New Park Chief Cuts in at Whitney Lawn

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - As grass goes, Whitney Lawn is long overdue and far preferable to the sad alternative: a condemned and fenced public pool.

Dedicating the newly-grassed area of Carmichael Park, Supervisor Susan Peters last week dubbed it "a new field of dreams for Carmichael." Matching park funding, a $35,000 Sacramento County grant enabled demolition of the old pool and its buildings. Once the gaping hole was filled, 31,000 square feet of grass was planted and children last week staged Whitney Lawn's first soccer games. (On the dream perspective, the park district hopes to one day rebuild Carmichael's much-missed swimming pool on its original site.)

In the meantime, tongue firmly in cheek, Peters invited Carmichael to "celebrate the grass." Young soccer players and vacationing kids then stormed the bunting with a banshee roar. "We're always looking for places to play soccer," grinned Carmichael Soccer Club leader Michael

Skala. "We're thankful we can use this field."

Whitney Lawn is phase one of a facelift for the 68-year-old park. The "Great Wall" corner at Fair Oaks and Grant will later this year be beautified with paths and a water feature. Improvements are also planned for the band shell area near North Ave.

The dedication event also introduced Carmichael to its new park district administrator. Taking the role after predecessor Jack Harrison's retirement, Tarry Smith shared ribbon-cutting duty with Supervisor

Peters. A former track athlete, baseball and football player, Smith approved the park's additional sports space. "Whitney Lawn is a positive way to reuse an area that was problematic," he said.

The administrator deemed the project's success a perfect omen for his new job. "It's clear the community loves its parks and takes every opportunity to get out and enjoy them," Smith noted. "We have many projects ahead to keep improving Carmichael leisure and recreation."

Fireworks Advisory

Local Fire and Law Enforcement Agencies Attack Illegal Fireworks

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Announcing that they are once again targeting individuals who use illegal fireworks and those responsible for bringing them into California, local agencies will, for the seventeenth year in a row, institute a "Zero Tolerance" enforcement procedure.

At a joint news conference on June 26th, representatives of the Sacramento Metropolitan Fire District, Sacramento City Fire Department, Cosumnes Fire Department, Folsom Fire Department, Roseville Fire Department, and the Wilton Fire Department - along with representatives of the Sacramento City Police Department, Sacramento County Sheriff's Department, Citrus Heights Police Department, Elk Grove Police Department, Galt Police Department, the Office of the State Fire Marshal, CAL FIRE and other representatives of the Greater Sacramento Area Fireworks Safety Task Force - made the announcement.

In addition, the Task Force discussed its annual campaign to enlist the public's help in protecting their communities from the threat of illegal fireworks.

The Greater Sacramento Area Fireworks Safety Task Force is a safety coalition made up of representatives of local government, the fire service, the 413 non-profit organizations and charities who sell state-approved fireworks in the Greater Sacramento Area, the media, and the state-approved fireworks industry.

Food Truck Fest Serves Hula a Go-Go

By Susan Maxwell Skinner

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Carmichael Park last week offered salivating citizens the first in a series of food truck feasts. These follow the success of "Food Truck Mania's" debut event last fall. Three mid-week opportunities to "Park, Rec and Eat It" will keep the park trucking this summer.

Circling wagons at sunset on Wednesday, ten giant food trucks offered ethnic and culinary buffets. American, Mexican, Indian, and Thai food was consumed à la carte, à la park. Whipped cream-smothered waffles and sundaes for dessert.

The high-profile location of Fair Oaks Blvd. at Grant Ave. tempted homeward-bound workers and families. Over 1,000 customers came, ate, and sauntered. Beneath redwood trees, music, balloons, and face-painters augmented the picnic atmosphere; a junior dance team performed hulas; martial arts students kicked and chopped in formation.

