Bravo Barbara!

Community Volunteer is Parade Grand Marshal

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - On July 4, Barbara Safford will wave from a convertible as Grand Marshal in the Carmichael Elks Parade. She will take delight in following the fire truck that annually leads the parade. "I love firefighters," says the indefatigable community volunteer. "You can always depend on them to make our lives safer."

Indeed, firefighters counted on Safford in her 17-year career as administrative assistant to five successive Sac Metro Fire Department chiefs. Now retired, she is still much depended on — as one of her community's favorite activists. Her service boosts the Carmichael Library; the Kiwanis Club and Our Lady of Assumption Catholic Church. She has also served the Carmichael Park District and the Park Foundation. The Carmichael Chamber of Commerce named her Volunteer of the Year in 2018 and she represents community residents as a director. "Volunteering keeps me young," she explains. "It's a joy to be involved in this community."

Safford meanwhile finds time to be an active grandma and "nanny" to four great-grandchildren. In 40 years of Carmichael residence, she and husband Tom have marshaled family to watch many Independence Day pageants on Fair Oaks Boulevard. She recalls parade grand marshals as important people — congressmen, senators, assemblymen, sheriffs, war heroes, sports icons and media celebrities

Fund Established for Officer Tara O'Sullivan

CAHP Special Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - On June 19, 2019, at approximately 6:10 p.m., Sacramento Police Department Officer Tara O'Sullivan, 26, was shot at the scene of a domestic violence incident. She was transferred to UC Davis Medical Center where she tragically died. Officer Tara O'Sullivan was a dedicated, young officer who had only been with the department for a year. This is the first line-of-duty death of a Sacramento Police Officer in twenty years.

At 5:41 p.m., Officer Tara O'Sullivan and fellow officers responded to a domestic disturbance. Approximately thirty minutes later, shots were fired by an armed gunman inside the house. Officer O'Sullivan was struck while trying to help a woman move her items outside of the home.

With Officer O'Sullivan down, the gunman continued to fire at officers which prevented any form of rescue. An armored vehicle arrived in response and officers were able to transport her to the hospital where she succumbed to her injuries.

The standoff lasted for multiple hours until the gunman surrendered at 1:54 a.m.

Officer O'Sullivan was a recent graduate from Sacramento State's Law Enforcement Candidate Scholars Program. After which, she graduated from the Sacramento Police Academy.

"The loss of Officer O'Sullivan is devastating, grievous, and a reminder that police work invokes heartbreak," said Brad Houle, CAHP Credit Union President. "She displayed heroism while protecting an individual in our community. Her family, friends, and colleagues will always remember that she selflessly sacrificed her life to ensure the safety of another."

The CAHP Credit Union has established a memorial fund in honor of Officer Tara O'Sullivan. The CAHP Credit Union is covering all processing fees and administrative responsibilities.

Donations can be made on the CAHP Credit Union website <https://www.cahpcu.org/ficerTaraOSullivanMemorialFund> or mailed to:

Story by Shaunna Boyd

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Far too many girls in this country are unable to see themselves working in STEM (science, technology, engineering, and math) fields, but Girl Scouts is working to change that. "There's been a big investment nationally in STEM," explained Beth Peters, Girl Scouts Heart of Central California (GSHCC) STEM initiatives manager.

Hot Fireworks Season in Store for Area

By David Dickstein

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Baseball, hot dogs, apple pie and ... crazy bugs?

If TNT Fireworks has its way this Fourth of July, area revelers will embrace cracked creepy-crawlies as a new symbol of Americana for the nation's 243rd birthday. Crazy Bug Fountain is one of nine fireworks debuting this season by the two largest distributors of consumer fireworks.

The pyro-passionate period runs June 28 through July 4 in Sacramento County. Roseville, Rocklin and Lincoln in Placer County are also among the 295 jurisdictions that allow consumer fireworks in the Golden State.

TNT is rolling out a handful of new fountains in addition to Crazy Bug, which, despite its name, shows promise as a sane addition to your private display. Priced at $29.99, the fun-labeled firework features a multi-effect performance of colorful sparks and crackling flowers. Rounding out TNT's newbies are crackle-charged Laser Master, $24.99; effect-loaded Freedom, $19.99; colorful Main Squeeze, $14.99; whistle-happy Hot Point, $14.99; and spaced-out USA Rocket Fountain, a buy-one-get-one for $8.99.

Phantom Fireworks is coming out with three new fountains this season. Sold as a bundle for $39.99, the trio makes up Phantom's newly branded "Super Hero Series," not to be confused with superhero The Phantom. Each has a different shape and name, and valiant sounding they are: Professor Flame, Iron Master and Majestic Lightning.

Returning from last year's impressive freshman class are Phantom's delightful Red White & Blue Jubilee ($25.99) and long-lasting Illuminati Triangle, still a solid deal at $39.99 with a Brew Haha or Dragon's Tears fountain thrown in. TNT's response is an exceptionally strong sophomore lineup, headlined by the dazzling Tasmanian

Cyclone ($39.99), super-charged Wild Side ($25.99) and intense Electrolytes ($29.99 for two).

