Time to Twist and Shout

Beatles tribute band Ticket to Ride donned Sgt. Pepper rig to entertain during the second weekend of the 2019 Carmichael Park concert season.

Story and photos
by Susan Maxwell Skinner

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Baby boomers were out in gray-haired force to catch Ticket to Ride – a Beatles cover band – in Carmichael Park last weekend. The concert was the second performance of the 47th annual concert season sponsored by Carmichael Recreation and Park District. The musicians kept 1300 fans dancing and singing to Lennon-McCartney hits for more than two hours.

At 52 years old, guitarist Bud Ehrk – one of two Carmichael-based band members – figured he was among the youngest in the crowd. “I started playing my parents old Beatles’ 45s when I was seven,” he recalls. “When I learned guitar, the first song I got down was ‘Twist and Shout.’ I guess it only has three chords. The famous British Invasion was long gone by the time I was a teenager. But I always preferred 60s music and I loved the Beatles.

Their songs were upbeat and their harmonies were brilliant.”

Ticket to Ride formed three years ago. Leader and bass player Matt Udall is an attorney who lives in East Sacramento. Guitarist Bud Ehrk works as an aircraft mechanic on weekdays. Drummer Tony Nunes has a California State job and commutes to band gigs from Chico. Carmichael resident Kevin Arthur (guitar) is a retired traffic signal technician.

Unlike some tribute groups, Ticket to Ride musicians don’t feel the need to resemble Liverpool’s most famous sons. “We have the Sgt. Peppers’ coats because people love the colorful uniforms that relate to that Beatles period,” says Ehrk. “But we don’t want to wear cheesy wigs. We just want to be ourselves; being out there playing the music that makes people so happy.”

The 47th season of free CRPD concerts continues this Saturday. Performers are as follows. Downbeat for all shows is 6:30 pm. ★

Mather Vets Campus to Lose Full Capacity For Housing

Julie Beckner,
Volunteers of America

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) -Volunteers of America (VOA) is facing a funding shortfall that will permanently impact Mather Community Campus, the region’s most successful program to combat homelessness. This loss of funding is forcing VOA to cease critical components of the Mather program model which will significantly affect the program’s ability to help clients get off the streets and back on their feet.

Without immediate and ongoing support, Mather will no longer be able to operate at full capacity and will have to cease operations in one of the campus’ 13 residential buildings – a building that can house 90 individuals for up to one year in a transitional housing setting. That’s 90 people who are on the streets now, ready for change, but will have nowhere to go.

Loss of funding also strikes fatal blow to Mather’s Community Dining Hall/Culinary Training Kitchen: The Community Dining Hall will close; clients will no longer receive 3 hot meals daily at a shelter without kitchen facilities in resident quarters; The Culinary Training Kitchen program will close – clients will no longer receive valuable job training that prepares them for employment once they leave the shelter.

Since 1993, Mather Community Campus has helped more than 4,500 people forge their own path out of homelessness through an innovative, proven approach that combines transitional housing with a multitude of supportive services.

“We actually give people their life back. We help them recover the things they need to function in society like getting their driver’s license, opening a bank account, and working on credit repair or record expungement. Mather also helps with clothing, vocational training, and employment placement,” said Sherman Haggerty, Division Director, VOA Employment Services. “We provide the foundational tools people actually need to become a part of the community again. No other program does these things.”

Volunteers of America has created a webpage that details the budget deficit and impact more fully. Anyone wishing to learn more can visit www.save-mather.com. Individuals and organizations who are interested in supporting Mather Community Campus should contact Christie Holderegger, VP/Chief Development Officer at (916) 213-4133 or donate online at www.voa-nccn.org. ★

Dusty Baker Inducted into National High School Hall of Fame

Luke Modrovsky,
National Federation of State High School Associations

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Dusty Baker, who was one of the top four-sport high school athletes in California history before his stellar professional baseball career, is among 12 individuals who will be inducted in the National Federation of State High School Associations (NFHS) National High School Hall of Fame June 30 at the JW Marriott in Indianapolis, Indiana. The 37th Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony will take place on the third day of the 100th annual NFHS Summer Meeting.

During his high school career at Sacramento Del Campo High School in the 1960s, Baker played football, basketball and baseball, and competed in track and field. Although baseball would eventually be his sport of choice, Baker excelled in the other sports as well.

In football, he scored six touchdowns in one game and set several scoring records as a running back and punt returner for Del Campo High. In basketball, Baker averaged 22 points and 17 rebounds and, as a result of his high school performance, was offered a scholarship to Santa Clara University.

In track and field, Baker set a school record of 9.8 in the 100-yard dash, and he recorded a 23-6 effort in the long jump at the California State Track and Field Meet.

