A Festival of Flowers

By Patrick Larenas

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento Telangana Association celebrated Bathukamma, the annual rain Festival of Flowers for women from the Indian state of Telangana, on October 5, with community leaders and the City of Rancho Cordova City Council providing a donation from the Community Enhancement Fund to the association.

Drawing inspiration from India's histories, religious anecdotes and cultural symbols, this Hindu festival elevates women and the feminine aspects of spirituality, life and character. Showcasing stories of women defying emperors, slaying oppressors and evading rape and abduction, the festival depicts empowered women as well as the history of subjugation of numerous reigns and empires.

It is believed that the Flower Festival originated from the area of what is now the state of Telangana, which is located in a semi-arid portion of the Deccan Plateau in the subcontinent. Because of its drier

Since Laura's hiring in 2013, she has been praised by community members, colleagues and professional associations alike. General Manager Patrick Larkin, who oversees District operations, felt they "hit the jackpot," with Laura, a certified landscape architect in three states with a vision for future improvements. Not only was she vital in the Nexus Study, Capital Improvement Plan and County-Wide Fee Initiative for CRPD, Laura took

Senator Nielsen Applauds Crackdown on Vaping

By Nghia Nguyen

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Governor Gavin Newsom issued an Executive Order to develop recommendations to remove illegal and counterfeit vaping products from stores, direct a public awareness campaign, develop recommendations to place warning signs and impose stricter age verification requirements.

Senator Jim Nielsen said, "Nicotine negatively affects teenagers' development - emotionally, behaviorally and physically. Protecting our youth is a bipartisan issue, and policy makers must do what we can to safeguard them."

Parents across the nation are seeing their otherwise healthy children suffer from popcorn lungs, chronic coughing and other ailments. Some have gone to hospitals, where they are in medically induced comas.

Upon witnessing this growing epidemic, concerned parents have educated themselves so they can raise public awareness. ★

You Want To Do What!?

Commentary
by Sal Arrigo, Jr.

"I am thinking of ending my life using one of the end-of-life laws."

In order to make some distinction, the definition of euthanasia states that a doctor is allowed by law to end a person's life by a painless means, as long as the patient and their family agree. The definition of assisted suicide is that a doctor assists a patient to actually commit suicide if they request it.

Eight states and the District of Columbia have enacted legislation that allows people to choose death over life. Death with dignity statutes allow mentally competent adult state residents who have a terminal illness with a confirmed prognosis of having six or fewer months remaining, to voluntarily request and receive a prescription medication to hasten their inevitable, imminent death. By adding a voluntary option to the continuum of end-of-life care, these laws give patients dignity, control, and peace of mind during their final days with family and loved ones.

In order to write this article, I had to ask people this hypothetical question: "what advice would you give if someone that was close to you said they were considering assisted suicide as a means to take away their pain?" To clarify my question - if a person decided there was no hope for recovery from a health condition, and the only alternative they feel open to them is death, how would you respond?

I asked Casey Robinson,

Human beings have trouble making decisions on a daily basis. Some may decide that ending their life through assisted suicide is no "big deal" and can make the decision quickly. For many others, I am betting this decision may be the toughest of all!

a longtime friend this question. He said, "I would ask if they have discussed this with their doctor and the most trusted and loved people in their lives. If they have and they still feel compelled, I would support their decision. Offer empathy." Another friend, Michael Rubash, said, "this is a tough question. I would ask if they had to live their lives in a hospital connected to tubes, would they wish to consider another option?" The option Michael was referring to was assisted suicide.

As with any highly emotional subject, there are plenty of opinions. For instance, what are the attitudes of the religious community? I recently read an article published by the Pew Research Center, titled, "Religious Groups Views on End of Life Issues." Although it is several years old, the views have not changed. The Roman Catholic Church strongly opposes physician-assisted suicide and euthanasia. The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) opposes physician-assisted suicide and other efforts by medical professionals to speed a patient's death.

In 1991, the Episcopal Church passed a resolution against assisted suicide and other forms of active euthanasia, stating that it is "morally wrong and unacceptable to take a human life in order to relieve the suffering caused by incurable illness.”

I admit, it was a rather involved decision on my part to write this article as during my research I had to ask myself this question, "where is our nation heading regarding the right to die?" All too often, people witness miracles that defy all science, politics, and rational thought. I personally know of people who were given six months or less to live and they wound up living for years after their diagnosis. This is why there are so many decisions to make if you decide to end your own life through the assisted suicide option.