A third player, Discount Fireworks Superstore, will have a few stands in the area. Brands carried by DFS include Winda, Black Cat, Showtime, Brothers and Freedom.

Because state-approved consumer fireworks can only be sold in California by non-profit organizations, hundreds of the county's 501c3s are banking on big profits from pyrotechnics peddled to the patriotic and philanthropic. Volunteers will be braving the summer heat to do such good as sending kids to church camp, suiting up youth sports teams and getting adolescents off drugs.

Working in the groups' favor this year is the day on which the Fourth of July falls. A Thursday Independence Day is a friend to the fireworks industry, contrary to a Wednesday which is traditionally a one-day holiday for America's workforce. U.S. resellers generally reported flat sales in 2018 due to the hump day holiday.

"Thursday is a great day for the Fourth of July," said Cathy Castilone, Sacramento-based vice president of American Promotional Events, the wholesale distributor for state-approved TNT fireworks. "Many people take the next day off when the fourth is on a Thursday."

The competition concurs. Jeff Kreman, Phantom's Northern California regional manager, said he expects sales to increase from last year.

"A lot of companies will give employees Friday off, and when the Fourth falls on a four-day weekend sales are good," said Kreman, also based in Sacramento.

Be sure to check local laws and take all safety measures before buying and lighting.

For stand locations, visit the websites for TNT (www.tntfireworks.com), Phantom (www.fireworks.com) and Discount Fireworks Superstore (www.dfsfireworks.com).

have led the fray in vintage vehicles. Safford never imagined joining their ranks until Elks parade organizer Jim Warrick told her the Elks wanted her for 2019 Grand Marshal.

"Why me," she asked. "Who in the world knows me?"

"Everybody," Warrick replied. "You are such an asset to the community." With tears in her eyes, Barbara Safford accepted the ceremonial gig. "It's an honor for any American," she says. Chicago-born Safford shares an earliest July 4 memory: "I was living in the little Illinois town of Mokenca, the gladioli capital of the world," she recalls. Flowers were everywhere. I was six years old. I wore a red, white and blue dress and red shoes—like Dorothy. I watched the parade and waved my flag. Later, at the fireworks, I waved sparklers.

Exactly 72 years later, Grand Marshal Safford will be among about 800 participants in the 61st Elks Parade. The procession leaves Marconi and Fair Oaks Boulevard corner at 10:30 am and ends at the Elks Lodge on Cypress Ave. Here the public may enjoy free swimming, dancing and a barbecue.

Pyrotechnics ignite at 9:30 pm at the La Sierra Community Center (Engle Rd). Sponsorships are welcomed by Carmichael Park District (916) 485-5322. To volunteer for parade duties, call Jim Warrick, Carmichael Elks (916) 489-2103. ★

All for Bocce!

By Sharon Ruffner

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Shirley Simi, a resident of Carmichael for over 50 years and member of the Italian Cultural Society dreamed of Bocce Ball Courts in Carmichael Park. When the Carmichael Parks Foundation began fundraising for the effort, Shirley donated generously to the cause.

Sadly, she passed away in March of 2018 before she could see the courts become a reality. The Shirley Simi Memorial Bocce Fund was established as a tribute to her Italian Heritage and her love for Carmichael.

Shirley's children

Todd Pennington and Teri O'Sullivan are holding a fundraiser on July 14th at the Italian Cultural Society. Guests can learn all about Bocce while being treated to Italian culinary delights, live music by local band Vintage Fare, and a silent auction.

Tickets are $50 and the event is limited to only 150 guests.

Help make Bocce Ball Courts a reality in Carmichael and purchase tickets or donate now at CarmichaelParksFoundation.org. ★

Bera Urges President to Consult on Iran

By Travis Horne

WASHINGTON, DC (MPG) - Representative Ami Bera, Chairman of the Oversight and Investigations Subcommittee of the House Foreign Affairs Committee (HFAC), made the following statement on recent tensions with Iran, including the President's decision to approve then cancel a military strike against Iran.

"We are currently in a dangerous situation with Iran, and it's incumbent on the Administration to work towards deescalating tensions through diplomacy and by working closely with our allies," said Rep. Bera. "Iran is the world's leading state sponsor of terrorism and seeks to destabilize our allies and security in the Middle East, and their decision to shoot down an American drone was a reckless and provocative action. While we have the right and obligation to defend ourselves, the President must consult with Congress before taking any military action that can put our brave servicemembers in harm's way."

Rep. Bera previously raised concerns about the decision of the Administration to declare an emergency declaration to bypass Congress in authorizing weapon sales to Gulf countries. In a June 12 HFAC hearing, Rep. Bera questioned R. Clarke Cooper, Assistant Secretary for Political-Military Affairs at the Department of State on the origins of the Department's memo justifying the arms sales, and has sought further information from the Department related to who wrote and cleared the memo.

