Jazzing for Juniors

Story and photos
by Susan Maxwell Skinner

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Wayne Reimers' vision has become a winter tradition for jazz proteges. Presented at Rio Americano High School, his namesake jazz festival recently showcased 230 San Juan Unified School District musicians.

Retired teacher Reimers (84) this year took special delight in new performance facilities at Rio. "In past years, we've had to use a cafeteria and a little theater," he recalled. "The distance between the buildings was a problem when it rained. This year, we had three good venues in one performing arts center. After a cafeteria, hearing a band in a building with acoustical design was music to my ears."

The 2018 festival featured 12 ensembles from seven schools. "As I listened, I got goosebumps," said the mentor. "It does the soul good to hear kids playing at such a high level. Their teachers are doing a great job; many of their students play better than some adults I know."

Kicking off in 1982, the annual festival has been a 36-year opus. Reimers was teaching at Arden Middle School and realized how many local school bands had no showcase for their efforts. A non-competing festival, he decided, would allow students to hear their peers and to blossom via professional critiques. Co-organizer Craig Faniani was then teaching band at Rio Americano; he persuaded his school to host the festival. The rest is musical history.

"All over the world, there are professional musicians who took part in our festival," marveled Reimers. "They're gigging in New Orleans, LA, New York. I feel we supported

Illegal Immigration;
Protests Take Place

Rich Peters, MPG Editor

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - U.S. Attorney General Jeff Sessions addressed immigration and California sanctuary laws downtown Sacramento on Wednesday morning, speaking at the annual meeting of the California Peace Officers Association held at the Kimpton Sawyer Hotel.

Sessions informed those in attendance that the Justice Department sued the state of California because state laws are preventing federal immigration agents from doing their jobs and putting their lives at risk, but the state's leaders believe otherwise and continue to deny any wrongdoing.

Last month, Oakland Mayor Libby Schaff warned residents of a federal immigration agent raid, allowing more than 800 criminals to avoid arrest. This drew harsh criticism from both Immigration and Customs Enforcement and the White House.

"So here's my message for Mayor Schaff: How dare you. How dare you needlessly endanger the lives of our law enforcement officers to promote a radical open borders agenda," Sessions said on Wednesday. He also questioned Lieutenant Governor Gavin Newsom for "bragging about the obstruction of law enforcement," calling it an "embarrassment for the great state of California."

Governor Jerry Brown thumbed out a tweet stating, "Jeff, these political stunts may be the norm in Washington, but they don't work here. SAD!!!"

Dozens of protestors blocked traffic outside of the Kimpton Sawyer Hotel and the Golden 1 Center, holding signs and chanting in opposition of Sessions and the White House. ★

Veterans' Stand Down Calls for Donations

Story by Jacqueline Fox

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - If you've vowed to serve local area veterans in some way but have not figured out how, the Citrus Heights Homeless Assistance Recourse Team (HART), in partnership with HART of Carmichael are going to make that vow very easy for you to hold to.

The nonprofit organizations are calling for donations, volunteers and event sponsorships for the annual Citrus Heights Veterans Stand Down, set for Tuesday, April 3 at Holy Family Church.

The Stand Down, says Citrus Heights HART board member Darlene Lyons, founder and owner of EZ Events in Auburn, is focused 100% on delivering food, clothing and other necessities to veterans in need, as well as their families, and, even their pets.

The original Stand Down concept is inextricably linked to veterans. Its origins, says Lyons, are tied to the services and support offered to enlisted soldiers returning to their infantry camps after combat during the Vietnam War. Secure "base camps" were set up where troops were offered access to personal hygiene products, medical and dental services, mail pick up, and a quiet, safe respite from combat where they could spend a day or so recovering from the trauma of front-line battle and reenergize their spirits, as well as their health.

The Citrus Heights model is held annually for veterans to check in with local service providers and obtain critical VA services, obtain food, clothing and donated hygiene products and enjoy meals prepared by volunteer organizations—all under one roof.

"That's the key to this event," said Lyons. "We make it possible for our veterans to come in to a one-stop location for a wide range of support services, enjoy a great breakfast provided by the Knights of Columbus, have lunch and snacks, obtain referrals for critical services and replenish toiletry supplies, get clothing and socks and much more."

