SacRT Launches Express Bus Service to the Airport

By Jessica Gonzalez, Sacramento Regional Transit

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento Regional Transit District (SacRT) has launched a new bus route with service between downtown Sacramento and the Sacramento International Airport. The new route 142 operates seven days a week every 20 to 30 minutes combined with Yolobus downtown/airport routes 42A and 42B.

"Airport express bus service is an easy, affordable way to avoid parking fees and ride-hailing surge pricing," said SacRT General Manager/CEO Henry Li. "This is a great solution to provide a frequent mobility option from downtown Sacramento to the airport while we pursue additional funding to extend the Green Line light rail to the airport."

"Yolobus has been providing hourly service from downtown Sacramento to the airport for years, but this new partnership with SacRT will make it much more convenient for riders," said Yolobus Executive Director Terry Bassett. "We have heard from our riders that they value more frequent bus service, this is a great step forward."

There are several downtown drop-off and pickup locations along J Street, L Street and Capitol in downtown Sacramento with direct service to Terminals A and B at the Sacramento International Airport. The new bus route 142 starts service as early as 3:24 a.m. and operates just past midnight.

"We are thrilled SacRT has started bus service to SMF," says Sacramento County Airports Director Cindy Nichol. "This has been a long desired service for our passengers and a great connector between downtown and the airport."

SacRT is offering free rides on the Route 142 until Friday, January 31 to celebrate the new airport express route. Yolobus is also offering free rides on Routes 42A and 42B that go between downtown and the airport. Starting Saturday, February 1, the cost will be $2.50 for a single ride, $1.25 for discount eligible riders or free for students in grades TK through 12. For Yolobus Routes 42A and 42B, the cost is $2.25 per trip, $1 for discount eligible riders and free for students.

Rotarians Brighten Kids' Haven

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Thanks to Carmichael Rotarians, an after-school kids' hangout now offers more vibrant space for patrons to cool sneakered heels.

Rotary volunteers recently worked long hours to apply gallons of fresh paint; to install new shelves and cubbies and to spread colorful new rugs in the Carmichael Park District's Engle Road kids' facility. Young patrons who saw the facelift were "flabbergasted by the change," according to a park staffer.

Improvements were long overdue. The hangout program has for many years used a former La Sierra High School locker room as its haven for kids of working parents. With adult supervision, up to

CHP Encourages California Motorists to Prepare for New Year With New Traffic Laws

By Jaime Coffee, California Highway Patrol

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - New laws approved by the California Legislature in 2019 will affect roadway safety in several ways, including increased distracted driving penalties, peace officer use of deadly force, bicycle turning movements at intersections, wildlife salvage permits, and motor carrier permit rules.

In support of the Department's mission of providing the highest level of Safety, Service, and Security, the California Highway Patrol (CHP) is highlighting several new laws passed this year. Except where noted, these laws are effective January 1, 2020.

License Points for Distracted Driving (AB 47, Daly)

Current law prohibits a person from driving a motor vehicle while using a wireless telephone in a handheld manner; if found in violation, the offense is punishable by a fine. However, beginning July 1, 2021, this new law will levy an additional penalty on a driver found in violation of California's hands-free law: a point will be added on to a driver's record for each hands-free violation occurring within 36 months of a prior conviction for the same offense.

Peace Officer use of Deadly Force (AB 392, Weber)

Beginning January 1, 2020, this new law revises the standards for use of deadly force by peace officers. The use of deadly force by a peace officer is justifiable when the officer reasonably believes it is necessary. Section 835a of the Penal Code amends the reasonable force standard to "objectively reasonable force."

Law Enforcement: Use of Deadly Force: Training: Policies (SB 230, Caballero)

With the enactment of AB 392, this new law requires law enforcement agencies to rewrite use of force policy and provide mandatory training to all peace officers in order to comply with the new law.

Traffic Control Devices: Bicycles (AB 1266, Rivas)

This new law allows bicycles to travel straight through a right or left-hand turn-lane while at an intersection, if an official traffic control device indicates the movement is permitted. The Department of Transportation would be required to develop standards to implement the provisions.

Transportation: Omnibus Bill (AB 1810, Committee on Transportation)

Amends Section 34621 of the California Vehicle Code (CVC) allowing motor carriers of property to continue operating for 30 days past their permit expiration date, under specified circumstances. This legislation also provided for an amendment to Section 23229 CVC. California law will now prohibit the consumption of cannabis, in any manner, by passengers in a bus, taxicab, pedicab, limousine, housecar, or camper. This exemption is now only applicable to alcoholic beverages consumed by passengers in these types of vehicles.