Girl Scouts Take STEM on the Road

“The national CEO [Sylvia Acevedo] is a rocket scientist, so she’s very invested in computer science. She got into science because of Girl Scouts, so she wants other girls to have that opportunity.”

The GSHCC council successfully opened two STEM Centers + MakerSpaces, one in Sacramento and another in Modesto. Peters said the Sacramento space served 1,400 girls in the first year and 2,400 girls so far this year. “It’s growing rapidly,” said Peters, “and it’s not just limited to STEM centers. Girls are doing projects with their troops, with their troop leaders, doing it on their own, they’re taking more classes... girls are getting more involved, for sure, which is really exciting.”

GSHCC has 18,000 girls in their council, which serves 18 counties. Everywhere “between Yuba City down to Merced, from Tracy to Truckee, so it’s a very big section of the Central Valley,” said Peters. “It’s just not feasible for people to be able to get to the MakerSpaces on a regular basis.” To expand on the success of the STEM Centers and reach more girls, GSHCC just launched a Mobile STEM Center + MakerSpace. “We decided to take everything good about these spaces and put it on wheels so we can take it to them,” said Peters. Meyda Aiyah, a Gold Award girl scout, was part of the GIRL (Go-getter, Innovator, Risk taker, and Leader) Task Force, and she helped design and implement the STEM Center + MakerSpace. Aiyah just finished her freshman year at the University of Texas at Dallas where she is majoring in computer science. “I love coming back,” said Aiyah, “especially seeing the growth of what Girl

Scouts here have done promoting girls in STEM. It’s amazing, and the Mobile STEM MakerSpace is so cool because you can take STEM on the road and bring it to so many girls.”

Aiyah said, “When I took my first computer science classes in high school, there weren’t as many girls as I expected. I thought, ‘We have the same mind and the same capability to do what guys can do, why are there less girls in this field?’ So it’s really important to encourage girls, to tell them, ‘You have power, and you can shine bright in these fields.’”

The Mobile STEM Center will travel to troops and Title I schools throughout the region to reach underserved girl scouts, especially those living in outlying areas. GSHCC will rotate the curriculum to offer a variety of options including engineering, robotics, programming, virtual reality, energy and space science, cyber security, agricultural science, and forensics.

Peters said that GSHCC also works with local partners in the region to help connect girls to STEM resources that already exist in their communities, and they “hope that the Mobile STEM Center will be a magnet for that.”

At a launch party for the Mobile STEM Center on June 18, attendees commended the initiative. Powerhouse Science Center deputy engineer Rita Hoffstadt and executive board of directors’ member Judith Kielstrom admired the Makerspace and said they look forward to partnering with GSHCC. Kielstrom said, “It takes a village to raise a young scientist.”

Sacramento Mayor Darrell Steinberg supports GSHCC’s STEM initiative, noting the importance of creating pathways for young girls into these fields as the area increases its technological impact: “Sacramento is booming.... We’re building a modern economy.” Mayor Steinberg wants Sacramento to be a national leader in ensuring young women’s involvement in STEM, and he offered this advice to young women: “Live your dreams. Don’t let anyone tell you that you can’t do something.”

Girl Scouts serves girls in grades K – 12 and girls can join at any time. Visit www.girlscouts.org for more information. ★

CHEERS & JEERS

By Damian Holbrook

Jeers to Lisa Leaving RHOBH

Cheers to Big Little Lies

for coming back in a huge way. Any fears we had about HBO's star-studded soap stretching past Liane Moriarty's novel with an original Season 2 vanished as soon as we saw how Meryl Streep's prickly new character mixed it up with the murderous Monterey Five.

Jeers to DC Universe

for draining the Swamp Thing. Less than a week after its debut on the comic book empire's digital platform, the A-plus horror drama about a Louisiana bog beast (Derek Mears, pictured) was canceled despite scary-good reviews and a fanbase ready to dive in completely.

Nine seasons and countless screaming matches apparently mean nothing to Lisa Vanderpump (pictured), who just quit The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills and skipped out on the reunion-special taping without even considering the Bravo addicts who were living to see one last showdown with the cast that has come to hate her.

Cheers to Netflix

for putting its faith in Lucifer. After saving the Fox castoff and delivering a spirited fourth season, the streaming service has blessed us with the news that Tom Ellis and Co. will get a fifth and final batch of episodes to bring the wickedly fun dramedy to a proper close. ★

ASK MATT

BY MATT ROUSH TV Guide Senior Critic

When Will We See The Durrells In Corfu Again?

Question: Is the PBS show The Durrells in Corfu coming back? It is such a fun show! Even my 95-year-old mom likes it! – Becky

Matt Roush: That's quite the endorsement, and I get it. (My mom just turned 90, and it's harder and harder to get her involved in episodic TV that isn't Downton Abbey.) The good/bad news is that a fourth season of Durrells is forthcoming – no air date announced yet, though most likely will air on PBS in the fall – but it will be the final season.

