Women's Veterans Event Honors Many Who Served

The women veterans who attended the event were an impressive group who served our nation and now need our support in return.

Story and photos by Paul Scholl

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) -

Dedication to our nation was on display at a recent event held to support women veterans of the United States Armed Services. A very impressive group of women who have served our country came together at the gathering and celebration, hosted by American River Brewing Company.

The Women Veterans Alliance, created to support female veterans who have specific needs separate from male veterans, has as their mission is to impact and empower the lives of women veterans. They are the only group focused on directly impacting the quality of life of women veterans.

Attending the event on Friday, June 2nd to recognize the honorees were Congressman Ami Bera and Assemblyman Ken Cooley. Dave Mathis, co-owner of American River Brewing Company has become a big supporter of the group.

During the presentations each of the veterans took to the microphone and announced their branch of the military and their term of service. It was truly impressive to hear each of their individual commitments, with some still engaged. American River Bank was the major sponsor for this event. Be sure to tell them "Thank You" when you visit one of their local branches. Food was provided by Culinerdy Cruzer.

To get more information about the Women Veterans Alliance go to www.WomenVeteransAlliance.org.

"We believe strongly in supporting our veterans, and especially our women veterans. They all gave so much for us. It is time for us to stand up and do more for them" said Dave Mathis, coowner of American River Brewing Company.

Genetic Disaster or Uncertainty in Your Genes-Huntington's Disease?

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Individually, they battled ALS, Parkinson's, Alzheimer's and Huntington's. They all lost. ALS beat baseball great Lou Gehrig; Parkinson's knocked down Muhammad Ali; Alzheimer's erased rock music legend AC/DC founder Malcolm Young; and Huntington's disease silenced Singer/Songwriter Woody Guthrie.

Called 'the cruelest disease' Huntington's is like having ALS, Parkinson's and Alzheimer's at the same time. Imagine! And many are unaware the HD is in their family history.

Neurological degeneration becomes the life of people impacted by the genetic disaster called Huntington's disease or HD. Caused by a genetic mismatch many won't know they carry within their makeup.

Local families are uniting to provide help for today and hope for tomorrow at the Team Hope Walk, William Land Park Saturday, June 24, 2017. The ninth annual walk in this beautiful setting helps raise awareness of HD, support for local families and funds for ongoing research to find treatment and a cure.

Often unknown before symptoms, Therese Crucher-Marin of Auburn and Dawn Doster of Fair Oaks have lived with Huntingon's disease dedicating their lives to helping others understand the fate, learn about testing and help support local families thru the HDSA Sacramento Chapter. They are just two regional families talking about how Huntington's changed their lives.

To learn more about HD, visit the chapter Website at http:// northernca.hdsa.org/.

Registration costs are: Adults $25, Children $10. You receive a T- shirt when you register online. You can get information, register or donate at Sacramento, CA Team Hope Walk at https://hdsa.donordrive. com.

Democrats Deny Funding for Critical Levee Repairs Needed after Oroville Dam Spillway Failure

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Despite the support of a bipartisan coalition of lawmakers, businesses and local agencies, legislative Democrats in Sacramento rejected funding to repair the state's water infrastructure that was severely damaged as a result of the failure of the Oroville Dam spillway. Senator Jim Nielsen (R-Tehama) and Assemblyman James Gallagher (R-Yuba City) led an alliance to obtain money in the state budget to repair California's critical levees in Northern California, which are used by the State Water Project to deliver water to the Central Valley and Southern California. "The failure to prioritize our state's infrastructure is incomprehensible," said Senator Jim Nielsen. "Millions of Californians depend on water that passes through these critical water conveyance systems." Cathleen Galgiani (D-Stockton), Dr. Richard Pan (D-Sacramento) and the following organizations:

Senator Nielsen added, "Our request would have provided for an investment in the state's water infrastructure, which would protect lives, preserve property and save the state billions of dollars in emergency repairs."

On February 7, the Oroville Dam spillway failed causing nearly 200,000 people and their pets to be evacuated. In addition, water system levees suffered significant damage that may prevent them from functioning properly in the next high-water event unless emergency repairs are completed this year.

The $100 million funding request was also supported by Senators Bill Dodd (D-Napa), Cathleen Galgiani (D-Stockton), Dr. Richard Pan (D-Sacramento) and the following organizations: Central Valley Flood Control Association; Sacramento Area Flood Control Agency; Northern California Water Association; Metropolitan Water District of Southern California; Western Growers; California Farm Bureau Federation; Yuba Flood Control District; Yuba City; Operating Engineers Local 3.

Senator Jim Nielsen represents the Fourth Senate District, which includes all or portions of Butte, Colusa, Glenn, Placer, Sacramento, Sutter, Tehama and Yuba Counties. To contact Senator Nielsen, call him at (916) 651-4004, or via email at senator.nielsen@senate.ca.gov.

