and regulations over the years." said Shawn Yadon, chief executive officer for the California Trucking Association (CTA).

The CTA filed the motion for a preliminary injunction as part of its November 2019 lawsuit challenging the constitutionality of AB 5, which would prohibit independent drivers from contracting and performing trucking services for licensed motor carriers in California. In the lawsuit, which seeks declaratory and injunctive relief, plaintiffs argue that the Dynamex ruling should not be enforced because it is preempted under the supremacy clause of the U.S. Constitution, which sets the decision in direct conflict with a federal law passed by Congress in 1994 to prevent states from enacting punitive laws that affect a motor carrier's prices, routes and services of the trucking industry.

The End of 2016

And so 2016 finally draws to a close.

It's been the longest election year in American history. It ran from Feb. 1, 2016, the date of the Iowa caucuses, to the Senate vote to acquit President Donald Trump in early February 2020.

It's true that Nov. 6, 2016, was a signal event in this long election year, but it didn't really conclude anything, even though the result wasn't in doubt. Usually, contested elections are ties or near-ties. This is the first time an election has gone into overtime, with repeated attempts at what were in effect recounts, despite the winner comfortably prevailing (Donald Trump won handily in electoral votes, the measure that determines the outcome, 304-227). Immediately Democrats robbed, and Hillary Clinton did indeed get some bad breaks during the campaign, most consequently at the hands of then-FBI director James Comey. Such is life in

left was in a mood to move

Rather taking stock and recalibrating as warranted, Democrats remained fixated on 2016. Rather than simply mobilizing opposition to Trump's agenda and reelection, as any opposition always does, they mused about how to reverse the 2016 result. Rather than acknowledging the nearimpossibility of removing a duly elected president, they indulged in fantasies about how to do exactly that.

Above all, they obsessed about Russia as the cause of their undoing in 2016. With enough investigation, all would be made plain, the Trump-Russia conspiracy would be unraveled, the walls would close in, and the world would be restored to its axis. The rightful winner of 2016 wouldn't take office, but the wrongful winner would be vanquished. What voters in Michigan, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin failed to do, the grinding machinery of investigation would achieve.

When the Mueller probe didn't produce the impeachment that the Democrats had expected with such fervent certainty, it seemed concluded that they'd been briefly they'd finally have to accept the outcome of 2016, however grudgingly. Then, Ukraine emerged, and impeachment was, thankfully and gloriously, back on. the National Review.

Russia was a proximpeachment over Ukraine. The Democrats charged that Trump sought Ukrainian interference in our elections, just as he had sought Russian interference (for all their interest in the Mueller investigation, Democrats have never absorbed its conclusion that there is no evidence that Trump colluded with the Russians). Absent their conviction that Trump is an illegitimate president, Democrats would have been, understandably, outraged by Ukraine and determined to investigate it, but they wouldn't have impeached over it.

In this sense, the Senate trial is the last act in the 2016 election. It establishes, once and for all, that he won't leave office prior to the end of his first term. It makes it clear that another election, not some other mechanism. will be necessary to remove him. It represents the final failure of the investigatory apparatus around Trump's alleged Russia collusion to deliver Democrats from the consequences of their 2016

Trump, obviously, isn't blameless in any of this. But he is not a Russian agent. He won the presidency in a free and fair election, and despite his attempted removal, will have a chance to do so again. On to 2020.

The Faith of Troy Polamalu

By Dr. Gary S. Smith, The Institute for Faith & Freedom

Troy Polamalu, who played safety for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 2003 to 2014, has been elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. He will enter the hall with Bill Cowher, who coached the team for his first four seasons, and defensive back Donnie Shell, both selected as part of the hall's special class to celebrate the NFL's 100th year.

Polamalu's "combination of speed, anticipation, and toughness" made the eight-time Pro Bowler one of the best at his position in NFL history. Polamalu was named a first-team All-Pro four times and the NFL's MVP in 2010 and won two Super Bowl rings. Many football pundits argue that he revolutionized the safety position. For a dozen years, Polamalu was the public face of the Steelers' franchise because of his stellar performance and his television commercials for Head & Shoulders shampoo.

