Carmichael Kids Get New Playground

County Supervisor Susan Peters and Angeline Lara (12) shared ribbon-cutting honors at Carmichael Park's new children's playground.

Story and photos by Susan Maxwell Skinner

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - In good time to serve the remainder of summer vacation, the Carmichael Park District last week unveiled a $279,000 children's playground in its flagship park.

After a Carmichael Park opening ceremony, more than 60 children stormed shiny play structures. The "Berliner" playground features a 28 ft. climbing pyramid, two types of swings, a roundabout and a kiddie hut. Climbing cables are made of synthetic-coated steel. All features meet modern safety standards.

For ribbon-cutting honors, a lucky 12-year-old's name was chosen by lottery. Park summer camp participant Angelina Lara assisted Supervisor Susan Peters with giant scissors and declared the new playground "a really happy place."

Roped off last year, 1990s Carmichael Park playground was deemed outmoded and unsafe. To replace it, then District Administrator Tarry Smith championed German-made Berliner equipment. "I'd installed it in a Fresno park," he explained. "I knew it would be a hit.

Once a kid goes down a slide a few times, well, that's it. But he can climb a rope pyramid 50 times and never do it the same way twice."

Made in Germany, the structures took eight weeks to reach USA by ship; installation at the park required another month. Speaking for the Carmichael Park Advisory Board, Gayle Dax Conroy said the apparatus would provide safe, inclusive and active experiences for children of all abilities. "Parents will also enjoy peace of mind," predicted the grandmother of eight. "There are

Workshop for County Businesses Required to Subscribe to Services

By Susan Peters, Sacramento County Supervisor

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The Regional Solid Waste Authority (SWA) will be holding a workshop on Tuesday, August 13, to seek input on code changes intended to increase generator waste compliance levels in accordance with mandates required by the State of California. These mandates will affect all businesses that generate four or more cubic yards per week of all solid waste (including trash, recycling and organics).

The SWA needs business engagement and consensus on developing workable solutions to be successful in meeting these state mandates. Both Sacramento County and the City of Sacramento are under intense compliance pressure from the California Department of Resources, Recycling, and Recovery (CalRecycle) to achieve greater compliance with existing commercial sector recycling regulations as a result of the Mandatory Commercial Recycling Act (AB 341) adopted by the California Legislature and implemented by CalRecycle. It requires recycling by all businesses that generate four or more cubic yards of solid waste per week. In addition, AB 1826 requires businesses generating 4 or more cubic yards of trash and recycling to recycle their organic waste.

Currently, SWA code allows businesses to decline recycling services from their trash service provider and seek those services elsewhere. The proposed plan would require SWA franchisees to provide recycling and organics services to a business unless that business provides documentation their recycling services are provided by another recycler or by self-hauling.

The workshop on requiring businesses to subscribe to services for trash, recycling and organics will held at 1 pm in the County Board Chambers, 700 I Street, in downtown Sacramento. If you have questions, please email SWAInfo@saccounty.net.

Carmichael Improvement District Hires New Executive

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Carmichael's Property Business Improvement District (PBID) recently hired its first executive. Rachael Taylor (35) has begun work in donated office space at the Milagro Centre.

A Butte College graduate, she was one of 69 applicants considered. Her previous job was with Civitas, a Sacramento company that helps merchants unite through regional improvement bodies. Though not involved in Carmichael PBID's formation, the executive knows the area through resident family members. "I'm excited to work with such a hospitable and engaged community," she says. "I sense its dedication to move ahead, while still keeping a local identity. I was raised in Paradise (CA) and with the town's recent tragedies, I value people who come together to rebuild what they love most. Carmichael has a long history. It also has problems. As an organization, our PBID wants to tackle these so we can thrive and grow." Taylor's $72,000 salary will be met by a yearly PBID budget of just over $300,000. Funding comes from assessments on more than 600 commercial properties that stretch from Van Alstine Avenue to Jan Drive. The three-year-old agency is one of 17 PBIDs formed throughout Sacramento County over the last 25 years. The local group's mission is to lead "the transformation of Carmichael to a prosperous, engaged and desirable community." Taylor provides help with marketing and business growth. She also hears merchant concerns.