The Way Ministries of Citrus Heights will be cooking lunch for all attendees, while the Retired Marines will oversee traffic and security for the Stand Down, Lyons said.

HART was formed to support the local homeless population with a centralized support network of services. But, says Lyons, it was revealed that among that contingency was a growing number of veterans who were struggling with figuring out the often complicated process to accessing VA services and benefit programs, not to mention they needed food, clothing and other essentials.

"We started out of course by forming the HART team to deal with homeless needs, but when we got more deeply involved in the community, we found out that there was a growing number of veterans among that group and we felt we had to do

Junior Tennis Fund Seeks a Match

"Bringing Tennis to Underserved Kids"

By Rich Peters, MPG Editor

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Established at the end of 2014, the Junior Tennis Fund Sacramento has donated over $16,000 to the greater Sacramento Region over the years. Mainly donating to parks and rees, the goal of the organization is to bring tennis to kids who may not have ever had a chance to set foot on the court otherwise.

The JTFS is a collective giving organization that supports public youth tennis in the greater Sacramento area. They harness the power of collective giving to support community philanthropy and help create new tennis opportunities for all kids, especially the underserved, at public facilities, parks and schools.

Among the years of contributions, they have donated to the Carmichael Recreation and Park, South Gate Recreation and Park District, Rio Linda Recreation and Park District and the Mission Oaks Recreation and Parks District. Most recently they donated $1,800 to Woodland Park.

"We are a youth development program that helps with social skills and gets kids out of the house," said Carol Rose, Founder and Director of JTFS. "Kids like tennis and enjoy getting out there and chasing the ball." Rose explained the beauty of tennis entering these children's lives. "Tennis is a sport that instills core values, teaches life skills and helps to develop productive citizens. It's a sport that can be played for a lifetime."

Expanding on that point, some kids pick up the sport and truly run with it, which led to the newest idea of JTFS. Beginning last year, the program, with the help of various coaches around the community, identify the kids that are working hard, taking the sport seriously and have the ability to take their skills to the next level. They award these kids scholarships for private lessons and then they automatically get signed up for an upcoming tournament through the Sacramento Area Tennis Association. SATA runs a series of tournaments throughout the year for all different age groups.

Upcoming for JTFS is one of the biggest fundraising days of the year, as they will once again be participating in the Big Day of Giving, the Sacramento Region's annual 24-hour fundraising event and year-long capacity building program. The event takes place on Thursday, May 3 and this year JTFS will join powers with the Effie Yeaw Nature Center and The Wish List Project at The Patriot Restaurant located in the Milagro Centre in Carmichael.

These organizations are inviting friends and donors to stop by, say hello and enjoy some great food and drinks – all in the spirit of giving. Donors for any of the non-profits will be given a discount for dinner that evening at The Patriot. Last year the region raised nearly $7.2 million from tens of thousands of donors, according to the Sacramento Region Community Foundation.

United Way Launches Read to Succeed Campaign

Community Members Encouraged to Donate Books and Volunteer to Install Little Libraries

By Kate Towson

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - In celebration of National Literacy Month, United Way is launching the Read to Succeed campaign which promotes literacy in students and families in the Sacramento community. During the month of March, community members are encouraged to participate in the campaign by donating books, volunteering and sponsoring the installation of eight Little Libraries that will be placed in four Sacramento school districts. The Read to Succeed campaign is part of United Way's Square One Project, a 20-year promise to significantly increase the number of local students who graduate from high school ready for success in college and beyond.

"We know that when children in our schools are reading at grade level, they are four times more likely to graduate from high school," said Stephanie Bray, United Way California Capital Region president and CEO. "Read to Succeed focuses on literacy because it directly impacts a child's ability to reach their full potential. When we are able to encourage children to begin reading from an early age, we are laying a foundation for a lifetime of success."

Community members who are interested in supporting literacy can donate to the Read to Succeed Virtual Book Drive, sponsor a Little Library, or volunteer to install the libraries. For more information visit: <http://www.yourlocalunitedway.org/united-way-event/read-succeed>.

