County is Helping Local Businesses During Pandemic

Sacramento County's Economic Development Department is here to help businesses in the region with up-to-date information and resources. Photo by Andrea Piacquadio from Pexels

By Janna Haynes,
Sacramento County

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - As the economic impact of COVID-19 continues to evolve, Sacramento County's Economic Development Department is here to help businesses in the region with up-to-date information and resources. Recently, the department revamped its Business Resource Guide webpage with user-friendly industry guidelines and California's new Blueprint to a Safer Economy featuring a tiered, color-coded system. The system makes it easier for businesses to identify new and upcoming operational modifications regulated by the State of California. Sacramento County is currently in the State's most restrictive Purple Tier 1 (widespread).

Along with up-to-date information and resources regarding the current Public Health Order, local businesses can view a list of Financial Resources available including: Grants and Loans; Disability Insurance; Unemployment Assistance; Paid Family Leave; Work Share Programs; Utility Rate Relief.

Businesses can contact the Office of Economic Development at COVID19. BusinessAssistance@sacounty.net for assistance. In addition to Economic Development's resources, Sacramento County's Department of Health Services provides a COVID-19 Hotline for Sacramento County businesses and residents who have questions about the Public Health Order. For questions about the Public Health Order, call (916) 875-2400.

Sacramento County has also partnered with Sierra Health Foundation to hire Community Based Organizations to find and train Business Navigators. Business Navigators will provide industry-specific information and education to support small business owners' understanding of both the Public Health Order and guidelines in order to safely re-open. Visit the Sacramento County COVID-19 Collab website for more information.

For a complete list of industry guidelines, businesses can visit the California Department of Public Health website. For complaints about unsafe practices at businesses (e.g. face coverings, social distancing), or violations of the Health Order, dial 3-1-1 or go to Sacramento County 311 Connect, or email, SacCo311@custhelp.com. ★

Newsom's Plan Imposes Risk-Based Restrictions

Office of Governor
Gavin Newsom

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Governor Gavin Newsom unveiled the Blueprint for a Safer Economy, a statewide, stringent and slow plan for living with COVID-19 for the long haul. The plan imposes risk-based criteria on tightening and loosening COVID-19 allowable activities and expands the length of time between changes to assess how any movement affects the trajectory of the disease.

Like every aspect of California's response, data and science are the North Star, and as a result, this new framework makes a number of changes to the state's previous resilience roadmap.

Californians can go to covid19.ca.gov to find out where their county falls and what activities are allowable in each county.

"This Blueprint is statewide, stringent and slow," said Governor Newsom. "We have made notable progress over recent weeks, but the disease is still too widespread across the state. COVID-19 will be with us for a long time and we all need to adapt. We need to live differently. And we need to minimize exposure for our health, for our families and for our communities."

The Blueprint builds on lessons learned from the first six months of the disease – and the new scientific understanding that has been collected – to create a new system for regulating movement and COVID-19 transmissions. It includes:

(1) At least 21 days to expand activities beyond the initial tier to ensure California better limits the spread of the virus; (2) Mandatory metrics – case rates and test positivity – to measure how widespread COVID-19 is in each county and guide what is allowed; (3) A uniform state framework, with four categories instead of 58 different sets of rules; (4) A more nuanced way of allowing activity: Instead of open vs. closed, sectors can be partially opened and progressively add

Residents Asked To Help Develop Disaster Mitigation Plan

Sacramento County
Press Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - Natural disasters whether forecasted or having the element of surprise can leave areas devastated for long periods. As the 2017 floods showed, rebounding can be costly and time consuming. It is possible to reduce that impact before disaster strikes, but to do that requires having a well-developed Hazard Mitigation Plan in place. That plan provides guidance before anything occurs, as well as a roadmap to help get people back on their feet.

Sacramento County is updating its 2021 Local Hazard Mitigation Plan (LHMP) to develop a long-term strategy for reducing disaster losses. The County is teaming with cities and several special districts to meet Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) requirements to ensure eligibility for FEMA pre- and post-disaster grant funding along with receiving lower costs of flood insurance to residents through the National Flood Insurance Program's (NFIP) Community Rating System (CRS).

The County is looking for residents to take an active role in developing the 2021 LHMP. No specific background is required. Residents would attend community meetings, and review a draft plan to provide important feedback. Their knowledge of the needs of area neighborhoods will provide the County and its partners with a better vision of potential issues that might occur if a natural disaster strikes.

