Past Mayors Get Honored

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Continuing celebration of its 70th anniversary year, the Carmichael Chamber of Commerce recently rolled out red carpet for former honorary mayors.

The role has neither salary nor civic power. By tradition, the mayoralty rewards the candidate whose campaign raises the most funds for Chamber projects. He or she spends a year cutting ribbons and kissing babies. As most mayors are merchants, the office provides a platform for business interests. Riding in the July 4 Parade and judging desert bakeoffs are further perks.

From her 23 years with the organization, former Chamber Executive Director Jan Bass Otto recalls ingenious mayoral fundraising gimmicks. In 1998, realtor Kevin Brennan built a 100 square-foot play house that he called a 'starter home' and drove around shopping centers. "It was so cute you'd cross a parking lot to see it," says Otto. "He sold hundreds of raffle tickets and won the race."

In 2002, senior home marketing director Margie Smith fundraised with candy sales. Her victory over a popular cop and a millionaire businessman was sweet. "I'd worked like a dog, sticking Margie-for-Mayor labels on thousands of M&M packets," she says. "In the July 4 parade, Boy Scouts walked beside my car, handing out M&Ms. Being involved in the community has its own payoff

- it feels good and it's fun. And I still love M&Ms."

Personal growth is another by-product. "When I campaigned for 2005, I was afraid to speak in public," recalls senior care specialist Cheryl Hinton. "Now you have to fight a microphone away from me. I'm confident and comfortable meeting people now."

Senior living marketing director Chris Schoonveld was elected in 2006. "I met Congressman Dan Lungren, Senator Dave Cox, Assemblyman Roger

Walk the Hidden Parks of Carmichael

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento Walking Sticks Volkssport Club invites everyone, including the family dog, to join them on Saturday, September 22 on a newly designed walk that will take them to three different Hidden Parks in Carmichael. Everyone can choose to walk either a 5K (3.1 miles) or an 11K (6.8 miles) route; both are rated a 1B. There will be the opportunity to walk through older, established Carmichael neighborhoods to experience these three entirely different parks. Two of them are nicely developed with trails and playgrounds, while the third is a very large nature area. This area hasn't been developed but was planted with many eucalyptus trees many years ago so that the forest is like being in Australia.

The start location is the SaveMart Grocery Store parking lot in Crestview Shopping Center, 4708 Manzanita Ave, Carmichael CA 95608. The walk is available on Saturday, September 22 and people can register anytime between 9:00 am to 12:00 Noon. Everyone must be off the trail and return by 3:00. The cost is free to everyone; however donations are always welcome. People wanting Volkswalk credit will pay $3.00 for the walk. Dogs must be on leash with cleanup and strollers and wheelchairs would be fine with either of the routes. We encourage everyone to bring water and keep drinking so they keep hydrated as well as wearing hats and sunscreen. Children of all ages will love the parks and playgrounds so feel free to bring a picnic lunch to enjoy along the route.

Sacramento Regional Transit District Rolls Back Fares

Lower Fares, 25-Cent Transfers, and 15-Minute Frequency for Weekend Light Rail Service

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento Regional Transit District (SacRT) Board of Directors approved on August 27 staff recommendations to use funds resulting from cost-cutting measures and operational efficiency savings to reduce fares in an effort to invest back in the Sacramento community. Given the success that SacRT has had at controlling costs during the last couple of years, the district now has more flexibility to pass the savings back to customers by implementing improved and more frequent services. This is the first general fare reduction in SacRT's 47-year history.

The basic single ride would decrease by 25 cents from $2.75 to $2.50, and the discount single ride would decrease by 10 cents from $1.35 to $1.25. The basic monthly pass would decrease by $10 from $110 to $100, the discount monthly pass would decrease by $5 from $55 to $50, the paratransit single ride would decrease by 50 cents from $5.50 to $5, and the super senior fare would decrease by $2 from $42 to $40.

