Contractors State License Board Press Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) -Breaking state contracting laws has once again caughtup with a Sacramento area offender who has a history of unlicensed contracting activity - he was caught for illegal contracting in a sting last year. The repeat offender was one of 13 cited in a sting last week in Gold River.

CSLB's Statewide Investigative Fraud Team (SWIFT) coordinated the undercover operation in a single family home near Mather Airport on June 12-13. The Sacramento County District Attorney's Office and Rancho Cordova Police Department were partners in the sting.

CSLB investigators contacted alleged unlicensed contractors to bid on home improvement projects like painting the exterior of the home, masonry, electrical, and pouring concrete.

Watch for West Nile Virus Mosquito Bites

By Corey Egel, CDPH

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The California Department of Public Health (CDPH) urges all Californians to protect themselves from mosquito bites during West Nile virus (WNV) season, which extends from summer through early fall.

"West Nile virus activity in the state is increasing, so it is important to take every possible precaution to protect against mosquito bites," said State Public Health Officer and CDPH Director Dr. Karen Smith.

West Nile virus spreads to humans and animals through the bite of an infected mosquito. Late-spring rains have contributed to standing water, which serves as a breeding source for mosquitoes that can spread WNV. Hot temperatures also contribute to increasing numbers of breeding mosquitoes and an increased risk of virus transmission to humans.

Currently, WNV activity is within expected levels and is similar to activity at this time last year. The risk of disease due to WNV increases as the summer progresses, and declines in early fall as the weather cools. In 2018, there were 217 reported WNV cases in California, including 11 deaths. Since WNV was first introduced into California in 2003, there have been more than 6,000 human WNV cases and 303 WNV-related deaths across the state.

West Nile virus is influenced by many factors, including climate, the number and types of birds and mosquitoes in an area, and the level of WNV immunity in birds. For most people, the risk of developing serious illness is low. However, some individuals – less than one percent – can develop serious neurologic illnesses such as encephalitis or meningitis. People 50 years of age and older, and individuals with diabetes or hypertension, have a higher chance of getting sick and are more likely to develop complications from WNV infection.

CDPH recommends that people protect against mosquito bites and WNV by practicing the "Three Ds":

DEET – Apply U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA)-registered insect repellent containing DEET, picaridin, oil of lemon eucalyptus, or IR3535 according to label instructions. EPA-registered repellents are recommended for use because they have ca.gov been tested for safety and efficacy in preventing mosquito bites. Insect repellents should not be used on children under two months of age. For more information, visit CDPH's insect repellent toolkit.

DAWN AND DUSK -Mosquitoes that transmit WNV usually bite in the early morning and evening, so it is important to wear proper clothing and repellent if outside during these times. Make sure that your doors and windows have tight-fitting screens to keep out mosquitoes. Repair or replace screens that have tears or holes.

DRAIN – Mosquitoes lay their eggs on standing water. Eliminate all sources of standing water on your property by emptying flower pots, old car tires, buckets, and other containers. If you know of a swimming pool that is not being properly maintained, please contact your local mosquito and vector control agency.

California's West Nile virus website includes the latest information on WNV activity in the state. Californians are encouraged to report dead birds on the website or by calling toll-free 1-877-WNV-BIRD (968-2473). www.cdph.

estimates. They offered bids between $930 for electrical and $12,000 for pouring concrete - well over the legal threshold for contracting without a license.

In California, it's illegal to bid over $500 on contracting jobs for both labor and materials combined (Business and Professions Code (BPC) §7028(a)). A first conviction penalty could result in fines of up to $5,000 and/or by imprisonment in county jail for up to six months.

One of those cited is a repeat offender. Jacob Daniel Cobb was caught in a Roseville sting March 2018. He pled no contest and was sentenced to three years of probation. If charged, second offences include a fine of $5,000, twenty percent of the contract price, or twenty percent of the aggregated payments (whichever is greater) and up to 90 days in county jail (BPC §7028(c)).