Wildlife Salvage Permits (SB 395, Archuleta)

Directs the Department of Fish and Wildlife to conduct a wildlife-collision data collection pilot program to support wildlife conservation efforts. Additionally, this bill would authorize the Fish and Game Commission, in consultation with the CHP and other stakeholders, to establish a wildlife salvage pilot program authorizing the issuance of a permit for the removal and recovery of deer, elk, pronghorn antelope, and wild pigs killed because of a collision with a vehicle, if the wild game meat is used for human consumption. ★

Stay Safe in the Cold - Tips for Pets and People

By Janna Haynes, Sacramento County

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - Now that we are moving into winter-weather conditions and temperatures, it's a great time to review cold weather tips:

Check on elderly family members, friends or neighbors. Seniors and those with serious medical conditions are at risk. Check on community members that might be vulnerable to ensure they are safely keeping warm.

Bring your pets inside when temperatures start to dip near freezing. A dog or cat left outside in severe cold weather can die quickly from exposure. Except for exercise and walks, all dogs and cats are safer indoors during the winter. Make sure they have a warm, draft-free place indoors with a dry mat or blanket that they can lie on. For additional winter weather tips for animals, check out the Bradshaw Animal Shelter's website.

Heat your home safely - carbon monoxide is a silent killer. It is not OK to heat the inside of your home with any kind of BBQ, propane heater, or any other fuel-fired equipment due to the risk of carbon monoxide poisoning. Only use heaters installed with your home and those designed to be used indoors. Make sure that your natural gas furnaces and other appliances are in good, clean working order.

Insulate outdoor pipes that lead into your home to prevent freezing. Seal with caulk around the pipes that lead into and out of your home. Inside your home, leave the bathroom and under-sink cabinets open to help warm the water. If your pipes freeze, leave your tap on and call a plumber. You can defrost your pipes using a hairdryer on a low setting, working your way slowly from the faucet to where your pipe enters the wall. County residents who need to have their water turned off in order to make repairs to their lines can go online or call 311 (or 916-875-4311 if calling from out of the area).

Winter-weather conditions and temperatures are upon us, now is a great time to review cold weather tips. MPG file photo

Ensure proper drainage by scooping up leaves and debris. Keeping storm drains clear can prevent street flooding and black ice from forming.

When raining, reduce your vehicle speed. Wet roads increase the distance and time needed to stop your vehicle. Be extra cautious on roads, bridges and overpasses when temperatures are 32 degrees or below due to black ice - slow down and give yourself extra spacing between vehicles in front of you.

Watch for tree limbs. As temperatures dip, trees become vulnerable to limbs snapping. For downed trees or branches in the roadway, County residents can go online or call 311 (or 916-875-4311 if calling from out of the area).

Prepare for wind. Secure yard items that may blow around and be prepared for the possibility of loss of power. For downed power lines, stay away and call 9-1-1 immediately.

Sign-up for Emergency Alerts. This system alerts residents about emergency events and other important public safety information quickly in a variety of situations, such as severe weather, unexpected road closures, missing persons and evacuations of buildings or neighborhoods.

Where to get help. Call 211 in Sacramento or go online for information on emergency shelter services.

so children could do their homework," explained Parks Foundation president Sharon Ruffner. "But the old locker room was hardly a cheerful place. We're grateful the Rotarians came to the rescue."

Rotary President Vicky Boatwright jumped at the chance for a hands-on club project. "We love to improve children's lives," she says. "When we first saw the rooms, the paint was peeling. It felt dreary and depressing. Our efforts have made the space more cheerful." After her club fundraising was matched by Rotary district 5180, the combined Rotary contribution provided $7,400 for the project. Club volunteers spent a weekend painting walls and 2,700 square feet of concrete floor. Installation of furniture, carpets and 100 new chairs followed.

"The children and their parents were so delighted they've decided to continue improving the hangout with their own personal touches," reports club community service chairman Dr. Richard Bauer. "We feel energized by such a great response. Serving the community is what Rotary is all about."

Dave Ramsey Says

How to Make Goals and Resolutions Become Reality

Dear Dave, My wife and I have our budget ready for next month, and we'll be following your plan in 2020 to pay off debt and get our finances in order. Do you have any tips for setting and sticking to goals in general?

