Longhorns Reunite

Organizers and supporters of La Sierra High School's 60th alumni reunion included Janice Baker Richardson, Brenda Beers Mock, Dennis Duffy, Rick Brown, Tony Asaro, Ernie Ryder, Charleen Svec Tyson, Cecil Wetsel, Rhonda Clothier Jewell and

Story and photos by Susan Maxwell Skinner

CARMICHAEL. CA (MPG) - Almost lost forever, relics from Carmichael's only high school were center of attention at the recent foundation alumni reunion. Yearbooks, trophies and pennants were among treasures salvaged when La Sierra High closed in 1983.

For 30 years, its Longhorn traditions had been part of Carmichael life. By the 1980s, declining student numbers obliged San Juan School District to relocate teenagers to Fair Oaks and Arcade schools. The grieving Longhorn herd scattered as demolition began but, thanks to one alumnus' foresight, many memories Asaro was an administrative staffer the art teacher who'd helped make during the school's final years. "One him. I understand Sir Loin is buried day in 1983, a staff secretary called and told me that school treasures were being purged," he recalls. "I drove my truck to the dumpsters and filled it up."

Among relics were hundreds of "Longhorn Round-up" yearbooks still in Asaro's keeping. "You don't want to see my garage," he confesses. "Over the years I've given many away to former students." He also rescued the fabled fiberglass mascot named Sir Loin – so enormous it bestrode its own trailer – that students paraded at games and rallies. "Sir Loin lived in my side yard for ten years," he says. "My neighbors were saved. School historian Tony But eventually he had to go. I found somewhere in the foothills."

Pre-closure, teachers donated many school trophies to former star athletes. A plaque commemorating 17 graduates who died in the Vietnam War was removed to the home of a La Sierra PE teacher. It is displayed annually as part of Veterans Day ceremonies that unite the community in a nature reserve adjacent to the school.

Now administered by Carmichael Park District, the school campus is a community hub. The cafetorium serves as a town hall; re-purposed facilities house sport, education and arts centers. "We went to a great school," observes Asaro. "La Sierra got used to a giant blue and white was our Camelot - the center of our longhorn looking over their fence. lives. We're glad it's still a jewel for the community.'

CA Trucking Association Issues New Statement on the Governor's Signing of AB 5

By Bernice Creager, California Trucking Association

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Shawn Yadon, CEO of the California Trucking Association (CTA), issued the following statement in response to the decision by Governor Gavin Newsom to sign Assembly Bill 5 into

"In the wake of Governor Newsom signing AB 5, the California Trucking Association is exploring its options to ensure California's more than 70,000 independent owneroperators do not lose the tens of thousands of dollars spent in purchasing and updating their trucks, and other assets they have invested in order to build their own businesses.

"In its current form, AB 5 denies a significant segment of the trucking industry the ability to continue operating as independent owner-operators, forcing them to abandon investments they've made in their trucks as well as taking away their flexibility to set their own schedule and determine their destiny regarding their businesses, which many have operated for more than three decades.

"We look forward to working with the Legislature and the Administration to develop a more workable solution to AB 5 that protects employees from misclassification without eliminating the independent owner-operator business model."

Since 1934, the California Trucking Association has been serving the commercial motor carrier industry in California and the companies that provide products and services to the trucking industry. A critical and vital component of California's economy, nearly 80 percent of California communities depend solely on trucks to deliver their goods. Our carrier membership ranges from individual owner-operators, to small for-hire fleets, to the largest national and international carriers. Allied members of the California Trucking Association range from businesses involved with truck and trailer sales, parts and service, insurance, legal services and all other businesses that support the trucking industry.

The California Trucking Association promotes leadership in the California motor carrier industry, advocates sound transportation policies to all levels of government, and works to maintain a safe, environmentally responsible and efficient California transportation goods movement

County Board Approves Revised FY 2019-20 Budget

By Kim Nava, Sacramento County

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento County Board of Supervisors voted to revise the Approved Budget for the 2019-20 fiscal year.

