species is recovering. We've also had eagles nesting at Folsom Lake for the last eight or nine years." The news comes decades after the giant birds seemed close to extinction. In years following WW II, widespread use of the DDT pesticide — absorbed by animals common to eagle diets — caused eggshell weakness and incubation failures. Bald eagles faced a bleak future. By the 1970s, less than 50 breeding pairs remained in California. The pesticide was banned in 1972. Protective laws and programs were introduced and the birds have repopulated in what could only be called a victory for conservation. "Their numbers are on the rise all across the nation," confirms Captain Jeter My American River quest to photograph the eagles began years ago. During the 2006 salmon run I heard of a juvenile near Nimbus Dam. Reports filtered in over following seasons. Early this spring, my camera trigger-finger itched when I heard a pair had alighted at Carmichael's William Pond Park. They began a nest but apparently reconsidered — possibly after a holiday weekend when scores of off-leash dogs hit the parkway. Newer hints from El Dorado Hills sent me to an eyrie built there, not by eagles but by red-tailed hawks - magnificent birds but not my Holy Grail. Weeks ago, Lake Natoma neighbors confirmed gold. A hiker swore point-blank a bald eagle had snatched a fish from the water before her astonished eyes. Then my KFBK radio editor friend Judy Farah identified a "bald" flying near the lake. I followed her directions and searched. During a recent, unforgettable sunset, my eagles landed. The couple perched 30 feet above me, mere yards from bluff-side homes. As their pompadours caught sunlight I idiotically felt like saluting. They eyed me with unconcerned majesty. I learned bluff residents had been observing these rare raptors for months.

BIG Day of Giving Raises $7.1 Million for Local Nonprofits

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) -The Sacramento region's BIG Day of Giving — the annual 24-hour giving event that was extended due to a technical interruption that impacted similar events across the country - generated a record $7.1 million in contributions to local nonprofits earlier this month, exceeding its $6 million goal and surpassing the $5.6 million raised during the giving event last year.

"Together, our community overcame unexpected obstacles and persevered - and, once again, demonstrated a truly generous spirit during BIG Day of Giving. The 570 participating nonprofits and our entire region rebounded from those technical challenges and rallied in an extraordinary way," said Linda Beech Cutler, chief executive of the Sacramento Region Community Foundation, which organizes the event with the support of its community partners.

Given the giving platform's failure during the May 3 fundraiser, the Foundation encouraged donors to give to participating nonprofits directly and elected to extend BIG Day of Giving into the following afternoon, allowing nonprofits an additional 15 hours to leverage the event's momentum. The Foundation also announced its commitment to covering the fees Kimbia assessed on donations that were made to nonprofits at www.bigdayofgiving.org. "Faced with the technology challenges on BIG Day of Giving, our region's response illustrated the essential character of this community - resilient, generous, and above all, caring," said Cutler. The disruption to the event was caused by nationwide outages on the Kimbia fundraising platform that the Foundation has used to host the region's prior successful giving days, which has raised over $9 million for local nonprofits since 2013. SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Proof of a comeback by a once-endangered species, two bald eagles have made a home on the American River's Lake Natoma. A rich habitat for North America's largest raptor, the 2,000-acre lake and surrounding reserve falls between Gold River, Folsom, and Orangevale.

On water and in surrounding suburbs, sightings of the iconic pair are being reported; naturalists hope they will breed in the state park. For this photographer, finding them on lake bluffs rewarded a long local search for the species. Our nation's proudest symbol, the bald eagle is common in more northern and mountainous areas of California. Ornithologists are thrilled to see it soaring above homes and streets near Sacramento; these birds have baldly gone where no other eagles dared.

"They're in areas where they've never been recorded before," says Captain Mark Jeter from the California Fish and Wildlife Department. "This shows how well the

State Needs to Prioritize Spending and Proceed with Caution

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Vice Chair of the Senate Budget Committee Senator Jim Nielsen (R-Gerber) issued the following statement regarding the Governor's release of his revised budget:

"Fortunately, we have a Rainy Day Fund - that we must preserve and not touch. The Rainy Day Fund is for real, catastrophic emergencies.

"We have more revenue now. but we may not sustain this amount in the future, which is why the Governor has wisely chosen to set aside money in the state's Rainy Day Fund.

"With additional money as compared to prior years, we must prioritize the basic health and life needs of California citizens.

"We should keep promises that were made to Californians in need by restoring much critical programs, not creating new ones.'

Elected to the State Senate in January 2013, Senator Nielsen represents the Fourth Senate District, which includes the counties of Butte, Colusa, Glenn, Placer, Sacramento, Sutter, Tehama and Yuba.