The 2016 LHMP was vital in the County receiving FEMA funding to assist with Sacramento County residents living in flood prone areas to receive discounts of up to 40% off their flooding insurance. The County plan also helped secure money for the Sacramento County Home Elevation Program for residents in flood prone areas to raise their homes above the flood elevation level in which FEMA would pay 75% of the cost. To date, two homes are in the process of being elevated above the flood plain.

This preparation for unforeseen disasters will lay the groundwork for successfully coming through them if they strike. The County will be hosting online public meetings about the 2021 LHMP. For more information, and to obtain the Zoom link for the meetings, please visit our Local Hazard Mitigation Plan webpage at www.StormReady.org. ★

County Recommended Budget Released and Hearings Held

By Kim Nava, Sacramento County

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento County Revised Recommended Budget for Fiscal Year 2020-21 has been released. The Board of Supervisors began hearings on the Revised Recommended Budget Wednesday, Sept. 9.

Given the uncertainties around the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on County revenues and cost increases, the FY2020-21 Recommended Budget approved on June 16 was a placeholder budget that rolled over the FY2019-20 Adopted Budget.

This FY2020-21 Revised Recommended Budget reflects the results of the County's efforts over the last three months to refine the estimates of the pandemic and resulting recession on the County's revenues and expenditures, what additional federal or State relief might be available and work with departments to develop plans for anticipated revenue reductions.

The Revised Recommended General Fund budget accounted for the County's $170 million revenue loss with one-time State and federal funding, allowing the County to continue to provide critical services without program/service cuts. However, the long-term outlook for future fiscal years, barring dramatic economic improvement and/or a significant amount of additional federal and State relief, is problematic.

The one-time funding allowed the County to provide: $89.1 million for the County's continued response to COVID-19; $57.7 million in salary and benefit costs as agreed to in various labor agreements.

The budget also includes $2.1 million for the first phase of a plan to provide body cameras for all Sheriff's Deputies. This phase provides cameras for all patrol deputies, certain special unit deputies and park rangers. A second phase will be proposed in the FY2021-22 budget that will include other deputies, including those providing court security and working in the jails.

Members of the public may be heard on any item in the budget. The budget hearings will be telecast live on Metro Cable 14 and on the web.

“It is encouraging to see growing public interest in Sacramento County’s budget” said First District Supervisor and Chairman of the Board Phil Serna. “It’s why I’m using my prerogative as chairman to start our budget deliberations – including public testimony – at 5 PM so that we can accommodate those who wish to participate but who might otherwise be unable due to work or school schedules” he continued. Board meetings typically begin at 9:30 a.m.

To make a verbal public comment, dial the Public Comment Phone Line at (916) 875-2500. The phone line will be open 15 minutes prior to the start of the meeting. To make a written comment, send an email to BoardClerk@saccounty.net.

The budget letter and a complete set of budget documents may be found online and at the Office of the County Executive, 700 H Street, Room 7650. ★

Popular Cooking Instructor Offers Online Cooking Classes

By Steve LaRosa Productions

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Beginning Thursday, September 3, 2020 at 5pm, (and also scheduled for future Thursdays at 5pm) well-respected Sacramento foodie, Paulette Bruce reinvents her popular Good Eats Cooking Classes with weekly highly anticipated online classes designed to appeal to everyone, from beginners to home chefs who know their way around the kitchen.

“With the COVID-19 Shelter-in-Place order, my live classes had to close in March 2020,” said Bruce. “I had been asked many times by friends and family to begin teaching online classes as this new way of learning began to gain momentum and with help from Dane Henas Design and Penny Sylvia Photography it's come to fruition.”

Utilizing four cameras positioned in her home kitchen, Bruce will offer recipe instruction with the added bonus of two way communication... members will be able to ask questions as she demonstrates each step of the recipe process.

(Classes are typically one hour with an optional interactive prep time starting 15 minutes before class)

"During this time I can observe what the members doing, give advice and answer their questions so they're completely prepared when the class starts," Bruce said.

Some of the classes each month will be live on Zoom while others will be recorded and, like all the classes, available for viewing to current members, as long as

Paulette Bruce has been reviewing restaurants and presenting cooking segments on Sacramento TV stations for 30 years, making her a leading food expert in our region. Photo provided by Steve LaBosa Productions their membership remains active.