Among these are vandalism and crime. Beautification also rates among merchant priorities. Top merchant frustration is the homeless situation. "I'd love to see our chronically homeless people housed and off the streets," Taylor says. "I'm committed to seeing positive changes in Carmichael. Together, our organization and the community can achieve this."

In Case You Missed It; We're Number 1 In Gas Taxes

By Jim Stanley, Assembly Republican Communications

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Thanks to Democrats' latest gas tax increase, Californians filling up their gas tanks are noticing some extra pain at the pump. With this 6 cent per gallon increase, our state is now home to high-gas taxes in the country. You'd expect that with all that extra tax revenue, Californians would be driving on some of the best roads in America. You'd be wrong. The American Society of Civil Engineers gave California roads a "D" on its most recent infrastructure report card, while Transportation for America called California's roads the second-worst in the nation. Weeks ago, Assembly Republicans called for a one-year delay in the tax increase. Not a single Democrat supported the proposal. Instead they doubled down on a regressive tax that's not delivering results. This is an ongoing effort to deliver accurate and factual information about the activities of your local representatives in Sacramento, and how their votes either improve or negatively impact the lives of Californians. For more information, please contact Jim Stanley at (916) 319-2075 or Jim.Stanley@asm.ca.gov. ★

PG&E is Updating Contact Information for Public Safety Power Shutoffs

By Brandi Merlo, Pacific Gas and Electric Company

SAN FRANCISCO, CA (MPG) - Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) is sending postcards to more than 240,000 customers encouraging them to update their mobile number, email and other key information so the company can contact them in advance should it become necessary to temporarily turn off power for safety this fire season. These customers, who live throughout PG&E's service area, have incomplete or no contact information on file. It is important that all customer information is up to date so PG&E can share important wildfire safety alerts. In addition to notifying customers directly, PG&E also will provide outage updates and information through channels such as social media, local news, radio and the pge.com website. "With the 2019 wildfire season now upon us, we all need to be better prepared to stay emergency-ready and to keep our families and friends safe," said Laurie Giammona, PG&E's senior vice president and chief customer officer. "We are asking our customers to be sure we have their latest contact information so we can do our best to reach them in advance of a potential Public Safety Power Shutoff event." The Public Safety Power Shutoff program is one of many additional precautionary safety measures in response to the 2017 and 2018 wildfires that the company is putting in place as part of its Community Wildfire Safety Program intended to reduce wildfire threats and strengthen communities for the future.

Extreme weather threats can change quickly. PG&E's goal, dependent on weather and other factors, is to send customer alerts through automated calls, texts and emails at 48 hours, again at 24 hours, and again just prior to shutting off power. Besides updating their contact information to prepare for Public Safety Power Shutoffs, PG&E encourages customers to do the following: Have an emergency plan for wildfires and discuss it with your friends, family and neighbors; Update or create a go bag or 72-hour kit that can be used if you need to evacuate; and clear defensible space around your home or business. PG&E thanks the over 390,000 customers who have taken action to ensure they will receive its wildfire safety alerts since June 1, 2018. For customers who have not yet confirmed or updated their contact information, PG&E strongly encourages everyone to do so by visiting www.pge.com/mywildfirealerts or by calling the PG&E contact center at 1-866-743-6589. Pacific Gas and Electric Company, a subsidiary of PG&E Corporation (NYSE:PCG), is one of the largest combined natural gas and electric energy companies in the United States. Based in San Francisco, with more than 23,000 employees, the company delivers some of the nation's cleanest energy to nearly 16 million people in Northern and Central California. Sac Metro Air District Gets Funding for Emission Reductions

