Veterans and Community Stand for the Flag

Story and photos by Susan Maxwell Skinner

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - "Too many people, regard freedom as an entitlement," Senator Jim Nielsen told a weekend Veterans Day audience, "It's not an entitlement, it's an obligation -- an obligation to serve. There are those who disparage our flag and our pledge. We need to stand up and say no to that. Thousands of soldiers died so that flag would not touch the ground. Renewing our patriotism is a good thing; for we are a great nation."

The Fourth District representative was speaking at Veteran's Medical Center. Nearly 500 Sacramento County veterans and supporters attended the gathering held at former Mather Field Air Force base.

This year's event theme was "From Argonne to Afghanistan." The two locations represent a century of American military effort. An allied offensive at Argonne Forest (France) spanned less than two months and ended WWI. Now in its 16th year with no end in sight, the Afghan war is recognized as America's longest conflict.

At the Mather event, Marion D. Smith and Bob Burns -- 90 and 91 years old respectively -- grasped weathered hands as two of the few WW II survivors. From 1945 to 46, Smith was a radar specialist on the USS Livermore. He later served the Army Reserves. Bob Burns extended his WW II Army career during Korean and Vietnamese theaters.

The stalwarts were joined by 94-year-old Kiyo Sato, whose Japanese-American family grew strawberries at Mather in the 1930s. Sato, eight brothers and sisters and their parents were interned in Wyoming during war years. After her release, the eldest daughter achieved a college degree, nursing qualifications and eventually reached the rank of Captain in the US Air Force.

"I was born here," says the Rosemont resident. "I feel the same emotion about America as any citizen. I will never stop working for this country to again be a beacon of hope." ★

County Receives Funding to Improve Roads

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento County Department of Transportation (SACDOT) has its sights set on a long list of road improvement projects in the 2017-18 fiscal year. With the passage of Senate Bill 1 (SB1), SACDOT was awarded $7.3 million from the State to fund two dozen maintenance, road and bridge rehabilitation, safety and complete street projects throughout the unincorporated area.

SB1, also known as "The Road Repair and Accountability Act of 2017", will provide much of the funding through new gas taxes and vehicle fees. While SACDOT will receive $7.3 million to start, this amount will increase in future years. The county expects to receive an average of more than $24 million per year over the next 10 years for future projects.

With the SB 1 funds, SACDOT expects to take a big bite out of the county's $450 million backlog of roadway maintenance and rehabilitation needs, and a $300 million backlog of pedestrian, bicycle and disability access improvements.

An example of one of the projects slated to receive funding is the Folsom Boulevard Complete Street Improvements, Phase 1 Project. Located on the south side of Folsom Boulevard between Mayhew Road and Bradshaw Road in Sacramento, this project will create additional sidewalk space along Folsom Boulevard between Bradshaw Road and Mayhew Road. Currently, the only existing sidewalk along this segment of Folsom Boulevard is located in front of the Butterfield Light Rail Station. Once completed, the public will experience improved pedestrian safety with better lighting, pedestrian signal upgrades, and functional landscaping.

Co-Housing Project Finally Breaks Ground

By Jacqueline Fox

FAIR OAKS, CA (MPG) - Following two years of planning, site tours, pot lucks, workshops and even wine tastings to celebrate baby steps taken along the way, the first shovel of dirt has been dug for a planned cohousing project with units sold on the promise of a "Family-friendly Green Neighborhood" for New York Avenue.

Future residents, of the Fair Oaks EcoHousing development, alongside individuals hoping to build something similar in other parts of Sacramento County, as well as construction and development representatives for the project, and the leading figures in its development and execution got a break in the rain long enough to snap a group photo in front of the 3.7-acre development site Nov. 3. Then they walked over, together, to Smokey Oaks Tavern on nearby Fair Oaks Boulevard for an official reception and speeches.

"I was thrilled to see how many people joined us for the groundbreaking," said future Fair Oaks EcoHousing resident and founder, Marty Maskall, who has been working to get the concept for the project from her mind, on to paper and to this point for most of the last decade. "Supervisor Susan Peters (who attended the event) complimented the future residents on our persistence to pursue our vision. I can't wait until the homes are built and we can move in."