– Rick

Dear Rick,

That's a fantastic goal. Living on a monthly budget, and telling your money where to go instead of wondering where it went, is an important step toward gaining control of your finances. Combine that with getting out of debt, and you'll be in charge of your most powerful wealth-building tool – your income.

If you're following my plan, you already have goals in front of you where your money is concerned. For most Americans, though, a new year means nothing more than new resolutions without real plans. Don't get me wrong. It's good to make resolutions and set goals, but you can't stop there. You have to formulate a plan that turns your dreams into bite-sized pieces of progress that will gradually create a big event in your life. If you want to achieve your goals, then keep these next things in mind.

When setting goals, be very specific in what you want to achieve. Include steps that will help you get there, too. Being vague will only cause you to feel directionless and overwhelmed. Most people give up when these feelings arise.

Make your goals measurable. If you want to lose weight, don't simply write down "lose weight" as a goal. Exactly how much weight do you want to lose? What will it take in terms of exercise and dietary changes to make it happen?

Are your goals your goals? Only you can realistically set your own goals. If your spouse, co-worker, or friend sets a goal for you, chances are you're not going to achieve it. Taking ownership will give you more opportunity to meet your goal.

Also, set time limits for your goals. Putting a time frame in place will help you set realistic goals. If you want to save a certain amount of money for a particular event, break it down and determine how much cash you need to put into your savings account each month leading up to that event.

And finally, put your goals and resolutions in writing. Putting them in writing will make you more likely to achieve them. Write down your goals, and review them often. This will give you motivation to make them reality.

I believe this is the process for success, Rick. Successful people reassess their lives regularly, and start living intentionally, in writing, and on purpose. Happy New Year!

TV GUIDE MAGAZINE

By Damian Holbrook

Cheers to The Morning Show

for getting its act together. After a scattered first season – with a WTF musical bit – Apple TV+'s glossy drama delivered a nerve-shredding, perfectly paced finale that saw feuding news anchors Alex and Bradley (Jennifer Aniston and Reese Witherspoon) uniting on-air to take down the toxic men at the top.

Jeers to The Masked Singer's Off-Key Eliminations

Maybe it all sounds differently from inside the studio, but we cannot mask our disappointment that actual vocalists like Ana Gasteyer, Destiny's Child alum Michelle Williams (pictured) and Patti LaBelle were sent home before some dude who plays basketball in Indiana. Either the voting system or the judges' hearing needs to be fixed.

Jeers to The Screen Actors Guild Awards

for snubbing Succession after it thrilled us with the bravest second season ever. Ignoring HBO's sharp satire and the insanely gifted ensemble of Jeremy Strong, Sarah Snook, Kieran Culkin and Brian Cox as a Machiavellian media family? Maybe SAG should be renamed SAD.

Cheers to The Witcher for being a suitable heir to Game of Thrones. With star Henry Cavill killing it as a demon hunter to die for, Netflix's brutal, big-budget adaptation of the popular book and video game series is filling the Westeros-size hole in our hearts with television that isn't afraid to add some quiet, human moments to its epic fantasy. ★

Easter or Fourth of July? But it seems a long shot, because the limited-series format was always something of a risk for Fox, and neither the reviews nor the ratings made this look much like a hit franchise. Part of the problem was that this seemed to have come out of nowhere and didn't fit in with any of Fox's regular programming, and double-running episodes on three nights (not all of them consecutive) presented another scheduling hurdle. If Fox does order more – I can't imagine anyone else stepping up, though these days you never know – we'll be sure and report it.

ASK MATT

BY MATT ROUSH TV Guide Senior Critic

Will The Hilarious Moodys Be Back?

Question: I've just finished watching the final episode on Fox of The Moodys Christmas limited series with Denis Leary. That thing is a REAL HOOT! Funniest sitcom I've seen in a long time. Is there ANY chance that show will be picked up and continue with the same format, same actors – by any cable company? – Virginia to start off my final Ask Matt column for the year on a positive note. Glad you enjoyed The Moodys, even though that TV family (which also included Elizabeth Perkins and Jay Baruchel) didn't seem to be enjoying their holiday much throughout the six episodes. There is a remote possibility you could see the family again in another limited format, built around another family gathering at a different holiday time. (A Moodys

Matt Roush: Happy

CITATION TO PARENT

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA
 COUNTY OF SACRAMENTO
 CITATION TO PARENT (S)
 Case No.: 19 AD 00107
 DATE: 2/24/2020
 TIME: 11:00AM
 DEPARTMENT: 124

