New Los Rios Chief of Police Chosen

By Larry Savidge, Chief of Police Los Rios Police Department

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - It is my pleasure to introduce myself to you all as the new Chief of the Los Rios Police Department. I am honored to have been selected for this post, and to have the opportunity to return to my native California and work in a community as vibrant and diverse as the Sacramento region.

I was drawn to Los Rios, in part, because my story is not dissimilar from that of many of the students we serve. My mother came to this country from Mexico without documentation while she was pregnant with me, and I saw first-hand the impact that fear and uncertainty can have on a family. The values I learned as a young man growing up in Southern California - compassion, kindness and respect - have guided me as an adult and throughout my career in the United States Air Force and in law enforcement. Most recently, I had the privilege of serving as the Director of Public Safety/Chief of Police for a large, multiple campus community college in Charleston, South Carolina. While I enjoyed my time in Charleston, California is home. When the opportunity arose to come back west, especially to work at an organization as well-respected as Los Rios, I jumped at it.

We live in extraordinary times. There is an unprecedented and warranted focus on social justice issues in our community, especially in light of recent events.

The discussions happening in Sacramento mirror those occurring throughout the rest of the country, and social media affords everyone the opportunity to amplify their voice to start a movement. Transparency and equity have never been more important, and my commitment to you is that we will ensure that these values are a part of everything we do in the Los Rios Police Department. I strongly believe in the principles of Community-Oriented Policing, a philosophy and organizational strategy that encourages law enforcement to work in partnership with the communities we serve.

Over the coming weeks, I'll be spending as much time as possible at each of our campuses, meeting students and staff and getting to know our community. I hope to have a chance to meet many of you in person. I would also encourage you to reach out to me directly at SavidgL@losrios.edu if you have any questions about me, my background or the Los Rios Police Department in general.

I look forward to working

closely with all of you to keep our colleges safe and secure, and to build and promote a culture of trust and understanding on our campuses. ★

California Military Department's Consolidated Headquarters Complex Breaks Ground in Rancho Cordova

Stantec/Walsh Construction Company II Project Team Creates Unprecedented Sustainable Administration and Operations Space for 40 User Groups

By Ryan Lamont

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The California Military Department (CMD) hosted its ceremonial groundbreaking for the new Consolidated Headquarters Complex (CHQC) in Rancho Cordova, Calif., on April 30, 2018. The CMD is a diverse, community-based organization comprised of four pillars: the California Army National Guard, the California Air National Guard, the California State Military Reserve, and the California Youth and Community Programs. The new CHQC will be responsible for command and management of the CMD.

The design-build team of Walsh Construction Company II and Stantec will deliver the new $135 million Consolidated Headquarters Complex. Walsh and Stantec bring nearly 30 years of design-build teaming experience to the project. The 285,000-square-foot, multi-building campus will sit on a 31-acre site adjacent to Mather Airport and will host a headquarters office building, warehouse, emergency operations center, utilities building, badging center, and access control point.

"This headquarters complex will go a long way toward ensuring the Military Department is an effective and energy-efficient force," said Capt. Will Martin, spokesperson for the California Military Department. "Our leadership has worked closely with Walsh and Stantec throughout this process, and we believe this facility will set a standard for state agencies for years to come."

The CHQC is one of the first large scale new Zero Net Energy (ZNE) projects that will be implemented by the State of California after Gov. Jerry Brown's Executive Order B-18-12 to reduce greenhouse gas emissions and improve energy efficiency in California. The project is targeting LEED Gold certification and will be constructed to achieve a variety of sustainable goals to reduce environmental impact, optimize performance, lower energy and operating costs, conserve resources, and increase occupant satisfaction and productivity. On-site renewable energy is generated by a photovoltaic array that will serve a dual purpose as parking shade structures.

How the campus relates to the adjoining planned development community was an important consideration since design inception. The design solution balances this sensitivity with an aesthetic that is befitting its stature as a Military Headquarters. The facades are well articulated with a combination of brick veneer, metal panels, and fenestrations. All the buildings on the campus are designed with the same architectural principles, broadcasting a cohesive campus aesthetic to the surrounding community.