Question: When might the BBC production of A Gentleman in Moscow be shown in the US? Just finished reading the marvelous book by Amor Towles and heard that Kenneth Branagh is directing and starring in it in a series for the BBC, and my book club is eager to view it. Any information as to when it will hit our shores? – Betty

Matt Roush: It's a bit premature, since news of the adaptation surfaced just two months ago. Depending on how long production takes and who picks it up – no network or platform was announced at the time, so it's not even known yet if it will air on a network like PBS or cable or on a streaming service – I'd imagine we'll see it sometime in 2020. The book is high on my own must-read list – finding time to read is its own challenge – and I must say this sounds very promising.

Summer Dangers and Safety Tips for Pets

By Sheri Madsen, RedRover

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - RedRover, a national animal welfare organization dedicated to bringing animals from crisis to care, has shared a list of summer safety tips for pets to help get families through the warm months.

"Our pets are like family, and we want to ensure they are kept safe as they are exposed to changing conditions. Just as you should never leave your child alone in a hot car, the same goes for your pets, as temperatures can rise swiftly in a very short amount of time and turn deadly," said Nicole Forsyth, President & CEO of RedRover. "Prevention is key, so remembering these quick and easy tips can make the summer more enjoyable for the whole family."

Hot Surfaces: Surfaces such as asphalt, sand and concrete can burn your pet's paws. Try to walk your pet early in the morning or later in the evening as the temperature cools down or walk them on the grass. If that isn't possible, check the ground temperature by placing the back of your hand on the ground for at least 10 seconds. If it's too hot for your hand, it is too hot for your pet's paws.

Cars: Leaving your pet in your car, even in 70 degree weather, can lead to deadly consequences. A Stanford study found that a car's interior can heat up by an average of 40 degrees F within an hour, regardless of ambient temperature, and 80 percent of the temperature rise occurs within the first half-hour. Cracking the windows makes little difference on the internal temperature, so it is best to leave your dog at home where it is cool.

Dehydration: Make sure to check your pet's water dish several times a day, and refill it with fresh, cool water. Ice cubes or frozen broth cubes can be added to encourage them to drink more. Adding wet food to their diet can also keep them hydrated.

Heat Stroke: In addition to making sure your pet is hydrated, keep them in the shade as often as possible when outdoors. While dogs and cats like to bask in the sun, direct sunlight can overheat them and cause heat stroke.

Pools: While pools can be a great way to cool your dog down and prevent heat stroke, chlorine can upset a dog's stomach and irritate their skin. Watch to make sure they don't drink more than a mouthful of water, and don't forget to rinse your dog with fresh water after their swim. A "kiddy pool" filled with fresh, cold water is a safer option.

Fireworks: Loud noises can be very scary for animals. Try to keep your pet indoors when you know fireworks are planned. If you can't, be sure to double-check your gate/fencing to ensure your pet won't try to escape when startled.

Sunburn: Animals can sunburn too, especially those with short, thin or light-colored coats. Sunburns can be painful, and overexposure to the sun can lead to skin cancer. Ask your veterinarian about animal-safe sunscreens and how to apply them properly.

Barbeques: Food that is stuck to a barbecue after cooking can be too tempting for your pet to resist - licking the barbecue grate can result in serious burns to an animal's tongue or mouth. Make sure to clean the grill thoroughly and close the lid, if possible. Lighter fluid is a poison, so store it out of your pet's reach.

These are just a few tips to help make the summer months with your pets enjoyable and safe. For more information on RedRover and its programs and services, please visit www.RedRover.org

Coalition Applauds Assembly Education Committee for Passing SB 428

By Le Ondra Clark Harvey, Ph.D., CBHA

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The California Assembly Education Committee passed SB 428 by a bipartisan vote (5-0). It now moves ahead to the Assembly Health Committee for approval. The bill would require a percentage of staff and teachers in each school be trained in a program like Youth Mental Health First Aid (YMHFA). YMHFA is a comprehensive training specifically designed to equip educators, family members, and caregivers with the skills and knowledge to identify, understand, and respond to the signs or risk factors of mental illness and substance use disorders in youth. The purpose of the bill is to increase school and community-level capacity to tackle California's growing youth mental health crisis.

SB 428 is supported by a broad coalition led by Born This Way Foundation, California Council of Community Behavioral Health Agencies (CBHA), County Behavioral Health Directors Association (CBHDA), and Children Now. Following the assembly's action today, Le Ondra Clark Harvey, a spokesperson for the coalition and Director of Policy and Legislative Affairs for CBHA said:

"Our coalition came together in support of this bill because the mental wellbeing of students is critical to their ability to lead healthy lives. As representatives of service providers and experts in the field, we believe there are actionable solutions to California's growing youth mental health crisis. This coalition strongly supports SB 428, which seeks to better equip teachers and school staff on the frontlines of this crisis, and to increase access to mental health trainings in schools. We thank Senators Pan and Portantino for introducing this important piece of legislation, and we thank the Assembly Education Committee for their support with passing the bill out of committee."