In re the Matter of the Petition of: GREGOR BRAGG AND KATRINA BRAGG on behalf of ELLIJANA BRAGG-BIDLEMAN For Freedom from Parental Control and Custody THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA TO: AMBER BRAGG AND STEVEN CRAIG BIDLEMAN By order of this court you are hereby advised that you may appear before the Judge presiding in department 124 of this court on 2/24/2020 at 11:00am then and there to show cause, if any you have, why ELLIJANA BRAGG-BIDLEMAN should not be declared free from your custody and control for the purpose of freeing ELLIJANA BRAGG-BIDLEMAN for placement for adoption. The following information concerns rights and procedures that related to this proceeding for the termination of custody and control of said minor as set forth in Family Code Section 7860 et seq: 1. At the beginning of the proceeding the court will consider whether or not the interests of the minor child require the appointment of counsel. If the court finds that the interests of the minor do require such protection, the court will appoint counsel to represent him, whether or not he is able to afford counsel. The minor will not be present in court unless she requests or the court so orders. 2. If a parent of the minor appears without counsel and is unable to afford counsel, the court must appoint counsel for the parent, unless the parent knowingly and intelligently waives the right to be represented by counsel. The court will not appoint the same counsel to represent both the minor and his/her parent. 3. The Court may appoint either the public defender or private counsel. If private counsel is appointed, he or she will receive reasonable sum for compensation and expenses, the amount of which will be determined by the court. That amount must be paid by the real parties in interest, but not by the minor, in such proportions as the court believes to be just. If, however, the court finds that any of the real parties in interest cannot afford counsel, the amount will be paid by the county. 4. The court may continue the proceeding for not more than thirty (30) days as necessary to appoint counsel to become acquainted with the case. DATE: December 30, 2019 by A. priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. The Sacramento Bee Ends Subscription Program

To Our Readers:

The Sacramento Bee has decided not to renew their program for the additional Sunday issue with Messenger Publishing Group regular subscriptions. The Bee cancelled the program effective 12/31/19. They will no longer be providing the Sunday edition through MPG.

MPG notified our readers through the regular monthly subscription notices sent out over the past few months. We had expected The Bee to offer a special trial subscription to each of the subscribers they had on our list to try to convert them to one of their many special rates and to also notify readers. They did not do so.

Better Balance for Every Day

Resolve to make nutritious eating a priority

Discovering a better version of yourself is all about striking balance. That's especially true when it comes to making smarter food choices that you can maintain over time.

A sustainable, long-term healthy eating approach, such as the Atkins low-carb lifestyle, emphasizes variety and balance. Start planning a low-carb menu filled with high-fiber carbohydrates, optimal protein and healthy fats with these tips from Colette Heimowitz, vice president of nutrition and education for Atkins.

Fill up with fiber-rich foods. Foods like vegetables, nuts, seeds, low-glycemic fruit (like berries) and whole unrefined grains are considered carbohydrates, but they don't raise your blood sugar the way processed carbs do. Fiber slows the entry of glucose into your bloodstream so you don't experience insulin spikes that encourage your body to produce and store body fat. Try to eat between 25-35 grams of fiber a day.

Reduce inflammation. A low-carb approach eliminates refined and processed foods and sugars that can cause inflammation. Focus on foods that decrease inflammation, such as colorful low-glycemic vegetables, low-sugar fruits, protein and healthy fats such as olive oil. The ground turmeric in this Golden Milk recipe offers an easy way to fight inflammation without sacrificing flavor.

Kickstart your morning. Start your day with a protein-packed choice such as these Chocolate Banana Protein Overnight Oats. You'll get the omega-3 fatty acids and antioxidants from the chia seeds along with protein and healthy fats to keep you energized while avoiding high-sugar breakfast alternatives.

The Absurd Crusade Against Vaping

Never before has a boon to public health been met with such hysteria and ingratitude.

Vaping is almost all upside in comparison with traditional smoking, a wanton destroyer of health and lives, and yet the nation is in the grips of a panic about e-cigarettes. In a rarity for the Trump era, the anti-vaping sentiment jumps traditional geographic and political bounds, running from the Oval Office to San Francisco, from President Donald Trump to his most fervent enemies.

