RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG)

Marge Gorman's artwork, Serengeti, achieved Best of Show at the Rancho Cordova City Hall Art Show. Having seen a collection of African type masks, Gorman started creating one herself, then found that the work needed more. "The ideas came flooding in," Gorman said. She ended up using an elaborate collection of wood, paper, beads, sticks, and cardboard, with different patterns throughout. "It seemed as though my spirit was one with the piece of art I had created," Gorman said. "I could hear the silent sounds of Africa that drew me in." Gorman has done many types of art throughout the years.

This current art show features mixed media, which are works using two or more mediums. The theme allows for a large variety of effects. With 55 works by 27 artists, the submissions were somewhat lower than seen in previous years. Cheryl Gleason, the organizer of the City Hall shows, thought the lower number could possibly be due to those who, "when they see something they never tried before, they just go, 'I'm not going to do anything for that one.'" Artist Barbara Little, who won first place with her watercolor, paper, and soft pastel work, Spring Runoff, has submitted work for most of the City Hall art shows. She wondered if the pandemic might be putting people off shows. "I didn't do anything for the last show, and frankly maybe the Fall Show," Little said. "It's kind of paralyzed me in terms of getting on the wagon and doing something or submitting something."

Little's work started out as a landscape or mountainscape, and she had access to a number of different types of art papers so she used those for an artwork. "Then when this mixed media idea came up, I thought, 'that's the perfect piece to put in there,'" Little said. Besides the papers, she used watercolor and soft pastels. As for advice she would give to those starting out, it is just to keep at it. "You have to put a lot of miles on your brushes," Little said.

Robin Moyher's medium is typically mosaic, though she is always experimenting with different objects and materials. Her piece, Crossroads, includes slate, shells, various rocks and glass beads. She created the items she entered in this show during a group lesson she organized over a year ago. Rachel Davies, an Irish artist, presented the

City Council Watching Mobile Home Owners' Back

By Chris Ching

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - No Doubt, Rancho Cordova has the back of mobile home park residents.

At the February 1 City Council Meeting, members discussed at length how they could assume the responsibility of administering to the needs for nine parks in the city as rental increases and poorly kept grounds have sparked concern.

At present, the California Department of Housing and Community Development (HCD) oversees those living in motorhome parks and it is this organization the city would have to petition to gain control.

Mobilehomes and mobilehome parks are regulated largely by three state bodies of law. The Mobilehome Residency Law deals with rental agreements, types of allowable charges and evictions. The Manufactured Housing Act of 1980 focuses on construction of mobilehomes. Finally, construction and operation of the park themselves fall under the Mobilehome Parks Act.

Along with rent control and maintenance, the city could establish zoning and locations, regulate construction and expand the multifamily smoking prohibition to mobilehomes. City Attorney Adam Lindgren reported much work would be required if the city attained responsibility including increased staffing and training.

Jill Fellows, a resident of Mobil Country Club, felt the statements by councilmembers were "right on target" and hoped that it would be affordable for the city to pursue this new role.

Discussion ended with more research to be made with a report forthcoming in about six months' time. The research would include dialogue with the HCD, how other cities have fared in similar situations, information on rent stabilization and maintenance plus community outreach to understand mobile home park resident sentiment.

Vice-Mayor Donald Terry expressed caution that the city understand what grounds the HCD could possibly deny their petition and to be prepared for it. "Are there things that clearly we'll be disqualified on the second we turn it in? Terry asked. "I want to understand that."

Keeping within the night's talk of housing, council also discussed Home Owners Associations (HOAs) and Covenant,

Your COVID-19 Vaccine Questions Answered

City of Rancho Cordova

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Sacramento County Public Health (SCPH), healthcare networks and pharmacies throughout the county have begun vaccinating people with the COVID-19 vaccine. However, many of us have questions about the vaccine, and it is difficult to know what information is factual.

The City of Rancho Cordova has created a new online Q&A to answer your questions, sort through the confusing chatter on social media, and help you get down to the facts about COVID-19 vaccines. Get answers by visiting CityofRanchoCordova.org/coronavirus or contact City Hall at 916.851.8700.

virologist, a scientist who specializes in the study of viruses. "Even though we're seeing some stabilization in infection rates and in our hospitals, it's more important than ever before to help slow the surge," he added.

Even though the vaccine is here, continue to do your part to slow the surge: Wear a mask, wash your hands, and maintain social distancing; Do not mix with people outside of your household; If you suspect that you have COVID-19, get a free test; Learn more about COVID-19 vaccines.