Baker was drafted by the Atlanta Braves and, despite the scholarship offer to play college basketball, chose baseball, which turned out to be a pretty good decision. Baker played the first eight of his 19 seasons with the Braves, with his best season in 1973 when he hit .288 with 21 home runs

Celebrate Recovery with Higher Power

Story by Shaunna Boyd

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Higher Power Ministry hosts a recovery celebration at Lakeside Church in Folsom every Friday at 7:00 PM. Christian bands from a variety of genres such as blues, country, and rock and roll perform at the celebration. Lead Director of Recovery John Heath joked, "I turn the church into a nightclub every Friday night, with Jesus in the middle."

A speaker talks to the group about recovery from addiction such as drugs, alcohol, gambling, food addictions, sexual addictions, workaholics, co-dependency, and self-harm. "These are life and death situations for the people that come in here, and there's no such thing as a hopeless case," said Heath. "We're getting phenomenal results."

Higher Power Ministry originated in 1992 at Central Peninsula Church in Foster City. Senior Pastor Jeff Farrar saw the need to help people overcome the addictions that were leading them to jail, institutions, and death. Pastor Steve Aurell, who was a ministry leader until his death in 2013, knew just how difficult it is to overcome addiction since he had once served 15 years in San Quentin Prison because of his own drug addiction. As Pastor of Recovery at Higher Power, Pastor Aurell saved many lives — including the life of John Heath.

Heath had a long history of addiction. During the early 1980s, at the height of the cocaine craze, Heath worked for the Cartel transporting drugs over the border. In 1983, after a serious overdose, he was admitted to the SHARE Unit in San Francisco, the nation's first cocaine recovery center. He spent 60 days there, breaking medical records for the levels of cocaine in his system. Even after extensive treatment, his addiction continued for many years.

In addition to cocaine, he used alcohol, heroin, and eventually moved on to meth.

Heath's wife sought guidance at Higher Power, and Pastor Aurell urged her to stand by her husband in his time of need. Heath said that Pastor Aurell "was responsible through God's Grace for saving my life, marriage, and my family." Heath started attending Higher Power in 2006: "It was like no other church or place I had ever been. ... I felt comfortable in my skin for the first time in my life."

After a year of sobriety, Pastor Aurell asked Heath to become a leader in the Higher Power Ministry. "I then knew that God had a sense of humor," said Heath. After seeing firsthand all the good Higher Power had done for people in need, Heath felt compelled to spread the message to other communities: "God tapped me on the shoulder and asked me to start a recovery church."

Heath moved to Shingle Springs and spent a year in prayer. Then he met Pastor John Voelz at Lakeside Church, who invited him to use the church as the site of a new Higher Power Ministry. Heath said, "We are so appreciative to Lakeside Church for allowing Higher Power to exist in Folsom and for letting us use their site to further our mission of helping those who are lost to addiction in the community." Higher Power at Lakeside opened on July 7, 2017. "Seven, seven, seventeen — three sevens. I believe those are divine numbers," said Heath.

"I started the ministry one person at a time," Heath said. "We accept them however they are — high, drunk, or however they walk in." Anyone who comes to the celebration can share with the group and seek help. "We stay there all night long if we need to," he said. Higher Power Ministry leaders then follow up during the next week to offer additional help. If someone needs a recovery program, the leaders will find one for them. "We're building a family," said Heath. "It's a huge support system."

Many of the leaders are also recovering addicts, and Heath shares his story to inspire others to overcome their own struggles. Although Heath is not an ordained pastor, he found a way to ensure that Higher Power has a strong spiritual support system. He established an Elder Board comprised of two recovery pastors — each with 30 years of sobriety — who give spiritual advice and guidance. Heath said that Pastor Gary Freitas from Manteca and Pastor Dale Marsh from Oroville provide "spiritual direction, protection, and correction in the ministry."

The events are open for anyone to attend. Heath said, "It's a lot of fun. It's not too churchy." They serve free dinner, dessert, coffee, and other refreshments. Higher Power is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization; donation checks can be written to Higher Power Ministry and then mailed to Lakeside Church, 745 Oak Avenue Parkway, Folsom, CA 95630. ★

Dusty Baker Inducted into National High School Hall of Fame

and 99 runs batted in. On April 8, 1974, Baker was on deck when Hank Aaron hit his 715th home run to pass Babe Ruth.

Baker played eight years with the Los Angeles Dodgers, including the 1980 season when he hit 29 home runs and was fourth in the MVP balloting and 1981 when he helped the Dodgers to a World Series title. He was a two-time National League all-star and received a Gold Glove Award as well. Baker finished his career with one season in San Francisco and two years in Oakland and posted a .278 lifetime average with 242 home runs.

After his playing career, Baker managed the San Francisco Giants, Chicago Cubs, Cincinnati Reds and Washington Nationals for 22 years and posted a .532 winning percentage. He ranks 15th on the all-time list with 1,863 victories. He led the Giants to the 2002 National League pennant and was named National League Manager of the Year three times.

Baker continued to give back to the Sacramento community throughout his playing days, returning to speak to groups about honor, sportsmanship, parenthood, racism or other life challenges. He began the Dusty Baker Baseball School, and his commitment, leadership, compassion and concern for the development of young student-athletes continues today after more than 35 years. He also is a member of the Advisory Board of Positive Coaching Alliance, which is dedicated to promoting positive character development in youth and education-based athletics.