"Our goal is for any suspect who qualifies for a contractor's license to get one," said CSLB Registrar David Fogt. "When they get caught a second time, they're showing they'd rather put homeowners at risk than follow the law. That's why it's critical for consumers to check for a contractor's license before hiring anyone to work in or around their homes."

Proposed Rent Control Initiative Enters Circulation

Office of California Secretary of State

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Secretary of State Alex Padilla announced the proponents of a new initiative were cleared to begin collecting petition signatures today.

The Attorney General prepares the legal title and summary that is required to appear on initiative petitions. When the official language is complete, the Attorney General forwards it to the proponents and to the Secretary of State, and the initiative may be circulated for signatures. The Secretary of State then provides calendar deadlines to the proponents and to county elections officials. The Attorney General's official title and summary for the measure is as follows:

EXPANDS LOCAL GOVERNMENTS' AUTHORITY TO ENACT RENT CONTROL ON RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY. INITIATIVE STATUTE. Amends state law to allow local governments to establish rent control on residential properties over 15 years old. Allows rent increases on rent-controlled properties of up to 15 percent over three years from previous tenant's rent above any increase allowed by local ordinance. Exempts individuals who own no more than two homes from new rentcontrol policies. In accordance with California law, provides that rent-control policies may not violate landlords' right to a fair financial return on their property. Summary of estimate by Legislative Analyst and Director of Finance of fiscal impact on state and local governments: Potential reduction in state and local revenues of tens of millions of dollars per year in the long term. Depending on actions by local communities, revenue losses could be less or more. (19-0001.)

The Secretary of State's tracking number for this measure is 1862 and the Attorney General's tracking number is 19-0001.

The proponents of the measure, Michael Weinstein, Cynthia Davis, Jesse Brooks, Rene Christian Moya, & Susan Hunter, must collect signatures of 623,212 registered voters (five percent of the total votes cast for Governor in the November 2018 general election) in order to qualify it for the ballot. The proponents have 180 days to circulate petitions for the measure, meaning the signatures must be submitted to county elections officials no later than December 23, 2019. The proponents can be reached c/o Fredric D. Woocher, Esq. and Beverly Grossman Palmer, Esq., of Strumwasser & Woocher LLP, at fwoocher@strumwooch.com and bpalmer@strumwooch.com respectively. The address for Strumwasser & Woocher LLP is 10940 Wilshire Boulevard, Suite 2000, Los Angeles, CA 90024.

County Receives Grants for Two Housing Sites

By Janna Haynes, Sacramento County

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - Sacramento County is pleased to announce that funding for two proposed permanent supportive housing developments for persons experiencing homelessness has been awarded by the California Department of Housing and Community Development (HCD). The No Place Like Home (NPLH) program funding, totaling nearly $13 million in new money for Sacramento, will provide permanent housing for individuals and families experiencing homelessness and who are living with a serious mental illness.

Sacramento County's successful applications in the State's first competitive funding round were the result of a collaborative effort with the development sponsors, the Sacramento Housing and Redevelopment Agency, and the cities where the developments are located.

The two new housing facilities, Sunrise Pointe and Capitol Park Hotel, will result in 180 new housing units for persons experiencing homelessness, 87 of which will be dedicated for persons that also have a serious mental health illness and need services (designated NPLH units). Sacramento County Division of Behavioral Health Services has committed to providing mental health treatment services to the designated NPLH units for a minimum of 20 years. "This is a priority for Sacramento County Behavioral Health Services. Investing in permanent, stable housing is critical for our consumers'

Ph.D., Sacramento County Behavioral Health Director.

Sunrise Pointe is a new construction project located at 7424 Sunrise Boulevard in Citrus Heights and consists of 47 one- two- and three-bedroom units. Of these, 22 will be designated NPLH units. All units will serve families and individuals experiencing homelessness. The site will be developed and operated by Jamboree Housing and Hope Cooperative (aka TLCS, Inc.) respectively.