Budget Plan Lacking Investment Needed to Alleviate Housing Crisis

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) -California Housing Consortium Executive Director Ray Pearl released the following statement on Governor Brown's May Revision to his Fiscal Year 2016-17 budget proposal:

"California's affordable home builders appreciate Governor Brown's recognition of our state's housing affordability crisis and the hurdles local land use policies have presented to in California having enough developing affordable homes that lift families out of poverty.

"It is good to see Gov. Brown's support of funding to alleviate homelessness. But we are disappointed that his plan doesn't also restore state investment in affordable home construction that prevents people and families from becoming homeless in the first place.

"With not a single county affordable homes and apartments for people who need them, legislators must prioritize state investment in homes for veterans, elderly and disabled Californians, people in lowwage jobs and families on the brink of homelessness."

LETTER TO THE EDITOR What Did Ami Bera Know, and When Did He Know It?

By Zach Hunter, NRCC

Ami Bera claims he learned just last October of the illegal campaign finance scheme that brought nearly $270,000 into his campaign coffers, but a cursory look at the facts raises even more questions about his involvement.

In court, Ami's 83-year-old father requested a translator for the hearing and needed a cane to move about effectively, yet

Bera expects us to believe that his elderly father masterminded a massive money laundering scheme without help, including from his son?

Babulal Bera used the illegal practices widely over multiple election cycles. How could the candidate, campaign managers, and finance directors in both cycles be completely unaware of these activities as money was pouring in the door?

Did Rep. Bera ever have personal conversations with any of these donors reimbursed by his father? Did they ever mention his father's role?

Why did Babulal Bera use these practices in 2010 and 2012, but not 2014? Who put a stop to the scheme?

Clearly, recent revelations are just the tip of the iceberg.

George Runner Responds to Brown's May Budget Revise

of Equalization Member George Runner issued the following statement in response to Governor Brown's May Budget Revise:

"The governor is right to bolster our rainy day fund, as a recent report shows California isn't ready for the next recession.

"Prioritizing education by freezing tuition rates will help ease the burden on students.

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Board Great schools and good jobs are the best way to help lift struggling Californians out of poverty.

"Yet the governor's continued calls for higher taxes on cars and gas is downright disappointing. These tax hikes will hurt the very people we're trying to help.

"Before our leaders ask for even more money, they need to explain why the tax dollars we already pay haven't given us better schools and roads.

"California is collecting record revenues to the tune of $124 billion, and yet Californians continue to pay some of the highest taxes in the country."

George Runner represents more than nine million Californians as an elected member of the State Board of Equalization. For more information, visit www.boe.ca.gov/ Runner.

Senator Gaines Issues Statement on Governor's Budget Revise

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Senator Ted Gaines (R-El Dorado) issued the following statement regarding Governor Brown's revised state budget proposal:

"I think every time the Governor talks about the budget he should start with an apology to the people for supporting the money pit that is the High Speed Rail. Brown continues to sound all the right notes about fiscal discipline and debt reduction, but has the largest ever state spending plan and wants to raise taxes on transportation.

"The Legislative Analyst's Office reports that California's personal income tax collections were about $1 billion short of projections during month of April. I know the legislature will be tempted to sink every last dollar into new and ongoing spending programs – including the absurd High Speed Rail project – at a time when we should heed the LAO's warning against making 'new commitments' or else we risk difficult choices ahead.

"My constituents need tax relief, not more government spending that will be taken right out of their pockets."

The Eagles Have Landed PRO Rugby Arrives American River Hosts Rare Residents

Continued from page 1 precarious landings and perches. Unannounced lunges into the abyss indicate a fish is in sight. As predators, they are not infallible. I photographed the female circling (inadvertently buzzing a kayaker), before her talons hooked, and then dropped, a carp. Though they often hunt solo, the partners remain within calling distance of each other. They reunite chattering. Their whistles and chuck-chucks are sweet, melodious celebrations.

Is there a nest? Probably, but I suspect this couple might yet be childless. Eagles can skip a breeding year if a nest fails or eggs are lost. My photos indicate traces of juvenile plumage on the male so I theorize he might be younger than the fiveyear age for breeding. His mate appears older, larger, and dominant. Perhaps they will multiply next year.

Isolated from others of their species, the Natoma couple finds smaller raptors acceptable company. As thermal air rose above Folsom one evening, they spotted a distant gang of turkey vultures enjoying the free lift. My balds sped from the bluffs to join the rapturous rally. From a telephoto vantage, I saw them — huge and shining — in the vortex. According to eagle expert Captain Jeter, the birds employ thermal air to gain effortless height and a stable lookout for prey.