Midlife adjustments? Dear Dave,

My husband and I are in our 50s, and we have just $12,000 to pay off before we're debt-free. We've paid off almost $70,000 in debt in the last two years. We would like to buy a house soon, but we know we also need an emergency fund. It would take us almost a year to build up an emergency fund, so should we make adjustments to the Baby Steps since we're getting older? - Dawn

Dear Dawn,

No! It shouldn't take you two a year to build up an emergency fund considering the rate at which you've been paying off debt. You need a fully funded emergency fund or three to six months of expenses set aside before you start saving for a down payment on a home.

You've been making great progress, and you obviously have a good income to be able to pay off debt that quickly. Maybe in your case you could lean a little more toward the threemonth side with your emergency fund before you start saving for a house. Then, after you're all moved in, you could revisit the emergency fund and beef it up to six months.

Just stay on course and stick with the plan, Dawn. Fifty isn't old. You two have plenty of time to get your finances in order, find a great home, and look forward to many great years ahead!

—Dave

Skipping to the altar Dear Dave,

My wife and I make good money, and our daughter's college education is pretty much paid for through pre-paid tuition and scholarships. We just started your plan to get out of debt and take better control of our finances. When we get to Baby Step 5, which is saving for college, can we substitute that with saving for a wedding? - Braden

- Braaen

Dear Bob,

That would be fine. I'm glad you're thinking ahead. It's always a good idea to save toward a wedding if you have the financial resources to do so, because weddings are real and

Just remember to pay cash for the wedding, Bob. If you have to go into debt to make it happen, then you're talking about too much money. It's as simple as that. Crunch the numbers with your wife, and see what you two can handle.

And remember, there's absolutely no correlation between the cost of a wedding and the success of the relationship! —Dave

Pentecost is the orphan of the three great Christian feast days – Christmas, Easter, and Pentecost. Churches tend to be full on Christmas Eve and Easter Sunday, but not so much for Pentecost. Like Easter, Pentecost moves around for its date; this year the feast day was Sunday June 4 (fifty days after Easter Sunday).

You will not see Pentecost cards, gifts, or special family celebrations. Did your family get together for a Pentecost dinner? Probably not. Why is Pentecost difficult to celebrate? I think it is because we have a hard time dealing with the Holy Spirit. Who is the Holy Spirit and how does the Spirit act in our lives? These are not easy questions to answer.

Happy Pentecost!

The Rev. Dr. Ray Hess St. George's Episcopal Church

The feast of Pentecost is based on the account in the Book of Acts in the New Testament (Acts 2:1-11), part of the story of the Gospel according to Luke and Acts, both by the same author and really like parts one and two of a play. According to Luke/Acts, the risen Jesus appeared to his disciples for forty days after his resurrection, then ascended to be with the Father in heaven, and then ten days later sent the Holy Spirit upon his disciples on the Jewish feast day of Pentecost (a spring harvest festival fifty days after Passover).

The New Testament talks about the coming of the Spirit in a variety of ways, mostly in Luke/Acts, the Gospel according to John, and the letters of Paul. The Spirit is usually described as God's presence within us or alongside us. A friend of mine, who is a retired Episcopal priest and an important mentor in my life, has a very strong sense of the leading of the Holy Spirit in his life. He uses the expression often of being "prompted" by the Spirit.

I like this idea of being prompted by the Spirit, like a person in a play who prompts you with your lines. I want to be open to the guidance of the Spirit in my life. How is the Spirit guiding me? How can I be more aware of the presence and leading of the Spirit, instead of following my own "bright ideas"? I find that my life flows much better when I follow the prompting of the Spirit!

This season after the feast of Pentecost is a good time to be open to the presence of God's Spirit in our lives. Be on the alert for how the Holy Spirit is prompting you in your daily life and in making decisions about your life. Come, Holy Spirit!★

is a Good Thing IF...

If you've spent a lot of time reading about de-junking, decluttering, streamlining and simplifying and the information hasn't helped you with your issue of having too much stuff, maybe considering this will help. Having too much stuff is a good thing! Think about it. All of your stuff, your books, furniture, household utensils, food, clothes, and onand-on are answers to your desires. Even the stuff you inherited or someone gifted you; represents the answers to your desires. "Ask and it shall be given."

It's likely you are financially better off than your parents and maybe if you experienced poverty in your childhood you've had a stronger desire to have nice things, than someone who always has had them.

In the 80s, Peggy and I helped 100s of women streamline their homes through Project CHAOS (Can't Have Anyone Over Syndrome).

Many were women who had parents who lived through the Depression in the 1930s. Our mom was one who remembered that Depression and while she was always organized and never had too much stuff, she wanted to have nice things and spent her life continually improving our home and its contents.

I remember that she watched the soap operas of her day with the sound turned down so you couldn't hear what was going on. She said, "You can follow the latest fashion trends in clothing and household interiors by paying attention to the Hollywood sets and wardrobes. They hire top fashion experts and interior decorators to present the latest trends. I turn off the sound so I can concentrate on what's in." She'd watch a few episodes each season, taking copious notes in her notebook. Our home always looked like a fashion magazine spread!

