Happy Birthday K9 Zoe!

By Ashley Downton,
City of Rancho Cordova

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - On October 30th, RCPD and 100 kindergartners celebrated detection K9 Zoe's third birthday at Riverview STEM Academy!

K9 Zoe is a member of the Youth Services Unit that supports Rancho Cordova schools. She is partnered with a School Resource Officer to regularly visit local schools to build relationships with our students. She is also trained to identify narcotics and weapons to help keep our students and schools even safer.

The kindergartners wore birthday hats as they sang K9 Zoe happy birthday, enjoyed birthday cake, petted K9 Zoe, and played with dog-themed stickers. K9 Zoe was decked out in a birthday bandana and had fun celebrating with all the students.

Riverview STEM Academy was chosen to host the party through a coloring contest. RCPD delivered K9 Zoe coloring sheets to our elementary schools and asked each school to encourage as many kindergarten students as possible to color in the sheet. RCPD selected one coloring sheet at random, which was drawn by kindergartener Pranav at Riverview STEM Academy.

The detection K9 program is funded by a grant from the City of Rancho Cordova's Community Enhancement Fund. The Community Enhancement Fund provides an additional $1.4 million in funding to the $22 million+ annual police budget during the 2019/2020 fiscal year.

Stay tuned to RCPD's social media channels or e-newsletter to learn more about our Youth Services Unit. ★

California State Parks Thanks Military, Providing Free Admission at State Parks

California State Parks Press Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - California State Parks is honoring the service of veterans, as well as active and reserve personnel, by offering free admission to 144 state parks on Veterans Day, Monday, November 11.

"We invite our veterans and active/reserve military personnel to wear their uniforms with pride while visiting one of our beautiful parks," said California State Parks Director Lisa Mangat. "We thank them for their service and sacrifices to our country. This is a small gesture of our gratitude and appreciation."

A valid military ID must be presented to park staff in order to receive free admission to the California State Railroad Museum (Sacramento), Railtown 1897 State Historic Park (Jamestown), eight state vehicular recreation areas and 134 state parks accessible with the "California Explorer" Annual Pass. A list of participating park units is available at www.parks.ca.gov/VeteransDay2019.

Participating parks include sites that honor historic military sites or veterans from the Mexican American War to the Cold War.

AB 150 (Olsen), signed by Governor Edmund G. Brown, Jr. in 2013, authorized California State Parks to offer veterans, active duty, and reserve military personnel from the United States Armed Forces and the National Guard of any state a reduced or free-day use at participating state parks.

California's 280 state parks and the recreational programs supported by the department are a gateway to the well-being of environments, economies and all people. They offer the opportunity for families, friends and communities to connect through various recreational opportunities such as off-highway motor vehicle recreation, boating activities, horseback riding, on and off-road cycling, hiking, camping, rock climbing, tours, school group enrichment and special events.

Before leaving for a park, find out if any roads, trails and/or campgrounds are closed by visiting the park's webpage or the park's social media accounts. Check your destination's and route's weather conditions and prepare accordingly. And remember, safely share the road. Be prepared for equestrians, pedestrians, joggers, wildlife, rocks, tree limbs, etc., in the roadway. ★

Civic Center Project Gets Update

By Danielle Hale,
City of Rancho Cordova

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - The City of Rancho Cordova is making great progress toward its goal of developing a civic amenity for our community. Recently, city staff updated the City Council on the status of the Civic Center project, now known as the Mills Station District project.

As you might recall, the City Council has held four public work sessions with residents, businesses and interested parties to refine the vision for the project, select a location, and review various site layouts. The site selected for the project is the Mills Station Property, which is a city-owned 10-acre parcel located on Folsom Blvd. adjacent to Folsom Lake College/Rancho Cordova Center and across the street from the Mills Station Arts & Culture Center (The MACC). The City Council, after much public input and discussion, has prioritized the potential uses for this project to a space for performing/visual arts, a recreational and housing space, a space to accommodate meetings, and an outdoor area for community gatherings.

With the location and a more focused vision for the project determined, the city next turned to the task of seeking a public-private partnership to develop the project. In July 2019, the city issued an Offering Memorandum (OM) to seek development partners and, in late September, received eight letters of interest from teams made up of local, statewide and national organizations. Now, city staff will convene an evaluation committee with representatives from numerous local and regional organizations to review the letters of interest and narrow the pool of potential development partners to three. The three will be asked to present at a December 2019 or January 2020 City Council meeting or work session. Based on the presentations, these potential development partners may be asked to provide additional information to help the evaluation committee select the development partner to work with the city and bring this project to life.

We invite you to attend the December 2019 or January 2020 City Council meeting or work session to learn more about the development partners and their proposed project ideas. Stay tuned to the city's social media channels and our e-newsletters for a specific date. ★

Famous YouTube Personality Dave Rubin to Speak at Sac State

By Kyle Gerard, Turning Point USA

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento State chapter of Turning Point USA will be hosting famous YouTube personality and political commentator Dave Rubin. Having built The Rubin Report, a channel with over 1 million followers and upwards of 200 million views, Dave Rubin has become a significant figure in the political world. He is famous for pushing the idea that “he didn’t leave the left, the left left him.” At Sacramento State, Rubin will be discussing the consequences of big tech censorship in the modern era along with the dangers of identity politics. As a gay married man, Rubin has been the victim of identity politics for not fitting in and knows how ugly identity politics are for being a classic liberal. For this reason, The Rubin Report celebrates free speech, civil discourse, and honest ideas. Dave Rubin will be speaking on the Sacramento State campus on Tuesday, November 12th from 7:30 – 10:00PM.

