The Flu Has Had Serious Consequences in Sac County

By Brenda Bongiorno, Sacramento County

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The flu season is already in full swing in Sacramento County. With these flu cases increasing so early in the season, Sacramento County Public Health urges everyone to prioritize getting the flu shot now to protect you and your family from the deadly virus.

Since the beginning of this year's flu season, 12 flu cases have been admitted to the Intensive Care Unit (ICU) in Sacramento County and Public Health has received reports confirming influenza has claimed the life of a Sacramento County 66-year-old, as well as a 7-year-old who had multiple underlying medical conditions. This is the second pediatric death in California for the 2019/20 flu season.

Getting vaccinated is the best defense against the flu, but it takes a couple of weeks after vaccination for the body to build immunity. The strains of influenza that are circulating in Sacramento County this season are Influenza B, which is most prevalent among the cases (ICU and deaths, all ages) reported to Public Health, and Influenza A (not subtyped and subtype H1N1 and H3N2). The flu vaccine, which is readily available, covers the strains of the flu that have been detected in Sacramento County.

The California Department of Public Health and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) recommend annual influenza vaccinations for everyone six months of age and older – including pregnant women – who do not have medical contraindication to receiving the vaccine.

A person's decision to receive the flu vaccination or not affects the entire community – especially those who medically cannot have the flu vaccine. Those who have regular contact with people more vulnerable to the complications of flu – including babies, children with chronic health conditions such as asthma and diabetes, and adults 65 years and older – should get vaccinated so the flu virus isn't spread to them.

"Everyone in the community, who can get vaccinated, should get vaccinated. Vaccination is the best protection against the flu, which is a preventable illness," Sacramento County Public Health

Rancho Cordova Police Department Halts Unsafe and Illegal Marijuana Cultivation

By Sergeant Tess
Deterding, Sacramento
County Sheriff's Office

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - The Rancho Cordova Police Department (RCPD) is taking a proactive approach to identify and halt illegal marijuana cultivation to prevent illegal activity and nuisances for residents and businesses in the City of Rancho Cordova.

According to the Rancho Cordova Municipal Code, up to six plants may be cultivated indoors in a private residence in the city. However, RCPD is seeing unsafe and illegal cultivation in residential and business areas that far exceeds this plant requirement.

RCPD recently added an officer focused on illegal marijuana cultivation investigations and enforcement to enhance its ability to investigate tips from the community and take action to stop this unsafe and illegal activity.

"Our proactive approach was developed in response to community feedback," said RCPD Assistant Chief of Police Jeff Schelldorf. "Illegal marijuana cultivation impacts quality of life. It creates building and safety hazards, generates nuisances for residents and businesses, and can lead to other types of crimes."

SacRT Holiday Bus Benefits Riders and Children’s Charity

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento Regional Transit District (SacRT) and the Sacramento Children’s Home unveiled this year’s SacRT Holiday Bus. SacRT showed off the colorful 40-foot holiday inspired bus and speakers discussed the importance of the program.

“This is a special time of year and a very special time for SacRT to thank our riders and give back to our community,” said SacRT GM/CEO Henry Li. “Each year, we say thank you to our riders, by making it free to ride the holiday bus, but we also select a charity that can benefit from donations that can be deposited in the farebox when boarding the holiday bus.”

New this year, Holiday Bus passengers now have the option to text their donation right from their smartphone -- simply text GIVETOSCH to 44321, or they can make a cash donation in the farebox. All donations benefit the Sacramento Children’s Home.

“The Sacramento Children’s Home is honored and thrilled to be selected by Sacramento Regional Transit as the beneficiary of this year’s Holiday Bus,” said Sacramento Children’s Home CEO Dr. David Baker. “This partnership will help raise not only important resources that support the children and families we serve, but also awareness about the Sacramento Children’s Home and our mission to open doors to the future by maximizing the potential of children and families.”