That is slated to happen sometime in spring of 2019. Meanwhile, the Fair Oaks EcoHousing project has been endorsed by the Environmental Council of Sacramento (ECOS), which also honored Maskall as the 2016 Environmentalist of the year.

The celebration officially kicked off construction of the 30-unit, pedestrian-friendly neighborhood that will feature private townhomes and "flats" ranging in size from two to four bedrooms and priced between the mid-$300's and the high $600's, solar and sustainable energy sources and other green living features.

The village in the making already has owners for all but two of the 30 homes available, a sign of just how popular the idea of cohousing has become and how quickly folks are ready to buy

A True Hero and Survivor

Battle of Okinawa Survivor Part of Final Battle of World War II

By Elise Speiss

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - At the age of 20, Bob (Junior) Mellor, had no way of knowing he was soon to be part of what would be known as 'history's greatest conflict on land and sea', the Battle of Okinawa, also known as Operation Iceberg. Many who unknowingly become a part of history in the making often just see it as part of the job. It is no different for Bob Mellor, now 92.

His patriotic T-shirts and original Navy uniforms hanging in his closet, the glass case full of photos and other service memorabilia are silent reminders of his service while his extensive collection of World War II and other combat movies bring those days back to life for him. And Bob loves to proudly talk about those days to any fortunate enough to hear his stories.

Bob joined the U.S. Navy on October 6, 1944 in San Francisco. He took a train to San Diego Naval Training Center where he completed his basic training as a Seaman Apprentice Class on December 28, 1944. The same day he was transferred to Landing Craft School where he graduated three months later on March 6, 1945.

During his training Bob took a leave to visit his older brother, Ray Mellor whose ship, the aircraft carrier U.S.S. Fanshaw Bay, had come in for repairs following a Japanese attack that had burned the flight deck. While on board Ray, a Gunner's Mate on the ship, showed his brother the 5-inch anti-aircraft guns where he worked. Ray survived the war, thanks to the metal case covering his Bible when he took shrapnel to the chest during the Battle of Leyte Gulf in the Philippines.

Upon completion of Landing Craft School Bob Mellor was transferred to the West Pacific where he was trained to drive a 30-foot Landing Craft Mechanized (LCM) boat. He was immediately made a coxswain, in charge of the ship and its crew, and trained in the Pacific Ocean in 15 to 20-foot breakers. Mellor said he liked the training and "found it no harder than plowing a straight furrow" back home on his family's 156-acre ranch in Delhi, California.

During his three-month training in preparation for the invasion of Okinawa, Mellor brought in supplies, hauled liberty parties and took sailor transfers to other ships on the high seas. He participated in a week-long shake-down cruise and amphibious landing off Catalina Island before boarding a Landing Craft Infantry (LCI) headed for Pearl Harbor where he trained in all the sea channels driving a landing craft.

On March 17, 1945 Mellor was assigned to LSM 424 (Landing Ship, Medium) and was sent to the south islands in the Pacific where he joined a larger fleet of landing craft and mine sweepers. At 203 feet-long, his ship resembled a small aircraft carrier and carried over 100 guns, mortars and rockets of various sizes. Mellor's ship was part of the fleet that by the end of March would number 1,300 headed to the invasion of Okinawa. Only 325 miles from Japan, Okinawa was the last stronghold to defeat before reaching Japan.

Finally, on April 1, 1945 the U.S. and allied forces invaded Okinawa. Mellor and his men landed in Buckner Bay. By the end of the day, it had become the largest amphibious landing in the Pacific theater of World War II with 50,000 troops landing.

One of the pilots flying from the carrier U.S.S. San Jacinto was a young pilot by the name of George H.W. Bush. Bush and other pilots conducted bombing raids in their TBM Avengers to clear the way for Mellor and other landing crafts to land safely on Okinawa. However, attempting to prevent U.S. and Allied landings was the Imperial Japanese 'super-battleship' Yamato, along with its fleet of Japanese aircraft carriers and destroyers.

