Classic AUTOMOTIVE CAR SHOW

CARMICHAEL ELKS LODGE PRESENTS THEIR 4TH ANNUAL EXTRAVAGANZA!

Start Your Engines

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Carmichael Elks Lodge presents their fourth annual Classic Car Show. The April 23rd car extravaganza will feature muscle cars, pickup trucks, hot rods, customized rat rods, cruisers and more. This event will roll in the classic collectors — vintage years 1919 through 1975. Make sure to fuel up beforehand, as the event will rev its engine from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Owners of late model non-show competition cars are invited to display in the parking lot facing Cypress Avenue. Show cars will be displayed in the spacious and shady back yard featuring a wide variety of vehicles entered into the judging contest, from many of the local car clubs, for your viewing pleasure. This year, the Lodge anticipates more than 100 cars will be scattered throughout the property, as well as various car parts and merchandise vendor booths.

For early-birds that want to enter their cars and get the best shady parking spots, it is recommend that you arrive at sunrise — parking starts at 7 a.m., but the motto at the show is “those who arrive together park together.” Some show up well before 7 a.m., others arrive much later. Just be sure to be there by 10 a.m., as events start then. The gates open to the public at 8 a.m. Lunch starts around 11:30 a.m., and judging around 1:30 p.m.

Speaking of lunch, one of the coolest vendors in town, Drewski's Hot Rod Kitchen, will be serving up delicious eats. The Hot Rod Kitchen will whet appetites with their famous tots served with rosemary and garlic, their pulled pork mac n' cheese will also be on the menu, along with their must have S'moreski (a whipped marshmallow, Nutella, graham cracker, mouthwatering combo). This is the first year the Hot Rod Kitchen will be at the show, and it's sure to be a highly appreciated addition.

While early registration for cars has already passed, you can register all the way up to the day of the event. Day of show entrants pay the $5 regular Continental breakfast price, including coffee service.

The purpose of the show is to raise funds for the Lodge Beautification Project that will allow the Carmichael Elks to increase memberships and provide more capacity to hold charitable events for the benefit of the community. All cash donations and/or unique raffle prize donations are gratefully accepted! Last year, donated bottles of wine and spirits were raffled off and that raffle netted $100 for the Lodge's fund!

Raffle prizes, guessing games, 50/50 drawing, and kids' activities all make this event a fun time for the whole family. This year, the show will have a “Guess the Running Time” game, where a VW engine will be ran without oil in it. Those who want to buy a $5 ticket to enter the guessing game can pick the number of minutes that the engine will run before seizing up. Winner gets to split all the game's ticket sales 50/50.

General admission to this fun filled event is free! Car display spaces are $30 this year and include complementary goodie bags. Vendor booths are available from $40.

For additional information contact Carmichael Elks Lodge located at 5631 Cypress Avenue, Carmichael, Calif., 95608, via phone at (916) 489-2103 or via email carmelks@comcast.net.

It's Pothole "Sweep" Time Again

There are over 5,200 lane miles of paved roadways in the County's unincorporated area and it's inevitable that somewhere in this large infrastructure of streets there will be potholes.

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento County Department of Transportation (SACDOT) will start its “Spring 2016 - Pothole Sweeps Week,” on Monday, April 18th, 2016. This is an intensified effort to identify and repair potholes, and is part of continuous efforts to improve preventative maintenance activities for unincorporated area roadways. Pothole sweeps weeks are performed twice each year: in late spring to repair potholes caused by inclement weather; and in early winter to ready road surfaces for the storm season.

Residents are encouraged to contact Sacramento County concerning potholes on neighborhood streets. To report a pothole residents can call 311 (or 875-4311) or report online at www.311.saccounty.net. This County-wide effort will begin in the Arden Arcade community -- which is the center of our service area -- and will continue through the remainder of the unincorporated area.