For more information about COVID-19 and the county's vaccination process, tune in on Thursday, February 18 at 6 PM to hear from SCPH Officer Dr. Olivia Kasirye and Public Health Immunization Program Manager Rachel Allen. COVID-19 forums with SCPH will be held every other week, and pre-registration is required. Find the link to

Looming Tax Tsunami Requires Immediate Action to Protect Unemployed

By Jacqui Nguyen,
Senate Republican
Caucus

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - California Senate Republicans are concerned about the looming tax tsunami facing unsuspecting and unemployed Californians stemming from mismanagement and fraud in the state's Unemployment Insurance program. Senate Republicans delivered a letter to Governor Newsom urging him to take immediate action to help those innocent victims.

Californians will begin receiving 1099-G tax forms summarizing their taxable earnings from unemployment benefits. Not only will the tax bill come as a shock to recipients, there is a distinct possibility many victims of fraud will be left on the hook for taxes on money never received. The Employment Development Department (EDD) has struggled to do even the slightest thing right during the pandemic and to think this agency could straighten this out on its own prior to tax day is unfathomable.

By the end of 2020, EDD had paid out $10.4 billion in benefits to claimants whose identities were unverified and that figure could climb as high as $30 billion. This resulted in frozen bank accounts, stalled benefit payments and a variety of other problems each of our offices has been tirelessly working to help these individuals with over the last ten months.

The Auditor's report last week underscored Californians' worst nightmare by pointing out the potential problems with regard to tax liability. Without immediate action by the Governor and our federal representatives, innocent people will be left to fight the IRS over tax liabilities for benefits they never received.

Senate Republicans share the auditor's concerns, and want to ensure the Newsom Administration is taking every action possible to enact the auditor's recommendation to promptly assist victims of identity theft and help them avoid tax liabilities for unreceived benefits. April 15 is just a few months away and Republicans are rightfully concerned the agency will be unable to effectively address this new challenge.

An excerpt of the letter is below. For the full letter visit cssrc.us/sites/default/files/210202\_EDD-Fraud-Tax-Liability-Audit.pdf.

... As we enter the tax filing season, many Californians will be surprised to learn that they have tax liabilities for UI benefits that were fraudulently claimed in their name. This is because 1099-G forms will soon be arriving in the mailboxes of taxpayers who were victims of identity fraud. Even more concerning is that there will be victims of identity fraud who will have no idea why they even received one of these forms until after they file taxes. This is because EDD is generally going to mail the 1099-G to the most recent addresses of record, which are the ones the bad actors used to obtain UI benefits.

The State Auditor shares our concern for the tax liabilities for victims of this identity theft and recommends that EDD should prepare to assist victims of identity theft to ensure that they receive prompt assistance and avoid tax liabilities for benefits they never received. Specifically, the auditor recommends that EDD must prepare to respond to victims of identity theft who receive incorrect tax forms, and should, by mid-February 2021, provide information on its website and set up a separate email box for such individuals to contact EDD and receive prompt resolution. We wholeheartedly agree with this recommendation, but remain skeptical about the agency's ability to do it effectively, if at all. Our offices are currently hearing from the same amount of constituents as we did last spring, who are seeking help from EDD because of problems with identity verification, backlogged claims, and frozen accounts. ...

Last week, Senate Republicans requested legislative leadership for an immediate oversight hearing to discuss ways to implement the State Auditor's recommendations. An oversight hearing was held on Wednesday, February 3 with the Joint Legislative Audit Committee (JLAC) and the Assembly Insurance Committee. ★

Mystery Brings Unlikely Departments Together

By Ken Casparis,
Sacramento County

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - This past December, a routine storm drain clearing led to an inter-departmental collaboration to identify the remains of a missing local man.

On Dec. 8, 2020, Sacramento County Department of Water Resources (DWR) employees were clearing a storm drain near Gordon Drive in Sacramento. While unclogging their vacuum machine, the crew manually pulled what was thought to be a stick out of the muck that clogged the machine only to find a shoe attached. It turned out to be a human leg bone and foot. DWR crews stopped work and notified the Sheriff's Department.

"Water Resources works regularly with law enforcement. Our staff teams up with deputies throughout the year as we clean up drainage culverts and water pipes because we run into homeless camps. We ask for the deputies' assistance to make sure nobody is harmed by our machines," said Water Resources Director, Michael Peterson. "So when our crews came across human remains, while shaken up by their discovery, they kept their cool and knew to call the Sheriff's Office for assistance."