As for opinions representing the opposite viewpoints, there are agencies that are ready and willing to provide information to help you make the decision to end your life legally. Two examples are, the Compassion & Choices organization (formerly known as the Hemlock Society) and the Death with Dignity National Center.

Barbara Gillogly, Ph.D., a Developmental Psychologist and licensed Family Therapist, shared her thoughts: "For those who have a terminal diagnosis and wish to exercise control over how and when to leave this world, assisted suicide is a viable option. Someone else's beliefs should not be imposed to limit the rights of others."

If you live in one of the states that has a version of end-of-life legislation and you are determined to seek options to end your life; you must understand all of the ramifications that the laws allows. All of the laws have a process that you must abide by in order for the assisted suicide to be legal. Your decision will be monumental. You and all those who will be affected by your decision need to be well-educated. According to the Death with Dignity organization, the following states have end-of-life legislation:

California (End of Life Option Act; approved in 2015, in effect from 2016); Colorado (End of Life Options Act; 2016); District of Columbia (D.C. Death with Dignity Act; 2016/2017); Hawaii (Our Care, Our Choice Act; 2018/2019); Maine (Death with Dignity Act; 2019); New Jersey (Aid in Dying for the Terminally Ill Act; 2019); Oregon (Death with Dignity Act; 1994/1997); Vermont (Patient Choice and Control at the End of Life Act; 2013); and Washington (Death with Dignity Act; 2008).

Montana does not have a death with dignity statute; however, the end-of-life option is legal in the state through a Montana Supreme Court ruling.

Human beings have trouble making decisions on a daily basis. Some may decide that ending their life through assisted suicide is no “big deal” and can make the decision quickly. For many others, I am betting this decision may be the toughest of all!

Rancho Cordova/Gold River Soroptimist Club Turns 10 Years Old

By Sheryl Longworth, Soroptimist International of Rancho Cordova & Gold River

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - The Soroptimist Int’l of Rancho Cordova & Gold River club was chartered in August, 2009. On August 10, 2019 it celebrated its 10th birthday. Approximately 35 guests attended the celebration including several former club members, Soroptimist district and regional leaders, County Supervisor Don Nottoli, City Councilmember Garrett Gatewood and a representative from Assemblyman Ken Cooley’s office. Assemblyman Cooley’s representative presented club president, Sheryl Longworth with a Certificate of Recognition from the California State Assembly.

Since the club’s inception ten years ago, it has made tremendous, measurable impact on Rancho Cordova and the world. Here are some of those statistics:

Almost 250 homeless teen girls in the Folsom Cordova school district, are now passing their P.E. classes because they are no longer ashamed to change into their P.E. uniforms, allowing their peers to see their beautiful new undergarments and are doing better in school in general, because of their higher self-esteem and confidence, due to the new bras and panties the club bought for them, over the last 8 years;

Homeless San Juan USD students are getting some of their needs met through the club’s $500 Walmart gift card donation to the San Juan USD McKinney-Vento

Community Liaison;

Over 1225 domestic violence survivors, over the last 9 years, feel more normal and loved because they received one of our Comfort Kits;

Over 325 children of domestic violence survivors, over the last 5 years, also “felt the love” and are also able to restart their young lives with their very own Comfort Kid kit;

Approximately 100 girls per year, since 2014, stayed in school, because 15-30 minutes of using a heating pad, that we provided to the school nurses at both Cordova and Kinney High schools, relieved their menstrual pain enough so they could return to class, rather than be sent home for the day. That’s 500 girls!

Raised enough money to buy 40 Solar Cookers for families fleeing the genocide in the Sudan;

Over 750 girls won’t be a target of traffickers due to the hundreds of Dress a Girl Around the World dresses that we helped make between 2015 and 2016.

We would love you to be a part of our club’s success; to continue existing programs, like the ones described above, as well as offer even more programs. We need your help! Please email siranchocordova@soroptimist.net or call club president, Sheryl Longworth at 916-833-1218.

Soroptimist is an international 501(c) 3 non-profit organization that seeks to improve the lives of women and girls through programs leading to social and economic empowerment. The name, Soroptimist, means “best for women” and that’s what the organization strives to achieve. Soroptimists are people at their best, working to help other women to be their best. Please send an email to siranchocordova@soroptimist.net to receive more information about Soroptimist International of Rancho Cordova & Gold River, how to become a member, or just learn how you can volunteer with our club members or visit <http://www.soroptimistranchocordova.org/>.