Mellor recalls that just after his ship had unloaded its pontoons and hardware for the floating docks, they were attacked briefly in a kamikaze attack by a Japanese Zero fighter plane. He and his men survived that attack and with the equipment provided, three U.S. Army and three U.S. Marine Corps divisions aided in the successful completion of the assault on Okinawa.

On April 7, 1945 the Yamato, the largest battleship in the world at 80,000-tons was sunk by the Avengers after 10 torpedo hits. The Yamato had been the former flagship of Admiral Isoroku Yamamoto, mastermind of the Pearl Harbor attack.

The war ended on June 22, 1945 but Mellor had one more assignment to complete. On June 26, Mellor took his LSM 424 to the north end of Okinawa and picked up U.S. Marines from the 1st Marine Division at Hedo, and transported them to the North China Sea where they boarded 40 ships to go home.

More than 12,000 American servicemen were killed at Okinawa and over 38,000 wounded or missing. Japan lost 100,000 men, plus a loss of up to 150,000 civilian Okinawans.

Mellor continued his life following his Navy days with his high school sweetheart, Elma Louise Voyles. They married in 1946, following his discharge from the Navy and her graduation with honors from Livingston High School in Livingston, California. Their first home was a chicken house in the backyard of Clint Lovelady's Ranch in Delhi, California. They converted the chicken house into their home of one year, then moved to a farm in Delhi where Bob work full-time plowing fields and milking the cows. Their toilet was an outhouse.

In 1950 Mellor took a job at McClellan Air Force Base in Sacramento where he worked for 34 years before retiring as a "Scheduler" for airplane repairs.

The Mellor's had four children, three adopted over a span of fifteen years. After two children, they upsized from their home in North Highlands to 5-acres in Fair Oaks. After 54 years of marriage, Elma passed away in 2000.

Mellor now lives with his daughter, Lynne at her home in Roseville. He spends much of his time watching his extensive collection of WWII movies and other classics dating back to the 1930's.

He enjoys his pastime, especially as, referring to his waning memory, each time he watches a favorite movie like Midway or Flying Tigers, it's like watching it for the first time.

As the number of our surviving World War II veterans are rapidly dwindling, our younger generations are either never studied or are forgetting their sacrifices. Stories like these are a memorial to the thousands of people who worked, fought and died to preserve our way of life today. They cannot be forgotten.

Del Campo High School's Football Team Goes Undefeated for the Regular Season

SJUSD Release

FAIR OAKS, CA (MPG) - The Del Campo High School football team made history on Nov. 3 when it went undefeated in the regular season for the first time in the team's history. The Cougars defeated Bella Vista High School by a score of 67 - 0 to cap off the season and move into the playoffs.

On Thursday, Nov. 9 the Cougars defeated Buhach Colony in the first playoff game for a record so far of 11 - 0. Mike Dimino, head coach of Del Campo's football team, said the strategy moving forward is to work hard to improve each game.

"The secret of this team's success is their team chemistry," Dimino said. "But aside from that, they are making the right decisions off the field. We like to win, obviously, but the thing I'm most proud of is the fact that we're between 50 to 75 percent B averages for the whole team."

Athletic Director at Del Campo High School Sharon Props said she is also proud of Del Campo's football team.

"We've never been 10 - 0 before, so everyone is very excited," Props said. "We have 31 seniors that built this team, so they've been playing together for a long time - a lot of the junior classmen have also been playing awhile - so it's a good culmination that they've stuck together this long and have achieved what they have achieved."

The last time a football team in San Juan Unified School District achieved this milestone was during the 1994 - 1995 season when Rio Americano High School went undefeated during regular season. The team was eventually knocked out of the playoffs after it lost to Del Oro High School in the Division 2 Section Final. Dimino is hopeful the Cougars will be able to go all the way to the state championships this year.

Quarterback Tyler Dimino, the son of Del Campo's head coach, shares that sentiment.

"I'm hoping to go far in the playoffs," Dimino said. "I have trust in this team. I think we're very good and we can do it."

"I feel very good in our abilities and we've shown them on the field," said left tackle/defensive tackle and senior Jordan Ford. "We all have great chemistry together and we work hard and practice."