"It was like a carnival," enthused a customer. "Great company, music, and a bunch of different food to try." Future truck-fests are planned on July 17 and August

Gas Prices on Rise Again

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Average retail gasoline prices in Sacramento have risen 4.8 cents per gallon in the past week, averaging $3.89/g yesterday, according to GasBuddy's daily survey of 720 gas outlets in Sacramento. This compares with the national average that has fallen 3.8 cents per gallon in the last week to $3.57/g, according to gasoline price website GasBuddy.com.

Including the change in gas prices in Sacramento during the past week, prices yesterday were 13.9 cents per gallon higher than the same day one year ago and are 5.7 cents per gallon lower than a month ago. The national average has decreased 9.5 cents per gallon during the last month and stands 12.0 cents per gallon higher than this day one year ago.

"Gasoline prices are certainly a bit wacky right now across the country with prices moving in difference directions, but from what we saw in the last few days with oil prices, I'm hopeful that most areas of the United States will see new or continued relief for at least the first half of this week, with some areas seeing a continued drop for most of this week," said GasBuddy.com Senior Petroleum Analyst Patrick DeHaan. # Homeless in Region Blessed by Union Gospel Mission

By Elise Spleiss

SACRAMENTO REGION (MPG) It can be a blessing to be homeless in Sacramento. No matter what brings men and women to the Union Gospel Mission near downtown, it is certain they will receive much more than the basic food, shelter and Gospel message they expect. The services men receive will help them greatly improve their daily lives, and if they're ready and willing to work hard, and learn about themselves and their addictions, they can find their lives transformed in ways they never imagined. Services for women are limited at this time, but a variety of daily services are available, and more are being planned for the near future.

The goal of the Union Gospel Mission, whether meeting basic daily needs or providing long-term alcohol and drug rehabilitation and life skills, has always been "to love the unlovable, care for those the world has written off, and preach the Gospel with truth, love, and kindness, never going beyond what the Bible says." The love and kindness shown by volunteers and staff is seen and felt by their homeless "guests" as they experience the compassion first-hand, and see it put into practice daily throughout the Mission.

Located at 400 Bannon Street, off of Richards Boulevard, one block from the Greyhound Bus station, the Mission is open 365 days a year and has been a staple in the fabric of Sacramento County for over 50 years.

In 1962, eight businessmen – seeing there was a need for a mission outreach to the needy right here at home – were moved to create a place where alcoholic men from Sacramento could go to hear the Gospel and get a second chance to improve their lives. Originally located on Second Street in what is now Old Sacramento, the campus consists of the main building, a chapel, a Women's Clothes and Accessory Closet, and a warehouse – all sitting on one acre of land.

The Mission provides over 9,600 meals to men, women, and children monthly, including special holiday meals. (In addition to in-house meals, the Food Basket Program provides food boxes twice a week to low-income families going through a crisis situation.)

Clean beds are provided nightly for 60 homeless men and 24 men in the 9-month extensive recovery program. Showers, new toiletry products, and other essential items are also available. Free clean clothes, haircuts, and even a postal mail address helps guests begin to feel like a part of this community as they begin to regain feelings of dignity and self-worth.

One of the Mission's major life-changing programs is the intensive 9-month in-house drug and alcohol recovery program provided to men who are serious about making a permanent change in their lives and eventually becoming a productive part of society. Participants are provided daily Christian-based classes, vocational training, one-on-one counseling, mentoring, chapel services, medical assistance, and monthly bus passes. They are challenged daily to develop Christ-like behavior in their daily routines.

Six months into recovery, students can enter the "Next Step" phase, preparing to join the workforce. With the help of data specialist Danny Vanek, a graduate of the program, they work on their resume, get business cards, learn to use a computer, attend job fairs, and eventually begin to pound the pavement, looking for what may be their very first "real" job.

Also essential to the daily operation of the Mission are the 40 Christian denomination churches from every corner of the Sacramento region and beyond. Every evening of the year, a different church delivers an uplifting message, leads worship with live music and testimonies, and helps serve dinner to homeless and low-income residents, including families. Residents in the rehab program attend this chapel service, and participate in their own worship each morning to set the tone for their day.

