Church Fair Offers a Crafty Christmas

Story and photos by Susan Maxwell Skinner

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - St John the Evangelist School's annual blowout, A Holiday Show of Hands, will ensure a crafty Christmas to more than 10,000 shoppers.

Holiday and entrepreneurial spirits annually soar as crafters install wares for the first December weekend at the Carmichael campus. In its 36th year, the three-day fundraiser jams Locust Avenue and surrounding streets with shoppers' cars.

Wares are too diverse to list. Suffice to say that whether hand-knitted, jeweled, hammered, or turned from a potter's wheel, if it is tooled with artistry and love, St John's is the place to find it. The fundraiser began when organizer Pat Holbus had seven children at St Johns and supported the school's struggle to keep costs down for working families. That tuition fees are still among the lowest of Sacramento Catholic schools speaks to the event's continuing success. The 1976 debut event hosted 20 vendors. Booths now sell out at 150 spaces and prospective crafters are juried so merchandise is not duplicated.

"Every year, we want a good variety of goods and new vendors to keep the show fresh," explains Holbus. Folsom's Noelle Lask, for example, tools steam-punk trinkets. Placerville's Dianne Newman will offer unique scarves and hats. From Roseville, Catherine Davin markets repurposed glass and ceramic items. Sallie Gereg (The Mad Tatter) brings hand-work from Fair Oaks. Dawn Trew produces hand-painted glass in her Orangevale studio. Mary Donnis is a Christmas crafter from Granite Bay, and Diana Boud annually sells out her much sought Maus Haus line of hand-stitched critters. Contributing vendors also journey from Loomis, Lincoln, Eldorado Hills, Elk Grove, and Citrus Heights to make the fair a holiday treasure trove.

Holbus now has 12 grandchildren, most of whom have attended St John's. Three daughters and friend Carole Czimskey help with year-round fair preparations. Old fashioned goods aside, keeping the Show of Hands in tune with the times is the organizers' mission. ATMs are available on fair days, and when temperatures dip, sophisticated hot toddies revive the weary. Because hungry customers are not happy customers, volunteer cooks offer homemade lasagnas and tamales as winter warm-ups.

The fair's own hubble-bubble of industry is heartwarming, too. Knitters' needles click in tempo with Andy Williams—it's the most wonderful time of the year for hat and mitten purchases. "Even if it's cold or raining, customers are determined to enjoy themselves," says Holbus. "They come from all over Northern California; some even drive from out of state. For many, our Holiday Show of Hands is part of a tradition for friends to shop together. It's a weekend that says: hey, it really is Christmastime."

The fair is held at St John the Evangelist School, 5701 Locust Avenue, Carmichael. Hours are 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Saturday, December 6th; 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Sunday. Admission is free. Doors open on the evening of Friday December 5th, allowing preview shopping for a $3 donation. For further information, call (916) 481-8845 x 216.

From Fair Oaks, knitter extraordinaire Gerry Kaye Ryden (center) will offer distinctive Holiday apparel.

Winterdance: A Celtic Christmas Celebration

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - You are invited to attend Winterdance, the ninth annual Celtic Christmas Celebration, on December 5th at 7:30 p.m. at Saint Michael's Episcopal Church, 2140 Mission Avenue in Carmichael. Molly's Revenge and special guest vocalist Christa Burch with the Rosemary Turco Irish Dancers will present an evening of music, song, and dance associated with the festive season. Tickets for the event are $20 in advance, $24 the day of the show, and $10 for children 13 and under. Tickets are available online at www.brownpapertickets.com or at Saint Michael's Episcopal Church.

The performance will include Christmas songs both old and new, all played with a Celtic twist, as well as selections from the band's brand new holiday album. Proceeds will benefit St.

Mary's Community Food Pantry. Bring a toy or canned food and receive a special treat.

Molly's Revenge, whose lineup includes bagpipes, fiddle, whistle, guitar, mandola, and bodhran, have toured extensively in the USA as well as Australia, China, and Scotland. The band is known for its unique and infectious on-stage enthusiasm. Their arrangements of traditional jigs and reels bring these dance tunes up to date with a driving, hard-edged accent that always leaves audiences shouting for more.

