Park District Kisses Concert Season Good-bye

Sacramento rock group Apple Z recently presented the final event in Mission Oaks Park District's 2018 concert season. On-stage rockers were Scott Rodell, Steven Leonard, Jake Cooley and Steve Walter. Apple Z's performance was briefly upstaged by an unscheduled dancing bear.

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - The fruit did not fall far from the tree during Mission Oaks Park District's final outdoor concert of 2018. Audiences harvested a bumper crop of classic rock when Sacramento musicians from Apple Z presented a recent concert under spreading oaks at Gibbons Park.

The performance ended the district's three-concert season. MORPD's first offering was presented at Swanston Park in Arden Arcade. The June event marked the 10-year anniversary of the park's community center on Northrop Avenue. Cover Me Badd supplied music for a dancing audience of 320. Maddox Park hosted the season's second concert in August. A community barbecue for 250 accompanied dancing to '60s beach music, supplied by the Retronauts. Apple Z's fall concert at Gibbon's Park concert drew 420 attendees.

The District's musical events have now moved indoors. Mission Oaks Community Center hosts twice-weekly dances and a New Year's Eve ball will bring in 2019 three days early on December 28. The center continues theme dances with celebrations for Valentines (February 12); Oscar Awards (February 22); St Patrick's (March 15); Cinco de Mayo (May 3).

Yes on Prop 6 Campaign Vows to Recall AG Xavier Becerra Over False and Misleading Ballot Title

By Dave McCulloch

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - "If you steal our gas tax funds and then steal our votes by lying to us on our election ballots when we seek to repeal the tax, we will RECALL you from office!" That's the threat issued today by the Yes on Prop 6 Gas Tax Repeal campaign as it announced it has filed a committee with the Secretary of State's office to Recall California State Attorney General Xavier Becerra from office over his decision to slap an intentionally deceptive title on Prop 6 - the Gas Tax Repeal Initiative.

"Voters who wanted to vote YES on Prop 6 have been deceived into voting NO - all because the Attorney General bowed to special interest pressure to remove the words 'Gas Tax Repeal Initiative' from the ballot and replace them with an intentionally false and deceptive title," said Carl DeMaio, Chairman of Yes on Prop 6.

"We are working hard to warn voters that there is an error on their ballot because state politicians intentionally mislabeled Prop 6 in an attempt to deceive them - and that a YES Vote on Prop 6 is actually for the Gas Tax Repeal Initiative," DeMaio said.

"We still believe we will win Prop 6, but if we fall short because voters were defrauded of their intent to vote Yes on Prop 6 the Gas Tax Repeal Initiative, we fully intend to Recall Xavier Becerra from office as a punishment and to set an example to state politicians that they cannot lie on our ballots to trick voters into voting NO on something they intended to vote YES on," DeMaio promised.

DeMaio presented polling evidence showing the damage done to Prop 6 because the words "Gas Tax Repeal Initiative" were intentionally struck from the title of Prop 6. In a recent Survey USA poll, 58 percent of California voters said they would vote YES to repeal

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Art, flowers and legislative resolutions were among recent tributes for Chamber of Commerce CEO Linda Melody. After nine years at the Chamber's helm, Melody has left unincorporated Sacramento County to begin a new life in Monterey County. She and her retired

Post Officer worker husband Michael finalized relocation plans after the executive's recent back surgery. The move enables the couple to live near family in Salinas.

More than 120 Chamber members and supporters applauded Melody's farewell speech. "It's been an honor to serve the community," she said. "I'll miss so many people I've developed

The Soldiers Project

Providing Service to Those Who Have Served

Story by Shauna Boyd

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG)

- Founded in 2004 by Dr. Judith Broder, The Soldiers Project was created to help a new generation of service members reintegrate into the community. The Soldiers Project offers free, confidential, and unlimited mental health services for post-9/11 veterans and active duty service members all across California. Since its inception, The Soldiers Project has provided treatment and assistance to thousands of military service members and their families.

The Soldiers Project originally began as a sponsored project of the Los Angeles Institute and Society for Psychoanalytic Studies Trauma Center and was operated by volunteers. In 2010, The Soldiers Project became a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Funding for the project comes from grants and donations, which cover the program's operating costs. All the mental health services are offered pro bono by licensed therapists and social workers.