During August, Bruce has hosted dry runs on Zoom using a test group and has launched a new web site — goodeatscookingclasses.com

The first of three classes began on September 3 of this month, with September featuring an emphasis on Italian cuisine. The concept is structured around monthly memberships.

The cost for monthly membership is only $29 per month, which includes:

2 Live, interactive classes via Zoom; 2 Recorded classes; Recipes and a list of recommend kitchen tools; Bonus content & access to a private Facebook members page; Weekly blogs filled with tips, techniques, recipes and more.

The FAQ section on the web site answers all pertinent questions and includes a link to submit further questions and a tutorial on downloading, installing and using Zoom. As with her in-person classes, these online classes will be characterized by Bruce's larger than life, affable personality that, over the decades, has built a large, faithful following.

"I love what I do. I love to bring people together and teach them something they never thought possible to do on their own. My classes are always fun and informative. I'm invested in creating more confident and better cooks, and during this challenging time, members can achieve that in the safety of their own homes," Bruce said.

 Pet Friendly  EQUAL HOUSING OPPORTUNITY

RCFE #347005361

By Bob McGarvey

I have been playing the piano since I was eight years old, and “Autumn Leaves” was one of my favorite songs. I talked about that song last year in my column, and as I said then, it is September but the “Autumn Leaves” haven’t drifted by my window, or on my lawn, or in my pool, or on the water fountain yet. And the temperatures this year, like last year, are too hot for the trees to begin dropping their leaves. It definitely doesn’t feel like fall weather yet.

I am writing this column on September 3, 2020 because I have to get it done sooner than usual as Monday, September 7 is

And Another Thing

I will look for 2021 to be kinder to us all

Labor Day, and the paper has a shorter time to go to press. Going back to the temperature again, we will know if it was 105, 109, 109 and 105 on Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Personally, I am ready for cooler and colder weather. We’ll see if Mother Nature will be kind and give us the “Autumn Leaves” in autumn, and then give us the rain we really need. And now, on to some things that we definitely didn’t have problems with last year.

The coronavirus has been talked about quite a bit, of course, which wasn’t here last year, but this year is also the Presidential and General Election in November. Something that has dramatically affected the election this year is no in-person Democratic or Republican National Convention with the hundreds and thousands of people having to stay home and watch virtually. For some reason, I don’t think that will be a permanent thing for the political parties.

The smoke has begun to clear up. I know there is one big fire, the August Complex, that is providing most of the smoke we have been seeing and smelling for a while. But I noticed I haven’t seen the ash on my truck like I did when it all began. I am hopeful that we will see the end of the huge fire complexes this year. It has been quite a year, and I will look for 2021 to be kinder to us all.

From Councilman Bob McGarvey, God bless, and we’ll see you next time. ★

PG&E Kicks-Off National Preparedness Month for Wildfire Safety

By Paul Moreno, Pacific Gas & Electric Co.

SAN FRANCISCO, CA (MPG) - September is National Preparedness Month, and Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) reminds its customers that being prepared for the unexpected, especially after the events of the last few weeks, has never been more important.

With peak wildfire season off to an early start and COVID-19 altering the dynamics of evacuations, having an emergency plan and reviewing it and sharing it with family and friends is essential. PG&E’s online Safety Action Center is a great place to start. More than 1 million Californians have used the resources at this one-stop source. The website helps ensure that customers are prepared before an emergency, with links to sign up for wildfire safety alerts and printable emergency checklists. The Safety Action Center also includes a helpful video demonstration of how to manually open an electric garage door, should you experience a power outage during an evacuation.

“We are in the heart of wildfire season, in the midst of a pandemic, and in earthquake country. We don’t need to be afraid, but we do need to be prepared,” said Rod Robinson, PG&E’s senior director of Emergency Preparedness & Response. “At PG&E, we plan for emergencies by regularly training, working closely with first responders, and tracking the weather 24/7/365. We encourage customers to also have a plan for emergencies and, above all else, stay safe.”