Fare changes also include the reimplementation of a 25 cent transfer ticket (allows riders who purchase a single ride ticket with cash to transfer between bus and light rail, light rail to bus or bus to bus). Riders are already able to transfer for free using electronic fare media using ZipPass or Connect Card. An aggressive implementation schedule would allow SacRT to roll out the fare reduction as early as October 2018 in order to benefit the largest percentage of riders.

In addition, the SacRT Board recently adopted a Student Monthly Pass reduction from $55 to $20 for students in grades K through 12, and a fare reduction for Los Rios Community College District students taking 1 to 3 units from $20 to $5 per month.

"I am pleased that SacRT has been able to stabilize our financial outlook to reduce fares and improve service for all of our customers," said Henry Li, SacRT General Manager/CEO. "SacRT has spent the past three years relentlessly improving SacRT's efficiencies and effectiveness, and building reserves. The hard work of our staff and board has paid off, and now the Sacramento community can receive the benefits."

SacRT is focused on building ridership and promoting the use of a system that is clean, safe and convenient for its customers. Fare reductions, re-introduction of transfers and service improvements will make the network more convenient for riders to use.

"SacRT has been able to control costs through organizational changes and operational efficiencies. These efforts have helped to build reserves of approximately $10 million and promote a more stable, long-term financial outlook," said Patrick Kennedy, SacRT Board Chair. "Given the success SacRT has had at controlling costs, we can grow ridership through fare reductions and other measures."

In addition, SacRT will increase weekend light rail service frequency from 30 minutes to 15 minutes starting in January 2019. On Saturdays, the 15-minute service will operate from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. On Sundays and holidays, the 15-minute service will operate from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. All other times on Saturdays and Sundays/holidays, light rail frequency will be 30 minutes.

Prepaid tickets that were purchased by customers at the previous fare rate will not be exchanged or refunded; however, customers can continue to use prepaid tickets in the future. In the meantime, SacRT encourages customers to use the prepaid tickets that were previously purchased before the new fare changes go into effect.

Passionate Purpose Displayed by School Board Candidates

Forum Held for Four Candidates Looking to Secure Two Open Seats

By Shaunna Boyd

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG)

- On August 30, the 2018 San Juan Candidate Forum was held at Citrus Heights City Hall. Four candidates are vying for two open seats on the school board of the San Juan Unified School District. The candidates are incumbent Mike McKibben and newcomers Myel Jenkins, Magali Kincaid, and Zima Creason (who was unable to attend the forum).

The candidates spoke passionately about their reasons for pursuing a board seat. The event was not a debate, but rather an informational forum giving candidates the opportunity to share their views and educational priorities with district voters.

Myel Jenkins has experience as a manager in community foundations and non-profits serving teens and their families. She is also an experienced district volunteer who spent a lot of time in the classroom and in PTA leadership roles. Jenkins started attending board meetings in 2013 after participating in focus groups of African American families for the Local Control Accountability Plan (LCAP), which provides additional support to the highest-needs kids in the district. Jenkins served on the LCAP since 2014 and termed out last year. She also served on the Sexual and Reproductive Health Curriculum Choice Committee and on the Superintendent Parent Advisory Committee.

Jenkins believes the district needs to resolve the achievement gap since not all students are succeeding. She stressed the importance of responding to the changing demographics and the shifting enrollment cycles in the district. Jenkins suggests a multi-tiered approach focused on increasing early-education opportunities to make sure students are kindergarten ready and to create more pathways to prepare students for success.

Jenkins said, "I'm running because San Juan is important to me as a parent and as a community member. I'm running as a parent voice, advocating for all of our kids in San Juan and ensuring that no matter what your zip code is that your child has access to high-quality education."

