Parade of Patriots for Memorial Day

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Carmichael's Vietnam Memorial was this week, setting for commemorations to those who served their country. Flags, music, prayers and remembrances were shared by more than 150 visitors, many of them veterans.

The first-known monument to the Vietnam War in the USA is in Earl J. Koobs Nature Area, at the now-shuttered La Sierra High School. First dedicated in 1973, the lofty steel structure and its plaque honor La Sierra graduates who died during Vietnam years. Patriotic ceremonies have been held in its shadow for 17 years.

("Ranger Jack") Koobs, was a La Sierra teacher who taught many volunteers or draftees for Vietnam service. The science teacher also fostered development of the nature study area that bears his name. Koobs died in 2015. Under the aegis of Carmichael Kiwanis and other organizations, his reserve is now a center for community service. At least 15 Boy Scout Eagle Scout projects have been completed in its five acres; Carmichael Organic Gardening Club maintains a butterfly garden; California Montessori Project and many other community supporters maintain vegetation and trails for environmental education.

Heroes recalled on the nature area's central monument are:

Robert D. Anderson, Mark W. Burchard,

Robert S. Bynes, Jerry Cowsert, Kenneth R. Escott, Gary R. Field, Herbert Frenzell, Frank Thornburg, Ralph Guarienti, Larry H. Morford, Thomas C. Pigg, Randall B. Rainville, Kim Richins, Jeffry Tharaldson, Robert A. Willis.

Earl J. Koobs Nature Area is open to visitors on the second Saturday of each month, from March to October. For information, go to www.carmichaelkiwanis.org or visit the Koobs Nature Area site on Facebook.

California Law Allows Time Off to Vote on Election Day

By CA Secretary of State Press

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) -

To help ensure voters can get to the polls on Election Day, June 5, California law allows workers to take up to two hours off work to vote if they are unable to during non-work hours.

"Californians should make a plan now for how they will cast a ballot on Election Day," Secretary of State Alex Padilla said. "Every registered voter has a right to cast their ballot before the polls close. If you can't make it to your polling place outside of working hours, you have the right to take time off to vote, without a loss of pay."

California Elections Code section 14000 allows workers up to two hours off, without a loss of pay, to vote if they do not have enough time to do so in their non-work hours. The law requires workers to notify their employers two working days before the election if they need to take time off to vote.

Polling places are open between 7:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. on Election Day.

Also, every California employer is required to post, in a visible location, a notice informing employees of their rights at least 10 days before an election. The Secretary of State's office offers these free, print-ready notices in 10 languages at: http://www.sos.ca.gov/elections/time-votenotices/

Sacramento Taco Festival Adds Wrestling

DJ Big Al Sams to Host This Year's Taco Eating Contests

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The 5th Annual Sacramento Taco Festival, which is held on Del Paso Boulevard between El Camino Ave. and Arden Way, is comprised of several event components that has made it fun and unique among Northern California festivals. Three of these events have become especially popular among Taco enthusiasts, the Taco Eating Contest, Northern California's Chihuahua Beauty Contest, and Professional Wrestling. But it's SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The the new contests that will focus 5th Annual Sacramento Taco on culture and history.

This year's Festival has attracted the nationally recognized disc jockey and TV personality Big Al Sams, a favorite among fans of KHYL 101.5 (V101fm) and "Mark at the Movies." Big Al, originally from Chicago, will be hosting this year's Taco Eating Contest, which is being sponsored by V101fm/iHeart Radio. It is a contest that measures the person who can eat the most regular size tacos in 60 seconds, with the winner walking away with The Taco Trophy, a guaranteed $100 prize money plus the pot collected from the $5 entry fee. Last year's winner set a new record of eating 6 tacos in 53 seconds.

"We're very excited to have Big Al Sams join us this year as host of the Taco Eating Contest," Says Festival Coordinator Mina Perez. "He's going to make this annual contest much more fun than what it already is and I understand some of the wrestlers are joining the competition too."

