Best of Carmichael Professionals Honored

Story and photos by "Best Photographer" Susan Maxwell Skinner

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Business folk were toast of the town when the Carmichael Chamber of Commerce and Carmichael Times hosted a "Best of Carmichael" awards gala last week. Winners were decided by online vote and received proclamations from Congressman Ami Bera, Senator Jim Nielson, Assemblyman Ken Cooley and Sacramento County Supervisor Susan Peters.

Thirty-one contested categories included professional services, supermarkets, restaurants, fitness centers, non-profits – and dozens more entities that make Carmichael a business and residential hub. Dominating winners, the Carmichael Kiwanis Club took dual awards for best service group and for hosting the popular Taste of Carmichael Event. Rey Azteca Taqueria gained distinction as best restaurant and the River City Brewery took kudos for preferred pub. Ancil Hoffman Park was this year voted tops for recreation and the La Sierra Center (Carmichael Park District) scored as best community facility. The best grocery store award went to Bel Air #511. Best Automotive Service – American Eagle Auto Body – took an additional award as the business that won the most votes overall.

Now in its second year, the competition has gathered steam; 600 more voters than in 2017 participated and 150 guests enjoyed the celebration gala. A fundraiser for the Chamber of Commerce, the event included a dessert auction with tempting treats bespoke from local bakeries and restaurants. In the Milagro Centre's ballroom, Carmichael's business community ate, drank and was exceedingly merry.

Realtor Unflagging Friend to Felines

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Clients who do business with Katie Mack seldom learn the Carmichael realtor has a nocturnal sideline. Mack (68) rescues some of the most vulnerable animals in our community – feral and abandoned cats. "Few people know how many lives are lost due to feline over-population in Sacramento," she says.

Mack has long waged a one-woman campaign to supply friendless felines the help they need.

Not only does she have four semi-ferals enjoying the good life in her home, she visits, feeds and watches over a colony of 15 homeless cats several times each week. Using free spaying and neutering programs, she makes certain that these animals will not multiply their problems. In the past 15 years, she has also found homes for more than needy 100 kitties. "It's not like I go looking for lost cats," she explains. "They've a way of finding me."

Mack's latest rescue was a non-feral Russian blue male she called Mister Blue. "I used every method of advertising to find his owners," she says. "He'd been so well taken care of, I couldn't imagine how he ended up in the streets. He was laid-back, friendly and comfortable on any lap. He was clearly used to affection. He showed up at my doctor's office on Fair Oaks Boulevard some weeks ago and decided to hang out. We took him to a vet and established he had a clean bill of health. I brought him home but he couldn't stay with me; he needed a forever family."

Through a rescue agency called Fluff Buddies, a Napa area family heard about the handsome orphan. "The husband and wife came to Carmichael to meet him with two of their kids," says Mack. "They'd had a Russian blue for 13 years before he died. Mister Blue immediately jumped on the young daughter's lap. He seemed to know these were his people. I heard he slept with his new mom and dad on his first night with them. The adoption came just in time; I was getting too fond of that sweet guy. A happy ending makes rescue work worthwhile."

"I've had cats all my life," says the rescuer. "I'd love to see every cat loved and cared for. But I'm a busy, committed businesswoman with as many pets as I can handle. People should not expect me to take on their stray animal problems but I am a resource; I can always suggest ways to find help."

Advice on feral cat problems and animal birth control are offered by:

- 1) The SPCA.
- 2) Sacramento County Bradshaw Animal Shelter (Bradshaw Road).
- 3) The Animal Spay and Neuter (a non-profit located near Bradshaw Road).
- 4) The Sacramento Area Animal Coalition.

MAKE A HEALTHY SPLASH THIS SWIM SEASON

As the weather heats up, Sacramento County residents will be heading to public swimming pools and our lakes and rivers to cool off.

Protect your health this swim season by keeping germs out of the water and off you!

ANYONE ENJOYING RECREATIONAL WATERWAYS SHOULD:

-  Not drink recreational water or use the water for cooking.
-  Avoid algae blooms (brightly colored water) and trash in the water.
-  Pay attention and follow any warning signs and postings. Do not access a water body if posted warnings indicate it is not safe to do so.
-  Wash your hands or shower after swimming.
-  Not enter the water if you have cuts or open sores, as these are pathways for bacteria to enter your body.
-  Contact your healthcare provider if you have concerns regarding your health after swimming in recreational waters.

KEEP IT CLEAN IN PUBLIC POOLS, SPAS AND WATER PARKS

- 1 Stay out of the water if you feel ill.
- 2 Shower before you get in.
- 3 Have everyone get out to take bathroom breaks every hour.
- 4 Shower before you get in.

Environmental Management Department | www.EMD.SacCounty.net

RECYCLE IT RIGHT!

Today more than ever, we have to re-educate ourselves about what should and should not be placed in the recycling cart and change our recycling habits.

Starting March 2018, stricter rules are being enforced on the quality of recyclable materials that will be accepted by the international recycling markets. Now, only contamination of up to 0.5% in a bale of recyclable materials will be accepted.