Whatever your past was, it's what has lead you to now and what you have. Look what you've been able to have! In fact the more you have, the more evidence you have of your ability to fulfill your heart's desire.

The beauty of having too much stuff is that sooner or later (hopefully sooner than later when you find yourself a feature on a hoarder show) your desire to simplify your life will rear its lovely head and you'll easily go from receiving mode to giving mode! What an exquisite plan God has put in place for us.

Giving Mode

Instead of thinking of having to get rid of stuff, try thinking of getting to give away stuff. The thought 'What do I get to give away today?' has such power in it. Set your timer for 15 minutes and see how much you can collect to give away today. With that thought in mind, pull out a drawer that's crammed full of fulfilled desires, and remove all the items you haven't used in the last year. See if you can fill a box or a bag, knowing that somewhere out there someone is in desire mode and will be thrilled to get your no longer

STATEPOINT CROSSWORD • FUN IN THE SUN

needed stuff. Think of how wonderful it feels when you're in desire mode, to find something you want! Your drawers, closets and boxes filled with stuff you no longer use, are literally filled with future wonderful feelings that'll be felt by those in desire mode once you give them away. Have you ever thought that every item in your house that you no longer use, has within it the energy of joy to be experienced by its next owner?

Sacramento County DA Reports

Defendant Convicted for Multiple Sexual Assaults

DATE: June 7, 2017

CASE: Steven Anthony McCarter (Case #16FE002313)

PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Tate Davis, Adult Sexual Assault Prosecution Unit

Steven Anthony McCarter was convicted by a jury of two counts of rape by force with personal use of a deadly weapon, two counts of assault with a deadly weapon, two counts of assault by means likely to produce great bodily injury and assault with the intent to commit rape against two separate women.

On November 21, 2015, a homeless victim was sitting on a street curb near Sacramento State. McCarter offered to drive her to get food, which she accepted. McCarter then provided her with alcohol and asked her to stay in his motel room. The victim agreed to stay in his room with the understanding there would be no sex. The victim later awoke to find McCarter naked with his arms around her neck. McCarter punched and elbowed the victim in the face several times, choked her until she couldn't breathe, and wrapped his belt around her throat in an attempt to suffocate her. When the belt broke, the victim begged McCarter to stop beating her. McCarter proceeded to rape the victim twice. The victim escaped the next morning and was taken to a hospital for her injuries and a sexual assault exam. The District Attorney's Crime Lab analyzed DNA collected from the exam, which was later matched to McCarter's DNA.

On January 23, 2016, a second victim was walking and carrying grocery bags in south Sacramento. McCarter offered to give her a ride, which she accepted. The two talked about meeting again later that night. When the victim became stranded at a light rail station, she called McCarter and asked for a ride home. McCarter picked her up and drove to a liquor store. He then stated he was too drunk to drive and asked if they could stay in a motel for the night. The victim agreed with the understanding there would be no sex. When the victim was in bed, McCarter demanded she remove her clothing. When she refused, McCarter punched her in the face and hit her in the eye with a liquor bottle. The victim was able to fight McCarter off and escape. The next day, the victim went to a hospital and reported the attempted rape. She later identified McCarter in a photo lineup.

Allegations that McCarter suffered four prior convictions will be determined at sentencing.

Sentencing is set for July 14, 2017, at 10:00 a.m. in Department 17 before the Honorable Bunmi Awoniyi.

Defendant Sentenced for Attempted Murder of His Children DATE: June 7, 2017

CASE: Charles Ewers (Case #15F02083) PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Quirina Orozco, Special Assault & Child Abuse Unit

The Honorable Jaime Roman sentenced Charles Ewers to 18 years to life in prison. On May 4, 2017, Ewers pled guilty to two counts of attempted murder and admitted to two enhancements for causing great bodily injury and using a deadly weapon.

On April 4, 2015, sheriff's deputies responded to Ewers home after receiving a call from his estranged wife, who was concerned about her children after Ewers failed to return them at the agreed upon time. Deputies heard the sound of a running car motor from the garage. They forced entry into the garage, where they found two children in the car, ages 8 and 10, with bloodied heads and faces. Yellow hoses were connected from the exhaust pipe to a small opening through the rear passenger window. Deputies immediately removed the children from the vehicle. Ewers remained in the driver's seat with a replica airsoft gun on his seat before he was later removed.

Ewers admitted to deputies that he had given his children Ambien to make them drowsy and had planned to suffocate his children by carbon monoxide poisoning. When they failed to get drowsy, he used a mallet to strike them each repeatedly on their heads, causing extensive injuries to their head and bodies. After physically assaulting them, he then forced the children into his running car and told them they were all "going to Heaven."

When questioned by law enforcement, Ewers stated, "I am in control. I am not in a rage. I am in control and I am sad that it didn't work out. If I could try again, I would." He later explained that he had planned the act for several months and was looking for the right time to do it.