The Approved Budget in June totaled $4.4 billion. With the completion of the County's FY 2018-19 year-end financial closing activities and updated information, an increase of $138 million was proposed, bringing the Budget Recommended for Adoption to $4.5 billion in appropriations. Most of this increase involved re-budgeting funds for capital projects due to shifts in timing for those projects.

In June, to close a general shortfall of $55 million, Sacramento County made $43 million in reductions in General Fund Departments and reduced $12 million in General Fund reserves to bridge the gap.

General Fund departments identified a number of targeted program and position reductions. The reductions included the elimination of 181.3 FTE positions that were either vacant or, in a few cases, filled by employees who were shifted to other positions in the same class. No layoffs were necessary.

The June Approved Budget also included budget increases in a number of areas, including:

$21.7 million to make improvements to the County's jails as part of continuing efforts to resolve conditions of confinement concerns identified in a recent lawsuit;

$2.3 million in state and federal revenue to add 25 FTE positions in Child Support Services;

$1.2 million in 2011 Realignment Local Innovation funds to add seven positions in Probation to establish a Pre-Trial Assessment and Monitoring Pilot

$1 million set aside for costs related to the Hardesty/Schneider lawsuit against the

$3.5 million to add 29 FTE positions in Airports Department to handle the impact of increasing passenger and freight volume; and $668,000 to cover the cost of postcards and postage for the March 2020 Primary Election, as required by state law.

The Board formally adopted the Budget Recommended for Adoption on Sep. 24.

For details, read the Budget Letter to the Board of Supervisors or view all budget documents on the Office of Budget and Debt Management website.

Registering and Updating Voter Reg at the DMV

By Janna Haynes, Sacramento County

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - With the 2020 March Presidential Primary closer than you think, registering to vote and updating your registration and party information is more important than ever. It is also easier than ever - you can register and update your information online, in person or even at the DMV. However, if you go to the DMV, understand that ALL eligible individuals completing driver license or ID card applications or change of address transactions will be registered to vote in the county of their residence unless they choose to opt-out of automatic voter registration.

Our voter registration staff has been hard at work reconciling voter files with information coming from the DMV. They are finding that many residents are unintentionally registering to vote, or mistakenly changing their contact information or party preference.

If you are completing a driver license/ ID application or renewal or changing your address, the touch screen will prompt you with options to 1-Register to Vote, 2-Update Registration or 3- Do Not Change Registration. These options have been confusing to many voters and have led to errors in their voter registration file. What does each option mean?

I want to register to vote: This is your option if you are currently eligible, but not registered to vote and would like to

I want to update my registration: You must update your registration if you have moved, changed your name or want to change your political party status. Updating due to these changes is important to ensure you receive your ballot at the correct location with the correct information come next election.

I do not want to register to vote or update my registration: This option means you are already registered to vote and you have no changes to your file. Your information is still correct and up to date.

What changes have been made to the voting process now that Sacramento County is administering elections under the Voter's Choice Act?

Every registered voter will receive a postage-paid, Vote by Mail ballot

All voters can drop off their ballot at one of 57 Ballot Drop Box location up to 29 days before Election Day

All voters can drop off their ballot, register to vote and vote in person at any Vote Center in the county up to 10 days before Election Day

All Vote Centers (84 total) will be open at least four days before Election Day

Eligible, but unregistered voters can register online or in-person at a Vote Center, before and through Election Day. How can I check my registration status

Visit the "Check my status" webpage. It will prompt you to enter your name, driver license/ID number, last four numbers of your social security number and your date of birth.

How can I register to vote online?

Visit the Register to Vote website and fill out the online voter registration form.

Why does it matter if I update my registration information?

If you have moved, changed your name or political party since the last election and did not update your voter registration record, your registration is out of date. To receive the correct ballot for the district you live in, with your correct name and political party preference you must provide up to date information. Your signature validation is based on your latest signature and name on file, so it is critical they match.

What do I need to know about the presidential primary and party preference?