Speaking about wrestlers, Action Coast Empire is back for its third year providing some action-packed grappling, that will include some of Northern California's most popular wrestlers, including "The Russian Wolf" Alexis Darevko and North Sacramento's own Brittney Wonder. The afternoon wrestling will feature for the first time, a much sought after wrestler – the very ominous Continued on page 3

Sacramento's Society for the Blind Receives $10,000 from Sierra Sacramento Valley

Grant Will Provide Assistive Tools for Blind and Low-Vision Seniors

Joseph Jacobs of Sierra Sacramento Valley Medical Society Alliance presents Pat Duffy and Dawn Cornelius of Society for the Blind with a check for $10,000.

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Seniors with vision loss in the Sacramento region will receive assistive tools and technology, thanks to a $10,000 grant from Sierra Sacramento Valley Medical Society Alliance. The grant will help fund Society for the Blind's Senior IMPACT Project that empowers people 55 and older with alternative, non-visual techniques and skills that enable them to perform day-to-day tasks and activities so they can maintain or increase their independence.

"We are so grateful to Sierra Sacramento Valley Medical Society Alliance for providing vital assistive tools for seniors with vision loss," said Shari Roeseler, executive director, Society for the Blind. "This critical funding will provide tools like white canes and digital voice recorders so seniors losing their vision can stay independent and confident while living their lives to the fullest."

The Senior IMPACT Project includes an eightday retreat offered monthly at Society for the Blind that gives seniors an immersion experience where they learn alternative techniques and skills to travel safely, efficiently and independently. They practice alternative techniques and use adapted tools to perform tasks of daily living including cooking, cleaning, shopping, home maintenance, organization, personal finance and more. They learn how to use the latest in assistive technology to operate computers and mobile devices for home, school and work, and they learn Braille. Participants receive individualized attention from instructors and mentors who are blind or low vision, and they have the opportunity to join in discussion groups with peers on issues around vision loss and participate in community activities.

For those unable to attend retreats, Society for the Blind sends instructors to their homes to teach skills and offer resources. The Senior IMPACT Project also includes monthly peer support groups for English and Spanish speakers and workshops throughout the

For more than 60 years,

Society for the Blind has created innovative ways to empower individuals living with low vision or blindness to discover, develop and achieve their full potential. Society for the Blind has grown from a dedicated group of volunteers to a nationally recognized agency and the only comprehensive rehabilitative teaching center that provides services for a 27-county region of northern California. The nonprofit provides lowvision eye care, life and job skills training, mentorship, and access to tools to maintain independence for 6,000 youth, adults and seniors experiencing vision loss each year. California State Parks Invite Visitors to Recreate Safely and Responsibly in 2018

Safety tips and information on laws can be found online at www.parks.ca.gov/safetytips.

By California Department of Parks and Recreation

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) -California State Parks invites new or avid outdoor enthusiasts to invent their adventures this year within the nation's largest state park system. Memorial Day weekend kicked off the busiest time of the year for the 280 state parks, drawing large crowds of visitors. Whether they plan on biking, hiking, surfing, recreating on a boat or off-highway vehicle, exploring the desert or redwoods, or simply enjoying time with friends and family, it is important for them to plan ahead and learn about the parks they are visiting.

Safety tips and information on laws can be found online at www.parks. ca.gov/safetytips. Below are some outdoor tips:

General Tips

Rules/Laws: Take the time to visit the webpage of the park you plan on visiting and learn about the rules, such as parking, if dogs are allowed and closed areas. It is also important to learn the laws for recreating in boats and/or offhighway vehicles (OHV). Cell Phones: Do not rely on your phones. Coverage can be spotty or nonexistent. Weather: Check the weather and bring appropriate clothing to fit the season. Itinerary: No matter what type of recreation activity you will be participating in, leave an itinerary of your trip with a family member/ friend with information such as name/age of all participants, travel destination and expected return date. This will ensure law enforcement personnel have a better understanding of your location in the event of a rescue. Safety: Carry a first aid kit and dress appropriately for your outdoor adventure. Avoid alcohol. It is against the law to operate a boat or off-highway vehicle with a blood alcohol concentration of 0.08 percent or more. Use the buddy system and hike with a friend or family member. Always make sure you have plenty of water and snacks with you. Keep It Clean: Pack it in and pack it out. Wildlife: View wildlife from a distance. Never feed or touch them.