There are over 5,200 lane miles of paved roadways in the County's unincorporated area and it's inevitable that somewhere in this large infrastructure of streets there will be potholes. SACDOT's policy is to: “Repair all potholes as soon as possible.” The Pothole Sweeps Week program enhances ongoing pavement maintenance activities, which include SACDOT crews who are sent into the field Monday through Friday each week to specifically repair potholes. Some facts about potholes in Sacramento County:

- Potholes Reported To Customer Service Annually = 970.
  - Potholes Repaired Annually = 41,000.
  - Potholes Repaired Per Month = 3,400.
  - Annual Cost for Pothole Repair = $2.8 million.
  - Square feet of potholes repaired annually = 94,000.
  - Repair Cost Per Square Foot = $30.
  - Repair cost per pothole = $68.
  - Reported potholes are typically repaired within 72 hours.

Story and photos by Susan Maxwell Skinner

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - A local take on television's Antiques Roadshow will hit town on May 1st. Collectors may bring treasures for evaluation during an Antiques, Bubbles, and Brunch affair at the Milagro Center. Carmichael Parks Foundation will host the May 1st fundraiser.

Filling Sacramento's newest event venue with relics is not so off the wall. Milagro Center owner Allan Davis and his late wife Nancy were antique dealers and passionate collectors. Davis said, "I will love having fine old things under our fine new roof. Events that celebrate history and culture are part of our vision for Milagro. That the event benefits the community, is another bonus."

Milagro Center restaurants will provide food, beer, and champagne for the brunch event, scheduled between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. The $45 admission allows appraisal of two items. Additional antiques can be appraised for $15 each. A $100 VIP ticket offers early admission and evaluation for four items. Latecomers may skip the brunch and bring treasures for $15 per item after 3 p.m.

Proceeds will enable park beautification and provide scholarships for sport, reading, and language programs at the park district. For information, visit www.carmichaelparkfoundation.org.

Tickets may also be purchased at Carmichael Park headquarters: 5750 Grant Avenue. ★

Local Catholic Women Honored for Their Service

By Jan Dalske

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Since 1955, when the first Woman of the Year Luncheon celebration was held, many outstanding women in the Sacramento area Catholic women's groups have been honored for their service to their church communities. The parishes are each asked to select the woman in their parish who has gone beyond what was expected of her with her activities in their women's group. The Carmichael area parishes, St. John the Evangelist and Our Lady of the Assumption have selected three women to honor for their exceptional service.

Theresa Gamble has the respect and love from her sister Catholic Daughters of the Americas members of Court #2392, Our Lady of Wisdom which meets at the St. John Vianney Parish. Theresa is the mother of six children, grandmother of twelve, and great grandmother of twelve. Theresa has enjoyed parish work since the early 1970s while participating as a sacristan at St. Philomene Parish. She taught Family Faith Formation at both Holy Cross and St. John the Evangelist Parish, where she is a lector and Eucharistic minister. Theresa has served as the treasurer, secretary, and trustee in many other organizations. In 1972, she was the regent for CDA Court #1890 where her mother was the founding Regent. Theresa retired from the California Highway Patrol, and, since then, has enjoyed volunteer work at Wellspring and Sister Nora's. She has assisted with many of the Catholic Daughters Court activities, including chairing various fundraising events and working with the funeral reception program. She is especially proud of being a consecrated person with Opus Sanctorum Angelorum whose works promote the work of the Holy Angels. One of their main charisms is prayer for priests. Congratulations to Theresa for your distinguished faith and many years of dedicated and energetic service.

Our Lady of the Assumption's Martha and Mary's Ministry is pleased to have Shirley Whitfield as their Woman of the Year. She was honored for her dedication and love of their parish and community. Shirley volunteers in the parish office several days every week while sharing her love and faith with those whom she comes in contact with. Her secretarial skills are key to assisting the Pastor and the staff in many aspects of parish responsibilities. Shirley is an active member of the Liturgy Committee, Legion of Mary, and Martha and Mary's Ministry. She spends time with Our Lord during the weekly Adoration of the Blessed Sacramento. Each weekday morning you will find Shirley serving as the parish Sacristan. Every Thursday morning she assists Father at a local senior Residence with mass and distribution of Holy Communion. Because of Shirley's continual service and dedication to the needs of the parish Our Lady of the Assumption is able to meet the needs of the parishioners and community members.

St. John the Evangelist is proud to announce their honoree for Woman of the Year is Angie Carlton, with over fifty years of service to the parish, school and community. Angie and her husband Jack became active members of the Parish in 1963. She is involved in many ministries, and uses her training as an RN in the Health Ministry.

