Weep for Notre Dame

"I believe that this church offers the carefully discerning such cause for admiration," the 14th-century French philosopher Jean de Jandun wrote of Notre Dame, "that its inspection can scarcely sate the soul."

A cultural calamity played out on live TV when the Paris cathedral that has been a focal point of Christendom for so long was apparently gutted by a raging fire, destroying a significant part of an inheritance built up over hundreds of years in a few hours.

Notre Dame stands for so many qualities that we now lack -- patience and staying power, the cultivation of beauty, a deep religious faith, the cultural confidence and ambition to build a timeless monument of our civilization -- that the collapse of its spire was almost too much to bear.

The great novelist Victor Hugo, author of the "Hunchback of Notre Dame," wrote how "every surface, every stone of this

Notre Dame has been thoughtfully restored and preserved over the years, to our credit. But it's difficult not to discern a distressing message in the wanton destruction that ravaged the iconic cathedral -- what prior generations so care-The organ with more than fully and faithfully built, we are losing.

Funds to expand the Low Vision Clinic

By Kristin Thébaud, Thébaud Communications

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Society for the Blind recently received a Vision 2020 campaign donation of $150,000 from the Northern California Lions Sight Association (NCLSA) and the Lions Clubs International (LCIF) to support the expansion of the group's Low Vision Clinic and training space for people who are blind or have low vision.

NCLSA donated $75,000 to purchase equipment and vision testing devices for the clinic and secured an additional matching grant of $75,000 from LCIF to add an indoor orientation and mobility course.

"Lions Clubs across the world have a long history of supporting organizations that help people with vision loss, so we are deeply honored that the Lions chose to invest in Society for the Blind here in Sacramento," said Shari Roeseler, executive director, Society for the Blind. Roeseler continued: "As the only comprehensive vision rehabilitation center in the Sacramento region, Society for the Blind is a critical resource for people who are blind or have low vision. The generosity of the regional and international Lions means that more people across California who are experiencing vision loss will have access to critical assessment and treatment."

Society for the Blind's Low Vision Clinic is one of the longest running community-based clinics in the region. The Low Vision Clinic provides care, vision rehabilitation, low vision devices and transportation assistance to more than 375 people each year.

Clinics are staffed by three optometrists with special training in low vision eve care and serve patients with cataracts, glaucoma, age-related macular degeneration, diabetic retinopathy and other congenital and degenerative eye diseases.

Clinic staff includes a vision rehabilitation therapist who works with patients with some functional vision, teaching them techniques to use their remaining vision safely and effectively and providing training on assistive devices.

"It's in our Lions Club DNA to help organizations like Society for the Blind," said Douglas Wight, governor, Lions District 4-C5. "Across the world, we work to bring greater stability and independence to people with vision loss by providing services and supporting organizations that do this work."

Teal Wicks scores another Broadway hit

By Susan Maxwell Skinner

CARMICHAEL. CA (MPG) -Sacramento-raised singer/ actress Teal Wicks is a veteran of many opening nights on Broadway. Her recent debut in "The Cher Show" was especially memorable.

Among many celebrities, the much-hyped opening lured Kim Kardashian, Kanye West and Bernadette Peters to the Neil Simon Theater.

During the final ovation, the real Cher stepped onstage. "We'd known she was there; we didn't know she'd sing," reports Wicks. "She took the mike, and wow. It was an amazing moment."

star's long career. Wicks (36) portrays TV star Cher; bouncing one-liners off husband Sonny Bono. "Our writers gave me some real zingers," approves Wicks. "I get all the laughs."

Thanks to Cher's designer Bob Mackie, the hometown girl also gets spectacular costumes. "My favorite is covered with white bugle beads," she says. "I'm a tee-shirt-and-jeans girl, but Cher's gowns are empowering."

legend embraced her alteregos. "Cher told me about her relationship with Sonny," recalls Wicks. "She said they > Carmichael mom Gail Sutton has seen the show at least as many times as has the mega-star. 'It still feels special to know mom's in the audience," says her daughter. "When close family come, I remind myself how lucky I am to be earning a living doing what I dreamed of.

"It's odd doing Cher in front of Cher. You're aware After opening night, the of every little gesture, wondering if she thinks it authentic. She had the final say in our casting. My auditions were taped and I know she saw them. It feels good Wicks. "How can she keep costumes for their year-long to know we have her blessing to tell her story."

Presenting Cher eightshows a week nevertheless challenges stamina. How the real star continues the feat in her 70s is a mystery to many.

"If I could ask Cher a single question, I'd ask how she gets her energy," ponders doing what she does for so long?

Whatever the answer, Cher's cast is grateful for a hit show. "Opening night felt wonderful," says Wicks. 'We were excited to have it received so well."

She and cast-mates will don Cher's many wigs and contracts. Beyond that, their fate rests with Broadway audiences.

"There are no guarantees," admits Wicks. "A show runs for as long as people keep coming. This time, we're telling a story people want to hear. We hope it has a long run."
