Kitty-Palooza Returns for Thirteenth Year

Annual cat/kitten adopt-athon features low adoption fees, prizes and fun.

By Allison Harris, Sacramento County

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - On August 3 and 4, everyone wins at the Bradshaw Animal Shelter's annual Kitty-Palooza, including the many cats and kittens, who are ready for their loving "forever" homes and the adopters, who will get a greatly reduced adoption fee, free pet supplies and, most importantly, a new, furry best friend to love for the rest of their lives. More than 200 cats and kittens will be available at the thirteenth annual Kitty -Palooza, noon-4 p.m., Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 3-4. Adoption fees are slashed for the two-day kitty adopt-a-thon: $15 for one cat/kitten or $20 for two. Included in every adoption is a spay/neuter surgery, vaccinations, microchip, ID tag and collar, a one-year license for County adopters and a free vet exam voucher; about a $200 value. "Summer is when we tend to have a larger population of cats and especially kittens," said Dave Dickinson, director of the Sacramento County Bradshaw Animal Shelter. "Many of the kittens have been raised by foster care providers and have been socialized with children and other animals. This event is a wonderful way to match up adoptable kittens and cats with new families and to reduce the number of felines housed at the shelter." Volunteers a n d Bradshaw Animal Shelter staff will be available both days to assist potential adopters with finding the perfect cat or kitten for their lifestyle. Adopters will also receive "Kitty Starter Kits," while supplies last; pet care information and prize drawings. Bradshaw Animal Shelter is located at 3839 Bradshaw Road, Continued on page 3 | Sacramento, 95827.

Blondino studied recreation administration at Cal State Hayward. He is a certified playground inspector with experience in Santa Cruz, Burlingame, Half Moon Bay and Redwood City park departments. He also brings landscaping management experience to his new job. "I like the variety of plants on the Carmichael Park wall," he says. "That corner really stands out. You can see how much dedication went into it."

The new administrator anticipates continued cooperation with local agencies that boost park operation. "Looking ahead, there's a long list of projects we'll tackle bit by bit," he predicts. "The support we get from local businesses, non-profits and neighboring park districts is vital. We all appreciate our community and we want to leave the system in better shape than we found it. Governor Newsom Needs to Return Funds Intended for Disadvantaged Families

By Jacqui Nguyen

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The California Supreme Court recently upheld a ruling by the Third District Court of Appeal which had ordered California to use funds collected during a 2012 Mortgage Settlement lawsuit to help struggling homeowners. The settlement agreement collected $331 million to help financially-distressed homeowners victimized by unfair issue to help distressed lending practices and was intended to provide legal aid, foreclosure hotlines, consumer education and efforts to combat financial fraud.

Instead Governor Brown spent the money on other programs. Since then, two separate court rulings have ordered California to return the funds to their intended purposes.

"Legislative Republicans have been fighting this homeowners since 2015. With the recent decision from the state's highest court, this is a victory for those homeowners and validates what legislative Republicans have been advocating all along. I urge the governor to return the settlement funds to help struggling homeowners and fulfill the original intent," said Senate Republican Leader Shannon Grove.

FOR THE COUNTY OF SACRAMENTO In the matter of the Adoption Petition of: CLAUDETTE WARD, ADOPTING PARENT Case No.: 18AD00151 CITATION TO PARENT DATE: August 19, 2019 TIME: 11:00 DEPT: 124 TO THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

TO: Thomas Isack, DSS Social Worker and anyone claiming to be a parent or having any interest regarding the minor child, JULIAN DURELL WARD, born October 18, 2010 in Sacramento, California

By order of this Court you are hereby notified that you may appear before the judge presiding in Department 124 of this Court on August 19, 2019 at 11:00 am at 3341 Power inn road Sacramento, California, then and there to show cause, if any you have, why JULIAN DURRELL WARD should not be declared free from your custody and control for the purpose of freeing JULIAN DURRELL WARD for placement for adoption.