Magali Kincaid strongly believes that every student deserves a quality education. As a college and law school graduate, she is an example of the achievements that are possible when students are given the motivation and confidence they need to succeed. Kincaid has volunteered in the classroom and been involved in PTA events and school site councils. She was appointed to the Curriculum, Standards, and Instruction Committee. She also served on the LCAP Strategic Planning Committee.

Kincaid said that the district needs to do more to address issues affecting vulnerable groups (such as students with disabilities, students of color, foster youth, and homeless youth) so they don't fall behind. She explained that there is more diversity in the district so there is a need to create meaningful partnership with students, parents, and communities so that all students are represented. She believes the district needs to provide opportunities for students to learn in many ways in order to reach all the diverse students in the district.

As an elected official, Kincaid believes it would be her moral responsibility to be both transparent and accountable to the students and the community. She stated, "I believe that our students are owed a quality education. I believe that education is not only a civil right, but a human right. And I fight every single day as an advocate of education. And I work hard to make sure that barriers to students, of all backgrounds, are broken down to make sure that our students are succeeding... We owe that to all of our students."

Incumbent Mike McKibben is a former teacher and has spent 15 years volunteering in district classrooms. He participated in school site councils and worked on the Second Step anti-bullying campaign within the district. He has served on the Superintendent Parent Advisory Committee; the Curriculum, Standards, and Instruction Committee; and the Strategic Planning Committee. For the last four years he has been a SJUSD board member and has served as president, vice president, and clerk. McKibben said that his greatest accomplishment on the board is the upward trajectory in the district's graduation rates, test scores, literacy rates, and participation in the visual and performing arts.

McKibben said that students in vulnerable groups feel marginalized and the district needs to ensure all students feel welcome and supported. He believes the district needs to address the high rate of suspensions by adopting alternatives such as restorative justice, cooling-off periods, and other options to keep kids in the classroom. McKibben's priorities are making sure students feel welcome and that they know they need to make a commitment to their education.

McKibben stated, "My job as a school board member is to be the toughest question asker that I can be, to try to find out what is the right policy, what is the right way... I want to be a very careful steward of our public funds... It is important and incumbent on board members to make sure that our dollars are spent as wisely as possible. And finally, I want to be a roving catalyst: the idea of trying to find out the best ideas and put them into place so our kids can grow and thrive and find their passion."

Past Mayors Get Honored

Niello and Supervisor Susan Peters," she says. "I also saw how less-famous people serve the community. I presented a declaration to an Eagle Scout who completed a public landscaping project - as a mom, I was proud of what he'd done for Carmichael."

Not all mayoral duties are ceremonial. Hotdogs must be served to hundreds of community volunteers; garbage cleanups are another chore. But the spotlight is beguiling. The Sacramento River Cats invited 2011 mayor Pauline Gilmour to throw a first pitch at Raley Field. "I'd never pitched a ball," recalls the Catholic school teacher. "My neighbor gave me lessons. On the night, I forgot everything I learned. My ball flew straight toward the catcher and bounced; thank God he caught it. One of my sons said I had a limp wrist. But he was proud of me and I was proud to be Carmichael Mayor."

A mayoralty without constitutional election is sometimes misunderstood. On a 1980 overseas trip, businessman/Mayor Ross Davidson sported a Carmichael Honorary Mayor sash. The small-town leader got treated like royalty in several small European nations. Donna Deterding was persuaded to attend a Sacramento mayoral convention while in 2004 office. "I found myself among mayors from cities all over the region," she explains. "Someone called out 'Hey, Carmichael's not a city - how can it have a mayor?' I was so embarrassed. I had to stand up and explain I got the title from raising funds to help our chamber. Everyone laughed, but they were all nice to me."

Carmichael's centennial year (2009) coincided with building industry leader Peter Tateishi's first mayoral term. "It was an exciting time to bring the community together," he says. "At the start of our fireworks celebration, I pointed to the sky and announced: 'Now, let's have fireworks.' Right on cue, a rocket exploded above me. Wow, that was the coolest thing."