"We are grateful for No Place Like Home funding to support this important project in the Citrus Heights community," said Erin Johansen. Hope Cooperative executive director. "Sunrise Pointe is a collaboration between Hope Cooperative and Jamboree Housing that will provide 47-units of much-needed permanent, stable housing for individuals and families in need. Hope Cooperative will provide on-site Residential Service Coordinators who will work closely with residents in accessing a variety of resources including job training, budgeting and other needed services, as well as an on-site property manager. This project will help people live successfully in the community and is an essential step in ending the cycle of homelessness in the Sacramento region."

"Jamboree has a long, rich history of effectively utilizing new state resources in order to create more affordable and supportive housing," said Laura Archuleta, President and CEO of Jamboree Housing Corporation. "We are thrilled to have successfully partnered with Sacramento County and recovery," said Ryan Quist, Hope Cooperative in securing more than $3 million from the new No Place Like Home program for the development of Sunrise Pointe. This funding will be instrumental in addressing the region's affordable and supportive housing needs, and will positively transform and strengthen the Citrus Heights community for years to come."

> Capitol Park Hotel is a rehabilitation project located at 1125 9th Street in downtown Sacramento. This development will be an acquisition and rehabilitation of a historic building and will include 134 units for households experiencing homelessness. Of these, 65 will be designated NPLH units. The site will be developed and operated by Mercy Housing California (MHC).

> "We are thrilled with the huge step the proposed permeant supportive housing at Capitol Park Hotel has taken this week with the award from HCD," said Stephen Daues, Regional Director of Mercy Housing California. "We have a lot of work remaining, but this provides the momentum needed to secure the remaining funding."

> "The Courtyard Inn transformation is well underway and only delayed by one month after enduring the heavy spring rains and the many surprises that come with striping the building down to the studs." Daues says, "The rebuilding stage is now underway and handing over keys to the new apartment homes for 92 formerly homeless households is well within sight."

CBRT Responds to New Rent Control Initiative

International

MARKET

By Brooke Armour, California Business Roundtable

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - California Business Roundtable President Rob Lapsley issued the following statement in response to the submission of a new rent control ballot initiative that, if qualified, would appear on the November 2020 ballot:

Voters in this state overwhelmingly defeated a rent control measure just five months ago. Study after study has shown that rent control hurts the housing market, will stop investment of new development and will only make the housing crisis worse. CBRT strongly opposes this newly proposed ballot measure and will once again work to defeat it should it qualify. It is time to come together on solutions to meet the governor's ambitious goal of 3.5 million new housing units by 2025, the only true long-term solution to the housing crisis. Statewide rent control as proposed by this new measure will only make this goal harder to achieve." ★

Continued from page 1 using the "Find My Licensed Contractor" feature to search for licensed contractors by city or ZIP code.

Twelve suspects may face a second misdemeanor charge for illegal advertising. Licensed contractors must display their license number in all advertisements and unlicensed contractors must state in all ads that they do not have a license (BPC § 7027.1). The penalty for violating the advertising rules for unlicensed contractors is a fine of $700 to $1,000.

One of the suspects did not carry workers' compensation insurance policies to cover those working for them (Labor Code § 3700.5). This case resulted in a "stop order" (a legal demand to cease all employee labor at a jobsite), as the unlicensed individual brought his hired help with him to the home.

Additionally, one suspect may also be charged with asking for an excessive down payment. (BPC §7159.5 (a) (3)(b)). The legal limit for a down payment is 10 percent of the contract price or $1,000, whichever is less.

All suspects were ordered to appear on a future date at the Sacramento County

Street, Sacramento, CA 95814.

NOTE: All suspects are presumed innocent until their case is resolved.

By Catherine Curran, Shriners Hospitals for Children -Northern California

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - For the eighth year in a row, Shriners Hospitals for Children - Northern California is ranked as one of the nation's elite providers of pediatric orthopedic care by U.S. News & World Report.

In its annual Best Children's Hospitals rankings, U.S. News & World Report ranks the Northern California Shriners Hospital as number eight in pediatric orthopedics in conjunction with the UC Davis Children's Hospital. The Northern California Shriners Hospital also achieved the ranking of 20th in Urology in conjunction with UC Davis.