To me, it seemed like they were rejoicing in camaraderie, and in survival.

Footnote: The bald eagles frequent much of Lake Natoma State Park but Negro Bar (off Greenback Lane) is a reliable point to spot the couple. The eagles will not harm humans. They, their nests, and eggs are protected by law. Contact the author at sknrband@aol.com.★

Sacramento adds another feather to its pro sports cap with the addition of Sacramento Rugby, making it one of only five teams in the Professional Rugby Organization (PRO) — North America's newest professional sports league comprised of rugby union teams throughout the United States, with future plans to expand into Canada.

PRO is the first competitive league to be sanctioned by USA Rugby and World Rugby. With only the five teams in the league this inaugural year Sacramento is at the forefront of this growing sport. The other cities on board are San Francisco, San Diego, Denver, and Ohio.

Sacramento Rugby's first match, Sacramento Rugby vs San Francisco Rugby, will take place at Bonney Field, inside Cal Expo. Kickoff is at 4 p.m. on Sunday, April 17th. Ticket pricing starts at $25. Information and tickets are available at the gate or via Ticketmaster at www.prorugby.org.

"Sacramento is a great sports town so we are thrilled to be able to bring a team to this market. Northern California has a great climate for rugby with expansive youth programs and a long history of semi-pro teams," explained Doug Schoninger, CEO of PRO Rugby. "We look forward to engaging with the fan base here now that they have a pro team to rally around."

Many of Sacramento Rugby's team members are young men who grew up in the Sacramento region who have gone on to play in college or internationally and are lucky enough to get to come back and play pro ball here at home. "We are proud to be able to give some of these boys the chance to play pro ball right her at home in Sacramento," explained Head Coach, Luke Gross. "

Some say some of the best rugby in the United States is played in Northern California. Sacramento is proud to host a PRO Rugby team in the inaugural season. The PRO Rugby season is 12 games, half on the road and half at home. Home games will be played at Bonney Field on April 17th, May 8th, May 15th, July 9th, July 23rd and July 30th. Fans can plan to see a couple of PRO rugby games during the California State Fair, July 8th-24th, 2016.

Alcohol Ban Keeps Parkway Family Friendly

If you are planning to enjoy the American River Parkway over the Memorial Day holiday weekend, there will be a complete ban on alcohol consumption and possession both on land and in the water between Hazel and Watt avenues (an exception exists for Ancil Hoffman Golf Course).

In past years summer holiday weekends had become major problems along the American River due to excessive alcohol consumption making the parkway less of a family friendly outing because of fights, public nudity, profanity and littering. The problem was very apparent Fourth of July in 2006 when hundreds of rafters and partygoers consuming excessive amounts of alcohol created what one observer called a "chaotic scene" along a portion of the parkway.

Besides Memorial Day weekend, the restriction is also applicable for the holiday weekends of Independence Day as well as Labor Day. In addition, the Board of Supervisors delegated authority to the Director of Regional Parks in consultation with the County Executive the ability to prohibit alcohol in the Parkway on any additional days between Memorial Day and Labor Day when such a ban is needed to maintain order to address excessive alcohol consumption encouraged by social media.

After the Board restored decorum through the ban, families I have talked to have expressed appreciation for making the holiday weekend a time again for everyone to enjoy the Parkway.

IRS Seeks Volunteers for Taxpayer Advocacy Panel

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) -The Internal Revenue Service today announced it seeks civicminded volunteers to serve on the Taxpayer Advocacy Panel (TAP), a federal advisory committee that listens to taxpayers, identifies major taxpayer concerns, as well as making recommendations for improving IRS service and customer satisfaction.

The TAP provides a forum for taxpayers to raise concerns about IRS service and offer suggestions for improvement. The TAP reports annually to the Secretary of the Treasury, the IRS Commissioner and the National Taxpayer Advocate. The Office of the Taxpayer Advocate is an independent organization within the IRS that provides support for and oversight of the TAP.

"In trying to comply with an increasingly complex tax system, taxpayers may find they need different services than the IRS is currently providing," said Nina E. Olson, the National Taxpayer Advocate. "The TAP is vital because it provides the IRS with the taxpayers' perspective as well as recommendations for improvement. This helps the IRS deliver the best possible service to assist taxpayers in meeting their tax obligations."

