Carmichael Parks Foundation President Sharon Ruffner (center) receives a check for $11,000 from Sacramento District Attorney Anne Marie Schubert (right) and County Supervisor Susan Peters (left).

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - A code-violating landlord's plea deal has enabled scholarships for Carmichael children. Landlord Cameron Kambiz Razavi has served jail time, was ordered to do community service, to clean up his apartment complexes and pay $15,000 to the District Attorney's Safety and Community Improvement Fund. Penalties were enforced for his permitting sub-standard dwelling rentals, and for his allowing rubbish to accumulate at Twin Gardens Apartments on Fair Oaks Boulevard.

Sacramento DA Anne Marie Schubert last week presented $11,000 of the plea deal sum to the Carmichael Parks Foundation. The money will fund recreational opportunities for local youth. Schubert's handover was applauded by County and DA staff, Sheriff's deputies and code enforcement officers who helped prosecute the 2016 case. "The DA's office is not in the business of giving money away," said

Schubert. "But we learned from this case that it takes a whole community to make a community healthier and safer. This money reinvests in good work being done for this district. Kids are the future of this community. Youth scholarships will change lives."

Supervisor Susan Peters said the muscle of Schubert's office assisted code enforcement. "Some people ignore a letter from the county," she explained. "But when they see the seal of the DA's office, envelopes get opened." It was easy to decide where Razavi's plea agreement money should go, she continued. "Carmichael Park District has grown to embrace the community. It sets a good example for other districts."

Park Foundation president Sharon Ruffner accepted with elation. "This is huge for us", she said. "We subsidize 50 percent of our scholarships and this check covers our budget for half a year. Families who've been living in sub-standard housing suffered from the crime. With these programs, we can give back to them." ★

Crisis Support for Foster Youth and Families

By Andrea Sandoval,
Sacramento County

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - "The Source," is a new, free, 24/7 support service for foster youth and resource families living in Sacramento County. The service, implemented by Department of Health Services and the Sacramento Children's Home, connects foster youth, up to age 21 and resource families to licensed professionals who immediately provide guidance, support, and connection to critical resources.

The 24/7 hotline is staffed with operators trained to de-escalate situations and help callers work through conflicts and tension to support foster placements. The hotline will prioritize crises and when needed dispatch mobile response teams to provide additional support. The mobile response teams are made up of social workers, behavioral health specialists, as well as peer partners, which could be former foster youth or caregivers to provide assistance in supporting placement stability.

"The Source is designed to provide foster youth and foster families with high levels of support and stability when challenging situations arise," said Michelle Callejas, Director of Sacramento County Department of Child, Family and Adult Services. "This is the only foster youth/family support line of its kind in Sacramento and we are grateful to the Sacramento Children's Home for their service and partnership."

Foster youth and their resource families can access The Source's crisis hotline by calling or texting 916-SUPPORT or by using the online chat option on their website. The Source team can also provide in-person support at homes, schools, and community locations.

Available Services:

Support for Youth - Support when youth need help handling life's changes. Help to solve problems and create a plan for the future; Support for Caregivers - Assistance to aid overcoming conflicts and challenging situations in the family. Intense, short-term support is available, as well as resources to create a plan for the future; Referrals - Get connected to other supports and programs in the community; Activities - Have fun attending activities with other youth in the community; Advocacy - Support from staff who have similar experiences to youth and caregivers.

"These types of programs are an example of how County departments are listening to the community and partnering with organizations to work to improve

Dinner in the Park - a Third Helping

Sutter-Jensen Community Park provides two locations for the Carmichael Parks Foundation gala on September 7.

by Susan Maxwell
Skinner

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Carmichael Parks Foundation will stage its third "Dinner in the Park" gala on September 7. The non-profit funds improvements in 13 parks and provides scholarships for youth programs.

Winers and diners will amble over two hidden-gem reserves. Cocktail hour is bathed by sunset in Sutter Community Garden; tables are set for a moonlit farm-to-fork meal in the adjoining Jensen Botanical Garden. Local restaurants will supply appetizers and Carmichael's Bella Bru Café will serve a sit-down meal of tri-tip, chicken and Portabella mushrooms. Chocolate torte follows.