Baker is a member of numerous halls of fame, including the Sacramento Sports Hall of Fame, the Marine Corps Sports Hall of Fame, the California Black Sports Hall of Fame, the Bay Area Sports Hall of Fame and the California Interscholastic Federation (CIF)-Sac-Joaquin Section Hall of Fame. He received the Major League Baseball Silver Bat Award in 1980 and 1981.

The National High School Hall of Fame was started in 1982 by the NFHS to honor high school athletes, coaches, contest officials, administrators, fine arts coaches/directors and others for their extraordinary achievements and accomplishments in high school sports and activity programs. This year's class increases the number in the Hall of Fame to 482.

The 12 individuals were chosen after a two-level selection process involving a screening committee composed of active high school state association administrators, coaches and officials, and a final selection committee composed of coaches, former athletes, state association officials, media representatives and education leaders. Nominations were made through NFHS member associations. ★

The Kiwanis Corner

By Sal Arrigo, Jr.

Swing Your Partner

Did you know you can hear some of the most classic swing and jazz music right here in Carmichael? If you did not realize this, but you are in the mood to hear classic tunes such as Benny Goodman's "King Porter Stomp," Artie Shaw's "Begin the Beguine," or Bing Crosby's "Pennies from Heaven," then you are in luck.

The Carmichael Kiwanis Swing Band, an all-volunteer band, is renowned for their uplifting and "foot-stomping" rhythm. The band is led by Carmichael's version of the "King of Swing," Wayne Reimers. Wayne was in the 4th grade when he was introduced to the saxophone and has never looked back. Wayne started teaching music in junior high school and continues to play his saxophone in several local bands at the young age of 85. Wayne and his wife, Barbara, also a member of the band, met at Idaho State College and have been married for more than 61 years. Wayne said, "We used to arrange it to sit together in the college band although the director didn't like it much."

The Kiwanis Swing Band has performed for a variety of audiences such as visiting Kiwanis dignitaries, local residents at the Carmichael Park Summer Series, and baseball fans at a Sacramento River Cats game at Raley Field. I was privileged to be invited to a recent rehearsal session where Wayne and I sat down to discuss the band. "When the band started in the 1980s, we were just awful!" "We used to practice in the basement of Jim Bortolotto's home and every time we started playing, Jim's wife, Aggie, left to go shopping!"

The band has come a long way since then, and still has three original members performing: Wayne, Bill Fellers, and Steve Koontz. One does not have to be a Kiwanian to be a member of the band, a band that started out with eight members and now has maxed out at eighteen dedicated musicians. I met with Billy McFall, trumpeter, who said he got a call from Wayne "after 40 years." Billy was a student of Wayne's at Arden Junior High. "Wayne called me and said he needed a substitute, and would I be interested. It is because of Wayne that I got involved in music." Billy's thoughts for students thinking about picking up an instrument: "It enriches your soul, and you should jump at the opportunity to get involved in music and the arts."

Gail Bisho, a professional pianist, told me she has been playing music for more than 50 years. She loves to perform at military and charity events, and a big reason she is in the band is because of Wayne Reimers. Gail has been a member of the band for five years and told me she is looking forward to joining the Carmichael Kiwanis in the not too distant future. I asked Gail to tell me some memorable story of her career as a pianist. "I once played for our military in the Demilitarized Zone (the area that separates North and South Korea) in the 1980s. When we were playing we looked up and the North Korean tanks were headed our way. They literally unplugged us and escorted us away very quickly."

I am glad to say that the next time I see Gail, Billy, and Wayne, it will be at the Carmichael Kiwanis July 4th Pancake Breakfast at Carmichael Park. There is no better way to start your holiday celebration!

The Kiwanis Club of Carmichael meets every Wednesday morning at 7:00 am at the Elks Lodge on Cypress Ave. except for the fourth Wednesday when they meet at 7:00 pm at the Mission Oaks Community Center. www.carmichaelkiwanis.org ★

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF CRESANTE CASTRO PERRERAS CASE No. 34-2019-00256874 To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, and contingent creditors of and persons who may be otherwise interested in the will or estate, or both of Cresante Castro Perrereras, deceased A Petition for Probate has been filed by Nikol Chuidian, in the Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, requesting Nikol Chuidian, be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent. The petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court. The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the executor to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the executor will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or have consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A hearing on the petition will be held in this court as follows July 17, 2019 9:00 a.m. in Dept 129 at Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento 3341 Power Inn Road Sacramento, CA 95826. IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law. YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. The name, address and telephone number of the Attorney for Petitioner is: Heather S. # TV GUIDE MAGAZINE CHEERS & JEERS

By Damian Holbrook

Cheers to The Fix
for solving its central mystery. Even though ABC canceled the Marcia Clark – produced crime drama, fans still got a solid, twist-filled finale that saw attorney Maya (Robin Tunney, pictured) finally closing her years-old murder case against celebrity suspect Sevvay (Adewale Akinnuoye-Agbaje).