Women also receive services at the Mission. Bible study is held every Thursday at 9:30 a.m. Homeless women and the working poor – single women and mothers – in the community who are struggling to make ends meet, are provided with a food box to take home. They are then treated to a free shopping spree in the Women's Clothing (and accessory) Closet, enabling them to be well-dressed for job-related events and in other areas of their lives.

Necessary toiletries, hygiene products, and other essential items are also available. They can also receive items for their children. Services for women are limited at present. A new, much larger warehouse is scheduled to open in the near future, which will house the Women's Clothes Closet and other expanded services for women. Homeless women are presently referred to shelters such as Maryhouse-Loaves and Fishes.

Annual programs include a Homeless Birthday Party in the summer for participants, many who have never had a birthday party. Activities are held for every holiday and other special days on the calendar, such as a Valentine's Dinner Banquet and handing out phone cards on Mother's and Father's Day. Hundreds of food boxes are given away during the months of Easter, Thanksgiving, and Christmas. A warming center is available, with hot coffee and pastries during cold weather.

As a 501 (c)(3) non-profit, the Mission operates as a voluntary Christian organization. There will never be a charge for any service or goods provided to any recipient at the Mission. With a growing database of over 45 thousand donors, the Mission operates totally without tax or government support of any kind, and is funded entirely by the generous donations of these individuals, churches, and other organizations in the community. All financial information – including tax return forms – is available at the Mission website.

After 50 years of serving the needs of homeless and the working poor, the Union Gospel Mission runs like a finely-tuned machine, smoothly integrating the needs of daily homeless with on-site program participants, and women and families who seek rest and help throughout the year. A testament to the success of their services is that of 25 permanent paid staff at the Mission, 15 are graduates of the men's rehab program – some having been with the Mission for over 20 years.

For more information on the Mission's programs and to hear an uplifting message of hope, join Executive Director Rev. Tim Lane on the radio at KFIA, 710 AM, Sundays and Mondays at 3:00 p.m.

Needs at the Mission are always great. A wish list of daily and seasonal supplies can be found at www.ugmsac.com, and www.facebook.com/ugmsac. For volunteer and donation drop-off information, call (916) 447-3268.

More and more changes in the way food is delivered around the world has spawned debates on the freshness and quality of what modern society is really eating. Organic fruits and vegetables are grown without chemical pesticides and herbicides, without genetic modifications (an issue currently grabbing national headlines) and without countless other harmful influences.

Healthy bodies require healthy food for fuel. As a prevention specialist, I know the vital role nutrition plays in achieving optimum wellness. The healthful benefits of food, however, can be overruled by chemical contamination. That's why I urge patients to choose organically-grown foods whenever possible.

Pesticide Dangers

Pesticides are linked with a number of medical disorders and illnesses, including Parkinson's disease. Research also suggests that pesticides have a negative effect on male reproduction. The use of pesticides has also been linked to childhood cancers.

Eat Organic Food for Life

Defining "Organic"

At one time, all farming was essentially classified as "organic." The evolution of time led to the evolution of pests, however – and a proliferation of chemicals created during WWII were suddenly enlisted to fight the war on bugs.

The primary goal of organic agriculture is to optimize the health and productivity of interdependent communities of soil, life, plant, animals and people.

To be certified as "organic," foods must undergo strict inspections and meet tightly-regulated growing standards. Candidates eligible for organic labeling include packaged foods and beverages, alcoholic beverages, meat (not fish), produce, prepared foods, bulk products, culinary herbs, herbal dietary supplement formulas, baked goods, dairy and refrigerated products and frozen foods. Fibers such as cotton and wool may also be certified.

The Cost Factor

The adage "you get what you pay for" is particularly true in the case of organic foods. While you may pay more at the checkout counter, you'll save your health in the long run.

How can you offset the cost of organic foods and other products? One way is by purchasing "in season." Other ways to keep prices down, while you strive to keep quality up, include buying locally, in bulk and on sale.

