'Once in a Lifetime' Perk for Fundraiser Donors

Story and photos by Susan Maxwell Skinner

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - A Carmichael business couple recently won a chance to meet two of the NBA's greatest heroes and turn a vintage photo into an historical sports treasure.

Angela and husband Dr. Jim Sehr, owners of Advanced Home Health, Hospice and Advanced Infusion Centers, made a winning bid in a Carmichael Chamber of Commerce fundraiser auction. The prize was a 2006 photo of Vlade Divac and Peja Stojakovic, shot as the athletes fundraised for their charitable foundation with an all-star bowling tournament.

The high bidders, who paid $1,300 for the 20x30 inch photo, took it to the final 2016 Sacramento Kings game at Sleep Train Arena and managed to get it signed by a dream team of Kings veterans; including Scott Pollard, Doug Christie, Bobbie Jackson, Brad Miller and coach Rick Adelman. But the grand slam — as part of the prize — was a one-on-one meeting to get signatures from Vlade Divac and Peja Stojakovic.

The basketball rock stars were Kings' players, and best friends, during the team's glory days a decade ago. Their partnership was rebuilt last year with appointments to Kings' front office jobs. Divac, 48, recently honored as Carmichael's 2016 Person of the Year, is now general manager vice president of operations for the team. Stojakovic, 38, is director of player personnel and development.

Both of Serbian origins, the athletes have a Carmichael link through Divac's former residence in the Kingsford Way neighborhood. The friends still bring family to eat Greek at Yiannis' Restaurant on Fair Oaks Boulevard.

The Carmichael Times features more exclusive pictures for the 2016 Person of the Year gala honoring Vlade Divac on page 2.

Senator Gaines' Classic Car Collector Bill Passes

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Senator Ted Gaines (R-El Dorado) recently announced that his Senate Bill 1239, which would exempt collector vehicles manufactured prior to the 1981 model year from biennial smog-check inspections, passed out of the Senate Committee on Transportation and Housing with bipartisan support and is now on its way to the Senate Committee on Appropriations.

"Collector cars and trucks are a unique and important part of California history and need to be preserved," said Senator Gaines. "Extending the exemption to 1981 is a common-sense way to encourage that these vehicles remain on display for all to see, drive and enjoy."

Current law allows smog-check exemptions for classic or collector cars for vehicles model year 1975 or older. However, there are many vehicles that were built after 1975 that are currently owned and operated as collector cars, such as late seventies and early eighties Corvettes, Mustangs and Mopars. Many of these vehicles are featured in classic car shows and community parades and events throughout California that help support the economy.

In order to qualify for the exemption, owners of classic and collector vehicles must insure their cars with collector car insurance. Collector car insurance places specific mileage restrictions on the vehicles, as dictated by the insurance company. Vehicles are often limited to a usage cap of around 5,000 miles in a year. This ensures the integrity of the vehicle stays intact, as well as minimizes the environmental impact that the smog check regulates.

According to the Association of California Car Clubs, there are approximately 162,000 vehicles with model years covered by this bill. Compared to the approximately 27 million motor vehicles in California, this bill will provide an exemption to just over one half of one percent of vehicles on the road today.

Senator Ted Gaines represents the 1st Senate District, which includes all or parts of Alpine, El Dorado, Lassen, Modoc, Nevada, Placer, Plumas, Sacramento, Shasta, Sierra and Siskiyou counties.

The Power of Music Closes Generation Gap

River City Chorale's Spring Concert to Feature Two Young Singers

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The younger generation cannot imagine a world without social media, while those of us over a certain age may not be fluent with anything beyond email, but there is one thing that we all understand: the power of music.

While styles may be different, it is still possible to span the years separating younger and older singers with beautiful choral music. Come hear it for yourself, when the Madrigal Choir of Del Campo High School, conducted by Pam Mitchell, joins with the long established River City Chorale in its Spring Concert, April 29th and May 1st.

The program will also feature two teenage soloists: Shelby Pierce, alto, and Colin Regan, baritone. Shelby has been singing since she was about 4-years-old. She enjoys many genres of music, but her heart belongs to Broadway. Her goal is to go to performing arts school and major in music. Shelby is a junior at Del Campo High School. Colin sings with the Waldorf High School Choir at the George Washington Carver School of Arts and Sciences. He plays a number of musical instruments and is an award-winning tap dancer and Irish Dancer. Colin is also a writer, and his greatest dream is to write film scores for movies.

The River City Chorale has, in the last year, launched a Young Artists Program, the goal of which is to provide young singers with the opportunity to perform for audiences beyond their high school friends and family, as well as to have the opportunity to sing with an established adult group with professional accompaniment. They trust that it will be a joyful and productive meeting of music lovers across the generations!