HOW CUSTOMERS CAN PREPARE:

Build or restock your emergency kit with flashlights, fresh batteries, first aid supplies and cash. Keep face masks and hand sanitizer in your emergency kit; Identify backup charging methods for phones and keep hard copies of emergency numbers; Plan for medical needs like medications that require refrigeration or devices that need power; Keep in mind family members who are elderly, younger children and pets; Update your contact information online or by calling PG&E at 1-866-743-6589 during normal business hours so you can receive Public Safety Power Shutoff alerts; Learn more about wildfire risk and what to do before, during and after an emergency to keep your family safe at PG&E’s Safety Action Center.

Pacific Gas and Electric Company, a subsidiary of PG&E Corporation (NYSE:PCG), is one of the largest combined natural gas and electric energy companies in the United States. Based in San Francisco, with more than 23,000 employees, the company delivers some of the nation’s cleanest energy to nearly 16 million people in Northern and Central California. ## Newsom’s Plan Imposes Risk-Based Restrictions to their operations as disease transmission decreases; and (5) A new process for tightening back up again quickly when conditions worsen.

Based on recent data, each county will fall into one of four colored tiers – Purple (Widespread), Red (Substantial), Orange (Moderate) and Yellow (Minimal) – based on how prevalent COVID-19 is in each county and the extent of community spread. That color will indicate how sectors can operate.

For example, in the Purple (Widespread) tier where the disease is widespread, restaurants can only operate outdoors. But once a county has achieved a lower level of disease transmission and moved into the Red (Substantial) tier, restaurants can operate with 25 percent capacity indoors or 100 patrons, whichever is fewer.

It relies on two leading health metrics: number of cases per 100,000 residents and percentage of COVID-19 tests that come back positive. In addition, counties will also be required to show they are targeting resources and making the greatest efforts to prevent and fight COVID in communities and with individuals with the highest risk, and demonstrate improvements in outcomes.

Counties must remain in every tier but purple for a minimum of 21 days before being eligible to move into the next tier. Each Tuesday, California will update each county’s data for the previous week and make corresponding changes to tiers. In order to move into a less restrictive tier, a county must meet that tier’s criteria for two straight weeks.

Conversely, counties that fail to meet the metrics for their current tier for two consecutive weeks must move to the next most restrictive tier. The plan also includes an “emergency brake” where the state can intervene more immediately for concerning factors like hospitalizations.

Purple (Widespread) is substituted for the previous County Data Monitoring List (which has equivalent criteria to Purple). Schools in the (Purple) Widespread tier aren’t permitted to reopen for in-person instruction, unless they receive a waiver from their local health department for TK-6 grades. Schools can reopen for in-person instruction once their county has been in the Red (Substantial) tier for at least two weeks.

The plan also emphasizes that no matter what restrictions the state puts in place, COVID-19 will get the upper hand if Californians don’t adapt their behaviors for the duration of the pandemic.

That means, until an effective vaccine is distributed, Californians must wear a mask every time they’re with people outside their household. Residents must take activities outside and maintain distance even with loved ones who do not live with them. Californians must realize that the safest place to be is still at home. And the elderly and those with medical conditions should still stay away from others as much as possible.

The Governor also announced new PSAs highlighting the dangers of social gatherings during the pandemic and partnerships with Yelp, Facebook, Google and OpenTable, which will now encourage businesses to share COVID-19 safety precautions through new features so that customers can make informed decisions to protect their health and safety.

Legislature Ignores Fire Insurance Crisis

By Dan Walters CAL Matters

As wildfires of record magnitude swept through Northern California last week, destroying thousands of homes and other structures, the Legislature closed its 2020 session without doing something about the fire insurance crisis that afflicts fire-prone areas.

It ranks near the top of a long list of legislative failures this year, right up there with housing shortages and police reforms.

Insurers have sustained massive losses, tens of billions of dollars, from wildfires in recent years and are increasingly reluctant to continue coverage in fire-prone communities, even threatening to quit the market if they cannot increase premiums enough to cover projected future liabilities. Often, homeowners can only buy coverage through the state’s FAIR plan, which is barebones and expensive.

The ultimate solution would be to stop building and rebuilding homes in the “wildland-urban interface” – essentially the outer suburbs of major metropolitan areas – where the risk of catastrophic losses is highest. However, for the foreseeable future, much of California’s population will continue to live in those communities, such as Sonoma and Napa counties, the Sierra foothills and the mountain ranges ringing Los Angeles.