Currently, the contamination level is having a significant impact on the County's recycling program. If there is no market willing to buy these recyclable materials, they could end up landfilled – and that's not good for managing landfill space, our recycling program, or our environment!

If you live in our service area, visit our website at:
SacGreenTeam.com

HOW YOU CAN HELP!

Recycle It Right by making sure the right materials are placed in the right cart at home or at work.

WITH ALL YOU PLACE IN YOUR RECYCLING CART, DO YOU KNOW WHAT IT MEANS TO RECYCLE IT RIGHT?

Congressional Kudos Crowns Junior Artists

Story and photos by Susan Maxwell Skinner

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Congressman Ami Bera recently announced winners of the annual Congressional Art Contest among Seventh District high schools. Dr. Bera presented awards at Sacramento Fine Arts Center in Carmichael.

Vy Nguyen (17) from Sheldon High took first place for a study called "Jade." Second prize went to Erica Liu (17) from Mira Loma High, for her "FireFighter" painting. Jason Li (16) from Sacramento Country Day School won third place for his searching charcoal portrait: "Tell Me Why."

The congressman claimed all entrants in his district were winners. "Looking at the art, I'm glad I'm not the one who had to judge it," he said. "The talent on show here is remarkable."

Congressman Ami Bera met contest judges and supporters: Carmichael Honorary Mayor Kelli Foley (left); Carmichael Chamber of Commerce executive Linda Melody; San Juan School District Director Dr. Michael McKibbin, Chamber President Gabrielle Rasi and Fine Arts Executive David Peterson.

Overall winner Vy Nguyen gets a trip to Washington DC, where her work will hang among regional winners' work at the Capitol.

Sponsored by the Congressional Institute, the annual contest seeks entries

* The initial Annual Percentage Rate (APR) is currently 4.50% for a new Home Equity Line of Credit (HELOC), and is fixed for the first 5 years of the loan which is called the draw period. After the initial 5 year period, the APR can change once based on the value of an Index and Margin. The Index is the weekly average yield on U.S. Treasury Securities adjusted to a constant maturity of 10 years and the margin is 3.50%. The current APR for the repayment period is 6.375%. The maximum APR that can apply any time during your HELOC is 10%. A qualifying transaction consists of the following conditions: (1) the initial APR assumes a maximum HELOC of $150,000, and a total maximum Loan-to-Value (LTV) of 70% including the new HELOC and any existing 1st Deed of Trust loan on your residence; (2) your residence securing the HELOC must be a single-family home that you occupy as your primary residence; (3) if the 1st Deed of Trust loan is with a lender other than El Dorado Savings Bank, that loan may not exceed $200,000 and may not be a revolving line of credit. Additional property restrictions and requirements apply. All loans are subject to a current appraisal. Property insurance is required and flood insurance may be required. Rates, APR, terms and conditions are subject to change without notice. Other conditions apply. A $475 early closure fee will be assessed if the line of credit is closed within three years from the date of opening. An annual fee of $50 will be assessed on the first anniversary of the HELOC and annually thereafter during the draw period. Ask for a copy of our "Fixed Rate Home Equity Line of Credit Disclosure Notice" for additional important information. Other HELOC loans are available under different terms.

Make It Fun and It Will Get Done! The Secret to Being Organized Pam Young's Corner 10 Ways to Kill Two Birds with One Stone

We're always trying to save time and energy, but for what? We probably all have different reasons, but the main one is to save time and energy in order to have more free time and energy to do what we love. Killing two birds with one stone is like building up a time and energy bank account that we can use for play time.

1. Store and Decorate at the same time

Pillow shams are almost always sold with bedspreads; consequently pillow shams are proportionate to the size of the bedspread. In other words a queen-size bedspread has queen-size pillow shams and a king-size bedspread has king-sized pillow shams.

A great way to store your linens is by putting them, instead of pillows, in the shams to fill them out. Our bed is a queen-size and the linens for it, fill the pillow shams as if there are pillows in them! Voila, I kill two birds with one stone; the storage bird and the decorator bird.

2. Sleep and Go Out in the same apparel

In my slob days I slept in my clothes a lot and found that sweat-pants and sweatshirts fared nicely through many nights while I was a young mom. Don't forget my marriage didn't survive, although I self-righteously blamed it on other things. Once I got organized I got a little more sophisticated... if that's the right word. I dumped the sweats for the habit of getting up and getting dressed first thing in the morning instead of sometime during the afternoon.

Today, however, I've taken a second look at some of the darling workout clothes and honestly some of them could be worn to church! Who's to say you have to take a shower every day? Why not, on particularly busy weeks, stay in one cute outfit that's comfortable and doesn't wrinkle, and just wash your smelly parts in the morning?

3. Reduce Sound Avoid Tranquilizers using one thing

Peggy Ann, one of my daughters called me one day when she was a young mother with a house full of kids (hers and foster) and she said, "Mom, I discovered an amazing thing!"

"What?"

"Earplugs!"