The River City Chorale is the longest existing community choir in the greater Sacramento area; it is entering its 40th year of providing beautiful and accessible music at convenient venues. Fifty-five voices strong, the Chorale is well known for offering eclectic programs of both secular and sacred music that appeal to a very wide audience. Conducted by the talented Richard Morrissey and accompanied by the highly skilled Theresa Keene, there will surely be something for everyone to enjoy.

The Friday, April 29th concert will be held at Northminster Presbyterian Church, 3235 Pope Avenue, Sacramento, starting at 7:30 pm. On Sunday, May 1st, the venue is the First Baptist Church of Fair Oaks, 4401 San Juan Avenue, starting at 4 p.m. Tickets are $15 in advance; $20 at the door. Tickets for children under 12 are $5. Parking is free. Go to www.RiverCityChorale.org or call (916) 331-5810.

Kings fans, for 25 years, Angela and Dr. Sehr use their season tickets for time off from running health centers in Sacramento, San Diego and Vallejo. Angela has carried a torch for Stojakovic since his time as a famous Kings small forward. "I told him he was my secret boyfriend," she confessed after meeting her towering heroes last week.

"Peja and Vlade were kind and friendly; they even signed caps for my sons." Just returned from a business-trip to China, 6-foot-10-inch Peja was able to share a few words of Mandarin with his Chinese-born fan. Meeting the two stars, said Angela, was "a once in a life-time experience."

"I'll have their picture framed for my office," she considered. "So I can look at them all day." ★

CARMICHAEL COMMUNITY UPDATE

By County Supervisor Susan Peters

Through the generosity of the Carmichael Times, this column serves to provide an update about matters affecting the unincorporated community of Carmichael.

District Attorney to Speak at May Community Meetings

District Attorney Anne Marie Schubert along with members of her Community Prosecutorial Team will be the featured speakers at my next series of community meetings for the month of May in Arden Arcade and Carmichael.

Recently with support from the Board of Supervisors, the District Attorney entered into an agreement with Motel 6 for the company to take corrective measures in response to the excessive number of calls for service the motel chain generated involving domestic abuse, prostitution, drugs, etc. (you may recall that in October 2014, Sacramento County Deputy Danny Oliver was murdered at a Motel 6 in Arden Arcade — that motel has since been torn down). As we researched the problem, it became apparent that Sheriff Deputies were frequently being called to respond to problems at these motels and many other old motels taking deputies away from patrolling our neighborhoods. One location had in excess of 300 calls for services. On average Motel 6 had almost 10 calls for each of its 550 rooms located in the County. As a result of the agreement, Motel 6 will be using armed security guards, conduct guest background checks, and ban nighttime visitors.

The meeting for the Arden Arcade area will be held at 6 p.m. at the Conzelmann Community Center located in Howe Park, 2201 Cottage Way, on Wednesday, May 11th. The meeting for Carmichael will be held Thursday, May 19th, at the Mission Oaks Community Center, 4701 Gibbons Drive, also at 6 p.m.

For a complete listing of my all community meetings, please visit my webpage at www.bos.saccounty.net.

Antiques, Bubbles and Brunch

The Carmichael Parks Foundation will kick off its first annual fundraising event “Antiques, Bubbles & Brunch” at the Milagro Experience on Sunday, May 1st, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The event is part antiques roadshow and part culinary experience — and will showcase to the community Carmichael’s newest and highly anticipated event center at Milagro Centre. Proceeds will benefit the Carmichael Recreation and Parks District’s youth scholarships and beautification projects. The day will feature one-on-one antique appraisals from accredited appraisers, complimentary bubbles, a brunch menu from the Milagro Experience, and a cash bar.

The Carmichael Parks Foundation is a nonprofit organization committed entirely to the mission of building and maintaining Carmichael’s parks and ensuring the community’s youth have quality recreational activities. For more information, please visit www.carmichaelparksfoundation.org.

Office Hours Return

During May, I will be returning to Carmichael Park setting up my “office” at the Farmers’ Market from 9:30 to 11 a.m. on Sunday, May 1st, to provide residents the opportunity to visit with me and talk about issues without the need of having to make an appointment downtown at the County Administration Center.

I started holding “Office Hours” in 2005 and now it is an on-going program. In March, I kicked off my 2016 “Office Hours” series starting at Howe Park during the annual fishing derby hosted by the Fulton-El Camino Recreation and Park District. Later that month I moved my “office” to Carmichael Park for the annual egg hunt sponsored by the Carmichael Recreation and Park District.