The Primary Presidential Election has moved to March 3, 2020. Primary Presidential Elections are party specific. The party you are registered with is the ballot type you will receive (Ex: If you are a registered Democrat, you will only see declared Democratic Presidential candidates on your ballot). Before the upcoming election check your status to see what party you are registered with. Contact County of Sacramento Voter Registration and Elections office with any questions by calling (916) 875-6451.

The Road Money Rip-Off

Newsom's Latest Broken Promise

Assembly Republican Communications Press Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - If you listened to Democrats' rhetoric, increasing California's gas tax was all about filling potholes, repairing bridges and fixing roads.

But now that the money is rolling in, liberal politicians are singing a different tune.

As the legislative trian projects near infill Republicans session wrapped up for the housing. year, Democratic lawmakers signed off on a plan to rip off drivers by diverting a billion dollars from road maintenance to bike lanes and pedestrian projects.

Not to be outdone, Governor Newsom announced his own raid on road money a week later, putting nearly all the state's road funds at risk of being misspent on public transit, bike and pedes-

Under Newsom's radical plan, anyone who can't afford to live in a big city will be punished, forced to subsidize wealthy urbanites' bike lanes while commuting on roads that continue to crumble.

#CaliforniaForAll must ring hollow for drivers stuck in the nation's worst traffic while Democratic politicians refuse to help.

Breads of Heaven

The 42nd annual Jewish Food Faire delivered traditional and contemporary cuisine at Congregation Beth Shalom last weekend. Lox and bagel breakfasts were all-day draw. Lunch included matzo ball soups and stuffed cabbage rolls. The menu also offered falafels, pitas, hummus and barbecued brisket. While many treats were prepared locally, others were shipped from famous Jewish delis in Los Angeles, Berkeley and Oakland. Congregation volunteers Jan Bories (left) and Robyn Asch advised on bread choices. Photo and caption by Susan Maxwell Skinner

More than 200 foundation alumni last month filled the cafetorium for their 60-year "Longhorn Social" reunion. Mascot Sir Loin glared from tee shirts and banners as alumni pored through Asaro's year books. Though the salvager was a later graduate, attendees welcomed the 70-year-old like a homecoming hero.

"La Sierra students are sentimental," explained reunion co-organizer Brenda Beers Mock. "We foundation students wrote the fight song; we chose the mascot and colors. Because our school's not there anymore, we're even more sentimental. Tony Asaro's younger than us but we're grateful he has the same feelings for our school. What he saved is almost all we have left." Learn about La Sierra alumni activities on Facebook.

WASHINGTON, DC (MPG) - Rep. Ami Bera, M.D. (CA-07) released the following statement on impeachment.

Floor Coverings International at Your Door

By Rhonda Sanderson, Sanderson & Associates

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Jose and Jennifer Elias recently opened Floor Coverings International of Carmichael and now happily visit customers' homes in a Mobile Flooring Showroom stocked with thousands of flooring samples from top manufacturers. The couple serves customers throughout Sacramento and the surrounding areas including East Sacramento, Carmichael, Rancho Cordova, Folsom, Citrus Heights, Elk Grove, Fair Oaks, Sierra Oaks, Arden Arcade and Rancho Murrieta.

Jose and Jennifer met Campbell Soup Company, after both earned bachelor's degrees in Food Science; Jen from Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo and Jose from Rutgers University in New Jersey, where his family moved after arriving from Ecuador when he was eight years old. When the couple decided to have children (Hudson, born in 2016, and Madeline, in 2018), Jennifer set aside her corporate career – where she gained a diverse array of experience from product development to operations – to be a stay-at-home mom. "My experience, both personally and professionally, has provided me a great foundation to really build this company," she said.