While playing with the Steelers, Polamalu was also widely known as one of the NFL's most devout Christians. In his book "The Tebow Mystique," Patton Dodd reported that Polamalu was "mentioned by fellow players for his spiritual devotion" more than anyone else. The NFL, David Kamp wrote, abounded with "Bible-study groups and postgame prayer circles. But even in this context, Polamalu stands out." Polamalu, Kamp argued, was different from other Christian stars such as Roger Staubach and Reggie White. He was "a mystic, a man more fourth century than twenty-first, living in constant dialogue with the Deity." "What truly marks Polamalu as a man apart," Kamp concluded, "is his godliness."

The youngest of five children, Polamalu was raised by a single mother on welfare in an impoverished, crime-ridden Los Angeles neighborhood. Polamalu spent more time on the streets than with his mother. By third grade, he was stealing lunch every day from a local grocery store. To escape this environment, he moved to Oregon to live with his uncle Salu Polamalu and his wife where he attended fourth through twelfth grade. In Oregon, Troy attended a Catholic high school and developed a close personal relationship with God. Polamalu reports that in high school, "I was almost constantly in prayer."

After joining the Steelers in 2003, Polamalu undertook a spiritual quest that led him and his wife Theodora to become Orthodox Christians in 2007. For several years, Polamalu read books and talked with priests, pastors, and Roman Catholic, Greek Orthodox, and Buddhist monks to develop "a deeper, more consistent experience of God." His study of Scripture and church history reaffirmed his childhood faith in Christianity and persuaded him that Eastern Orthodoxy was the most biblical and spiritually meaningful form. During his investigation, Polamalu spent four days in a monastery in Greece conversing with Orthodox monks. This experience contributed to Troy's and Theodora's decision to join the Greek Orthodox Church. After studying with a Greek Orthodox priest in Pittsburgh for a year, they were baptized into the faith. Polamalu began to understand the Bible more clearly and fully. Thereafter, the Polamalus attended worship services at several Greek Orthodox parishes in Pittsburgh.

For Polamalu, the essence of faith is surrendering to God. While playing for the Steelers, he declared, "I try to serve God, through football, with passion." "As Mother Teresa said, God calls us not to be successful but to be faithful," Polamalu asserted. He denounced the "idea that the more pious" people were, the more successful they will be, as "very dangerous." "If you look at faith in that way," he added, "you're bound to fail" both "spiritually and in your career." For Polamalu, winning two Super Bowls paled compared to the fulfillment God provided.

Trying to reconcile the Samoan warrior spirit of his ethnic heritage with Greek Orthodox teachings, Polamalu admitted, was challenging. He strove, however, "to be a valiant Christian warrior" who controlled his passions. "Football," Polamalu avowed, has "its demons-prestige, ego, avarice"-that players must battle. Football, Polamalu argued, is "a very spiritual sport" because players must deal with "the fear of failure," pride, and being criticized for making a mistakes. What set Troy apart, Gina Mazza Hillier insisted, was his ability to keep "love at the center of his sport."

In the early 2010s when Tim Tebow's religious rituals on the gridiron and references in interviews to his "Lord and Savior Jesus Christ" were extensively publicized, Amy Frykholm wrote about "The Other Devout Christian on the Field" in "Christian Century." "I wish I could capture Polamalu's very different kind of spirituality amid the football season's endless hype," she declared, but "a rich and complex life of faith is hard to sum up.'

During his playing career, many teammates and opponents expressed great admiration and affection for Polamalu. They respected his temperament, character, compassion, and Christian faith. Numerous players testified that Polamalu positively influenced their faith. When Steeler safety Shamarko Thomas asked him how to be great, Polamalu replied that greatness is about "putting God first and just doing the right things in your

Off the field, Polamalu made weekly unpublicized visits to cancer patients at Pittsburgh's Children's Hospital and created a foundation to aid the needy. Many hospital staff "marveled at Polamalu's attentiveness." "When he comes in," observed a child-life specialist, "he makes the kids feel like they are the most important person in the room." Polamalu's foundation helps fund the hospital, provided housing for residents of American Samoa who were displaced by a 2009 tsunami, and supports the initiatives of Focus+ Pittsburgh, an Orthodox organization that combats poverty in western Pennsylvania.

Polamalu deserves to be honored not only for his outstanding performance on the gridiron but also for his exemplary Christian witness and charitable deeds.