Winding paths link the two parks and live music will serenade every step of the way. Following dinner, an auction will offer a Montana fishing vacation and other "experience" packages. As the immediate neighborhood provides little parking, guests are encouraged to walk, carpool or take advantage of a free shuttle service from the Carmichael Elementary School on Sutter Avenue. The fall celebration follows sell-out successes of 2017 and 2018 fundraisers.

The party begins among community-farmed lots on the Hollister and Sutter Avenue corner at 5:00 pm. Tickets are $125. Sponsors include Charles Schwab; Thomas Sharp CFP; Hensel Phelps Construction; Dignity Health Mercy San Juan Medical Center; SMUD; Kaiser Permanente; KMM Services; Paul Pennington; Assemblymen Ken Cooley and Berkshire Hathaway Home Services. On-site sanitation is donated by Wilkinson's portables.

California State Fair Sees Boost in Sales

Margaret Mohr, Cal Expo and State Fair

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The California State Fair ended its 2019 season with strong food, beverage and amusement ride sales which is thanks in-part to an all-new food Festival Pass. The pass allowed Fair attendees to pick four items from over 30 different offerings ranging from mouth-watering appetizers, one-of-a-kind entrees, and to-die-for desserts from 30 food vendors at a low price of $28. Food sales from the Food Festival Pass generated roughly $380,000 in revenue alone.

"The Food Festival pass was popular every single day of the Fair," says Wille Madaus, owner of Country Fair Cinnamon Rolls, whose Bacon & Pecan Cinnamon Roll won Best of Show in the Food Festival Competition. "We had our highest grossing Saturday ever and are up more than 20% this year."

Barbecue sales, always a Fairgoer favorite, hit an all-time high with $1.3 million in gross sales while new, fresh food options such as the Fair's first vegan stand, Frik'n Vegan, had a very successful debut. The food vendor has already confirmed plans to return to the fairgrounds next year. Non-profit organization Friends of the California State Fair program sold over 7,585 pounds of fruit during the California State Fair Farm.

"Food has a powerful way of bringing people together" said General Manager and CEO of Cal Expo & State Fair Rick Pickering. "We are grateful for the opportunity to provide a common place for Fairgoers of all backgrounds to come together and celebrate our state's rich history, diverse cultures and some long-standing and new traditions that make California great."

Overall, the total for food and beverage sales was $8.5 million this year, bringing local sales tax revenue to the city, county, and state over just 17 days of the Fair.

Butler Amusements, the CA State Fair vendor responsible for the amusement rides, also reported its highest weekend in history with sales of over $500,000 on Saturday, July 20 and more than $400,000 in sales for rides on Sunday, July 21, making it a $1,000,000 ride weekend. More than 100,000 people rode the monorail and Skyride, taking in views of the entire fairgrounds and the surrounding areas from high above.

The California State Fair closed out its 2019 season — where innovation was a major theme — with an exciting Drone Light Show presented by DISH. Other novel ideas were created at the Fairgrounds, including Esports gaming tournaments every day of the Fair, the unique Bank of America sponsored Selfie Experience, and other new and exciting exhibits.

"This year's fair brought together the beauty and innovation that demonstrates the very best of California," said Pickering.

The state-wide Youth Mariachi Competition returned for a second year as part of a celebration of Mexican culture's influence of the Golden State. The competition, held at the illustrious Golden 1 Stage, showcased talented youth mariachi ensembles from throughout the state. The competition gave participants an opportunity to win up to $5,000 in grants for their respective academy or school mariachi program.

The new Esports Gaming tournament sold out all of its tournament slots and first-ever California State Fair Bear Cup champions were crowned. The Esports Gaming tournament garnered more than 700,000 viewers around the country on the California State Fair's very own Twitch channel; hosted on Twitch's front page. Esports is a new and booming video game competition and having this event showcases California's robust tech industry.

An innovative Drone Light Show produced by The Great Lakes Drone Company, was followed by a traditional fireworks show that wrapped up the CA State Fair's events. The combination of the old, beloved fireworks and the new drone light show symbolizes the innovation and nostalgic activities the Fair provides.