Rimmi Hundal, Director of MHSA and Ethnic Services at the Tri-City Mental Health Services, and Andrea Zimmerman, a retired teacher and school administrator and current YMHFA trainer with Wellness Together provided testimony alongside Senator Pan at the hearing.

"I think about all the missteps I could have avoided as a teacher and an administrator if I had Mental Health First Aid training at the beginning of my career, and the impact that would have multiplied across all teachers and schools. Our youth deserve learning environments where they're surrounded by adults who are trained to respond to their mental health needs," said Andrea Zimmerman.

California Council of Community Behavioral Health Agencies (CBHA) is a statewide association of county funded non-profit community agencies dedicated to the proposition that the people of California deserve a rational, comprehensive, community-based behavioral health system that is adequately funded to serve all those in need of services. We are their voice at the Capitol and with state agencies, and work to ensure that state and county programs support integrated services for children, youth, adults and the elderly which includes physical health, behavioral health, housing, social services, education, substance abuse services and vocational rehabilitation.

The County Behavioral Health Directors Association is a statewide non-profit association that represents all 58 county behavioral health directors and 2 city mental health programs (Berkeley and Tri-City) which is dedicated to advocating for public policy and services on behalf of people who are living with substance use disorders and mental illness.

Led by Lady Gaga and her mother Cynthia Germanotta, Born This Way Foundation was founded in 2012 to support the wellness of young people and empower them to create a kinder and braver world. To achieve these goals, the Foundation leverages evidence-based programming and authentic partnerships in order to provide young people with improved mental health resources and kinder communities - online and offline.

Children Now is a non-partisan, whole-child research, policy development and advocacy organization dedicated to promoting children's health and education in California. The organization also leads The Children's Movement of California, a network of more than 3,000 direct service, parent, civil rights, faith-based and community groups dedicated to improving children's well-being. ★

Fracking Opponents Make It Harder to Keep Warm

Commentary by Paula Bolyard

Many U.S. households are just starting to recover from record-setting cold temperatures. Several major cities -- like Denver and Chicago -- used more fuel than last winter to stay warm, according to a recent AccuWeather analysis.

But many low-income Americans, who already struggle to pay their heating bills, couldn't afford to pay for more fuel. For the nation's poorest families, energy costs eat up more than a fifth of after-tax income.

Leaders in Washington and around the country could help lower those heating bills by encouraging the development of domestic natural gas -- a clean, affordable heating fuel that America happens to possess in abundance. Yet several lawmakers are doing their best to suppress natural gas production.

As long as these politicians persist in their campaign against natural gas development, staying warm during a long winter will remain an unaffordable luxury for America's least advantaged citizens.

Heating costs are already unmanageably high for many households around the country. For instance, the average price of heating one's home with propane is a whopping $1,676. Those burning heating oil spent $1,506, on average, while electric heat cost the average household over $965.

But not all families faced such hefty heating bills, thankfully. In fact, the nearly half of American households using natural gas to stay warm spent a mere $634. For a household living at the poverty level -- which is currently $21,330 for a family of three -- the financial savings that come from natural gas can be life-changing.

The surge in domestic natural gas production in recent years has already reduced the cost of living in the United States dramatically. Thanks to advances in the energy exploration technique known as hydraulic fracturing, or "fracking," household spending on natural gas dropped by more than a quarter between 2008 and 2014. In 2015 alone, natural gas helped deliver $1,337 in additional disposal income to the average U.S. family.

And by making it cheaper to do everything from ship goods to power factories and, yes, heat one's home, the natural gas boom will likely contribute an additional $533 billion to the nation's economy by 2025.

So it's discouraging that so many lawmakers known for championing the economically disadvantaged stand opposed to domestic energy development.

Sen. Bernie Sanders (I-VT), for instance, wants to ban fracking across the country, just as lawmakers have already done in his home state of Vermont. New York implemented a fracking ban back in 2015, as did Maryland in 2017.

Opponents of fracking insist that the practice poses real threats to the environment. But virtually every concern has been debunked. And anyone truly concerned with the future of our planet should welcome a growing supply of low-cost natural gas -- a fuel that emits roughly half as much CO2 as coal, and considerably less than propane, gasoline, or diesel.

America's broadscale transition away from less clean energy sources like coal and toward natural gas is a main reason why national CO2 emissions have hit their lowest levels in nearly two decades.

Of course, the vast majority of Americans are well aware of the benefits of natural gas. According to one recent poll, 77 percent of voters want more domestic oil and gas production, not less.