"The goal was to make this more than simply a military facility," said William Ketcham, Stantec Principal based in Chicago. "The primary entrance to the building is designed to be public and open and friendly. It's more like a corporate headquarters than a typical military building. The design of each of the facades is specific to the building orientation and aids with the daylight harvesting and Net Zero Energy goals."

"We are excited for the CHQC to break ground, because it's more than just a traditional project," said Arun Kaiwar, Stantec Principal based in Sacramento. "Helping design the state-of-the-art CHQC for the California Military Department to deliver their critical mission is in line with Stantec's goal to serve and design for the communities we live in."

Stantec is providing architecture, interior design, ZNE consulting, sustainability, energy modeling, landscape design, acoustics, lighting, security, and information and communications technology design services. Stantec's Chicago office is leading the project design in collaboration with global expertise from other Stantec offices including Sacramento, Van Nuys, San Francisco, San Diego, Petaluma, Seattle, and Atlanta.

"We look forward to starting construction and delivering the California Military Department's new headquarters with the highest standards in safety and quality," said Dennis McBride, vice president for Walsh Construction.

The ceremonial groundbreaking took place on April 30. The facility is set to open in 2020. ★

Mental Health Month: Celebrate Wellness and Recovery

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - It is estimated that one in every five people will experience a mental illness during their lifetime. In Sacramento County alone, more than 300,000 residents live with mental illness. But, two-thirds of these individuals do not seek support or treatment because they worry they will lose their jobs, their friends or family, or be isolated because of the stigma and discrimination associated with having a mental illness.

Six years ago, the Sacramento County Division of Behavioral Health Services initiated a multimedia and community outreach project that aims to fundamentally alter negative attitudes and perceptions about mental illness by replacing myths and stereotypes with examples of wellness, recovery, and hope.

In recognition of Mental Health Month this May, the "Mental Illness: It's not always what you think" project will be participating in several upcoming events within the community, distributing helpful information to attendees in an effort to help stop stigma and discrimination, promote mental health and wellness, and inspire hope for people and families living with mental illness. These will be great opportunities for you - and residents throughout the County - to get involved in spreading messages of hope and increasing awareness for individuals and families living with mental illness.

Get involved and help to stop stigma during Mental Health Month:

View expressive artwork from Sacramento County residents who are living with, or support others living with, mental illness:

- Through June 31: The Sierra Health Foundation (1321 Garden Hwy, 1st floor Lobby, during normal business hours).
- May 12: The Sacramento Poetry Center (1719 25th St., during normal business hours). An open house reception will take place on Second Saturday, May 13th from 6:00 - 8:30 p.m.
- May 28 - June 1: The Governor's Wall at the California State Capitol will display artwork along the outside of the Governor's office at the State Capitol (1315 10th St., during normal business hours). Admission is free.

Attend any of these upcoming community events where the project will be providing free, helpful information, handouts and more:

- May 12: 16th Annual Slavic Health/Safety & Job Fair
11:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. at Carmichael Park
- May 20: Walk a Mile in Her Shoes
Sign up today!
Festival opens at 11:30 a.m. and the walk begins at 1:00 p.m. at Crocker Park
- May 23: Mental Health Matters Day
Register for this free event or stop by the California State Capitol from 9:30 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.

Anytime in May:

- Show your support for those living with mental illness and pledge to reduce stigma by signing the digital Wall of Hope on the project website.
- Share your personal story of hope and recovery to help stop stigma and discrimination toward people and families living with mental illness. Telling your story may encourage others to share their experiences and may end the silence that contributes to isolation and shame.
- Join the Stop Stigma Sacramento Speakers Bureau or invite one of the compelling speakers to share their personal stories of hope and inspiration at an upcoming event.
- Learn more about reducing stigma and discrimination at StopStigmaSacramento.org and show your support on social media by following the project on Twitter @StopStigmaSac and be sure to 'like' the project on Facebook and engage in positive mental health messages using the hashtag #StopStigmaSac

For more information on Sacramento County's "Mental Illness: It's not always what you think" project, please visit www.stopstigasacramento.org. This program is funded by the Division of Behavioral Health Services through the voter approved Proposition 63, Mental Health Services Act.