"Earplugs? They've been around forever."

"I know, but I've discovered they're just like taking a tranquilizer! They cut the sound down, but I can still hear if one of the kids is in trouble. The minute I stuck them in my ears, it took the edge off my stress!"

4. Spa Treatment and Protection all in one

If you have dry hands and feet, always take advantage of moisturizing while you do other activities. When you wash dishes or garden, put coconut oil or olive oil on your hands and wear surgical gloves and then garden or rubber gloves. Your hands will love you for this.

When you exercise, rub coconut oil or olive oil on your feet and wrap them in plastic wrap before you put sox and shoes on. Your feet will think they're getting a pedi.

5. Double recipes and avoid making a mess again

If you have a freezer, it's like having a time and energy vault or safe in your home. Whenever you make a casserole, or baked goods, always double or even quadruple the recipe and freeze the extra unbaked. It'll be like having your own stash of homemade convenience foods ready to bake! And you'll only have ONE mess.

6. Play and Sedate all at the same time

I discovered this by accident. I had a birthday party for my daughter Joanna when she was nine. My rule was always the number of guests match the age of the birthday person. With these ten little girls I gave them each a baby bottle (4 oz.) in which I'd cut bigger holes in the nipples and I filled them with Kool Aid. The bottles were wrapped in birthday paper and I gave one to each child. I said, "Okay, when I say 'go' open your present and do what comes naturally. There'll be a prize for the first three who finish first. One, two three, GO!"

Because it was a race, they tore open their packages and of course began sucking the little bottles. (I recommend not doing this with children who have recently been weened because they just might go back on the bottle!)

They had a ball but the most amazing thing transpired! Even though it was Kool Aid and loaded with sugar, the whole party became tranquil. They all wanted to refill their bottles and I let them, just because they were so peaceful and happy.

7. Kill Two Birds with One Stove

If you've known me for very long, you know about the Thanksgiving in which I shoved a Cornish Game Hen in the Turkey because I didn't have stuffing. At the dinner table when my husband pulled that little bird out of the big bird it was like a National Geographic special. My mother (who was a BO... Born Organized) was aghast at the whole spectacle and I very famously said, "I have literally cooked two birds with one stove."

8. Object of Enlightenment and Sleepwear

If you've gained weight in the last few months, you might want to wake yourself up to some of the stress that extra weight is having on your body. I call it the Wake-Up Collar and I speak of it in "The Mouth Trap: the butt stops here!"

Take some PJ bottoms and tie knots in the legs down by the ankle, creating two containers. Place any five pound bag of something: rice, sugar, flour and such down each leg. Put the PJ bottoms around your neck so they hang in front of you and walk around for half an hour.

I tried this several years ago by trying to walk on my regular walk up 1200 feet. I was unable to do it and ended up hiding the wake-up collar in the bushes and getting it later with the car.

9. Bathe and Play

This summer, fill a kiddie pool with water and leave it out in the sun to get warm. Let your kids have soap and they'll get clean while they play.

10. Car Art leads to Clean Car

Let the kids use car chalk (the kind people use to write Just Married on the happy couple's car) and decorate the car. Give each child a different color chalk. When it's time to rinse off the chalk, have a surprise for each child when they get all the chalk off.

Controlling your cash

Dear Dave,
I work long hours, and I make pretty good money. The problem is the money from my paychecks always seems to disappear before the end of the month. I know part of the problem is grabbing quick meals between extra shifts, and eating out a lot after work, because I'm usually too tired to cook when I get home. How can someone who has very little free time start gaining control of their finances?

—Sheila

Dear Sheila,

No matter how little free time you think you have, or how tired you are, you must make time do a written budget every month. This is essential. Making a budget for the month ahead isn't a lot of hard work, and it really doesn't take long. When you give every dollar a name before the month begins, you're taking control of your money instead of allowing a lack of it to control you.

Start with the income you know is predictable. If that isn't possible, look back over the last few months and find the minimum amount you brought home during a month over that period of time. This will be the basis for your budget. Once you've established a baseline income, you can write down and prioritize bills and other expenses. Just remember, restaurants are not a priority!

When you make a prioritized spending plan, and start telling your money what to do ahead of time, you'll have the ability to do what's important with what you've earned!

The Exciting New World of Snap On Dentures!

There are millions of people in the US who struggle daily with dentures. A majority suffer from discomfort as a result of loose or ill-fitting dentures. Many prosthetic wearers simply withdraw from any type of social engagement as a result of having to wear their dentures.

Now there is a solution to these issues:
Implants with "Snap On" Dentures!

Whether you are new to dentures or have worn them for years, a snap on denture is a great solution to uncomfortable chewing and slippery painful dentures. There are several types of snap on dentures available, including snap on partials. If you already wear a conventional denture or partial denture, we can sometimes use your denture to accommodate the snaps to fit on your new dental implants.

Implants as low as $99.00 per month

If you are interested in learning more about improving your quality of life with an implant retained snap on denture or partial, please contact us for a FREE CONSULTATION today!