The California-based group has toured since 2000 as a three-, four-, and five-piece acoustic band, releasing 12 CDs in the process. In August of this year, Molly's Revenge and Christa Burch recorded a new collection of Celtic Christmas and winter-themed music at a remote windswept retreat in the redwoods of the Mendocino coast. This beautiful new album will be available at the Winterdance shows.

Guest vocalist Christa Burch possesses a singular voice: warm, supple, expressive, intimate, and instantly recognizable. Part of a vibrant new generation of American folk singers, Christa deftly marries intuitive musicianship and storytelling through song. To balance the gentle beauty of Christa's songs, the Irish dancers will bring a percussive, joyful, and colorful exuberance to the stage.

This Ninth Annual Celtic Christmas Celebration will capture the traditional spirit of the season and warm the hearts of all.

Holiday buddies. Boy Scouts, fire fighters, Santa's helpers, and local families are among those who annually enjoy tree lighting festivities at Carmichael Park. The much-anticipated event is planned for Thursday, December 4th.

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Carmichael will kick off the festive season next week with the community's annual tree lighting in Carmichael Park.

Whatever the weather, a carnival of bright lights, food trucks, and music will fill the park on Thursday evening, December 4th. Serenaded by a 60-piece concert band and Christmas songs, the winter party is staged from 5 p.m. until cheeks chill to the color of Rudolph's nose. Free children's activities are planned, and a canned food drive will gather donations for the Sacramento Food Bank. At 6:15 p.m., County Supervisor Susan Peters will begin a countdown to ignite thousands of Christmas tree lights.

Santa Claus is the party's guest of honor. Children prepared to wait in line may present wish lists to the bearded benefactor.

Festival sponsors included Carmichael and Mission Oaks Park Districts, the Carmichael Chamber of Commerce, Carmichael Kiwanis, Baratta Chiropractic, and Sacto MOFO. After the festival, park illuminations may be viewed every night from Fair Oaks Boulevard. Learn more about local Holiday activities at www.carmichael-park.com. ★

Sheriff's Santa Claus Project

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - Since 1995, Deputy Michael Wright has spent the holiday season as "Santa Mike" for the Sheriff's Santa Claus Project.

Santa Mike visits the homes of families with children diagnosed with a terminal illness and families with special needs, as determined by the staff of Kaiser Hospital and the Sheriff's Department's Child Abuse Bureau. Kaiser recognized that Santa's hospital visits had such a positive impact on the children that it was important for Santa to visit these terminally ill children in their homes. Santa Mike graciously took on this task with the support of the Sheriff's Department and Kaiser Hospitals, relying on his own resources and donations from the Sheriff's Department, County employees, local businesses, and the Sacramento community. The Sheriff's Santa Claus Project operates on a year-round basis. However, the project does something extra special for local families with children receiving oncology treatments during the Christmas season. Santa and his elves personally visit with every child they encounter at Kaiser Hospital. They deliver stockings stuffed full of goodies during the week of Christmas, and Santa visits emergency rooms and other areas of the hospital where children are admitted. They will also visit children housed in local domestic violence shelters. Sheriff's Deputies use donated funds to purchase gifts from local stores and gather toys donated by the Sheriff's Toy Project. All gifts are wrapped and then placed into hand-made Christmas stockings by the Sheriff's Toy Project. During the holiday season, Santa Mike delivers toys, clothing, and Christmas stockings to these local families. He is accompanied by Mrs. Claus, several elves, and many Sheriff's Deputies as they deliver special wish list items (at times, household goods). In each home, they take photographs of the family with Santa and his elves. Santa and his elves will begin delivering gifts on December 1st and will finish on December 31st. For more information about the Sheriff's Santa Claus Project (a non-profit) or to make a donation, please contact project coordinator Deputy Michael Wright by email at mwright@sacsheriff.com. Source: Sacramento County Sheriff's Department ★

Merlot Marketing Wins Big at Awards Gala Northern California Agency Brings Home Six Awards

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Merlot Marketing, emerged as the leading influencer at this year's 2014 Public Relations Society of America (PRSA) Sacramento Influence Awards gala. The full-service, national marketing agency took home six awards, the most won by any single agency in the region.