YouTube personality and political commentator Dave Rubin.

The event will take place in the Redwood suite of the University Union, located on the first floor. Tickets are free to the public through Eventbrite. Parking Structure II located by the Union is the recommended place for parking the night of the event. “We expect Rubin to define what it truly means to be a minority, being an individual in an era of groupthink and censorship. We are proud to be hosting a renowned speaker,” said Chapter President Megan Masten. Turning Point USA is the nation’s largest and fastest growing conservative youth organization. Love Packed in a Shoebox: Operation Christmas Child

By Mila Popov, Samaritan's Purse International Relief

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - It's that time, when colorful leaves cover the ground, and the aroma of pumpkin pie and spices are everywhere. Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays are just around the corner. This is that joyful time of the year when we count our blessings around the Thanksgiving table, and enjoy the spirit of Christmas with family and friends as we unwrap beautiful carefully packed gifts. Did you know that there are many children around the world, who have never received a gift in their life time? Did you know that there are children who are not able to go to school because they do not have their own pencil or notebook? Going to school means a lot more than getting an education. Often it means getting a meal at least once a day. The life of a child who had never experienced such blessings as having a new toy, their own drinking cup or even a toothbrush, is very difficult. Operation Christmas Child (OCC) is one of many projects of the Samaritan's Purse organization that delivers the Good News and Great Joy to children around the world. Simple shoebox gifts have life changing impact. Every child deserves to experience Christmas at least once in their lifetime. In 2018 over 10.6 million shoeboxes were delivered to over 160 countries to the neediest children impacted by extreme poverty due to war, natural disasters and famine. These children live in homes with their family or in orphanages, from small villages to large cities.

By packing simple items such as toys, art and school supplies, and personal hygiene items, you can impact a child's life and give hope to children in hopeless life conditions. Would you join us in packing one shoebox for a boy and/or one for a girl? Here is how you can pack a shoebox: (1) Start with an average-size cardboard or plastic shoebox. If you want to wrap it, cover the box and lid separately. (2) Decide whether you will pack a box for a girl or a boy, in the age category: 2-4 years, 5-9 years, or 10-14 years. (3) Select a medium to large “wow” item such as a soccer ball with pump, a doll or stuffed animal, then fill with other fun toys, hygiene items, and art and school supplies. Dollar stores, Walmart and Target have many inexpensive items. If you wish, include a personal note with a family picture and words of encouragement. (4) Donate $9 online and receive a label to Follow Your Box and discover the country destination of your shoebox gift. (5) Take your shoebox gift(s) to a local drop-off location during National Collection Week, Nov. 18-25, 2019. Drop off locations are: Fair Oaks Presbyterian; Bayside Life Rancho Cordova; Metro Calvary, Roseville; Bayside Church Folsom and Second Slavic Baptist, North Highlands. For address and drop off times go to: <https://www.samaritanaspurse.org/operation-christmas-child/drop-off-locations/> For more information contact Mila 916-308-8360 or saocec.mila@gmail.com. Thank you for making a Big Impact on a child's life! Happy Holidays! ★

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - On Sept. 27, vocal music

students from Cordova and Folsom high schools joined forces with over 200 other bass, baritone, and tenor voices to experience and perform two pieces of music - "Joy!" and "Dies Irae." Students enjoyed direction and guidance from Dr. Andrew Kreckmann, who oversees the vocal music department at California State University, Sacramento. Student musicians also saw performances from vocal groups from CSUS, Jesuit High School, and Sheldon High School. The singers returned to campus with some valuable singing experience and improved confidence for sharing with their choir classes. ★

Cordova High Proudly Hosted Statewide Education Technology Conference

By Angela Griffin Ankheilyi, FCUSD

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Cordova High School was the setting for the annual Fall CUE Conference on October 19, attracting over 800 educators from the western United States and Canada, to learn best practices for using technology as a tool to support all aspects of education. FCUSD's education tech staff, ETIS, along with CHS staff and students, pitched in to help with logistics and operations over the weekend. Superintendent Sarah Koligian, Ed.D, gave opening remarks and introduced Saturday's keynote speaker. According to FCUSD Chief Technology Officer, Kimberly Harrison, "as instructional resources shift to a more digital delivery system, technology becomes increasingly important." Technology is "becoming ubiquitous with learning, for both students and teachers." FCUSD stands out as an educational leader in technology due in part to a "very stable and strong network backbone." We are honored to have been chosen to host the Fall Cue Conference and proud we could showcase our beautiful CHS campus and facilities - which got multiple praises throughout the weekend! Most grateful to the City of Rancho Cordova and the Rancho Cordova Chamber of Commerce for the great hotel options, restaurants and local amenities that helped make the attendees' visit here so positive. ★

Trunk or Treating is One of Childhood's Most Vivid Moments

By Patrick Larenas

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Hosted by the Cordova Recreation and Park District, residents got to participate in the fun of children Trunk or Treating at Hagan Community Park this past October 26.

Trunk or Treating at Hagan was a great setting for the community to engage in Halloween Festivities in a controlled and safe environment. Adult participants made a special effort to provide haunting scenes to spook and surprise everyone with sighs and laughter.

Being the main yearly event when children get to dress up, Halloween once again provided a vivid and interesting occasion for kids to use their imagination. Kids got to 'act out' a wide assortment of clowns, skeletons, dancers and other lively characters that make these childhood events such a fun part of early life. The candy, of

The Mayor's Corner

We are Very Thankful and Grateful for What We Have Been Given and Have Achieved.