Rankings are based on a combination of clinical data and reputation with pediatric specialists. According the U.S. News & World Report web site, U.S. News generates hospital rankings by evaluating data on nearly 5,000 hospitals in 16 adult medical specialties, 9 adult medical procedures or conditions and 10 pediatric specialties. To be nationally ranked in a specialty, a hospital must excel in caring for the sickest, most medically complex patients.

"We are extremely proud to be recognized as one of the top 10 providers of pediatric orthopedic care in the entire United States. The ranking is a reflection of the reputation of our exceptional team of specialists and the quality of care they provide children with complex medical needs," says Margaret Bryan, administrator and CEO at the Northern California Shriners Hospital.

"As a regional pediatric medical center, our hospital stands ready to serve families throughout Northern California who want the very best for their children," she adds.

Among the thousands of children treated by the orthopedic team each year are children with scoliosis, limb deficiencies, sports injuries, hand, wrist, elbow, and shoulder malformations, brachial plexus birth palsy, spinal cord injury, spina bifida, and cerebral palsy. The hospital also is engaged in clinical trials and scientific research to advance orthopedic care.

U.S. News introduced the Best Children's Hospitals rankings in 2007 to help families of sick children find the best medical care available. The rankings open the door to an array of detailed information about each hospital's performance. The full rankings and methodology are available atwww.usnews.com/childrenshospitals \star

Sacramento County DA Reports

Defendant Convicted for House Party Drive-By Shooting DATE: June 18, 2019 CASE: Keyshawn Strickland (Case #17FE018604)

PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Casey Sinclair, Gangs & Hate Crimes Unit

Keyshawn Strickland was convicted by a jury of attempted murder with premeditation and deliberation, shooting at an inhabited house and assault with a semi-automatic firearm. The jury also found that Strickland personally used a firearm causing great bodily injury on all three counts.

On July 5, 2017, the victim and his friends were at a house party in Elk Grove. The homeowner shut the party down and everyone left the house. The victim was walking toward his friend's car to leave when Keyshawn Strickland fired a gun at least nine times from a car that was driving by the house. Strickland shot the victim and several rounds penetrated into the home. The victim was transported to a hospital, where it was determined the bullet had fractured his pelvis. When he was discharged from the hospital, the victim had to use a walker and re-learn how to walk. Surveillance videos from surrounding homes led officers to identify Strickland as the shooter. Six days after the shooting, Strickland was arrested for possessing a firearm. That firearm was matched to the spent 9mm cartridge casings left behind at the crime scene.

Strickland faces a maximum sentence of 32 years to life in prison. Sentencing is set for July 24, 2019, at 10:00 a.m. in Department 35 before the Honorable Alan Perkins.

Defendant Sentenced for Committing Sex Acts on a Child DATE: June 13, 2019 CASE: Darius Wells (Case #16FE004603) PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Catrina Ranum, Special Assault & Child Abuse Unit

The Honorable Gerrit Wood sentenced Darius Wells to 25 years to life in prison. On May 9, 2019, a jury convicted Wells of committing a sex act with a child under 10 years of age and lewd act upon a child.

Wells would watch the victim when the victim's mother was working. The night of the incident, the victim's mother came home from work at 4:00 a.m. and found the three-and-a half-year-old victim was awake and terrified. The victim told her mother how Wells had hurt her. The victim's mother immediately took the victim to the hospital. Law enforcement responded, and the victim underwent a sexual assault exam. DNA evidence collected during the exam was a match to Wells.

Defendant Convicted of Stabbing Wife to Death DATE: June 12, 2019

CASE: Michael Williams (Case #14F04470)

PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Matt Chisholm, Homicide Unit

Michael Williams was convicted by a jury of the first-degree murder of Tanganyika Williams. The jury also found true that Williams personally used a deadly weapon during the murder.

Michael Williams' wife, Tanganyika Williams, was planning on ending their marriage. On July 8, 2014, the two were in Michael Williams' van on 24th Street near Meadowview Road when Williams stabbed his wife twice in the neck and then fled the scene. Mrs. Williams was able to exit the van and identify Michael Williams as her killer to bystanders and police officers. She was pronounced dead 30 minutes later due to massive blood loss. Williams was captured three weeks later when a citizen spotted him and called 911. When Williams was captured, he was planning to take a bus to Oklahoma.