The Sacramento Children’s Home was founded in 1867 and today it is the most comprehensive child and family service organization in Sacramento County serving more than 7,000 children and 4,300 families each year through a broad spectrum of residential, community-based, mental health and educational programs. Through its multiple programs at six sites in the county, the Sacramento Children’s Home offers prevention, early intervention and treatment programs that are critical to strengthening families and stopping the generational cycle of child abuse and neglect. More information is available at kidshome.org.

“I’m proud that SacRT has this opportunity to highlight the amazing work the Sacramento Children’s Home is doing for our area youth and families and I am even more excited that we can share that with our riders when they step on board this year’s Holiday Bus,” said SacRT Board Chair and Sacramento County Supervisor Patrick Kennedy.

“The Sacramento Children’s Home is a perfect partner this year, as SacRT has teamed up with the city and school districts to offer free transit for youth throughout the entire SacRT service area,” said SacRT Board Director and Sacramento City Councilmember Jay Schenirer. “Some of these kids and families that benefit from the programs at the Sacramento Children’s Home are our next generation of transit riders.”

The SacRT Holiday Bus travels on different routes throughout the Sacramento region spreading goodwill from Sunday, December 1, 2019 through Wednesday, January 1, 2020. View the Holiday Bus schedule at sacrt.com. ★

Budget Update: Board Approves Ongoing Reductions to Provide Solutions

Folsom Cordova Unified School District

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - The Folsom Cordova Board of Education on Nov. 21 approved a package of budget reductions proposed to help alleviate the District’s budget challenges. The measures were designed to avoid potential layoffs while minimizing impacts to classrooms and student learning.

The Board voted 3-2 to approve $4.9 million in ongoing reductions, as well as another $1.4 million in one-time dollars, through a series of measures reached collaboratively with the District’s employee bargaining units. The reductions identified were the culmination of months of work with school site leadership, employee union leaders, and others to review and evaluate new ways to design programs and services while maintaining high-quality educational opportunities for students.

More reductions must be determined: The District will still need to identify an additional $2.5 million in cuts by its next budget report to the Sacramento County Office of Education (SCOE) by March 2020.

Note: Potential staffing reductions adopted Nov. 21 are likely to be absorbed through attrition.

Some of the approved, ongoing reductions include:

Staffing reductions at the Education Services Center ($250,000): The District began eliminating vacant administrator positions in 2018-19 and will continue to evaluate opportunities to restructure operations. The reductions approved include the elimination of one director and two classified positions.

Reduction of teacher prep periods at Mills and Mitchell middle schools ($828,793): This move will standardize middle school schedules across the District and will result in a surplus of 5.7 teachers at Mitchell and 4.5 teachers at Mills, likely to be absorbed through attrition. The District is working with staff at both schools to design new school-day schedules that support and sustain exceptional educational offerings, such as International Baccalaureate.

Standardizing Kindergarten schedules ($190,000): This measure will move all kindergarten to the “AM/PM” model currently used by six school sites and result in surplus of 1.9 physical education specialists, likely to be absorbed through attrition.

Redirection of Folsom Lake High School students to existing Alternative Education ($407,000): Under this plan, students would be provided the opportunity to obtain credits through a hybrid model that includes a small learning environment in another location that best meets their needs. Students will also have the chance to enroll in electives and other courses at Folsom High School. The Independent Living Skills (ILS) program for 18-22-year-olds with special needs will remain at the Folsom Lake High campus for the 2020-21 school year while alternatives are explored. Three certificated, two classified employees, and one administrator will be impacted by the move, with the potential to absorb possible reductions through attrition.

Why do cuts need to be made? School districts across the state are experiencing fiscal challenges due to rising employee and operating costs that are outpacing revenues. The Board has held five public study sessions in the last year to explore ideas for solutions to Folsom Cordova’s budget shortfall.

In the 2020-21 school year, the District projects an estimated $3.5 million budget shortfall, and an additional $5.5 million the following year. If long-term, ongoing cuts are not identified, SCOE may reject the District’s budget, prompting deeper cuts.

