Carmichael Chamber's 2019 Honorees Announced

Sacramento DA Anne Marie Schubert (Pictured with friend Cameron Dax) will be named Person of the Year at a March 29 Chamber of Commerce gala.

Story and Photos by Susan Maxwell Skinner

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Sacramento's District Attorney, a produce vendor, a jeweler, a long-time community volunteer and a hard-working teenager have been selected as 2019 Carmichael Persons of the Year. These community leaders will be hailed at an awards gala at Arden Hills Resort on March 29. The event is a Chamber of Commerce fundraiser.

Top honoree is Sacramento D.A. Anne Marie Schubert. Schubert recently began her second elected term after making national headlines when the East Area Rapist suspect was apprehended, 28 years after his first attack. The arrest was enabled by unremitting DNA processes -- spearheaded by Schubert -- that pinpointed a Citrus Heights resident.

Mother of two sons, the DA is heroine to many: Crime Victims United last year named her District Attorney of the Year. The attorney Rosemarie Martell rebuilt her fire-ravaged Farmer's Wife store and will be honored as Businesswoman of the Year.

Sac Area Beer Guild to Launch Craft Brewers Cup

By Thomas Todd, Executive Administrator

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento Area Brewers Guild has announced it will be organizing the debut of the California Craft Brewers Cup in the fall of this year, in a partnership with the California Craft Brewers Association and five California-based Brewers Guilds.

Based on a projected 2,000 entries, the CCBC will be the third-largest craft beer competition in the world, and will highlight the best beer from independently owned and operated craft breweries in California. The judging will take place in August, with awards given out at the Annual California Craft Beer Summit in Long Beach on September 12th.

"The California Craft Brewers Association is thrilled to be involved in the first competition of this kind -- hosted by the entire craft brewing industry to celebrate the innovation and creativity of the beer culture that was born here in the Golden State," said Tom McCormick, executive director of the CCBA. "Hosting the California Brewers Cup ceremony at the annual and statewide gathering of the craft brewing family, the California Craft Beer Summit, adds a wonderful community element to this event. The Summit also gives beer lovers a chance to taste award winning beers from the competition at the Summit Beer Festival."

With over a decade of competition management under its belt, the Sacramento Area Brewers Guild is collaborating with four other Craft Beer Guilds in California -- Bay Area, Los Angeles, Orange County, San Diego -- to field entries. Awards will be given out in over 60 categories, all of which will be evaluated by a field of 140 judges. The California Craft Beer Summit is an annual event that provides two full days of education, networking and exposure for brewers, retailers, distributors, craft beer lovers, and homebrewers.

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Mary "Fran" Nichols loved to dance. Mission Oaks Community Center (Gibbons Avenue) was the Carmichael resident's favorite dance floor. After died last year, the facility received a letter from her neighbor.

"Fran loved going to Mission Oaks," said the neighbor. "There she had the pleasure of dancing and meeting friends. She has left $2000 in her will for Mission Oaks."

Surprised and delighted, center administrators decided to use the bequest for the enjoyment of many who use the center. Part of the sum has provided much-needed mats for exercise classes. The rest will fund a community event on February 22. An Oscar-themed dance will allow scores of dancers to kick up their heels. "We'll remember Fran with live music, refreshments and lots of fun," says recreation coordinator Laura Bell. "We're so glad to use her gift for something we know she would have enjoyed."

The free dance party will herald February 24 Academy Awards. Music -- from movie themes to swing and rock tunes-- will be supplied by the John Skinner Band. Dancing begins at 1:15 pm. Sponsor are Winding Commons senior home and the estate of Mary Fran Nichols.

Any one may attend this free event. Movie-inspired attire is encouraged. For information, visit www.morpd.com

Keiwa Gakuen College Jazz Quest to Visit Sacramento

Story by Trina L. Drotar
Photos courtesy
Randy Chafin

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Almost forty years ago, Cultural Homestay International (CHI) arranged for students from Japan's Keiwa Gakuen High School to participate in a homestay program with host families in Roseville and Orangevale. While here, the students learned American English and learned about American culture, said Randy Chafin, who worked with the non-profit organization in the 1990s.