By Sarah Gallivan, Prosidio Communications

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento Metropolitan Air Quality Management District (Sac Metro Air District) has successfully obtained millions of dollars through the California Air Resources Board's (CARB) Cap-and-Trade program for fiscal year 2018/2019, which will be used to meet the goals of AB617, the Community Air Protection Plan. This plan seeks to reduce emissions in low-income, disadvantaged communities, whose residents are disproportionately affected by air pollution. The Sac Metro Air District pioneered mobile source incentive programs, which create innovative and creative approaches for deployment of lower-emitting vehicle and equipment technologies and are now duplicated throughout the United States. "With this latest round of funding, the District will use its expertise to build upon its successes identifying and tailoring programs that assist businesses, government agencies, non-profits, schools and other entities with zero emission incentive projects," said Sacramento County Supervisor and California Air Resources Board member Phil Serna who also serves on the District's Board. This money will supplement current funding that protects the health of regional residents by reducing air pollution emissions and greenhouse gases through incentive programs. "With the help of our regional partners, and under the leadership of Supervisor Serna who represents us on the CARB Board, the District has been successful in advocating for Cap-and-Trade funds for the Sacramento region," said District Board Chair and City of Sacramento Vice-Mayor Eric Guerra. "Projects that were implemented with Cap-and-Trade money such as electric school buses and Our Community CarShare reduce emissions, protect public health and expand the growing number of clean mobility options in the region, particularly for underserved communities." The over $14 million dollars that will be administered by the Sac Metro Air District will result in hundreds of projects, which will protect public health and improve regional air quality by reducing emissions in the Sacramento region. The District has also asked CARB to add flexibility to its existing program guidelines in an effort to expand funding opportunities to those that do not currently qualify. ★

Ms. Travis has more than 21 years of experience in the Sacramento County Counsel's office. She currently serves as legal counsel to the Sacramento

Happy Birthday Betty!

The family all gathered to honor Elizabeth and celebrated with a wonderful cake. Photo by Paul Scholl

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Family and friends gathered to honor and celebrate Elizabeth Hearnley on her 100th birthday this past July 4th at American River Community Church in Carmichael.

The family submitted the following to the newspaper:

Elizabeth was born on to Edward and Anna Johnson who had immigrated to America from Sweden right at the turn of the century. Born on July 4th, 1919 in Bradford, Pennsylvania, Elizabeth was the 4th child of 6 in her family.

Lizzie graduated from Bradford High School in 1936. Immediately after the graduation her mother said, "congratulations, now it's time to get a job". Elizabeth started working for Dresser Manufacturing. Typing a brisk 50 wpm, Elizabeth would send out work orders to the factory. Little did she know that the man at the factory who received these orders would later in life become her future husband.

William Hearnley kept seeing the initials EAJ (Elizabeth Ann Johnson) on the orders which piqued his curiosity. He soon found a way to visit the office and the woman whom the initials belonged to. William immediately saw how attractive she was and the courtship began. The couple were married on October 11, 1941.

Within two-months, the attack on Pearl Harbor took place and William decided that the Navy was a lot better place to be than the Army, so he joined the Navy. William ended up as a "motor mac" on a sub chaser patrolling the Pacific.

Once William returned from service, the couple's first born son, Jay came along in August of 1947. Followed by a daughter, Martha who joined the family in November of 1951.

The Hearnley family lived in Bradford until 1955 when William got a promotion in Buffalo, NY selling tires, batteries & accessories for Firestone Tire Company. Leaving Bradford was difficult for Elizabeth since it really was a kind of Norman Rockwell setting in the early 50's.

Elizabeth now resides with her son Jay and his lovely wife, Diana, in their home in Carmichael. She has lived with them for the last two years and especially loves the sunny weather.