The organization is unique because they will provide treatment to any service member, regardless of their branch of service, combat experience, or discharge status. The United States Department of Veterans Affairs only offers benefits to those who are discharged under honorable conditions, but that leaves those who were discharged under other conditions in a vulnerable and potentially untenable position. So The Soldiers Project steps in to assist those who might otherwise fall through the cracks in the system.

The Soldiers Project helps service members deal with an array of mental health issues, such as PTSD, survivors guilt because they are alive while their friend isn't, substance abuse, marital issues, and reintegrating into civilian life. Shing Long, the Northern California Chapter director of The Soldiers Project, said, "Transitioning can be hard. Some are on the verge of homelessness. So we help them become self-sufficient. During intake, we find out what kind of help they need, and then we can direct them to the appropriate agencies" for job placement, housing assistance, and pursuing veterans benefits.

The pro bono therapists who donate their time to The Soldiers Project come from a variety of backgrounds and have diverse specialties. "We allow them to use their own tools, so treatment is not cookie cutter. They are able to choose what works best for each client," said Long.

Long joined The Soldiers Project three years ago. She is a military spouse, and her husband, Daniel Long, was an E6 and Linguist in the Navy for 12 years. During that time, they were stationed in Hawaii, Japan, and Fort Meade in Maryland. After spending so many years among military families, Long realized "this is my passion. Vets are so important to me, and especially helping those who don't have the right paperwork...Because of my husband's experience, and seeing the people he worked with, helped me want to get involved."

Veterans Day on November 11 is a reminder to honor those who have served, but Long explained that for some veterans the day is a painful reminder of some of their worst experiences. Some don't feel worthy of the day, and a day designed to celebrate them can make them feel even more alone.

"There's such a stigma behind seeking services. They feel like they're alone. And they feel like they have to be strong, [especially if] they are male, and because they are service members. I want them to feel like they can reach out for help," said Long.

In 2016, Long said that there were five veteran suicides in a matter of weeks, between October and November, just in the Sacramento area. With the holiday season fast approaching, Long stated that there is an even greater need for mental health services among the veteran population. The holidays are a wonderful time for families to spend together, but it can also cause additional stress, which can in turn increase the risk of suicides.

There are approximately 95,000 veterans in the Sacramento area, and in addition to providing mental health services, The Soldiers Project also offers education and training opportunities to the community so they can learn how to interact with members of the military and recognize signs that someone may be in need of assistance. "As with any special population one has to serve, cultural competence can go a long way in being more effective. So, we offer free trainings to the community as well as mental health professionals who are interested in learning more. Topics include Military Culture, Moral Injury, [and] Suicide Prevention in the Military Population," said Long.

The community can help The Soldiers Project by volunteering at community events or donating to the organization. If you know licensed social workers or therapists who would like to volunteer as counselors for The Soldiers Project, "we are always looking to recruit more therapists," said Long. If you know any service members or their loved ones who could benefit from these programs, please refer them to The Soldiers Project. For more information, visit www.TheSoldiersProject.org. ★

Carmichael Wall of Honor Ceremony

On Saturday, November 3, at 10 am the Carmichael Recreation and Park District will sponsor a special ceremony recognizing 13 local heroes currently listed on the Wall of Honor at Patriots Parks. This year, sadly, another name will be added of that of Sheriff Deputy Robert French who lost his life in the line of duty last year in a shootout with a suspected auto thief in Arden Arcade that also resulted in injuries to two CHP officers. Deputy French was a 21-year veteran of the Sheriff's Department and was assigned to the North

CARMICHAEL COMMUNITY UPDATE

Division serving the area north of the American River. He had been a patrol deputy since 2000 and a training officer who mentored new deputies serving our area.

The park and its Wall of Honor, located at 6827 Palm Avenue, is a special place to reflect upon and never forget the special meaning of sacrifice made by those who served us wearing different uniforms – the U.S. Armed Services, law enforcement, and fire protection. Each honoree has a connection to the area and the memorial provides a source of pride and remembrance for their families, loved ones and friends.

The public is welcome to attend and I hope you can join me that morning as the community honors all of the wall's fallen heroes.

Survey on Age-Friendly Community Needs

The Area 4 Agency on Aging is charged to create and support opportunities that enhance the lives of older adults and their families to be safe, healthy and independent.