Mexican-born Esteban Nava - aka 'Senor Mayor' - launched his first campaign in 2012. "There's a lot of family pride in the Hispanic community," explains the SMUD employee. "My sons and my wife all got involved and we all grew from it. The boys learned to network and saw how civic service works. We enjoyed the year so much that I ran for a second term. Even these days, SMUD board directors still introduce me as 'Mayor of Carmichael' I'm still having fun with it."

Senior care executive Virginia Stone served back-to-back terms in 2014 and 15. "I loved sampling all the pies and desserts at the Framers Market peach bakeoff," she recalls. "I was on a sugar high all day. My employers wanted me to run a third year; they loved the mayor's relationship with the community. But I said no. I'd enjoyed my two years, but being mayor means so much time and energy - and so much pie."

2017 Mayor Katie Pexa was up to her neck in frosting when asked to auction desserts at the Chamber's Best of Carmichael fundraiser. "I'd never auctioned anything before," says the insurance professional. "Suddenly, I was holding a mike and describing decadent ingredients. I was amazed to see hands fly up. I'd found my calling. I've been appointed dessert auctioneer ever since."

Life coach Julie Hubbs won the sash in 2016. Beyond turning on Christmas lights, her most glittering job was snipping the ribbon at a new jewelry store. For the occasion, owner Sharif draped the mayor in $125,000 worth of diamonds and sapphires. "I was queen for the night," she marvels. "I told the manager I felt like Zsa Zsa Gabor. He was 25 and he said 'Zsa Zsa who?' My husband wondered if the honorary mayor got to keep the jewels. I suggested we sell our house."

The Chamber's 2019 mayoral race is now in progress. Competing for re-election is 2018 Mayor Kelli Foley. Her opponents are dance studio owner Jamila Buada and employment agency manager Kristen Garl. Learn about the mayoral race at www.carmichaelchamber.com. ★

NOTICE TO READERS
California law requires that contractors taking jobs that total $500 or more (labor and/or materials) be licensed by the Contractors State License Board. State law also requires that contractors include their license numbers on all advertising. Check your contractor's status at www.cslb.ca.gov or 800-321-CSLB (2752). Unlicensed persons taking jobs that total less than $500 must state in their advertisements that they are not licensed by the Contractors State License Board.
DISCLAIMER
Be wary of out of area companies. Check with the local Better Business Bureau before you send any money for fees or services. Read and understand any contracts before you sign. Shop around for rates.

CARMICHAEL COMMUNITY UPDATE

By County Supervisor
Susan Peters

Through the generosity of The Carmichael Times this column serves to provide an update about matters affecting the unincorporated communities of Carmichael and Arden Arcade.

Capital Air Show Soars Again

There will be plenty of high flying excitement this month during the weekend of September 22-23 when the California Capital Air Show returns to Mather Airport.

Headlining the performances will be the U.S. Air Force's Thunderbirds, a disciplined, precision demonstration team consisting of F-16 Fighting Falcon jets that blaze through the sky, flying only a few feet apart from wingtip to wingtip. Also on hand will be the U.S. Army's Golden Knights, a world-class performing skydiving team.

Also available on the evening of Friday, September 21, the Capital Airshow will celebrate 100 years of Mather Airport with a special "Airshow After Dark" that will ignite the skies over Mather Airport after the sun sets. Thrilling jets and aerobatic performers will light up the sky with streaming flares, showers of colorful bursts from their wings and thundering pyrotechnics. This one-of-a-kind Airshow will conclude with a massive wall of fire, breathtaking fireworks display and fun "Wonder Bread 5" concert to make Mather Airport's 100th Birthday bash truly unforgettable!

For more information about tickets and presentations, go online and visit californiacapitalairshow.com.

Sheriff September Community Meetings

The Sheriff's Department holds regular community meetings to share information about trends in crime and recent activities. These sessions are open to the public and residents are encouraged to attend.