The inaugural awards gala took place at the Hyatt Regency in Sacramento, and recognized the achievements of local and national agencies. Merlot Marketing received accolades for campaigns in social media, external/community relations, electronic and digital communications, collateral materials and publications, media relations and annual reporting.

The winning campaigns included work from Merlot Marketing's wide array of local and national clients, including Dacor®, Frank Fat's Restaurant, ConnectPoint Search Group and Sacramento Regional Sanitation District.

The selection process required agencies to submit creative and other supporting materials for leading campaigns. Submissions were then reviewed by a partnering chapter of PRSA. This ensured that winners were selected only by the quality of submitted work samples.

"It is an honor to be recognized by the PRSA for the work we do on behalf of our clients," states Debi Hammond, CEO of Merlot Marketing. "We have an amazing team, and the six awards we received are a testament to our agency's talent, creativity, hard work and dedication."

Merlot Marketing plans to add to these successes by further expanding its public relations and creative teams in the coming year.

Founded in 2001, Merlot Marketing is an award-winning, national firm helping companies rediscover their brand position through its exclusive REDiscover™ process. Headquartered in Northern California, Merlot Marketing specializes in marketing strategy, public relations, social media, advertising and digital communication. Think RED. Think Passion. Turkey Buying Tips

Whether you buy a fresh or frozen turkey, proper cooking and handling of the bird will ensure a delicious holiday meal. Here are some tips from the National Turkey Federation:

- Purchase one pound of turkey per person to be served. This formula allows for the holiday meal plus a little left over for the prized turkey sandwich.
- Ensure that the packaging is intact and avoid purchasing a bird with packaging that has rips or tears.
- Save on supermarket specials by purchasing more than one turkey. A whole frozen turkey may be stored in your freezer for up to 12 months.
- Select the size of turkey based on number of servings needed. There is no appreciable difference between female (hen) and male (Tom) turkeys in tenderness, white/dark meat ratio or other eating qualities. Hens typically weigh between 14 to 16 pounds and toms 15 pounds on up, so choose the size which best fits the number of dinner guests you expect.
- Select alternative turkey cuts if you are having a small gathering for the holiday. Other turkey products that are readily available include a turkey breast, tenderloins, cutlets, drumsticks or thighs. Or ask your butcher to cut a whole fresh bird in two halves, roast one half and freeze the other half for a later occasion.

until the thawing time begins.

- Store at 0 degrees F or below.
- Thaw under refrigeration, in cold water, or in the microwave: Refrigeration: Allow approximately 24 hours per five pounds to thaw in the refrigerator. Cold Water: Allow approximately 30 minutes per pound to thaw in cold water, which is changed every 30 minutes. Do not use warm or hot water and be sure to change the water every 30 minutes. Microwave: Follow the microwave manufacturer's directions and begin to roast the turkey immediately following the microwave process.
- Fresh Turkey:
 - Store at 26 degrees F and above.
 - Purchase for convenience because thawing is not required. Cost may be slightly higher due to special handling required by the store.
 - Order in advance to be assured of availability. Place fresh raw poultry in a refrigerator that maintains 40 degrees F and use it within the time frame on the package label, or freeze the poultry at 0 degrees F. Hard Chilled/Previously Hard Chilled Turkey:
 - Stored at temperatures between 0 and 26 degrees F. In the late 1990s, new regulations created a separate category for turkeys in this temperature range, which had previously been labeled fresh. Cooks should treat this bird with the same care as a fresh bird and recognize this product has a shorter shelf life than a frozen product.
- Frozen Turkey:
 - Purchase during special value sales and store the bird in the freezer

THE RICH LOWRY COLUMN
By Rich Lowry

Extortion as Conciliation

In a fit of postelection modesty, President Barack Obama is offering not to take executive action to amnesty millions of illegal immigrants -- provided Republicans do his bidding on immigration. It is extortion as conciliation. New Jersey Gov. Chris Christie often invites comparisons to "The Sopranos," but it is President Obama who is making a tactic out of the HBO mob drama his major postelection initiative. His bipartisan outreach now ends with a pointed "Or else ..."