The Agency wants to encourage you to think about your community in ways you may not have considered before. Accordingly, they have prepared an online survey asking how to make communities great places to live, work and play as we grow older. All responses are anonymous and will be used to promote age-friendly and livable communities for everyone. To take the survey online, please go to agencyonaging4.org.

Meeting on Code Enforcement

On Wednesday, November 14, I will be hosting my Community Coffee Meeting in nearby Fair Oaks and the guest speaker will be Bary Chamberlain, Chief of Sacramento County's Code Enforcement Division, who will teach us all about "Code Enforcement 101" describing how Sacramento County works with residents to address issues like accumulation of junk and rubbish, compliance with the zoning code, businesses being operated in residential areas, illegal dumping, abandoned vehicles and much more.

The meeting will be held in the Fair Oaks Water District Conference Room in Old Fair Oaks Village (10326 Fair Oaks Blvd.) at 7:30 am. As usual, I'll provide a brief update on County issues and then we'll have our guest speaker followed by Questions and Answers. ★ relationships and partnerships with over nine years. Everywhere I went in Carmichael, I've always seen people I know. I'll miss that familiarity. But I'll have more time with my husband and family."

Far from retiring, Melody will begin a book-keeping, payroll and development job at her sister and brother-in-law's automotive business. "I'm looking forward to Chamber of Commerce meetings, in Salinas and Monterey," she predicted.

Representatives of Congressman Ami Bera, Senator Jim Nielsen, Assemblyman Ken Cooley, Supervisor Susan Peters and Rancho Cordova Chamber of Commerce commended Melody's mission for Carmichael. Chamber President Dr Gabrielle Rasi garlanded the honoree with Hawaiian orchids and artist David Peterson presented his watercolor depiction of the American River. Bel Air Market bakery supplied a cake that declared – in frosting -- thanks for Melody's leadership. Melody in turn thanked directors, mayors, volunteers and Chamber stalwarts for nine years of support. "I'm not just leaving Carmichael," she declared. "I'm leaving the most favorite job of my career."

Announced a month earlier, Melody's departure initiated many applications for the Chamber's only executive job. To allow time for decisions, directors appointed longtime board member (and former president) Virginia Stone as interim CEO. Coached by her predecessor, Stone will assume the role this month.

the gas tax and only 29 percent would vote No. However, when the misleading ballot title for Prop 6 is read to voters, the numbers substantially change – while a Thomas Partners Strategies poll taken during the same three day period as Survey USA showed Prop 6 35 percent NO to 35 percent YES.

Over 1 million Californians signed a petition with the title "Gas Tax Repeal Initiative" on it to get Prop 6 placed on the ballot. After the No on Prop 6 campaign did extensive polling and focus groups to determine what words to use to defeat the Gas Tax Repeal Initiative, the Attorney General struck that title and replaced it with "Prop 6: Eliminates Certain Road Repair and Transportation Funding." Not a single word of Prop 6 eliminates road repair funding, and a recent Legislative Analyst Office study proved you could actually increase road repair funding by dedicating 100 percent of the original gas tax rate to roads.

The Recall threat is credible because the Yes on Prop 6 campaign already successfully led the Recall of State Senator Josh Newman from office earlier this year – winning a lopsided 59% removal vote in a Democrat-leaning district despite being outspent 8-to-1. Unlike ballot propositions, state politicians cannot change the ballot title on a Recall Election as the ballot will simply read "Should Xavier Becerra be recalled from the office of Attorney General?" A simple YES or NO is then asked of the voter.

"Sacramento politicians think they are being clever by deceiving voters with a misleading ballot title on Prop 6, but have they thought about what will happen when millions of Californians wake up the next day and realize they were tricked into voting NO on something they wanted to vote YES on?" DeMaio asked.

Voters who believe they were defrauded of their YES vote on Prop 6 because of the false title on the ballot are asked to contact the Committee at www.RecalltheAG.org

Conditional Voter Registration Allows Californians Who Missed Traditional Deadline Another Opportunity to Register to Vote

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - There is a new option for Californians who missed the October 22 deadline to register or update their voter registration for the November 6, 2018, General Election. A new option known as conditional voter registration allows eligible citizens to register and vote on the same day, today through Election Day.