Del Campo's next playoff game is against Sacramento High School on Nov. 17. ★ connect the community to the Butterfield Light Rail Station by providing easier access for transit commuters, along with safety improvements for the residents, schools, and businesses along this important regional corridor.

With the SB 1 funds, SACTDOT expects to take a big bite out of the county's $450 million backlog of roadway maintenance and rehabilitation needs, and a $300 million backlog of pedestrian, bicycle and disability access improvements.

Other projects include:

- Pavement rehabilitation and rubberized asphalt concrete overlay on 9 arterial streets including Fulton Avenue, Garfield Avenue, Antelope North Road, Eastern Avenue, El Camino Avenue, Marconi Avenue, Gerber Road, Goethe Road and Kiefer Boulevard.
- Sidewalk repair and curb ramp installation in the Fruitridge and Elverta communities.
- Replacement of 4 structurally deficient bridges in South Sacramento County on McKenzie Road and Ione Road, and in the Rio Linda area on Rio Linda Boulevard.

- Installation of complete street improvements including sidewalks, bike lanes and ADA upgrades on Florin Road, Power Inn Road, 44th Street and Hurley Way.
- Installation of new, energy-efficient LED street lights for pedestrian and traffic safety in neighborhoods in the Rosemont and Florin communities.
- Traffic signal upgrades including new technology for enhanced safety, operations, signal coordination, and system monitoring and communications at 71 intersections along 12 arterial street corridors throughout the unincorporated area.

- Ongoing pavement maintenance and repairs county-wide including 24 arterial and collector streets. Some of this work has already been completed.

SB 1 funds will help reverse the continued deterioration of the county's roadway system. Once completed, these improvements will give travelers a better experience for years to come.

IRS Says Plan Ahead for 2018 Filing Season to Avoid Refund Delays

By David A. Tucker II, IRS Media

WASHINGTON, DC (MPG) - The Internal Revenue Service today advised taxpayers about steps they can take now to ensure smooth processing of their 2017 tax return and avoid a delay in getting their refund next year. This is the first in a series of reminders to help taxpayers get ready for the upcoming tax filing season. Additionally, the IRS has a special page on its website with steps to take now for the 2018 tax filing season.

Gather Documents

The IRS urges all taxpayers to file a complete and accurate tax return by making sure they have all the documents before they file their return, including their 2016 tax return. This includes Forms W-2 from employers, Forms 1099 from banks and other payers, and Forms 1095-A from the Marketplace for those claiming the Premium Tax Credit. Doing so will help avoid refund delays and the need to file an amended return later. Confirm that each employer, bank or other payer has a current mailing address.

Typically, these forms start arriving by mail in January. Check them over carefully, and if any of the information shown is inaccurate, contact the payer right away for a correction.

Taxpayers should keep a copy of their 2016 tax return and all supporting documents for a minimum of three years. Doing so will make it easier to fill out a 2017 return next year. In addition, taxpayers using a software product for the first time may need the Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) amount from their 2016 return to properly e-file their 2017 return. Learn more about verifying identity and electronically signing a return at Validating Your Electronically Filed Tax Return.

Renew Expiring ITINs

Some people with an Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN) may need to renew it before the end of the year. Doing so promptly will avoid a refund delay and possible loss of key tax benefits.

Any ITIN not used on a tax return in the past three years will expire on Dec. 31, 2017. Similarly, any ITIN with middle digits 70, 71, 72 or 80 will also expire at the end of the year. Anyone with an expiring ITIN who plans to file a return in 2018 will need to renew it using Form W-7.

Once a completed form is filed, it typically takes about seven weeks to receive an ITIN assignment letter from the IRS. But it can take longer — nine to 11 weeks — if an applicant waits until the peak of the filing season to submit this form or sends it from overseas. Taxpayers should take action now to avoid delays.

Taxpayers who fail to renew an ITIN before filing a tax return next year could face a delayed refund and may be ineligible for certain tax credits. For more information, visit the ITIN information page on IRS.gov.