Please stop by when you are shopping for fresh fruits and vegetables that morning at the Carmichael’s Farmers’ Market. Appointments will be handled on a first served basis.

Sacramento County DA Reports

50 Years to Life and for First-Degree Murder and 15 Years to Life for Second Degree Murder

CASE: Luther Frazier

PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Kevin Greene, Homicide Unit
The Honorable Helena Gweon sentenced Luther Frazier to 50 years to life in prison. On March 10, 2016, a jury convicted Frazier of first-degree murder. The jury also found true a use of a firearm allegation.

Frazier purchased heroin from the victim, Shaun Blechinger, over several months. After a while, Frazier allowed the victim to use his car in exchange for heroin. When the victim wrecked Frazier's car, he would not pay for the damage. Frazier then stole his father's gun and went over to the victim's residence to collect the money. The two of them met outside in an alley, where they exchanged words. When the victim was walking back to his apartment, Frazier shot him six times, killing him.

CASE: Montrell Woods

PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Kevin Greene, Homicide Unit
The Honorable Allen Sumner sentenced Montrell Woods to 40 years to life in prison. On February 8, 2016, a jury convicted Woods of second-degree murder in the shooting death of Kenny Hernandez. Woods was also convicted of being a felon in possession of a firearm.

On January 22, 2014, Mr. Hernandez was helping family members move into an apartment on Ethan Way when he bumped into Woods. The two got into an argument. Woods then pulled out a .38 handgun and shot Mr. Hernandez in the chest. Mr. Hernandez died while being transported to the hospital; his mother and girlfriend were with him when he passed away.

CASE: Ernest Salmons

PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Thomas Asker, Homicide Unit
The Honorable Ernest Sawtelle sentenced Ernest Salmons to 15 years to life in prison. On March 8, 2016, a jury convicted Salmons of second-degree murder.

Salmons was cellmates with Edward Larson at the Sacramento County Jail. On December 14, 2014, Salmons informed jail staff that Mr. Larson was not moving. Mr. Larson was cold to the touch and stiff. Medical personnel responded immediately, but efforts to revive Mr. Larson were futile. There was no apparent evidence of a struggle or blood in the cell. When the cell was processed with a latent blood reagent, significant blood traces were revealed, including a large pool of blood on the floor along the wall next to the bunk. Blood collected and tested by the District Attorney's Crime Lab confirmed it was Mr. Larson's blood.

The coroner concluded Mr. Larson died from blunt force injuries inflicted by an assault. Among other injuries, Mr. Larson suffered lacerations to the liver, and sustained nine broken ribs on his right side and seven broken ribs on his left side.

In an interview with detectives, Salmons indicated he slapped Mr. Larson twice with an open hand and kicked him once. He stated Mr. Larson hit his head a few times by his own volition. ★

SCSO Caps 20th Season with European Masterworks and New CD Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG)

- Conductor Donald Kendrick and the SCSO plan to cap their landmark 20th season on May 14th at 8 p.m. at the Sacramento Community Center Theater with a performance featuring three contrasting choral orchestral works by Haydn, Vaughan Williams, and Dvorak. But the celebration doesn't end there! The evening will also serve as a huge CD release party as the SCSO plans to unveil its 9th professionally mastered CD — Carmina Burana II — at this year-end performance.

Haydn's Harmoniemesse will serve as the evening's main musical fare, complemented by Vaughan Williams' An Oxford Elegy, and Dvorak's Psalm 149 on the first half of the concert.

"The Harmoniemesse will bring back so many warm memories as this was the amazing work that we featured during our first self-funded European tour to Munich, Prague, Vienna, and Budapest in 2004," said Conductor Donald Kendrick. Four outstanding soloists and narrator Phillip Rider will join the SCSO Team on stage for this performance.

"A post concert reception, projected supertitle translations, and Don Kendrick's electric and educational pre-concert talk at 7 p.m. will enhance the evening's enjoyment for our concert attendees," added SCSO Board Member Charlene Black.

According to SCSO President James McCormick, "Our new CD is a live recording of our very well-received Carmina Burana performance on March 5th, 2016 at the Community Center Theater. We're thrilled that the CD will also showcase the American premiere of English composer Jonathan Dove's Psalms for Leo. The amazing 12-page color CD insert promises to add great value to the CD itself."

SCSO European Masterworks tickets are $30 to $45 with a 50 percent discount for students. For tickets, call the Sacramento Community Center Box Office at (916) 808-5181 or visit sacramento-choral.com for both tickets and information.

For more information about this press release, please contact Jeannie Brown, Director of Marketing at (916) 496-0175 or President, James McCormick at (916) 536-9065.