This offer Republicans can't refuse includes the stipulation that the president will revoke his executive action in the event they pass legislation to his liking. How generous of him.

Obama's tack on immigration speaks to a president who is out of sorts and out of step, and recognizes his own political impotence. Unable to build a political case for one of his chief second-term priorities, he has to fall back on executive usurpation. Prior to the election, the president delayed his threatened amnesty -- perhaps legalizing millions of immigrants -- because it might harm Democrats. It still became an election issue, with Republicans hammering away at it and winning resoundingly. This electoral rebuke might give a less highhanded president pause. Not President Obama. The president says that he'd still "prefer" that Congress itself change the immigration laws. For him, this is a positively Madisonian expression of respect for the American constitutional scheme. President Obama is distressed that the Senate passed an immigration bill by a wide, bipartisan margin and the House refused to take it up. Fine. That is his right. He has legitimate means to respond. For one, he could have barnstormed the country for amnesty during the election campaign, seeking to defeat officeholders and candidates who don't share his view on immigration. This is how legislative majorities are built. With the election past, he can still build the political case for an amnesty and pressure House Republicans to act. If he could turn up the political heat enough, he might make House Speaker John Boehner buckle. When it comes down to it, fiat is the only means for President Obama to reliably get his way. His promised executive action is a substitute for democratic politics, not an exercise in it. No matter how frustrated the president is, there is no Chagrined and Impatient Clause in the Constitution that allows him to effectively make his own laws when he is irked at Congress. If so, Congress would have been neutered at the beginning. American presidents have been irked at Congress for as long as there have been presidents and a Congress. What President Obama is threatening is not only politically graceless -- a rude gesture at the public, as Ron Fournier of the National Journal puts it -- it is a profound distortion of the mechanisms of American government.

Rich Lowry is editor of the National Review.

Death of Ferdinand the Eastern Bongo

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento Zoo is saddened by the death of the Eastern Bongo, Ferdinand. He was being treated for suspected pneumonia and diarrhea in recent days. Despite receiving I.V. fluids and treatment for shock, Ferdinand passed away while he was being cared for by the veterinary and animal care staff. A full necropsy will be performed at UC Davis, with test results available in a few weeks.

"One of the kids' most favorite things to do during our summer camp is to go behind the scenes and feed carrots to our majestic bongo," said Ann Geiger, Education Director at the Sacramento Zoo. "Our animals provide so many wonderful memories and stories that children will take with them long after they have visited the Zoo. Our bongo will be missed by young and old alike."

Ferdinand was born at the Gladys Porter Zoo in 2009 and arrived at the Sacramento Zoo in June 2012. As a gentle and calm bongo, he was popular amongst visitors and adored by Summer Camp kids. Aply named after the bull in the children's story "The Story of Ferdinand," he would rather smell the flowers than fight.

African forest antelope found in Kenya. The Eastern Bongo has a chestnut colored body, white body stripes, banded legs, large ears, and two spiral horns. They mostly live in isolated populations in the lowland forests of Kenya.

Eastern Bongos are considered critically endangered; it is estimated that there are fewer than 250 individuals left in the wild. The bongo's natural range has been drastically reduced over the past few decades. The largest threat to this species is the loss of habitat caused by growing civilization. For more than 20 years, the Sacramento Zoo has actively participated in the Association of Zoos and Aquariums Eastern Bongo Species Survival Plan® to cooperatively manage this endangered population in accredited institutions.

Reduce and Reuse This Holiday Season

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The holidays are the time we Americans create more paper and throw-away material than at any other time of the year. This year, take steps to reduce the amount of materials that get thrown away, and make this holiday a season of recycling.

You can recycle gift boxes, Christmas trees, wrapping paper, cards, junk mail, magazines, catalogs, plastic, glass, aluminum beverage containers, and more!

Did You Know? Americans throw away 25% more trash during the Thanksgiving to New Year's holiday season than any other time of year. This extra garbage amounts to 25 million tons of trash (Bob Lilienfeld, "The Use Less Stuff Report").

If every family in the U.S. reused just two feet of holiday ribbon, the 38,000 miles of ribbon saved could tie a bow around the entire planet.