Rancho Cordova has been an incorporated city for 16 years. For the estimated 20,000 kids and adults who have lived in Rancho Cordova for 16 years or less, that may be a long time that Rancho Cordova has always been a city. For the other 55,000 residents who were here when we became a city, the changes we have seen are hard to believe, and we are very thankful and grateful for what we have been given and have achieved. This year, Thanksgiving will be on the 28th of the month, and we are able to enjoy what we have been very fortunate to receive. But our city is able to give its citizens many things that we wouldn't have if we weren't a city. And the Community Enhancement Fund grants are really things that our citizens give to their fellow citizens through the Measure H half cent sales tax that they passed.

A little bit more about our 16-year-old city. If you go west from Rancho Cordova for about 10 miles, you will reach the City of Sacramento that incorporated in 1850. If you go east from Rancho Cordova for about 10 miles, you will reach the City of Folsom that incorporated in 1946. So, Sacramento was a city for 153 years and Folsom was a city for 57 years before we incorporated. We are Sacramento County's seventh city.

I hope some of my readers were able to come to the Rancho Cordova State of the City Address. Actually, it was titled the Rancho Cordova 2019 State of the All-America City Address. There were many things that were covered about our city that I can't cover in this column, but I will try to let you know what some of them were. For example, in addition to the prestigious All-America City award we received this year, we also received the Transforming Local Government Innovation Showcase for Mather Veterans Village, Project of the Year Award from the American Public Works Association for Mather Heritage Trail, and Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting.

This year, Rancho Cordova was proud to have been selected for the first time as a 2019 Amgen Tour of California Host City. We hosted the Stage 2 Start in front of City Hall. Residents, businesses, students and visitors cheered the racers on as they embarked on a 133-mile race to South Lake Tahoe. I also brought the Mayor's Walks back, and we walked at A.M. Winn Elementary, Riverview STEM Academy, Cordova Villa Elementary, Rancho Cordova Elementary and Robert J. McGarvey Elementary. It is a great way for neighbors to meet neighbors and to ask questions about the city as you take a casual walk and exercise.

During the State of the City, I talked about the annual Community Enhancement Fund Citizen Report and 2nd edition of the Good Neighbor Guide that were being given out and are being mailed to every resident in Rancho Cordova. I provided business news, which included information about the more than 65,000 people who work in Rancho Cordova. During the Community Development section, I talked about the homes that are already in Rancho Cordova, as well as the new homes being built in eight new developments. New sidewalks are coming soon to the Coloma Road and Malaga Way area, and construction on the Highway 50 and Zinfandel Drive Interchange Improvements is underway. There is so much information that is great for and about Rancho Cordova that it can't be included in my column, but there will be much, much more coming in the future.

From Mayor Bob McGarvey, God bless, and see you next time. ★

4 Fun Ways to Be on Time

Have you ever thought that punctuality could be fun? If you said “no” maybe that’s why you’re always late! Do you know punctuality is a habit? Of course you do. I was always late until I realized that punctuality is part of gracious living and then I found out it’s actually fun to get there early! There’s just too much stress in being late and no one has to tell you that. The good news is tardiness is an easy habit to fix! Here are four easy fixes!

1. The Victoria Secret Technique
Have you ever had a super bra? Victoria Secret has an amazing one. It literally takes all the fat from under your arms, and I think some of it from your back and pulls the excess fat into its cups! Voila, whatever cup-size you are, they get overloaded with fat and you’ve got cleavage! What does this have to do with being punctual? Well, time is like fat. We all have it and we can manipulate it to our advantage.
Here’s how it works. Say you make a dental appointment for 3:00; put it on your calendar for 2:00. (Be sure to write what it’s for. There’s nothing so exasperating as seeing 3:00 pm on a calendar square and you have no clue as to where you’re supposed to be at that time, on that day.) By the time the appointment rolls around, of course you’ll have forgotten your “Victoria Secret” and you’ll get to the appointment at the average time you run late (you do have an average) so say around 2:14.
The Victoria Secret Technique has just given you several gifts, including 46 minutes. First, you get the exhilaration of being early! If you’re always late you don’t know what it feels like to be early! Second, in order to follow through with this gift from the secret, you need to have a BUT bag (BUT stands for Back Up Tasks). So, in that 46 minutes, you’ll have time to take care of tasks you’ve put in the bag to do while you wait. Your cup over-floweth with time!

Punctuality is showing high esteem for other people and their time.
The Victoria Secret Technique will help you fix your relationship with time and improve your relationships with those you’ve caused to wait for you. After all, punctuality is showing high esteem for other people and their time.
Contents of my BUT Bag
1. Small note pad and pen for writing down brilliant ideas Nelly (my inner child) or I come up with
2. Needle and thread (white, black and beige), scissors and items to mend or hand stitch as they present themselves
3. Thank You Notes/envelopes/stamps