Elizabeth has always been known to her friends as Betty and the folks at American River Community Church (ARCC) have continued that tradition. The celebration of her 100th Birthday was attended by 11 immediate family members, 32 church members/friends, and two happy birthday video messages were sent from cousins in Sweden. The celebration was catered by Noodles & Co. which we give kudos to for their delicious food and generous help.

Diana Hearnley, Elizabeth's daughter-in-law organized the entire event and deserves a shout out for all her effort. Her husband, Jay, gave a very nice speech of Elizabeth's life. Most of the family members stood up and said a little something special about Elizabeth.

Elizabeth was overjoyed and is very grateful for each person who attended, especially all those who came long distances to be with her on her special day. ★

Apollopalooza Commemorates the 50th Anniversary of the Moon Landing

By Cheryl Holkan, Aerospace Museum of California

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Two Sacramento area STEM learning institutions, the Aerospace Museum of California and Powerhouse Science Center are coming together to bring guests Apollopalooza, a family-friendly event that will celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Apollo 11 moon landing. This special event will take place at the Aerospace Museum of California on Saturday, July 20 from 10:00AM-4:00PM.

Highlights of Apollopalooza include the premiere of the Aerospace Museum of California's new Moon Mission Virtual Reality Experience, exclusive Apollo artifact tours, a NASA Mad Science show, and several activities hosted by both the Museum and Powerhouse Science Center in the exhibit hall. A Smithsonian affiliate, the Aerospace Museum of California will also feature exclusive Smithsonian programming and NASA films in the Museum's theater.

Michael Galane, Executive Director for the Powerhouse Science Center stated, "We're excited to partner with the Aerospace Museum of California and SAFE Credit Union to bring this one-of-a-kind event to the Sacramento area. Tom Jones, Executive Director for the Aerospace Museum of California noted: "Northern California has a rich aerospace heritage and having these two STEM learning centers collaborate together to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the moon landing will make this a memorable event for the greater Sacramento community."

Members of both Aerospace and Powerhouse are offered deeply discounted tickets to the event. Tickets to the event are available for purchase online at aerospaceca.org/tickets.

Apollo 11 was launched from the Kennedy Space Center on July 16th, 1969 with a crew of three astronauts: Buzz Aldrin, Neil Armstrong, and Michael Collins. Four days later, on July 20th, Neil Armstrong's first steps on the moon were broadcast worldwide on live television. Armstrong's quote, "One small step for man, one giant leap for mankind" as he stepped on the surface for the first time is remembered as one of the most iconic moments in NASA history. The crew landed in the Pacific Ocean on July 24th, 1969, fulfilling President John F. Kennedy's national goal: to land a man on the moon and safely return him before 1970. ★

Senate Republicans Offered a Solution to Assist Independent Contractors

By Jacqui Nguyen

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Republican Senator Mike Morrell (R-Rancho Cucamonga) who is the Vice Chair of the Senate Labor, Public Employment and Retirement Committee voiced his opposition and voted against Assembly Bill 5 which seeks to codify a workforce decision that was handed down by the California Supreme Court in 2018. AB 5 was heard in the Senate Labor Committee and passed on a partisan vote by 4 to 1.

Last year, the state's highest court ruled on the Dynamex Decision which created a new test to determine whether a worker is an employee or an independent contractor. The new test does not account for the diverse workforce in California and will take away the flexibility that many workers currently enjoy as independent contractors.

Senate Republican Leader Shannon Grove (R-Bakersfield) introduced Senate Bill 238 which would have kept California's workforce supportive of independent contractors. Co-authored by all Senate Republicans, SB 238 also received support from numerous business organizations, but Senate Democrats killed the legislation in the Senate Labor Committee in April.

Senator Morrell stated that SB 238 would have assisted all independent contractors, not just specific industries.