California Rooftop Solar Mandate Basics

Commentary by Ben Davis, California Solar and Storage Association

Under new rules adopted in 2018 by the California Energy Commission, starting January 1, 2020, new homes must be constructed to generate solar electricity through panels typically placed on the home's roof. The solar mandate is expected to zero out energy consumption in newly constructed homes covered by the standard. The new mandate recognizes that with today's technology and availability, solar capabilities are an essential part of new home construction much like water heaters and stove-tops.

The rules apply to all new single-family homes and multi-family complexes up to three stories in height. The size of the solar system installed must be based on the home's floor area square footage and sized to meet the annual kilowatt-hour energy usage of the home.

Energy storage, typically in the form of a battery in the garage, will also get a boost from the new 2020 standards. For the first time, the addition of energy storage devices in the home will generate a credit toward meeting minimum building efficiency standards. This credit gives builders greater flexibility in meeting the state's stringent energy efficiency codes and are expected to become increasingly popular with consumers concerned about grid reliability.

There are limited exceptions included in the mandate if solar is infeasible, such as at homes that are shaded by trees or other pre-existing buildings.

solar mandate will make home ownership more affordable. Homeowner savings on their utility bills are expected to exceed the

(GW) of rooftop solar throughout the state within 10 years. The program met its goal in 2015, ahead of schedule, and the market has continued to grow. Today, California consum-corresponding increase in mortgage payments by $35 per month. Furthermore, alternative financing models such as power purchase agreements give homebuyers the option of including solar without any additional cost to the home.

California is the first state in the nation to enact a solar mandate for new home construction.

Solar Surging in California

The new home solar mandate comes as solar energy is quickly becoming a mainstream appliance across California.

Solar advocates recently celebrated reaching the One Million Solar Roofs milestone, an audacious vision signed into law in 2006 by Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger.

The benefits of the Million Solar Roofs Initiative exceeded expectations. The initiative's goal was to build 3 gigawatts ers have installed nearly 9 gigawatts of solar energy, three-fold the original goal. Those 9 gigawatts of solar energy—the size equivalent of six large natural gas power plants-generate more than 13 billion kilowatt-hours of clean electricity each year avoiding 22 million tons of CO2, 16,000 tons of smog-forming pollutants, over 350 billion cubic feet of natural gas, and bypassing expensive and aging utility infrastructure. Due to this steady market growth, the price of solar energy has dropped 80% paving the way for today's solar home mandate. It is now more cost effective to include solar on the home than it is to build a home without solar. In other words, the homeowner saves more money owning a solar home than a non-solar home, making solar energy a no-brainer addition to a home, just like insulation

and double-paned windows

will more than quadruple that figure, causing a boon in the new home solar Utilities Standing in the Way of Success?

Effort by utility companies to circumvent the requirements of the new home solar mandate threaten progress in California.

Municipal Utility District (SMUD) recently submitted a plan to the California outs. Solar and storage Energy Commission that advocates applaud the would allow builders to forgo installing rooftop solar by pointing to large SMUD-controlled solar farms which could be located far from the new housing development. PG&E was quick to support SMUD's proposal before the Energy Commission. While the Commission has yet to rule on the plan, legal and solar experts believe such operations would violate both the

Next Step for California: Solar + Storage

With the expansion of solar powered energy on the move, solar advocates are focusing on the next logical step: paring solar power with solar battery storage. Current solar and battery technologies are transforming the future of energy and creating new opportunities for California to reach 100% clean, renewable energy. The ability to store energy for use when and where it is needed is a simple but revolutionary step forward for consumers. With today's batteries, homeowners and businesses can store solar energy for use after sundown or during a blackout. This smooths out prices, takes pressure off the electric grid, and gives consumers a degree of reliability unheard of a few years ago.

The California Public Utilities Commission recently proposed expanding rebates for consumers to add a battery to their home, whether for new or existing homes, with The Sacramento a great emphasis on disadvantaged communities facing the threat of blackavailability of rebates and urge the state to make them available to all consumers to help drive down the cost of batteries and reach the state's clean energy goals.

> Having successfully reached the One Million Solar Roofs goal and enacted the new home solar mandate, solar advocates are calling for one million solar-charged batteries in California by