Have any cuts been made previously? As part of the first phase of budget reductions this year, the District has taken several actions, including reducing travel and conference expenses, saving money through early retirements, eliminating vacant teaching positions that did not have class rosters (such as intervention teachers in Folsom), declining to backfill some clerical positions, and eliminating some administration positions by collapsing vacant positions.

What’s next:

The District is working with its classified employee bargaining unit, CSEA, to evaluate an early retirement incentive that could reduce staffing across the District and avoid layoffs by not backfilling vacancies. The teachers union, Folsom Cordova Education Association, accepted a similar early retirement program last year to reduce teaching staff.

The District will continue to work with its school communities to identify and implement further reductions for the 2021-22 school year. ★

At a time when there is high demand for industrial space and less than 1% of industrial space vacancies in areas of Rancho Cordova, this proactive approach also ensures businesses in the second largest employment center in the region can continue to expand and grow, and those that are operating illegally are not.

RCPD recently identified and halted the following illegal marijuana cultivation:

On November 22, 2019, RCPD served a search warrant at one location suspected of illegal marijuana cultivation. RCPD located an illegal marijuana cultivation operation consisting of around 3,100 live marijuana plants. Around 1,320 pounds of marijuana, including the live plants, were destroyed. In addition, RCPD located and seized around $1,000 in cash. RCPD arrested 29-year-old Serezha Darmoyan of Rancho Cordova and 64-year-old Krikor Jakalian of Citrus Heights on multiple charges relating to illegal marijuana cultivation and sales.

On October 9, 2019, RCPD served search warrants at three locations pertaining to illegal marijuana cultivation. RCPD located an illegal marijuana cultivation operation consisting of around 800 live marijuana plants. Around 670 pounds of marijuana, including the live plants and processed and dried marijuana, were destroyed. In addition, RCPD located and seized items indicative of sales and around $37,000 in cash. RCPD arrested 41-year-old Jeremy Mills of Folsom, 34-year-old Jaimee Mills of Folsom, and 36-year-old Maxim Yegorov of Sacramento on multiple charges relating to illegal marijuana cultivation and sales.

RCPD is asking residents and businesses to be our eyes in the community to help stop illegal marijuana cultivation. If you think there may be illegal marijuana cultivation in your area, please contact RCPD’s Problem Oriented Policing Unit at 916.875.9600.

CHS Teacher is a State Finalist for "Samsung Solve For Tomorrow" Contest

By Angela Griffin Ankhelyi, Folsom Cordova Unified School District

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Faith Caplan, teacher at Cordova High School, oversees and teaches classes in the Product Innovation and Design Pathway, part of the California Partnership Academies at CHS. We just learned she is a State Finalist in the very competitive Samsung Solve For Tomorrow Contest!

CHS is one of only 13 other California schools to be named a finalist in this national competition designed to “boost interest and proficiency in Science, Technology, Engineering and MATH (STEM), and challenges public school teachers and students in grades 6-12 to show how STEM can be applied to help improve their local community.”

For the submission, Caplan assembled a team of multi grade-level students to come up with an invention. They envisioned a vending machine to serve the homeless population. People in need would deposit trash into the machine, and receive personal hygiene products in return. Advising the student team were community partners from Folsom Lake Innovation Center, Parallax, Rancho Cordova Navigator and Loaves and Fishes. Students drew upon the skills they learn in Caplan’s classes such as “creativity, problem-solving, test and redesign and teamwork.”

According to Principal Jerad Hyden, “Our California Partnership Academies (Agriculture, Business, Culinary, and Engineering) are phenomenal - the program is literally funded on serving “at-risk” students as evidenced by a set of pre-established criteria.” He is also pleased to report a “95% success rate amongst 10th grade Academy students,” in both academic and attendance measures.

As a state finalist, Caplan has already won a Samsung Tablet for her classroom, and is now competing for the grand prize of a “$100,000 prize package including Samsung technology and classroom resources.”