I haven't met anyone yet who didn't enjoy themselves at the California Capital Airshow this past weekend. There were many volunteers who handed out the "official program" that told the story of our 14th annual Airshow. Before the show began, my wife and I were able to join some of the Airshow officials as we went out on the runway and welcomed the U.S. Navy Blue Angels. It felt great to be able to meet them on the runway again because Council Member Linda Budge and I met them on the runway 13 years ago. The Blue Angels came and gave our audience a great show at our first Airshow. When we met the pilots and welcomed them to Rancho Cordova and our Airshow, they said they had never received a welcome from elected officials before. We simply said that's the way the City of Rancho Cordova operates. We welcome all who come to our wonderful city. The Airshow was great!

The Mayor's Corner

We welcome all who come to our wonderful city

Something that I will add about the Airshow is how it helps educate our youth, and sometimes without them knowing about it. D-Day, for instance, was part of the show and allowed them to see a part of history. History can be exciting and fast, almost like a novel. A novel that can wrap its unbelievable stories about heroes around your mind. D-Day is celebrating its 75th Anniversary this year. Part of the program spelled out what it is all about reading, "On this 75th anniversary of D-Day, the California Capital Airshow highlights the bravery and complexity of this vital battle of World War II along with the war effort that was underway at Mather Field. In the air and on the ground, we will feature historical information and artifacts, vehicles, equipment, uniforms, arms and some of the aircraft that played such a key role in the invasion. This includes the venerable C-47 troop carriers from which paratroopers 'hit the silk,' as well as the bombers and fighters that were overhead to prepare the landing sites for the sea-borne troops that would follow. Join us for this moving tribute to the heroism and bravery of the warriors that secured this vital victory for the Allies in World War II, as well as the selfless efforts in the 'home front' to help achieve victory." As I said, history, especially this part of the story, can grab your heart and emotions because that was achieved by the Greatest Generation. Moving on to something a little lighter, the first part of this year seemed to me to be slower than last year, but now it really feels like time has been winding up and going faster and faster. I mean, think of it. Here we are halfway through the month of October, and it seems like this part of the year is going quicker than the rest. Speaking of October, Mark Twain said, "October: This is one of the peculiarly dangerous months to speculate in stocks. The others are July, January, September, April, November, May, March, June, December, August and February." I think what he said still holds true about the stock market. It fits perfectly with Halloween, "Trick or Treat!" Don't depend on it completely because you never know where it will leave you tomorrow. From Mayor Bob McGarvey, God bless, and see you next time. ★

MEMORIAL NOTICE

Craig Gilbert Zueger

December 18th, 1957 to September 14th, 2019

Craig Gilbert Zueger, A.K.A. "Outlaw Grandpa", "Mr. Mom", "Zueg", and "Zig", died peacefully at the age of 61 in his home in Elko, Nevada the evening of September 14th, 2019. Craig was born to Gilbert and Sharon Zueger in Jackson, California on December 18th, 1957. Craig loved the outdoors and had always planned to hit big gold panning. He loved fly fishing and telling fish tales to his brothers. Craig had a huge heart and was very kind and generous. He could always make jokes of the little things in life and loved a good laugh. Craig grew up in Rancho Cordova where he is well known for his accomplishments in football and wrestling. He moved to Houston, Texas where he worked construction and had his first daughter. He then moved back to California to be near family and had his other 2 daughters. In the early 1990's he moved his family to Northern Idaho, to be near his parents where he was a stay at home dad to his 3 girls. His proudest, happiest moments were anytime spent with his kids. Eventually, he moved to be near his daughters and grandchildren, in Colorado, and finally in Elko, Nevada, where he was also a member of the Knights of Columbus at St. Josephs Catholic Church. Craig is preceded in death by his brother Joel. He is survived by his parents, siblings Karen, Eric and Scott, his 3 daughters, Marcina, Zara and Savoie and his 6 grandchildren. A funeral service will be held at St. John Vianney Catholic Church in Rancho Cordova on November, 4th at 11:00 AM.