4. Inspirational book
5. Manicure kit
6. Dental floss
7. Magnifying mirror and tweezers
8. Cell phone (has addresses in it)
9. Back up projects
2. The Cheap Ugly Watch Trick
Today you can buy watches for under $5! And some of them are pretty ugly. Get the biggest, ugliest, brightest one you can find. You’ve got to feel self-conscious and embarrassed about wearing it in public. You’ll tell friends, “I’m getting help with my dilatory nature and my coach advised me to wear an ugly watch until I’m punctual. I don’t have to wear it if I’m on time, but if I’m late, I have to wear it for twenty-four hours as a punishment and as a reminder.” Who knows, your friend might say, “Where’d you get it, I need one.”
3. The Time Bomb Method
Set the alarm on your smart phone, when you know you could get distracted and lose track of time. We SHEs (Sidetracked Home Executives) are very social creatures. We love people and time can get away from us in situations we’re enjoying. In my long journey as a SHE, a timer is one of the tools I can’t do without. I’ve taken my timer out several times and it acts just like a time bomb. It goes off in my purse proclaiming the end of my fun. Usually the person I’m with is shocked right along with me. It’s the perfect time to say, “Oops, gotta go!”
4. Pretend to Pick Up Your Prize
Imagination is a powerful tool! With it you can pretend the meeting, appointment, person etc. holds your winning lottery check and if you’re late you lose it and the money goes to (name someone you would least like to give anything to). It could be a political figure or just a nasty neighbor. Conjure it up and get your inner drama queen in motion.
Punctuality really is a part of gracious living. Stop being late and experience the joy of being on time.

Changes to Plan F . . Causing Medicare Supplement Renewal Premiums to Rise!

Toni, We have received a 20% increase in our Plan F Medicare Supplement. I'm a 70-year-old female in decent health, but my husband is undergoing cancer treatment. Also, his cardiologist has advised him that he may need a pacemaker. I've understand told that Medicare Annual Enrollment is our time to change our Medicare Supplement plans. I'm concerned that with the Medicare Supplement increase that we may not be able to afford the premiums with future increases. Would a Medicare Advantage plan be a good option to change to with Fred's cancer issues? What we should do? Signed Cathy from Virginia

Cathy:
You were given wrong information because you do not have to wait until Medicare Annual Enrollment to make a Medicare Supplement change. You can change your Medicare Supplement any time during the year. Medicare Annual Enrollment is a time to change your Medicare Advantage plan or Medicare Part D Prescription Drug plan You are not alone with receiving a Medicare Supplement plan F increase. It seems that the Plan F renewal increase is more than the Plan G or other Medicare Supplement plan increases. Most insurance agents are finding out about the increases via an email from the insurance company informing of a renewal rate adjustment, In 2015 Congress passed legislation called “Medicare Access and CHIP Reauthorization Act of 2015” (MACRA) to help the medical industry by correcting the “Doc Fix” proposal. MACRA also made changes to Medicare Supplement’s plans F and C which begins January 1, 2020.

Those who want to change their current Medicare Supplement plan and have had their Medicare Part B longer than 6 months must now answer underwriting questions regarding their health as you and your husband will have to do.
Cathy, you have an option to change from Plan F to other Medicare Supplement plans such as plan G or N, but you must qualify medically. If you cannot qualify because of a health issue, then there is a Medicare Advantage plan which puts you in control of your healthcare called a Medicare Savings Account (MSA).
Let’s discuss the difference:
• Medicare Supplement Plan G: offer lower rates and the same Medicare benefits as Plan F except the Medicare Part B deductible is not covered and will be paid for by the enrolled Medicare beneficiary. Part B deductible for 2019 is $185.

• Medicare Supplement Plan N: generally, has lower premiums than Plan G with generally more out of pocket. There is a $20 co pay for a doctor visit with $50 co pay for emergency room. Part B deductible is not covered, and Part B excess charges are not paid for by the insurance company which Plan G includes.
• Medicare Advantage MSA (Medicare Savings Account): high deductible Medicare Advantage health plan plus a special savings account for medical expenses. No network...see any Medicare provider or facility that will bill the MSA plan. More MSA (Medicare Savings Account) plan information in next week’s article)
Caution: You can change your Medicare Supplement policy at any time. Do not cancel your existing policy until you have been approved by your new Medicare insurance company whether choosing a Medicare Supplement or Medicare Advantage plan. POPPOFF!

Some people are always happy with a smile on their face and a good word no matter what! And then there are those grumpies who seem to be naturally unhappy, and it seems that nothing can change that...or is there? Jim Ryan visited with me on POPPOFF recently, and he truly believes that people can change. He’s had a great career to prove that fact. He told me that happiness and joy are like muscles that can be strengthened. Perhaps he is right. I know when I am shopping at the mall, I love to smile at folks as I go along. At first, they give me this ‘are you nuts’ look. But then they kind of smile and we go our separate ways. If I see them again, they do give me that bigger smile. Maybe all we need are the characteristics of happy people, and then you can learn to incorporate them into your life. Jim has put it all together in his book “Simple Happiness,” 52 ways to lighten up. He’s done workshops on happiness around the country. So I asked him to share his top ten ways to turn that grumpy scowl into a smiley face.

1) Happy people have the intention to be happy. They understand that it’s not what happens to us, it’s how we deal with what happens. Happiness is a choice. 2) Happy people are responsible for their own happiness. There is no blame game. 3) Happy people know what makes them happy and they find time to be involved in those activities. 4) Happy people follow their bliss. They step out of their comfort zone. “When you follow your bliss, doors will open that you didn’t even know existed,” that from Joseph Campbell. 5) Happy people are able to recast mournful moments. They look for the opportunity in the problem. “Every cloud has a silver lining.” 6) Happy people understand that they have choices.