"It's never too early to help a child start reading," Bray said. "And with the help of our community, we can truly make a difference in the lives of children."

The Read to Succeed campaign is part of United Way California Capital Region's Square One Project, a 20-year promise to significantly increase the number of local students who graduate from high school ready for success in college and beyond. Through nine decades of work and research across Amador, El Dorado, Sacramento, Placer and Yolo counties, United Way believes ending poverty starts in school and is working to ensure kids meet important milestones for success in college or career. Capitol Pops Concert Band Enters 21st Year with New Energy and New Director

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG)

The Capitol Pops Concert Band (CPCB) will return to the 2018 Sacramento area music scene with a new director, Judith Steinle. The band kicks off its 21st season on March 23. Steinle, 61, is CPCB's first female music director. For over four decades she has worked in many musical venues working with students as an accompanist and music director in the San Jose area.

The band's 50 all-volunteer musicians include high school students, senior citizens and all ages in between. Concerts are fun and fast moving with popular (thus the 'pops') music, including Broadway shows, movies, popular marches, patriotic pieces and new offerings.

The CPCB was formed in February of 1997, just one month after Citrus Heights was incorporated as a city. A committee of musicians led by Citrus Heights residents Ray and Georgia Latimer along with Alice Jacobs and Jerry Lopes decided the new city needed a band and invited 50 musicians to create one that featured pops music. Jerry Lopes was director until 2014. Kurt Pearsall served until 2017.

Since 1997 the band has performed hundreds of concerts for thousands of people throughout the Sacramento area. Besides concerts sponsored by local park and recreation districts and at other community events, CPCB performs privately sponsored shows at venues including senior living facilities and schools. School students are especially encouraged to join.

Home base for the band is the Fellowship Hall at Christ the King Lutheran Church, 5811 Walnut Avenue in Orangevale. Practice is on Thursdays from 7:00p.m. to 9:30 p.m.

more," Lyons said. The Stand Down, which is expected to serve some 200 veterans and accompanying family members, goes well beyond delivering the basics. Through the help of donations and support from community and corporate sponsors, the Stand Down will also offer veterans access to employment counseling, CalVet Benefit referrals, medical, vision and dental services, flu shots, eyeglasses, pet care, including microchipping, nail clipping and more, and even haircuts and supplies to keep healthy.

Many homeless and housed veterans alike are struggling with substance abuse. For them, representatives from treatment facilities will be on hand to connect them with appropriate recover services if they want them. If someone needs to renew their driver's license or obtain a bus pass, there will be help on hand for that, too. There will even be representative providing legal aid support to veterans who have legal issues to sort out but need help getting started.

"Essentially this is a day for veterans to join under one roof to get the help they need to live lives of dignity," said Lyons. "We have amazing volunteers, but we always need more of them. And, we have wonderful community and corporate sponsors who support this event, as well.

Current corporate sponsors include Target, Quick Quack Car Wash, Dignity Health, Chase Bank and Stones Gambling Hall. The Stand Down is also supported by a vast number of Citrus Heights-based organizations including Sunrise Marketplace, Inc., the Auburn Boulevard Business Association, Sylvan Ranch Community Garden, Sunrise Food Ministry and Francis House, and through key partnerships with the Citrus Heights Police Department and Sacramento elected officials, among others.

Socks, boots, T-shirts, warm jackets, shampoo, toothpaste, backpacks and pet food are at the top of the list of items needed for the veterans, said Lyons. Volunteers are needed, as well, to help sort through donations and serve food.

"It takes an army," said Lyons. "We need supporters and volunteers to help us make this day of service for our veterans a successful one."

Lyons said shuttle service to and from the Stand Down will also be available for those who do not have transportation. ★ their love for music and gave them early experience of audiences.”

Reimers also started young. Picking up alto-sax at 10, he played all through high school and college; then in the Second Division Army Band during Korean War years. Post-war, he started a teaching degree and a romance. An Idaho State College band orchestrated Wayne and Barbara Reimers’ love song. “He was the first-alto chair and I was way down the section, struggling,” remembered his bride of 60 years. “We finagled ways to sit together.”