"The relationship when they were working at with Floor Coverings International grew naturally cry from where Jose found and it ended up being the himself midway through perfect fit for us," said Jose, who along with Jennifer, learned of the franchisor through a recruiter. "Running a small business as a husband and wife team has been fun. We absolutely love it so far." That's a far 2018, six months after he thought all his hard work had paid off when he earned a "huge promotion" to lead and manage a food manufacturing facility with 500 employees and $5.2 million in monthly sales. "I had a realization. Working included, and missing dinner with my wife and kids wasn't worth it. It really wasn't worth any amount of money" Jose said. "I realized I was sick of working that hard for someone else and just wanted out of the corporate world. Jen and I sat down and decided it was time we do something for ourselves and for our kids. We are both hard-working, smart individuals and decided to take the leap."

In Floor Coverings International, the couple found a company that has tripled in size since 2005 by putting a laser focus on consumer buying habits and expressed desires, its impressive operating model, growth ability, 15 hours a day, weekends marketing, advertising and merchandising. Floor Coverings International further separates itself from the competition through its customer experience, made up of several simple and integrated steps that exceed customers' expectations.

> "Floor Coverings International is not just a flooring company," Jose said. "What drew us in most was how much they focus on the customer experience. Selling beautiful produce was important to us, but really providing amazing customer service that is truly unmatched in the home improvement industry is what sealed the deal for us."

Not So Friendly Skies

Americans are taking to the skies in record numbers. In 1977, only 25% had taken a flight. In 2017, nearly 50% flew. Top Travel specialist Pete Trabucco had some tips for me on POPPOFF! Surprises? YES!

1) IT'S EXPENSIVE TO CARRY BECAUSE IT'S HEAVY. Keeping fuels low saves Airlines a lot of money. But it also means if there's rough weather (in flight or an unexpected delay), Airlines are more likely to make an emergency landing because they are running out of gas. 2) DON'T ACCEPT THE FIRST $200 VOUCHER THEY OFFER. Airlines typically keep increasing the offer until they have enough volunteers willing to give up their seats. If they don't getenough volunteers and have to bump you involuntarily, insist on cash compensation instead. Many

with Mary Jane Popp

you're entitled to as much as $1300 in cash, depending on your ticket price and how long you are delayed. 3) SEARCH FOR ONLY ONE TICKET AT A TIME. If you search for, say, four tickets, and the airline has only three at the lowest rate, all four are bumped to the higherprice bracket. 4) YOU'RE NOT IMAGINING IT. In the new aircrafts, especially those used for long-haul international flights, airlines recently shrank the seats by one inch so they could fit an extra seat in each row. 5) IF YOUR FLIGHT IS CANCELED, GET IN LINE AT THE TICKET COUNTER. BUT, also get on the phone. You'll probably reach an airlinephone agent before you get to the frazzled agent behind the counter.6) DON'T EVER WALK AROUND BAREFOOT ON THE AIRPLANE. That carpet? Everything you can imagine has been spilled on it. This includes vomit, milk, babypee, and blood. Also wipe down those table trays. Don't want to tell you what could be on those. 7) AIRLINES RELEASE BARGAIN TICKETS Airlines willwrite a check BY MISTAKE. Every so his books at PeteTrabucco. at the airport). Department often, airlines release dirt com. FLYIN' HIGH!

of Transportation rules say cheap tickets. They're not doing it as a favor. It's an accident. Once these tickets are released, there's no going back. That's from Jamie Campbell, travel blogger and creator of the Gaijin Crew. The best way to catch these slip-ups and make the most of them is to sign up for mailing lists from sites such as Airfarewatchdog, which scans the internet for cheap fares. Another site that specializes in helping travelers find mistake fares is Secret Flying. 8) KNOW YOUR RIGHTS. The more you know about your rights as an airline passenger, the better. "Airlines don't want customers to know much about their passenger rights, which is not all that surprising when they could owe up to $700 for each passenger if their flight to or from Europe is delayed or canceled," said Thomas Busson of ClaimCompass. Airlines flying to and from Europe are subject to EU passenger laws. "While U.S. regulations only cover passengers facing cases of overbooking and luggage problems, European regulation goes further." Peter Trabucco breaks down their secrets for a safer, happier and cheaper flight. Check out Pete and

School Vaccination Requirements Proposed Referendum Enters Circulation

Office of Secretary of State Alex Padilla

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Secretary of State Alex Padilla announced the proponents of a new referendum were cleared to begin collecting petition signatures.