Just because I’ve lived my life a certain way up until now, that does not mean that’s how I have to live my life for the rest of my life. 7) Happy people show appreciation. They take nothing for granted. When they wake up and throw their legs over the side of the bed and stand up they say to themselves, “Thank God I can get out of bed by myself.” 8) Happy people are giving people. They show compassion to others and to themselves. They are not judgmental. 9) Happy people don’t die with their music in them. They are out there developing their gifts and talents, often for the benefit of others. 10) Happy people feed their minds. They are learners. They enjoy creation. They do not take themselves too seriously. They are able to laugh at themselves.
Jim Ryan’s message is to empower and inspire people to live their best lives and to achieve their personal best at home, at work, and in personal relationships. It’s called “Simple Happiness” and you can check Jim out at www.JimRyantalks.com. SMILE!!! ★

Sacramento County DA Reports

Sentenced for Insurance Fraud, Accessory After the Fact
DATE: October 29, 2019
CASE: Jose Leyva & Leticia Leyva (Case #19FE004862)
PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Suzanne Salazar, Insurance Fraud Unit
The Honorable Michael Savage sentenced Jose Leyva to 90 days and Leticia Leyva to 60 days in county jail. Both defendants were ordered to pay $9,277 in restitution. On October 16, 2019, Jose Leyva pled to felony insurance fraud and Leticia Leyva pled to misdemeanor accessory after the fact.
Jose Leyva and his wife, Leticia Leyva, owned a car, which was being driven by their adult son. Their son was driving the car in the middle of the night when he crossed over into the opposite traffic and hit a car head on. The collision caused serious bodily injury to the son's passenger and the other driver as well as damage to both vehicles. Immediately following the crash, the son fled the scene on foot. Soon after, he called and spoke to his father twice. When dispatch contacted Mr. and Mrs. Leyva to inquire about the vehicle, they claimed the car had been stolen. They also insisted that their son was home asleep. The facts showed Mr. Leyva's cellphone was tracked from his residence in Sacramento to the area of the collision in Woodland. Mr. and Mrs. Leyva then attempted to file a stolen vehicle report with law enforcement and continued to insist the car was stolen to their insurance company.

Defendant Convicted of Murdering Girlfriend at Hotel
DATE: October 17, 2019
CASE: Lucas Sanchez (Case #17FE016812)
PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Allison Dunham, Homicide Unit
On October 4, 2019, Lucas Sanchez was convicted by a jury of the first-degree murder of Jennifer Rutter. The jury also found that Sanchez personally used a deadly or dangerous weapon in the commission of the murder. Sanchez entered a plea of not guilty by reason of insanity. On October 16, 2019, the jury found Sanchez was legally sane when he committed the murder.
Sanchez and the victim were in a relationship. On the morning of September 11, 2017, Sanchez and the victim were sleeping at a local hotel. Sanchez woke up paranoid and delusional from using methamphetamine. He took a closet rod out of the closet and beat the victim in the head as she slept. The victim fled out of the hotel room naked and bleeding. Sanchez proceeded to beat her in the head with the closet rod in the hotel hallway. A public safety conference was taking place at the hotel that morning. Law enforcement officers arrested Sanchez on the scene. An autopsy determined the victim died from seven to 10 blunt force blows to her head causing multiple facial and skull fractures.
Sanchez faces a maximum sentence of 26 years to life in prison. Sentencing is set for November 14, 2019, in Department 20 before the Honorable Michael Sweet.

Defendant Convicted of Shooting, Murdering Partygoer
DATE: October 23, 2019
CASE: Dayshawn Jackson (Case #18FE007348)
PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Laura West, Gangs & Hate Crimes Unit
Dayshawn Jackson was convicted by a jury of the second-degree murder of Larry Ragsdale Jr., shooting from a car at a person, and being a felon in possession of a firearm. The jury also found that Jackson personally used and discharged a firearm causing death during the commission of the murder and firing from the car.

California Can't Keep the Lights On

California is staying true to its reputation as the land of innovation — it is making blackouts, heretofore the signature of impoverished and war-torn lands, a routine feature of 21st-century American life.

More than 2 million people are going without power in Northern and Central California, in the latest and biggest of the intentional blackouts that are, astonishingly, California's best answer to the risk of run-away wildfires.

Power — and all the goods it makes possible — is synonymous with modern civilization. It shouldn't be a negotiable for anyone living in a well-functioning society, or even in California, which, despite its stupendous wealth and natural splendor, has blighted itself over the decades with misgovernance and misplaced priorities.

The same California that has been the seedbed of world-famous companies that make it possible for people to send widely viewed short missives of 280 characters or less, and share and like images of grumpy cats, isn't doing so well at keeping the lights on.

The same California that has boldly committed to transitioning to 50 percent renewable energy by 2025 — and 100 percent renewable energy by 2045 — can't manage its existing energy infrastructure.

The same California that has pushed its electricity rates to the highest in the contiguous United States through its mandates and regulations doesn't provide continuous access to that overpriced electricity.

California could have, if it wanted, pushed the utilities to focus on the resilience and safety of its current infrastructure — implicated in some of the state's most fearsome recent fires — as a top priority. Instead, its public utilities commission forced costly renewable energy initiatives on the utilities. Who cares about something as mundane as properly maintained power lines if something as supposedly epically important — and politically fashionable — as saving the planet is at stake?

Meanwhile, California has had a decadeslong aversion to properly clearing forests. The state's leaders have long been in thrall to the belief that cutting down trees is somehow an offense against nature, even though thinning helps create healthier forests. Biomass has been allowed to build up, and it becomes the kindling for catastrophic fires.