"There is a new opportunity for California citizens who missed the voter registration deadline — conditional voter registration," Secretary of State Alex Padilla said. "If you missed the regular voter registration deadline you may not be able to vote at your local polling place or by mail, but you still have an opportunity to cast a ballot. Between now and Election Day, you can go to your county election office or a designated satellite location to complete the conditional voter registration process by filing out a voter registration card and a ballot. Once county elections officials complete the regular voter registration verification process, your ballot will be processed and your vote will be counted. This is yet another step we are taking to expand voting rights in California."

"If you are unsure of your voter registration status, you can quickly check it at voterstatus.sos.ca.gov," Padilla added.

Voters in Madera, Napa, Nevada, Sacramento, and San Mateo counties can access conditional voter registration at any Vote Center in their county. These counties are adopting the Voter's Choice Act. To learn more about the Voter's Choice Act, visit: <http://voterschoice.sos.ca.gov>

*The initial Annual Percentage Rate (APR) is currently 4.50% for a new Home Equity Line of Credit (HELOC), and is fixed for the first 5 years of the loan which is called the draw period. After the initial 5 year period, the APR can change once based on the value of an Index and Margin. The Index is the weekly average yield on U.S. Treasury Securities adjusted to a constant maturity of 10 years and the margin is 3.50%. The current APR for the repayment period is 6.25%. The maximum APR that can apply any time during your HELOC is 10%. A qualifying transaction consists of the following conditions: (1) the initial APR assumes a maximum HELOC of $150,000, and a total maximum Loan-to-Value (LTV) of 70% including the new HELOC and any existing 1st Deed of Trust loan on your residence; (2) your residence securing the HELOC must be a single-family home that you occupy as your primary residence; (3) if the 1st Deed of Trust loan is with a lender other than El Dorado Savings Bank, that loan may not exceed $200,000 and may not be a revolving line of credit. Additional property restrictions and requirements apply. All loans are subject to a current appraisal. Property insurance is required and flood insurance may be required. Rates, APR, terms and conditions are subject to change without notice. Other conditions apply. A $75 early closure fee will be assessed if the line of credit is closed within three years from the date of opening. An annual fee of $50 will be assessed on the first anniversary of the HELOC and annually thereafter during the draw period. Ask for a copy of our "Fixed Rate Home Equity Line of Credit Disclosure Notice" for additional important information. Other HELOC loans are available under different terms.

Senator Ted Gaines (R-El Dorado)

Commentary by Senator Ted Gaines

This year's legislative session ended in September but you'll feel the damage to your pocketbooks for years to come.

I will give my Democrat colleagues credit for consistency, at least, because every year they come up with new and creative ways to spend taxpayer money, but I question whether it materially improves our citizens' lives.

This year, Governor Brown signed legislation that will add an additional $680 million annually in general fund spending. Remember, this is not growth in existing spending; it's brand new spending that stacked on top of the already heavy taxpayer burden.

More Government Spending Equals More Taxes

But as bad as that sounds, it actually gets much worse. That already big number excludes the premier budget-busting bill that will cost taxpayers billions every year while at the same time making them less safe and breaking down social order, Senate Bill 10.

SB 10 eliminates cash bail in California and replaces it with a court-operated pre-trial risk assessment program, meaning that the government will be eliminating the huge, privately funded and taxpaying bail bond industry with a massive increase in government employees and bureaucracy. Estimates based on similar bail reform in New Jersey and Washington, D.C. suggest that California's new, additional taxpayer cost resulting from this change could be a staggering $7.8 billion a year.

Adding insult to injury, eliminating cash bail will lead to fewer people showing up for their trials and more criminals out on the streets, creating new victims and further eroding the quality of life in the Golden State. Increased costs plus decreased safety is not much of a deal for the taxpayer but it's becoming the California way.

In the past five years, California general fund spending surged roughly 44 percent, from $96 billion to $139 billion. Meanwhile, the state's population grew by roughly 5 percent. Spending grew about 9-times faster than population growth! Remember that sobering statistic the next time anyone praises Governor Brown for his fiscal discipline.

It's an unearned reputation entirely unsupported by facts.

California government creeps into every aspect of our lives, from what pronouns we can legally use, what therapies we can try, what bags we can get at the grocery store, to what straws we can have, but apparently, it's still not big enough or intrusive enough to satisfy my liberal colleagues.