Excited for this opportunity, Caplan is “now in the process of developing the action plan for the next step in the contest. I plan on doing this collaboratively with my students, advisory board and key stakeholders.” ★

Waiting for the

KING

By Bob McGarvey

I looked at the calendar and realized that there are only 16 days before Christmas. Does that mean that I have enough time to get all my shopping done? Does that mean I can finish my Christmas list that I was asked for by our kids and grandkids? Does that mean I am getting close to the deadline to get my column done? Actually, it means all three and more. Now if I can just find the notes; you know, the notes I made so I wouldn't forget the rest of the things I didn't want to forget. But that's like the string you put on your finger so you won't forget something. Now, if I can only remember what the string is for ...

As I drove around Rancho Cordova in the fog last Monday, I noticed the number of people who are driving around without their headlights on. Most of today's cars seem to have their headlights on automatically when their sensors send out a message to the computer of the car that they need to come on. Older cars (what is older?) have to have their lights turned on manually, but it is rather uncomfortable when you all of a sudden see a car right in front of you whose colors almost make it invisible. Also, according to the DMV, if it is raining and you have your windshield wipers on, then you are supposed to have your headlights on too. So much is going on in our lives today that I didn't think a reminder would hurt. And no string on my finger for those two.

The Mayor's Corner

This year has been a very wonderful year for the City of Rancho Cordova

I'm not sure how many of you receive calendars from an organization you are a member of or have contributed to, or maybe they send you a calendar so you will feel like you have to send them something. Some are very solid, reliable and honest, and I contribute to some of them. And there are people who send pocket calendars, and pens, and many other things that have one purpose, and that, of course, is to ask for money. They remind me of a little note that was found in the classified ads that just said, "Remember, you only have five days to send your dollar to... (their address)." It was surprising how many people sent that dollar. The newspaper couldn't do anything to stop it because the ad only said to send a dollar. It didn't sell anything, or promise anything, or say what the dollar was for. Personally, I would like to have a little more information.

Something that is hard to do sometimes is to decide which of the many Christmas parties, and celebrations, and get together, etc. you could go to. Decisions have to be made, of course, because you can only go to one at a time. I hope you have many choices and like the song says, "Once again as in olden days, happy golden days of 'yore', faithful friends who are dear to us, gather near to us once more. Through the years we all will be together, if the fates allow. Hang a shining star upon the highest bough..."

I am closing this column for the last time "From the Mayor's Corner" this year, and I will begin with "And Another Thing" again. This year has been a very wonderful year for the City of Rancho Cordova. And has also given me, as Mayor, an opportunity to be part of the iFest International Festival and Wines of the World; go to the competition at the National Civic League where we were awarded the All-America City Award of 2019 and our All-America City Award of 2010; welcome the top bicyclists of the Amgen Tour of California to the Stage 2 Start, and cheer them on as they began their race for 133 miles from Rancho Cordova to South Lake Tahoe; serve as Committee Chair of our Memorial Day Ceremony; join other mayors at the National Mayor's Convention in Honolulu; enjoy our 4th of July celebration; welcome the thousands who came to Rancho Cordova to enjoy the California Capital Airshow at Mather Field with all the displays, other planes, and the Blue Angels to top the show; and chaired the Veterans Day Committee. The events I just listed were only a fraction of the over 100 events that continue to happen in the City of Rancho Cordova.

From Mayor Bob McGarvey, God bless, and see you next time. ★

CHP Revamps Registration Violators Program

By Jaime Coffee,
California Highway Patrol

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The California Highway Patrol (CHP) announced a new CHP Registration Enforcement and Guidance (CHP REG) program to reduce out-of-state registration violators. The CHP REG program replaces the Californians Help Eliminate All The Evasive Registration Scofflaws (CHEATERS) program.

Since the program's inception in 2004, the CHP has recovered approximately $26 million in registration fees. In 2018, the CHP surpassed $3.2 million in recovered fees from residents avoiding California registration.

"California loses millions of dollars in revenue every year from vehicles being unlawfully registered in other states or countries," CHP Commissioner Warren Stanley said. "This program relies on the public's input to support our investigators in returning funding to the state. Recovered registration fees are important to the California economy and are invested back into local communities."