The 2.65 billion Christmas cards sold each year in the U.S. could fill a football field 10 stories high. If we each sent one card less, we'd save 50,000 cubic yards of paper.

How to Have a Greener Season:

Use reusable shopping bags.
Send your holiday greetings in electronic form.

If you use traditional gift wrapping, avoid wrapping gifts in materials that are not recyclable or reusable, such as foil or metallic papers. Always buy recycled-content wrapping paper.

If you send holiday cards, buy recycled-content cards and envelopes, or make your own cards or gift tags out of last year's cards and the wrapping paper you saved.

Remove your name from the mailing list of any catalog you no longer wish to receive. Eliminate unwanted credit offers by calling 1-888-5OptOut (1-888-567-8688) or visiting www.optoutprescreen.com.

Reuse foam peanuts or use unbuttered popcorn for packing. Return unwanted Styrofoam packing peanuts to local UPS stores (please call before delivering).

Rechargeable batteries and a battery charger are a great way to cut down on the consumption of batteries.

Recycle your tree and wreath.

Major Injury Crash Involving Reckless Driver

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - On November 20th at approximately 7:35 a.m., Robert Briggs, a 21-year-old male from Carmichael, was driving a 2001 Ford Expedition eastbound on El Camino Ave. west of Fair Oaks Blvd. at a very high rate of speed, weaving in and out of traffic on a wet roadway. A 14-year-old boy was sitting in the passenger seat and a 7-year-old girl was sitting in the right rear seat. Due to Mr. Briggs' reckless driving, he lost control of the Ford and veered out of control to the right, where the Ford struck a SMUD power pole. The Ford continued out of control, in an easterly direction, where it struck another SMUD power pole. This collision caused the second power pole to be severed from its base. The Ford and the power pole continued traveling in an easterly direction where they both struck a tree, a brick wall, and then a house. This collision caused moderate structural damage to the house. The Ford continued veering in an easterly direction where it struck and knocked over a light pole. The Ford finally landed on its left side. After the collision, all three occupants in the Ford were trapped and had to be extricated from the vehicle by the Sacramento Metro Fire Department using the Jaws of Life. The driver sustained several broken ribs and was transported to Mercy San Juan Hospital. The 7-year-old girl sustained lacerations to her face and head. The 14-year old-boy did not appear to have any visible injuries. Both children were transported to UC Davis Medical Center in Sacramento. All three occupants were wearing seatbelts; however, the 7-year-old girl was not in a booster seat as is legally required for her height and age. Alcohol and/or drugs do not appear to be a factor in this collision. El Camino Ave. between El Tonas Way and Fair Oaks Blvd. was closed for several hours as SMUD was called out to the scene to replace the two power poles that were damaged in the collision. No commute routes were affected by this incident. No other vehicles were involved in this incident. Source: California Highway Patrol ★

Reports from Sacramento Metro Fire District

Multiple Occupancies Damaged in Howe Avenue Strip Mall Fire

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - In the early morning of Saturday, November 15th, Metro Fire crews responded to 925 Howe Avenue in the Arden area for a report of visible flames from a commercial strip mall. Crews arrived to find multiple units well involved with fire. Firefighters forced into the building and began attacking the fire from within. As the fire intensity increased, operations turned defensive so as not to put firefighters at an unreasonable risk. Crews were pulled out of the building and off the roof, with multiple hose lines still in place from the outside. A second alarm assignment was called due to the exposures threatened, but was not needed. Firefighters from Metro Fire and Sacramento Fire worked together to get the fire knocked down. Crews extinguished the fire, ventilated the structure, and protected adjacent units from extension. Though two occupancies were damaged by the fire, the aggressive tactics of the crews on scene

Small Businesses Beware: Phone Directory Scam Returns

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - An invoice scam that targets small business owners is cropping up once more in the Sacramento region. Solicited offers are being sent from Open Business Directory Ltd., believed to be located in Boston, MA. They have an "F" rating with the Better Business Bureau (BBB) and 1,636 complaints and 64 negative reviews.

Businesses receive a fax with an offer to list their company name in an online directory. All they have to do is fill out their contact information and return the form. A few days later, the business receives an invoice with an outstanding balance of $1,238 for a two-year subscription to a website that closely resembles the Yellow Pages. When businesses do not respond to the invoice, they are threatened with being sent to collections.