It's no surprise why. Policies that restrict the production of natural gas -- and keep energy prices needlessly high -- make little sense in any season. But when Americans face record-setting cold weather, those reforms are downright inhumane.

Retrofitting Homes to Keep Seniors Living Safe at Home

By Mia Lopez, Uptown Studios

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Rebuilding Together Sacramento will discuss simple safety improvements to help increase seniors' mobility and safety in their homes, and discuss their Safe at Home program.

Falls in the home are a serious health issue that is often preventable with simple lifestyle and home updates. The Safe at Home program is available to those of any income level. Trained volunteers improve accessibility and safety with simple items that can make a big difference. There is a need for affordable housing, particularly for older adults and those with disabilities. Homes need retrofits that support aging in place and this is an ever-growing concern.

This service is essential to seniors in Sacramento because:

"Falls are the leading cause of fatal and nonfatal injuries among older persons," said Erik Listou, co-founder of the Living in Place Institute... " Bliss, S. (Aug. 23, 2018). The Wall Street Journal. Retrieved from <https://livinginplace.institute/images/wsj-3-pages.pdf>;

have health and emotional benefits over institutional care..." Evidence Matters (Fall 2013). Measuring the Costs and Savings of Aging in Place. Retrieved from <https://www.huduser.gov/portal/periodicals/em/fall13/highlight2.html#title>;

Rebuilding Together Sacramento is seeking volunteers who want to improve the safety and independence of older adults and those with disabilities by installing safety items in their homes.

Rebuilding Together Sacramento (RTS) is a nonprofit organization that has been serving the Greater Sacramento area since 1991. RTS continues to expand its partnerships with others that are revitalizing neighborhoods, improving homes, preventing falls and reducing energy use.

River Cats' Dave Brundage Leads PCL at Triple-A All-Star Game

River Cats' Dave Brundage to lead PCL field staff for 2019 Triple-A All-Star Game.

By Daniel Emmons, Sacramento River Cats

WEST SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Sacramento River Cats manager Dave Brundage and Buffalo Bisons skipper Bobby Meacham have been tabbed the managers of their respective league's All-Star teams for the 2019 Ronald McDonald House Charities Triple-A All-Star Game. The 32nd annual contest will take place at Southwest University Park in El Paso, Texas on Wednesday, July 10 at 7:05 MT.

In his career, PCL skipper Dave Brundage has amassed over 1,500 managerial victories in nearly two decades of managerial experience. Brundage, who made his managerial debut in 1995, is in his third season managing the River Cats. Prior to his time with the San Francisco Giants affiliate, Brundage spent four seasons with the IL's Lehigh Valley IronPigs (Philadelphia Phillies Triple-A) compiling a 286-289 (.497) record while leading the club to an 85-58 record in 2016, the second-best mark in all Triple-A baseball. A former fourth-round selection by the Phillies in 1986, the Portland, Oregon native spent 10 seasons in the minors with the Phillies and Seattle Mariners organizations.

Joining Brundage's staff will be pitching coach Pat Rice (Salt Lake Bees), coach Eric Martins (Las Vegas Aviators) and athletic trainer Dan Turner (El Paso). In his first season with the Bees, Rice previously served as pitching coach for the Double - A Mobile BayBears in 2018 and spent five years as the pitching coach for fellow-PCL club Fresno Grizzlies. Martins is currently in his fifth season overall as a hitting coach in the Oakland Athletics organization, and in his first year with the Aviators after spending the previous three seasons with the Nashville Sounds (2016-18) and one season with Double-A Midland of the Texas League in 2015. Turner rounds out the PCL field staff, serving as the athletic trainer, is in his ninth season with the Padres organization and has served as athletic trainer for the Chihuahuas over the last three years.

The RMHC Triple-A All-Star Game will be broadcast live on MLB Network. All-Star festivities in El Paso will begin with the Jarritos Triple-A Home Run Derby on Monday night, July 8. # Building Character Through Football

Story and photos by Shaunna Boyd

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - On June 15, The Playmakers Organization held a free one-day Football Camp at El Camino High School. The Playmakers Organization, founded by Greg "Coach Roz" Roeszler, is a local non-profit that provides free "Character Academy" camps for local youth.

Joe Bodnar and Joe Simeone are long-time friends of Coach Roz, and they support the Playmakers mission by volunteering at the Character Academy Football Camps. Bodnar said, "It introduces the kids to the sport. It gives them a self-esteem boost; they get to be in the spotlight."

Simeone explained, "The sport is the platform to talk about character. It provides an opportunity to ask kids, 'What are you doing off the field? What are you doing in the classroom?'" The Playmakers' programs focus on reaching at-risk and special needs kids, and Simeone said the kids often go on to become mentors to younger participants, taking on leadership roles in the program.