The TAP includes members from all 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and one member abroad who represents U.S. taxpayers living overseas. Each member is appointed to represent the interests of taxpayers in his or her geographic location as well as taxpayers as a whole

To be a member of the TAP, a person must be a U.S. citizen, not be a current employee of any bureau of the Treasury Department or have worked for any bureau of the Treasury Department within three years preceding Dec. 1 of the current year, be current with his/her federal tax filing and payment obligations, be able to commit

EGA

200 to 300 volunteer hours during the year, and pass a Federal Bureau of Investigation criminal background check. Individuals who practice before the IRS must be in good standing with IRS. New TAP members will serve a three-year term starting in December 2016. Applicants chosen as alternate members will be considered to fill any vacancies that open in their areas during the next three vears.

The TAP is seeking members or alternates in the following locations: Alaska. Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Hawaii, Iowa, Indiana, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Maryland, Maine, Minnesota, Missouri, Mississippi, Montana, North Carolina, North Dakota, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New York, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Puerto Rico, South Dakota, Tennessee, Utah, Wisconsin, West Virginia and Wyoming.

Federal advisory committees are required to select members who represent a balance of perspectives. As such, individuals from underrepresented groups, Native Americans and non-tax professionals, are encouraged to apply. However, all timely applications from the locations listed above will be given consideration.

Applications for the TAP will be accepted through May 16th, 2016. You must apply online at www.usajobs.gov. For additional information about the TAP or the application process, you may visit www. improveirs.org and select the "Join TAP" tab or call (888) 912-1227 (a toll-free call) and select option number 5. You may also contact the TAP staff at taxpayeradvocacypanel@irs. gov for assistance. Callers who are outside of the U.S. and U.S. territories may call (214) 413-6523 (not a toll-free call). ### California Business Roundtable Statement on Paid Family Leave Law Signing

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Rob Lapsley, president of the California Business Roundtable, issued the following statement recently in response to Governor Jerry Brown signing AB 908 (Gomez), which expands California's paid family leave program from 55 percent wage replacement for up to six weeks to 60-70 percent, depending on income level:

"With last week's signing of $15/hour minimum wage legislation and today's signing of AB 908, businesses are being asked to take on even more costly mandates. "Moving forward, policymakers need to balance costs for all businesses, especially small businesses, by passing policies that limit litigations costs, provide workplace flexibility, streamline regulations and lower housing costs. That is the only way that we can help businesses create and grow the middle class jobs including green jobs that are the future of our state.'

The California Business Roundtable is a non-partisan organization comprised of major employers throughout the state - with a combined workforce of more than half a million employees. For nearly 40 years the Roundtable has identified the issues critical to a healthy business climate and provided the leadership needed to strengthen California's economy and create jobs.

Berryhill Reaction To Governor's Revised Budget

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Senator Tom Berryhill (R-Twain Harte) issued the following statement in response to the Governor's revised spending plan, known as the May Revision:

"He was spot on in recognizing there is a finite pot of money and that a healthy reserve will help us weather the next recession. We will see if he rejects the massive spending projects the legislature is sure to send him over the coming months.

"Budgeting is about priorities and it doesn't look like our roads and bridges are any more of a priority than they have been for 40 years - which is disappointing."

The Exciting New World of Implant Supported Dentures

• Has the Security of a Fixed Bridge! • Easier to Maintain Good Oral Hygiene

There are millions of people in the U.S. who are edentulous (meaning without teeth) who struggle daily with dentures. A majority suffer from discomfort as a result of loose or illfitting dentures. Many prosthetic wearers simply withdraw from any type of social engagement as a result of having to wear their dentures.

Lower dentures almost never fit properly. They are loose fitting due to less surface area which can't create a suction, shrinking gum tissue and bone loss, which can cause irritation in the mouth, sores and pain. The only relief is using sticky dental adhesive to help it, but it is very messy, hard to clean off and needs multiple applications throughout the day.

Upper dentures are better than lower dentures due to a suction in the upper palate that keeps the denture in place. However, having the palate covered reduces the tastes of foods and the ability to tell the temperature of foods.

Partial Dentures can be a source of discomfort due to lack of supporting teeth or an illfitting partial. Partials also use clasps to secure to existing teeth which can be noticeable and can put added pressure to the existing teeth.

Now there is a solution to these issues: Implants with "Snap On" Dentures!

Whether you are new to dentures or have worn them for years, a snap on denture is a great solution to uncomfortable chewing and slippery painful dentures. There are several types of snap on dentures available, including snap on partials. We make your denture or partial fit and function in harmony with the space available in your mouth, and give custom attention to the delicate fabrication of your snap on denture.

If you already wear a conventional denture or partial denture, we can sometimes use your denture to accommodate the snaps to fit on your new dental implants.

If you are interested in learning more about improving your quality of life with an implant retainedsnap on denture or partial, please contact us for a FREE CONSULTATION today!