The CA State Fair provided opportunities for community engagement by providing free entrance to 10,000 military, veterans and first responders. Attendees on Mondays who provided three non-perishable food items received free admission during SMUD Giving Monday. Attendees donated a total of 31,000 pounds of food; all of which went to the Elk Grove Food Bank. Fair guests also had multiple opportunities to adopt an animal from Front Street and SPCA animal shelters.

Despite an extremely hot final weekend, Californians from all regions of the state were welcomed and enjoyed the Fair, and all its activities, for 17 days! Total attendance at the California State Fair increased from the prior year, up more than 5%, for a total of 601,761 happy Fairgoers. ★ the health and wellness of Sacramento County families by providing a culturally competent and responsive crisis continuum," said Ryan Quist, Sacramento County Behavioral Health Director. In recent years, California has been implementing a set of changes to the foster care system intended to help foster youth find a family and reach permanency called the Continuum of Care Reform. However, one of the major challenges is to recruit new foster families and retain existing ones. This kind of 24/7, on-demand support will help stabilize placements for foster youth and provide additional support to their caregivers. For more information about The Source, visit their website or call 916-SUPPORT.

This program is funded by the Sacramento County Division of Behavioral Health Services through the voter-approved Proposition 63, Mental Health Services Act (MHSA). ★

Railroad Museum Celebrates Toy Train Month Showcasing Prized Lionel Observation Car

By Traci Rockefeller Cusack, T-Rock Communications

Railroad Museum will debut a very special Lionel Observation Car (No. 416) from 1929 with a very personal connection to Thomas W. Sefton. Courtesy T-Rock Communications SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - California State Parks and the California State Railroad Museum & Foundation are proud to recognize August 2019 as Toy Train Month, an annual celebration that spotlights the ever-popular Thomas W. Sefton Gallery and "Small Wonders: The Magic of Toy Trains" exhibit.

The Railroad Museum will debut a very special Lionel Observation Car (No. 416) from 1929. On public display for the first time, the prized artifact is part of the Museum's extensive and internationally recognized toy train collection donated to the Museum by the Sefton family in 2002. The vintage toy train is especially unique due to its personal connection to Thomas W. Sefton. In fact, it was once on display in a glass showcase in Sefton's office at San Diego Trust & Savings Bank and was used as a conversation starter for those who visited his office. Observant guests to the Museum will even be

The pre-war green State observation car (Type 1, standard gauge which is part of a State Set) will be on display for the month of August 2019 in a special case at the entrance to the Thomas W. Sefton Gallery on the Museum's third floor. Accumulated over four decades by the late Mr. Thomas W. Sefton, the crowd-favorite collection includes 20th century toy trains, Buddy "L" riding toys, and railroad-related artifacts, featuring approximately 7,000 toy trains and a variety of accessories, such as locomotives and railroad cars from companies including Buddy "L," Ives, American Flyer, Marklin, Marx, and Lionel. The "Small Wonders" exhibit showcases approximately 1,000 vintage toy trains, six interactive displays, and a magnificent operating toy train layout with special pieces that are rotated regularly and decorated for the holidays and changing seasons.

In addition to the prized toy train on temporary display inside the Museum, the Museum Store will offer a special $5 price (normally $9.99) on the 30-page full-color guidebook that highlights the Thomas W. Sefton train collection during the month of August.

Railroad Museum admission is $12 for adults, $6 for youths (ages 6-17), and children ages five and under are free. More information about the California State Railroad Museum is available at 916-323-9280 or www.californiarailroadmuseum.com. ★

Shots Fired in Senior Assisted Living Home

By Patrick Larenas

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - On August 6, at approximately 11:30 a.m., two shots were fired in the Aegis of Carmichael Assisted Living home for seniors. The staff at the facility requested assistance from the Sheriff's Department. According to a preliminary report by Sergeant Tess Deterding, a man and a woman over the age of 60 were found at the site along with a firearm. Although they were married, the man was on a visit, while the woman actually lived in the senior facility. "One of them appears to have a self-inflicted wound, while the other did not," said Deterding. The officer said in Tuesday's press meeting that the incident may have been due to a dementia condition.