When Sheriff's Office detectives responded to the scene, they discovered what appeared to be an additional bone in the storm drain. Detectives contacted the Sacramento Coroner's Office to assist with further evaluation of the remains.

Deputies and a Forensic Pathologist from the Coroner's Office responded to the scene. The leg bone and an additional bone found in the storm drain were determined to be human. Coroner personnel also searched a second area of the storm drain and discovered even more bones. The bones were retrieved by Coroner personnel and were found to be an almost complete human skeleton.

In addition to the skeletal remains, a debit type card with no name printed on it was also recovered. The debit card company was contacted by the Sheriff's Office and it was learned that the card belonged to a male subject that had been reported missing. The male subject was last seen in November of 2018.

After seeing news reports of remains being found in the area of Stockton Blvd and Gordon Drive, the family of the missing male contacted the Sacramento County Coroner's Office to see if the bones found in the storm drain could belong to their missing relative.

The brother and daughter of the missing person provided DNA samples to the Sacramento County Coroner's Office. The Coroner's Office ran the DNA samples provided by the family and a sample from the remains using their ANDE Rapid DNA instrument. The Coroner's office was able to confirm that the remains belong to the missing male subject, and this case came to a close.

"While my team often works with the Sheriff's Office, we don't usually work with Water Resources, so this was a unique experience for us," said Kim Gin, Sacramento County Coroner. "This was a great example of County employees, that don't usually work together, coming together to identify this local man and bring some closure to his family."

The Sacramento County Coroner's Office has 73 active "John Doe" and "Jane Doe" cases dating back to 1975, and they need your help to identify them. If you recognize the description of someone on this site that could lead to an identification, please contact the Coroner's office by calling (916) 874-9320 or email coronerweb@sacounty.net ★

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Pinnacle Emergency Management has long been instrumental in their clients’ excitement over new and fresh offices or homes following disasters. This time, it is Pinnacle’s team experiencing the excitement of a new facility as they move from their former, leased location in West Sacramento to their newly purchased headquarters at 3437 Fitzgerald Road in Rancho Cordova. www.gopinnaclenow.com

Celebrating 15 years in business, Pinnacle has responded to more than 4,000 property disasters, delivering clients from catastrophe to recovery and success. Pinnacle has seen success along the way as well. As the first choice for disaster management services to numerous commercial property managers, builders and building owners, the company’s growth necessitated a new building. To this endeavor, owner Leo Grover is grateful to all the customers and projects along the way that helped make this purchase happen.

The commercial real estate and financing experts who helped Grover in his search for commercial property were instrumental to helping Pinnacle find the ideal facility for its headquarters. “I’ve always trusted Rick (Phillips) to do the very best for me,” says Grover. Rick Phillips, a real estate agent with TRI Commercial/CORFAC International has been helping Leo Grover search for the right property since 2019.

Phillips connected Grover with Jim Azevedo, senior vice president of business development for TMC Financing once he narrowed his search to the Fitzgerald Road building. “Jim is a real estate financing expert who helped us navigate the SBA 504 financing process,” added Grover. “He was instrumental in providing us with connections to competitive lenders. Ultimately, the $2.22 million deal was financed and managed by Kellie Stroud at Bank of the West after offering terms that we couldn’t refuse.”

“It’s highly satisfying to be a property owner and to become part of the business community in Rancho Cordova going forward. We’ll continue to be the most effective and reliable solution for emergency property restoration of homes and businesses from our new location,” said Grover. ★

Gary Davis Announces Candidacy for Sacramento County Supervisor

From Gary Davis Supervisor

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Former Elk Grove Mayor Gary Davis announced his candidacy for Sacramento County Supervisor with a commitment to serve neighborhoods, rebuild small businesses from the devastation of COVID-19, and make public safety the foundation of stronger communities.

“These are extraordinary and challenging times that call for experience and leadership,” said Davis.

“Families are struggling and many small businesses have shut their doors. We need to rebuild the local economy and restore trust in our communities. That is why I am running for Sacramento County Supervisor.”

Born and raised in Rancho

Cordova, Gary played Little League and was on the Cordova High Lancers football team. Growing up, he was instilled with the pride of deep community involvement. When residents of the new city of Elk Grove decided that their vision was not coming to fruition they demanded new direction and elected Gary to the City Council to change the culture at City Hall. He became the first directly elected Mayor of the City of Elk Grove, where he focused on neighborhoods.