The CHP REG program focuses on residents who register their vehicles out-of-state while living or working in California and operate those vehicles on California's roadways. The primary goal of the program is to obtain voluntary registration compliance through education, but, when necessary, enforcement action is taken.

California vehicle registration through the Department of Motor Vehicles is required within 20 days of establishing residency and for all vehicles primarily operated in the state.

The CHP encourages members of the public to report vehicles driven on a regular basis on California roadways with out-of-state registration to the CHP REG program Web site at https://www.chp.ca.gov/Notify-CHP/CHP-REG-\(Out-of-State-Registration-Violators\)). When reporting a suspected violator, it is important to include: state of the plate, license plate number, date and time observed, where observed, make, model, vehicle color, and any additional identifying comments. In 2018, more than 24,000 tips were reported to the Web site, leading directly to cases investigated by CHP personnel and dedicated senior volunteers.

The mission of the CHP is to provide the highest level of Safety, Service, and Security. ★

Pedestrian Killed in Hit and Run Collision

By Greg Zumstein,
California Highway Patrol

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - On December 1, 2019 at approximately 12:28am, the California Highway Patrol (CHP) received reports of an auto vs. pedestrian traffic collision on Watt Avenue northbound, north of Marconi Avenue. Upon arrival on scene, CHP officers discovered an approximately 35 year old man was in the Watt Avenue northbound lanes and it is unclear if he was in a crosswalk at the time. Upon CHP arrival, CPR was provided until Sacramento Metro Fire Dept arrived. Despite life saving efforts, the unknown man was pronounced deceased at the scene at 12:38 am. Citizens within the area at the time of the collision provided differing statements regarding the events leading up to and after the collision. However, at this time investigators have yet to discover a witness to the actual collision. Investigators were able to locate some physical evidence that may belong to a 2012-2015 white Dodge Challenger. The driver of the involved vehicle immediately fled the collision scene. A search of the nearby area was conducted, but neither the vehicle or the driver of the involved vehicle were located.

CHP investigators are looking for a white colored Challenger with a broken headlight that should have front end damage that may have been associated with this collision.

The cause of the traffic collision is under investigation. No arrests have been made and it is not known if drugs or alcohol were a factor in this collision.

Any additional information about this news release should be directed to Officer Greg Zumstein or Officer A.J. McTaggart who will be available at the CHP North Sacramento Area business phone number: (916) 348-2300, Monday through Friday 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Or you can reach them via cell phone at (916) 798-0975. The Flu Has Had Serious Consequences in Sac County

Officer Dr. Olivia Kasirye said. "As the number of vaccinated individuals in a community increases, it decreases the transmission of the flu virus to those who have not, or cannot be vaccinated resulting in fewer hospitalizations and deaths."

The very contagious flu virus causes serious respiratory illness and comes on suddenly. Symptoms may include fever, headache, tiredness, cough, sore throat, nasal congestion, and body aches. Illness typically lasts two to seven days. Influenza may cause severe illness or even death in people such as the very young or old, or those who have underlying health conditions.

In addition to getting vaccinated, it's crucial to practice good health habits. If you become ill with flu-like symptoms, you should take actions to stop the spread of germs, including:

- Limit contact with others as

- much as possible to keep from infecting them.
- Stay home for at least 24 hours after your fever is gone except to get medical care or for other necessities.
- Cover your coughs or sneezes with your sleeve or with a tissue, throw it in the trash and wash your hands.
- Wash your hands often with soap and warm water.
- Avoid touching your eyes, nose and mouth. Germs spread this way.