Trump has announced a proposed Food and Drug Administration ban on flavored e-cigarettes, while the San Francisco Board of Supervisors banned the sale of vaping products at retail outlets. New York Gov. Andrew Cuomo imposed a ban on flavored e-cigarettes on an "emergency" basis. "Vaping is dangerous, period," Cuomo pronounced, citing, like the president, teenage use in particular.

Actually, there's little evidence that vaping, as a general matter, is hazardous, especially when compared with traditional cigarettes, whose smokers inhale a witch's brew of carcinogens and carbon monoxide. Smoking accounts for 30% of all cancer deaths, and 18% of all deaths.

A credible estimate is that e-cigarettes, which involve inhaling a nicotine-infused vapor rather than smoke, are about 95% less harmful than cigarettes.

The vaping-related illnesses that have recently garnered headlines and prompted the regulatory actions appear not to implicate standard vaping, but rather the use of black-market liquids containing THC, the active ingredient in cannabis. We could make the risky products involved illegal, if they weren't already illegal.

The problem with the flavor bans — and especially a San Francisco-style outright ban — is its effect on adult e-cigarette users. About 11 million adults vape, and some percentage of them are former smokers or would be smoking in the absence of e-cigarettes. A robust study in the United Kingdom found that vaping is twice as effective as other common nicotine replacements in getting smokers to quit. The flavors, according to surveys of users, are a big draw for smokers quitting traditional cigarettes. It's manifestly absurd to ban vaping products and leave cigarettes, including flavored cigarettes, on the market.

Another source of the current panic is that teen vaping is way up, but there's nothing to suggest that this increase in vaping is encouraging real teen smoking, which has fallen below 6%. Everyone would prefer that teens not develop a vaping habit, but this presents nothing close to the health issue presented by combustible cigarettes.

By all means, let's crack down on retailers who are selling products to minors. But exaggerating the harms of vaping and prohibiting the products is a formula for giving back some of the gains against traditional smoking. The libertarian publication Reason points to one study that, insanely, shows more people beginning to consider e-cigarettes as dangerous as regular cigarettes.

The U.K. has adopted a much more sensible approach that welcomes e-cigarettes as an important harm-reduction measure. A couple of National Health Service hospitals have even allowed vape shops on their premises.

That would cause a hue and cry in the United States, where we can't agree on anything except, apparently, our irrational hostility to a product that is an alternative to a terrible scourge.

It's a Bird ... It's a Crane ... It's a Sandhill Crane!

Of the six subspecies of Sandhill Crane found in North America, three can be found in California. MPG file photo

By Ken Casparis,
Sacramento County

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA

(MPG) - Sandhill Cranes have traveled south to California for the winter, and Sacramento

County Regional Parks invites you to head out to the Cosumnes River Preserve to learn about and observe these birds in their winter home.

Of the six subspecies of Sandhill Crane found in North America, three can be found in California, and two, the Greater Sandhill Crane and the Lesser Sandhill Crane, are commonly seen in the Central Valley.

Roughly 3,000 Lesser and Greater Sandhill Cranes settle in at the Cosumnes River Preserve every winter. Most of the cranes who have made the Preserve their winter home are Lessers, but the Delta (including the Preserve) is a critical wintering area for the less-abundant Greaters.

Observations tips from the Cosumnes River

Preserve:

Watching Cranes

When and Where: Prime Sandhill Crane viewing season at the Cosumnes River Preserve is between Oct. 15 and March 1. Dawn and dusk are the target times to observe the greatest numbers of cranes and the widest variety of intriguing behaviors.

Etiquette

Be Still: Limit your movement while watching feeding birds. Should a "lookout" crane decide you're a threat, the flock may well fly off, depleting their hard-won energy store.

Be Quiet: Speak quietly to avoid spooking cranes. Stay at least 400 yards from feeding cranes.

Don't Wear Out Your Welcome: Should you see any of these behaviors, it's time to back off: Cranes nervously withdrawing into the center of a flock; Cranes slamming their bills into the ground then tossing their heads defiantly high; Cranes standing rigidly erect, looking straight ahead, necks stretched to the limit.

For more information on Sandhill Cranes and where you can observe them, check out the Cosumnes River Preserves Sandhill Cranes Fact Sheet and the "See the Cranes" Map. ★

China Tribunal Documents Selling Organs of Religious Groups

Harold Pease, Ph. D

Four years ago Newsweek reported in a powerful article "CHINA FORCES ITS POLITICAL PRISONERS TO SELL BODY PARTS," but little has been printed in American news outlets since. So what did they report and can it still be confirmed?