"The Crime Scene Investigation has not actually begun yet," said Deterding, "but this seems to be the first crime of its kind to have happened in an elderly home." The married couple was pronounced deceased on site, and there is no outstanding suspect. Their names are not being released to the public until their families are notified first. ★

Unconstitutional Tax Legislation Will Restrict Voter Choice

By Jacqui Nguyen

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Senate Republican Leader Shannon Grove (R-Bakersfield) issued the following statement after Senate Bill 27 was signed into law. Legislative Republicans voted against SB 27, but legislative Democrats pushed for it because of their hostility toward the current U.S. President. The newly-signed legislation requires a candidate for U.S. President or California Governor who wants to be on the state ballot to file copies of their federal income tax return from the five most recent taxable years with California Secretary of State. "Regardless of the political affiliation of the current President of the United States, this individual deserves our respect. Here in California, we call on the President when disaster strikes and he has come through for us time and time again. Whether it is multiple wildfires or the failure of the Oroville Dam, the President delivered with federal aid. "California has tangible issues affecting our families such as high gas taxes, homelessness, and housing affordability. One poll even stated that 53% of Californians want to flee the Golden State. Yet, Sacramento Democrats continue to focus on the President instead of being focused on issues that affect every day Californians' lives. "Governor Brown vetoed similar legislation saying this requirement is unconstitutional, and I am confident the courts will agree," said Senate Republican Leader Shannon Grove. Senator Shannon Grove represents California's 16th Senate District which encompasses large portions of Kern, Tulare and San Bernardino counties and including the cities of Bakersfield, Barstow, California City, Exeter, Frazier Mountain, Joshua Tree, Mojave, Needles, Ridgecrest, Rosamond, Taft, Tehachapi, Twentynine Palms, Tulare, Visalia, Yucca Valley and portions of the Kern River Valley. She is the Senate Republican Leader. Follow her on Facebook and Twitter. More Than 16,000 Diapers Donated to Sacramento Life Center Through Leatherby's

By Kristin Thébaud, Kristin Thébaud Communications

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Local residents who brought an unopened pack of diapers to any Leatherby's Family Creamery location on July 20 received a $5 gift card to Leatherby's, resulting in donations of more than 16,000 diapers for the Sacramento Life Center. Daddy Dave's Diaper Drive, which took place during National Ice Cream Month, provided diapers for low-income moms in the Sacramento area and honored the life of the ice cream shop's founder Dave Leatherby Sr. who passed away earlier this year and supported the Sacramento Life Center for decades.

"It was heartwarming to see the Sacramento community come together to support local moms and babies in need, as well as to honor my dad who believed so much in this cause," said Marie Leatherby, executive director, Sacramento Life Center. "Thank to you everyone who brought diapers or donated online - these diapers mean the world to families in our community."

The Sacramento Life Center accepts diaper donations all year at its primary clinic at 2316 Bell Executive Lane in Sacramento. Families in need of diapers can call the clinic at (916) 451-4357 to learn if they qualify to receive free diapers.

The Sacramento Life Center's mission is to offer compassion, support, resources and free medical care to women and couples facing an unplanned or unsupported pregnancy. The Sacramento Life Center's licensed Sac Valley Pregnancy Clinic includes a primary clinic and mobile clinic that provide all services for free, including pregnancy tests, STD tests, ultrasounds, peer counseling for men and women, education and resource referrals. In 2018, the Sacramento Life Center achieved accreditation by the Accreditation Association for Ambulatory Health Care, which ensures the group has met nationally recognized standards for the provision of high-quality health care. The nonprofit also offers a school-based teen education program, 24-hour hotline and program for women who have experienced reproductive grief.

Sacramento's First Hospice for the Homeless Hosts Silent Auction

By Helen Plenert,
Joshua's House Hospice

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Members of the media and public are invited to attend Inner SOUL, a silent art auction to benefit Joshua's House, Sacramento's first hospice house for the terminally ill homeless on August 10, at 5-8pm.

The Second Saturday art reception will feature a silent auction of over 90 pieces of art based on SHELTERS. All proceeds from the sale of donated artwork will go to completing the building of Joshua's House, which has received strong support from community leaders such as Congresswoman Doris Matsui, City of Sacramento Mayor Darrell Steinberg and City Council Member Jeff Harris along with the entire City Council.