The law is clear: Title 39 of the United States Code, Section 3001 requires that solicitations such as these include a conspicuous disclaimer, in 30-point font, stating, in part, that it is a mere solicitation. BBB reviewed a copy of the solicitation sent to a business in Vacaville, and the legally required disclaimer was present, but not up to size.

How to Avoid the Scam: Do not respond: If you receive a fax or phone call from a company asking for your business information for an online directory, hang up and do not respond. The Yellow Pages name and logo: Scammers often use the name and "walking fingers" icon to lend credibility to their scam. However, they are not affiliated with the popular phone directory in any way. Don't trust Caller ID: Scammers have the ability to spoof a phone number, which means it may look like you are receiving a call from a trusted organization or business. Contact your BBB: If you have questions or think you have been the victim of a scam, contact your local BBB at www.bbb.org. For more information, please contact Danielle Spang at dspang@necal.bbb.org. For reports on businesses and for information about BBB services, please visit the website at www.bbb.org or call (916) 443-6843. Source: Better Business Bureau serving Northeast California ★

Recent cases of interest

CASE: Joseph Leonard (11/21/14)
PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Amy Holliday, Homicide Unit
District Attorney Jan Scully announced that Joseph Leonard was convicted by jury for the first degree murder of Toussaint Harrison and the attempted murder of Justin Oliphant. The jury also found true allegations that Leonard committed these crimes due to bias against the ethnicity of the victims, and that Leonard used his vehicle as a deadly and dangerous weapon during the commission of each offense. On June 6, 2013, Leonard confronted the two African-American victims in the parking lot of the McDonald's at Arden Way and Howe Avenue after observing them speak briefly to Leonard's Caucasian female companion. After a short altercation, Leonard drove through the parking lots of several businesses in an attempt to hit Mr. Oliphant with his truck. Mr. Oliphant was able to get out of the way and avoid being hit. Leonard then struck Mr. Harrison with his truck causing severe head injuries, which resulted in his death two days later. Mr. Oliphant and other witnesses reported they heard Leonard use racial slurs towards the victims before and after the crimes. Leonard faces a maximum potential sentence of 36 years to life in prison. Sentencing is set for January 9, 2015 in Department 21 before the Honorable Steve White.

CASE: Patrick Murphy, Michael McMillen & Antoinette Pierce (11/20/14)
PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Sue Wilson, Consumer & Environmental Protection Division
District Attorney Jan Scully announced today that Patrick Murphy, Michael McMillen and Antoinette Pierce were arrested on multiple charges relating to defrauding elderly persons. The defendants engaged in a systematic conspiracy scheme targeting seniors, resulting in an aggregate loss of more than $1 million. The District Attorney's Office launched an investigation after receiving a case from the State Contractors License Board, in which an elderly victim was defrauded of $80,000. All of the 11 victims had construction work done at their homes by Murphy and McMillen, who are not licensed contractors. The defendants gained the victims trust and from 2009 through 2014, took large amounts of money from them. The amounts far exceeded the repairs and improvements actually needed or made to the victims' homes. In many instances Murphy asked to be paid in cash and showed some of the victims how to obtain cash advances on their credit cards. The defendants often drove the victims to the bank to get cash. In one incident, Murphy took an elderly victim to her bank to "help" her apply for a home equity loan so she could give him more money. Murphy also directed several victims to write checks to Pierce telling them that she was his wife, his employee or the co-owner of the business. Nearly all of the checks written to Murphy and McMillen were cashed at check-cashing stores. Checks written to Pierce were deposited into her personal bank account. The investigation also revealed Murphy was convicted in 2001 of defrauding elderly victims in New York, totaling $1.1 million, with nearly identical facts. The defendants are scheduled to be arraigned on November 24, 2014. If you believe you or someone you know has been a victim of these defendants, call the District Attorney's Consumer and Environmental Protection Division at (916) 874-6174.