She volunteers as the school librarian, was an RCIA Sponsor, and serves as a Eucharist Minister in the Funeral Bereavement Ministry and also on the Altar Society. St. John's is thankful for Angie & her husband Jack's more than fifty years of loving service. Angie's devotion to her Faith, Family & Parish makes her a role model of strong Christian values and an ideal Woman of the Year for St. Johns Parish.

Cheryl Carter is Woman of the Year for Catholic Daughters Court# 1890, a group she has belonged to for over 30 years. She has held many offices from financial treasurer to sunshine chair and is currently court treasurer. She has participated in most of the fundraisers. Cheryl has been a Eucharistic Minister taking Holy Communion to homebound and to skilled nursing facilities and also to her mother, Gloria Plog, when she was ill. Cheryl works as a licensed Home Healthcare Worker and her services are in demand because of her kindness and thoroughness. She is wonderful when working with senior citizens as she is patient and will take care of their needs without question. Cheryl earned her degree as a single mom while her children were in school. She actively coached her 3 children in 4H, Scouting and Soccer. This year Cheryl's house burned to the ground. She lost physical memories but not her long lasting spirit to overcome all obstacles and keep her faith in God.

The Sacramento Deanery of Catholic Women is proud to have such fine examples of women who make a difference not only in their families, but in their church and our communities. Thank you, Theresa, Shirley, Angie, and Cheryl. ★

Disney's Latest 'Jungle Book' an Instant Classic

By David Dickstein

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - If it was paid to just an animated Disney classic, respect from the new live-action adaptation of "The Jungle Book" would be impressive enough. But under the tender, loving care of director Jon Favreau ("Elf," "Iron Man"), the latest remake procreated by Walt Disney's golden vault generously hands out nods of admiration and deference to other source materials.

Foremost is Rudyard Kipling's cherished collection of stories. Dating back to 1893, these tales introduced readers to the adventures of Mowgli, an abandoned "man-cub" who is raised by wolves in the Indian jungle. Secondly are the countless species of animals that adhere to what the Bombay-born English writer called the "law of the jungle," a general moral code to maintain order in the wild.

Innumerable as adaptations of the Indian jungle-set adventure are, film-wise as early as 1942, the world should make room for at least one more. The blend of CGI animals and landscapes with a real-life Mowgli (newcomer Neel Sethi, the film's only non-animated character) is not only seamless, but the fact that the entire movie was "filmed in downtown Los Angeles," as a title card at the close of the end credits reads, makes this wildly entertaining, fast-paced picture even more astounding.

Fans of Disney's beloved 1967 animated treasure should rejoice; the new iteration isn't one of those cash cow-exploiting modernizations, but a high-tech homage to the family movie that gave us such classic tunes as "The Bare Necessities," "Trust in Me," and "I Wan'na Be Like You." In fact, each of those songs is dusted off in one fashion or another — maybe not as magically and comically as when fun-loving Phil Harris, slithering Sterling Holloway and swinging Louis Prima lent their pipes, but Bill Murray, Scarlett Johansson, and Christopher Walken fit in nicely for a darker, more realistic version right for these times.

Perhaps "The Jungle Book" (opened April 15th) can thank "The Lion King" for preparing audiences for a less-silly version of what we grew up with. A flashback of when Mowgli becomes orphaned at the claws of merciless Bengal tiger Shere Khan (Idris Elba) is similar in nature to when Simba loses his dad Mufasa in that other jungle-set Disney movie. But scarier run-ins lay ahead as the sage black panther Bagheera (Ben Kingsley) guides a reluctant Mowgli to the "man village" to lead a more normal life now that he's 10-years-old and, more importantly, is on top of Shere Khan's hit list. This rendering of King Louie, the self-proclaimed "jungle VIP," is also more foreboding this go-around as a Bornean orangutan-resembling Gigantopithecus (picture a Tangled-colored King Kong) deliciously voiced by Walken playing up his off-kilter, New York tough guy speech pattern. 4 1/2 of 5 Stars. ★

By Pam Young

1. You are denying disorganization is affecting your life in a negative way.
2. You are comparing your organizational skills to reality show hoarders.
3. You are blaming your family for the mess you're in.
4. You are minimizing the problem and the gifts you possess to solve them.

In Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) it speaks of the four defenses an alcoholic uses while he/she continues to drink. In Get Your Act Together, I wrote how SHEs (Sidetracked Home Executives) use the same defenses to remain in a mess.

There is really no difference except for the outcome... drunk or disorderly. Like an alcoholic, once a SHE stops using the four defenses, she is then able to change. Could one of these defenses be holding you back from the life you want to live?

1. Denial

You probably don't deny you're in a mess, but I know when I was living in chaos, I acted like it didn't, bother me. Haven't you heard the classic messy person's excuse for a messy desk say, "I know where everything is on my desk!" Yeah right! Denial!

I also remember a constant desire

Make It Fun and It Will Get Done!

The Secret to Being Organized

Pam Young's Corner

Four Reasons You're STILL Disorganized!

to get out of the house and go play. My three kids and I spent much of our time outside where I didn't have to face the mess in the house. While at the park it was easy to deny I had a problem, but I always had to come home to the truth.

2. Rationalization

If you find yourself making excuses by comparing yourself to someone you know who is more disorganized than you, it probably makes you feel better, but it won't help you change. Don't watch those reality shows featuring hoarders and extremely weird people. You are not like that. (If you are, my writing will not help you very much. The hoarders I've seen in my career helping SHEs, have severe mental disorders and I'm not a psychiatrist so I have no business trying to help those people.)

I think you just want to be organized just enough to have a neat, cozy, peaceful home to play in with your family.

3. Projection

Blame is a great defense. "I didn't do it, he did it!" Blame the mess on the kids. Blame it on your husband.

Blame it on your mom because she didn't teach you. Blame will give you years of status quo.

4. Minimization

I'm guilty of minimizing disorganization, but mainly because I've learned that most of us SHEs make such a big deal about it, we can afford a little of this defense as long as we seek to be organized just enough to please us.

On the same subject, we SHEs tend to minimize our talents and God-given gifts of creativity, and fun-loving spirits. I knew in the depths of my pippen days that if I used my creativity, I could get out of the mess I was in and have enough money to hire a person to help with the houseworkpart of running a home.

If you've made the decision to get organized (I hope it's going to be just enough to please you) and you drop your defenses, take on the project with joy. Decide to have fun on this project.

Treat it like a hobby. Ask for help from BOs (Born Organized) who come by it naturally. Don't allow anyone to cause you to doubt your ability to succeed. Change for selfish reasons...to be free to play, and enjoy the liberation of knowing you are on top of the game, not floundering somewhere underneath it.

For more from Pam Young go to www.cluborganized.com. You'll find many musings, videos of Pam in the kitchen preparing delicious meals, videos on how to get organized, ways to lose weight and get your finances in order, all from a reformed SLOB's point of view. ★ you grab them, throw them and hold them down. This is conducive to abrasions, muscle strain, and involuntarily changing the color of your shirt.

As you get older, you get to handle the branding iron, then move up to giving shots. After that comes earmarking. When you reach the pinnacle of branding, that is, when you own the calves, then you get to rope the calves and drag them up to the fire.

It is a swirling cauldron of heat and hooves, excited cow-dogs and bawling cows. There is the smell of manure and singed hair and sweat and corral dust.

At the Rafter E, I wielded a syringe as the youngsters got their teeth rattled by the heavy stuff.

Wasn't the first time I'd given the shots, though. Once during a branding at the Triangle Cross, I was about to immunize a calf when the calf jumped and I stuck the needle into my thumb.

Hurt like the dickens, of course, but at least it was effective. I haven't had black leg since.

The Home Country radio show will be coming soon to a radio station near you! New, from Syndication Networks. ★

When the Rafter E branded recently, a bunch of us went out to help. It's a badge of pride to have worked your way up the branding ladder.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF MARIE GRACE ZWIERZYNSKI (descendant)
 ESTATE NO. 34-2015-00183027

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, and contingent creditors of and persons who may be otherwise interested in the will or estate, or both of Marie Grace Zwierzynski (deceased): A Petition has been filed by Robert Tripp in the Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, requesting that Robert Tripp be appointed as Executor to administer the estate of the decedent. The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the executor to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the executor will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or have consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A hearing on the petition will be held in this court as follows: May 5, 2016 9:00 a.m. in Dept. No. 129 at Ridgeway Family Relations Courthouse, 3341 Power Inn Road, Sacramento, CA 95826. IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law. YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. # Person of the Year Gala Packs Milagro Event Center

More exclusive pictures from the Person of the Year gala at Carmichael's Milagro Centre will run in the Carmichael Times next week.