Playmakers board member Bill Hutto described why he got involved in the organization: "My heart is with at-risk youth, and Playmakers does a lot for these kids." After retiring from a career in the California Department of Corrections, Hutto knows how important it is to provide at-risk kids with early intervention to keep them out of the prison system. "Giving them the opportunity to build their confidence and learn positive attitudes at a young age helps them become productive citizens," said Hutto.

Harrison Phillips, NFL defensive tackle with the Buffalo Bills, helped host the football camp. "This is a really cool initiative," said Phillips. "I'm happy to come out and unite a lot of different people through sports; it's amazing the power of the sport to bring people together. It's about teaching these kids character, team building, and working together — all the positive attributes of this sport that these kids might not get a chance to experience without this program."

NFL player Jordan Richards played football at Folsom High School and college football at Stanford before playing with the New England Patriots, the Atlanta Falcons, and recently signing with the Oakland Raiders. Richards has been involved in Playmakers since he was 13, attending Playmakers football camps as a teen.

"I didn't know it at the time, but the lessons I learned here — who I am as I person, who I am as a man — I learned through the game. I'm so thankful for the time I had growing up with Coach Roz."

Richards met Phillips at Stanford and recruited him to become a Playmakers sponsor. Richards said, "In a way, we grew up together — and we still encourage each other." Richards spoke of the bonds of friendship created through football, explaining it as "the guys who helped build me, and I helped build them."

Richards, Phillips, and numerous volunteers (including students from local high schools El Camino, Rio Americano, Western Sierra, and Mira Loma) ran a series of football drills with the Playmakers kids. Coach Roz is grateful to have the support of Richards and Phillips: "These guys contribute so much to the organization, not just financially, but by taking the time to show up."

"The growth you get from this game really does last a lifetime," said Richards. "Football taught me a lot about life, and a lot about myself. It takes a lot of people to make a team. It's a family." He urged the kids to take advantage of this opportunity: "Be a part of all this. It truly is special." ★

The Climate Trap for Democrats

The more the climate debate changes, the more it stays the same.

Polls show that the public is worried about climate change, but that doesn't mean it is ready to bear any burden or pay any price to combat it.

If President Donald Trump claws his way to victory again in Pennsylvania and the Upper Midwest, his path will likely go through abortion and climate change, two issues on which the Democrats are most confident in their righteousness and willing to embrace radical policies that appeal to their own voters much more than anyone else.

Joe Biden, the relative moderate, is subject to these forces. He dumped his long-time support for the Hyde Amendment prohibiting federal funding of abortion and released a climate plan that, even if more modest than the "Green New Deal" (a low bar), is clearly derived from it.

There's no doubt that climate is a top-tier issue for Democrats. In a CNN poll, 96 percent of Democrats say it's very important that candidates support "taking aggressive action to slow the effects of climate change." It's doubtful that mom, baseball and apple pie would poll any higher.

Among the broader public, according to a survey by climate change programs at Yale and George Mason universities, 70 percent believe that climate change is happening, and 57 percent believe that humans are causing it.

It's easy to overinterpret these numbers, though. An Associated Press/University of Chicago poll asked people how much they were actually willing to pay to fight climate change, and 57 percent said at least $1 a month, or not even the cost of a cup of coffee at Starbucks.

The political experience of other advanced democracies is a flashing red light. In Australia last month, the liberal opposition lost what was supposed to be "the climate change" election, against all expectations. Polling showed that about 60 percent of Australians thought the government should address climate change "even if this involves significant costs." It turned out that it was one thing to tell that to pollsters and another to vote to make it happen.

In France, gas and diesel hikes as part of a government plan to reduce carbon emissions by 75 percent sparked the yellow vest movement in car-dependent suburbs and towns, and had to be ignominiously reversed.

The politics of climate change will be problematic for the duration, for several reasons. The voters most opposed to the costs of climate action tend to be "deplorables" most easily dismissed by center-left parties at their own peril: voters in rural Queensland in Australia, economically distressed residents of unfashionable rural and semiurban areas of France, working-class voters in the Rust Belt in the U.S.

Bearing real costs for the sake of the climate will always be a sucker's game for any one country so long as there isn't a global mandate for emission reductions.

Finally, whatever the costs, no one is going to feel any climate benefits anytime soon, or likely ever. The supposed upside of plausible policies adopted by the U.S. would be minuscule changes in the global temperature decades from now.

All this should counsel caution rather than apocalyptic rhetoric and policies, although Trump has every reason to hope it doesn't.