Refunds Held for Those Claiming EITC or ACTC Until Mid-Feb

By law, the IRS cannot issue refunds for people claiming the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) or Additional Child Tax Credit (ACTC) before mid-February. The law requires the IRS to hold the entire refund — even the portion not associated with EITC or ACTC. The IRS expects the earliest EITC/ACTC related refunds to be available in taxpayer bank accounts or debit cards starting on Feb. 27, 2018, if direct deposit was used and there are no other issues with the tax return. This additional period is due to several factors, including the Presidents Day holiday and banking and financial systems needing time to process deposits. This law change, which took effect at the beginning of 2017, helps ensure that taxpayers receive the refund they're due by giving the IRS more time to detect and prevent fraud.

As always, the IRS cautions taxpayers not to rely on getting a refund by a certain date, especially when making major purchases or paying bills. Though the IRS issues more than nine out of 10 refunds in less than 21 days, some returns require further review.

For a Faster Refund, Choose e-file

Electronically filing a tax return is the most accurate way to prepare and file. Errors delay refunds and the easiest way to avoid them is to e-file. Nearly 90 percent of all returns are electronically filed. There are several e-file options:

- IRS Free File,
- Volunteer Income Tax Assistance and Tax Counseling for the Elderly programs,
- Commercial tax preparation software, or
- Tax professional.

Use Direct Deposit

Combining direct deposit with electronic filing is the fastest way for a taxpayer to get their refund. With direct deposit, a refund goes directly into a taxpayer's bank account. There's no reason to worry about a lost, stolen or undeliverable refund check. This is the same electronic transfer system now used to deposit nearly 98 percent of all Social Security and Veterans Affairs benefits. Nearly four out of five federal tax refunds are direct deposited.

Direct deposit saves taxpayer dollars. It costs the nation's taxpayers more than $1 for every paper refund check issued but only a dime for each direct deposit.

As The Cookie Crumbles, So Do My Excuses

Several weeks ago, I was at home alone when the doorbell rang. I answered the door to find representatives from a local Girl Scout troop doing what they do so well; selling Girl Scout cookies.

The Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage was not home so danger was not lurking behind the living room curtains. When Girl Scouts come selling cookies, I am cookie dough in their fund-raising hands.

"Hello, mister," they chimed, "We're selling cookies to raise money for" I immediately interrupted and exclaimed, "Yes, yes, I'll take all you have!"

When the passion of the moment passed, I did not need a fortune cookie to know I was going to be in big trouble with the wife, one tough cookie. Catching me with my hand in the cookie jar is serious business with her.

After all, 27 boxes of Girl Scout cookies are rather difficult to conceal, let alone explain. I was about to toss my cookies when an idea presented itself. What I needed was a good sure-fire excuse.

Excuses, which are a way of life for many people, have been around as long as mankind. In fact, it was the first man, Adam, who invented the pass-the-buck phenomenon for the benefit of all those who would follow him.

It occurred in the Garden of Eden, if you remember your Bible stories, just after Eve encountered the serpent, enticing her to eat of the forbidden fruit. Eve immediately baked an apple pie a la mode for Adam.

When God confronted Adam with the situation, Adam immediately said, "The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat." This, then, was the beginning of excuse-making to get out of a difficult situation.

Although a man may have invented excuse-making, it took a woman to develop it into an art form. Men, you see, are too literal and unsophisticated to develop a series of plausible excuses.

For example, a man will say, "Bob, my wife won't let me go fishing with you next Sunday," and it stops there. Nothing needs to be added, Bob knows exactly what the score is. After all, he has been there with his own wife.

Women feel compelled to introduce the element of emotion into every situation. Why is it that women are more gifted than men when it comes to making believable excuses? I certainly don't know the answer, and that's the only excuse I can think of at the moment.

Getting back to those Girl Scout cookies, I knew I needed to come up with some excuse or better yet, several excuses to explain why I bought 27 boxes of cookies when I'm not supposed to eat cookies.

Because I'm just a man, the only excuse I could come up with was "the Devil made me do it."

Unfortunately, my wife did not accept that excuse and I immediately knew I was in trouble. Exasperated, my wife decided to help me come up with a list of viable excuses to use the next time Girl Scouts with cookies knock on the parsonage door.