"In making laws, we should do so with a mindset of opportunity for all and favoritism toward none. Whereas SB 238 would have treated every industry equally, AB 5 chooses winners and losers and is an egregious example of crony capitalism. I do not fault those who pursued and got carve-outs in AB 5. They had little choice but to look out for their own. The process, however, is a telling commentary on both the terrible ruling in Dynamex and the misguided approach legislative Democrats have taken to the issue. We cannot lose sight that we are not just talking about jobs, but livelihoods. This will be another serious blow to our economy," said Senator Mike Morrell.

"Single mothers and student Uber drivers will be greatly affected once the Dynamex Decision is codified into law. My legislation, SB 238, is a common-sense solution that would have helped the 2 million independent contractors who call California home. Unfortunately, partisan politics intervened which leaves the livelihood of millions at risk," said Senate Republican Leader Shannon Grove.

Senate Republican Leader Shannon Grove represents California's 16th Senate District which encompasses large portions of Kern, Tulare and San Bernardino counties and including the cities of Bakersfield, Barstow, California City, Exeter, Frazier Mountain, Joshua Tree, Mojave, Needles, Ridgecrest, Rosamond, Taft, Tehachapi, Twentynine Palms, Tulare, Visalia, Yucca Valley and portions of the Kern River Valley. Travel Advisors Caught in the Crosshairs of California Senate

Proposed Legislation Would Set Back Decades-Old Business Model, Disrupting Thousands of Small Businesses

Submitted by American Society of Travel Advisors

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - If California Assembly Bill 5, currently making its way through the California Senate, is enacted without amendment, thousands of travel advisors in California and across the country will no longer have the option of rendering their services as independent business owners to the agencies that currently engage them, according to a survey conducted by the American Society of Travel Advisors (ASTA).

Like numerous other industries, travel agencies have come to rely heavily on the services of independent contractors, and this arrangement provides substantial benefits to both independent advisors and the agencies engaging them. Specifically, agencies gain a measure of flexibility where traditional employment relationships are either impractical or uneconomical, while advisors have the freedom to set their own hours and schedules, establish their own rates, select the customers with whom they will work and market their own brands.

Unfortunately, however, recent developments have put this mutually advantageous system at great risk. Last year, the California Supreme Court issued its decision in the case of Dynamex Operations West, Inc. v. Superior Court of Los Angeles County, 4 Cal. 5th 903 (2018), in which the Court adopted the so-called "ABC Test" to determine a worker's status as either an employee or an independent contractor for purposes of wage order claims. In doing so, the Court overturned the common law "right of control" test established in the Borello decision upon which travel agencies and businesses in hundreds of other industries in California had relied upon for nearly three decades.

Recently, the American Society of Travel Advisors conducted an industry survey in order to assess the likely impact of this harmful legislation on the independent contractor community. The preliminary results paint a clear picture.

First, this is an established industry that is about to be thrown into upheaval by Assembly Bill 5. More than half of independent contractors (ICs) have been in their role for more than seven years.

The vast majority of respondents to our survey (85%) are very satisfied with their status as an IC and 93% of independent advisors reported that the freedom to set their own hours and work schedules was an important factor in choosing the IC business model.

If required by law to become agency employees, 41% of independent advisors responded that they would choose to leave the industry or leave the state for one that allows them the flexibility they currently have.

Now Assembly Bill 5, currently pending before the Senate Labor, Public Employment and Retirement Committee, aims to codify the holding in the Dynamex decision, making the ABC Test applicable to nearly everyone in every industry in the state. Because in most cases traditional travel agencies engaging workers to sell travel will be unable to satisfy the ABC Test, passage the bill would mean that thousands of independent advisors will no longer have the option of rendering their services as independent business owners to the agencies that currently engage them.

As the bill has moved through the legislature, exemptions have already been added for insurance agents, physicians, dentists, direct salespersons, real estate agents, barbers, architects, and others.

While the Senate considers Assembly Bill 5, it is critical that it be amended to clearly state that workers engaged to sell travel in the travel agency industry will be evaluated under the standard in place in California for nearly 30 years prior to the Dynamex decision.