The musicians married after graduation and have been sax partners ever since. They also bolster a big band sponsored by Carmichael Kiwanis Club. The non-profit has co-sponsored Reimers’ festival almost from the first note. “Dr Les Chase was Assistant Superintendent for San Juan District,” explained Reimers. “He told me his Kiwanis club wanted to sponsor something artistic. I grabbed at the offer -- it was a match made in heaven.”

Through donations from Kiwanians and supporters, the event annually rewards chosen performers with scholarships. “It’s also the only festival I know that offers free instrument repairs,” boasted the founder. “I once took a school band to Luxembourg and a sax player dropped his horn on a stone floor. He was in tears. An unplayable instrument can be a disaster.” During 36 years of festivals, Carmichael-based Tim’s Music Store has offered off-stage repairs. “There’s usually a few emergencies,” said Reimers. “The kids are always overjoyed when they don’t have to sit out.”

Octogenarian Reimers—a 50-year member of Carmichael Presbyterian Church—vows to run his festival for as long as the Lord gives him breath. “For 30 years, it was the San Juan/Carmichael Kiwanis Jazz Festival,” he said. “Six years ago, our committee decided to re-name it after me.”

The musician accepted the honor gracefully. “It was a real compliment,” he considered. “I’m especially grateful they didn’t have to re-name the festival posthumously.”

The Wayne Reimers Jazz Festival is scheduled for January 2019. For information, visit www.carmichaelkiwanis.org ★

The Evolution is Here

Get Used to Hearing About Artificial Intelligence

Commentary by Doug Ose

Have you noticed how evident AI is now in our everyday life? It started with coordinating traffic signals along major streets in an effort to expedite the flow of traffic. Home Depot now has the personal checkout line where one employee oversees four pay stations. Bel Air has the same thing. At McDonald's you will see at least one electronic ordering station that is connected directly to the preparation line that issues you a receipt and directs you to pay the cashier. Complex algorithms control the electricity grid to constantly adjust the flow of electrons for efficiency purposes. Automobiles can now drive themselves.

There are significant implications to this evolution. The arrival of such advancements is self-inflicted. Those who advocate for higher minimum wages are creating huge incentives for business to invest in physical capital rather than human capital. Think back to when we were kids: our first job was scooping ice cream at Baskin Robbins at $1.65 per hour, or being a carry out person at the local grocery store for $2.10 per hour, or whatever. Those were learning situations. We were learning work ethics and consumer relations, getting exposed to the real world of working for a living.

As near as I can tell, the horse is out of the barn on "first job" opportunities. While those first jobs won't all disappear, there will be a significant reduction in the number of them. Employers are now able to purchase equipment with artificial intelligence that can process relatively simple job tasks. The end result is that "first jobs" are being eliminated. The economic driver for this is clearly the regulatory burden being placed on employers. A machine never calls in sick. A machine doesn't require workers compensation insurance. A machine doesn't fill out a time card with all the potential private attorneys general actions that come with an inaccurately completed time card. A machine doesn't enroll in Obamacare. You get the point.

In my opinion, artificial intelligence is a positive development for our economy, enhancing productivity up and down the economic chain. I wonder about how far AI will progress over the next few years. For a number of reasons, I worry about the demise of "first jobs" for our young people. So should you. ★

Anti-Alzheimers

Alzheimer's is not a word anyone wants to hear because it is a heartbreaking decline of memory and faculties. So could there be a solution...not a magic pill...but one that can forestall, even reverse many symptoms? Doctors Dean and Ayesha Sherzai, Co-Directors of the Brain Health and Alzheimer's Prevention Program at Loma Linda University Medical Center tell me that Alzheimer's disease, Dementia, and other neurodegenerative diseases are 90% preventable through the choices we make every day.

First of all, let's check the Top 10 foods to avoid like Processed foods (cookies, frozen dinners, and white bread, sugar and saturated fats). Add Processed meats, Red meat, Chicken, Butter and Margarine, Fried and Fast foods, Cheese, Pastries and Sweets, Sugary Drinks, and Excessive alcohol to the list.