Students were accompanied by teachers, including Hideo Tsujimoto from Keiwa Gakuen High School who brought students seven times and became friends with Chafin and his family. Tsujimoto is retiring this year and is bringing some of his former students, who now attend Keiwa College, to the Sacramento region for a whirlwind jazz tour and to reunite with friends and host families.

Sixteen musicians will accompany him and American Mark Marin, an English teacher at a Niigata junior college. Niigata is the capital city of Niigata Prefecture, located about 200 miles from Tokyo on Japan's west coast. It is known for its rice, sake, natural beauty, and cultural events. Twelve college students, one high school student, and two Keiwa graduates will make the trip.

Na'Vaughn Martin, who carries the moniker of Mr. Sax and studies music at Howard University, will perform with the band at several locations throughout Sacramento. Martin had participated in a cultural exchange program between Howard University and Keiwa College and Tsujimoto said it is his pleasure to play with Martin in America.

"We want to show our gratitude to America because Americans created jazz, which we adore, and because America was the home of Duke Ellington, whom we respect," wrote Tsujimoto, Jazz Quest band director.

Tsujimoto adds that jazz has enriched their lives and still loved in America, a century after its creation, and is loved by people in Niigata.

Duke Ellington has a connection to Niigata, the capital city of Niigata Prefecture, located 200 miles from Tokyo on Japan's west coast, that dates back 55 years. In 1964, an earthquake destroyed much of the city including more than 23,000 homes, wrote Tsujimoto.

Ellington came to Tokyo after the earthquake, cancelled his Hawaii tour, and played a benefit concert in Tokyo. In 1966, the city bestowed Ellington with honorary citizenship, and continues to remember the great jazz musician with an annual festival called Niigata Jazz Street, Duke Ellington Memorial each summer. The city held its 33rd annual winter Niigata Jazz Street in January.

Ellington, born in 1899, was a songwriter, pianist, conductor, and one of the earliest big-band jazz leaders. During his 50 year career, he composed songs for the stage, film, and the contemporary songbook. His unique sound produced hits like It Don't Mean a Thing if It Ain't Got that Swing, Satin Doll, Ko-Ko, among many others.

Jazz Quest, said Tsujimoto, remains true to Ellington's style, respecting the music and his love of it.

"We feel that it is our mission to hand down his music to future generations and follow his example of charity."

In 2018, the high school won a national high school big band jazz concert, and the Niigata college students performed at a national college big band jazz contest for the first time. The bands performed Ellington's music. Jazz Quest will perform on February 20 at Old Sacramento's Laughs Unlimited, on February 21 at Folsom High School for the Folsom High School jazz band. On February 23, the band travels to Fresno to perform at the San Joaquin Jazz Festival, returning to perform on February 24 at Sacramento's Buddhist Church before spending time with host families and friends and returning to Japan.

SAFE President and CEO Dave Roughton Named Businessman of the Year

By Carole Ferguson

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento Metro Chamber of Commerce has named SAFE President and CEO Dave Roughton the 2019 Businessman of the Year.

"I am extremely honored and humbled to receive this award," Dave Roughton said. "I love the Sacramento area, and I am proud to be able to contribute to Sacramento's regional success by helping our members and small businesses gain financial wellness through products and services that put their needs first. I also believe it's vitally important for local companies like SAFE to actively support Sacramento's regional growth and prosperity through economic development and non-profit engagement."

Dave was nominated by longtime Sacramento public relations and advertising executive Jane Einhorn. Her nomination reads in part: "Dave has led SAFE through tremendous growth, solidifying it as the second largest credit union in the Sacramento area. ... Dave has been an active leader in the credit union industry for many years, having served on the California Credit Union League Board, Legislative and Regulatory Advocacy Committees, CO-OP Board of Directors, and as chair of the WesCorp Supervisory Committee. He's also an engaged member of the Sacramento business community, serving on the Sacramento Metro Chamber of Commerce board.

Dave's business philosophy reflects the lessons he learned working with many great leaders throughout his career: to have happy and loyal members, you must first have happy and loyal employees; inspire employees to provide exceptional experiences; walk the talk on promoting work-life balance; and show you believe in your employees by providing career growth opportunities and celebrating their successes."