Water Recreation Protect Your Loved Ones: Know your limits. Swimming in a lake, ocean or river is different than swimming in a pool. If someone is in distress, seek help from a lifeguard or call 9-1-1 if one is not available. Ocean Rip Currents: If you get caught in one, stay calm and do not fight the current. Swim or float parallel to the shore until you are out of the current and then swim toward the shore. Swimming: Never swim alone and be cautious at unguarded beaches, lakes and rivers. Whenever possible, swim at a lifeguard protected beach. Wear a properly-fitted life jacket: Always check the label for correct use and size. Wearing one can increase survival time and provide some thermal protection against the onset of cold water shock. It can also keep you afloat until someone can rescue you. Actively supervise children at all times: Appoint a designated "water watcher," taking turns with other adults. Do not assume that someone is watching them. Do not enter the water if it is too cold: Waterways continue to rise as snow melts and can be dangerously cold and swift. Even the strongest swimmers can be stunned by cold water and become incapacitated.

Off-Highway Vehicle Recreation

Equipment: Use proper equipment such as protective clothing, goggles, a proper helmet, gloves and spark arrester. Natural Resources: Tread lightly and stay on designated trails.

Camping & Hiking

Map Guides: Get a map of the area you will be camping or hiking. Natural Resources: Stay on designated trails. You are not only protecting natural resources, but you are also ensuring that you do not get lost. Snakes: Be cautious of where you are stepping. If you see a snake, maintain a distance of 6 feet. Most bites occur when people get too close or try to touch them.

With over 340 miles of coastline, 970 miles of lake and river frontage, 15,000 campsites, and 4,500 miles of trails, California State Parks contains the largest and most diverse recreational, natural, and cultural heritage holdings of any state agency in the nation. More than 67 million people annually visit California's state park system. Invent your adventure online atwww.parks.ca.gov.

Taco Festival Adds Wrestling

"We were perhaps the first festival to feature professional wrestling as part of the entertainment," says Perez. "And our tradition continues this year because of its popularity and we always make sure we have men and women wrestling."

Perez adds that the unique entertainment throughout the festival is what makes it fun, interesting, and ideal for the whole family.

"The contests and people winning prizes is one of things the Taco Festival is becoming known for," she says. "This year we're adding a singing contest where all contestants must sing at least a minute and a half of the Academy Award winning song "Remember Me" from the Disney/PIXAR move "COCO," and we also have a Crazy Hat contest - it's a light-hearted attempt to rival the Kentucky Derby's hat wearing tradition, and which history we share."

Once called Rancho Del Paso, in the mid to late 1800s North Sacramento was the world's largest racehorse breeding and pasturing ranch owned by James Ben Ali Haggin, whose horse "Ben Ali," became the only Kentucky Derby winner from the region. But it was the great stallion "Salvatore" that won international fame by beating Tenny in a challenge race that captured the hearts of millions. Ridden by legendary Jockey Issac Murphy, an African American whose tragic story is yet to be formally told, Salvatore beat Tenny by a nose in the June 25, 1890 race.

The 5th Annual Sacramento Taco Festival is scheduled for June 2, 2018 from 10:30 am to 6:30 pm on Del Paso Boulevard in Old North Sacramento. Tickets are $7 online (Eventbrite) and $10 at the gate. Children 12 and under are free. For more information or tickets visit www.sactacofest.com.

Local Fishing Team Takes on the Delta

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG)

- The Folsom Bass Team took on the Delta waters on a perfect spring day for a fishing tournament. Boats were launched and fish were weighed in at the Delta Loop's B&W Resort for the team's May tournament.

Jerry Lawler and Marshal Smith took home first place honors with a big fish of 7.27 pounds and a total weight of 22.03 pounds.

Tom Manley and Michael Allen placed in second with a big fish of 5.40 pounds and a total of 19.96. Allen credited Manley for his familiarity with the waters. "He took us to the right spot," said Allen.

Mike Bugliarello and Gabe Luna finished in third place with a total of 15.99 pounds, but it was Bugliarello's 9.09 pounder that took top big fish honors.