Local farmer's markets are often brimming with organic bargains. But the greatest cost-cutter of all is to dust off that green thumb and plant your own garden.

By choosing organic foods, you can substantially reduce your exposure to pesticides and, in turn, improve the quality of your life.

Look to Your Wellness Doctor for Sound Nutritional Advice

At Chiropractic USA we encourage our patients to make nutrition a priority. But keeping abreast of nutritional research can be a daunting challenge. Although TV, newspapers and magazines inundate us with nutritional information, it's difficult to make sense of all the "sound bites," especially when the messages are contradictory or change over time. And going to the source – medical journals – can be equally as confusing for lay people, if not more so.

If you are confused about conflicting media reports on a specific nutrition topic, please let us know so that we may look into publishing an article on that subject. # CSLB Nabs Unlicensed Contractors

Unlicensed contractors pose huge financial risks for homeowners who hire people who have not been qualified to perform the work, or undergone a criminal background check.

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) – Three people who knew better than to perform contracting work without a state license turned up at a Contractors State License Board (CSLB) undercover sting operation in Rancho Cordova on June 6, 2013.

Unlicensed contractors pose huge financial risks for homeowners who hire people who have not been qualified to perform the work, or undergone a criminal background check, and who don't carry workers' compensation or general liability insurance if injury or damage occurs on the property. Unlicensed operators operate in the underground economy and create unfair business competition for law-abiding contractors.

CSLB's Statewide Investigative Fraud Team (SWIFT), along with investigators from the Department of Consumer Affairs' Division of Investigation and Sacramento County District Attorney's Office, cited seven individuals who illegally bid for landscaping, concrete, painting, fencing, tree, and plumbing work at a one-story residence.

"Contractors who have lost their license are fully aware that they are contracting illegally," said CSLB Registrar Steve Sands. "If you disregard contracting laws, you'll be caught and held to answer in Superior Court."

One of the former licensees, Anthony Eugene Bodiford of Woodland, doing business as Planet Rock Landscape, was arrested on misdemeanor charges of contracting without a license and illegal advertising after he submitted a bid for more than $8,000 to do fencing and landscape work. Contractors can only request a down payment of 10% of the total estimate, or $1,000, whichever is less.

Bodiford's contractor license expired in 2011. Two others with revoked licenses went to the sting house but did not submit bids, and will receive administrative citations for illegal contracting and advertising violations.

Undercover CSLB investigators mostly used the online bulletin board craigslist.org to identify potential suspects. Property owners considering improvement projects should always consult CSLB's online instant license check to ensure that the contractor license is in good standing before hiring anyone to work in or around their home. In California, CSLB-licensed contractors are required for all home improvement jobs totaling $500 or more in combined labor and material costs.

The seven people who received Notices to Appear in Superior Court all face misdemeanor charges of contracting without a license (Business and Professions Code Section 7028). First-conviction penalties for contracting without a license include up to six months in jail and/or up to $5,000 in fines; subsequent convictions bring harsher penalties.

Six were cited for illegal advertising (Business and Professions Code Section 7027.1). State law requires that contractors include their license number in all advertisements, including online ads. Those without a license can advertise as long as the ad states they are not a state-licensed contractor, and the combined total of a project's labor and materials costs is under $500.

Suspects must appear in Sacramento County Superior Court, 720 Ninth St., Sacramento (MAP). A court date has not been determined.

NOTICES TO APPEAR:

Larry Robert Leonard, Sacramento, contracting without a license, illegal advertising;

Antonio Martinez Torres, Sacramento, contracting without a license, illegal advertising;

Hardeep Singh Sandhu, Elk Grove, contracting without a license, illegal advertising, unregistered salesperson;

Anthony Eugene Bodiford, Woodland, contracting without a license, illegal advertising;

Melvin George Coleman, Sacramento, contracting without a license;

Jose Amadeo Reyes Estrada, Elk Grove, contracting without a license, illegal advertising;

Cirilo Otento-Portento, Sacramento, contracting without a license, illegal advertising.