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG)

The Sacramento Life Center's fifth annual Baby Basket Drive for new moms raised more than $10,000 from the community in December, which will buy more than 200 baskets for Sacramento Life Center patients throughout 2019. The drive is held each December to kickstart the 500 baby baskets needed so that every Sacramento Life Center patient who gives birth in the coming year can receive a basket of needed items, including formula, diapers, newborn clothes, pacifiers and more.

Donations will be accepted throughout 2019 and can be made online at www.saclife.org by writing Baby Basket Drive in the message box on the donation page. Gifts can be made in any increment, but a donation of $50 buys one basket.

"One of the most overwhelming feelings is learning that you're pregnant and fearing you won't have the resources to care for your vulnerable baby," said Marie Leatherby, executive director, Sacramento Life Center. "Sometimes something as simple as a gift of diapers and newborn clothes can give expecting mothers the confidence that they have a support system to help raise their child. These baskets give expecting mothers proof that they will always have a family here at the Sacramento Life Center and supporters out in the community rooting for their family."

The Sacramento Life Center's mission is to offer compassion, support, resources and free medical care to women and couples facing an unplanned or unsupported pregnancy. The Sacramento Life Center's licensed Sac Valley Pregnancy Clinic includes a primary clinic and two Mobile Medical Clinics that provide all services for free, including pregnancy tests, STD tests, ultrasounds, peer counseling for men and women, education and resource referrals. The nonprofit also offers a school-based teen education program, a 24-hour hotline and a program for women experiencing reproductive grief. For more information about the Sacramento Life Center's Sac Valley Pregnancy Clinic, visit www.svpclinic.com. Railroad Museum Debuts New Exhibit Titled "Farm-to-Fork: A Public History" Created & Designed by Sac State Students

By Traci Rockefeller Cusack

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG)

The California State Railroad Museum & Foundation are proud to announce an all-new exhibit titled "Farm-to-Fork: A Public History" which is the creation of graduate students of the Capital Campus Public History Program at California State University, Sacramento. The team of dedicated history students conducted the bulk of the research, image search, and approved the design concepts under the direction of California State Railroad Museum Director and Professor, Dr. Ty O. Smith, and Interpretation & Education Manager, Kimberly Whitfield. The curriculum put into action the philosophy that the Museum's highest calling is to be a laboratory of learning.

The focus of the new exhibit is to relate the multi-faceted story about the critical role the railroad played in transporting the Central Valley's agricultural bounty to the surrounding region, state and nation. In short, the railroad helped to create the very foundation for the global success known today as farm-to-fork. This new exhibit provides Railroad Museum visitors with the opportunity to gain a more complete understanding about the production and delivery of goods, appreciate the deep history of the people and lives behind the foods we purchase, and learn how railroads played an integral role in that history.

As background, not long after California's Gold Rush in the 1850s and the completion of the Transcontinental Railroad in 1869, many early Californians turned to farming the fertile Delta. The bounty of high-quality fruit and produce grown locally was loaded into ice-cooled railroad cars. Locomotives then pulled the refrigerated freight cars through the Sierra to eager buyers farther east and beyond. This agricultural success was made possible by opportunity, new technology and hard-working people coming together at the right place at the right time in history.

Available now for public viewing, the "Farm-to-Fork: A Public History" exhibit is located in the Museum's Roundhouse inside and surrounding the popular "reefer" car (also known as the refrigerator car) and will remain on display permanently. Viewing the exhibit is included in Museum admission: $12 for adults; $6 for youths ages 6-17; free for children ages 5 and under. For more information about the exhibit or the California State Railroad Museum or Foundation, please call 916-323-9280 or visit <https://www.californiarailroad.museum/>.

CHEERS & JEERS

Cheers to I'm Sorry for being an unrepentant riot. From ill-fated kids' parties to inappropriate grandparents to cheap friends, Andrea Savage's no-jokes-barred look at life as a comedy writer, wife and mom has upped the OMG factor on Season 2 of the truTV hit. It's as glorious as the sight of babyface Tom Everett Scott playing along as her endlessly forgiving husband.

Cheers to Project Blue Book for getting the truth out there. Smart, stylish and probing (in a good way!), History's scripted period piece starring Aidan Gillen and Michael Malarkey is a freaky, fact-based look at the government's hunt for UFOs that plays like The X-Files: The Early Years without all the sexual tension.