For this issue, Susan Maxwell Skinner presents this report on Carmichael's big night.

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Long-awaited, much-anticipated, the Milagro Centre moved closer to a summer opening with last week's Carmichael Chamber of Commerce community gala. The awards dinner, honoring NBA legend Vlade Divac, was held in the Milagro Experience event center.

The party sold out; 215 guests were not just eager to meet the basketball hero, but the promise of an inside look at Milagro was another draw.

Though part of the center remains unfinished, the ballroom does not disappoint. Modern-glam chandeliers light black and silver decor. Table settings glitter with bling accents. Massive T.V. screens on three walls allow easy views of event progress. A farm-to-fork dinner featured goat cheese salad, tender beef, and a profiterole dessert labelled "Serbian doughnuts."

The event's celebrated Serb fulfilled expectations with his availability for every selfie-taker or autograph seeker in the room. Evincing goodwill for the community he once called home, basso profundo speech rattled wine glasses. Both Divac and the Milagro developer, Allan Davis, were awarded standing ovations.

Evening emcee was KFBK's Kitty O'Neal. Carmichael-raised former Sheriff John McGinness did auction honors. Fellow broadcaster Kelly Brothers welcomed Divac on stage with tales of their long friendship. Fellow honorees were State Farm Insurance broker Jennifer Knighten (Young Professional of the Year) and Tiner Properties (Business of the Year). Carmichael's hard-working Kiwanis Club was acclaimed Non-Profit of the Year.

Event sponsors included: Sacramento Kings, SMUD, Milagro Properties, Dignity Health Mercy San Juan Medical Center and Advanced Home Health Care and Hospice. Sean Minor Wines and Hoppy Brewing Company were beverage sponsors. Printing was supplied by Carmichael Copy Plus. ★

Basketball superstar Vlade Divac takes the Milagro podium to accept the honor of Carmichael Person of the Year (above).

Angela and Jim Sehr, owners of Advanced Home Hospice, were among successful bidders at the fundraiser auction (left).

Young Professional of the Year Jennifer Knighten (State Farm Insurance) brought newborn son Jerry James. Also sharing mommy's big night were Jennifer's dad Scott Monopoli and husband Nate Knighten (right).

The Exciting New World of Implant Supported Dentures

- Has the Security of a Fixed Bridge! • Easier to Maintain Good Oral Hygiene

There are millions of people in the U.S. who are edentulous (meaning without teeth) who struggle daily with dentures. A majority suffer from discomfort as a result of loose or illfitting dentures. Many prosthetic wearers simply withdraw from any type of social engagement as a result of having to wear their dentures.

Lower dentures almost never fit properly. They are loose fitting due to less surface area which can't create a suction, shrinking gum tissue and bone loss, which can cause irritation in the mouth, sores and pain. The only relief is using sticky dental adhesive to help it, but it is very messy, hard to clean off and needs multiple applications throughout the day.

Upper dentures are better than lower dentures due to a suction in the upper palate that keeps the denture in place. However, having the palate covered reduces the tastes of foods and the ability to tell the temperature of foods.

Partial Dentures can be a source of discomfort due to lack of supporting teeth or an illfitting partial. Partials also use clasps to secure to existing teeth which can be noticeable and can put added pressure to the existing teeth.

Now there is a solution to these issues: Implants with "Snap On" Dentures!

Whether you are new to dentures or have worn them for years, a snap on denture is a great solution to uncomfortable chewing and slippery painful dentures. There are several types of snap on dentures available, including snap on partials. We make your denture or partial fit and function in harmony with the space available in your mouth, and give custom attention to the delicate fabrication of your snap on denture.

If you already wear a conventional denture or partial denture, we can sometimes use your denture to accommodate the snaps to fit on your new dental implants.

If you are interested in learning more about improving your quality of life with an implant retained snap on denture or partial, please contact us for a FREE CONSULTATION today!