The Carmichael meeting will be held on Tuesday, September 18, 6 p.m., at the Del Campo High School Library, 4925 Dewey Drive.

Becoming involved by participating in Neighborhood Watch, attending these meetings, and learning about recent criminal activities makes us all more cognizant about how to better secure our property and make our communities safer.

Visiting with Neighbors

Last month I participated in a number of neighborhood gatherings during "National Night Out" on August 7 including stops in Arden Arcade, Carmichael, Fair Oaks and Foothill Farms. I also participated in the dedication ceremony celebrating the transformation of Carmichael's Sutter Avenue Park and Jensen Botanical Gardens on August 26 and later addressed the Carmichael Chamber of Commerce at its monthly luncheon on August 28.

Later this month I will be speaking at the North Sacramento Chamber of Commerce luncheon on Thursday, September 20, in Arden Arcade. For more information, please go online to northsacchamber.org.

Carmichael Founder's Day

On Saturday, September 22, Carmichael will celebrate "Founder's Day" honoring the legacy of Daniel Webster Carmichael who established the community in 1909. The party will naturally be held in Carmichael Park and the official festivities start at 10 a.m. and continue through to 3 p.m. Fun will include vendor and craft booths, food trucks, live music, and a classic car show.

For more information, please contact the Carmichael Recreation and Park District at (916) 485-5322.

*The initial Annual Percentage Rate (APR) is currently 4.50% for a new Home Equity Line of Credit (HELOC), and is fixed for the first 5 years of the loan which is called the draw period. After the initial 5 year period, the APR can change once based on the value of an Index and Margin. The Index is the weekly average yield on U.S. Treasury Securities adjusted to a constant maturity of 10 years and the margin is 3.50%. The current APR for the repayment period is 6.375%. The maximum APR that can apply any time during your HELOC is 10%. A qualifying transaction consists of the following conditions: (1) the initial APR assumes a maximum HELOC of $150,000, and a total maximum Loan-to-Value (LTV) of 70% including the new HELOC and any existing 1st Deed of Trust loan on your residence; (2) your residence securing the HELOC must be a single-family home that you occupy as your primary residence; (3) if the 1st Deed of Trust loan is with a lender other than El Dorado Savings Bank, that loan may not exceed $200,000 and may not be a revolving line of credit. Additional property restrictions and requirements apply. All loans are subject to a current appraisal. Property insurance is required and flood insurance may be required. Rates, APR, terms and conditions are subject to change without notice. Other conditions apply. A $475 early closure fee will be assessed if the line of credit is closed within three years from the date of opening. An annual fee of $50 will be assessed on the first anniversary of the HELOC and annually thereafter during the draw period. Ask for a copy of our "Fixed Rate Home Equity Line of Credit Disclosure Notice" for additional important information. Other HELOC loans are available under different terms.

Truth Is, I'm Runnin' Out of People to Call

"Doctor's office."
 "That you, Doc?"
 "Sure is. How you doing, Windy?"
 "Finer'n frog hair, Doc. Say, did you hear about ol' Bob over at the junction?"
 "Sure was a shame, Windy. I had no idea he was sick. Went pretty fast is what I heard."
 "Me, too. Say Doc, you remember Minnie up at the capitol? I heard she passed just last week."

"You don't say. That's a shame. Used to see her at dances at the Legion. So how are you, Windy?"
 "Oh, I'm okay, I guess. Them pills you gave me seem to be helpin' with the arthur-itis and the lombardo of the back. How 'bout you, Doc? Eatin' good? Gettin' some exercise?"
 Doc shrugged and looked to see if his next patient was sitting in the waiting room yet. Not yet.

"Doing just fine, Windy, for a semi-old person."
 "I'm shore glad to hear that, Doc. Missus Doc doin' good, too?"
 "Yep. She's out working in the garden right now."
 "I heard her sister passed not long ago."
 "That's true, but her sister was 12 years older, you know."
 "Oh, okay."