The following information concerns rights and procedures that relate to this proceeding for the termination of custody and control of said minor as set forth in Family Code Section 7860 et.seq. 1. At the beginning of the proceeding the court will consider whether or not the interests of the minor do require such protection; the court will appoint counsel to represent him, whether or not he is able to afford counsel. The minor will not be present in court unless he requests or the court so orders. 2. You are required to be present at the hearing; however, if you appear without counsel and are unable to afford counsel, the court must appoint counsel for you, unless you knowingly and intelligently waive the right to be represented by counsel. The court will not appoint the same counsel to represent both the minor and his parent. 3. At the hearing the court will consider the recommendations of the DSS Social Worker. The DSS Social Worker may recommend that your child be freed from your legal custody so that the child may be adopted. If the court follows the recommendations, all your parental rights to the child will be terminated. 4. If the court terminates your parental rights, the order may be final. 5. The court will proceed with this hearing whether or not you are present. 2019 By Dated: June 10, Deputy Clerk Lloyd G. Connelly 8-2-2019

Cheers to Supergirl

for finally updating her outfit. After four seasons of flying around in a barelythere miniskirt that made no sense for someone who spends so much time hovering above people, The CW's star Kryptonian (Melissa Benoist, pictured) is getting a new costume complete with pants for Season 5.

Cheers to Scripted Dramas

for leaving us in a lather. Between Stephanie (Robin Givens) ascending to full-on diva-dom on OWN's juicy Ambitions and the steamy, twisty mystery of ABC's Grand Hotel, fans of fun, sexy escapism have two for trying a little too hard. The controversial HBO drama starring Zendaya paints a close-to-thebone portrait of teen life that is horrifyingly real and often raunchy. But it feels like all the sex, drugs and social anxieties are there more to titillate than actually educate.

Jeers to The Hills: New Beginnings

for sucking us back in! Nine years after MTV pulled the plug on their staged docusoap, Audrina Patridge and Spencer (pictured), Heidi and Stephanie Pratt are back-and we hate how much fun they are now that they're a little older and none the wiser. \star

Should There Be Two Emmy Shows?

Question: In your recent wish list for Emmy nominations, you repeatedly stated that deserving network shows and performers were likely to be shut out by cable/ streaming competitors. So explain again why there isn't a need for two separate awards shows: one for broadcast, and one for cable shows/streaming services - Maurice

Matt Roush: Sorry, not budging. (And I'm pretty sure this is becoming an annual argument.) What would you call the awards show for broadcast shows only: The Also-Rans? The Consolation Emmys? Why don't they deserve to compete with the very best on other platforms? To me, it makes a statement when the precious few shows and stars (and writers, directors, designers, etc.) from broadcast shows make the cut to: tvinsider.com that somehow they've bucked the odds to get the attention of the TV Academy. I agree that it isn't fair that some very good work on network TV is getting overlooked, but in the bigger picture, the solution to this paradox is for the networks to tell bolder, riskier stories. Even then, it might not matter to an industry whose members seem to gravitate toward premium cable and streaming. But a show like This Is Us is evidence that if a network series touches a chord in the culture, breaking through the insane clutter that is now the TV landscape, Emmy nominations (and even a win) may follow.

Assemblyman Cooley is Pleased with Yosemite Historic Landmark Names Settlement

By Jillena Hernandez

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) Assemblyman Ken Cooley (D-Rancho Cordova) released the following statement after news broke that a lawsuit settlement will permit Yosemite National Park to resume using its historic landmark names.

"I am very pleased to hear the news that historic Yosemite names like the Ahwahnee Hotel, Curry Village and the Wawona Hotel have been rightfully restored. In 2016, after learning that the former Yosemite concessionaire had outrageously claimed ownership of treasured Yosemite names, I authored the California Heritage Protection Act (AB 2249) with my colleagues Adam Gray and Frank Bigelow to change the law and make certain a private company could never trademark an historic state park landmark.

"Our parks showcase the beauty and Photo courtesy of Office of Assemblyman Ken Cooley incredible history of California, and should always serve the interests of the people."