As Chuck DeVore of the Texas Public Policy Foundation points out, a report of the Western Governors' Association warned of this effect more than a decade ago, noting that "over time the fire-prone forests that were not thinned, burn in uncharacteristically destructive wildfires."

In 2016, then-Gov. Jerry Brown actually vetoed a bill that unanimously passed the state Legislature to promote the clearing of trees dangerously close to power lines. There shouldn't be any doubt that California, susceptible to drought through its history and whipped by fierce, dry winds this time of year, is always going to have a fire problem. But there also shouldn't be any doubt that dealing with it this poorly is the result of a series of foolish, unrealistic policy choices.

California's overriding goal should have been safe, cheap and reliable power, public good so basic that it's easy to take for granted. The state's focus on ideological fantasies has instead ensured it has none of the above.

Teaching the Value of Work... and Money

Dear Dave,
Is it okay to give very young children an allowance?
—Christie

Dear Christie
Teaching kids there's an emotional connection between work and money is one of the best things you can do as a parent. Once your kids are old enough to do a few simple chores around the house, they're old enough to earn a little money doing them.

In my mind, there's absolutely nothing wrong with putting kids who are three or four on a basic commission system. If they do the jobs you assign them, they get paid. If they don't do the jobs, they don't get paid. We put a little dry-erase board on the refrigerator, and listed the jobs they had to do during the week with a dollar amount next to each one.

Dave Ramsey Says

Keep in mind, kids shouldn't get paid for every little thing they do around the house. Some jobs are just a necessary component of being part of a family. And there are some things kids should do simply because mom or dad asked them to. Some jobs should have a higher purpose in mind, too, because as a parent, you should want to find as many teachable moments for your kids as possible.

Once they've earned their money, sit down with them and divide it into three separate envelopes—saving, spending, and giving. That way, they get to learn about the uses for money while they're learning how to work! — Dave

As Safe as a Neighborhood Bank?

Dear Dave,
What are your thoughts about online banks? Are they as safe as traditional, neighborhood banks?
—Jeanna

Dear Jeanna,
Sure, if they're guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The FDIC is one of two agencies that provide deposit insurance to customers in America's depository institutions. The other is the National Credit Union Administration, or NCUA, which insures and regulates credit unions.

If you're seriously considering using an online bank, there are a few things I'd advise checking out before making the move. Look into the bank's track record, and see how long it has been open. Also, if the bank you're considering doesn't have a name-brand you recognize, find out the amount of its deposits.

Online banks don't worry me today like they did 10 years ago. And almost everyone does some form of online banking now, anyway. If the bank in question has a good reputation, and sufficient deposits to have some strength in its FDIC guarantee, I wouldn't worry about it.

Impeaching a President, High School Civics for Politicians

Harold Pease, Ph. D

Constitutional instructions for impeaching a president of the United States are very specific. Actually, reading the Constitution should easily put to rest the proposed impeachment of President Donald J. Trump. His enemies obviously have not done so.

Impeachment means tried by the U.S. Senate for "treason, bribery, or other high crimes and misdemeanors," whether found guilty and removed or acquitted and remain in office. It begins in the House of Representatives who formulate the alleged charges then passes to the Senate for trial.

In the case of Trump the Democrats called for his impeachment before he took the oath of office, before he made a single decision as president, or nominated a single cabinet member. Enemies began immediately searching for a crime. All other impeachment proceedings began first with a specific crime—Trump’s was being elected.

The “crime” for Andrew Johnson was his violation of the Tenure of Office Act which Congress had just passed requiring him to first get their permission before removing a cabinet member. To test the constitutionality of what is now common practice, Johnson fired Edward Stanton as Secretary of War. Johnson was accused by the House but spared conviction in the Senate. So, the impeached (tried) president remained in office.

Richard Nixon was never impeached because, although accused by the House, he was never tried by the Senate. He resigned the presidency before the charges of the House could be hand delivered to the Senate for trial. The “crime” hinged on his alleged cover up of the break-in of the Democratic Party national headquarters at Watergate. These would have included obstructing justice, abuse of power and contempt of Congress. But he was never tried, thus not impeached.

For Bill Clinton the “crime” was “high crimes and misdemeanors.” The specific charges were lying under oath (perjury), abuse of power, and obstruction of justice; charges that stemmed from a sexual harassment lawsuit filed against Clinton by Paula Jones. The senate did not come to the necessary 2/3 majority, so he was acquitted (Art I, Sec. 3, Cla. 6). Tried (impeached), like Johnson, but not removed from office.

Who formulates impeachment charges? The Constitution reads: “The House of Representatives ... shall have the sole Power of Impeachment,” (Art. I, Sec. 2, Cla. 5). The people placed him in power and their representatives—the House—alone initiates and formulates the charges for his possible removal. But formulating the charges does require a favorable vote of the FULL House.

Who tries the charges? “The Senate shall have the sole Power to try all Impeachments. When sitting for that Purpose, they shall be on Oath...” (to support the Constitution and tell the truth).

Who presides at the trial? “When the President of the United States is tried, the Chief Justice [presently John Roberts] shall preside.” (Ibid. Sec. 3, Cla. 6).

But a president can be removed for only four reasons. “The President... shall be removed from Office on Impeachment for, and Conviction of Treason, Bribery, or other High Crimes and Misdemeanors.” (Art. II Section 4). Can we remove a president we simply do not like? Only in the next election.