Volunteers Needed to Help Kids Read

By Kristin Thébaud,
Kristin Thébaud Communications

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Local residents age 50 and up are needed this fall to help kids in kindergarten through third grade improve their reading through AARP Experience Corps, managed locally by United Way California Capital Region. To learn more and sign up to volunteer, visit YourLocalUnitedWay.org/Experience-Corps-Literacy-Program.

“Kids who are not reading at grade level by fourth grade are more likely to fall behind in all subjects, including math and science, making them less likely to graduate from high school,” said Stephanie Bray, president and CEO, United Way California Capital Region. “This corps of volunteers is essential to ensuring our community’s kids are successful.”

Volunteers serve at local schools approximately two days per week for two to three hours a day throughout the school year, tutoring and tracking progress for groups of two to three students for the year. Volunteers meet monthly to share best practices and receive literacy and classroom management experience. They receive training to become mentors and role models and to hone their skills to help students reach their reading goals.

Last year, United Way’s AARP Experience Corps helped 415 students with reading – 62 percent of those who were reading below grade level improved their reading and literary performance. In 2018, program participant Robla School District reported more students meeting and exceeding standards in English Language Arts compared to 2017 – the rate of annual increase was three times higher than state and county averages.

“The results are encouraging and worth the work,” said Experience Corps volunteer Mary Ann Rider. “I never felt like I was cut out to be a teacher, but I felt prepared by the curriculum I had learned in our training. Plus getting to know the kids is fun. If you’re looking for volunteer work, what’s more important than helping a child learn to read?”

United Way California Capital Region is one of only seven nonprofits across the country helping to grow Experience Corps, the evidence-based AARP Foundation literacy program that improves the reading skills of children, enriches the lives of volunteer tutors and strengthens schools in local communities.

For nearly 100 years, United Way California Capital Region has brought local people together to make community change happen. Today, the nonprofit is bringing people together across Amador, El Dorado, Sacramento, Placer and Yolo counties for its Square One Project, a 20-year promise to significantly increase the number of students in our region who graduate from high school ready for success in college and beyond. United Way believes ending poverty starts in school and is working to ensure kids meet important milestones and their families receive support and resources. # NASCAR Comes to Town

Carmichael's Andrew Peeler to race in the Super Stocks

By Steven Blakesley,
Blakesley Sports Media

ROSEVILLE, CA (MPG) - One of the largest motor-sports events in Northern California returns for the 21st appearance of the NASCAR K&N Pro Series, West in Roseville, when the NAPA Auto Parts/ENEOS 150 roars into the All American Speedway on October 12th. Exciting, door-pounding NASCAR short track racing comes to the one-third mile with the only national televised racing event in Placer County.

$3 from every ticket sold will support the California Peace Officers Memorial Foundation. The hottest ticket of the year also supports the Placer Breast Cancer Foundation with over $100,000 raised in event history.

Joining the NAPA Auto Parts/ENEOS 150 will be the championship finales for the NASCAR-sanctioned Late Models, Modifieds, Super Stocks, and F4s, plus racing for Jr. Late Models, Mini Cups vs. Bandoleros, and Legends of the Pacific. All told, eight main events and over 350 laps of competition are scheduled for over $100,000 in cash and prizes.

The NASCAR K&N Pro Series, West is the highest developmental level of NASCAR on the West Coast and has been competing since 1954. Some of NASCAR's top drivers, including Cup Series champions Kevin Harvick and Joey Logano, started their racing careers in the K&N Series. Elk Grove's

Kyle Larson and Grass Valley's Matt DiBenedetto are among the Northern California-based racers who were propelled up the ladder thanks in large part to the series.

A strong batch of NASCAR hopefuls will be competing, and it includes a pair of 18 year-olds. Championship points leader Derek Kraus of Stratford, Wisconsin and third in points Hailie Deegan of Temecula, California have taken the stock car world by storm. Kraus has nine career victories, while Deegan – the only female driver to win in the K&N Series – has three wins.

Trevor Huddleston and Washington's Brittney Zamora round out the top-five in the championship.

Roseville's NAPA Auto Parts/ENEOS 150 will mark the 12th round in the 14-race championship for 2019. Also in action will be the first NASCAR championships in Roseville in several years as part of the NASCAR Home Tracks program. Cameron Park's Jason Romero has clinched the Late Model title, while battles continue in the other divisions. Points leaders include Loomis' Nick Lyons in the Modifieds, Carmichael's Andrew Peeler in the Super Stocks, and Roseville's Ray Molina in F4s.