"Say Windy, I know there must have been some reason for you to call me up today. Are you sure you don't need to come in and see me?"
 "Oh, not today, Doc. Just wanted to see how you're getting' along. Truth is, I'm runnin' out of people to call."

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF DONALD CLYDE WOOD CASE NO. 34-2018-00235540

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, and contingent creditors of and persons who may be otherwise interested in the will or estate, or both of Donald Clyde Wood. A Petition for Probate has been filed by Dwayne R. Wood in the Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, requesting Dwayne R. Wood, be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent. The petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court. The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the executor to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the executor will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or have consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A hearing on the petition will be held in this court as follows September 18, 2018 9:00 a.m. in Dept 129 at Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento 3341 Power Inn Road Sacramento, CA 95826. # CHEERS & JEERS

by Damian Holbrook

Cheers to Trial & Error

for its sustained appeal. Season 2's "Lady, Killer" case was such a criminally fun platform for Kristin Chenoweth's kooky defendant and the entire ensemble cast (Sherri Shepherd, pictured, slayed!) that we will be raising several objections if NBC doesn't bring it back next summer.

Cheers to Suits

for playing its ace. After the exits of Patrick J. Adams and Meghan Markle, plus Katherine Heigl's knockout arrival, it's cool the show still knows it's at its best when Gabriel Macht's multilayered Harvey (pictured) confronts the Specter family ghosts, as he did recently while handling his unfaithful brother's divorce.

Jeers to a Designing Women reboot

Jeers to The Affair

for cheating Alison out of a happy ending. The only thing worse than making it look like Ruth Wilson's character killed herself was the reveal that she'd been offed by her beau (Ramon Rodriguez). TV needs to stop passing off violence against women as a plot twist. ★

Suits' Gabriel Macht's multilayered Harvey (pictured) confronts the Specter family ghosts.

ASK MATT

BY MATT ROUSH TV Guide Senior Critic

WHY DID THEY CANCEL FACE OFF?

Question: With all the new/old shows making a comeback, how about bringing back The Closer with Kyra Sedgwick? — Carole

Matt Roush: Too soon. And very unlikely. When Kyra Sedgwick left The Closer after seven seasons, which then became Major Crimes for the next six, it seemed she had gone as far as she was willing to go with Brenda Leigh and was ready to move on. (Unfortunately, ABC's Ten Days in the Valley didn't quite work out.) Given that between the two series, more than 200 episodes were filmed, that's a pretty solid legacy. I loved her character and the show in general, and if she decided to come back to the role, I know I'd watch. The show had a great, long run, but asking for more is a bit greedy.

Question: Is The Last Ship coming back this fall on TNT? — Charles

question a lot lately, because the show traditionally has aired in the summer and many are worried they had someone missed it. The fifth and final season will begin Sept. 9.

Question: I really love the show Vikings on History. When will the new season start? — F Farmer

Matt Roush: The fifth season resumes on Nov. 28, with the remaining 10 episodes. A sixth season is already in production.

Gang Members Sentenced for Crime Spree Ending in Murder

DATE: August 27, 2018
 CASE: Tevita Kaihea & Charlie Hola (Case #15F07862)
 PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Jeff Hightower, Homicide Unit

The Honorable Maryanne Gilliard sentenced Tevita Kaihea to 112 years to life in prison. Charlie Hola was previously sentenced to 48 years and 8 months to life in prison on June 22, 2018. On April 18, 2018, a jury convicted Kaihea of the first-degree murder of Roman Gonzalez, attempted murder, two counts of robbery, vehicle theft and being a felon in possession of a firearm. Hola was convicted of the second-degree murder of Roman Gonzalez, two counts of robbery, vehicle theft and being a felon in possession of a firearm. The jury also found true multiple firearm allegations and gang enhancements for both defendants.