The Attorney General prepares the circulating title and summary that is required to appear on referendum petitions. Once completed, the Attorney General forwards the title and summary to the proponents and to the Secretary of State, and the referendum may be circulated for signatures. The Secretary of State provides calendar deadlines to the proponents and to county elections officials. The Attorney General's official title and summary for the measure is as follows:

Referendum Challenging 2019 Law Regarding State Oversight of Medical Exemptions to School Vaccination Requirements. If this petition is signed by the required number of registered voters and timely filed, a referendum will be placed on the next statewide ballot requiring a majority of voters to approve a 2019 state law before it can take effect. The 2019 law amends related statute increasfrom school vaccination requirements, as follows: (1) exemptions obtained before 2020 remain effective until child starts next grade span (i.e., kindergarten; 7th grade); (2) doctors need not certify exemptions under penalty of perjury. (19-0015.)

The Secretary of State's tracking number for this measure is 1869 and the Attorney General's tracking number is 19-0015.

The proponents of the measure, Tara Thornton, Denise Aguilar, and Heidi Muñoz Gleisner must collect signatures of 623,212 registered voters (five percent of the total votes cast for Governor in the November 2018 general election) in order to qualify it for the ballot. The proponent has 90 days from the enactment of the legislation to circulate petitions for the measure, meaning the signatures must be submitted to county elections officials no later than December 9, 2019*. The proponent can be reached c/o the Freedom Angels Foundation at 1017 L Street, #415, Sacramento, CA 95814.

Bernie Sanders and the Anti-People Crusade

At least Bernie Sanders is an equal opportunity misanthrope. He doesn't like rich people, and it turns out he doesn't necessarily like poor people, either.

At the recent CNN town socialist senator if he'd be attributes. "courageous" enough to endorse population control to save the planet. Sanders answered "yes," and then, after referring to abortion rights, endorsed curtailing population growth, "especially in poor countries women do not necessarily want to have large numbers of babies.'

He's looking at you, sub-Saharan Africa.

The Sanders riff is the latest instance of a rising anti-natalism on the left, which has gone from arguing that carbon emissions are a problem to arguing that human beings are a problem. They release carbon emissions, don't they? Q.E.D.

the support of Alexandria the American Enterprise Ocasio-Cortez, who questions the morality of having children, and Bill Nye the Science Guy, who has discussed punishing people for having children, it's on the way to universal assent among a certain segment of soi-disant thoughtful progressives. A headline in The New York Times even asked, "Would Human Extinction Be a Tragedy?"

Undergirding the antinatalist position is the belief that we are facing a global catastrophe, such that additional babies will tip the planet into uninhabitability for everyone. This goes beyond the best evidence, and discounts the hall on climate change, human capacity for adaptaa questioner asked the tion that is one of our chief

The view that human beings are an unsustainable drain on limited resources goes back to the 18th-century thinker Thomas Malthus and, more recently, the Stanford University biologist Paul around the world where Ehrlich. In his 1968 book "The Population Bomb," Ehrlich put an emphasis on overly fertile Third World countries, just as Bernie Sanders did.

But if consumption and carbon emissions are the concern, it's rich people in developed countries who are the bigger problem and should be dealt with accordingly (a task for which Sanders is dismayingly well-suited). When a proposition has As Benjamin Zycher of Institute notes, rising incomes -- considered an unalloyed good by anyone who experiences them -invariably increase energy consumption.

What are we to make of an agenda that seeks to diminish the number of human beings overall and to make those who enjoy material prosperity less wealthy?

At a more fundamental level, the anti-natalists have a gross materialistic view of humanity. For them, we are a series of inputs and outputs, and if one particular output is considered undesirable (in this case, carbon emissions), it reduces the value of human beings altogether. No one who isn't a cracked ideological extremist or perversely blinkered economist actually looks at people this way. It doesn't account for relationships or for joy, for the wondrous distinctiveness of every person, no matter how poor or humble.