Mini Cups vs. Bandoleros are in a dead heat between Fort Bragg's Trey Daniels and Loomis' Kenna Mitchell. Smartsville's Brody Armtrout leads the Jr. Late Model competition. The Legends of the Pacific touring series makes their second stop of the season after Nick Halen scored the win in August.

Tickets are on sale in advance by visiting www.AllAmericanSpeedway.com or visiting the track ticket office at 900 Riverside Blvd in Roseville. The office is open from 9 am to 4 pm

Monday through Friday.

General Admission tickets are $35 for adults, $25 for kids ages 6-12, and $30 for Military, First Responders, and Seniors ages 65 and older. Kids five and under are free. A VIP experience is available which includes a free gift, BBQ dinner, VIP pit tour, driver meet and greet, and much more. VIP tickets are $60 for adults and $50 for kids ages 6-12. Gates open at 4pm with the first of the local NASCAR main events starting immediately afterwards.

Additional details are available by calling the track info line at (916) 786-2025. All American Speedway is located at 800 All America City Blvd in Roseville. ★

CHEERS & JEERS

By Damian Holbrook

Cheers to The Unicorn

for being a horse of a different color for Walton Goggins. So good at playing dark (Justified's Boyd Crowder and Six's Rip Taggart) and demented (Vice Principals' weird Lee Russell), the actor (pictured) is unexpectedly and refreshingly lovable as a widowed dad in CBS's heartfelt new comedy.

Cheers to Emergence for emerging as the new Lost. Between the mysterious plane crash, the kid with possible powers (Alexa Swinton), those shady folks who are after her and a guest arc by an ex-castaway, you can't help flashing back to ABC's prior sci-fi thriller. Toss in the fabulous Allison Tolman as the police chief trying to figure it all out and we're all in.

for that 9021-cwww moment. As much as we adored the so-meta limited series that brought the Peach Pit posse together again, the season finale freaked us out with a dream sequence that saw onscreen siblings Shannen Doherty and Jason Priestley in bed and about to kiss!

Jeers to NBC's Grim Weepers

During the first official week of the new fall season, tears were flowing all over the network as Chicago Med offed

Walton Goggins the actor (pictured) is unexpectedly and refreshingly lovable as a widowed dad in CBS's heartfelt new comedy. Ava (Norma Kuhling), Chicago Fire's Otis (Yuri Sardarov) died following a mattress-factory fire and New Amsterdam revealed that Max (Ryan Eggold, pictured) had lost his wife in last May's cliffhanger ambulance crash. Guess death really does come in threes! ★

Will They Fix Dancing With The Stars Voting?

Question: Dancing with the Stars excludes the West Coast from voting. Why should I watch a show that totally dismisses us viewers? As for the new set, the focus should be on the dancers, not a bunch of glitz. – Ricki, Oregon

Matt Roush: But where would Dancing with the Stars be without glitz? That said, you have a legitimate complaint. It does seem counter-intuitive for a competition show based on audience participation to exclude such a large portion of the American public. Although reading the fine print in ABC's press releases, live voting on Mondays is available to fans in all time zones during the 8-10 pm/ET hours (via abc.com, the ABC app and SMS/text). So theoretically, you could vote for a favorite team – from the week before, not the live show, obviously – during those hours (5-7 pm PT), although your vote won't be responding to what's happening live, unless you're watching from a satellite. Dancing also promises to announce a "big format change in voting" so we'll see what that's all about.

Question: I streamed Yellowstone season 1. Now I have to pay Paramount? – Marci

Matt Roush: Last I looked, both seasons were available for replay on Paramount Network's website. You do have to register, though.