Is Combining Them Smart?

Dear Dave,
 My son has a $115,000 mortgage at 5.8 percent. He also has a home equity line of credit of $40,000 at 9 percent. Currently, he can get a 30-year loan at 3.5 percent, or a 15-year note at 2.75 percent. His take-home pay is between $70,000 and $80,000 a year, and these are his only debts. Should he combine the mortgages into one loan?

- Daniel

Dear Daniel,

First, I only recommend mortgages of 15 years or less. Now we're looking at a 2.75 percent loan versus a 5.8 percent loan versus a 9 percent loan. I advise people to put home equity loans under Baby Step 2 of my plan, which is pay off all debt except for the house, provided that the loan is less than half of your annual income. Based on the income figures you gave, this situation is kind of on the bubble.

If I were in your son's shoes, I'd probably combine the two loans and refinance. I'd go for a new $155,000 fixed-rate mortgage at 2.75 percent, with no balloons and no calls. This kid can live a good life and get the mortgage paid off pretty quickly with the kind of money he's making.

But if it's me, I'm getting as short a term as possible on a refinance—maybe even a 10-year note instead of 15 years. Just imagine him getting all this knocked out and still having the majority of his life ahead of him. That's financial peace!

- Dave

Retirement Blend

Dear Dave,

My husband and I are debt-free. Recently I learned that I have a blended fund for retirement. Do you think I should switch to self-chosen funds? I have $26,000 invested at the moment.

- Marina

Dear Marina,

My advice is to move your money into self-chosen funds. The problem with blended funds is not that they are blended, but that they'll move it around based on your age and where they perceive you to be in life. You won't even realize it's happening. I want you to be a lot more intentional with your money and know what's happening every step of the way.

With self-chosen funds you can look at them and say, "Those are my funds." Then, if down the road you decide one isn't doing as well as you like, you can move the money to a different fund. With blended funds it's almost like having a babysitter for your money. You're not the one watching the kids, and to me that's a big mistake.

There shouldn't be a lot of fees inside your 401(k) when it comes to trading funds. There's a good chance there won't be any fees at all, especially if you stay within the same company. Check into it, Marina, and talk to your human resources people. They can give you all the details.

Red, White and Ooh! Celebrating the Fourth with Fireworks

By David Dickstein

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) – America’s 237th birthday will soon be celebrated with fireworks that shimmer in the sky and gleam from the ground. Where you ooh and aah on the Fourth of July depends on whether you go public to watch an aerial display or private since local laws allow the sale and use of state-approved consumer fireworks in Sacramento County from June 28 through July 4.

That’s good news for local youth groups, service clubs, churches and other cash-strapped area non-profits hoping for booming business from a temporary wooden stand over seven toasty days.

Sunrise Little League, for one, plans to improve its ball field at C-Bar-C Park in Citrus Heights with proceeds raised from its TNT Fireworks stand at 7601 Sunrise Blvd. next to Safe Credit Union. Also in Citrus Heights, a new batting cage and fencing for its backstop are what Mesa Verde High School Softball Boosters is planning to buy with money earned from its TNT stand at 8477 Auburn Blvd. next to California Burgers. Out of its Phantom Fireworks stand next to Pastor Auto Care at 7920 Old Auburn Road, volunteers of American Legion Post #637 will raise funds for a local Boy Scout troop. In the next city over, the Antelope Community Tennis Association will raise funds to resurface courts and keep membership dues low with a Phantom stand next to Rite-Aid at 4300 Elverta Road.

In Carmichael, Glen Oaks Swim Club will help keep kids afloat as members with a Phantom Fireworks location near Quicker Stop Market at 6725 Winding Way. Over in Orangevale, food and other resources for needy local families will spawn from sales at the Assist Local Foundation’s Phantom stand adjacent to Dairy Queen at 9295 Greenback Lane. Meanwhile, Fair Oaks Presbyterian Church, which will run a TNT stand on its own turf at 11427 Fair Oaks Blvd., has earmarked proceeds for its youth, starting with summer camp scholarships. Bella Vista High School Band Boosters will offset competition fees, uniforms, insurance and other costs with funds raised at its TNT stand near the Olive Garden Restaurant at 5445 Sunrise Blvd. in Citrus Heights.