What are the charges against Trump? His enemies first tried treason, “he’s a Russian spy.” That failed! What about bribery? That’s hard when he gives to charity his monthly salary. Then collusion and obstruction of justice under “high crimes,” those failed too. How about adultery with Stormy Daniels and others? But that was before his election and John F. Kennedy and Bill Clinton did adultery as presidents in office, Clinton even with an intern in the Oval Office, and that was not enough to call for his office.

Adultery effectively erased less serious charges essentially removing from the Constitution misdemeanors as impeachable offenses.

Enemies then tried the 25th Amendment, containing a provision that allows for the forceful removal of a sitting president who cannot physically continue to serve. They tried, he’s crazy therefor unfit for office, Rod Rosenstein offering to wear a wire to entrap the president. They could not find a cabinet member to so state. About 15 different accusations, all backfired—even the The Mueller Report. For three years our hostile establishment and Democratic news outlets never let up. Within weeks, the Russian Hoax was replaced with the “Ukrainian Hoax” but the promised Quick Pro Quo could not be found. Still no impeachable offenses.

If the intelligence community went rogue with a coup to undo the 2016 presidential election, which we have documented in previous columns, it is Trump’s absolute duty to take this story to its original source, in the Ukraine in 2016, for complete exposure so it never happens again for any president of either party.

The Constitution requires it. “He shall take Care that the laws be faithfully executed” (Art.II, Sec. 4). As does his oath of office: “I do solemnly swear...that I will faithfully execute the Office of President of the United States, and will to the best of my Ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States” (Art. II, Sec. 1, Cla. 8).

So impeachment does not necessarily mean removal from office as Johnson and Clinton finished their terms. Nor will it for Trump. He will be acquitted for the same reason as Clinton—partisan politics—and likely will be reelected as no crime has been established.

Lancers Season Ends with Heartbreaking Loss Versus Valley

Story by James Darnell

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - With slightly more than three minutes remaining and nursing a five-point lead in their season finale versus Valley this past Friday, the Cordova Lancers' varsity football team was in position to end their season on a high note in front of their home crowd inside Lancers Stadium.

But in what seemed to be a microcosm of their season, the ball just didn't bounce their way as the Lancers fell 14-12 after a late collapse.

Following a fumble recovery by Lancers' senior running back/defensive lineman Kenny Brown, Cordova had the ball on the Vikings' 14-yard line with a chance to put the game out of reach. On third-and-nine from the eight yard-line however, a bad snap was recovered by Valley, giving the Vikings (4-6 overall, 3-1 Greater Sacramento League) hope with under two minutes to go. That was all they needed.

Nine plays later, Vikings' senior quarterback Isaiah Tongson lofted a screen pass to junior tailback Will Mapp, who sprinted into the endzone from 19 yards out. The extra point was the icing on the cake, as Cordova would not be able to counter with just 26.8 seconds left.

Following the game, Cordova head coach Jason Bumbaca spoke of the tough loss, and what ultimately was a tough season in his first year at the helm as the Lancers finished 1-9 overall, including a 1-3 record in the Greater Sacramento League.

"It's tough," Bumbaca said. "As a coach you don't want to have the record we do, but sometimes that happens. The ball bounces the wrong way. Nobody knows what goes on inside this program except for us, and we know what went on. The seniors are great guys, I love them, and they put the work in. A lot of them are going to be able to go play at the next level."

One of those seniors, senior all-purpose threat Brandon Gray, stole the show on Senior Night for the Lancers with a stellar second half performance. Gray entered the game at quarterback for senior quarterback Joey Estrada to start the second half after a scoreless first two quarters of play, and provided his team with both its scores in the fourth quarter. Gray would keep it himself from two yards out early in the quarter to score the first touchdown of the contest, and would follow that up with an 80-yard kick return following an ensuing Valley touchdown that gave the Vikings a 7-6 lead. Gray would put Cordova ahead briefly before the late score by Valley to end the game.

Gray finished the game with 13 carries for 112 yards and a touchdown on the ground, and tallied 32 yards passing on two completions to go along with the 80-yard kick return in a valiant effort that drew the praise of his coach.

"The young man is a dynamic player," Bumbaca said of Gray. "He's been our top athlete all year. The young man can do whatever he wants on the field. He's a wide receiver by trade, but he's just an all-around athlete."

After winning the Greater Sacramento League title and earning a postseason berth a year ago, the Lancers find themselves outside of the playoffs this season in what has been a learning year for coach and player alike. Even so, Bumbaca couldn't help but gush about his teams' effort this year.

"I told them I was proud of them," Bumbaca said of his message to the team following the game. "I'm proud of how far we've come, not only on the field but in the classroom. They've done a good job on campus of trying to be good student athletes. That's the ultimate goal." ★

Women's Soccer Can Only Tie at DVC

Story by Ron Richardson

In a match they were expecting to win, the Falcons came home from Diablo Valley on Friday night with a disappointing 1-1 tie. Freshman Michaela Clark scored the lone Falcon goal - her 22nd of the season - and Emma Thompson provided the assist, her state-leading 16th of the season, in the 20th minute of play to put Falcons ahead 1-0. The lead would last just 15 minutes, though, as the Vikings responded with the tying goal in the 35th minute. When the two teams met at FLC a month ago, the Falcons scored three second-half goals to win 4-1. This time there would be no second-half magic as both teams went scoreless over the final 55 minutes. The shocking tie (DVC is just 2-12-3) leaves the Falcons in 3rd place in the Big 8 at 8-3-2 (13-3-3 overall) with three games to play. They will host fourth-place American River (7-4-1) on Tuesday afternoon at 3:00 pm. ★