The Problem With Impeachment

Impeachment is about to make everything worse. If our politics seems overheated, our institutions beleaguered and our public debate degraded, just wait until we are in the midst of the impeachment debate. Democrats have had an impeachment itch that they've been desperate to scratch ever since Donald Trump took office. For them, Ukraine is equal parts a genuine outrage and an excuse, the release valve for nearly three years of fear and loathing. Rather than conducting himself as if he's aware that a hysterical opposition is eager to impeach him, Trump has embraced constant provocation. He has shown little interest in distinguishing between himself and the high office that he holds. Although we need to learn more, there's clearly an impropriety in his handling of Ukraine. Enough to impeach and remove him? Presidential-level diplomacy always involves horse-trading, and it, surely, is not the first time a president has prodded an ally to do him a favor in his political interest. The risk of Trump's heavy-handed request -- an aid package to Ukraine was being held up at the time -- was that the Ukrainians would have felt compelled to manufacture damaging information on the Bidens. That didn't happen, and the aid, thanks to congressional pressure, was released in short order. So far as we know, Ukraine lacks the hallmarks of other presidential scandals. There's been no cover-up. Trying to keep a transcript of a presidential call from leaking doesn't qualify. And once the controversy became public, the White House rapidly released key documents. Nor is there any violation of law. Trump's ask of Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky wasn't extortion or a campaign-finance violation under any rational interpretation of our statutes. If it was, practically every president in our history would have had criminal exposure. Unless there's a thermonuclear revelation, impeachment will be an exercise in futility, inevitably ending with Trump's Senate acquittal. GOP senators, by and large, are going to end up where their voters are. You can't expect Republicans to be told, falsely, for two and a half years straight that some conspiracy with the Russians was going to be uncovered imminently and then accept at face value a five-alarm interpretation of Ukraine. Democrats can point to the predicate of the Clinton impeachment. Although if Trump had flagrantly and repeatedly perjured himself, he'd have been impeached long ago. The lesson from the 1990s is, Yes, you can impeach in the absence of any real hope of convicting in the Senate, but it's a lot of trouble to go through for basically a censure vote. If Trump were for some reason actually removed on anything like the current unlikelihood of possible evidence, it would create a crisis of legitimacy at the heart of our government. Think of what the U.K. is going through with Brexit, only worse. Ten of millions of Trump voters would feel cheated and disenfranchised, and the roiling populism that Trump has tapped into would get stronger, not dissipate. Congress has shown before that it's possible to conduct a big, news-dominating investigation without impeachment proceedings; it's what it did during the Iran-Contra hearings in Ronald Reagan's second term. But impeachment is the verdict that Democrats have always wanted, and any offense will do. Rich Lowry is editor of the National Review. (c) 2019 by King Features Synd., Inc.

Live Like Your Income Hasn't Changed

Dear Dave, I'll be graduating from college in December, and I'll have a job waiting for me that pays $50,000 a year. This will bring our household income up to about $95,000. The problem is we've got $18,000 in student loan debt, $2,500 in credit card debt, and $4,000 to pay in medical bills. We're living in an apartment right now, so how should we handle this income increase regarding our debt situation? -Mikayla

Dear Mikayla, Congratulations on your decision to get control of

your finances and your degree! If you two just keep living the way you have been, minus the debt, and put the rest toward the debt you've incurred, you could be debt-free in a year or so. Remember, just because you've got a lot more money coming in doesn't mean you should double your entertainment budget, take an expensive vacation, or run out and buy a new car. The first thing I'd recommend is sitting down together, and working out a written, monthly budget. Give every dollar a name and a job to do before the coming month begins. Don't forget the debt snowball, either! List all your debts from smallest to largest, and attack the smallest—that credit card debt—first with a vengeance, while making minimum payments on the medical bills and student loan debt. Once you've paid off the credit card debt, roll the money from that payment over and apply it, plus any other cash you can scrape together, toward the medical bills. Once the medical bills are out of the way, repeat the process and roll the payments over again targeting the student loan debt. At this point, you should have a bunch of cash to throw at those student loans each month until all that debt is off your backs once and for all. I'm really proud of you two, Mikayla. If you'll follow my plan from here on out, you'll gain control of your money and be set to start saving and building real wealth! -Dave

Soccer Teams Both Win, Remain Undefeated

Men’s Soccer

Story by Ron Richardson

When the Modesto Pirates and Folsom Lake Falcons met at Falcon Stadium on Tuesday afternoon, the two teams’ combined records had a total of one loss. But that would change after

90 minutes of intense play as the Falcons broke open a close match with three second-half goals on their way to a convincing 4-1 victory. Kameron Kascht scored the only goal of the first half with a nifty move in the 27th minute, then added another goal ten minutes after the Pirates had tied the score 1-1 early in the second half. Sophomore defender Jamison Waugh bolstered the Falcon lead less than a minute later to make it 3-1. The Falcon scoring surge continued four minutes later (70:00) when sophomore defender Dylan Huft bent a long shot just inside the top corner from 35 yards out. With the win, the Falcons improved to 6-0-4 and 1-0-1 in Big 8 Conference play while the Pirates fell to 6-2-1 and 0-2. The Falcons will play at American River (5-3-2, 1-1 in Big 8) on Friday evening at 6:00 pm following the Falcons/ American River women’s match. ★