Cheers to Emily Deschanel
for adding new ferocity to Animal Kingdom. Make no Bones about it: The actress who spent 12 years playing Fox's quirky Temperance Brennan is a stone-cold revelation as a hardened ex-junkie with a criminal past on TNT's deliciously gritty crime drama. Jeers to Stranger Things for unleashing something scarier than the Demogorgon. In honor of the Netflix hit's upcoming 1985-set third season, Coca-Cola is planning to rerelease that year's short-lived and so-not-lamented New Coke. Strangest thing about this? We'll probably like it this time around.

Jeers to The Jeopardy! Leaker.
James Holzhauer's 32-game winning streak ended on June 3rd, but the big shock was spoiled days earlier by some loser who tweeted footage of the champ being out-smarted by librarian Emma Boettcher. No question: The producers should sue! ★

ASK MATT BY MATT ROUSH TV Guide Senior Critic

Will We See Another Season Of The Village?
Question: I love the show The Village. The writing and acting are beautifully done. Any news on the show? – Debbie C
Matt Roush: Sorry to tell you that NBC just dropped the ax on three of its underperforming mid-season shows, including The Village, Abby's and The Enemy Within. I'd bet that NBC had the highest hopes, and made the toughest call, regarding The Village, which the network no doubt saw as its next This Is Us with its emotional heart-tugging storylines. I found it a poor and obvious substitute, but others rallied to its cause. I'll admit I was surprised at this cancellation as well. And before you ask, it's unlikely it will be rescued, as it was an in-house production from Universal TV, and with such a large cast to service, it's doubtful anyone would pick up that bill.

Question: Will there be a second series of What We Do In The Shadows? I just loved that show and laughed out loud in spite of watching it by myself! Sure hope so. – Betty
Matt Roush: I was laughing right there with you, and I'm delighted to confirm that FX did renew this inspired and hilarious vampire comedy (that was adapted from the 2014 movie of the same name but with a new cast) for a second season. It's one of my absolute favorite new shows of this year.

Democrats Arbitration Proposal Binds Patients Badly

Commentary
by Peter Roff

It's been more than 100 days since the Democrats were restored to power in the House of Representatives. They haven't accomplished much, aside from talking. Some of what they have to say is just partisan politics.

There are other things they are talking about doing of which we should be wary. One is House Speaker Nancy Pelosi's plan to reduce prescription drug prices by promoting binding arbitration.

Pelosi's plan empowers unaccountable government officials to have the final word on how much Medicare should pay for certain drugs. This price controls by a different name approach has attracted support from numerous lawmakers – but it's a terrible idea.

Implementing this plan will reduce competition, the one mechanism that guarantees seniors can get what they need at the lowest cost and highest quality.

Currently, the government doesn't provide prescription drug coverage to Medicare beneficiaries directly. Instead, it allows private insurers to sponsor and sell drug plans to seniors. Insurers compete with one another to win seniors' business.

Insurers are usually able to negotiate bulk purchase agreements with drug companies. Occasionally though, insurers think a drug company's requested price is too high. Right now, when negotiations over price stall, the government doesn't do anything. The feds let insurers decide which drugs to include or exclude from plans.

Pelosi's vision allows Medicare officials to intervene in negotiations. If an agreement can't be reached, Medicare administrators could appeal to a government-appointed arbitrator. Medicare would suggest a price. So would drug manufacturers.

Both sides having put forward their best arguments, the arbitrators, in theory independent and unbiased, would choose one or simply propose their own price in a legally binding decision neither side could appeal. Except, unlike the way that works at the Better Business Bureau, the government arbitrators would probably be predisposed to side with Medicare in any conflict.

Germany passed a similar arbitration policy in 2010. As a result, drug makers are less willing to sell their products in Germany. When a new cancer medication is approved by regulators anywhere in the world, American patients can access it within three months, on average. By contrast, German patients must wait 11 months, on average.

Binding arbitration would discourage innovation and leave patients without the drugs they need.

It takes an average of $2.6 billion to create a new medicine. Only 12 percent of drugs that enter the first phase of clinical trials are approved by the FDA. If the government could indirectly set artificially low prices for medicines, such investments would become too risky.

President Trump needs to reject the Pelosi plan in favor of a market-based approach that uses competition to bring prices down.

Walmart and Sam's Clubs Raising Funds for UC Davis Children's Hospital

By Kimberly Erickson Camilleri,
Elevate Public Affairs

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - On June 11, 2019, all Sacramento area Walmart stores and Sam's Clubs kicked off this year's Children's Miracle Network Hospitals (CMN Hospitals) fundraising campaign to help treat local children who are sick or injured. All money raised during the Sacramento area CMN Hospitals campaign directly benefits UC Davis Children's Hospital to fund critical treatments, pediatric medical equipment, research and charitable care. The Walmart - Sam's Club CMN Hospitals campaign runs through July 7.