The Four Ps from an Organized Gardener

It's spring! Yay! But if we SHEs (Sidetracked Home Executives) aren't careful and plan ahead, we can get into a lot of trouble at the nursery. All the more reason to be organized not just with housecleaning, but with gardening. This time of year the nurseries are teaming with flowers that beseech us like friendly puppies at the Humane Society to take them home. And we are like busy bees around

Make It Fun and It Will Get Done!
The Secret to Being Organized

Pam Young's Corner
Four Keys to Being Organized in Your Garden

those beautiful flowers. After all, we survived winter and we're sick of gray and ready for sunny colors.

A good rule of your green thumb is Plan, Prepare, Purchase, Plant. If you try to prepare and plant at the same time, you'll poop out and then those plants that you've taken into your care face possible death. Of course it's not pre-meditated, but the plants will be just as dead.

Death by good intention

Have you ever seen a honey bee that's got so much pollen on her feet and thighs that she can barely fly? I often wonder if some of them never make it back to their hives they're so overloaded; kind of like when you've eaten way too much.

But like those bees, we can get carried away buying more than we can plant. We fly home with our trunks full of flats of flowers and the optimism we'll plant them all TODAY. But so often we poop out in the middle of the plant and the remaining purchase is at the mercy of our next planting mood which can easily result in death of the remaining purchase.

Four Keys all start with a P

Key 1 Plan~

Divide your yard into zones. When you divide up a project into manageable parts you won't get overwhelmed. Figure out what you'd like to have brighten each zone and write down how many of each plant you want. It'll be like a grocery list. Don't plan another zone until you've finished planting one you've planned. I like to add at least one perennial each year (those are the plants that come back) in each of my zones.

Key 2 Prepare~

Prepare the soil and even dig the holes before you head to the nursery. This is a crucial P!

Key 3 Purchase~

Take your list and limit what you buy to the amount of holes you've already dug. Don't be tempted while you're in the beauty of all the colors and fragrances to over-buy your holes! You don't have to stick to the exact kind of flowers on your list, just the number of plants.

Key 4 Plant~

When you actually get to plant, (which is as soon as you get home from buying the plants, since you've already prepared where you want to plant them) you'll be so happy with yourself for doing all the hard work first. And you won't have the guilt that comes with unintentionally killing innocent plants out in their tiny pots without water. (It's just easy to forget when you get tired and the plants are out of sight, out of mind.)

This year I've turned one of my pet peeves into an advantage. We have a big meadow and every spring the moles convene like they're at a great, annual mole convention. Their underground social network rivals Face Book. They seem to converge on our meadow about when the grass starts growing. As I walked through the grass and inspected the hills, I noticed how rich the dirt was and I thought, 'I should use it when planting flowers in the beds that have a great deal of clay.' I went to my local nursery and asked what I could add to the mole dirt to make it as good as a commercial potting soil.

On my website, I show you on a video, exactly how to turn mole dirt into luscious potting soil. It's easy and cheap! Here's the link to that video. <http://blog.cluborganized.com/being-organized-in-your-garden-0>

The Exciting New World of Implant Supported Dentures

• Has the Security of a Fixed Bridge! • Easier to Maintain Good Oral Hygiene

There are millions of people in the U.S. who are edentulous (meaning without teeth) who struggle daily with dentures. A majority suffer from discomfort as a result of loose or illfitting dentures. Many prosthetic wearers simply withdraw from any type of social engagement as a result of having to wear their dentures.

Lower dentures almost never fit properly. They are loose fitting due to less surface area which can't create a suction, shrinking gum tissue and bone loss, which can cause irritation in the mouth, sores and pain. The only relief is using sticky dental adhesive to help it, but it is very messy, hard to clean off and needs multiple applications throughout the day.

Upper dentures are better than lower dentures due to a suction in the upper palate that keeps the denture in place. However, having the palate covered reduces the tastes of foods and the ability to tell the temperature of foods.

Partial Dentures can be a source of discomfort due to lack of supporting teeth or an illfitting partial. Partials also use clasps to secure to existing teeth which can be noticeable and can put added pressure to the existing teeth.

Now there is a solution to these issues: Implants with "Snap On" Dentures!

Whether you are new to dentures or have worn them for years, a snap on denture is a great solution to uncomfortable chewing and slippery painful dentures. There are several types of snap on dentures available, including snap on partials. We make your denture or partial fit and function in harmony with the space available in your mouth, and give custom attention to the delicate fabrication of your snap on denture.

If you already wear a conventional denture or partial denture, we can sometimes use your denture to accommodate the snaps to fit on your new dental implants.

If you are interested in learning more about improving your quality of life with an implant retained snap on denture or partial, please contact us for a FREE CONSULTATION today!