Tevita Kaihea and Charlie Hola are members of the Tongan Crip criminal street gang. On September 3, 2015, Kaihea and Hola stole a car from the 47th Avenue Light Rail Station. They drove the stolen car to a Church's Chicken on Florin Road, where they committed an armed robbery. They then shot a south Sacramento resident in the face when the resident noticed the two acting suspiciously in the neighborhood. That victim survived the shooting. After dumping the car near Sacramento City College, Kaihea and Hola got into a gang fight ending in the shooting death of Norteno gang member Roman Gonzalez. Kaihea shot and killed Roman Gonzalez on the Sacramento City College campus.

Prison Inmates Convicted of Murder, Assault

DATE: August 29, 2018
 CASE: Rudy Delossantos & Michael Robles (Case #16FE016544)
 PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Charles Gonzalez, Prison Crimes Unit

Rudy Delossantos and Michael Robles were convicted by a jury of murder and assault by a life prisoner for the killing of Humberto Torres.

Delossantos and Robles were inmates at California State Prison - Sacramento. On July 7, 2016, the pair attacked fellow inmate Humberto Torres in the main exercise yard. Delossantos was armed with an inmate manufactured weapon and stabbed Torres in the chest and back. Robles punched and kicked Torres in the torso, face and head. Responding correctional officers stopped the assault by deploying pepper spray grenades. Torres received immediate medical assistance, but he died from excessive blood loss suffered as a result of the multiple stab wounds.

In 2006, Delossantos was convicted of first-degree murder. In 2005, Robles was convicted of six counts of attempted murder.

Both defendants face a sentence of life in prison without the possibility of parole. Sentencing is set for October 5, 2018, in Department 24 before the Honorable Shelleyanne Chang.

Defendant Convicted of Assault, Sexual Battery While on Duty as Firefighter

DATE: August 30, 2018
 CASE: Jared Evans (Case #17FE010141)
 PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Bret Wasley, Adult Sexual Assault Prosecution Unit

Jared Evans was convicted by a jury of felony assault under the color of authority and misdemeanor sexual battery.

On April 1, 2017, the 19-year-old victim had a seizure and briefly stopped breathing. Her family called 911. The Sacramento Fire Department arrived on scene and transported her to a hospital. The responding crew consisted of Jared Evans, an intern and a driver. While on duty in the back of the ambulance and supervising the intern, Evans made a comment about the victim's breasts. Moments later, Evans reached his hand into the victim's shirt, pulled out her breast and showed it to the intern. He put her breast back in her shirt and said to the intern, "Sorry bro, I had to." When Evans learned the victim was 19, he stated, "At least she's legal." Once the intern reported what had happened, the Sacramento Fire Department Internal Affairs called the victim. They quickly learned that even though she had just suffered a seizure, she could hear and feel what occurred. She heard the comment about her breasts and felt her breast being touched. She told her mother and cousin after the incident, but did not report it out of fear that no one would believe her.

Evans faces a maximum sentence of 3 years in county jail prison and will be required to register as a sex offender. Sentencing is set for October 5, 2018, in Department 38 before the Honorable Sharon Lueras.

The Exciting New World of Snap On Dentures!

There are millions of people in the US who struggle daily with dentures. A majority suffer from discomfort as a result of loose or ill-fitting dentures. Many prosthetic wearers simply withdraw from any type of social engagement as a result of having to wear their dentures.

Now there is a solution to these issues:
Implants with "Snap On" Dentures!

Whether you are new to dentures or have worn them for years, a snap on denture is a great solution to uncomfortable chewing and slippery painful dentures. There are several types of snap on dentures available, including snap on partials. If you already wear a conventional denture or partial denture, we can sometimes use your denture to accommodate the snaps to fit on your new dental implants.

Implants as low as $99.00 per month

If you are interested in learning more about improving your quality of life with an implant retained snap on denture or partial, please contact us for a FREE CONSULTATION today!