Area artists, along with Tony Natsoulas and Julia Didion, are invited to participate in this first of its kind art show here in Sacramento. Using the SHELTER as a symbol, we invite them to sculpt, paint, stitch and embellish. The results are a remarkable and beautiful art show.

Please join us for a special tribute art show to help bring awareness and raise funds for a critical new project here in Sacramento. The donated art will help open the doors to the new hospice house dedicated for the terminally ill homeless. This art show will be hosted at E Street Gallery, 1115 E Street, Sacramento. The art will be on display August 8-26 with a special reception on August 10th 5-9 pm where all artwork will be part of a silent auction.

A Personal Blast Off!

By Sal Arrigo, Jr.

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - It all started in northern New Jersey at Kittle Field, a part of the Stokes State Forest Service. I was 10 years old and my Dad and I were about to blast off my first Estes model rocket. I was hooked after that experience. Fast forward to July 16, 2019, and I was at the U.S. Space Center in Huntsville, Alabama, ready to witness the world record attempt of the launching of 5,000 model rockets simultaneously in honor of the 50th anniversary of the moon landing and the Apollo 11 astronauts.

To achieve the record, the Rocket Center said the launch must meet the following criteria: Use commercially available rockets and build them following basic manufacturer guidelines; Pass 30 meters (or about 100 feet) in altitude; Have an independent specialist verify the counting method. An independent specialist is anyone who can claim a general level of experience or knowledge in the specific field of our record attempt (someone who has experience with model rocketry or aerospace engineering.)

Part of the verification process is determining that a record number of rockets exceeded the 100-foot threshold. The launch at the US Space Center successfully launched 4,923 model rockets. Although confident that the 100-foot mark was achieved, (the previous world record was 4,231 model rockets successfully launched), the Space Center said it may take up to 16 weeks to receive confirmation from the Guinness World Records officials.

What fascinates us with the moon and the stars and the planets? The Apollo 11 astronauts represented all those people like us who thirst for adventure, and we are fascinated when someone actually lives our dream for us. I met a volunteer named Eli, who works as a Planetarium Specialist at the US Space Center. He told me he has a love of rockets and enjoys “educating people about his work.” We discussed how many people, approximately 3,000, came to witness the model rocket launch.

One aspect of the launch was the number of children who witnessed the event, and it makes sense since children from all over can enjoy Space Camp at the US Space Center. It is one of the most popular programs, and according to the US Space Center it is “designed to inspire and motivate youth to push the boundaries of human exploration just as generations before them did. Space Camp is internationally popular, with visitors from all 50 states and more than 60 foreign countries.”

As you start to grasp the history that surrounds you at the US Space Center, one does not need to go any farther than to stand face to face with two of the most iconic symbols that represent our space program – the Saturn V rocket and the Space Shuttle. I have to admit I am still in awe of seeing these two monuments, and part of the generation that welcomed them to our side. What was it like to be in these vehicles for our space explorers? Fortunately, we had a president that also wanted to know the answer.

In September 1962, President John F. Kennedy gave a speech that focused the United States on landing men on the moon. The President said, “... the vows of this Nation can only be fulfilled if we in this Nation are first, and, therefore, we intend to be first. In short, our leadership in science and in industry, our hopes for peace and security, our obligations to ourselves as well as others, all require us to make this effort, to solve these mysteries, to solve them for the good of all men, and to become the world’s leading spacefaring nation.”

It wasn’t long after that we became “trekkies” and became obsessed with the science fiction television show called “Star Trek” that debuted in 1966 and ended in 1969, just one month before we landed men on the moon. Whether a television show or a real life space drama, we were imagining being on the moon, or being one of the characters on “Star Trek.” I take note when we can see an eclipse, or to see the planets align, or witness shooting stars. What exactly is out there in space?

Now nearly fifty-seven years since President’s Kennedy speech, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) has announced the creation of the Artemis program. Artemis was the twin sister of Apollo and goddess of the Moon in Greek mythology. The goal of the program is to return astronauts, including the first woman and the next man, to the lunar surface by 2024. American astronauts will also step foot where no human has ever been before - the Moon’s South Pole. When Neil Armstrong walked on the moon, it is estimated that 600 million people watched, and I ask you, will you and your family be watching in 2024?