As volunteers for these groups work their mojo to move assortments and individually sold items, customers looking to get the most bang for their buck could become overwhelmed by the wide range of firework prices and performances. To help the patriotic and philanthropic, here’s our annual fireworks guide that includes all 11 of the new state-approved fireworks for 2013 along with the best returning items. Fireworks are listed by price and rated on a 5-star scale for performance, duration, distinctiveness and overall comparative value. Judges included firefighters of Sacramento Metropolitan Fire District, Station 65 in Rancho Cordova, where the test was conducted.

New for 2013

• Game Time (TNT), $39.99 – This rookie scores with intense crackle and wide-spreading sparks in the late innings, but the height and overall performance aren’t powerful enough to hit it out of the park. 93 seconds. 3 Stars

• Phantom Phlash Phinish (Phantom), $18.99 – Fantastical Phountain. Second-runner-up for “Best New Fountain” has strong duration, altitude, spread, Citrus Heights resident Juli Johnson attracts customers to the Active 20-30 Club of Greater Folsom’s Phantom fireworks booth next to Dimple Records in the Sunrise Marketplace. Photo: David Dickstein.

titanium crackle and whistle. 108 seconds. 4 1/2 Stars

• Serenity (Phantom), $15.99 – Noiseless fountain opens with lovely lava lamp-like lumps (thank you, nitrocellulose!) and peacefully pleases with seven colors and white chrysanthemums. 59 seconds. 4 Stars

• Phantom Spy-Ro-Mania (Phantom), $14.99 for two – A flickering fuse spirals around a tube of crackles and sparks, leading to a whistling tube sidecar that produces four deliciously irritating shrieks. Equivalent of TNT’s lower-priced Spiral Lite ($5.99, 4 Stars) that debuted in 2003 and was, itself, a copycat. 34 seconds. 3 Stars.

• Surfs Up (TNT), $10.99 – “Best New Fountain” runner-up. Gorgeous globs lead to a wave of multiple effects worthy of exclams of “cowabunga!” Some of the best and widest-spreading titanium rain and crackles for the price. Just about the only thing lacking is an apostrophe in the contractive name. 58 seconds. 4 1/2 Stars

• Twilight Magic (Phantom), $9.99 – Earns “Best New Fountain” honors for three exciting rotations of crackle-and-whistle and wide-spreading sparks at a comparatively super price. 57 seconds. 5 Stars

• Eenie, Meenie, Miney, Moe (Phantom), $9.99 for four – Sold as a set of four, these cutely named, but lackluster fountains all emit chrysanthemums and crackle, but blink at the onset and you’ll miss the pearl of blue, red, green or yellow that is the distinguishing feature. 42 seconds. 2 Stars

• Rainbow Rays (TNT), $5.99 – Solid value-priced freshman delivers on height and crackle. Duration is one of the longest in the state at this price point. 56 seconds. 4 Stars

• Poopy Pooch (Phantom), $5.99 for two – It’s all business with this scatological novelty that has an ash-producing snake pellet squeezing out of a cardboard dog’s behind. Been sold by others for years under the name Poopy Puppy, but Phantom is the first to class up California with this daytime item. They’re sold in pairs, so if the first doesn’t satisfy, there’s always No. 2. Yeah, we went there. 22 seconds. 2 Stars

• Cheeky Fountain (TNT), $3.99 – Colorful sparks, silvery rain and crackling stars gush out of what resembles a fun-labeled kid’s juice box. Price is fair and so is the performance. 37 seconds. 3 Stars

• Recess (TNT), $3 – Two whistles serve as the recess bell, and before playtime is over you’re treated to fleeting, albeit impressive altitude, crackles, chrysanthemums and multiple colors. 24 seconds. 3 1/2 Stars

Best of the Rest (4-5 Stars)

• Opening Show (TNT), $59.99 – Budget permitting, last year’s “Best New Finale” is a 500-gram must-have. The climax at the

2-minute mark is intense. Be no closer than 20 feet away for this one. 130 seconds.