Women’s Soccer

Story by Ron Richardson

On paper, Tuesday evening’s match between Diablo Valley (1-6-1) and Folsom Lake (8-0-2 at the time) looked like a lopsided affair. But the Vikings arrived in Folsom with a competitive mindset and gave the home team a test for almost 60 minutes before the Falcons pulled away to win, 4-0. Michaela Clark scored the first of her three Falcon goals – her second ‘Hat Trick’ of the season – right before half-time to give the Falcons a 1-0 lead at the break. She added two more in the first 15 minutes of the second half, then got an assist on Emily Doty’s goal in the 70th minute. Clark is now the 4th leading scorer in the state with 11 goals, and also #4 in points (goals plus assists) with 27. The Falcons improved to 9-0-2 and are tied for first place in the Big 8 with Delta at 4-0-1. They will play at American River (currently tied for 3rd in the Big 8 at 3-1) on Friday afternoon at 4:00 pm. ★

Part two of the cross-town doubleheader was a thriller from the opening kick all the way until the final goal was scored to end play, with the visiting Falcons ecstatic to escape with a 4-3 victory over the Beavers. The teams traded goals midway through the first half, with freshman Kameron Kascht scoring an unassisted goal for the Falcons to tie the score at 1-1. Neither team would score again in the first half, but the Beavers grabbed the lead early in the second half with a long shot that just cleared the reach of Falcon goalkeeper Armin Salimi. The Falcons immediately responded with another Kascht goal - this one assisted by Ricky Miranda – to tie the score at 2-2. When Kascht added his third goal of the night – his first Hat Trick as a Falcon - with just 10 minutes to play, it looked like the Falcons were on their way to a 3-2 victory. As the clock hit the 90 minute mark, the referee indicated there would be 3+ minutes of stoppage time yet to play. The Beavers then made good use of the time, scoring the tying goal in the 91st minute and erupting in joy over what looked like a tie. As the clock continued to wind down and no one sure of exactly how much time remained, the Falcons earned a corner kick. Ricky Miranda sent the ball high towards the goal area, where sophomore teammate Pablo Herrera leapt and headed the ball into the net. At that very instant, the referee blew his whistle to indicate the end of the match, a miraculous 4-3 Falcon win. “That was the most entertaining match I’ve ever seen,” remarked Falcon coach Justin Johnson. “The emotional swings – from a win, to a tie, to a win – were crazy.” The Falcons, now 7-0-4 and tied for 2nd in the Big 8 at 2-0-1, will host Cosumnes River (0-7-3, 0-3 in Big 8) on Tuesday evening at 6:30 pm. ★

Falcons OWN the Weekend

Women's Volleyball

Story by Ron Richardson

The Falcons’ first match on Saturday - with state #1 Feather River - lost a bit of its luster when Cabrillo opened the tournament with a narrow 5-set upset win over the Eagles. Playing Feather River in the next match, the Falcons, to their credit, showed no compassion for their opponent, winning in straight sets 25-15, 25-21, 25-21. With the offense hitting on all cylinders, the Falcons were nearly unstoppable. It was a marked difference from their home loss on Wednesday night when they fell in 4 sets to Sierra; middle hitters Yasmine Sowell-Scott and Jessica Baker, outside hitters Julin Kenison, Kaitlin Bullock, and Caitlin Dillon, and setters Kennedy Crawford and Taylor Coate all fueled an offense that could not be stopped. With libero Madi Pearce digging everything in sight, the Falcons played with a confidence that had not been seen in 2019. Immediately following their upset win over Feather River, the Falcons faced a rested Cabrillo squad in their own gym and left little doubt about who was the tournament champion, winning in 4 sets, 25-15, 22-25, 25-21, 25-21. Again, this hardly resembled the team that looked so discombobulated during the week. “I am just so proud of the work this team did over the past few days recovering from some hard losses,” noted head coach Molly Hanrahan. “It was super fun to watch, just exhilarating!” The Falcons (11-3, 3-2 in Big 8) will now refocus on the Big 8 schedule as they host Diablo Valley (0-13, 0-5 in Big 8) on Wednesday night before taking on Sac City (7-10, 1-3) on Friday night in Sacramento. ★

Lancers Cross Country Coming Together This Season

Story by James Darnell

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - The Cordova Lancers’ varsity cross country team has parlayed a summer of dedication and intense workouts in the summer heat, into a steady and consistent string of performances during this fall season.