Overall, the 19 boats and 38 fishermen caught 88 fish combining for 207.25 pounds on the day, averaging 2.36 pounds per fish.

Ryan McGinnis currently ranks atop the team's Angler of the Year standings, followed by Pat Rounds and Mike Bugliarello. With their second place finish, Michael Allen and Tom Manley have moved into the top 10 overall and now rank eighth and tenth place, respectively.

"The Folsom Bass Team started in 1988 as a group of Folsom prison guards who had a passion for bass fishing. In fact, the club meetings used to be held at the prison itself," according to the team's mission statement. "Since its humble beginnings the membership has grown and we now have members of all skill level and age. FBT's mission is to provide its members opportunities to learn about bass fishing in our local area through monthly meetings and tournaments. We emphasize the camaraderie and fun that comes from the sport of bass fishing."

Now in its 30th year, the team has seen a lot of faces come and go throughout the decades, but one thing remains the same – no one reveals any secrets. "We were all tight lipped back then," said Kris Sisto, an original member and former correctional officer himself. "Now, everybody lies."

The team's next tournament is a two day event on June 2 and 3 at Lake Shasta's Bridge Bay.

FDIC The initial Annual Percentage Rate (APR) is currently 4.50% for a new Home Equity Line of Credit (HELOC), and is fixed for the first 5 years of the loan which is called the draw period. After the initial 5 year period, the APR can change once based on the value of an Index and Margin. The Index is the weekly average yield on U.S. Treasury Securities adjusted to a constant maturity of 10 years and the margin is 3.50%. The current APR for the repayment period is 6.50%. The maximum APR that can apply any time during your HELOC is 10%. A qualifying transaction consists of the following conditions: (1) the initial APR assumes a maximum HELOC of $150,000, and a total maximum Loan-to-Value (LTV) of 70% including the new HELOC and any existing 1st Deed of Trust loan on your residence; (2) your residence securing the HELOC must be a single-family home that you occupy as your primary residence; (3) if the 1st Deed of Trust loan is with a lender other than E1 Dorado Savings Bank, that loan may not exceed $200,000. and may not be a revolving line of credit. Slim Randles' HOME COUNTRY

It was like buzzards circling the body.

The Jones kid, Randy, was out in the Mule Barn parking lot with the hood up on his car. He was staring down into it the way a first-time parachutist would look out the airplane door. You never quite knew for sure what lay ahead.

"Looks like Randy's got problems," said Steve.

"Let's have a look," said Dud. So coffee was left to get cold and the entire Supreme Court of All Things Mechanical - Steve,

Dud, Doc, Herb and Dewey trooped out to see what was going on.

They formed a powerful semicircle of wisdom around the youth and his engine with folded arms and facial expressions that said, "It's okay, Kid. We're

Dewey spoke first. "Having trouble, Randy?"

"Won't start." Doc, who has the most initials after his name, said, "Give it a

Randy ground the engine, but it wouldn't kick over.

"Stop! Stop!" Doc yelled. "Don't want to flood it."

All Doc knows about flooding is that the animals went on board, two by two.

"Randy, I think it's the solenoid," said Steve, looking wise. "Doesn't have one, Steve,"

"Sure it does. All cars have solenoids.'

Randy said.

"Not the new ones. Haven't made solenoids in years."

Steve's expression said, "Young punks, what do they know?" But his voice said, "Well, what do you know about that?"

"Need a jump?" Dewey asked. "Got plenty of spark," Randy

Randy looked at the older men and then bent to the engine and smiled. His voice came floating up over the radiator. "Might be the junction fibrillator. Or it could be a malfunction of the Johnson switch. If I rerun the wire from the organ housing to the pump by-pass, that might get it done."

When Randy looked up, all the men had gone back in for coffee. He smiled and called Triple A on his cell phone.