CASE: Dion Johnson Sr. (11/20/14)
PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Kelly Clark, Career Criminal Unit
District Attorney Jan Scully announced today that Dion Johnson Sr. was convicted by jury of two counts of bank robbery. The jury also found true that Johnson had previously been convicted of assault with a deadly weapon and robbery, bringing him within the provisions of California's Three Strikes law. On September 6, 2011, three men entered First Bank on Howe Avenue and committed a takeover style robbery. Two of the men were dressed in security outfits. The other man wore coveralls and covered his mouth with a dust mask. The three men were able to flee with over $5,000. Johnson was identified through phone records and his vehicle description. On September 12, 2011, two men dressed in camouflage did a take-over style robbery at the California Community Credit Union in Elk Grove and fled with approximately $18,000. Johnson was implicated in this robbery through phone records and witnesses identifying his vehicle in the area. Johnson faces a maximum potential sentence of 60 years to life in state prison. Sentencing is set for January 23, 2015 at 9:00 am in Department 15 before the Honorable Kevin McCormick.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) There could be an unexpected change in plans for your upcoming holiday travels. But keep in mind that a little flexibility goes a long way in resolving any disappointments.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) A new relationship might not be responding quite as quickly as you'd hoped. Could you be expecting too much too soon? Try to ease up and let things happen at their own pace.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) As we approach the frenetic pace of pre-holiday planning, take time out now to reconnect with the wonderful people who share your life, especially the one who also shares your dreams.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) A misunderstanding should be resolved before you get caught up in the flurry of holiday preparations. Set your pride aside and deal with it, regardless of who might have hurt whom first.

Got Local News?
Call 773-1111

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Being told that a colleague might have been trying to undercut your effectiveness might or might not be true. Get all the facts before you even think about acting on this so-called information.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) It's a good idea to start your holiday preparation plans early in order to avoid a time crunch if an unresolved workplace situation causes a problem. That old friend might have some welcome news.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A family member's actions continue to surprise you, but this time with positive results. Could be your wise counsel finally got through. It's like having an early holiday gift, isn't it?

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Your reluctance to act in a current situation could be traced to your inner self advising you to take more time to study its complexities before you attempt to deal with it. Good luck.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Soothing hurt feelings before they can ignite an angry outburst is the wise thing to do. And, of course, when it comes to doing the "wisdom thing," you do it so well.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Budget your time so that you can handle both your workplace duties and your personal holiday planning -- including travel arrangements -- without burning out on either end.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) You might find that you still need to firm up one or two of those still-outstanding decisions so that you finally can move forward as you had planned. Weigh the facts, then act.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You usually don't carry grudges, but you might feel this is one time when you're justified in doing so. But aren't you spending too much energy holding onto it? Let it go and move on.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have a way of using your quiet strength to persuade people to follow their better instincts and do the right thing.

Jason Clarke in "Dawn of the Planet of the Apes"

"The Hundred Foot Journey" (PG-13) -- Madame Mallory (Helen Mirren) has dedicated herself to the painstaking perfection of the finest restaurants in France. Much to her chagrin, Papa Kadam (Om Puri) and his family, fresh from India, decide to start a new restaurant and a new life in the rundown building just across the street from Mallory's hallowed establishment. Hassan is heir to his father's Indian cooking legacy, but he's drawn by the allure of fine French cuisine, and Madame Mallory's sous chef (Charlotte Le Bon).

This uplifting Disney treat could have been too sweet, but comedic and dramatic talents of Mirren and Puri keep things interesting. Foodies will appreciate how much the camera and audio embrace the food at the heart of the story.

"Dawn of the Planet of the Apes" (PG-13) -- Mankind has hit hard times, what with the virus that wiped out half of the population and the uprising of enraged extra-intelligent apes. Surviving humans in the remains of San Francisco must figure out what to do about the nearby Ape Army that's settled in the woods. Is there room for both of us? Even if the leaders try to keep things cool, how long can peace last?

Just like in the prequel, you'll find yourself sympathizing with the apes more than the people. Master motion-capture actor Andy Serkis (who gave awesome performances for King Kong and Gollum) reprises his role as Caesar, the conflicted leader of the apes. The action sequences are big and exhilarating, and the film's more personal moments also come through.