- Clean and disinfect surfaces and objects that may be contaminated with flu germs.
- People with chronic medical conditions or those experiencing worsening flu symptoms should seek medical attention.
- Sacramento County Public Health offers free flu vaccination clinics in the community. The next free flu clinics offered is: Healthy Sacramento Day - Hagginwood Community Center, Saturday, Jan. 25, 10 a.m. – 2 p.m., 3271 Marysville

Blvd, Sacramento, CA 95815

If you need information about immunization services for children and adults, or need to refer clients or get information regarding upcoming influenza clinics, please contact the Sacramento County Immunization Assistance Program at 916-875-SHOT (7468) Monday-Friday between 8:00 am – 5:00 pm, or use the Flu Vaccine Finder on the CDC website, or the HealthMap Flu Vaccine Finder. ★

Public Notice

Extent of Groundwater Contamination

Eastern Sacramento County

Groundwater in a portion of eastern Sacramento County is contaminated. Contaminants include industrial solvents and chemicals resulting from the manufacture and testing of rocket and missile systems and production of chemicals.

The map shows the approximate extent of contamination in the vicinity of the Aerojet Superfund Site where contaminant concentrations exceed regulatory standards established to ensure safe long-term consumption. There are currently two regulatory actions (Western Groundwater Operable Unit and Perimeter Groundwater Operable Unit) that require Aerojet Rocketdyne to halt the spread of contamination, remediate the contamination, and restore the groundwater to beneficial use. Aerojet Rocketdyne has installed and is currently operating the treatment systems necessary to remediate and restore the off-site groundwater. Additional system modifications are anticipated to be completed in the next several years. Groundwater in portions of areas south of the Aerojet Superfund Site is also contaminated. Other regulatory actions are addressing these areas.

Drinking water in this area is primarily provided by public water supply systems, which monitor water quality and shut down impacted wells under the oversight of the State Water Resources Control Board-Division of Drinking Water.

Cordova Boys Soccer Starting Fresh Under Novak

Story by James Darnell

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - After a down year a season ago, the Cordova Lancers' boys varsity soccer program is hoping a fresh start will get the team going in the right direction.

Enter first year head coach Kyle Novak. After playing collegiately at San Jose State and Whitworth University in Spokane, WA, Novak has been earning his stripes as a coach at the youth level and is looking forward to building a program in his vision for the first time as a varsity head coach at Cordova.

“The goal is to build a solid foundation and make sure the guys are playing for and with each other,” Novak said. “Then finish high enough in the league standings to earn the privilege of postseason play.”

Despite an 0-2 start to their preseason upon deadline, Novak is feeling good about where his young team is at mentally and physically early on in his inaugural campaign.

“I’m really pleasantly surprised by the talent on this team,” he said. “At the moment we’re struggling with some injuries, so we don’t have a full roster right now like we should by the start of league. But our goal is to keep building and get a few more eligible guys so we can enter league play with a strong roster that’s ready to go.”

Top returning players include juniors Carlos Vargas and Brian Duran, as well as senior captain Salvador Bautista. One key newcomer who is in his first season playing soccer is senior Erik Ngo, who has caught the eye of Novak as a goalkeeper.

Novak will certainly have his work cut out for him and his squad once Greater Sacramento League play begins in January. A season ago, Natomas earned a league title with a flawless 10-0 record in GSL play. West Campus finished in second place with a strong 7-3 mark. Cordova meanwhile struggled en route to a 2-8 league finish. ★