Reasons I can't buy cookies:

- My mother made me eat cookies when I was young.
- I only eat cookies at Christmas and Easter.
- I don't believe in eating packaged cookies.
- I'm satisfied with watching people on TV eat cookies.
- I'm too busy to eat cookies. Try another time.
- I don't have any good clothing to wear while eating cookies.
- I'm too old and cookies really are for the young.
- I don't believe cookies really exist.
- I don't eat cookies. I prefer donuts.
- I'm afraid the roof will fall in if I eat cookies.
- My wife and I cannot agree on which cookie we like.

To put it mildly, I was impressed with the growing list of excuses my wife was able to come up with in such a short period. It showed she had practiced this art form for many years. I never could have come up with such a list on my own.

As I studied my new list, I was certain I could face any Girl Scout in the future. My wife does not share my confidence and no longer permits me to answer the door when the Girl Scouts are on the prowl. She is worried any preconceived excuse would quickly dissolve at the first sight of those cookies.

What is an excuse? An excuse is a lie at both ends, held together by the glue of convenience.

For some people, a bad excuse is better than no excuse at all. These people spend their whole lives justifying everything they do or don't do.

After this experience, I began to understand all the excuses people have given me over the years for not attending church. Whenever I approached the subject, they seemed ready with some excuse and usually backed by plenty of others if needed.

I now see they spent quality time devising these excuses that, to their thinking, got them off the hook.

All excuses seem quite ridiculous in light of what the Bible says. "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching" (Hebrews 10:25).

Not all the excuses in the world will stand the test of eternity. That is just the way the cookie crumbles.

*The initial Annual Percentage Rate (APR) is currently 4.25% for a new Home Equity Line of Credit (HELOC), and is fixed for the first 5 years of the loan which is called the draw period. After the initial 5 year period, the APR can change once based on the value of an Index and Margin. The Index is the weekly average yield on U.S. Treasury Securities adjusted to a constant maturity of 10 years and the margin is 3.50%. The current APR for the repayment period is 5.875%. The maximum APR that can apply any time during your HELOC is 10%. A qualifying transaction consists of the following conditions: (1) the initial APR assumes a maximum HELOC of $150,000, and a total maximum Loan-to-Value (LTV) of 70% including the new HELOC and any existing 1st Deed of Trust loan on your residence; (2) your residence securing the HELOC must be a single-family home that you occupy as your primary residence; (3) if the 1st Deed of Trust loan is with a lender other than El Dorado Savings Bank, that loan may not exceed $200,000 and may not be a revolving line of credit. Additional property restrictions and requirements apply. All loans are subject to a current appraisal. Property insurance is required and flood insurance may be required. Rates, APR, terms and conditions are subject to change without notice. Other conditions apply. A $475 early closure fee will be assessed if the line of credit is closed within three years from the date of opening. An annual fee of $50 will be assessed on the first anniversary of the HELOC and annually thereafter during the draw period. Ask for a copy of our "Fixed Rate Home Equity Line of Credit Disclosure Notice" for additional important information. Other HELOC loans are available under different terms.

Sacramento County DA Reports

Defendant Convicted of Domestic Violence, Animal Cruelty

DATE: November 2, 2017
CASE: Edward Reid (Case #15F04204)
PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Susan Nelsen, Domestic Violence Unit

Edward Reid was convicted by a jury of corporal injury on a spouse or cohabitant with use of a deadly or dangerous weapon and personally inflicting great bodily injury under circumstances involving domestic violence. He was also convicted of battery with serious bodily injury, felon in possession of a firearm with a prior, felon in possession of ammunition, and six counts of animal cruelty.

Between July 4th and 5th of 2015, Reid accused the victim of cheating on him and beat her with a wooden sword for several hours. Reid threatened to kill the victim as he struck her repeatedly in her head and neck. The victim sustained significant bruises on her shoulders, legs, and torso as well as on her face. She also suffered a non-displaced fracture of her left ulna, and X-rays showed she had prior facial fractures involving the right orbit and maxillary sinus. On July 9, 2015, the victim reported the attack to police and disclosed several prior unreported domestic violence incidents that occurred in August 2014 and June 2015. In those assaults, Reid punched the victim in the eye and beat her causing her to break her wrist. The victim told medical personnel she broke her wrist when she tripped over their dogs.