Insurance agent Katie Pexa celebrates 20 years in business with Carmichael Chamber of Commerce friends.

Family Business Celebrates Milestone

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Katie Pexa's Watt Avenue Farmers Insurance office recently marked 56 years of family tradition. For 20 of those years, former Carmichael Honorary Mayor Pexa (56) has run the agency she acquired after her career in the US Navy.

Her late father Bob Pexa began a Farmers Alameda storefront in 1961. He later teamed up with son Mike Pexa to run the branch Katie Pexa bought in 1998. "My mom Patti was my receptionist until she retired in 2013," says Pexa. "We've always enjoyed the feeling of working in a family business."

Next-in-line is Pexa's son Connor, an El Camino High junior. "He's in the office nearly every day doing his homework," reports his mom. "He's helpful answering phone calls. It's too soon to make predictions, but even at 17, Connor understands customer service. And he sure knows the importance of insurance to protect families." ★

CAGOP Convention Winner: Lt. Governor Candidate Cole Harris

Commentary
by Jon Fleischman

Jon Fleischman

The California Republican Party's state convention is now in the rear-view mirror and the election is upon us. Millions of absentee ballots are being mailed out today and Californians will start voting later this week.

There are a lot of observations to be made about the weekend confab - but out the gate I am going to name the clear big winner of the convention - businessman Cole Harris, who is running for Lt.

Governor of California - and who is now the officially endorsed candidate of the State GOP.

Harris wins the FlashReport Winner of the Convention honors for two reasons. The first was his ability to run a strong enough effort before and at the convention to garner the support of more than 70% of the delegates as a virtual unknown. Harris announced his candidacy late, and has had to define himself in short-order with the party faithful. The second reason is that, unlike the other candidates who were endorsed at the convention, Harris (because his success in business gives him the ability to self-fundraise with millions of dollars) has the ability to use direct voter contact tools (mailers, digital messages and such) to let likely Republican voters know that he's been endorsed by the CRP - a very useful tool, targeted to GOP voters, when you are a first time candidate, and unknown to the electorate. Look for his television and cable spots to be non-partisan, with messaging to appeal to California's no party preference voters, and less ideologically inclined Democrats.

While much prognostication is taking place about who will make the top two in the Governor's race - with a significant chance that no Republican advances - Harris is well positioned to make the runoff in his race. While there are other GOP candidates, none are well known and none have the financial resources of Harris, and obviously none but Harris have the party's office nod. In the meantime for California Democrats there is a three way donnybrook taking place between three credible candidates. State Senator Ed Hernandez has been running for some time, and is out of central casting for California Democrats. But also in the race are two extremely wealthy candidates - Jeff Bleich and Eleni Kounalakis - both of whom will spend millions of dollars.

Cole Harris is a Republican candidate for lieutenant governor of California. The primary election is being held on June 5, 2018.

Running as a Republican in California means that for Harris to win in November, he will have to do everything right, and still catch a favorable tailwind - a tough order in blue California. But thus far Harris is off to a good start, and clearly his efforts wooing the GOP, and his ability to convert an endorsement into an important message for him to take to Republican voters has earned him the FlashReport Winner Of The CAGOP Convention Award! ★

He's the Master of the Chorus

Dr. Kendrick Retires from Sacramento State after 33 Years of Teaching

Special to MPG

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - "Singing is a joyous experience," explained Dr. Donald Kendrick. "Choral music prepares you for life."

In August 1985, Dr. Kendrick accepted the position of Director of Choral Activities at Sacramento State University. For the past 33 years, this energetic Canadian has worked diligently to create an awareness of the power and importance of choral and orchestral music via three important pillars of our society - the Community, the State and the Church.

"33 years is a long time," admitted Dr. Kendrick. "I have seen so many students come together to perform beautifully."