"There are so many Sacramento families depending on donations from Walmart's Children's Miracle Network campaign to provide hope in times of desperation," said Roseville Walmart store manager Patrick Phelps. "We are proud to raise funds for the UC Davis Children's Hospital, and admire the customers who help us give back every year with their donations."

Walmart and Sam's Club associates, members and customers in Sacramento area have raised over $7,080,273 for UC Davis Children's Hospital, most of it one dollar at a time. On a national level, Walmart and Sam's Club have raised more than $1 billion for CMN Hospitals; the largest cash amount ever raised by one company for a nonprofit in North America.

The need is staggering – 62 children enter a Children's Miracle Network hospital for treatment every minute. Helping these children is easy, here's how to participate: Donate $1 or more at the checkout lane or self-checkout of any Sacramento area Walmart store or Sam's Club; Spread the word and encourage others to support the CMN Hospitals campaign via social media with custom CMN Gifts and the hashtag #HelpKidsLiveBetter

Through the leadership of Sam Walton, Walmart and Sam's Club joined the CMN Hospitals fundraising family in 1987. This annual fundraising campaign supports Walmart's core belief of leveraging the company's strength to give back to local communities.

Children's Miracle Network Hospitals® raises funds and awareness for 170 member hospitals that provide 32 million treatments each year to kids across the U.S. and Canada. Donations stay local to fund critical treatments and healthcare services, pediatric medical equipment and charitable care. Since 1983, Children's Miracle Network Hospitals has raised more than $5 billion, most of it $1 at a time through the charity's Miracle Balloon icon. # CA Prosecutors Launch Statewide Recruitment Campaign

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The California District Attorneys Association Foundation has launched a new campaign aimed at encouraging young people from all backgrounds to consider becoming prosecutors and fostering greater diversity in district attorney's offices throughout the state.

A new website, <https://www.californiaprosecutors.org/>, provides tools and resources for those considering a legal career or who currently are attending law school. It includes information on law schools, minority prosecutor associations, internships and jobs.

The website features written and video testimonials from California Attorney General Xavier Becerra and deputy district attorneys from throughout the Golden State about why they chose their careers.

"Public service is enriching and rewarding," said California Attorney General Xavier Becerra. "Prosecutors play an essential role in our democracy by holding criminals accountable and providing justice and support to victims."

The project was the idea of Los Angeles County District Attorney Jackie Lacey who recognized the need for prosecutorial offices to reflect the diversity of the communities they serve. District attorney's offices statewide are involved in the effort.

"As a prosecutor, you fight for equal and fair justice for all and you are the voice for the most vulnerable victims," said San Diego District Attorney Summer Stephan who has championed the right of human trafficking victims to receive justice.

"Prosecutors have the unique ability in the criminal justice system to seek truth, justice and accountability through traditional courts or alternative diversion programs that they design to meet the needs of diverse communities, victims and offenders" said Yolo District Attorney Jeff Reisig. He established a restorative justice program called Neighborhood Court which keeps many lower level cases out of the criminal justice system.

Alpana Samant, a Deputy District Attorney in San Mateo County, described her first encounter as an intern connecting with a domestic violence victim who needed another woman to hear her story.

"I realized then that I too wanted to take on the responsibility of helping people feel safe and heard and visible in my community," she said. "I too wanted to invest my time and energy into doing work that mattered to people who sometimes felt like they didn't matter to anyone."

CHP Freeway Shooting Investigation Leads To Multiple Arrests

By John Harris, CHP
Public Information Officer

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The California Highway Patrol (CHP) Valley Division today announced making arrests in a freeway shooting that occurred on March 17, 2019, on Interstate 80 in Placer County.

The shooting took place between two groups of individuals on westbound Interstate 80 at Douglas Boulevard. Multiple rounds were fired into the victim's vehicle resulting in the driver sustaining major injuries. Immediately after the shooting, the suspect vehicle fled the scene by driving his vehicle the wrong way on the northbound Douglas Boulevard on-ramp to westbound I-80.

Through a collaborative effort with our partners in the Roseville Police Department, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF), Solano County Sheriff's Department, Richmond Police Department, the Vallejo Police Department, and the Federal Bureau of Investigations Safe Streets Task Force, three arrests have been made related to this case.

Early this morning Tevarus Hill, 27, was arrested in Benicia, for attempted murder and multiple weapons charges. At the same time, Myles Sherman, 24, was arrested in Vallejo, also for attempted murder and multiple weapons charges. A third suspect, Enacio Bolton, 26, is in custody as the result of an unrelated incident and will be held for attempted murder charges.

"We want to assure the public that these acts of violence are not random but often targeted attacks between parties that know each other," said Chief Brent Newman, commander of CHP's Valley Division

Based on a recent increase in highway violence including freeway shootings, the CHP has taken several proactive steps to address this issue. These include re-deploying staff, adding to investigative teams, involvement in zero-tolerance gang enforcement operations, and increasing communication at all levels among the involved law enforcement agencies and community leaders.