RESOLUTION NO 2019-02

A RESOLUTION OF INTENTION TO CONTINUE TO LEVY ASSESSMENTS FOR THE FISCAL YEAR 2019-20, PRELIMINARILY APPROVING THE ENGINEER'S REPORT AND PROVIDING NOTICE OF HEARING OF THE MISSION OAKS RECREATION AND PARK DISTRICT PARKS AND RECREATION MAINTENANCE AND IMPROVEMENT DISTRICT

WHEREAS, the Mission Oaks Recreation and Park District, Parks and Recreation Maintenance and Improvement District was authorized by an assessment ballot proceeding conducted in 2006 and approved by 68.78% of the weighted ballots returned by property owners, and such assessments were levied by the Advisory Board of Directors by Resolution No. 2006-04 passed on May 2, 2006; and

WHEREAS, on April 9, 2019 by Resolution No. 2019-01, the Board ordered the preparation of an Engineer's Report for the Parks and Recreation Maintenance and Improvement District (the "District") for fiscal year 2019-20; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to said Resolution, the Engineer's Report was prepared by SCI Consulting Group, Engineer of Work, in accordance with 22565, et. seq., of the Streets and Highways Code (the "Report") and Article XIIIID of the California Constitution; and

WHEREAS, said Engineer's Report was filed with the Secretary of the Board of Directors and the Board of Directors has reviewed the Report and wishes to take certain actions relative to said Report.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Advisory Board of Directors of the Mission Oaks Recreation and Park District ("Board"), that:

SECTION 1. The Report for the "Parks and Recreation Maintenance and Improvement District", on file with the Secretary of the Board, has been duly considered by the Board of Directors and is hereby deemed sufficient and approved. The Report shall stand as the Engineer's Report for all subsequent proceedings under, and pursuant to, the foregoing resolution.

SECTION 2. It is the intention of this Board to continue to levy and collect assessments within the District for fiscal year 2019-20. Within the District, the existing and proposed improvements ("Improvements") are generally described as the installation, maintenance and servicing of public facilities, including but not limited to, landscaping, sprinkler systems, park grounds, park facilities, landscape corridors, ground cover, shrubs and trees, street frontages, playground equipment and hardcourt areas, senior and community centers, drainage systems, lighting, fencing, entry monuments, basketball courts, tennis courts, running tracks, swimming pools, other recreational facilities, security guards, graffiti removal and repainting, and labor, materials, supplies, utilities and equipment, as applicable, for property owned and maintained by the Mission Oaks Recreation and Park District. Installation means the construction of recreational improvements, including, but not limited to, land preparation, such as grading, leveling, cutting and filling, sod, landscaping, irrigation systems, sidewalks and drainage, lights, playground equipment, play courts, recreational facilities and public restrooms. Maintenance means the furnishing of services and materials for the ordinary and usual maintenance, operation and servicing of said improvements, including repair, removal, or replacement of all or part of any improvement; providing for the life, growth, health and beauty of landscaping; and cleaning, sandblasting and painting of walls and other improvements to remove or cover graffiti. Servicing means the furnishing of electric current or energy for the operation or lighting of any improvements, and water for irrigation of any landscaping or the maintenance of any other improvements.

SECTION 3. The District consists of the lots and parcels shown on the assessment diagram of the District on file with the Secretary of the Board, and reference is hereby made to such map for further particulars.

SECTION 4. Reference is hereby made to the Report for a full and detailed description of the Improvements, the boundaries of the District and the proposed assessments upon assessable lots and parcels of land within the District. The Engineer's Report identifies all parcels which will have a special benefit conferred upon them and upon which an assessment will be imposed.

SECTION 5. The assessment is subject to an annual adjustment tied to the Consumer Price Index-U for the San Francisco Bay Area as of December of each succeeding year (the "CPI"), with a maximum annual adjustment not to exceed 3%. Any change in the CPI in excess of 3% shall be cumulatively reserved as the "Unused CPI" and shall be used to increase the maximum authorized assessment rate in years in which the CPI is less than 3%. The maximum authorized assessment rate is equal to the maximum assessment rate in the first fiscal year the assessment was levied adjusted annually by the minimum of 1) 3% or 2) the change in the CPI plus any Unused CPI as described above.

The change in the CPI from December 2017 to December 2018 was 4.49%. Therefore, the maximum authorized assessment rate for fiscal year 2019-20 is increased by 3.00% which equates to $54.44 per single family equivalent benefit unit. The estimate of cost and budget in the Engineer's Report proposes assessments for fiscal year 2019-20 at the maximum rate of $52.07 which is less than the maximum authorized assessment rate.

SECTION 6. The public hearing shall be held, before this Board at Mission Oaks Community Center, located at 4701 Gibbons Drive, Carmichael, California 95608 as follows: on Tuesday, July 23, 2019 at the hour of 6:00 p.m. for the purpose of this Board's determination whether the public interest, convenience and necessity require the improvements and this Board's final action upon the Report and the assessments therein. The Secretary of the Board is hereby authorized and directed to cause a notice of the hearing to be given by publishing a notice once, at least ten (10) days prior to the date of the hearing above specified, in a newspaper circulated in the District.

SECTION 7. To get additional information about the assessments or the Assessment District contact: Daniel Barton, District Administrator, Mission Oaks Recreation and Park District; 3344 Mission Avenue, Carmichael, California 95608. The Engineer's Report and other written material about the Assessment District may also be reviewed at the District at the address above during regular District business hours.