They reported, "Dozens of highly respected investigators, scholars and government officials around the world claim the Chinese government is harvesting organs from groups considered to be political or cultural enemies of the regime currently in power." It identified "members of Christian house churches, Tibetans and especially followers of Falun Gong, an outlawed peaceful Chinese religious movement created in 1992" as being "forced into "organ harvesting since the 1990's." These groups, already incarcerated, have become the government's secret source "to fill the growing demand for organs and to provide 'organ tourists' from Western nations with potentially life-saving treatments."

Newsweek reported that the practice on death row prisoners was widely known, practiced, and admitted to by Chinese authorities but it has since escalated. "Sometimes the 'donor' has still been alive during this process—the organ-removal process is what actually kills them." The victims are merely prisoners of conscience taken mostly from religious groups. The Chinese government in December 2014 announced its discontinuance, unfortunately, "data show organ donations in China have actually increased, which seems extremely unlikely if the practice has truly ceased," Newsweek reported Feb. 1, 2016.

Most of what Newsweek boldly printed had been confirmed September 12, 2012 by the US House Committee on Foreign Affairs in 2012 in their "Chinese Communist Party Organ Harvesting of Religious and Political Dissidents" Hearing. Such was also confirmed by the European Parliament in 2013,

Then issue silence for almost four years; finally the Australian paper, The Sydney Morning Herald broke the silence Nov. 9, 2019, with an article, "Crimes against humanity: is China killing political prisoners for their organs?" by Tim Elliott. It documented the creation of the China Tribunal in London by the International Coalition to End Transplant Abuse in China. This body headed by a seven-person panel and chaired by Sir Geoffrey Nice investigated the stream of documentation flowing out of China.

Its exhaustive 12 month inquiry "examined thousands of pages of submissions, including previous investigations and academic papers, internal Chinese medical records, and reports from Amnesty International, independent watchdog group Freedom House and the United Nations Committee Against Torture. It reviewed undercover video footage taken inside Chinese hospitals, covert telephone recordings with Chinese transplant surgeons, and heard from 50 witnesses, some of whom appeared in person and others via video link, from France, Canada, the US, Japan, Australia, Turkey and Korea."

It confirmed, in its 60 page summary report released June 2019, everything that Newsweek, The House Committee and the European Union had shared, but instead of ending in 2014, as the Chinese government promised, it vastly accelerated. "It found that official transplant statistics in China are routinely falsified, and that instead of performing 10,000 operations as claimed, the real figure is between 60,000 and 90,000 a year. It found that the main source of these organs were Falun Gong, but that Uighurs, a mostly Muslim minority – up to 1.5 million of whom are incarcerated in China – were at risk of becoming the next 'organ bank'."

It also established "that illicit organ transplants had become a lucrative industry in China, directed by the state and enabled by the military." The China Tribunal "accused the People's Republic of China of having committed mass murder, and warned that governments or any other bodies that engaged with it in any substantial way 'should now recognize that they are interacting with a criminal state'."

One highly disturbing new finding from Tribunal testimony was the concept of "incomplete executed" prisoners. This "often via a gunshot to the right side of the chest, is not uncommon, the purpose being to maintain blood circulation to the organs," presumably to enhance viability of healthy extraction. Some witnesses "recounted how they had been told by guards that they would be killed for their organs; how guards referred to Falun Gong prisoners as "merchandise"; and that they were "being kept as spare goods."

The China Tribunal Report, as summarized by The Sydney Morning Herald, revealed that China did not have a volunteer organ donor program until 2013, largely because the "Chinese people have a cultural aversion to organ donation, owing to a traditional belief that the body must be buried intact." The Red Cross in Beijing in 2015, "didn't even have a donor office and hadn't arranged a single case of organ donation." Yet, "there seemed to be an endless supply of organs."

The Report wrote about the difficulty in free countries of voluntarily obtaining the volume of organs needed. "In the UK, the average waiting time for a liver transplant is 135 days. In Australia, people needing a kidney can wait between five and seven years. Waiting times in China, meanwhile, can be as little as two weeks" says Fiatarone Singh from the University of Sydney. "Booking in a transplant ... is impossible in a normal, voluntary organ donor system, ... There is only one way you can do this, and that is where you have an organ bank – a large group of people who are being held in detention and killed on demand."

The documentation confirms that Communist China offers organ replacement on demand and uses unfavored religious groups as its donor bank – a crime against humanity.