"As Above/So Below" (R) -- Beneath Paris lies the catacombs -- a miles-long twisted labyrinth walled with human remains. To one young researcher (Perdita Weeks) and her crew of tag-alongs, this sounds like a great place to go crawling around with cameras on their heads. They don't find the mythical stone they were looking for, but they do find a tunnel into their own personal nightmares. The setting is grim and dark enough, but this found-footage flick will leave you more nauseous than spooked.

"Kids for Cash" (PG-13) -- In Luzerne County, Pennsylvania, more than 3,000 children were incarcerated for minor misconduct, all while one judge raked in nearly $3 million in kickbacks from the companies running the detention centers. One girl was even sentenced to juvenile detention for making a fake MySpace account as a joke on her school's assistant principal. Each kid who entered Mark Ciavarella's courtroom was railroaded to the maximum possible sentence, because every kid he locked up put money in his account. This documentary examines the scandal, the impact it's had, and what it says about our justice system.

Thought for the Day: All one's life as a young woman one is on show, a focus of attention, people notice you. You set yourself up to be noticed and admired. And then, not expecting it, you become middle-aged and anonymous. No one notices you. You achieve a wonderful freedom. It's a positive thing. You can move about unnoticed and invisible. — Doris Lessing

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF CARROLL MISTLER (descendent) ESTATE NO. 34-2014-00170019

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, and contingent creditors of and persons who may be otherwise interested in the will or estate, or both of CARROLL MISTLER (deceased): A petition has been filed by ROSEMARIE BURKE in the Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, requesting that ROSEMARIE BURKE be appointed as Executor to administer the estate of the decedent. The petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the executor to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the executor will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or have consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. Bond is not required.

A hearing on the petition will be held in this court as follows: December 11, 2014, 9:00 a.m. in Dept. No. 129 at Ridgeway Family Relations Courthouse, 3341 Power Inn Road, Sacramento, CA 95826.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. The name, address and telephone number of the Attorney for the Petitioner is: Robert J. Busch, Jr. SBN 122692, Law Office of R. Jeff Busch, 2483 Sunrise Blvd., Suite A, Gold River, CA 95670 (916)859-0370. Publish: November 13, 20 and 27, 2014

The Exciting New World of Implant Supported Dentures

- Has the Security of a Fixed Bridge! • Easier to Maintain Good Oral Hygiene

There are millions of people in the U.S. who are edentulous (meaning without teeth) who struggle daily with dentures. A majority suffer from discomfort as a result of loose or illfitting dentures. Many prosthetic wearers simply withdraw from any type of social engagement as a result of having to wear their dentures.

Lower dentures almost never fit properly. They are loose fitting due to less surface area which can't create a suction, shrinking gum tissue and bone loss, which can cause irritation in the mouth, sores and pain. The only relief is using sticky dental adhesive to help it, but it is very messy, hard to clean off and needs multiple applications throughout the day.

Upper dentures are better than lower dentures due to a suction in the upper palate that keeps the denture in place. However, having the palate covered reduces the tastes of foods and the ability to tell the temperature of foods.

Partial Dentures can be a source of discomfort due to lack of supporting teeth or an illfitting partial. Partials also use clasps to secure to existing teeth which can be noticeable and can put added pressure to the existing teeth.

Now there is a solution to these issues, Implants with "Snap On" Dentures!

Whether you are new to dentures or have worn them for years, a snap on denture is a great solution to uncomfortable chewing and slippery painful dentures. There are several types of snap on dentures available, including snap on partials. We make your denture or partial fit and function in harmony with the space available in your mouth, and give custom attention to the delicate fabrication of your snap on denture.

A snap on denture gets some support from the implants that it snaps onto. Unlike conventional dentures that rest on the gums, a snap on denture is anchored to multiple implant snaps and is therefore much more stable and comfortable.

Two or more implant snaps can be used on the upper and/or lower jaw. The more snaps that are placed, the more stable the denture will be. Much like a four legged chair would be more stable than a three or two legged chair, the use of denture snaps keep the denture stable, secure and comfortable. These snaps are designed with different levels of retention, customized to the needs of the patient. When the snaps wear out, replacing them is a simple and inexpensive procedure.

If you already wear a conventional denture or partial denture, we can sometimes use your denture to accommodate the snaps to fit on your new dental implants.