An allegation that Williams suffered a prior strike conviction for shooting with intent to kill will be determined at the sentencing hearing.

Williams faces a maximum sentence of 56 years to life in prison. Sentencing is set for August 16, 2019, at 10:30 a.m. in Department 40 before the Honorable Raoul Thorbourne.

Don't Let Liberty Die Because of Your Ignorance

Commentary by Harold Pease, Ph. D

A week before the 4th of July everyone dons patriotic symbols. A week later few do. The event comes and goes: colors red, white, and blue are popular for a day. One might be viewed as "super patriotic" (as though this were bad) were one to display the symbols too long.

The evening is filled with fireworks (the bigger the better) but few know why. When asked, the most common response is freedom. "Freedom from what or whom?" I ask. If a stare could kill. I'd be dead. But there is no real understanding behind the expression. It is rare when anyone answers correctly, wish without permission "Freedom from excessive government.'

The cause of the American Revolution was excessive government. Some say, "taxation without representation" but this is but a part of excessive government. Every U.S. History text has a chapter dealing with the causes. It is filled with the rules and regulations that were most oppressive to the colonists: the Stamp Act, Tea Act, Currency Act, Iron Act, Molasses Act, Sugar Act, even the Hat Act. Such acts were viewed by the colonist as restrictions on their freedom to act independent of review this list with family governmental permission. and friends. When they descended like patriotism, but for what? The next day we ask the federal government to place more restrictions on our neighbor and give us more free stuff at his expense, totally ignoring the Constitution and the reason for the Revolution.

Few share with their children the reasons behind these symbols and still fewer tie the Declaration of Independence to the Constitution which essentially ended the need for a future revolution by restricting the federal government to a handful of areas in which they can nect and are among the constitutionally restrict our behavior (Article I, Sec. 8), freezing forever, if we adhere to the Constitution as designed, our legislative branch doing the same thing to us as had parliament to the colonists. If the two are not tied together then the American Revolution was just a revolution, rightly commemorated by having a longer weekend and an excuse to get drunk.

Lost in the translation and replaced by the blank stare previously mentioned, is your right to do most everything you from a government, more especially one located hundreds, often thousands, of miles away. Outside the short list in Article I, Section 8, which, incidentally, has no restrictions on the individual himself, the Constitution left the individual to manage himself. When his behavior offended the right of others to also self-manage, his community, starting at the lowest level (cities, counties, and finally his state government), may regulate his behavior protecting the right of self-management for others as well. Please never elevate to a higher level that which could be resolved at a lesser level. Resolving problems at the lowest level of government, the city for example, allows the individual access to his elected representatives for redress and the offended to those he has most directly offended. A more just outcome is likely.

The 4th of July and Constitution Week in September are our best opportunities to share the message of why the Revolution and the Constitution interconmore important events in U.S., even world, history. These two events are our best opportunities to remember and convey to friends and family what liberty is and how and why it must be preserved. Do they know that at least 85% of all inventions on earth came from within the United States under this Constitution, from the clipper ship to moon landing technology? Liberty incentivizes creativity? Do they know that it was purchased by blood and if lost will remain lost until purchased by blood again? Have you told them that if just one generation fails to convey to the next these precious ideas, it will be lost to their posterity. Freedom is not free and never will be.

We are grateful to those who know the real meaning and significance of this event in history and are willing to share it with others. We are forever indebted to those who gave their lives for our freedom in the Revolutionary War and thereafter. We remain grateful for fireworks and parades as long as we do not forget that excessive government is the enemy of liberty, then and now, whether it is taken from us by a parliament, as then, or

Leading Local Sports to the Top

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) -The Carmichael Chamber of Commerce hosted Mark Orr, the Athletics Director at California State University, Sacramento, for its luncheon on June 25. Prior to Mark's arrival, Hornet Sports had been outsourcing its community outreach task, but now he has taken on the effort for the Department.