Don's final gift for his 110 students and community members in his three Sacramento State choirs will be to provide them with an opportunity to partner with the Sacramento Choral Society & Orchestra. The students will have the rare chance to sing with a professional orchestra at the SCSO's season finale on Saturday, May 12 at the Sacramento Community Center Theater: Praise and Jubilation.

Kendrick lovingly refers to this SCSO season finale as his downtown Sacramento State retirement party. There will be a post-concert reception in the Sacramento Community Center Theater lobby following the final performance.

This unique performance will also feature the Sacramento Children's Chorus Director Alexander Grambow. The musical forces on stage will include 280 singers, three soloists and a 52-member professional orchestra. The main fare on the program is a West Coast premiere of American composer Dan Forrest's stunning Jubilate Deo. This work was only recently premiered in Carnegie Hall in 2016.

The rousing performance will feature seven languages with projected supertitle translations. The work brings to life the global aspect of the traditional Psalm 100 text "O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands" by setting it in seven different languages and drawing from a wide spectrum of musical influences. Each movement combines some characteristics of its language-group's musical culture with the composer's own musical language.

In the first half of the program Kendrick has programmed Dvorak's Te Deum (Hymn of Thanksgiving), a work that he recorded with the SCSO and some of the Sacramento State students at the Liszt Academy in Budapest during their summer 2004 European Tour. Respighi's Ancient Airs and Dances will showcase the SCSO Orchestra to round out the concert.

Kendrick feels strongly about having his choirs perform out in the community. For twenty-five years his three choirs performed in the beautiful acoustics of Sacred Heart Church in Sacramento. His December Procession of Carols is a tradition that we fervently hope Sacramento State will continue following Don's retirement.

For more than three decades Kendrick has demonstrated his mastery of creative concert programming. His impact as an educator and conductor has greatly enhanced the quality of life in our region and has resonated on a national and international level.

"I have so many happy memories. So many of my students went on to perform around the world," said Dr. Kendrick.

The dedicated teacher of over three decades has enhanced lives through great music, bringing beauty, hope and inspiration to our community, but when asked what he learned over the years, Dr. Kendrick graciously replied, "Patience and understanding."

"The most important thing is that we have music in our lives - period," said Dr. Kendrick. "And we should bear in mind that we all have a voice."

20th ANNUAL FAIR OAKS CEMETERY MEMORIAL DAY EVENT

★ SATURDAY, MAY 26th, 2018 @ 10:00AM ★

Military Chaplains

The Fair Oaks Cemetery District and the Memorial Day Ceremony Committee are finalizing plans for one of the most popular and inspiring Memorial Day events in the area.

The twentieth Annual Memorial Day and Avenue of Flags Ceremony will be held on Saturday, May 26th, at Fair Oaks Cemetery, located at 7780 Olive St., Fair Oaks. The formal ceremonies begin at 10 a.m.

This year's theme is to honor our Military Chaplains from all wars. Some of the first chaplains were appointed in the late 1800's. Many more were commissioned during World War II. More than 400 chaplains have died while serving in the U.S. military.

The Chairman of the Fair Oaks Cemetery District's Memorial Day Committee, Bob Clouse, will be the Master of Ceremonies. The main speaker(s) will focus on the history and facts of the United States Military Chaplains.

The Fair Oaks Cemetery will be decorated with over 400 American flags lining its roadways as "The Avenue of Flags". We will also be adding more names to the Veterans Memorial Wall.

The laying of the wreath at the Memorial, in honor of over 1800 Veterans who are buried in the cemetery, will be done by VFW Post 6158 and American Legion Post 383.

The musical program will consist of Pipers, a Drummer, and recorded music provided by a local Disc Jockey. Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the ceremony, provided by the Orangevale/Fair Oaks Grange and the Fair Oaks Historical Society.

The Fair Oaks Cemetery's Memorial Day Ceremony is a fine example of how we, the community, remember our loved ones and say thank you to our Veterans and their families for their sacrifices.