So what's left? Some of the top Brain-nourishing foods are Avocado, Beans, Blueberries, Broccoli, Coffee, Dark Chocolate, Extra Virgin Olive oil, Flax seed, Herbal Tea, Herbs, Leafy greens, Mushrooms, Nuts, Omega 3 Fatty Acids, Quinoa, Chia and Sunflower seeds, Spices, Sweet potatoes, Turmeric, and Whole grains.

And here are some activities that build cognitive reserve.

1) LEARNING A NEW

LANGUAGE. Main functions involved: language processing (new words and expressions), memory centers (memorizing, calling upon old memories to understand new material), frontal lobe (understanding the language in context), and problem solving (forming a written or verbal response).

2) LEARNING A MUSICAL INSTRUMENT. Motor skills, Memory Centers, Processing, and Mood (understanding the emotional subtleties of the music.

3) COMPUTER PROGRAMMING. Memorizing new codes and knowing how the codes work together, selecting new codes and typing...motor skills.

4) WRITING A BOOK. Attention and focus with typing passages, recalling research stories and ideas, organizing and structuring and re-creating emotions on the page.

5) KARAOKE. Reading and performing lyrics, interpretation of the song, modulating your voice, and recalling a particular song.

6) PERFORMING STAND-UP COMEDY. Memorizing your set, reading the audience, creating material and physical appearance on the stage.

7) LEARNING TO DANCE. Physical coordination, fine motor movements, responding to music, memorizing choreography, and understanding different dance techniques.

8) CHESS CLUB OR GROUP CARD GAMES. Remembering your cards and the rules for each game, step-by-step strategy concentration on the game, and planning how you will win.

9) MENTORING OTHERS IN YOUR FIELD. Remembering and drawing from your experience, focusing on the mentoring activity, reading another person's emotions and motivations, coming up with options and solutions.

10) VOLUNTEERING TO TEACH. Remembering the subject matter, focusing on the teaching, responding to student needs, examining and explaining multistep solutions.

11) JEWELRY, CRAFTS, MODELS OR ART. Understanding complex designs, memorizing techniques and patterns, concentrating on the activity, and the physical act of assembly.

12) TAKING COMMUNITY COLLEGE COURSES. Memorizing new words and concepts, understanding multistep thinking, applying new theories to find solutions.

The good docs told me even daily brisk walks result in a 40% lower risk of developing Alzheimer's later in life. Social support and engagement influence our brain and how it ages too. Check out their book "The Alzheimer's Solution" and www.teamSherzai.com. KEEP ON KEEPIN' ON! ★

Sacramento County DA Reports

Pair Convicted of Murder, Multiple Charges in Apartment Shooting

DATE: February 26, 2018
CASE: Richard Gutierrez & Laurencio Quintero (#15F03952)
PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Laura West, Gangs & Hate Crimes Unit
 Richard Gutierrez and Laurencio Quintero were convicted by a jury for the first-degree murder of Stacy Norman, shooting at an occupied house and being a felon in possession of a firearm. The jury found true allegations that Gutierrez and Quintero personally used and discharged a firearm causing death during the commission of the shooting into the occupied house. Quintero was also convicted of first-degree burglary and discharging a firearm in a grossly negligent manner.

On June 13, 2015, Gutierrez and Quintero shot at occupied apartments on Rio Linda Boulevard. Multiple rounds entered the apartments, narrowly missing sleeping children and adults inside. Two of the rounds pierced the victim's neighbor's window and traveled through a wall into the victim's bedroom, striking the victim while she was in bed. She suffered a through and through gunshot wound to her chest and died from a loss of blood. Later that day, Quintero and three other men broke into an apartment on Beaumont Street to confront the resident of that unit. They had at least one gun with them and fired five shots into the resident's bedroom door. The resident of the apartment was not home at the time.

Allegations that Gutierrez suffered a prior 2013 strike conviction for robbery and that Quintero suffered a prior 2007 strike conviction for felony assault with a deadly weapon will be determined at sentencing.

Gutierrez faces a maximum sentence of 50 years to life in prison. Quintero faces a maximum sentence of 62 years to life in prison. Sentencing for both defendants is scheduled for March 23, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. in Department 12 before the Honorable Maryanne Gilliard.