"We know how scary these types of incidents can be to a community and the CHP is doing everything in our power to locate and arrest those responsible for these senseless acts of violence," added Chief Newman.

Anyone with information regarding a freeway shooting is asked to call the CHP Valley Division's Investigative Services Unit at 916-731-6300.

The mission of the CHP is to provide the highest level of Safety, Service, and Security. ★

UCSF Drops Proposed Partnership with Dignity Health

By Sean Crowley,
Compassion and Choices

SAN FRANCISCO, CA (MPG) - Compassion & Choices praised University of California at San Francisco (UCSF) officials for responding to letters of protest from hundreds of Compassion & Choices volunteers in California and other state residents by dropping a proposal to expand its relationship with Dignity Health.

If the University of California's Board of Regents had approved the proposed partnership, Dignity Health's Catholic 'common values' would have prevented patients at UCSF's four Bay Area hospitals (Dominican Hospital, Saint Francis Memorial Hospital, Sequoia Hospital and St. Mary's Medical Center) from using or receiving information about California's End of Life Option Act. UCSF's announcement to drop the proposal follows Compassion & Choices' May 23 grassroots campaign launch, resulting in nearly 400 of its volunteers writing UCSF officials to oppose the partnership.

"The irony of Dignity Health's 'common values' rejection of medical aid in dying is polling shows three out of four Californians say medical aid in dying is a common value they support," said Kim Callinan, CEO of Compassion & Choices. "We greatly appreciate UCSF's decision because it shows the medical community is undergoing a critically important transformation to ensure that patients' values drive the decision-making process for their healthcare, especially at the end of life."

"...[W]e have seen and heard hundreds of thoughtful, principled, and impassioned statements about UCSF's proposal to expand our relationship with Dignity Health... a health care system that has certain limits on women's reproductive services, LGBTQ care, and end-of-life options," wrote UCSF Health Chancellor Sam Hawgood and President/Chief Executive Officer Mark Laret in a letter posted today on the UCSF website. "Given the concerns, we will not continue to pursue the affiliation as it had been envisioned."

"We thank the hundreds of Compassion & Choices' volunteers and our coalition partners, including the ACLU and LGBTQ groups, whose advocacy helped persuade UCSF officials to drop this ill-advised proposal," said Samantha Trad, California State Director for Compassion & Choices. "Without this collective effort, UCSF officials would have moved forward with this proposed partnership that would have caused needless suffering for patients at its four Bay Area hospitals."

"Two Dignity Health-owned facilities rejected my wife's request for medical aid in dying to peacefully end her suffering from terminal cancer, so I thank UCSF officials for dropping this proposed partnership," said Tom Whaley, whose 42-year-old wife Christina finally was able to find a provider who would write the prescription at UCLA, 200 miles from their San Luis Obispo home, so she could die peacefully last year. "The reality is most terminally ill people who try to utilize the End of Life Option Act are much older and weaker than Christine was, so they wouldn't be able to overcome the obstacles she did to use the law to end their suffering."

A total of 768 terminally ill Californians received prescriptions for aid-in-dying medication and 485 (63%) of them took the medication between the first day of the law took effect, June 9, 2016, until Dec. 31, 2017, according to California Department of Public Health annual reports.

California is one of eight states — including Colorado, Hawaii, Montana, New Jersey, Oregon, Vermont, and Washington — as well as the District of Columbia, that have authorized medical aid in dying. Collectively, these nine jurisdictions represent more than one out of five Americans (21%) and have 40 years of combined experience successfully implementing this end-of-life care option.

Compassion & Choices is the nation's oldest and largest nonprofit organization working to improve and expand health care options at the end of life, with 450,000 volunteers nationwide. For more information, visit: CompassionAndChoices.org ★

SMUD's Shine Program is Now Accepting Applications

SMUD Press Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - SMUD announced that the application period for its Shine program is now open. Shine is a community development program designed to improve and revitalize neighborhoods in the Sacramento region.

Shine awards will range from $5,000 to $100,000 and are very competitive. Any nonprofit organization – 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(6) – within SMUD's service territory is eligible to apply.

Shine awards are available at three funding levels: Spark (up to $10,000), Amplifier (up to $50,000) and Transformer

(up to $100,000). Applications will be accepted through Monday, July 15.

While SMUD will consider a broad variety of potential projects, it is primarily interested in proposals within the following areas:

Neighborhood revitalization or clean up; STEM education (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math); Environmental and energy efficiency, energy conservation or greenhouse gas reduction; General beautification.

SMUD will be holding informational sessions to help nonprofit organizations maximize their submissions. Information sessions will be held on Wednesday, June 26 from 11:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m. and Tuesday, July 2 from 11:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m. at the SMUD Customer Service Center at 6301 S Street. RSVP to shine@smud.org.