When officers went to Reid's home, they located a loaded rifle with a live round of ammunition in the chamber and nine rounds in the gun. They also found more than 60 additional rounds of ammunition, two power rifle scopes, two swords, and two metal pipes.

Animal Control was called when seven emaciated dogs were found in the home. A veterinarian found the dogs to be extremely underweight and dehydrated. They were also suffering from irritated and inflamed paws and paw pads as well as overgrown nails. X-rays showed their small intestines had signs they had little to no food for at least several days and that they had eaten non-food items. Reid was the primary care provider for the dogs.

Two prior strike allegations for robbery and assault with a deadly weapon with the personal use of a firearm will be determined at sentencing.

Reid faces a maximum sentence of 36 years to life in prison. Sentencing is set for December 1, 2017, at 9:00 a.m. in Department 25 before the Honorable Robert Twiss.

Defendant Sentenced for Child Sexual Assaults

DATE: November 3, 2017
CASE: Kurt Chilcott (Case #16FE017710)
PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Monica Robinson, Special Assault & Child Abuse Unit

The Honorable Michael Bowman sentenced Kurt Chilcott to 131 years and 6 months to life in prison. On September 26, 2017, a jury convicted Chilcott of nine counts of sexual assault on a child 10 years old or younger, eight counts of lewd or lascivious acts with a child under the age of 14, and one count of annoying or molesting a child with the allegation that Chilcott has a prior conviction for child sexual assault.

Chilcott was required to register as a sex offender after being convicted in 1992 of sexually assaulting three girls in Sonoma County. The victims in that case ranged in age from 8 to 11 years old. In the current case, Chilcott sexually assaulted a family member when she was 8 to 11 years old from 2014 to 2016.

DATE: November 3, 2017
CASE: Ray Ramirez, Joseph Castaneda & Manuel Labrasca (Case #16FE006090)
PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Satnam Rattu, Gang & Hate Crimes Unit

The Honorable Russell Hom sentenced Ray Ramirez to 77 years to life in prison, Joseph Castaneda to 27 years and 8 months in prison, and Manuel Labrasca to 23 years and 8 months in prison. On September 28, 2017, a jury convicted all three defendants of two counts of attempted murder and enhancements for causing great bodily injury and participating in a criminal street gang.

On March 17, 2016, Castaneda, Labrasca and Ramirez were in the parking lot of an apartment complex in the Lemon Hill area. All three are validated Norteno gang members. The two victims were in a car that entered the parking lot. When the passenger got out of that car he was immediately attacked. The driver attempted to intervene in the assault and was also attacked. Both victims suffered extensive stab wounds but they were able to get into their car and driver was able to drive to a local hospital.

Dave Says

Married or single, budgeting is the key

Dear Dave,
Do you have any tips for how single people can stay on track with their finances?

- Deb

Dear Deb,
The first thing I'd suggest is the same advice I give to married couples, and that is to spend less than you make, and live on a written, monthly budget. Sit down at the end of each month and write down — on paper — all your expenses and income for the upcoming month. Give every dollar a job, then spend everything on paper before the month begins.

When you think about it, budgeting isn't that difficult. All it takes is a little time and a few basic math skills. Some expenses, like your mortgage payment or rent, will be the same. If you have a car payment, it should remain constant, as well. Things like utilities and groceries may fluctuate a little based on the time of year, but you can formulate pretty accurate estimates by looking at past months.

Another thing I would recommend is finding a mature, trustworthy friend or family member to act as an accountability partner. This person should also be good with money, and your relationship should be strong enough that they're not afraid to call you out if you start behaving irresponsibly with your cash.

Sit down, just the two of you, once a month and talk about your finances. You can even go over your income and budget line by line if it helps. The point in this scenario is to get support from someone who cares about you, and is willing to be there — and help hold you accountable — for the financial decisions you're making.