Rebranded in 2018 as the American Society of Travel Advisors, ASTA is the leading global advocate for travel advisors, the travel industry and the traveling public. Its members represent 80 percent of all travel sold in the United States through the travel agency distribution channel. Together with hundreds of internationally-based members, ASTA's history of industry advocacy traces back to its founding in 1931 when it launched with the mission to facilitate the business of selling travel through effective representation, shared knowledge and the enhancement of professionalism. For more information about the Society, visit ASTA.org. Consumers can connect with an ASTA travel advisor at TravelSense.org

Daddy Dave's Diaper Drive at Leatherby's Supports Life Center

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Local residents who bring an unopened pack of diapers to any Leatherby's Family Creamery location on July 20 from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. will receive a free scoop of ice cream as part of Daddy Dave's Diaper Drive, benefiting the Sacramento Life Center. The drive, which takes place during National Ice Cream Month, will provide diapers for low-income moms in the Sacramento area and honor the life of the ice cream shop's founder Dave Leatherby Sr. who passed away earlier this year and supported the Sacramento Life Center for decades.

"This is a really special drive, as it not only fills an important need, but honors my late father who was so beloved in this community and who had such a heart for helping low-income pregnant women and teens in the Sacramento area," said Marie Leatherby, executive director, Sacramento Life Center. "We hope everyone comes out on July 20 to help women in need and enjoy a free scoop of Leatherby's ice cream in honor of my dad."

According to The Nation, a third of American families struggle to afford enough diapers. The 2018 article quoted a study that found families would leave a child in a diaper too long, risking diaper rash and urinary tract infections, and others would bleach a wet diaper, dry it and reuse it. The Sacramento Life Center's diaper drive will ensure that every mother who walks into its main clinic can receive free, clean diapers for her children.

The Sacramento Life Center's mission is to offer compassion, support, resources and free medical care to women and couples facing an unplanned or unsupported pregnancy. The Sacramento Life Center's licensed Sac Valley Pregnancy Clinic includes a primary clinic and two Mobile Medical Clinics that provide all services for free, including pregnancy tests, STD tests, ultrasounds, peer counseling for men and women, education and resource referrals. The nonprofit also offers a school-based teen education program, a 24-hour hotline and a program for women experiencing reproductive grief. The minor will not be present in court unless he requests or the court so orders. 2. You are required to be present at the hearing; however, if you appear without counsel and are unable to afford counsel, the court must appoint counsel for you, unless you knowingly and intelligently waive the right to be represented by counsel. The court will not appoint the same counsel to represent both the minor and his parent. 3. At the hearing the court will consider the recommendations of the DSS Social Worker. The DSS Social Worker may recommend that your child be freed from your legal custody so that the child may be adopted. If the court follows the recommendations, all your parental rights to the child will be terminated. 4. If the court terminates your parental rights, the order may be final. 5. The court will proceed with this hearing whether or not you are present. Dated: June 10, 2019 By Deputy Clerk Lloyd G. Connelly 8-2-2019

CHEERS & JEERS

By Damian Holbrook

Cheers to Bethenny Frankel

for putting the “real” back into Bravo’s Real Housewives of New York City. On the amazing June 12 episode, Countess Luann’s chronically selfish BS during a girls’ trip to Miami drove the Skinnygirl mogul into the kind of emotional meltdown you can’t fake.

Cheers to Bachelor in Paradise for reuniting with two of our favorite exes. This summer’s beachfront mating game will be hotter than ever now that ABC has added franchise favorites Chris Bukowski and Bibiana Julian to the mix. Fingers crossed they wind up in each other’s arms.

Jeers to The Real World: Atlanta

for skimping on the intros. Facebook Watch’s reboot of the once-awesome MTV classic promised to return the series to its edgier roots, but the rushed 25-minute premiere barely gave us time to get to know who the new roomies (pictured) are or why we should care about them.

Jeers to Big Brother’s Big Mess.