As Mayor, Gary navigated Elk Grove through the Great Recession and the city emerged stronger. He led Elk Grove’s turnaround from its rating as the least business-friendly city in the region to earning back-to-back awards as the most business-friendly city. Violent crime fell for 10 consecutive years during Gary’s tenure as Council Member and Mayor and he launched a series of Neighborhood Leader Summits, leading to greater resident participation and stronger neighborhoods throughout Elk Grove.

More than any other potential candidate, Gary knows Supervisorial District 5 inside and out and will work to deliver resources the community needs. Smartly utilizing diminished County tax revenue and getting businesses back on their feet are what it will take to rebuild the Sacramento County economy.

Gary believes that public safety is the foundation of a strong community. If residents don’t feel safe, they won’t engage in the community around them. A strong sense of community, where neighbors know each other, leads to safe neighborhoods. This means that all residents must feel safe, including communities of color. Gary will play a hands-on role in working to build trust and effectiveness among all of our communities and law enforcement officers.

A graduate of Sacramento State, Gary says his greatest college accomplishment was marrying his wife, Heather Davis, who was re-elected in March, 2020 to a second term on the Sacramento County Board of Education. They are the proud parents of three children.

Conditions and Restrictions (CC&Rs); Specifically housing developments that do not share a common area like a club house and have no HOA. Such homes are referred to as Non-CID (Common Interest).

Councilmember David Sander humorously referred them as “the Wild, Wild West. There may be rules but no one to enforce it.” Goulart replied it would likely fall into the hands of the City.

A Non-CID HOA could provide some middle ground between a traditional HOA and nothing but is vulnerable to poor management and inability to successfully enforce CC&Rs (which are required by the city for the developer to make).

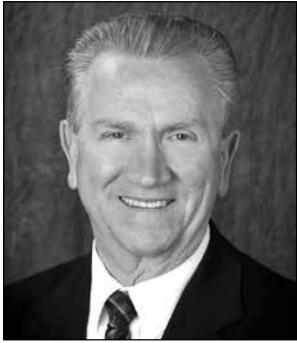

Community Development Director Elizabeth Sparkman emphasized the key for such a solution would be “cooperation with the developer from the get go. Education and information to make sure property owners don’t inadvertently violate municipal code.”

It was decided the policy be brought back as an action item at the next council meeting when all members were present.

Councilmember Siri Pulipati was not in attendance.

A presentation was also given by Housing Manager Stefan Heisler on the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) 2020-2024 Consolidated Plan and the CDBG-CV Round 3 Program Applications which details funds to organizations and businesses due to the COVID-19 crisis.

Mayor Garret Gatewood who also serves on the Sacramento Library Board made a few brief comments concerning a new library possibly coming to Rancho Cordova. Councilmember Linda Budge remarked progress was being made on the Civic Center and they were at the design stage. Councilmember Sander attended a homeless roundtable put on by the League of California Cities where the focus on mental anxiety he found encouraging. Vice-Mayor Terry and City Manager Cyrus Abhar discussed purple air monitors residents will be hosting in their homes to help monitor air quality. 15 of these handheld devices that will connect to a regional network are ready for distribution.

By Bob McGarvey

Here we are in February 2021, and there are more people getting the vaccine shots than ever before. It looks like the number of people going into the hospital’s with the virus are fewer in number, and I hope those numbers continue to go down. Fewer people are dying from the virus as the time goes by; and I am hoping that soon we will be able to start going to the movie theaters, restaurants, parks, and other things we enjoyed before everything was stopped because of the coronavirus.

In the last couple of weeks, I wrote two columns in which there were too many errors. There is no excuse for not paying attention to what I wrote, and I will do my best to improve

And Another Thing

Paying more attention to what we write wouldn’t hurt

from now on. In the past when we were going to school, you had to write and pay attention to the nouns, pronouns, verbs, adverbs, etc. Today many people don’t try to work on their personal writing, grammar, etc. They just depend on their computer and spell check. Paying more attention to what we write wouldn’t hurt I would think, whether it is personal or professional.