Volleyball Knocks Off Delta in 5 Sets

Story by Ron Richardson

The FLC volleyball team provided the lone bright spot of the weekend for Falcon Athletics with their 5-set upset win over Delta (previously tied for first in the Big 8 and ranked #5 in California), 25-18, 5-25, 17-25, 25-23, 15-11. The Mustangs had earlier swept the Falcons in three sets back on October 2. Despite the pitiful showing in the second set (5-25), the Falcons found a way to eek out a win in the fourth set, sending it to a deciding fifth. The result could have a significant impact on the chase for the Big 8 title with Delta now falling ½ game behind leader American River. Both teams must face Sierra as well as each other, so the title is still up for grabs. The Falcons, at 8-4, are on the outside looking in and will have to settle for fourth or possibly third. They will host Cosumnes River on Wednesday night at 6:30 pm. ★

Men's Soccer Loses in Final Minute

Story by Ron Richardson

The Falcons returned to Big 8 play on Friday with a match at Modesto, but may have been guilty of looking past the Pirates (1-4 in Big 8 play) as they eventually lost 1-0 on a final-minute goal. The loss was a stunner, considering the Falcons had dominated the Pirates in their previous meeting a month ago, 4-1.

This time, Modesto was ready and held the Falcons in check with a shutout. The only goal of the match came at the very end of regulation when Pirate freshman Saul Ruiz put the game winner in the net. The loss was the Falcons' first in Big 8 play this season and dropped them into a tie for 2nd place with Delta at 3-1-2. The two teams will meet on Tuesday night at Falcon Stadium at 6:00 pm. ★

Men's Basketball Loses Twice in Inaugural Falcon Classic Tournament

Freshman point guard Jaylen Solich had six assists and three steals against Columbia.

Story by Ron Richardson

The Falcons opened their 2019-20 season by hosting three other colleges for the inaugural Folsom Lake Falcon Classic Tournament on Friday and Saturday. Friday's matchup had the Falcons taking on Copper Mountain College (from Twentynine Palms/Joshua Tree), another young program also in their third year of competition. The lead changed hands several times throughout the first half with the visiting Fighting Cacti taking a 43-41 lead into the locker room at halftime. In the second half, the Cacti gradually pulled away to a 89-78 win. The Falcons finished with four players in double figures, led by freshman Pierce Rexford's 17 points. Sophomores Gavyn Kamminga and Grant Bellis and freshman Jaylen Solich all netted 11 in the loss. On Saturday, the Falcons took on Columbia College (Sonora), a winner over Cosumnes River on Friday afternoon. The Claim Jumpers built a solid first-half lead (57-41 at half), but the Falcons made a second-half run to pull within six before running out of steam, 94-81. Clayton Davis, Grant Bellis, and Pierce Rexford all scored 16 for the Falcons, while Michael Robinson led the team with 9 rebounds. The Falcons' next game will be on Friday night when they host Yuba College at 6:00 pm. ★

Rancho Cordova City Council Touches Tough Issues

By Shelly Lembke

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - The Monday night meeting of the Rancho Cordova City Council included presentations, public comment, some serious staff reports and tough topics.

The Community Enhancement Fund awarded monies to checks to the Mather Wrestling Club, Rancho Cordova HART (Homeless Assistance Resource Team), the FCUSD for musical instruments, the Sierra Service Project and PRO Youth and Families.

“The Mather Wrestling Club is a youth sports and fitness club providing an outlet for youth (girls and boys) between the ages 8 to 14. The club will offer the benefits of exercise in a controlled positive and fun environment during the summer months,” according to founder Coach Joe Zilles.

Rancho Cordova HART defines itself as, “a group of congregations, businesses and individuals who care about those in Rancho Cordova who are currently without a home. Together we aim to be a resource for the homeless and ultimately to end homelessness in Rancho Cordova.” The completely volunteer staff offer mentoring, storm season shelter assistance and other services to address and assist the homeless community.

Mills Middle School music teacher Beth Crandall who received funds for Rancho students said, “I am so excited that the City of Rancho Cordova and Cordova Community Council have generously given their support to Mills music students. Our music program is growing exponentially and giving middle schoolers an outlet for their boundless creativity and energy. With this grant, Mills will be able to provide our students with new instruments and ensure their continued musicianship at Mills, Cordova High School, and in the world beyond!”

The Sierra Service Project

offers home repair and improvement projects to low-income homeowners in Rancho Cordova, such as painting, fencing, yard clean ups and handicap ramps. PRO Youth and Families utilizes the tools of civic engagement, mentoring, advocacy, a youth leadership academy and more.

City Council also heard staff reports, a key report being the Year End Financial Report for the fiscal year 2018-2019. According to staff, the General Fund Revenues have had continued steady growth that was “unprecedented,” between Fiscal Years 2017/2018 and the Preliminary Report for 2018-2019, with a $4.6 million increase. The initial budget estimates had anticipated an economic slowdown, but growth and revenue continued in Rancho Cordova during this time.

Councilmembers also discussed the possibilities of federal and local legislation on the issue of banning or amending smoking restrictions, including vaping, tobacco and cannabis. The Council discussed at length instituting a city-wide ban on smoking in multi-family unit housing, with indicators that owners of such housing units were largely in support of such actions. ★

Transforming the Aging Experience

“I am so grateful that my father lives at Eskaton. The staff are very friendly and caring; always aware of the needs and feelings of the residents. The food is great and the community is beautiful. It certainly deserves 5 stars.”