We need a new approach. A truly comprehensive solution would be layers of coverage, beginning with a basic statewide policy financed by mandatory fees on all residential property, adjusted by region. The statewide policy would be backed by reinsurance from the global market and, by covering the first layer of fire losses, would make private insurers more willing to offer additional layers.

The national flood insurance program more or less takes that approach. Homeowners in designated flood-prone areas must buy it, but it has limits, so they can purchase supplemental insurance to fill the gap between coverage and loss.

The insurance industry itself took a stab at a solution this year with legislation, Assembly Bill 2167, allowing insurers to include the cost of reinsurance in their rates, as well as allowing them to base premiums on calculations of future losses – two aspects banned by current law.

The shorthand for what insurers proposed is a “market assistance plan” that would make insuring homes in fire-prone areas less risky.

However, AB 2167 drew fierce opposition from consumer groups, saying it undermined Proposition 103, the 1988 law that imposed direct regulation on premiums by an elected insurance commissioner. And the current commissioner, Ricardo Lara, joined the opposition.

“In an era where climate change is contributing to more severe and frequent wildfires, homeowners need more protection – not less,” Lara wrote in an op-ed article. “COVID-19 might be the Legislature’s primary focus, but we cannot let the insurance industry use it to gut important consumer protections that have existed for decades.”

Last December, after several years of wildfires, Lara barred insurers from refusing to renew policies in ZIP codes where fires were common, but that order expires in a few months and cannot be renewed.

Although rural counties endorsed AB 2167, the opposition prevailed. In its last incarnation, the bill merely ordered a study by Lara’s Department of Insurance – the time-dishonored way politicians duck tough issues. But even that version died without a vote when the legislative session ended.

Obviously, the crisis will not solve itself. Insurers are facing many more billions of dollars in losses from this summer’s fires – and the traditional autumn fire season hasn’t even begun. When Lara’s order expires, we probably will see insurers refuse to renew policies in the wildland-urban interface or even pull out of California altogether.

The status quo may be unsustainable, but the men and women in the Legislature can’t be bothered to change it.

Leader Grove on the Passing of Former Senator Tom Berryhill

Tom Berryhill
By Jacqui Nguyen, California Senate Republicans

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Senate Republican Leader Shannon Grove (R-Bakersfield) released the following statement on the recent passing of former

Republican Senator Tom Berryhill:
“I am saddened to learn about the passing of my friend Tom Berryhill who was a true statesman, a small business owner, and a farmer from Calaveras County.” Business and farm groups considered Tom a friend and staunch supporter as did many on both sides of the political spectrum.
“Tom’s famous annual Capitol Frog Jump was always popular and brought members, legislative staff, and media outlets together on the Capitol lawn for an afternoon of good old-fashioned fun.” The yearly Capitol event was an unofficial kick-off to the Calaveras County Fair and Jumping Frog Jubilee which was also an opportunity for Tom to share a part of his district’s personality with Sacramento.

“After leaving the Senate, Tom’s dedication to public service continued as voters elected him to serve as a Stanislaus County Supervisor. My condolences and prayers go out to Tom’s family during this difficult time,” said Senate Republican Leader Shannon Grove.
Senate Republican Leader Shannon Grove represents California’s 16th Senate District. ★

Doing Nothing Is Harder Than I Thought

By Rev. James L. Snyder

After being so long in a lockdown situation, the Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage planned a short vacation time for us. It took her quite a while to put all of the pieces together, but she succeeded as always.

As I was preparing for this little adventure, my wife looked at me and said, “What are you putting in that bag?”

“This is a very important time for us to do nothing. And I will make sure that we will do absolutely nothing on this little vacation together.”

This was rather new for me. Although sometimes I do not do very much, I have never gotten to the point where I am actually doing nothing. I am not sure what that feels like.

“You don’t need to worry about this.” My wife said as she saw me scowling. “I will handle this and help you to do nothing while we are away. When we’re done, you’ll thank me.”

We got to our motel, I checked in, and we settled into our room.

I sat down on a chair in the corner, looked at my wife and cheerfully said, “Well, Honey, what do we do now?”

“We’ll take a little rest here,” she said, “and then we will go out for dinner.”

“Okay,” I said, trying to hold back a chuckle, “but isn’t that doing something?”

We went out for dinner just up the street from our motel and enjoyed ourselves tremendously.

When the check came, I looked at my wife and said, “This sure is fun doing nothing.”