Aerojet Rocketdyne Huntsville Site Set for Large Solid Rocket Motor Production

By Eileen Lainez, Aerojet Rocketdyne

HUNTSVILLE, AL (MPG) - Aerojet Rocketdyne is ready to begin producing large solid rocket motor carbon fiber cases in the Rocket City following installation and calibration of a key machine at its new Advanced Manufacturing Facility (AMF). The state-of-the-art machine will be used to wind the carbon fibers that form the structural case of large solid rocket motors. It is capable of producing motor cases up to 72 inches in diameter and 22 feet long, which is large enough to support strategic missile programs. “The successful transfer of this important capability from Sacramento, California, to Huntsville, Alabama, is part of our ongoing efforts to increase efficiencies and decrease product costs to our customers,” said Eileen Drake, Aerojet Rocketdyne CEO and president. “Expanding support of missile programs at the Advanced Manufacturing Facility is a major component of our ongoing growth in the Rocket City.” The carbon fiber-winding machine will begin producing large solid rocket motor cases for missile defense target vehicles built by Aerojet Rocketdyne Coleman Aerospace starting in early 2020. “This capability also positions our Advanced Manufacturing Facility and Huntsville Defense Headquarters to support new U.S. national security priorities, such as the Air Force’s Ground Based Strategic Deterrent (GBSD) program,” said Drake. The 136,000-square-foot AMF was designed to manufacture motor cases for a variety of missile, missile defense and hypersonic systems. Among the existing production programs it supports are the Terminal High Altitude Area Defense and Standard Missile-3 interceptors. Aerojet Rocketdyne, which has provided propulsion on every U.S. ICBM to date, was recently selected by Northrop Grumman to be an integral part of its nationwide GBSD team. Aerojet Rocketdyne has made significant investments in new, agile manufacturing capabilities, infrastructure, processes, tooling and people in its Huntsville, Alabama; Camden, Arkansas; and Orange County, Virginia sites. The company also acquired 3DMT earlier this year to increase its additive manufacturing capacity. Aerojet Rocketdyne is well-positioned to competitively support large solid rocket motor production for next generation programs, in particular, GBSD and hypersonics. ★

13 California Schools Advance in Samsung’s $3 Million* National STEM Contest

By Olivia Gust, Allison+Partners

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Thirteen schools in California are being recognized nationally for inspiring change in their local communities through STEM education, including Cordova High School in Rancho Cordova. Selected from thousands of entries nationwide, these 13 schools have just been named California State Finalists in the Samsung Solve for Tomorrow Contest – a nationwide competition that challenges students in grades 6th-12th to creatively use STEM (science, technology, engineering and math) skills to address real-world issues in their communities. The California State Finalist classrooms were chosen based on their creative and strategic proposals to solve complicated issues that affect their communities by using STEM learning. All 300 teachers that submitted these finalist proposals will receive one Samsung tablet for their classrooms and have the opportunity to advance in the competition with their students for additional prizes. Celebrating its 10th anniversary this 2019-2020 school year, the Samsung Solve for Tomorrow Contest has impacted thousands of lives over the past decade and sparks students’ interest in STEM subjects and civic engagement, while empowering teachers and connecting local communities. With $3 million* in technology on the line, teachers from the 13 State Finalist classrooms will submit a lesson plan outlining how students will tackle the local issue using STEM skills to ultimately improve the greater community. “Since launching the Samsung Solve for Tomorrow Contest a decade ago, we’ve seen students tackle some of the biggest issues facing their generation and this year is no different,” said Ann Woo, Senior Director of Corporate Citizenship at Samsung Electronics America. “From suicide prevention to single use plastic alternatives, teachers and students are stepping up to creatively address these important issues head-on. We’re thrilled to congratulate the State Finalists of the 10th annual Samsung Solve for Tomorrow contest and look forward to seeing these STEM projects progress in the coming months.” California State Finalists: Cordova High School, Rancho Cordova; Chawanakee Academy Charter, O’Neals; Westminster High School, Westminster; Weber Institute, Stockton; Port of Los Angeles High School, San Pedro; Garey High School, Pomona; Isaac Newton Graham Middle School, Mountain View; North Hollywood Senior High School, North Hollywood; Foothill High School, Pleasanton; Dougherty Valley High School, San Ramon; Palm Middle School, Moreno Valley; Alameda High School, Alameda; Santiago High School, Corona. 100 State Winner schools will advance in the contest and receive $15,000 in technology and supplies as well as a video kit to help showcase their project. 20 National Finalist schools will be selected to travel to the final event in the spring where they will present their project to a panel of judges. For achieving national finalist status, schools will be awarded $50,000 in technology and classroom materials. Five grand prize National Winner schools will receive $100,000 in technology and classroom materials, and receive a trip to Washington, D.C. to present their projects to members of Congress.