Defendant Convicted of Murdering Ex-Girlfriend

DATE: February 28, 2018
CASE: Dameshlo Green (Case #14F03237)
PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Kevin Greene, Homicide Unit

Dameshlo Green was convicted by a jury for the first-degree murder of Tamisha Ridge and being a felon in possession of a firearm. The jury also found true a use of firearm allegation.

Green and the victim had an on and off relationship for more than 10 years. After 5 years of no contact, they resumed their relationship until the victim broke up with Green a few months later. On May 14, 2014, Green entered the victim's residence, went into her bedroom and shot her in the head with a shotgun.

The allegation that Green suffered a prior 2011 assault with a deadly weapon strike conviction will be determined at sentencing.

Green faces a maximum sentence of 50 years to life in prison. Sentencing is set for March 27, 2018 in Department 41 before the Honorable Helena Gweon.

Defendants Sentenced for Illegally Accessing State Computer Network

DATE: March 5, 2018
CASE: Jeffrey Rikala & Jonathan Turrentine (Case #17FE004204)
PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Bruce Chang, Cyber Crimes Unit

Jeffrey Rikala and Jonathan Turrentine pled no contest to illegally accessing a computer network to wrongfully obtain money, property or data. The Honorable Lawrence Brown sentenced both defendants to 30 days county jail and 3 years probation.

Between October 22, 2016, and November 1, 2016, Rikala and Turrentine were employees of the State of California Department of Technology. The defendants engaged in a scheme to mine Monero, a form of cryptocurrency, by using State of California computer servers. ★

Dave Says

Don't let it hang around!

Dear Dave,
 I have $100,000 in student loan debt. Since the amount is so large, is there a special place in your Baby Steps plan for it?
 -Julie

Dear Julie,
 The fact that it's a large amount of student loan debt doesn't change anything. Baby Step 2 is where you pay off all debt except for your home.

I hope you have a nice, large income with which to fight that big, nasty pile of student loan debt. Believe it or not, I've seen even worse situations. I've talked to people who went $200,000 into debt for a four-year degree in a field where they'll make $50,000. That kind of thinking and behavior is ridiculous, but it's out there.

Whatever you do, don't let this student loan debt hang around for years and years.

You've got to get focused and intense about getting control of your money. That means living on a strict, basics-only monthly budget. After that, start throwing every nickel and dime you can scrape together and save toward those student loans as fast as possible.

Your income is your largest wealth-building tool. Julie. You can't save, and plan for the future, when all your money is flying out the door to pay back debt!

Better late than never

Dear Dave,
 I have a credit card that I haven't made a payment on in almost two years. The debt has been sold a couple of times, and now a collector is saying I owe $1,200. The original amount was $500. I'd like to work something out, but I can't afford $1,200. What should I do?
 -Luanne

Dear Luanne,
 They're asking for $1,200 because they've added things like interest and late fees. They want to make as much money as possible on an old debt they bought for pennies on the dollar.

If you can afford $500 right now, ask if they'll accept a one-time payment to settle the account. Get it in writing if they accept the offer, and don't give them a penny until after you get a copy of the written agreement. Once you have the agreement in hand, send them a money order or cashier's check for $500. Do not, under any circumstances, give them electronic access to your bank accounts.

You waited too long to take of your obligation, Luanne. That made things more difficult and more stressful than necessary. I'm glad you decided to do the right thing, and clean up your mess, though. Better late than never!

The Exciting New World of Snap On Dentures!

There are millions of people in the US who struggle daily with dentures. A majority suffer from discomfort as a result of loose or ill-fitting dentures. Many prosthetic wearers simply withdraw from any type of social engagement as a result of having to wear their dentures.

Now there is a solution to these issues: Implants with "Snap On" Dentures!

Whether you are new to dentures or have worn them for years, a snap on denture is a great solution to uncomfortable chewing and slippery painful dentures. There are several types of snap on dentures available, including snap on partials. If you already wear a conventional denture or partial denture, we can sometimes use your denture to accommodate the snaps to fit on your new dental implants.

Implants as low as $99.00 per month