As we drove around the block to go back to our motel, we passed a thrift store. I looked at my wife, pointed to the thrift store, and said, “Hey, look at that! You want to go into the thrift store?”

Before I could park the car, she was out the door and going into this thrift store. I cherished the moment because it is a rare moment when I get one on her.

When she came out of the thrift store, she had several bags of whatever. I opened the door for her and said rather cheerfully, “How much did that doing nothing cost you?”

“So,” I said as dramatically as possible, “your doing nothing is different from my doing nothing.”

“I’m sorry,” she said very sorrowfully, “I made a mistake, so I will allow you to do one thing. What do you want to do?”

I must admit this caught me off guard. I thought for a moment that I was in control of the situation, and then it backfired on me. I tried to think of one thing to do, and my brain just was not working.

The more I thought about it, the less I knew what I could do. I do not go shopping, so that was out. All of my projects were back home, so that was out of the picture. I could think of nothing to do.

“I can’t think of nothing,” I said to my wife.

“That’s great. Now you’re doing nothing.”

While I was thinking of nothing, I was reminded of Scripture, “And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise” (Luke 6:31).

Nothing is not that special but sometimes the right something can be real special.

VA Marks Suicide Prevention Month

By Will Martin,
VA Northern California Health Care System

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - September is Suicide Prevention Month and the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) wants to remind Veterans and their loved ones through the Be There campaign that small actions can make a big difference to Veterans experiencing difficult times.

During this and every month the Sacramento VA Medical Center and the entire VA NorCal Health Care System remain committed to spreading awareness of suicide prevention to Veterans and their supporters and connecting them to the resources they need.

“Veterans who access VA mental health services are much less likely to experience suicide than those who choose to struggle alone,” said VA NorCal Director David Stockwell. “It’s imperative, then, that Veteran caregivers and other supporters connect Veterans with VA health care so we can get these men and women the help they deserve.”

Be There suggests several simple actions that can help make a difference for a Veteran to include:

Learning about the warning signs of suicide, found on the Veterans Crisis Line website; Watching the free S.A.V.E. training video to learn how to respond with care and compassion if someone indicates they are having thoughts of suicide; Contacting VA’s Coaching Into Care program where a licensed psychologist or social worker will provide loved ones with guidance for motivating Veterans to seek support; Sharing stories of hope and recovery from VA’s Make the Connection; Reaching out to the Veterans in your life to show them you care by sending a check-in text, cook them dinner or simply asking, “How are you?”; Northern California Veterans and their caregivers can get local support by contacting the VA NorCal Suicide Prevention Program Manager at 530-531-1408.

For more information and resources visit BeThereForVeterans.com.

If you or someone you know is having thoughts of suicide, contact the Veterans Crisis Line to receive free, confidential support and crisis intervention available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year. Call 1-800-273-8255 and Press 1, text to 838255, or chat online at VeteransCrisisLine.net/Chat. ★

AB 3262 Amendments Made Suing Small Businesses Easier

NFIB California

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - August 24 amendments proposed for Assembly Bill 3262 would only exacerbate an already bad idea, the state’s largest and leading small-business association charge.

NFIB testified earlier before the Senate Judiciary Committee on its opposition to AB 3262, stating that the bill increases liability on all online marketplaces, including the small online marketplaces relied upon by many small businesses. NFIB’s concern is that the bill erodes the ability of small- and medium-sized businesses from using their digital platforms.

But subsequent amendments revealed on August 24 make the bill worse by expanding the scope to cover businesses ‘facilitating the placement of products into the stream of commerce.’

“Given the vague language in the bill, it is unclear which business owners will be covered under the definition of ‘electronic retail marketplace’ (ERM) and whether their activities constitute ‘facilitating’ the placement of products into the stream of commerce leading to liability,” said John Kabateck, California state director for NFIB.

In an NFIB survey of its members this week, 68% identified ‘increased liability’ as a significant concern for them right now. “This bill will compound their existing fears, frustrations and inability to stay afloat during the COVID crisis,” said Kabateck. “AB 3262 should be rejected. The policy is harmful, the last-minute amendments are flawed, and the timing could not be worse.”

For more than 77 years, NFIB has been advocating on behalf of America’s small and independent business owners, both in Washington, D.C., and in all 50 state capitals. For more information, please visit nfib.com. ★