• Delirium (TNT), $49.99 – Fan-shaped 500-gram fountain is pricey, but its intensity and beauty are bona fide stunning. 133 seconds.

• Phantom Crown Jewel (Phantom), $49.99 – Intense 500-gram display of white flowers, colored pearls, gold chrysanthemums and silver crackle. Packs a wallop, though that also reduces burn time. (Note: Prices for many of the items listed here have gone up due mainly to higher costs in China. Still, a $20 price hike from last year, even though the cost is now on par with other 500-gram items, is a doozy.) 82 seconds.

• Peacock Tail Fan Fountain (Phantom), $34.99 – Last season’s “Best New Fountain” builds excitement with each dazzling stage. Works out to 65 cents per second, but still a must-have. 54 seconds.

• Alpha Wolf (Phantom), $24.99 – Green and purple droplets, gold shower and crackling stars finale are awesome. No whistles, doesn’t need them. 83 seconds.

• American Spirit (TNT), $22.99 plus bonus – This fountain of red, white and bluish stars, gold showers and decent whistles and crackles makes the cut because it comes with the pleasing, 90-second Sizzler Fountain. 80 seconds.

• O-Blivion (TNT), $19.99 – This lord of the ring-shaped fountains emits multi-colored chrysanthemums with pine and impressive titanium crackles. 125 seconds.

• Pyropalooza (TNT), $19.99 – Excellent height, crackle and vivid hues – a vivacious visual. 115 seconds.

• Hasta La Vista Baby (Phantom), $19.99 – Like color and hate whistles? Then this is a solid pick with a screech-free spectrum of fast-changing colors. 125 seconds.

• Funky Monkey (Phantom), $19.99 – This pyrotechnic primate features red pearls and a solid overall performance. 90 seconds.

• Mad Dog (TNT), $17.99 for two (buy one-get one, or BOGO) – More classic than rabid, this old dog spews amazing crackles, whistles and multi-color sparks. 80 seconds.

• Firecracker Fountain (Phantom), $17.99 for two (BOGO) – Lives up to its name with a remarkable crackling barrage alongside multi-colored pearls. 76 seconds.

• Phantom Night Owl (Phantom), $14.99 – Phantom’s only internally glowing fountain

(eyes and mouth light up) has four loud screeches and an exciting overall performance. TNT discontinuing the similar-effected LOL Fountain makes this one even more unique. 65 seconds.

• Night Treasure (TNT), $14.99 – Looks like a fan fountain, and it is, albeit only for the final 22 seconds. Still quite impressive. 98 seconds.

• King of Bling (Phantom), $18.99 for two – The crackles heard during the final third sound just like popping popcorn. Majestic chrysanthemums and whistle. Great value now that it’s now a BOGO. 90 seconds.

• Radiant (TNT), $10 – Named “Best New Fountain” in 2011, this modern classic has a stunning performance for the price. Pushes the legal limit for spreading sparks and the fish effect is awesome. A must-buy. 93 seconds.

• Luck of the Irish (TNT), $9.99 – Still holding its own after a dozen years, this classic features gold and silver spray, red and green balls, crackles and four super-loud whistles. 75 seconds.

• Lil Red Devil (TNT), $9.99 for two (BOGO) – Packs plenty of heat for the size and price. Ends strong with wide-spreading titanium crackling sparks. 35 seconds.

• Phantom Dragon Slayer (Phantom), $9.99 for two (BOGO) – Got some white, blue and lemon chrysanthemums, rowdy crackles and red stars going on. 66 seconds.

• Little Miss (TNT), $4.99 – This value-priced opening act packs plenty of color plus silver rain and crackles. 47 seconds.