Former Teacher Sentenced for Attempted Possession of Child Porn, Use of Concealed Camera

DATE: April 30, 2018 CASE: Scott Macmillan (Case #17FE001087) PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney

Bruce Chang, Cyber Crimes Unit

The Honorable Robert Twiss sentenced Scott Macmillan to 30 days county jail, 3 years probation and required him to register as a sex offender. On October 19, 2017, Macmillan pled no contest to attempted possession of child pornography, attempted use of a concealed camera to take photos of an adult victim for sexual purposes, and use of a concealed camera to take photos of a minor for sexual purposes.

Macmillan was a teacher at Heron School in Natomas. Several students noticed he appeared to be taking photos of female students' private parts with his cell phone. Some students started watching Macmillan and managed to record him as he used his phone to record a 12-year-old student under her desk. One student notified school authorities, who notified the Sacramento Police Department. Police found Macmillan's phone in his car with multiple images of what appeared to be the chest and genital areas of girls. An adult staff member also reported that Macmillan had approached her with his cell phone as if he was trying to take a photo or video under her skirt.

CASE: Justin Hurst (Case #16FE017117) PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney James Wax, Career Criminal Prosecution Unit

Justin Hurst was convicted by a jury of attempted murder and assault with a semiautomatic firearm on a peace officer, reckless evading of a peace officer, possession of an assault weapon, possession of a short-barreled shotgun and four counts of felon in possession of a firearm. Officers directed Hurst to keep his hands on the steering wheel, but he instead sped away and led the officers on a high-speed chase in a residential neighborhood. During the chase, Hurst fired multiple rounds at the officers. Hurst crashed his car into a resident's fence, and was taken to a hospital to treat his injuries. A search of his car revealed

13 cartridge casings, four firearms and boxes of ammunition. Additional allegations that Hurst has a prior 1999 strike conviction for first-degree burglary and three prior convictions for being a felon in possession of a firearm will be determined at his sentencing hearing.

If those allegations are found true, Hurst faces a maximum sentence of 42 years to life in prison. Sentencing is set for June 29, 2018, at 2:00 p.m. in Department 21 before the Honorable Steve

THE SACRAMENTO BEE

It takes two

Dear Dave,

My husband has an old car that has become a real sticking point between us. He bought it for $2,400, and it needs about $4,000 in repairs and restoration. Together, we bring home $50,000 a year, and I feel like this car is interfering with our ability to save money and pay off $35,000 in debt. We already have two decent cars we drive to work, so what should I do about this?

-Stacy

Dear Stacy,

There are lots of guys out there who like shiny toys — especially cars. I get it, because I'm one of them. But these kinds of things are luxuries, and stuff like this should wait until the household and finances are in order. The family should always come first.

Dumping money into this while you two are struggling financially doesn't make sense. On top of that, it's causing problems between you two on a deeper level. I'm sure your husband isn't a bad guy, so try sitting down with him and explaining how it makes you feel. Let him know what it's doing to your finances and your marriage. You might even write the financial side down, so he can see exactly what kind of shape you two are in and where the money is going.

Once you do this in a kind, but concerned, manner, it may be a real eye-opener for him. On top of that, you might consider giving him a little incentive to get on board with the idea of getting your finances in order. Suggest that once the debt is gone, and you've got some savings in place, there might be a little extra cash on hand to help get that car up and running.

Good luck, Stacy!

—Dave

Postpone the marriage?

Dear Dave,

My fiancé and I are planning to be married in less than a year. We've both been through your class at church, and the other night we started wondering if we should wait to have the wedding until we're both completely debt-free. Would you give us your opinion?

-Michelle

Dear Michelle,

Congratulations! I hope you two will have long and happy lives

To answer your question, I don't think there's a reason to wait. When two people know they really love each other, they should get married whenever they feel in their hearts the time is right.

At this point, you shouldn't be thinking about money as anything except an indicator of where you're going. It doesn't matter who got into debt or how, because everyone makes mistakes. But if you're both serious about getting out of debt, living on less than you make, and are in agreement about how the dollars are going to be handled, then — where money is concerned you're ready to be married.

Many relationship experts say if a couple can agree on four important things — kids, money, religion, and how to handle the in-laws — they have a great statistical chance of a happy marriage. I believe this, too. And make sure you meet with your pastor for some good, pre-marital counseling before the big day. With all this going for you, I think you two will be okay.

God bless you both!