People aren't a burden; they are a resource and a gift. Any movement that regards them any other way is profoundly misguided and deeply anti-humane. Build windmills if you must, but don't try to scare people out of having children -- or much worse, facilitate abortions -- in your zeal to shave some fraction of a degree off the global temperature 80 years from now.

Centenarian Celebrates Another Year in Carmichael

Story by Shaunna Boyd

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Carl Holland, a resident of Aegis of Carmichael Assisted Living, will celebrate his 102nd birthday on October 9.

During his lifetime, Holland said the world has "completely changed." When he was born, there were no televisions, "automobiles were just beginning to take their place... there were no airports, no passenger airplanes," and electricity was only available in downtown areas. "There's an awful lot of changes," said Holland, "102 years is a long time."

Holland was born on October 9, 1917, in a little community called Preston Bend in Red River Valley, Texas. He said the town itself is "no longer there, because they covered that with about 40 feet of water when they put the Denison Dam there across the Red River" between Texas and Oklahoma.

Holland recalled his earliest memory of Preston Bend: "I can remember when I was a year old — and I remember the church, and the hay and feed store."

His family moved from Preston Bend to Denison, Texas, and then moved to Ada, Oklahoma in 1927 when he was 10 years old. The Great Depression hit in 1929; "Nobody had any money. Everybody had problems," said Holland.

Then his father, a sharecropper and carpenter, abandoned a nurse, working 20-hour shifts the 25th. I the family. "He left my mother and me and my two brothers completely left us. And she had no education... so you can see the situation was pretty bad. ... I never did have a father really."

"I didn't have a father to turn to," said Holland. "I decided a long time ago that I wasn't going to allow my children to be in the same situation that me and my two brothers were in when my father left us."

and leaving the boys on their own. Holland had to learn independence and responsibility at a young age: "I was the oldest of the three boys. I kind of had to look after my two brothers."

After high school, Holland worked as a carpenter. He married his wife Elwood on January 1, 1938 and started a family. "My proudest moment was probably when Beverly was born. I remember she was born December the His mother eventually became 8th, (1938), and Christmas was tree... and I set it on the table near where Beverly was, course she didn't know it at the time. That was my proudest moment, giving my own daughter a Christmas tree."

Beverly, now 80 years old, fondly remembers him singing her to sleep at night when she was a little girl. "He's an amazing father."

In 1939, Holland began his career with Proctor & Gamble in Dallas, Texas. World War II had just started, and Holland's service was deferred because of the nature of his work: "We were producing glycerin that's used in dynamite. ... So, Proctor & Gamble was controlled, really, by the federal government because they needed the glycerin."

In 1952, Proctor & Gamble then you'll have it made."

transferred Holland as one of the first employees of a new Sacramento location. The family — which now included two sons, Phillip (born in 1940) and Jim (born in 1948) - relocated to the Sacramento region, and then they put down roots in Carmichael two years later.

Throughout his 35-year career at Proctor & Gamble, Holland was a valued employee and held many roles in the company: "It was easy for me to learn things, and Proctor & Gamble knew that. ... I'd go to one department that wasn't making too much profit, they'd put me in there, and I'd work there until I got it back up to where it was supposed to be. And then they'd transfer me to another department." Holland was working as the company's employment manager when he retired in Holland's wife passed away in 2000, but he sees all three of his children frequently. Beverly said, "He came from such a poor beginning, and he worked his way up and he was very selfmotivated." Holland expertly managed his finances throughout his life to ensure that he could live comfortably and that his children would never be responsible for taking care of him: "I think that's something to be admired. I'm very proud of him," said Beverly.

"There is no secret to longevity. There just isn't," said Holland. But he described the "three phases of life" — the first is being born, and the second is the environment where you're raised. Holland explained that no one has any control over the first two phases. But as an adult, you enter the third phase, and Holland said "that's the one that's important, because then you have control over what happens... and you have to be able to assume responsibility for your own actions. If you can do that,