In 2018, SMUD awarded more than $400,000 in Shine sponsorships to 21 local nonprofits. SMUD received a wide range of applications, and the selected projects were able to successfully demonstrate collaboration and the potential for broad neighborhood impact.

For more information about the SMUD Shine program, including a list of last year's winners and a link to the 2019 application, visit smud.org/shine. ★

Sacramento County Recommended Budget Approved

Kim Nava, Sacramento County

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento County Board of Supervisors voted unanimously to approve the $4.4 billion recommended budget for Fiscal Year 2019-20.

"Sacramento County's FY 2019-20 budget provided substantial challenges due in part to decreased state and federal revenues, significant costs around lawsuits and increased expenditures," said District 2 County Supervisor and Board Chair Patrick Kennedy. "We were able to weather these challenges with a balanced budget that minimizes the impact to critical services, without eliminating whole programs or services."

The County's General Fund and Restricted Funds budgets for FY 2019-20 totaled $2.7 billion in appropriations, which is a 4.2 percent increase over last year's total. Enterprise and special revenue funds comprise the remaining $1.68 billion.

"We were able to recommend a balanced budget that avoided eliminating whole programs or services, limited the impact on Board-priority programs and avoided employee layoffs," said County Executive Nav Gill.

In spite of the growth of revenue, reductions in positions and programs were necessary due to lawsuit costs, investments in the jails in order to resolve a lawsuit around conditions of confinement, decreases in state and federal revenue for certain programs, as well as other obligations.

To close a general shortfall of $55 million, Sacramento County recommended $43 million in reductions in General Fund Departments and $12 million in General Fund reserves to bridge the gap.

General Fund departments identified a number of targeted program and position reductions. The reductions included the elimination of 181.3 FTE positions that were either vacant or, in a few cases, filled by employees who were shifted to other positions in the same class. No layoffs were necessary.

The budget also recognized areas of growth, including:

$21.7 million to make improvements to the County's jails as part of continuing efforts to resolve conditions of confinement concerns identified in a recent lawsuit; $2.3 million in state and federal revenue to add 25 FTE positions in Child Support Services; $1.2 million in 2011 Realignment Local Innovation funds to add seven positions in Probation to establish a Pre-Trial Assessment and Monitoring Pilot Program; $1 million set aside for costs related to the Hardesty/Schneider lawsuit against the County; $3.5 million to add 29 FTE positions in Airports Department to handle the impact of increasing passenger and freight volume; and $668,000 to cover the cost of postcards and postage for the March 2020 Primary Election, as required by state law.

The budget also continued funding for programs and services that were initiated over the last few years with Board approval, including:

Homeless Initiatives: The FY 2019-20 Budget expands services in several areas using state and federal funding, for a total of a $20 million budget for the initiatives. A $700,000 reduction in funding for the Scattered Site Housing program subsidies (contractor did not need the full amount and placed families in federally funded housing slots). The remaining amount for the Scattered Site Housing program is $2 million;

The Parkways and Unincorporated Communities Clean-up and Safety Initiative to reduce the incidence and mitigate the impact of illegal camping in the County's parkways and unincorporated communities received continued funding with a reduced level of deputies on the Homeless Outreach Teams, reduced hours for the Parks Resource Team and eliminated funding for an animal control officer;

The intelligence-led policing model implemented by the Sheriff's Department;

The Healthy Partners Program that provides healthcare services to undocumented immigrants;

A strategic plan to reduce disproportionate African-American child deaths through community-based contracts and targeted staffing in Child Protective Services, Public Health and Probation;

Implementation of an Adult Supervision Model in Probation that will prioritize supervision and services for high-risk probationers in the first six months to a year of probation;

Behavioral Health Services enhancements to provide appropriate services to persons with serious drug and alcohol use disorders, reducing reliance on hospital emergency rooms, and ensuring that individuals experiencing a mental health crisis receive treatment in the most appropriate setting for their needs;

Continue to implement the Board-approved three-year MHSA (Mental Health Services Act) to expedite mental health services for individuals with serious mental illness and/or co-occurring substance use disorders and are homeless or at risk of becoming homeless;

Animal Care Initiatives focused on improving animal care, increased spay/neuter services and increasing the Bradshaw Shelter's live release rate. The budget recommends reductions in contracts and two positions, but the department expects to continue to maintain its high live release rate;

Efforts to reduce fire danger and illegal camping, increase debris removal and enhance the visitor experience in the American River Parkway and the County's Regional Parks will continue with a reduced number of seasonal staff hours from 9,000 to 4,654;

For details, read the County Executive's Budget Letter or view the budget documents on the Office of Budget and Debt Management;

The numbers on the Recommended Budget will change between now and September, when the County receives new information, including the impact of the State Budget and updated revenue totals. The Final Budget will come back to the Board of Supervisors in September for review and adoption.

By the numbers: $4.4 B: Total Budget; $1.8 B: General Fund; $1.6 B: Enterprise and Special Revenue; $918 M: Restricted Funds; 12,307: Number of Employees. ★

CEOs for Abortion

Clarity of thought and expression about moral issues is not a core competency of CEOs.