In their first Greater Sacramento League meet on September 25, in Natomas, the Lancers’ boys team finished third with a team score of 70 points in the 5,000 meters. Senior Gavin Sullivan and junior Richard Kozhokar each finished with identical times of 19:49, good for a tie for 8th place in the event. On the girls’ side, junior Michaela Laret finished in first place among all runners in the girls 5,000 meters with a stellar time of 23:37. Senior Temara Fletcher finished in fifth place with a solid run of 25:17. “It was an extremely hot that day, so I was happy with how they did,” Lancers’ head coach Josh Gruver said. “We actually ran on concrete asphalt the entire way, so it wasn’t trails or anything like that. So, the kids kind of got toasted that day. But overall it was fine. It was a good start to see how the league was like.” Overall, West Campus took first place in both the girls and boys events. On the girls' side, West Campus sat atop with a score of 26, and tallied a 23 on the boys’ side. Cordova finished third on the boys’ side with a team score of 70, with the Lady Lancers finishing in second place as they accumulated 31 points. Cordova took place in their second Greater Sacramento League meet this past Wednesday as they hosted the event at Cordova Stadium, however, scores were unavailable at the time of printing. Overall, Gruver has been happy with his team this fall, and is encouraged by the camaraderie his team has shown. “We’ve seen some positive results,” Gruver said. “The kids have come together as a group with a sense of community. Everybody is running together but also taking care of each other, and making sure they’re all running fast times. All that good stuff.” The Lancers will continue to run hard when they compete at the Bella Vista Bronco XC Invitational at Johnson Springview Park in Rocklin, CA on Saturday, October 19. ★

Lancers' Late Comeback Attempt Falls Short Against Johnson

Story by James Darnell

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - The Cordova Lancers' varsity football team fell 28-20 to visiting Hiram Johnson this past Friday at home. But as it has been during each of their losses this season, it certainly wasn't for lack of effort.

Trailing by 16 points with under six minutes to go in their Greater Sacramento League opener, the Lancers (0-7 overall, 0-1 Greater Sacramento League) found themselves with their backs against the wall on their own 10-yard line.

Then, as they've done all season long, they continued to battle.

Senior quarterback Joey Estrada tossed a high-arching ball down the left sideline to junior wideout James Feao, who snatched it out of the air around the 50-yard line and outran the nearest defender to the endzone en route to a 90-yard scoring play that ignited both the Cordova sideline and fans alike. Estrada would hit senior tailback Brandon Gray on the two-point conversion attempt thereafter, closing the gap to just eight points. But the late rally would prove to be too little, too late.

Cordova would force the Warriors (4-2 overall, 1-0 Greater Sacramento League) into a 4th-and-9 situation on their ensuing drive from Johnson's 47-yard line, with a chance to get the big stop they needed. But that's when the bubble would burst for Cordova, as the Warriors picked up 17 yards on a pass play from senior quarterback Isaac Walker. A few plays, later Johnson would take a knee and secure the win.

"It's a punch in the mouth," Lancers' head coach Jason Bumbaca said of the loss. "I'm hoping these guys are going to rally. We're going to try to rally them and get them going the best we can. It's not over."

Along with the two-point conversion, Gray scored the games' opening points in the first quarter on a 21-yard scamper for Cordova. Estrada tossed two touchdowns on the night for Cordova, with his first going to junior Tavion Dominguez late in the third quarter in addition to his strike to Feao.

The hard-fought contest wasn't without a good amount of fanfare. At halftime, alumni covering a span of 50 years took part in the Homecoming King/Queen ceremony, providing transportation around the track in an array of jaw-dropping automobiles.

Now within league play, every game counts as Cordova looks to defend their Greater Sacramento league title. Having started out the season with an 0-6 record, the Lancers were hoping league play would provide the clean slate they needed. With just three league games remaining as they travel to Florin for a 7:00 p.m. game this Friday, the Lancers know everything they do is crucial.

"This league is still open, any team can beat any team," Bumbaca said. "We still have a shot to win the league. We just have to go out and take care of business the next three weeks."