Jeers to The Bachelor Ladies for turning Colton Underwood (center) into a virgin sacrifice. So the guy hasn't officially cashed in his V-card. Big whoop. The hunky lug is more than just nookie rookie, yet all the women gunning for him on the ABC dating show are obsessed with that one dirty detail. Know what's not sexy, girls? Acting like guys.

Jeers to Celebrity Big Brother for showing Jonathan Bennett the door. As one of the only likable

houseguests in this roster, the Mean Girls alum and ebullient Food Network host deserved far more time to play the game over his much-less fetch roomies. And yes, we're talking about you, cool-mom Dina Lohan ★

Matt Roush: You and millions others, including me. Netflix hasn't announced a timetable for the show's return — and with streaming, it can take a while, because the entire season must be finished, including post-production, before it can be made available. All that we know for sure is that the new season will air sometime this year, and with Olivia Colman (an Oscar contender for The Favourite) as the queen and Outlander fan favorite Tobias Menzies as Prince Philip, there's plenty to be excited about.

Why Doesn't Call The Midwife Get More Love?

Question: I would like to know why PBS's Call The Midwife is ignored by all of the awards shows. Could it possibly be because it isn't violent, has compassion, and has prominent female characters? — Ellen

Matt Roush: Putting one's understandable cynicism aside, I figure Midwife's low profile on the U.S. awards circuit — it has been nominated for a variety of awards in the U.K. — may have more to do with the fact that in its earliest and best seasons, Midwife was crowded out, along with most other British imports, by the global success of Downton Abbey. It has been around long enough now that it just doesn't make much noise.

Question: The Crown ever returning? We are waiting with bated breath to see the next season. — Jetty

The Kiwanis Corner

By Sal Arrigo, Jr.

Lights! Camera! Aktion!

of a program that has approximately seventy participants. The goal, Ashley said, is to serve ninety individuals in the near future.

Ashley relies on Kiwanis members to help the club grow, and one of these members is Wayne Lang of the Carmichael Kiwanis Club. Wayne told me he "loves being an advisor to the Aktion Club, stating, "I continue to be inspired about the joy they (the participants) bring to their meetings and service. I always come back from a meeting with a smile." John Brummer, another Carmichael member said his "Kiwanis Moment" is to see the joy expressed by the Aktion Club members. Wayne expressed similar sentiments when he said, "one moment for me is pride in the interaction with Aktion Club in hosting a picnic at the Orange Grove nature Center."

In order to sustain the many programs, funding comes in part from Kiwanis, but the club has its share of fund-raisers. One of the biggest annual events is the "Walk-a-thon" that takes place on Friday, March 8, 2019 as part of Aktion Club Week. The money raised goes to support the Kiwanis Family House and supporting the Aktion Club annual convention that takes place every September.

Some of the projects the Aktion Club is involved in include stuffing animals for the Sacramento Sheriff's Toy Project and making Fleece Tie Blankets for UC Davis Children's Hospital. In addition to these projects, the Aktion Club members volunteer at the Kiwanis Family House and the Carmichael Food Closet.

I asked Ashley what is her most memorable moment to date, and she responded by telling me her memorable moments are when she witnesses a participant "grow into leadership" and watches individuals "blossom into productive people." The energy and enthusiasm I witnessed upon my brief visit to the Aktion Club is indicative of the club motto – "where development has no disability."

If you would like to learn more, or to donate to the Aktion Club, please contact Ashley at 916-993-4191. You can contact the organization through Facebook or Instagram.

If you were expecting some Hollywood gossip, sorry to disappoint you, but participants of the Kiwanis Aktion Club are stars in their own right.

Aktion Club is the only service club for adults with disabilities, with more than 12,000 members worldwide. The mission of the Aktion Club is to provide adults living with disabilities the opportunity to develop initiative, and leadership skills and to serve their communities.

The local Aktion Club meets at the Orange Grove School in Sacramento and is proudly co-sponsored by the Citrus Heights (founding club), and the Carmichael Kiwanis Clubs. Although the Aktion Club is under the auspices of the "Aim Higher" organization, an organization that provides adult disability services, the Aktion Clubs are dependent upon family and Kiwanis support. Now in existence at the Orange Grove campus for more than five years, this program has proven to be a winner. Ashley Guletz, Aktion Club Program Director, originally came to the program as a fitness instructor, but soon found herself in charge