Spending is taxes. After this legislative session, California taxpayers can look forward to putting more and more of their paychecks towards an ever-expanding state. ★

CHEERS & JEERS

Cheers to Supergirl
for getting more grounded. As fun as last season was, all the space witches and Worldkillers kept Kara (Melissa Benoist, pictured) stuck in sci-fi stories. Now that she's back at work as a reporter and fighting anti-alien Earthlings, the show feels as if it has found its groove—and very human heart—again.

Jeers to The Alec Baldwin Show
for playing it safe. For a guy (pictured) who's never been afraid to speak (or tweet!) his mind, Baldwin's eponymous interview show is frustratingly restrained. More Jack Donaghy, less Dick Cavett, please.

Jeers to Blindspot
for missing the point of having Patterson around. Listen, if Ashley Johnson's character (pictured) can mix booze into a cryogenic potion perfect for cracking open a bar's safe, she can surely secure an antidote for this ZIP poison that's killing Jane (Jaimie Alexander). The girl is a genius... ignoring that fact isn't.

Cheers to Netflix's Super Monsters
for being super! Sure they're the spawn of classic horror's A-listers, but the only things Drac and his supernatural squad are conjuring in this cheeky, colorful series are life lessons about honesty and acceptance, aimed squarely at pre-schoolers. Nothing scary about that at all! ★

ASK MATT

BY MATT ROUSH TV Guide Senior Critic

WHAT'S YOUR CALL ON FOX'S 9-1-1?

Question: 9-1-1 is amazing with its wonderful special effects. I surely hope it lasts a long while. Opinion? — Unsigned

Matt Roush: My opinion on whether Fox will keep 9-1-1 around for a while? Yes, it's a keeper. My opinion on the show? When it focuses on the crisis of the week, it can be riveting, especially in the recent earthquake two-parter, which was very impressively produced. When the story shifts to the characters' personal interactions, it's a lot less inspired, but no more or less than others in the current surplus of medical/firefighter/police melodramas.

Question: This is just a note of thanks for your review of Poldark. We love this show, and I especially enjoyed seeing the original Poldark, Robin Ellis, in this new version. The acting,

cinematography and music are all excellent. — Gwen

Matt Roush: You're welcome. That show is such a treat, and there's one more season before it's over! This gives me a chance to plug the delightful The Durrells in Corfu as well, now in its third season and another great addition to PBS's Sunday lineup of British imports. (Keeley Hawes, who plays the Durrell mother, can be seen in a much more serious role on Netflix's gripping Bodyguard. Consider that a recommendation.)

If re-elected, I pledge to work to:

- Continue the upward trajectory of graduation rates
- Effective, common sense uses of taxpayers' funds to allocate resources as close to the classroom as possible so that we can continue our streak of 6 straight positive budgets
- Continue to open gateways and breakdown barriers to learning for all of our students such as free administration of PSAT to all sophomores and juniors, deferral of fees for eligible low income students into advanced placement courses, and expansion of life skills and job training internships with partnering businesses
- Assure safe and secure schools where every student and parent feel welcomed and are eager to contribute their time and talents to create a community of learners
- Build alliances with businesses, service organizations, faith-based organizations, and potential future employers to provide assistance to students and teachers through activities such as tutoring, internships, service opportunities and other real world experiences
- Assure that all students learn in well-equipped classrooms with the tools that allow them to become college and career ready
- Expand social and mental health services in all of our schools

The Exciting New World of Snap On Dentures!

There are millions of people in the US who struggle daily with dentures. A majority suffer from discomfort as a result of loose or ill-fitting dentures. Many prosthetic wearers simply withdraw from any type of social engagement as a result of having to wear their dentures.

Now there is a solution to these issues: Implants with "Snap On" Dentures!

Whether you are new to dentures or have worn them for years, a snap on denture is a great solution to uncomfortable chewing and slippery painful dentures. There are several types of snap on dentures available, including snap on partials. If you already wear a conventional denture or partial denture, we can sometimes use your denture to accommodate the snaps to fit on your new dental implants.

Implants as low as $99.00 per month

If you are interested in learning more about improving your quality of life with an implant retained snap on denture or partial, please contact us for a FREE CONSULTATION today!