CBS’s summer hit always seems to serve us at least one horrible houseguest, but Season 21 is really hitting new lows with the grossly offensive Jack, who either doesn’t realize that the live feeds are capturing his racist, sexist comments or just for us in the nine years since The Walking Dead launched than it has for the survivors of the zombie apocalypse, whose story has spanned just about half that much time (roughly five years, according to some sites’ calculations). The story still often concerns the risks the characters go through to forage for supplies and sustain themselves with food and even create their own ammo. It’s a survival story as much as a horror fest, and we are getting glimpses of a civilization that has carried on even as our heroes rebuild their own world.

ASK MATT

BY MATT ROUSH TV Guide Senior Critic

Will Another Network Pick Up The Cool Kids?

Question: I just loved The Cool Kids. Excellent stories that I think fans from 50 years old and up could relate to. Any possibility it will return? – Louise C.

Matt Roush: Very unlikely. The show was produced by the Fox studio for the Fox network, and now that the studio has been folded into the Disney empire, the only hope is that ABC or another Disney property would suddenly become interested in it. If that were the case, we’d probably have heard by now.

Question: After all this time on The Walking Dead, how can there still be electricity, charged car batteries, flashlights with fresh batteries, ammunition and food? – Roger

Matt Roush: You have a point, but keep in mind that much more time has passed

The US women are winners, not victims

The women of the U.S. national soccer team are famous for being extraordinary athletes, repeat world champions -- and plaintiffs.

The team's lawsuit alleging pay discrimination against the U.S. Soccer Federation has done much to define its identity. A nearly perfect run through the World Cup has been widely interpreted as vindication of the merits of its case, so much so that fans chanted "equal pay" after the U.S. victory in the final over the Netherlands and booed the head of FIFA, the sponsor of the World Cup, during the trophy ceremony.

It's not to take anything away from the women's achievement -- they never trailed the entire tournament -- to note that the equal-pay complaint is almost entirely bunk.

It is true that the American women, who sweat and practice as much as their male compatriots (perhaps more, given their superior results), don't make as much. But the women's game isn't as popular or profitable, which fundamentally drives pay.

The total prize money for the women's 2019 World Cup was $30 million, with the champion taking away about $4 million. The total prize money for the men's 2018 World Cup was $400 million, with the champions winning $38 million.

This seems blatantly unfair, until you take into account the completely different viewership and revenue from the two events. FIFA raked in more than $6 billion from the 2018 men's World Cup. The women's 2019 World Cup has been projected, when all is said and done, to make about $130 million.

The women's tournament this year may have garnered about a billion viewers across all platforms, nothing to sneeze at, but the 2018 men's World Cup had more than a billion viewers just for the final game.

The lawsuit's explanation for a smaller audience for the women's team is what it calls "manufactured revenue depression," a deliberate effort by the federation to squelch the women's reach and undercut their ticket prices. Perhaps the federation should have done more, and can do more, to promote the women's game, but the smaller women's audience can't be the work of one organization.

Another element of pay for women's and men's players is their play for professional leagues, where the scale of the audiences is, again, vastly different.

The National Women's Soccer League has two strong teams that average more than 10,000 fans per game, but the other seven teams in the league average fewer than 5,000. Sky Blue FC, based in Piscataway, New Jersey, averages 1,432.

By way of comparison, the worst of the men's Major League Soccer teams, the Chicago Fire, averages 11,417. The best-attended team, Atlanta United, has drawn roughly 70,000 people for four home games this season, about the total attendance for all NWSL games so far.

The women and men have two different collective bargaining agreements, and different World Cup hoops to jump through, so making direct apple-to-apple comparisons is complicated. It's hard to argue, though, with the simple approach the women say that they have proposed in the past -- revenue sharing based on how much money they bring in.

There's risk to this arrangement if the women underperform, but this group is nothing if not self-confident, and so far has always delivered.