"It all starts with great coaches," said Orr speaking about the state of the region's sports panorama. "Ambitious, great, young people at their peak of performance are coming from all our local schools and playing sports at Sac State at a 60 percent rate," he said making a case for a local ethos of sports vitality.

Like all great coaches, he exudes that positive ethos having had an energetic athletic career during his more youthful years. Born and raised in Sacramento, Orr studied and played football at Christian Brothers High School, even winning "the Holy Bowl against Jesuit High School," he chuckled. After that he entered the College Football circuit playing at Cal Berkeley, where he graduated with a Bachelor in Social Welfare success in sports in the last and a Master's degree in Education.

With all the economic and social problems in young people's lives, "I really believe college sports can make a difference," he said. Sac State students enrolled in sports programs have an 86 percent rate of graduation, "that's better than the student body, and our Women's Basketball has the highest GPA in the nation," he said.

Prior to accepting the offer at Sacramento State, Orr was the Director of Athletics and Recreational Sports in the East Bay's Saint Mary's College. During his time at the college, Orr was the Senior Associate Director of Athletics for Finance which added significantly to the institution's infrastructure and Saint Mary's decade.

With Sac State's well developed infrastructure, Orr's task is now to bring the relevance of the university's sports to the community. For those who can't attend, "KOVR will televise all our Football games, and Radio 1320AM will air our games," he said. "You're going to see good sports; our baseball, for instance, is Number 1 beating UCLA," he added with confidence.

Partnership Nurtures Young Scientists to Care for the American River

By Bruce Hartzell, Original Communications

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Elana, a first grader at Elder Creek Elementary School in Sacramento, dipped the litmus paper into the river as her classmate, Jason, held a thermometer in the water. The other children watching closely along the water's edge, the young scientists learned how to test the river's pH and temperature, both of which are critical to supporting salmon and steelhead that rely on the lower American River.

The lesson is part of a new partnership between the Sacramento Water Forum and Effie Yeaw Nature Center in Carmichael to enhance environmental education for underserved elementary schools in the Sacramento region.

A favorite location for teachers throughout the greater Sacramento area, the Nature Center provides education programs to kids from kindergarten through 8th grade and takes care of the 77-acre nature preserve located in Ancil Hoffman Park. The Water Forum represents a diverse group of water providers, local governments and environmentalists focused on safeguarding the lower American River for both drinking water and wildlife.

"Many students may not realize how important water is in our ecosystem and that it sustains all forms of life," said Effie Yeaw Nature Center Executive Director Torey Byington. "Our partnership with the Water Forum allows students to receive a one-ofa-kind nature experience that exposes them to the scientific principles and understanding that are keys to forming a relationship with our natural community-both to protect it and share it with others."

With support from the Water Forum and a Sacramento County grant, the center's Urban Nature Program was enriched to include more hands-on discussions about where water comes from, where it goes and why rivers are important; water quality and its effects on salmon; and ways to protect the lower American River from pollution.

The ultimate goal is to help students understand the importance of water to our community and environment, nurture a deeper connection to the river and inspire budding young scientists, said Water Forum Executive Director Tom Gohring. "Part of the Water Forum mission is to care for the lower American River and the American River Parkway," Gohring said. "This partnership is helping us instill the value of the natural world, and specifically the American River, into our next generation of citizens, educators and civic leaders."

To learn more about the Urban Nature Partnership Program or other educational programs offered at the Effie Yeaw Nature Center, visit sacnaturecenter.net.

The Sacramento Water Forum is a diverse group of business and agricultural leaders, citizen groups, environmentalists, water managers and local governments working together to balance two co-equal objectives: to provide a reliable and safe water supply for the Sacramento region's long-term growth and economic health; and to preserve the fishery, wildlife, recreational, and aesthetic values of the lower American River. Learn more at waterforum.org.