If anyone had any doubt, look no further than the "historic" pro-abortion statement by nearly 200 CEOs that ran in a full-page ad in The New York Times. It is a festival of absurdity and euphemism, an exercise in perverse virtue-signaling to a progressive audience that believes that maintaining one of the most permissive pro-abortion regimes in the developed world is a virtue.

The CEOs define abortion as "equality" ("Don't Ban Equality") and, of course, refer to it as "comprehensive reproductive care," the ubiquitous phrase that has the advantage of sounding like the opposite of what it's describing.

The CEOs contend that abortion is central to their businesses, which might be true if all of their companies had the same business model as Planned Parenthood. But Bloomberg L.P., Amalgamated Bank and H&M, to name three of the companies whose CEOs signed the ad, are hardly dependent on abortion to thrive.

The old saw was, "What's good for General Motors is good for America." Now, according to top CEOs, what's good for abortion is good for American business. They seem to consider abortion a crucial component of GDP just like personal consumption, business investment, government spending and net exports.

They argue that "equality in the workplace" is an important business issue, and it is impossible to achieve without unrestricted access to abortion. Any restriction "threatens the health, independence and economic stability of our employees and customers."

The idea that abortion is necessary for the health of women is one of the most misleading pro-abortion clichés. Comprehensive data from Florida last year shows that only a small percentage involve a threat to the mother's life or health, and pro-life laws account for such cases -- even the sweeping Alabama law has a health exception.

The contention that restrictions put "the economy at risk" is nonsensical. Are we supposed to believe that the reduction of the abortion rate in the U.S. from its high in 1980 of 29.3 abortions per 1,000 women of childbearing age to its post-Roe v. Wade low of 14.6 as of 2014 has been a calamity for corporate America?

By this standard, Utah must be a terrible place to do business since its abortion rate is so low, and the District of Columbia an enticing place to do business since its abortion rate is so high. (To the contrary, Forbes ranks Utah as the second-best state for business in the country.)

The implication is that these CEOs prefer that their employees and customers not become mothers, or if they are mothers, not have more children. It apparently hasn't occurred to them that unborn children will grow up to buy their products or perhaps work for their firms one day.

The CEO ad is another sign that the debate over abortion has entered a new phase. It isn't enough anymore to say that abortion should be safe, legal and rare, the old Bill Clinton formulation, because that implies a moral disapproval. Now, abortion is a positive good.

Pro-life laws will have to prevail against this inflamed pro-abortion sentiment -- and the swath of big business that shares it.

Golden State Killer Case Selected As 2019 DNA Hit Of The Year

The forty-five year investigation into the horrifying serial murders, sexual assaults and burglaries in California resulted in arrest after law enforcement's use of investigative genetic genealogy.

Kobe, Japan - June 18, 2019: Gordon Thomas Honeywell Governmental Affairs (GTH-GA) has announced that the Golden State Killer case investigated by numerous California police departments was selected as the 2019 DNA Hit of the Year. The case was selected from 70 cases submitted from 20 countries. It was chosen by a panel of seven international judges with career backgrounds in forensic DNA. The recognition was announced during the annual Human Identification Solutions (HIDS) Conference held in Kobe, Japan.

Now in its third year, the DNA Hit of the Year program is organized by GTH-GA, an international authority on DNA database policy, legislation, and law. "The 2019 list of cases expresses the extraordinary commitment police have to solve and prevent crime with forensic DNA databases," said Tim Schellberg, GTH-GA's President.

Judges selected the California case from seven finalists. The six runner-up cases were from Austria, Dubai, South Africa, Brazil, Massachusetts and New York. A full list of submitted cases and a presentation on this year's selected case and other case highlights can be found at <http://www.dnare-source.com/hitoftheyear-2019.html>.

The Golden State Killer is accused of committing terrifying crimes between 1973 and 1986.

Multiple DNA strategies were utilized while trying to solve these cases. The break in the case occurred when the crime scene DNA was placed into a genealogy database and an investigative lead was developed through a distant relative. The announcement of the Golden State Killer's arrest through the use of investigative genetic genealogy set off a national phenomenon to identify suspects in some of the worst unsolved crimes in US history.

Sacramento County District Attorney Anne Marie Schubert said: "Using investigative genetic genealogy to identify those who are accused of horrific crimes has revolutionized law enforcement's ability to solve violent crime. The arrest of the alleged Golden State Killer was an amazing moment for his victims as well as for the United States' crime fighting history. This new law enforcement tool is bringing hope to victims and their families who have waited decades for justice."

"Having the Golden State Killer case chosen as the 2019 Hit of the Year is a great honor. The DNA Hit of the Year program demonstrates the value of DNA databases to solve and prevent crime through real cases. It is my hope that governments continue to expand DNA programs to stop criminals and save lives," said District Attorney Anne Marie Schubert.