It’s like some of the kids today who don’t seem to worry about whether they are writing their signatures in cursive or not. They depend much more on their computer than actually writing. It will be difficult to sign their signature on a legal document if all they can do is print or use a computer. We’ll have to see how that will be in the not too distant future that students won’t have to sign their signature on a check or other legal documents. Hopefully they will be able to do more than just use their computer for everything.

I am still troubled with what happened at the Capital on January 6. It was a violent, inept attempt to disrupt the Electoral College, which is part of a peaceful transition of power in our country. And that is very impressive around the world. We were looked at by almost every country as having possibly lost the most peaceful transfer of power and predictable rule of law in a democratic society. I hope that what happened on the 6th of January, 2021 doesn’t happen again

From Bob McGarvey, God bless, and we’ll see you next time.

RCPD Arrests Subject for Stolen Property

Rancho Cordova Police Department

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - On January 24, 2021, RCPD responded to a report of two subjects passed out in a vehicle at an apartment complex in the City of Rancho Cordova. The vehicle matched the description from a recent tip received about a subject hopping over the fence at a tow yard and stealing catalytic converters from cars stored there. Officers made contact with the subjects. During a probation search of the vehicle, officers located two cut out catalytic converters, a floor jack, two reciprocating saws, bolt cutters, approximately 20 new, hard metal saw blades, and more than $1,000 in cash. Officers arrested 28-year-old Xavier Roberts of Sacramento and booked him at the Sacramento County Main Jail for felony possession of stolen property, possession of burglary tools, and probation violation.

If your catalytic converter has been stolen, please file a police report online at RanchoCordovaPD.com. If you see an item left behind at the scene of the theft, please leave it in place and call the non-emergency line at 916.362.5115 to request RCPD to respond.

SHERMAN Deputy STANDING FAMILY LAW RESTRRAINING ORDERS Starting immediately, you and your spouse or domestic partner are restrained from: 1. removing the minor children of the parties from the state or applying for a new or replacement passport for those minor children without the prior written consent of the other party or an order of the court; 2. cashing, borrowing against, canceling, transferring, disposing of, or changing the beneficiaries of any insurance or other coverage, including life, health automobile, and disability, held for the benefit of the parties and their minor children; 3. transferring, encumbering, hypothecating, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property, real or personal, whether community, quasi-community, or separate, without the written consent of the other party or an order of the court, except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life; and 4. creating a nonprobate transfer or modifying a nonprobate transfer in a manner that affects the disposition of property subject to the transfer, without the written consent of the other party or an order of the court. Before revocation of a nonprobate transfer can take effect or a right of survivorship to property can be eliminated, notice of the change must be filed and served on the other party. You must notify each other of any proposed extraordinary expenditures at least five business days prior to incurring these extraordinary expenditures and account to the court for all extraordinary expenditures made after these restraining orders are effective. However, you may use community property, quasi-community property, or your own separate property to pay attorney's fees or pay court costs.

NOTICE-ACCESS TO AFFORDABLE HEALTH INSURANCE: Do you or someone in your household need affordable health insurance? If so, you should apply for Covered California. WARNING-IMPORANT INFORMATION California law provides that, for purposes of division of property upon dissolution of a marriage or domestic partnership or upon legal separation, property acquired by the parties during marriage or domestic partnership in joint form is presumed to be community property. If either party to this action should die before the jointly held community property is divided, the language in the joint that characterizes how title is held (i.e., joint tenancy, tenants in common, or community property) will be controlling, and not the community property presumption. You should consult your attorney if you want the community property presumption to be written into the recorded title to the property. Publish: January 29 February 5, 12, and 19, 2021 SILVA 2-19-21

All Mixed Up

class. Moyher used Davies’ unique method with the materials being pressed into a thin-set mortar. “There’s no changing it once it’s down because you’ve pressed it into the black adhesive that also self grouts,” Moyher said.

Gleason, who is MACC curator and coordinator, also has a winning piece in this show, taking third place with As We Start to Heal, made of oil, cold wax, paper, and graphite. For abstract art she starts her process without anything in mind but the colors she wants to use. Then she goes through a “play stage,” putting on random marks and shapes, followed by visualizing where the viewer’s eyes are led through the lines, marks and colors she is using. “It isn’t till about three-fourths of the way through where I start to feel what the piece is about as it reveals the composition and story,” Gleason said.

You can see this show through April 10, 2021, during regular City Hall open hours of 8 a.m. – 5 p.m., Monday-Friday. The address is 2729 Prospect Park Dr., Rancho Cordova. Don’t forget to wear your mask. ★