The Effie Yeaw Nature Center (a community service of the American River Natural History Association) provides nature education programs to kids from kindergarten through 8th grade, as well as evening classes for adults, and takes care of the 77-acre nature preserve located in Ancil Hoffman Park in Carmichael. Built in 1976, the Nature Center honors the work done by Effie Yeaw (1900-1970) who connected thousands of children with nature at the location now protected as a nature preserve. Each year nearly 100,000 residents, including many families with young children, walk the nature center trails and enjoy the quiet natural area, which extends from the oak woodland to the lower American River. Jeers to The Handmaid's Tale for telling the same old story. As great as the show's performers are - and they are amazing with June (Elisabeth Moss, pictured) stuck in another male - dominated house while trying to save her child, Season 3 feels like it's spinning the wheels more than moving the characters forward.

Cheers to Younger

for getting even better with age. With Liza and Charles (Sutton Foster and Peter Hermann) going public as a couple, Kelsey (Hilary Duff) rising in the corporate ranks and Josh (Nico Tortorella) facing potential fatherhood, this once frothy TV Land rom-com has grown into a sophisticated treat you should give yourself regularly.

Cheers to When They see Us for being must-see. Ava DuVernay's miniseries about the Central Park Five is not just a harrowing portrait of a broken legal system and ruined, innocent lives, it also showcases a phenomenal cast - including Niecy Nash, Mr. Mercedes' Jharrel Jerome and Gotham's Chris Chalk – at the top of their game.

County Jail Class Action Lawsuit Agreement Reached

By Kim Nava, Sacramento County

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The members of the Sacramento County Board of Supervisors and plaintiffs in the class action litigation suit Mays vs. County of Sacramento, represented by Prison Law Office (PLO) and Disability Rights California (DRC), have reached an agreement on jail conditions.

including Santa Clara, Fresno and Riverside, have been targeted with similar lawsuits and challenges. Sacramento County has been working collaboratively for several years with Plaintiffs' counsel to reach agreement on a plan to bring the jail up to current Constitutional standards.

lawsuit, the County avoids significant litigation costs and the risk of potentially more challenging mandates being imposed by the court.

The consent decree addresses conditions of confinement at both health conditions, includthe main jail and Rio ing higher rates of mental Cosumnes Correctional Center and imposes new obligations on the County with regard to inmate medical care, mental health care. Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) compliance and out-of-cell time, among other issues.

"I'm pleased this consent decree achieves common ground between psychiatric services caselthe parties," said District 2 Sacramento County to 2018.

Chair Patrick Kennedy. "The County will provide improvements for inmates in custody that build upon the enhancements the County has already implemented in recent years."

Supervisor and Board

The actions agreed to by the County are driven by a number of factors. The County's main jail was built before the passage of the ADA and Health Insurance Portability a consent decree regarding and Accountability Act (HPAA). Additionally, Multiple counties there have been a number throughout the state, of federal court decisions that have set new standards and imposed new requirements on county jails.

In addition, due in part to Correctional Realignment, in which large numbers of inmates were transferred from State prisons to county jails, the County jails' population has also changed signif-By agreeing to settle the icantly. The populations shifted from a younger, relatively healthy, shorterterm inmate population to an older, more criminally sophisticated, longer-term population with more complex physical health conditions, behavioral health and substance use disorders, and other health and behavior issues.

Segregation/Restrictive Housing - Inmates will be pre-screened for mental health concerns and housing, health care and management needs will be adjusted for those inmates; most inmates will receive more out-of-cell time.

Americans with Disability Act (ADA) Compliance - Policies, procedures, training and accommodations will be put in place to ensure compliance with ADA requirements.

Suicide Prevention - For inmates at risk of suicide, the County will ensure appropriate intake screening, staff training, suitable housing/ environment and inmate observation.

Disciplinary Measures for Inmates with Mental Health or Intellectual Disabilities – the County will make overall changes in staff training and use of force policies, as well as consult with mental health providers when considering discipline for inmates with cognitive disabilities or mental health issues.

Mental Health Care - For inmates with mental illness, the County will ensure appropriate housing and settings for group and individual treatment, sufficient staffing to meet and maintain improved standards of care and staff training.

Medical Care - The County will improve delivery of medical, dental and mental care through timely referrals, responses to requests for care and medication disbursement;