Used car warranties?

Dear Dave,
What is your opinion of used car warranties?

-Anonymous

Dear Anonymous,
I'm not a fan of extended warranties in general, and I especially dislike used car warranties. In my mind, they're bad because they're expensive and — on average — of little benefit to the buyer.

Did you know, in many cases, only about 12 percent of what you pay for used car warranties goes to cover the cost of repairs? That means around 88 percent goes toward profit, overhead, and commissions. In fact, some used car dealers make more money from the sale of extended warranties than they do on the sale of actual cars.

The best way to cover yourself is to buy smart and self-insure. Save up an emergency fund of three to six months of expenses, and stay away from stuff like used car warranties!

Co-Housing Project Breaks Ground

in. Prices range from $300,000 to $600,000, depending on the square footage. Owners also will pay a monthly homeowner association fee, likely between $300 and $400.”

It is estimated that, over the last 25 years, more than 160 cohousing communities have popped up nationwide. Cohousing neighborhoods in the Sacramento region include Southside Park Cohousing downtown, Nevada City Cohousing in Nevada City, Wolf Creek Lodge in Grass Valley, and three communities in Davis.

“This is not a new concept,” says Kathryn McCamant, founder of Co-Housing Solutions and consultant on the Fair Oaks EcoHousing project. Her company is considered to have pioneered the development of cohousing in North America, including Sacramento County. “We modeled our cohousing projects initially on similar projects in Denmark that go back decades.”

She and her husband, Charles Durrett, who served as the leading architect for the Fair Oaks development, have co-authored two books on sustainable cohousing and collaborated on a number of cohousing developments. They also live in the Nevada City Cohousing development built in 2008.

McCamant said the concept is easy to sell as it attracts like-minded, conscious-living individuals who support community spaces and ideas for co-existence. Finding the construction funding for cohousing projects, however, she said, is not as straightforward, even though funds would be largely guaranteed by multiple mortgage payments, in this case, 30, upon the selling of the final two units.

“We ended up having to go all the way down to San Diego to Torrey Pines bank to get a loan approved for the Fair Oaks CoHousing project,” said McCamant. “We just couldn’t get lenders to understand, let alone support the concept.”

“I feel as though we have somehow emerged as victors after a sustained battle with numerous obstacles. I am optimistic about all of our futures.”

ANNE BIRCHFIELD FUTURE RESIDENT OF THE
FORTHCOMING FAIR OAKS
ECOHOUSING DEVELOPMENT

That concept involves a place where residents share communal ethos and commit to a lifestyle that balances independent living with shared experiences. Residents can cook and share meals together, participate in group events and outdoor activities and nurture the spirit of communal living as they see fit. Tossing a wave to a neighbor three times a year while getting the morning paper, however, won’t cut it.

“Garage door communities, where people pull up at night, put their cars away and never go anywhere else in the neighborhood is not working so well,” said Durrett. “Cohousing affords an opportunity for shared living experiences using open, shared living spaces. They aren’t meant for someone who wants to isolate.”

Fair Oaks EcoHousing will offer 3.7 acres of outdoor living and play space, a community pool, spa, workshop, dining and entertaining facilities, a lounge, kids’ playroom, designated space for yoga and music, and two guest bedrooms for extra accommodations.

Some of the future Fair Oaks EcoHousing residents who attended the groundbreaking ceremony were not shy in expressing how long and sometimes difficult the process of getting from concept to construction has been. The shoveling of that first mound of dirt, they said, was significant on many levels, as it represented the first tangible move toward moving day.

“I feel as though we have somehow emerged as victors after a sustained battle with numerous obstacles,” said Anne Birchfield of Sacramento and a co-founder of the project. “I am optimistic about all of our futures.”

Obstacles aside, Fair Oaks EcoHousing already is being used as a model for other groups hoping to form a cohousing development.

“What an exciting day to see all of you there with your shovels, spades and smiles,” said Anne Geraghty, who is building a coalition to support development of the Washington House Cohousing project in west Sacramento. “We are looking forward to following in your footsteps. Thanks for leading the way.”