• Moondance (Phantom), $4.99 for two (BOGO) – Little dynamo emits loud crackles, purple pearls and glittering gold and white sparks. Note: Equivalent to TNT’s 17-year-old classic Purple Rain, $5.99 for two. 45 seconds.

Putting on a decent fireworks display these days costs around $150 plus tax. If you buy that, buy this:

• From TNT: Perfect Show assortment ($99.99), two Lil Red Devils ($9.99 as a BOGO, lit together), two Radiants ($20, lit together as your finale), one Surfs Up ($10.99) and two 3-packs of morning glories ($8.99 as a BOGO). Use your $10 off coupon received by joining the TNT Club in advance at www.tntfireworks.com.

• From Phantom: Awestruck assortment ($119.99, includes morning glories and bonus Electrical Shock fountain with coupon available at stand), two King of Blings ($18.99 as a BOGO, lit together as your finale), one Twilight Magic ($9.99), one Mystical Magic (free with coupon received by joining the Phantomizer Fireworks Club in advance at www.fireworks.com).

Here Comes the Final Wave of Cell Phone and Texting Enforcement

To reduce the number of distracted drivers on Sacramento area roadways, and to test our enforcement tactics, law enforcement agencies in the Sacramento region will be conducting the final wave of three high-visibility enforcement efforts that will last through June 30.

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) – Drivers in the greater Sacramento region who are observed texting or talking on a hand-held cell phone will be targeted in a special enforcement operation that will last through June 30. Thirty-seven local police departments and the California Highway Patrol (CHP) will participate in the enforcement effort.

This is the third and final high-visibility enforcement period that was developed to test tactics that may be employed nationally in the future. In 2012, the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) awarded the California Office of Traffic Safety (OTS) $600,000 to fund three waves of enforcement along with the message “Phone in One Hand, Ticket in the Other,” designed to educate drivers about the dangers of distracted driving.

A total of 3,008 citations were issued during the first wave last December, increasing to 4,750 during the second wave in February. The special enforcement region stretches from Modesto to Marysville and from Vallejo to South Lake Tahoe.

“Distracted driving is a dangerous problem,” said OTS Director Christopher J. Murphy. “For everyone’s safety, drivers need to focus on the road and refrain from talking or texting on a cell phone. California has strict mobile device laws in place and this “Phone in One Hand, Ticket in the Other” campaign offers a constant reminder to drivers to do the right thing and practice safe driving.”

Drivers caught talking or texting on a hand-held cell phone will receive a first-time ticket costing a minimum of $162, with a second offense costing $285. However, the goal of the special enforcement operation is not to issue tickets, but to raise awareness about the dangers of distracted driving.

The California Office of Traffic Safety offers these simple tips to keep you or someone you know from being a victim of distracted driving:

- While talking on a cell phone, up to 37 percent of the brain function needed for driving is used toward that conversation, rather than driving.
- Turn off your phone, and/or put it out of reach while driving.
- Include in your outgoing message that you can’t answer while you’re driving.
- Don’t call or text anyone at a time when you think they may be driving.
- Remember: Phone in One Hand, Ticket in the Other.

Cinder-Ella

A one-hour children's show even grownups will enjoy!

All of your favorite characters are here in John Lee's wacky, hilarious rendition of the classic tale, including Elly, a wise cinder-covered girl, two ridiculous stepsisters (Marmaduke and Falafel), and handsome Prince Johann. But in this telling, we also meet Tok Tok, Elly's irrepressible mouse-friend, the gentle elder, Faithful John and a fairy godmother unlike any you have ever seen named Dame Peridot, Queen of Faerie Earth Magic. Colorful costumes, larger than life characters, and more than a few surprises will keep the whole family laughing in this delightful children's show!

By John Lee (Theater Director of Fairytale Town) • Directed by Tracy Martin Shearer
 Location: Fair Oaks Community Clubhouse 7997 California Avenue, Fair Oaks, 95628
 Dates: Saturdays, July 6, 13, 20, 27
